The Hall Senior Student and Head Students were tasked with finding volunteers for paper ballot SRC by-election and SRC Hall Rep election voting in the dining hall during lunch and supper on the 5 March and 6 March, if the SRC do not change these dates.

Community Engagement – External

Christine submitted her report prior to the meeting, as a late agenda item, and an update after their training on Saturday. See Appendix 7.1 and 7.2.

Christine has resigned as the Hall Community Engagement External Rep. As no other member of the committee was interested in taking over this portfolio, Christine was asked to approach Antonique, the Prince Alfred Community Engagement Rep, and someone else, to see if they are willing to run the partnership with Noncedo. A decision will be made at the next meeting.

Environmental

No report received. Sebe was reminded in future to submit his report in advance so it can go out with the agenda.

No report received, as Tadiwanashe confirmed that there is nothing to report at this stage.

Candice asked if the Hall Facebook group could be discontinued as less than half of the Drostdy students are members of this group, and first years from last year and this year do not seem interested. Tadiwanashe asked that we please wait until three weeks' time to see if the situation changes, as Tadiwanashe plans to have a drive to encourage students to join the group. Candice reminded everyone that e-mail is the official way that Rhodes, and Drostdy, communicates with its students and that students must check their e-mails regularly.

Activism/Transformation/Awareness Raising

Keiryn submitted her report in advance, which was circulated with the agenda. See Appendix 10.

Keiryn also reported the following:

- The RU Transformation Reps had a training session this past Saturday.
- There will be one large consent talk with the SRC, Nkolie-Fassie and House Comms. If everyone is happy with this talk then Nkolie-Fassie will continue with these talks in all the Halls, and if not then there will be another facilitator.
- Keiryn will be meeting with the Res Transformation Reps soon, to arrange smaller group talks in the residences for first years, and returners.

- The Equity & Institutional Culture Office confirmed that we are allowed to make our transformation events compulsory.

2019.01.09 FEEDBACK

Drostdy Leadership Training

- For the Addo packed lunch would rather have sandwiches than pies.
- Some members did not enjoy the hike.
- Have more outdoor team building activities, possibly in place of the hike.
- Addo was good.
- The committee agreed that Shuaib's and Evert's sessions were valuable.

RU Leadership Training

- With them making training shorter this year they left out vital things, for example the first aid training for sub-wardens.
- No guidance was given to prepare Head Students for their positions.
- One Sub-Warden liked the training, especially the sessions on dealing with uncomfortable scenarios, and sub-wardens' mental health and wellbeing.

O Week

- The many student changes in res was a challenge. Cath reported that this would unfortunately not change, it was just how things worked.
- Allan Gray and Prince Alfred House agree that morning jams should not be done. The Graham House first years were very keen this year and they did not have any problems with morning jams, but it was exhausting.
- O Week combined is very intensive for first years and they were exhausted before lectures started.
- Received positive feedback about the movie night. The first years enjoyed this relaxing event during a hectic week.

2019.01.10 HALL FELLOWS

The committee were asked to submit nominations before the next meeting.

2019.01.11 ER24

Cath checked with the committee that they all have the ER24 number on their phone, and are all aware of the services provided, etc. Ashley suggested that the ER24 number be sent to Res WhatsApp groups.

2019.01.12 WATER CRISIS

The big water tanks have not been filed yet, but RU is steadily gearing up for when day zero comes. Water basins will be rolled out soon. These water basins were tested up the hill and they do work. When you shower you place the basin in the shower on top of the shower mat and this makes it secure. The basin also has a 10L mark. It was noted that Allan Gray House do not have shower mats.

2019.01.13 HALL BUDGET 2019 – FIRST DRAFT

Candice submitted the first draft of the budget, which was circulated with the agenda. See Appendix 11. There were no further comments.

Cath asked the committee to think of ideas on how to spend the capital equipment grant amount that we still have leftover from 2015. It was noted that we no longer receive this grant each year.

2019.01.14 KAY MOSIANE AWARD

The committee agreed that we must continue with this award this year. If we want to continue with this award in the future we need to think of fundraising ideas. As this award is to be presented at the Welcome Dinner next week Tuesday the award committee needs to meet this week. As Tlamelo and Albert are not available, Cath will meet with the Hall

Senior Student and Head Students on Wednesday, time to be confirmed. Wardens to send their nominations with their Head Student.

2019.01.15 SUB-WARDENS AS FIRE MARSHALS

As we need to have fire marshals in each res, and this can't be the Warden as they are the Res Health & Safety Officer, Sub-Wardens will need to be fire marshals. Training will be arranged. Sub-Wardens to stay after the meeting to sign the Fire Marshal Form.

Wardens were asked to please update their fire /emergency posters in res.

