SORGHUM TRUST BURSARY SCHEME

Students are invited to apply for bursaries to further their studies.

The most important conditions of bursaries granted by the Sorghum Trust are as follows:

- Students must be South African citizens and studying fulltime.
- Bursaries are only considered for Masters and Doctoral studies.
- The field of study must be relevant to the South African sorghum industry.
- The topic for the thesis has to be approved by the Sorghum Trust.
- The Trust requires a curriculum vitae, full past study particulars, a short summary of the intended thesis and a copy of the ID of every applicant.
- A mentor for the study programme has to be nominated and will be considered by the Trust, together with the university where the student intends to enrol.
- Students will be expected to work in the South African agricultural industry for a period equal to the period for which a bursary was received.
- The total bursary amount is R83 034 per year for two years for MSc studies and R100 506 per year for three years for PhD studies.
- The closing date for bursary application submissions is 31 January of every year.
- The Trustees have sole discretion as far as the award of bursaries are concerned and will consider each applicant within their own discretionary criteria.

For full details of the bursary agreement, contact Audra du Plessis at L&L Agricultural Services, the Administrators of the Sorghum Trust, on the above contact details.
