

RHODES UNIVERSITY

Where leaders learn

Conference Manager, Residential Operations Division, P O Box 94, Grahamstown 6140.
Tel: +27 46 603 8772/8901/8607/8138 ● Fax: +27 (0)46 603 8962 ● E-Mail: conference@ru.ac.za
<http://www.ru.ac.za/conferences>

Stay in South Africa's most beautiful university residences for affordable and vibrant accommodation.

"We had the best experience with all staff and stay!" "Good accommodation, well equipped and well organized" (2011)

"We would like to compliment you on the high standard of accommodation & facilities made available to us during the Festival and the efficiency and pleasantness of your staff on duty at the front desk when we arrived to check in. We were very comfortable and were most impressed. We look forward to staying with you in the future." (2009)

RESIDENCE

- All guests are hosted by a team of committed hand-picked sub wardens, who are trained to assist guests, and make everyone's stay as pleasant as possible
- Accommodation is provided in student residences and designed to accommodate the student lifestyle, i.e. rooms comprise furniture suitable for student needs at University
- Almost all accommodation is in single rooms. A few twin-bedded rooms are available in some of the residences.
- Bathing, showering and toilet facilities, with hot water, are available in shared bathrooms. Most rooms include hand basins.
- Bedding is provided. This comprises a covered duvet and blanket (where required), fitted bottom sheet and two pillows. Additional blankets are available on request
- Catering: A buffet breakfast is served in a nearby dining hall.
- Public telephones are available. Porters are not.
- Towels and soap are provided.
- Shaving plugs and double adapters are not available.
- Rooms are serviced daily, unless requested otherwise.
- Tea/coffee is available every evening, on a self-service basis in the common room/lounge within each residence.
- Every residence has its own 'common room' /lounge where guests are welcome to watch television, (including DSTV), read a book or meet like-minded guests
- Animals are not permitted in the residences.

Arrivals and Departures

Visitors may book into a residence any time after 14:00 on the day of arrival.

Guests are requested to sign out before 10:00 on the day of departure.

Guests are required to abide by the rules of the residence to which they have been booked. In addition guests are expected to observe the code of conduct and respect other occupants of the residences. (The code of conduct is available in all residences and the University Conference Office).