DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE

OF ORIGINAL DIARIES AND JOURNALS

IN THE CORY LIBRARY

+ INDEX

ADAMS, Mary [1787?] - 1863

Diary: partly in English, partly Portuguese; annotated "Maderia to Leith, Edinburgh & Hol'rood House", "To Ware, Bulstrode, London & Pentonville". n.p., October 1811 - May 1812.
92p. 8vo (4 $\frac{1}{2}$ " x 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ ") MS Bound vol.

Biographical details:

Mary Adams (née Barker) was the wife of Thomas Price Adams (q.v.) and came to the Cape with him in 1820 - Bailie's party. She died on 29.12.1863 at the residence of her son-in-law Wm. McGlashan at Alice aged 76.

Notes on text:

This document was originally catalogued by Cory Library as a copy by T.P. Adams of his wife's diary. It appears to me more likely that it was wholly or partly written by him. The volume may have been used by both husband and wife. See Adams papers in Cory for further details.

A large part of the text is in Portuguese. The English section is more note-book than diary, it describes places visited in Scotland. Also lists interesting trade figures.

Sample of text:

"Oct. 3 - Agreed with Mrs Brown for an apartment, returned to Leith. Oct. 4 - Drank tea with Mrs Brown and Capt. Viviers introduced me to Mrs Quin - oysters at the side of the Theatre - soap /6/26. Oct. 5 - went over the Castle..."

ADAMS, Thomas Price [1779?] - 1843

Diary: included in a collection of his papers. [Grahamstown],
24.8.[1843] - 27.9.1843.
8p. 4to (8" x 5") MS In a vol. of misc. documents.

Biographical details:

T.P. Adams was born in London. A soldier later wine-merchant he lived for a time in Lisbon and Madeira. Emigrated to the Cape in 1820 - Bailie's party - with his wife Mary (q.v.) and family. He was known for his "harmless and often amusing eccentricities". Died Grahamstown 30.10.1843.

Notes on text:

This is only a fragment of a diary among a collection of his papers. It deals with his health, the weather, his "literary" activities and teaching.

Sample of text:

"Monday the 25th... The 7th Dragoons (officers) having brought out a pack of hounds - this may astonish the Kafirs and drive them as well as the wild Beast from the Bush ... Hardly able to move or see but taught the Children and copying my Linqua Alberti the day fine war<sup>n</sup> in the sun cool in the shade - wind n. West"

ATHERSTONE, Elizabeth (née Damant)

see DAMANT, Elizabeth.

AYLIFF, John 1797 - 1862

Diaries: (1) Rough diary of a visit to Platberg and neighbouring areas and Smithfield. n.p., c. 1861.

12p. 4to (6½" x 8") MS

(2) "Important events connected with the frontier": a journal of events April 1846 - May 1846.

16p. fcp (15" x 9½") MS

(3) A collection of letters to "My dear son" or "My dear John" written into 4 booklets forming an autobiographical record. [Has been partly published]. Fauresmith, 24.7.1861 - 27.3.1862.

168p. 4to (9" x 7"; 7" x 8") MS

(4) "A record of the dealings of God to my soul; and the manifestations of Divine Providence in behalf of the Mission." Various pl., Nov. 1834 - Dec. 1847.

30p. fcp (13" x 8") MS Bound.

Biographical notes:

Methodist missionary and 1820 Settler. See Dictionary of S.A. Biography vol.I.

Notes on text:

This is diary material included in the Ayliff papers in the Methodist Archives collection, Cory Library. Document (1) a mission tour largely descriptive of Platberg mission and the Basuto and Bastards found there. (2) Describes the outbreak of war in 1846 and his activities in Lower Albany. (3) Covers 1820 Settlement, Wesleyan missions etc. (4) Entries at irregular intervals - a personal Christian diary - his attitude to God and to his work. Includes comment on the "Kaffers", "Hottentots", "Fetcani".

Sample of text: (From no. 4)

"I often think on the injustice done to this people with great pain of mind, for in reference to the Hottentot the present country comprising the Cape Colony was the land of their Fathers - now they have no foot of ground to call their own, excepting the Kat River Settlement..."

BADGER, Henry 1815 - 1877

Diary: his life as a missionary in Sierra Leoné. Sierra Leoné, 13.10.1837 - 18.10.1840.
260p. 4to (7 $\frac{1}{2}$ " x 6") MS Bound vol. Blank pages not counted.

Biographical notes:

b. Bilston 6.10.1815. Methodist missionary in Sierra Leone and Gambia for 15 years. Later minister in England. d. Stow-on-the-Wold 24.12.1877.

Notes on text:

Contains an outline of his daily activities as a missionary and of the progress of the mission. Includes his personal feelings, religious state of mind, problems and achievements.

Sample of text:

"Wednesday 18 Today I have visited one family and this afternoon
rode to Murray Town, preached and gave tickets to the small society,
I think I have not laboured in vain."

BAKER, Charles

Journals: (1) A visit to the East Central African mission by Rev. Allen Lea, missionary secretary, Mr Charles Baker and Mr Felix Lutz. Tanganika and elsewhere, 31.5.1927 - 31.7.1927.

47p. 4to (10" x 8") MS

(2) Short journal of a visit by Baker and Rev. Andrew Graham, President of the Methodist Conference, to South West Africa. n.p., 1926.

4p. 4to (10" x 6½") MS

Biographical notes:

Baker was a prominent Methodist layman. He was on the committee of the E.C. African mission, which was run from South Africa. Lea, Lutz and Baker were an official delegation sent from S.A. to visit the mission.

Notes on texts:

(1) Describes briefly the work of the delegation but for the most part concentrates on its travels - the sights, peoples and modes of transport in Tanganyika, Uganda, Kenya and Zanzibar.

(2) Similar to the first but in its short compass has more emphasis on Church affairs and problems and less on travel experiences.

Sample of text: (From no. 1)

"The train is crowded but our compartment has been reserved and we are in the middle of the carriage, next the dining-car... the native trucks are packed to suffocation, benches along each side and two down the centre - they have to take their own food and water. No sanitary arrangements - their luggage (such as they have) is squeezed in between the rows of perspiring Swahilis and Indians."

BARBER, Mrs Mary Elizabeth (and Bowker, James Henry)

Wanderings in South Africa by sea and land: a journal. Cape Town, 1879.