2019.01.16 MAINTENANCE

Maintenance requisitions are not being done, even after follow-ups. Cath reported that all the various Heads and Managers are aware of the problem. Candice is looking into using a spreadsheet system to report maintenance issues, that students will have access to and will be able to see if their problems have been reported, etc., and Cath will take this to the Hall Wardens Meeting.

The meeting ended at 19h19

ALLAN GRAY HOUSE REPORT

- We have a house meeting on Sunday 17 February.
- On Saturday the 23rd of February we have a residence braai.
- The academic rep is holding a session which is compulsory for all first years at 7pm on Fridays to complete a course which was introduced by Chrissie Boughie as part of a learning program and feedback exercise on how first years are coping with their academics .
- To open another grazzle and election for a house treasurer as the portfolio is vacant and needs someone to take over.
- Had a fundraising activity of selling brownies to give some money to Community Engagement or Upcoming Give 5.

Prince Alfred Head Student Report: Term 1

O-Week

- ⑩ Overall, I would deem O-week a success in terms of making the first years feel welcome in PA.
- ⑩ House Comm developed good relationships with the first years.
- ⑩ The schedule was communicated via timetables put up in notice boards. This worked to an extent however I still had many people asking me about details given on the timetables proving that they were not really paid much attention to.
- ⑩ There were many things that I did not realise fell into my portfolio and so were either neglected or left until the last minute. Please can the head students in future please be given reminders or more in depth training in the following years as not knowing creates a feeling of inadequacy which can reflect into the leadership style and create an insecure leader who can be easily overpowered.
- ⑩ Our campus tour did not really help the first years find their way around campus, and I am still planning on taking them on another one to help them, if they feel like they need it.

Jamming

- ⑩ We participated in fun 'jams' with other houses, organised by Pam (Entertainment and Food Rep). This went well and they really enjoyed the practices and jamming with the other houses. We did some jams after the main RU Jamming competition as it was just for the fun of it. We had many houses re-schedule/cancel as well as ourselves having to do the same. Morning jams did not go down well, as either the first years did not want to do it, or the other house cancelled. In future, I think it would be best to avoid doing morning jams altogether.
- ⑩ RU Jamming was a huge success. We placed second overall. I feel this was largely because they had fun with it, and those involved in teaching also enjoyed it. Everyone worked hard to pull the routine together in a short space of time and I think the work ethic would be great to carry through to the future. However, in future, the entertainment reps should finalise the routine beforehand in order to have a more structured rehearsal instead of 'figuring out as they go' as this wasted a lot of time and made us look disorganised.

Movie Night

- ⑩ This was a good opportunity to have us all come together and go through the same emotions watching a movie. It provided something to talk about afterwards and a jumping board into relating to each other.
- ⑩ I received positive feedback from first years as they felt it gave them an opportunity to just relax together after a packed schedule.
- ⑩ Prince Alfred was split into helping with set up and popcorn. I oversaw the popcorn. This should have been started earlier, as it took a long time, however this was out of our hands as we had to co-ordinate with Tlamelo in order to use her kitchen. 3 people were enough to manage that process.

Karaoke Night

- ⑩ Prince Alfred hosted a karaoke night on Friday, 8 February, to end off o-week.
- ⑩ This was a success as everyone enjoyed themselves and was able to let loose a little.
- ⑩ The snacks were a bit over done as some had to be thrown away, as it was just for first years and house comm.
- ⑩ Returners were not included as we wanted to give the first years a final space of their own in order to make them feel more secure in the house before the returners got involved.

Drama Production

- ⑩ Attending the production was beneficial and provided a launching point for discussion.
- ⑩ We held a debrief session following the play, but they were quiet and some seemed reluctant to speak.
- ⑩ Some students were triggered emotionally, but those that spoke about it, we were able to get them help and support.

Amazing Race

- ⑩ We did not provide adequate notice for this event and the response was poor.

Transformation

- ⑩ We are transforming a board in the common room into a environmental and transformation awareness board. The first poster for the board will be on water saving and the importance of it.
- ⑩ The theme for Prince Alfred this year is that of 'precious gems' inspired by the quote "Wathint' Abafazi, Wathint' Imbokodo". This is an effort to promote female empowerment within the res. This is also done through putting quotes from influential women in society on each door.
- ⑩ We plan to have small group discussions in an effort to create safe spaces to ask questions and engage with confusing topics, especially for the first years.

Environmental

- ⑩ With the water crisis, we have been trying to push water saving throughout res.
- ⑩ Posters provided on water saving have been put up in major areas such as bathrooms, the kitchen, on notice boards and near the doors.
- ⑩ We have been collecting water from a leaking shower and placing it in the toilets to be used as grey water for flushing.
- ⑩ As previously mentioned, we are creating a board in the common room to educate the students on the crisis and sharing tips to help deal with it.

Entertainment and Food

- ⑩ There is a scheduled house braai for Saturday, 23 February.
- ⑩ We have not been able to plan any further events as of yet.

