CONGRATULATIONS!

December 2022

Dear Graduand/Diplomand

Firstly, on behalf of the University, congratulations on your academic achievement. We wish you and your guests a happy and memorable graduation celebration in March 2023. The highlights of this special period in the University calendar include the formal splendour of the graduation ceremonies themselves and the equally colourful but more relaxed atmosphere of the garden party.

In the following pages you will find the necessary information about various practical aspects of the graduation week (including booking tickets, appropriate attire and payments).

Details are also provided about membership of Convocation, the Old Rhodian Union and the NRF Register of Graduates - items which should be of interest to new graduates/diplomates.

If there are any aspects pertaining to graduation that are not adequately covered in this booklet, enquiries should be directed to the Student Bureau (Eden Grove) by telephone +27 (0)46 603 8276 or by e-mail to registrar@ru.ac.za.

Yours sincerely

Professor DA Sewry
Acting Registrar

Section 1: Confirming attendance/non-attendance at Graduation

How do I inform the University if I will/will not attend graduation?

The preferred method to inform the University of your intention to attend/not attend the graduation ceremony is to complete our online graduation reply card at <https://ross.ru.ac.za>. Students who no longer have access to ROSS can return a paper copy reply card which can be downloaded from the Rhodes University website at: <https://www.ru.ac.za/graduationgateway/>

When is the closing date for confirming attendance?

Graduands/Diplomands must respond to the University regarding their attendance at graduation by no later than Friday, 10 March 2023. Graduands/Diplomands who fail to do so, are at risk of not being allocated any tickets for their guests for the graduation ceremony or garden party. It is thus in your own interest to inform the University of your attendance as soon as possible.

More information about the online reply card

Completing the online reply card is the easiest and safest way in which to inform the University of your attendance/non-attendance. You are required to log onto your ROSS account to access it, which allows the system to identify the qualification awarded to you and to determine at which ceremony your qualification is being awarded/conferred.

If you indicate that you do not wish to attend the graduation ceremony, you will be directed to information regarding the various means by which you can receive your parchment after the ceremonies in March 2023 – for further details see Section 2.

More information about the paper copy reply card

The six graduation ceremonies are colour coded as follows:

1.	Wednesday	29 March 2023	09h30	Buff (light orange)
2.	Wednesday	29 March 2023	14h30	Green
3.	Thursday	30 March 2023	09h30	Yellow
4.	Thursday	30 March 2023	14h30	Blue
5.	Friday	31 March 2023	09h30	Lilac (light purple)
6.	Friday	31 March 2023	14h30	Pink

Should you decide to return the paper copy reply card, please indicate the ceremony colour and use the degree/diploma/certificate coding that appears in the University Calendar when confirming which qualification you have completed, e.g. BCom, MSS, PhD (Education), etc.

May children attend the ceremony?

Children under the age of 15 years will not be allowed entrance to the main auditorium. They are instead permitted to watch the ceremony on closed-circuit television in one of the TV Halls, but must be accompanied by an adult.

Who is permitted on stage?

The graduation ceremony is held to celebrate the achievements of our graduands, thus only the graduands and members of the academic procession are permitted on stage.

I would like to attend - how many tickets may I book?

Graduands/Diplomands attending the ceremony are each automatically allocated a seat in the Auditorium, thus they should not be included in the request for tickets.

Each graduand/diplomand is entitled to two guest tickets for the auditorium. Recipients of a Masters or an LLB degree are entitled to three auditorium tickets, while recipients of a Doctoral degree are entitled to four auditorium tickets.

There are also a limited number of TV Hall tickets available, which entitle holders to view proceedings in one of the TV Halls on closed-circuit television. Normally no more than two TV Hall tickets can be given to a Graduand/Diplomand and it is recommended that students check the allocation of the TV Hall tickets before booking flights, etc. for any additional guests.

Garden Party tickets are issued to Graduands/Diplomands and up to 6 guests.

How should I return the paper copy reply card?

You may email the reply card using the below email address. Alternatively, you may hand deliver it to our Student Bureau in the Eden Grove Building.