142p. 4to (10 $\frac{1}{2}$ " x 8") MS 3 volumes.

Biographical notes:

M.E. Barber born 1818 in England, daughter of Miles Bowker, 1820 Settler. Married Frederick Barber. See Dictionary of S.A. Biography Vol. II. J.H. Bowker, 1822-1900 was her youngest brother. He was a soldier and naturalist.

Notes on text:

Bulk of text by Mrs Barber, sections by Col. Bowker. It describes a journey from Kimberley to Cape Town and then by sea to Natal. Includes Robben Island, description of Natal and the aftermath of the Zulu war. There are numerous botanical and zoological observations. Text was possibly written for publication.

Sample of text:

"The earth in this neighbourhood was carpeted with the creeping stems of the yellow flowering "Duyvels Doorn" (Tribulus terrestris). This plant to the exclusion of many others, appears to have taken possession of the soil. Horses, cattle and sheep do not eat it; but ostriches, I am told, will fatten on its thorny seed vessels. The pheasant, Guinea-fowl, and partridge also feed on them."

BARKER, George 1789 - 1861

Diary: from his departure for South Africa. South Africa, 4.2.1815 - 31.12.1828.

372p. fcp (12" x 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ ") MS Bound vol.

Biographical notes:

Born Cambridge and died at Paarl. L.M.S. missionary. Worked at Theopolis 1815 - 1819, Bethelsdorp 1819 - 1821, Theopolis 1821 - 1839, Paarl 1839 - 1861.

Notes on text:

This has only been partly examined in depth because of its length. Entries mainly brief dealing with his daily activities, and affairs on the missions. There is comment on the "coloured people" on the missions, on mission staff and visitors, and on his visits to Grahamstown among other things.

Sample of Text:

"Preached from 1 Cor. 8-9 on the danger of embracing a sentiment which I have too often heard lately declared: that men are at liberty to neglect public worship when that worship is not exactly conducted according to their own views... afternoon a prayer meeting and baptised a child. Evening preached from [ ? ] 26 13 & 14. Was again white-washing the inside of the house."

BARRETT, Edward James 1840 - 1932

Diaries (in printed "diary" volumes) : recording his work as a Methodist missionary. Various pl., 1879, 1883, 1885, 1887 - 1892, 1894, 1897 - 1904, 1906, 1908 - 1909.

22 vols. 1 = 8vo (7" x 4½") & 21 = fcp (13" x 8") MS.

Biographical details:

Barrett was born in Devonshire on 10.6.1840. Came to the Cape in 1863 and while he was here entered the Methodist ministry. His ministerial life was spent in Xhosa mission work and he became one of his Church's experts on the Xhosa language, working on Xhosa Bible hymn book and dictionary translations inter alia. He became a Supernumerary in 1909 following an illness and lived in retirement from then until his death on 7.1.1932.

Notes on text:

Entries are brief and mainly factual notes, there is little personal revelation or comment. They cover his activities and movements while stationed at Kamastone (until 1885), Annshaw and Buntingville; family events and from time to time his translation work. Barrett notes also his preaching appointments. Entries are similar in all volumes until his illness in 1909. These diaries form part of a collection of E.J. Barrett's papers.

Sample of text:

[1894 vol.] "21 Friday Schools close. Tickets. Ngwenya. Rodes to Alice to get change. A busy afternoon with teachers. Willie Surmon and Giddy arrived from K.W. Town for holiday - the latter to go on to Alice. Choir. 22 Saturday L[eaders] Mtg. Teachers. Copying returns. Emmie taken ill."

BELL, Charles Harland ? - 1881

Diary. Orange Grove; Grahamstown, 1862.
103p. 8vo (8" x 5") MS (In "Lett's" diary)

Biographical notes:

Originally a professional soldier. Became officer in the C.M.R. c. 1862 resigned from the army and began farming at "Orange Grove". Later became a magistrate in Basutoland.

Notes on text:

Early entries more note-book than diary - figures etc.; later slightly fuller concerning mainly daily farming activities, state of weather, visitors, salaries, prices.

Sample of text:

"10 Wednesday - Rode into Town. Engaged Gateman and his wife to come next Tuesday at £7 per mensem. 11 Thursday - Fine, a little rain towards even. Hare came out. We walked over to Newing Green after dinner."

BEZEMER, Hendrikus 1887 -

Journal: uittreksel uit de reisbeschrijving van ... naar Grahamstown + uittreksels uit brieven door mij ontvangen uit Grahamstown. Various pl., 1.10.1913 - 16.1.1916.

94p. 4to (8" X 6½") MS Bound vol.

Biographical notes:

Recruited in Holland as Dutch master for Kingswood College. Left there in 1916 and taught subsequently at C.B.C. and Boys High, Kimberley. Then became principal of Pearson High School (P.E.) from 1938 - 1947. M.P.C. for Port Elizabeth North (1949).

Notes on text:

The first section was transcribed from his "dagboek" and the second formed by extracts from his letters home. Part one describes his journey from Rotterdam to London, by Kinfauns Castle to Cape Town and by rail to Grahamstown. Part two describes Kingswood, Grahamstown and surrounding areas, with trips to Kimberley, Johannesburg and smaller centres. Text is cheerful and concerned inter alia with the strange customs of the "English" and differences between Dutch and Afrikaans. It is not profound or analytical.

Language:

Text is in Dutch but also "in de nieuwe spelling" in which the writer felt himself a "beginneling".

Sample of text:

"Morgen, Kerstmis, een rustige dag. Zoals je weet, maken de Engelsen heel wat drukte van het Kerstfeest. Ik het een drietal uitnodigingen gekregen om aan het kerstdinee deel te nemen, maar kon er natuurlijk maar een aannemen ... Het belangrijkste van het Engelse Kerstfeest is weer het Kerstmaal ... in elk huis houdt men dezer dagen een Kerstmaal, gewoonlijk 1<sup>o</sup> Kerstdag ... Het was een fijn dinee. Een van de voornaamste spijzen op zo'n maaltijd is de Kerstpudding, een speciaal toe bereide."

BOWKER, Thomas Holden 1808 - 1885

Diary. Albany & Kaffirland, 19.12.1834 - 25.11.1835.
282p. 8vo (5" x 4"; 4" x 3") MS (8 note-books)

Biographical notes:

Born England, died Tharfield. 3th son of Miles Bowker, 1820 Settler. Fought in Frontier Wars. Member of Cape Parliament. See I. Mitford-Barberton: The Bowkers of Tharfield.