Sports

- ⑩ Some students participated in the sports event on Wednesday, 13 February.
- ⑩ This seemed to only be first years and house comm members. This was due to lack of communication with the rest of the house in terms of advertising the event.
- ⑩ This was also set in motion relatively late.
- ⑩ Although, it seemed that those that participated did enjoy it.

Due to a busy schedule on everyone's part, we have been unable to meet and sufficiently discuss any plans, but this is going to be done in the next week.

Graham House

REPORT

UPCOMING EVENTS

February 15: RU Learning Session

February 26: Welcome Dinner

Graham House Committee Planning:

The Graham House Committee has set two priority areas for the House in 2019. This is in line with idea of cascading the values of the Drostdy Hall Committee to House level, at the same time taking note of time constrains as full time students, and the current situation we find ourselves in as a community. In 2019 Graham House is set to prioritize Academic excellence and outstanding contribution in Environmental campaign and action. Participation in all other portfolios will be maintained (and improved where there is a need to do so), however in the two focus areas the House intends to excel on a competitive level in the Hall and on campus, and go beyond the regular activities.

Activities:

Activities that have been carried out in the past three weeks were focused on the orientation of the first year students. This started off with the training of the house committee members (house comm) on leadership, and operations and expectations specific to the different portfolios.

Academics:

The first year students attended the Academic workshops including: the training facilitated by the Deputy Vice- Chancellor and Dean of the Science Faculty, the Hall academic talk (Barrat 3), and the House Academic talks (with assistance from second year students from different faculties).

The feedback received from the Academic sessions that the first years had with their different Faculties and Departments suggests that the first years found these to very helpful. However, the first years mentioned the need for some sessions on academic writing and use of online resources, and these have been scheduled for the coming week (starting with the RU Learning Session set for Friday 15 February, in the Graham House Common Room). In terms of performance in the past exam session, the House is in the process of creating ideas to improve the results.

Sports:

The first years attended the Sports and Societies extravaganza during orientation week, and the Sports Rep also explained the various sporting codes offered on campus. SRC hosted an extravaganza on the 9th of February at the Steve Biko Lawns which ran concurrent to the Amazing Race event, which was hosted for first years.

Plans to have an active Graham House soccer team are progressing very well and there has been a commendable response from the first years. The league will begin in the 2nd term. There have been a few friendlies that have been played and the first years seem very keen on participating in sport. Graham is set for a great year with wellness at the fore front of the academic agenda.

Activism and Transformation:

Throughout the Orientation week, the issues and activities that align with Activism and Transformation were addressed in the official program (the being well and aware sessions in the afternoons and RU Drama Department Play). These included disability, gender based violence, and counselling talks. Attendance was compulsory for the events. A reflection session was conducted after the Play by the RU Drama Department and the students engaged in the issues raised in the play. In terms of activism and transformation the past activities were successful, and initiated dialogue on the topical issues.

Entertainment:

Graham House joined Prince Alfred and Allan Gray houses to perform as Drostdy Hall in RU JAMMING, and the Hall came out as second best act in the finals. Jamming activities with other houses (Charlotte House, Helen Joseph, Dingemans, Livingston and Canterbury House) were organised to help the first year students meet other first year students. Participation and enthusiasm from the Graham House first year students is noteworthy.

Enviromental:

The House was informed of the current water crisis and the measures the university is taking to minimize usage and prolong the current supply. Graham House is set to be an environment conscious residence, and plans are underway to raise awareness (posters and notifications in hall ways), and to initiate best practices in sustainable water usage; recycling; and hygiene, among other focuses.

Hall Senior Student

As we are still in the early stages of this term as Hall Senior there is not much, I can report upon besides the events we had during orientation week with the first years. Our first hall event was the informal meet up of the first years and all the respective House Comms of Graham House, Allen Grey and Prince Alfred which was in the dining hall after dinner on the third of February, it went very well as the first years were able to get to know each other and familiarize themselves with their fellow Drostdy students and House Comms.

We then also had a movie night in the Allen Grey common room on the fourth of February, due to the budget, the teams for set up and clean up everything was a success. This was mainly because we have a great understanding and cohesion with this years House Comm and I have them to thank for the event becoming a success. I'm sure other members touched on our success as Drostdy in the RU Jamming so I'll just skip that.

My next focus as Hall Senior is welcome dinner which is going to happen on the last Tuesday of the month. I have already out together a menu with the staff at the dining hall and I have all readying gathered plans for décor although I am still taking suggestions. My other focus for the dinner is having the first years perform on stage at the dinner including other individual acts.

