Judged in terms of key performance indicators, Rhodes University is one of South Africa and Africa's outstanding universities with a proud reputation as a 'Scholarly University'.

Advancing the frontiers of knowledge to change society for the better, Rhodes provides a quality education to students from diverse social, economic and national backgrounds. The University produces the best undergraduate pass rates, outstanding graduation rates, and ranks amongst the highest per capita research outputs and percentage of staff with doctorates of all South African universities.

Doctoral studies are undertaken by full thesis and under the guidance of supervisors.

Students are accepted depending on staff availability, the candidate's academic record, and in relation to the topic.

At JMS you can either do a full-time or part-time PhD, depending on your research subject and time constraints.