Notes on text:

A lively often uninhibited account of the writer's experiences during the 1834-35 Frontier War. The grammar and idiom is often of interest.

Sample of text:

"I was astonished at the small effect of our fire, only six of the enemy being seen down and four of these were carried away inspite of us... not one of their shots hit any of our men, they wizzed past me both sides at once sometimes, the men were in high spirits, the Scotchmen shouted "Waterloo" and the hottentots "Thlalapanzi", the Fingoes were very frightened of the Kafirs guns."

BROWNLEE, James c.1824 - 1851

Diary. Eastern Cape, April-Sept. 1846.

72p. 4to (7" x 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ ") MS Bound vol. 114p. of Latin and other language exercises.

Biographical notes:

Son of Rev. John Brownlee. Killed at the Izele River in British Kaffraria on 28.3.1851 during 1850-53 Frontier War.

Notes on text:

Account of rather inactive service during the 1846-47 Frontier War, during which he served in various capacities including interpreter and guide. He seems to have become rather bored and cynical after some dull service.

Sample of text:

25 Tuesday - Wanted to be in readiness to proceed to General's camp but not receiving further notice, remain. Here that Capt. Hogg with his men had shot 100 kafirs without losing one of his men and had captured 5,000 cattle, this was an official report the first part of which does not bear the stamp of probability..."

CAMERON, James 1805 - 1875

- Journal (1) "containing an account of the first six years of my missionary life in Southern Africa." Various pl., 23.12.1829 - 31.12.1835.
381p. fcp (12" x 8") MS Bound vol.
(2) Various pl., 27.3.1842 - 26.5.1861
337p. fcp (12" x 8") MS Bound vol.
(3) "Memoranda"; a diary to just prior to his death on 12.12.1875.
Natal, 28.12.1874 - ? . ? . 1875.
391p. 4to (8" x 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ ") MS Bound vol.

Biographical notes:

Born Kirkintilloch (Scot.) 1.8.1805 and died Pietermaritzburg. Methodist missionary, came to S.A. in 1829 and spent 5 years in Cape Town. Then moved to the Eastern Province and Orange Free State for 25 years. Returned to Cape Town 1857 - 64 and then moved to Natal as Chairman of the Natal District of his Church. Remained in Natal until his death.

Notes on texts:

(1) was written in the Western Province (Cape Town, Somerset West, etc.). Describes the life, thoughts and feelings of a Wesleyan minister in considerable detail. Generally religious in tone and content but there are occasional general observations on people, places and events.

(2) is a resumption of his journal "after a long interval", pp 1-290 deal with mission work at Thaba 'Nchu, Plaatberg and related matters in the "Bechuana District" of the Church. pp 291 to end deal with Port Elizabeth and Cape Town work. Entries at irregular intervals. Slightly more factual journal than (1) especially as regards frontier missions, affairs and people.

(3) is a detailed journal of pastoral life in Pietermaritzburg written in his old age. Contains much sharp comment on people and events including non-church affairs.

Sample of texts: (from no.2)

"31st Was employed most of the forenoon in measuring off homesteads for some of the people, who seem inclined to build themselves houses and cultivate gardens, though hitherto they have been of all the inhabitants the most wandering and unsettled because the least pious and devoted to God."

CAMPBELL, John Keylock 1830 - 1905

Diary: of a voyage from Gravesend to Port Elizabeth and of activities there on arrival. On board ship and Port Elizabeth, 8.11.1861 - 19.3.1862. 14Op. 8vo (6" x 4") MS Bound vol.

Biographical notes:

The dates of his birth and death were supplied by the donor, also his profession - surveyor (see also the text for this). Other details not known.

Notes on text:

First 116p. deal with the voyage, the remainder with activities in Port Elizabeth. Fairly detailed account of the voyage incl. meterological observations and comments of a newcomer on P.E. and the people met there.

Sample of text:

"Tuesday Dec 24th Barometer 29.9" Wind WSW in morning light but steady - course S by W to S Thermr. 60° Clouds hanging about on horizon all day in light rounded masses (cumulus). Day fine and clear - warm in sun, eveng. clear and stars bright: especially Venus. The ladies kept on deck all the day. Louis and Missis Toby and Edwards better. Mr Toby worked at his paperknives and I helped the carpenter make a [ ? ] sail boom. Saw a great black fish at intervals wh was said to be a Grampus. Quoits with rope grumets ... men sang several songs in eveng. which altho' rather rough sounded well coming from the forecastle."

CARMICHAEL, Walter

Diary: written during the siege of Kimberley. Kimberley, 16.10.1899 - 19.2.1900.

56p. fcp (13½" x 8") MS

Biographical notes:

Cape civil servant who held various posts 1894 onwards. During the Boer war years was clerk at Kimberley, clerk to the solicitor-general (Kimberley), acting chief clerk (Kimberley) and clerk to crown prosecutor (Kimberley). During the siege he was also a member of the Civil Service Corps. Was later secretary to the Transkeian Territories General Council and a magistrate.

Notes on text:

Written at intervals during the siege for his parent(s), describes his own military activities and general conditions.

Sample of text:

"It was an interesting experience in its way. You could see the smoke of the gun first, then hear the report and a few seconds later hear the whizz or hiss - if one is to attempt an imitative word - of the shell - then see thud and cloud of dust if it is sand or loud explosion and smoke if on hard ground... Throughout the time - last ten days - one has noticed how the sense of novelty and comedy overbears the sense of danger..."

CHAPMAN, George 1817 - 1893

Journal: "from when I landed at Cape Coast Castle, West Africa"; covers West Africa, France, England and South Africa. Various pl., 25.1.1843 - 15.2.1857.

442p. fcp (10" x 8") MS Bound vol.

Biographical notes:

Born Alvaston 26.12.1817, died Queenstown 9.7.1893. Methodist missionary appointed to Gold Coast 1842. Returned to England 1845. Two years later went to Boulogne and then in 1849 to the Cape of Good Hope. Served in the Eastern Cape.

Notes on text:

p. 1-312 Gold Coast; p. 313-372 England and Boulogne; p. 372-5 voyage to the Cape; p. 376 onwards Eastern Cape. The Gold Coast entries are fuller than most later ones. The journal includes the normal descriptions of the writer's spiritual state and his mission activities and a varying amount of general comment. Considerable description of the Gold Coast customs and beliefs.