My overall view is that this year could be a year of prosperity and we can improve a lot from last year, not that last year was a bad year but because there is always room for improvement. By prosperity I mean in terms of academic excellence, sports and transformation just to mention a few. I feel this way because we have a lot of bold and charismatic leaders who are not afraid to reach greater objects and yes these leaders are not just within our respective House Comms but also within our first years.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT –INTERNAL-BENNITA.

- We have a community engagement training on the 16th of February so there is nothing much that has been said as I await the meeting in relation to the other CEreps of Prince Alfred, Allan Gray and Graham House...

Community engagement- External- Christine

Nothing to report at the moment.

The CE office is slightly behind with the running the programme. However we will be having our meeting on Saturday the 16th.

Please expect a report on that by Saturday Evening

16 February 2019

External Report- Christine Roeber

Community engagement training and introduction to partners

- Meet and greet with our part Noncedo Pre-Primary School. Focuses on 4-5 years olds
- They gave us 3 goals to complete possibly by before end of year;
 1. School readiness- this will depend on their schedule for the week. We will be focusing on reading, writing, learning about colours, shapes and animals
 2. Fundraising ways: teach the practitioners how to fundraise, how to write a letter/approach businesses who they need funding from.
 3. Painting and decorations- Since the classroom has been painted already, they asked that we paint a net in the playground where the kids usually play during the day.
 - We need to decide on the date and time on when we can avail ourselves.
 - Fundraising: still need to decide on what kind of fundraising ideas we will do to raise money for painting material

Good day Candice.

I hope this mail finds you well.

So at the moment not much sporting events have commenced. But regardless, a few did happen and Drostdy Hall participated in them all, two as a Hall and one as individual reses.

The first was RUjammimg where we participated as a Hall and came in second place and won R2000. I am not sure if it does count as a sport activity or not. But regarding the price, some of the comm memebers thought it would be best if it was split amongst the three reses (it can be discussed properly in the hall comm meeting as an agenda).

Then we had THE AMAZING RACE. Where we also decided to participate as a Hall looking at the fact that PA did not have a lot of participants for the game. We divided ourselves into 3 teams. The strategy that we used was that in every team there is at least a guy or a returner to ensure that we have the upper hand in order to win. Regardless of our strategy, two of our teams took on position 5 and 6. We don't know what happened to the last team.

And lastly, it was GAMES DAY which was held last night, (13th Feb). Here every res participated individually. Allan Gray- they played Tug of war and lost, played egg race and came in third place, played netball and won against their opposing teammates, played soccer and touch rugby and had a draw in them both.

Graham house- they played touch rugby, egg race and soccer and won them all. But lost in tug of war.

PA- I never really got a report from their sports rep.

I tried to do a follow up with PA but the Sports rep has been offline so I never got feedback, so I don't know of their outcomes in the Games day event.

That's all for now. I'm new to this so if there are any errors on the report please inform me. Thank you.

Kind regards
Malatji Surprice

Academic Portfolio Term 1: 2019

Report By: Dimakatso Giovinah Pitja- Drostdy Hall Academic Rep

- The Academic Reps for each of the houses have begun planning out how to implement the RULearning course in the different houses.
- The aim is for the reps to have a closer working relationship this year through constant communication on WhatsApp as well as meetings once a month for catch up sessions as well as planning academic events.
- The goal is to set up the dining hall poster with the names of returners willing to assist fellow students by the end of the term.
- The Academic Reps want to design posters on how to study as well as how to take notes for the houses, particularly targeting first years. The goal is to have this done by around the 15th of March.
- I would also like to encourage reading for leisure in reses as well as encourage book swaps in reses (provided people agree to respect other people's belongings). Library visits will also be encouraged in the reses.
- The reps will also be encouraged to assist each other with fundraising events for academics.
- Academic teas in the reses will take place. The reps will have freedom to implement these how they see fit but it will still be a collaborative effort and I will be present overseeing everything.
- The reps and myself will encourage the use of ADPs for all first years.

Drostdy Hall Transformation and Awareness Rep Report

- ⑩ There are plans in the works to host a consent talk with the hall. The details are still being sorted out. At the moment, the plan is to have a large talk with everyone in a large venue and then if necessary host smaller talks in the individual halls. This will be hosted by the SRC with assistance from Nkolie-Fassie as far as I'm aware.
- ⑩ I would also like to host a hall transformation discussion, especially for the first years, with speakers who can talk from experience and answer any questions as well as educate well on certain topics. It is important that this be a safe space for those who are unsure of anything and so I am hoping to include a member of the counselling centre or someone else to help facilitate and ensure aggression is kept to a minimum from both sides, as well as to provide support if necessary for any students that may need it.
- ⑩ Small discussion groups are also planned for the individual houses, to be set up by the house reps.
- ⑩ I am still going to set up a meeting with all the reps in order to discuss our way forward and agree on what we want to focus on in terms of awareness raising and how that will be implemented.

Hall Comm contribution on the above would be greatly appreciated, especially with the talks.