Student Bureau: registrar@ru.ac.za

If you email the paper copy reply card, the onus is on you to confirm that we have received it, but kindly only do so after Friday, 3 March 2023 or allow 2 working days if submitted after this date. Due to the large volume of queries, we would prefer that you e-mail your request for confirmation to registrar@ru.ac.za.

When and where do I collect my tickets?

NB: Seating tickets and Garden Party tickets will NOT be emailed or posted to Graduands/Diplomands.

All tickets must be collected in person, either at the Student Bureau (Eden Grove Building) or an hour before each ceremony at the Monument Box Office. Tickets will be available for collection at the Student Bureau during office hours (09h00 – 16h00) from Tuesday, 28 March 2023 or at the Monument Box Office an hour before each ceremony. Please produce suitable ID (student card, identity document or passport) when collecting tickets.

Section 2: Information for Students Not Attending Graduation

I am not able to attend graduation – what do I do?

Graduands/Diplomands who will not be attending the ceremony must inform the University of their non-attendance by completing the online reply card or by returning the paper copy reply card.

What arrangements are needed to receive my parchment?

Students who graduate in absentia (i.e. do not attend the ceremony) may collect their degree/diploma parchments at the Academic Administration Office (lower ground floor of the Eden Grove Building) starting from the Tuesday following the week of graduation, i.e. from Tuesday, 4 April 2023.

Alternatively, students may submit written permission allowing a friend/family member to collect the parchments on their behalf from 4 April 2023 onwards. The written permission must be submitted to the Academic Administration Office by email to parchments@ru.ac.za. Please include the details of the relevant student as well as the full name and ID/Passport number of the friend/family member who in turn must produce suitable ID (identify document or passport) when collecting the parchment. An appointment will be scheduled and a confirmation of appointment e-mail will be sent out.

Students who are not able to collect their degree/diploma parchments may request that their parchment be sent to them or to their parents/guardians by completing the form titled “Receiving Degree/Diploma Parchment if Not Attending Graduation”. Those students who complete the online reply card will be directed to an online version of this form at which point they will also have the option to pay the relevant courier fee.

NO degree parchments will be sent without written instruction from the student and payment of the courier fee.

How will my parchment be sent to me?

Kindly note that for security reasons parchments will only be couriered and will not be mailed via registered or secure mail, thus please do not submit a Private Bag, PO Box, etc. address. You are required to provide the following information regarding the person receiving the parchment:

Name and surname
Physical/street address
Postal code
Contact telephone number
Email address

If you do not provide all the details needed, it will prevent the University from being able to send your parchment.

What is the cost and how do I make payment?

The various courier fees are included further on and payment thereof is required before parchments will be sent to their recipients. Students who complete the online version of the “Receiving Degree/Diploma Parchment if Not Attending Graduation” form and attached proof of payment of relevant courier fee will be assisted with sending the parchment via DHL Couriers.

However, students who complete the online form and do not submit proof of payment, will be required to provide proof of payment. Similarly, students who complete and return the hard copy version of the above form are required to submit proof of payment along with the form by email to parchments@ru.ac.za.

Courier fees:	R300-00	National (within South Africa)
	R350-00	Neighbouring southern African countries (i.e. Botswana, Lesotho, Mozambique, Namibia, Swaziland and Zimbabwe)

Section 3: What to Wear

What do I wear to the Graduation Ceremony and Garden Party?

Academic dress must be worn at the graduation ceremonies and at the garden party.

Graduands must wear graduate gowns and carry the hood appropriate to the degree they are to receive. They must not appear on the stage wearing hoods from other Universities or for first Rhodes degrees.

Diplomands who are already graduates wear a graduate gown and the hood of their degree. All other Diplomands must wear an undergraduate gown. The proper length of the graduate and undergraduate gown is 15 - 20 centimetres below the knee, and a gown shorter than this should never be worn.

The length of the gown is never to be related to the length of the wearer's dress and a gown should never be shortened so that the sleeves are longer than the gown. The collar of the dress should never appear over the gown.

The University is aware of the many cultures and traditions inherent in its student body and graduand/diplomand are welcome to wear garments which reflect those cultures and traditions. By custom, graduands and diplomands at Rhodes University do not wear mortar boards at the graduation ceremony. Please know that unreasonably high heels can be a risk when participating in the ceremony. The ceremonies are dignified events and students are encouraged to dress accordingly.