Sample of text:

"The general conduct of these two Princes is anything but praiseworthy, they are a stumbling-block in the way of the people, and strikingly illustrate the fallacy of the theory which says 'give instruction or an European education and you ensure the advancement of civilization and promote the general good of the country.' Education is useless without something more powerful with which to fortify the mind."

COCK, William 1794 - 1876

Journal: covering 1819 to c. 1849. n.p., n.d. of composition.
16p. 4to (10" x 8") MS

Biographical notes:

Born Cornwall, died Grahamstown - farmer, trader, merchant, etc.
1820 Settler see Dictionary of S.A. Biography vol. I.

Notes on text:

Text incomplete. It is more an account of his life at the Cape than a journal. Deals briefly with his business and public activities.

Sample of text:

"In 1838 Mr Hodgekin came to Grahams Town - and to my astonishment proposed our opening the Kowie. A subject I had never for a moment entertained, nor even thought of from the time before referred to when on a visit to the Kowie. To this I first objected, stressing that the London partners must first be consulted."

Journal: "a trip to the Transvaal". Johannesburg, 31.12.1896 - 19.1.1897.

100p. 4to (9" x 7") MS Bound.

Biographical notes:

Professor of Chemistry and historian. See Dictionary of S.A. Biography vol. II or vol. I of the Struik edition of his Rise of South Africa.

Notes on text:

Describes a trip undertaken in connection with the class in mining engineering which was to be established under Cory at St. Andrew's College in 1897. Cory (i) publicised this course (ii) visited mines and related works and also met mining people and educationalists. p. 1 - 59 are a general diary of the trip, impressions of Johannesburg, Pretoria, etc., p. 63 to end are more detailed notes and diagrams of his mine visits and conversations.

Sample of Text:

"The old man [President Paul Kruger] was standing when we went in - when Mr Z introduced us P.K. said (in Dutch, of course) that he hoped I was not one of Rhodes' men come to annoy him. This was meant as a joke. We sat down and I asked Mr Z. to explain that my mission was to try and work a school of mines in the Colony in connection with the Transvaal and that I hoped that the time would come when the English and Dutch would at least be united in educational matters if in nothing else. P. Kruger made some remark to the effect that 'His mission is peace while Rhodes wants to make war'."

Journal (1) Salvation Army experiences in Scotland. Scotland, 10.4.1882 - 31.7.1884.

86p. 4to (9" x 7") MS Bound vol.

(2) from his departure for South Africa to shortly before his death. Various pl., 20.3.1891 - 9.5.1944.

3,020p. fcp + 4to (13" x 8"; 9" x 7") MS 16 vols. 15: fcp, 1: 4to.

Biographical notes:

Born Manchester, died Pietermaritzburg (?). Methodist minister. In South Africa worked mainly among whites until appointed to Indaleni institution in 1913 where he remained for 21 years until his retirement.

Notes on texts:

(1) Zestful account of the state of his health, soul and the weather. Interesting description of Salvation Army activities.

(2) Could not be fully examined in depth because of length. Most entries are brief but they become longer for important events such as when he was trapped in Colesberg by the Boers. In the main entries outline his daily doings (incl. non-church activities). Length and tone of entries varies as the writer ages, earlier ones tend to be fuller.

Sample of texts: (from no. 1)

"Went to Glasgow to Council of War led by the General, he spoke right to our souls and urged us all to live right with the Lord, he also spoke very strongly about training children urging us to teach obedience..."

Journal: written during the 1877-79 Frontier War. Eastern Frontier,
4.3.1878 - 6.6.1878.
59p. 4to (10"x 8") MS Bound.

Biographical notes:

Officer of the 95th Foot. Served in Indian Mutiny 1857-8. Promoted Major 1875. Military secretary to The Viscount (later Lord Chelmsford) in operations during 1877-9 War and after this served with Chelmsford in the 1879 Zululand War. See R.A. Brown ed: The Road to Ulundi.

Notes on text:

Account in some detail of the military operations. Writer was in a position to observe and comment on the abilities of regular troops, colonial volunteers and Fingo levies; also on the tactics adopted, their success or failure, the personalities and abilities of the various commanders.

Sample of text:

"He seemed to consider the heights above him (to which no paths led but where his forces had to be moved shortly) as a pleasing tract of country, meant for military experiments... From that time till the close of the war this Buffalo Range to Fort Merriman or Isidengi, Middle Drift or Debe Nek became a district over which Col. Wood played a 'war game' in which the 'Fleisch und Brod' were never forgotten."

DAMANT, Elizabeth [later Elizabeth Atherstone] [1781] - 1837

Diary: 9th February 1806 onwards. England, 1806-1807.
190p. 4to (9" x 7½") MS Bound.

Biographical details:

She was the first wife of Dr. John Atherstone (married 1811) and the mother of William Guybon Atherstone. Came to the Cape with her husband and children in 1820. Died 19.11.1837 at Grahamstown.

Notes on text:

The writing is small and difficult to read which makes thorough examination of the text difficult. However the diary appears throughout to describe domestic life in England.

Sample of text:

"After a hearty lunch we accompanied them on the water where we were amused at Fowling till four o'clock. When we returned to dress and dinner. They spent the evening at Cards - my spirits being rather depressed I relinquished my book and took Catherine's vacant seat at the table cheerful that followed supper and as [ ? ] our expected Guests had left an apology for not dining with us and we were a snug family party as usual."

       (3) Barville Park, 1.1.1887 - 8.3.1890.
 49p. 4to (9" x 7") MS

Biographical notes:

Writer seems to be Samuel W. Dell, fourth child of 1820 Settler Edward Hunt Dell. He was unmarried and lived with members of his family at Barville Park farm. See Mitford-Barberton & White: Some Frontier Families.

Notes on text:

All three journals are similar and can be taken as one. They describe life on and around Barville Park - "honey-hunting", fishing, hunting, fruit and vegetable gardening and the comings and goings of relatives and visitors. There are references to local cricket matches and other rural "events".

Sample of text:

"While I was in the bush Mr and Mrs Tuthill paid B.P. a visit ... Took from 'Top Nest' a large tin dish full of honey. Hive was full and fat ... Mrs Hayton and grand-daughter arrived here about sunset."

