

CONSTITUTION OF THE RHODES UNIVERSITY SPORTS COUNCIL & STUDENTS' SPORTS COUNCIL

(Amended 27 Oct. 2009)

PREAMBLE

Mindful of the previous historical division in Rhodes Sport, The Rhodes University Sports Council (“the Sports Council”) was established in 1987 in order to ensure that everyone who is governed by this Constitution shall have the right to participate in the sports of their choice without pressure being applied on them in any way by any student club, organisation or individual. In support of the Vision and Mission of Rhodes University, this Constitution aims to ensure equity, to embrace diversity and to value mutual respect in all sporting endeavours at the University . It also aims to create opportunities for students to develop their leadership potential through their involvement in sport and their engagement with members of the wider Grahamstown community.

1. NAME

The name of the body that shall exercise overall control of the policy guiding sport in the University shall be the “RHODES UNIVERSITY SPORTS COUNCIL”.

2. AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

- 2.1 Recognising the historical conditions that determine the nature of the society in which it operates, the Sports Council shall be governed by the principles of non-racism, non-sexism and democracy. In order to achieve equity, all clubs and committees shall take into account the need for equitable representation across race and gender when selecting representatives to serve on any body (see 4.1, 4.2, 5.1, 5.2).
- 2.2 The Sports Council shall work closely with the Students Sports Council (see 5) and Rhodes University Sports Administration (“Sports Administration”), and shall provide overall guidance in terms of its strategic directions and policies, including the need to engage with and assist the broader community through its community engagement initiatives.
- 2.3 Sports Administration is responsible for the day-to-day operational functions related to sport at Rhodes University, including the promotion and encouragement of sport and recreation, all aspects of staffing, fund-raising, transformation, resourcing, and provision and maintenance of facilities (in liaison with the Estates Division)

3. USE OF SPORTS FACILITIES AT RHODES UNIVERSITY

All bona fide students of Rhodes University, as defined in the University Calendar, members of the University Council, full-time members of the Rhodes University staff, and other persons as the Regulations of the Sports Council may determine, are entitled to use the sports facilities and enjoy the associated privileges, subject to this Constitution and the Sports Council Regulations. Only those Clubs that have been recognised by the Sports Council may seek support from the Sports Council for their activities

Subject to the rules of the relevant tournament organisers, persons who are not bona fide students of the University shall not take part in any student tournament which is sanctioned by the National Governing Body of the Tertiary Institutions of Sport and the Sports Council, nor take part in representative sport unless specifically invited by the club concerned, with the approval of the Sports Council.