What should my guests wear?

Guests are welcome, and even encouraged, to wear academic dress. Guests are also welcome to wear traditional garments or dress.

Where do I purchase/hire academic dress? (Form included separately)

Messrs T. Birch & Co. (Pty) Ltd (Birch's) - PO Box 66, Makhanda, 6140, is the preferred service provider for Rhodes academic dress. They maintain a rental and purchase stock of graduate gowns and hoods. Please use the Birch's order form available at <https://www.ru.ac.za/graduationgateway/> for your convenience and deal directly with the shop. Queries can be directed to rhodes@birchs.co.za or telephone: +27 (0)46 622 7010 or +27 (0)46 620 2509 or fax: +27 (0)46 622 5091. The University is not involved in these transactions and accepts no responsibility for any mishaps.

Section 4: Seating for Ceremonies

When should my guests be seated?

The ceremonies are held in the main auditorium at the 1820 Settlers Monument. Doors will be opened at 09h00 and 14h00 on each of the Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Please move into the auditorium early and be reminded that guests are not permitted to leave the auditorium until the ceremony has concluded. Please note, seats that are vacant 15 minutes before the ceremony commences will be allocated to guests holding TV Hall Tickets. Latecomers or those with ticket problems should report to the box office at the main entrance.

Guests are reminded that children under the age of 15 years will not be allowed entrance to the auditorium. They can watch the ceremony on closed-circuit television in one of the TV Halls, but must be accompanied by an adult.

When should the graduands and diplomands be seated?

Graduands and diplomands should be seated 30 minutes before the commencement of the ceremony. Seating plans for the graduands and diplomands will be on display outside the Auditorium. Detailed instructions for the guidance of graduands and diplomands in receiving degrees/diplomas will be found on their seats reserved for them on stage.

Are cameras allowed into the auditorium?

Guests are NOT ALLOWED to use video, digital or still cameras in the auditorium. Professional photographers will be present in the Great Hall after each ceremony (please see section 6 for details).

Lamination of parchments – NOT advised

In recent years Graduands/Diplomands have opted to have their parchments laminated. It is important to realise that the parchments currently issued contain a number of safety features that would be compromised should the parchment be laminated. Graduands/diplomands are thus strongly advised NOT TO LAMINATE their parchments as these will compromise security features. Replacement parchments will be at a cost as per the University fees booklet.

Photographs

At the annual graduation ceremonies, it has been customary for selected professional studios to take individual photographs of graduands/diplomands being capped by the Chancellor and hooded by the Registrar in the Auditorium. These photographs are then available from the studios concerned. The University is not involved in the transaction and accepts no responsibility for any mishaps.

Guests are reminded that no flash photography is allowed within the main auditorium during the graduation ceremonies.

Studio photographs

Photographic studio services will be available. These studios will operate from the foyer of the Monument. The University is not involved in this transaction and accepts no responsibility for any mishaps.

Section 7: Convocation and Old Rhodian Union

Convocation

Well done to everyone who is graduating in March 2023. You have crossed the finishing line on your life as a student and started an exciting journey in your chosen professions. 2023 augurs well for technology with all the innovations from the pandemic years coming to fruition. Predictions for 2023 include the projection that 80% of the world will have a digital presence and 90% of the world will have a supercomputer in their pockets (www.quantumrun.com). Forbes highlights five predictions but I'll only mention two. Firstly, that the world will undergo a significant digital transformation and that businesses will experience a talent challenge. This means that companies will need to create environments where people want to work, where the culture is conducive to innovation, participation and individual growth. 'Offering people fulfilling work, ongoing opportunities to grow and learn, flexibility and diverse, value-oriented workplaces will all be essential in 2023' (www.forbes.com).

You're entering a work world where you will need to be very clear about what you expect from your employer and what you are willing to contribute to your role and the organisation. Know what you're willing to compromise on and what your non-negotiable requirements are. Companies are going to make quick decisions about talent and what they need to recover from the pandemic. You will need to be clear and decisive too.

You are joining a special group of Rhodians who continue to make their mark on the world. The recent Journalism and Media Studies 50th anniversary selected 50 outstanding graduates in their field during 2022. The university also awarded exceptional alumni for their work in their respective areas. You have the opportunity to join their ranks and to change the world or change your world.