FLANNEGAN, Arthur c.1813 - 1872

Diary: on the defence of Cuylerville; incomplete. Cuylerville, 1846.
8p. + 4p. + 18p. fcp (12 $\frac{1}{2}$ " x 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ ") + 4to (10" x 8") + 8vo (8" x 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ ") MS

Biographical notes:

Came to Cape as a child in 1820. Lived with his brother James on family farm at Cuylerville. After the departure of James he lived a recluse-like life. Was an amateur land surveyor of repute. Died from a snake-bite. See obituary in the Grahamstown Journal 12.4.1872.

Notes on text:

An account of activities while Cuylerville was under attack during the 1846-47 Frontier War, including transport riding. Fragments often not consecutive - only notes and tables listing guard duties, rations issued, details of horses and servants. Text lively though spelling and grammar often unorthodox.

Sample of text:

"Close to the fence I seen a kaffir not above 9 feet from the mussel of the gun and [it] would not go off. Therefore what ever was done on the third and last attack I did not help anything with it for after I broke my Ram rod the 2 guns I had afterwards in the kraal I could not and did not fire a shot with for I called F. Clayton and he shot the one that I saw... and I remained in the kraal with nothing at last but my pistol..."

- (1) "Part of the story of my life". n.p., n.d.
Xerox copy MS 2vols (55p + 59p.) (Original = 236p. 4to (9"x7")
- (2) "A South African son of the Kingdom": an account of his life.
 n.p., [1906?].
 2 versions: xerox copies, 79p. MS and 68p. MS. (Originals = 160p. 4to (8½"x6½") and 139p. 4to (9"x7")

Biographical notes:

Son of Rev. F.P. Gladwin and prominent Methodist layman, especially in mission work. By profession a civil servant holding positions such as teacher, clerk, magistrate and inspector of Native locations. Worked mainly with African population. Died Bedford.

Notes on texts :

(1) Deals with his life while clerk to the British Resident, St. John's Territory, acting British Resident, St. John's Territory and magistrate in Fingoland and at Nquamakwe; includes description of native life and customs. It is not really a diary or journal but a form of autobiography covering 1874 to c.1880 when it may have been written. Text is not detailed and the style is anecdotal. Main subjects are the Pondo, Pondomisi, Fingo & Basuto and government/tribal relations. (2) is also a form of autobiography covering his earliest years to c.1906 with emphasis on his religious activities especially in native mission work. Rather less detail than (1). The two versions are identical in some parts and different in others.

Sample of text: (from no. 1)

"We were sitting under the flag staff, with the Union Jack flying - the symbol of Great Britain's Authority. I tried to show them, especially this young man, that they were now under the protection of a great tree, but if they broke away from it the tree might fall on them and do them harm."

Fort Beaufort, 12.4.1846 - 7.6.1846.
41p. 4to (9½" x 7") MS

Biographical notes:

An Irish cartographer and engineer. See Africana Notes and News
vol. XIV p. 251 ff for a biography.

Notes on text:

Twenty-two pages of diary describing the 1846-7 Frontier War as seen from Fort Beaufort. The remaining pages contain "Analysis of the actual cost of buildings at Comitjies Post", trigonometrical notes, drawings including a coloured arum lily and "a fragment of the history of the Cape Colony written in the year 1946." (This 2 is correct) Handwriting difficult to read, diary entries brief.

Biographical notes:

Presbyterian missionary. Worked in N.E. Rhodesia and Nyasaland and as principal of Lovedale. See Dictionary of S.A. Biography vol. I.

Notes on text:

(1) described two mission journeys to unevangelised and evangelised villages. Comment on native customs and beliefs.

(2) is a chronicle of events at Lovedale and elsewhere told in the style of Samuel Pepys for the benefit of his children. The "Pepysian" style and humorous tone do not prevent it containing much information on his activities as Principal of Lovedale.

Biographical notes:

Methodist minister. Served in various capacities including mission work. Principal of Healdtown from 1890. Held positions of Chairman of the Grahamstown district of his Church and President of its Conference.

Notes on the text:

Lively account of his life in South Africa. Basically he describes his pastoral life as a Methodist minister but there is a good deal of general and often humorous comment on people, places and events. Area covered includes Grahamstown area, Cape Town area, Bloemfontein and the Diamond Fields and Natal.

Sample of text:

"A very few of our English friends know what is meant by going to the sea side in Africa. In England it generally means a month's freedom from the cares and anxieties of household duties, abundance of fishing, reading and repose. Diary: letter written to her sister in England during the Boer occupation of Burghersdorp forming a diary. Burghersdorp, November 1899 - March 1900.
20p. fcp (13" x 8") MS

Biographical notes:

Mrs Johnson was the wife of Reginald J. Johnson, Rector (= headmaster) of the Albert Academy at Burghersdorp.

Notes on the text:

Written at intervals during the Boer occupation the letter becomes a diary of the period. It is strongly anti-Boer in tone and describes the actions and attitudes of the "English", colonial Dutch and occupying Free Staters.

Sample of text:

"Wed. 15th About 8.30 a.m. they did come - all mounted and armed - about 50 went down the street carrying the Free State flags to the Market Sq. and Court House. About 300 or 400 lined the top of the Kopje behind and fronting the town. Biographical notes:

Missionary of the Glasgow Missionary Society. See Dictionary of S.A. Biography vol. I.

Notes on text:

Extensively used and quoted by W. Govan in his: Memorials ... of the Rev. James Laing. 1875. It is a detailed account of Laing's missionary activities at Burnhill, Lovedale, Kat River and neighbouring areas; including the Wars of 1846 - 7 and 1850 - 53. Observations of "Kaffir" life and attitudes, as also of those of the government and the colonists. The handwriting is often difficult to read and Laing at times abbreviates confusingly. The vols. also contain college tickets and certificates and some letters.

Biographical notes:

Methodist minister. Pioneer Methodist missionary in the Transvaal (1884 onwards). Remained in the Transvaal for the whole of his career. See Transvaal Methodist, Nov. 1930.

Notes on text:

The 1885 diary has entries that vary from very short to fairly lengthy and deal mainly with everyday activities. In the 1886 diary entries tend to be more detailed and include lengthy descriptions of mission journeys and meetings with Chiefs. Lowe was based at Good Hope mission.

Sample of text:

MACKRILL, Joseph 1762 - 1820

Diary: written in various places and at various times including Cape Town - 1809 and Boschberg (Somerset East) - 1816.

