

GUY BUTLER RESEARCH AWARD 2017

Rhodes University invites all students with a strong academic record (grades 70% and above) who intend pursuing full-time Postgraduate studies in 2017, to apply for the Guy Butler Research Award.

Closing date: 3 October 2016

Honours, Masters or PHD : Applicants must pursue research in one of the following fields: English Language, English Literature, English-in-Education, South African English Drama, South African Journalism in English, Cultural studies focusing on English-related topics in Southern Africa and research in the area of English bilingualism, as an additional language.

Period: Initially for one year, but renewable depending on satisfactory progress for a further year at Masters level and two years at Doctoral level.

Tenable: Full-time attendance and registration at Rhodes University (Departments of English, English Languages and Linguistics and ISEA).

Value of awards:

HONOURS:	R45 000
MASTERS:	R60 000
DOCTORAL:	R80 000

Application procedure:

Submit a covering motivation letter with the application form, three referee reports in support of your application, information regarding proposed studies, a detailed academic CV and a full academic transcript. The completed application form needs to be emailed back to pgfunding@ru.ac.za or handed in at the office at Room 206, Main Admin Building, Rhodes University on or before the closing date.