The institution has transformed and continues to do so. You as alumni have an opportunity to contribute to future students who will carry on the reputation of the university. Consider 'giving back' to the university in a small way by joining the Rhodes Alumni organisation. You could contribute to the next generation's dreams and to the future of the university.

Congratulations again and good luck with the next episode in your life's story.

Dr Michèle Ruiters
President of Convocation

All persons who are graduates of Rhodes University become, in terms of the University Statute, members of the Convocation of the University. Graduands are requested to notify the alumni office of any change of address at alumni@ru.ac.za. The Annual General Meeting of Convocation is held at Rhodes each year. In 2023 the AGM meeting will be held on Saturday, 2 September 2023.

Professor DA Sewry
Acting Registrar and Secretary of Convocation

Old Rhodian Union (ORU)

The year 2022 was a busy and exciting one for the Rhodes University Community. Rhodes University returned to campus after the pandemic and activities became somewhat normal with lectures, practicals, tutorials and sporting activities taking up much of our daily routine and of course the importance of hosting graduates for normal graduation was the pinnacle of the 2022 academic year. In October when we celebrated an additional graduation for Masters and Doctoral candidates, we also held ceremonies to celebrate those students who were unable to attend their ceremonies due to COVID. This indeed was a special week for those who attended and for the University to acknowledge and celebrate the successes of our alumni affected by the pandemic. The Institutional Development Plan which is founded on the principles of sustainability, simultaneous local responsiveness and global engagement, advancing social justice and advancing the public good purpose of higher education was revised and we are excited to see the roll out of the new approach following approval by all committees of the University.

The Old Rhodian Union through your membership is becoming richer in terms of diversity and the quality of contributions made by our alumni to the institution and society. These qualities assist the Union to raise funds to provide financial support to the children of Old Rhodians, and in doing so, lessen the burden of need on other fundraising initiatives and financial support programmes, within the University.

It is pleasing that we continue to experience the graduation ceremonies in person once again which allows us to re-establish bonds with classmates, team mates, academic and support staff who all celebrate your outstanding achievement of obtaining a Rhodes University degree. The calibre of graduates and leaders who will graduate over the graduation week in 2023, will no doubt improve the potential for the success of our funding initiatives. The leaders, all of you are, are acutely aware of the value of investing in the future and of course the next generation of students that enrol at Rhodes University.

As a small University campus, I am certain that no one leaves Rhodes without forming a strong bond with the people of Makhanda and the spirit of collective engagement that the University sees as part of its responsible approach to delivering higher education.

My message to you, as you extend your experiences beyond Rhodes, is to remember that the Union is a platform for re-establishing connections, making intellectual and financial inputs into the future of the institution and more specifically that of future Rhodians, including your own children. In this way we can also ensure the sustainability of our fine institution as it negotiates its journey as an outstanding internationally and locally relevant university on the African continent.

The Union seeks to be a true and representative voice of the Alumni. I therefore urge you to contribute as and when the opportunity arises whether it be in cash or kind. Now more than ever, the ORU needs your support and contributions to assist the University to achieve its objectives as an institution that is proud to state “this is where leaders learn”.

Professor Rod Walker
Old Rhodian Union President

March 2023

Dear Rhodian,

It gives me great pleasure to congratulate you on the achievement of graduate status and to welcome you to membership of Convocation and of the Old Rhodian Union. As a member of Convocation you will be entitled, after graduation, to attend the Annual General Meetings of this statutory body and to participate in the performance of its functions. In order to exercise these rights, please ensure that the University has your current contact details, including e-mail and postal addresses. (Email alumni@ru.ac.za).

Membership of the Old Rhodian Union entitles you to attend all ORU functions, including periodic reunions, either in Makhanda or in other centres. Regular editions of the electronic newsletter will be sent to you, provided that your correct address details are up to date. In welcoming you to the ranks of Rhodes University alumni, we urge you to take an active interest, throughout your life, in the affairs of Convocation, the Old Rhodian Union and the University as such. Please help us to maintain contact with you and we appeal to you to let us have news of yourself and other Old Rhodians from time to time.

With very best wishes for the future,

Yours sincerely
The Old Rhodian Union President