145p. 8 vo (5" x 8") MS Bound

Biographical notes:

Mackrill was a naturalist and medical man, also Superintendent of the Somerset farm at Boschberg. See Burrows: A history of medicine in South Africa and Dictionray of South African Biography vol. II.

Notes on text:

See the notes by Prof. C.H. Price in S.A. Medical Journal 22 August 1959 p. 709 - 10. It is not basically a diary rather a note-book containing notes on classical mythology, botany, travel, materia medica etc. Many of the entries relate to the Cape (e.g. Cape plants and their uses). There are also diary entries including (i) the Cape earthquake of 1809 (ii) his journey from Somerset farm to Cape Town with description of the Frontier Boers - 1816.

Sample of text:

"Monday December 4 1809 at half an hour after ten at night was experienced at Cape Town, Cape of Good Hope, a most terrific earthquake. Three shocks between the time above mentioned and Eleven O'clock accompanied with a noise so truly horrible that language cannot find words to express it..."

3 vols. 4to (7" x 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ ") MS

Biographical details:

Methodist minister. Served in Natal from 1851. Was later Chairman of the Grahamstown District of his Church and President of its Conference.

Notes on text:

The volumes listed here are marked I, III, & IV. The volume II which is missing covers a period when the writer was in England. Vol. I has a most interesting description in some detail of Natal and of the Zulus and Zulu missions (all denominations). There is also a description of a visit to the Eastern Province. Apart from sea voyages, periods in Britain and various visits the text deals largely with his ministerial life in Natal. Vol. IV contains information on the establishment of the South African Methodist Conference and its first two meetings.

Sample of text:

Notes on texts:

The documents listed here form part of a collection of related papers. Texts are very varied - some being true diaries, others reminiscences and some autobiographical sketches and general notes. Some diaries describe his pastoral work in general, parts (2) and (4) concentrate on his experiences as an army chaplain. Part (5) describes a trip to Australia and New Zealand (1921) and one to England and Ireland (1934).

Anglican missionary and teacher. Arrived at the Cape in 1854 and went into mission work in the Grahamstown Diocese. Ordained deacon in 1863 and priest in 1864. Headmaster of the "Kafir Institute" at Grahamstown from 1864 to 1907. Held various church appointments.

Notes on text:

A mimeograph ed. containing selections from the diaries 1854 - 1861 was published in 1955 ed. by W.M. Levick. The text in this ed. is very selective and has at times been altered by the editor.

Mullins is mainly matter-of-fact and unemotional, though the early entries reveal the writer's youth. In the main he describes mission life - in Umhala's country, at Bolotwa and elsewhere in the Diocese and the beginnings of his headmastership of the 'Kafir Institute'. There is little deep comment on events though significant ones such as the 'cattle-killing' are mentioned.

(iii) MS in printed "diary" for 1897 while he was resident magistrate at Stutterheim.

Biographical notes:

O'Connor served in the F.A.M.P. and the C.M.R. in Basutoland, Griqualand West and East and elsewhere between 1867 and 1879. After this he was magistrate of several frontier districts. See his MS accounts of his career among his papers in Cory Library.

Notes on text:

The subject matter of the diaries is indicated above. The writer's style is mainly matter-of-fact. Diaries in a collection of his papers.

Sample of text:

"Friday 15th January - changed furniture and book shelf in my study ... had also heavy day in office. A number of Gcalekas arrived at dark with bags of tobacco for sale. Passed the shops in darkness and were directed in the right road by me. Left office after dark".

ROSS, John 1799 - 1878

Diaries: 41 stitched but unbound "volumes" forming a diary coverage of the period 1829 - 1870 with some gaps. King William's Town, Pirie, etc., 1829 - 1870.

864p. 4to - 8vo (sizes vary considerably) MS

Biographical notes:

Missionary of the Glasgow Missionary Society. Xhosa linguist and printer. See Dictionary of S.A. Biography vol. I

Notes on text:

Fullest coverage in the periods 1846-48 - mainly the end of the 1846-47 War - and 1850-53 - describing Ross's activities during the frontier war especially in King William's Town. Parts of the diary seem to have been sent to his family in Scotland, this may apply to all. Some parts appear to be extracts from an original or drafts for one and some cover identical periods. The diary is not routine or repetitive and describes Ross's missionary work mainly based on his station at Pirie. He includes comments on missionary attitudes and strategy and attitudes to missions. The accounts of the 1850-53 War are especially interesting. There are many related Ross papers in Cory Library.

Sample of text:

"He [Sir George Grey] enquired - have you seen any of the ancient MSS. I answered I had in the Museum of the University of Glasgow. I said that they were very fine and elegantly executed... I took occasion to suggest to him that the earliest of our Caffre publications might be found in the Col[onial] office..."

RUBIDGE, Albert 1862 - 1949

Journals. Various pl., 1.1.1905 - 29.2.1944.
904p. fcp (13" x 8") MS 4 vols.

Biographical notes:

Thirteenth child of Charles Rubidge. Married Idoni Helena Smyth.
See D.F. duT. Malherbe: Family Register of the S.A. Nation. Was a farmer and surveyor.

Notes on text:

Brief, matter-of-fact entries about farming activities, surveying and the comings and goings of family and friends. The style and type of content remains consistent throughout the volumes. The journals were written on the farms Sunnymeade, Emerald (in the Middelburg, Graaff-Reinet area), Gletwyn (Stellenbosch, Somerset West area) and in Graaff-Reinet. They deal with various types of farming including tobacco, ostrich and grape. Some of the entries were written by Idoni Rubridge in her husband's absence.

Sample of text:

"6th - a cold, showery day with strong NW wind veering to SE. Kenneth over and he and Noel fixed up pump from well. Mr Goodwin left taking Miss May as far as Belville. All [farm] hands off. 7th - All planting tobacco. Louw over and bespoke tobacco plants. N down with bad cold. A nice day. Sent to village for meat etc."

RUSSELL, John

Diary: incomplete. Cape Town, 9.10.1900 - Sept. 1901.
17p. 4to (9" x 7") MS + cuttings.

Biographical notes:

Baptist minister. Worked at Cradock, Wynberg, Queenstown and elsewhere.

Notes on text:

Mainly brief entries which deal with his daily activities except for an account of Lady Sprigg's death and a report of Sir Gordon Sprigg's views on a federal parliament for the British Empire. There are also various cuttings related to the MS text.

Sample of text:

"Wednesday 9 - Batts Wood S.S. treat. 60 children. 300 cakes, 8 gallons ginger beer. 3/- sweets (6 lbs). Went round exactly. Cakes 5 times but four times would have been ample. First muster of Wynberg Town Guard to elect officers."

SHIMWELL, Albert James

Diary: Boer War. Mafeking and E. Transvaal, Sept. 1899 - Aug. 1900.
47p. fcp (13" x 8") TS.

Biographical notes:

Writer was chief staff clerk to the Frontier Force under Baden-Powell during the siege of Mafeking. After this he served under Baden-Powell in the Transvaal.

Notes on text:

This appears to be an original TS and not a TS copy of a MS original. There are two sections dealing with the Siege and operations in the Transvaal mainly around Rustenburg respectively. The diary is impersonal describing events with little reference to the author himself. There is a good deal of detail. The typescript was probably prepared from notes some time after the events described. Text indicates that the writer himself could type.

Sample of text:

"With an enemy 9,900 strong and well armed opposed to a force of 1,054 many of whom were unused to the use of arms and that too but indifferently unarmed [??] would have puzzled many a man but Colonel Baden-Powell was equal to the occasion."

SHONE, Thomas 1784 - 1868

Diaries: 30.6.1837 - 30.9.1838; 30.9.1838 - 7.12.1839; 1.1.1850 - 26.4.1858; 27.4.1858 - 26.12.1859; 27.12.1859 - 25.9.1867. Various pl., 1838 - 39; 1850 - 1867.
1,400p. 9" x 3½"; 9" x 7½"; 13" x 4" MS 5 volumes.

Biographical notes:

Shone was an 1820 Settler. Settled in the Bathurst area where he was a shoemaker and farmer.

Notes on text:

It covers life on his farm in Lower Albany and later when he was living with his son Henry on his farm. Describes the daily doings of the 1820 Settler farming community including prices of goods and details of Thomas's shoemaking and leatherwork; the effects of the 1850-53 war; and family and other relationships. Shone reveals a good deal about himself e.g. his battle with Cape brandy, the difficulties of living with a son in "your old age."

Sample of text:

"This day was fine, Henry was working on the land and was laying the foundation for a brick house. This morning he shot a very large wild pig. I was shoemaking... I went to Bathurst. Left a pair of shoes at Mrs Hartly for Mrs Miller not paid for. Bought from T. Hartly a bottle of brandy 2/- a biscuit /4 a glass of grog from Mrs Allen /3 ..."

STAPLES, Isiah 1828-1906

"A narrative of the war of 1851-53." [Middelburg - Cape?, c. 1905].
104p. fcp (13" x 8") MS Bound.

Biographical notes:

Son of the 1820 settler John Bath Staples. Farmer in the Post Retief area. Granted land by the Victoria Land Commission in 1853. Married Sarah Jones.

Notes on text:

Not really a diary or journal in that it was written from memory long after the events described. Deals with the writer's war activities in the Post Retief area and clashes between local farmers and the rebel Kat River Hottentots - includes descriptions of the defence of Post Retief and the attack on Fort Armstrong.

Sample of text:

"I must also here say that the natives were better armed than the English. As they were armed with the Govt. musket or the long Dutch. While we were only armed with double barrel smooth bore shot guns. A fairly good weapon at about 100 yards but useless at long ranges."

STIRK, Joseph 1802 - 1881

Journals: concerned with farming in the Peddie district. Peddie,
1.11.1848 - 30.12.1854.
316p. 4to (14 $\frac{1}{2}$ " x 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ ") MS 2 vols.

Biographical notes:

1820 settler. Married Sophia Southey and lived at Peddie. He was a farmer, contractor for fodder, house builder at Poundmaster (Peddie).

Notes on text:

Brief entries recording his daily activities and significant events at Peddie including arrivals and departures, births, deaths and marriages. Also his farming, building and transport riding, contracts for fodder and prices and charges. The 1850-53 wars figure but there are no descriptions of fighting, rather movements of the military and "Kafers", the effects of the war on Peddie, rumours and reports.

Sample of text:

"Tuesday 3rd - War cry at Piet Apples tower heard. firing in that direction after sunset, Mr Goodrich left 5 oxen in my charge. very windy and dry wether. all our lambs dying there mothers got no milk."

STORMONT, David Duncan 1862 - 1931

Diaries and journals: (1) Lovedale, 1892-1900. 23 vols. (2) England and Scotland 1901. 2 vols. (3) Blythswood, 1902-6. 3 vols. (4) Scotland, 1908. 1 vol. (5) Blythswood, 1909-1921. 9 vols.
38 vols. Mainly bound 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ " x 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ " MS

Biographical notes:

Presbyterian missionary, scholar and educationalist. Taught at Lovedale and was sub-editor, later editor of the Christian Express. Became principal of Blythswood Institution in 1902 where he remained until his death. Was a writer, especially on mission topics, of some distinction.

Notes on texts:

These volumes do contain accounts of the writer's daily activities but not consistantly. They also contain notes on his reading, his thoughts on a wide variety of topics - some purely academic others on the state, nature and purpose of mission education, the state of affairs in the Colony, the quality of Colonial life and the character of the African. There are also notes for sermons and papers. These documents form part of a collection of Stormont's papers.

Sample of text:

The text is so long and varied that a short sample would not serve much purpose.

Notes on text:

Describes events at Lovedale and a visit to Knaap's Hope station and services there.

Sample of text:

"About fifty communicants re-entered and placed their communion cards in the plate as they entered just in the same way as we do at home... the sacrament was dispensed, first the bread by two elders, afterwards the wine by other two ... it was the first comaunion service I had seen in a native church."

STRETCH, Charles Lennox 1797 - 1882

Journal. Various pl., covers 1797 - 1849.
356p. 4to (10" x 8") MS

Biographical notes:

Soldier, native commissioner and politician. See Dictionary of S.A. Biography vol. II.

Notes on text:

Describes his birth, education and early life to 1828. Notes on "Native Wars" incl. the 1819 War and a detailed journal of the 1834-35 War and events after it. Notes on Settler, Boer and Xhosa relations. Entries 1838-1849 are mainly religious. Whole document contains pointed comment on people and events. The handwriting varies considerably and some portions seem to have been written long after the events described. There is evidence of correction of the text and addition to it. Some parts may not have been written by Stretch. Many pages blank or only partly filled.

Sample of text:

"Feby 9th - on Monday evening Col. Smith, the chief of the Staff, reviewed the 'Grahams Town Volunteers'; after which he addressed them in a very energetic manner. He stated that it afforded him the most unfeigned satisfaction to find that they were in so efficient a state to meet and chastise the audacious invaders of the Colony."

TAYLOR, Mrs Mary C (née Chubb)

Journal: at Healdtown. Healdtown, 31.8.1872 - 20.1.1873.
37p. 8vo (7" x 4½") MS

Biographical notes:

Mary Chubb was the sister of Rev. Theophilus Chubb, a prominent South African methodist. She married Rev. M. Coulson Taylor who died in March 1867. She came to S.A. and lived at Healdtown with her brother. Later remarried.

Notes on text:

An account of life at Healdtown and of the people (black and white) and places encountered. An intelligent and interesting short account. Includes a description of a visit to Seymour.

Sample of text:

"Monday evening the discussion on the origins of the Kaffer race came off... one thing seemed to me most pathetic - the obvious way in which each speaker admitted without hesitation the superiority of the white over the black races... perhaps this sense of inferiority may not be so painful as I fancy."

WATKINS, Owen 1842 - 1915

Diaries: (1) including notes. 1883. (2) diary in printed "diary" of a missionary journey - Marachane's tribe and elsewhere. Sept.-Oct. 1885. (3) diary in printed "diary" for 1886. (Jan. to July only have entries). (4) diary in a letterbook of a voyage to the Cape. 1876. (5) private journal of a journey to Mashonaland written for his wife and children. 30.6.1891 - 21.10.1891. 146p. 4to (10 $\frac{1}{2}$ " x 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ " x 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ "). (6) record of a missionary journey from Maritzburg to Swaziland and of one from Pretoria to Swaziland. 26.7.1881 - 3.9.1881; 3.8.1883 - c. 23.9.1883. 7 vols. fcp + 4to + 8vo MS.

Biographical notes:

Methodist minister. Was in South Africa from 1876. Organized the new Transvaal and Swaziland District of his church. Pioneer Methodist missionary to Mashonaland. Chaplain during Zulu and Boer Wars.

Notes on texts:

These documents form part of a collection of Watkins papers many of which complement those listed here. (1) includes a visit to Hans Makapan's tribe, another version of the 1881 visit to Swaziland - see (6), and some notes apparently not in Watkins' hand on Transvaal native preachers. (2) has brief entries describing a Transvaal mission journey. (3) includes a visit to Zululand and Dinuzulu in an attempt to open Wesleyan missions + mission travels in the Transvaal and Bechuanaland with visits to Montshiwa and Khama, notes on Boer-Bantu relations and the relations between missionary societies. (4) is a short and cheerful account of his sea voyage. (5) is an important description of the journey from the Transvaal to Salisbury. Mainly a description of the journey and the people met (incl. Rhodes, Selous, Jameson, Bishop Knight - Bruce). As the journal was private he was free in accounts of people including I. Shimmin, his companion. There are descriptions of native life and behaviour. (6) is an account of the re-founding of the Methodist mission in Swaziland - accounts of Swazi customs and a visit to the King's kraal.

Sample of text:

"The song was a kind of chant - celebrating the greatness of the Swazi nation - the triumphs of the warriors in war and the chase and also rejoicing that the King had come home again. (He had been away ten days). While the dance and chant went on two or three women rushed into the centre... the time and rhythm was perfect and when all the shields waved together it was very impressive."

448p. 4to (8" x 8<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub>") MS (+ TS version 94p. + 38p. 4to TS)

(3) 9.1.1900 - 23.3.1900.

38p. 8vo (6" x 3") MS.

Biographical notes:

He was one of four brothers who came to South Africa from Glasgow -- the most famous being Sir Thomas Watt. D.C. Watt was a doctor with medical degrees from Glasgow University. He came out about 1890 and practised in Pietermaritzburg. Served in the Boer War and World War I.

Notes on texts:

Documents form part of a collection of related material. (1) TS is a brief outline of the Unit's activities, the MS is a brief daily notice of movements and activities - slightly more personal. (2) The first part is a mainly light-hearted account of service with a Colonial irregular force in Natal and Zululand. It describes the working of such a unit and the frustration of somewhat inactive service. The second part is a more serious account of his experiences at No.1 Stationary Hospital - the prevalence of disease (e.g. enteric), crowded conditions, inadequate staff and equipment and the vagaries of military organisation. It seems likely that diary (2) was prepared from notes made at the same time as events described. Diary (3) appears to be one of these original note books as its text has been reproduced in the corresponding section of diary (2) in a considerably amplified form.

Sample of text:

"Everybody passed a miserable night. McIllerton, Atwell and I got under a pair of pack tarpaulins, they being covered by one and the one I was under was laced so as to overlap the other... All the water from the other came dripping down on me and it rained more or less all night. The ground was soaked, my blankets were soaked and I was wet through to the skin..."

WILKIE, Arthur West 1875 - 1958

Journals: kept during his term as principal of Lovedale. Lovedale, 1933 - 1942.

2 vols. fcp (13" x 8") MS

Biographical notes:

United Free Church of Scotland missionary in Calabar, the Gold Coast and Togoland from 1901. Played an important role there. Came to Lovedale as Principal in 1932. Resigned in 1942 and returned to Britain.

Notes on text:

Not basically a personal diary but a journal of events and activities at Lovedale mainly those involving the principal directly or indirectly. There is a small amount of personal information and also information on matters such as Fort Hare, other missionary institutions and Presbyterian Church affairs. Use of this journal is restricted during the life time of people mentioned.

Sample of text:

"26 Tu. Dr Kerr called to discuss the letter question and it was agreed to suggest a meeting of the Sports Board of Control... before the meeting of the Fort Hare Gov. Council to see if this unhappy spirit can be changed in Inter Collegiate Sport. Staff prayer meeting led by Dr Wilkie... Rev. R. #### Note: Uncatalogued Material

The Archives possess a large collection of uncatalogued pictorial items because the Cory
Library staff are unable to identify the subjects.
It would help if donors would supply all the information they can when presenting items. All help in making identifications will be much appreciated.
