4. THE TUTORIAL SYSTEM

NB NB NB!!!

PLEASE NOTE that you stay in the SAME tutorial group you were allocated to for Col101. If you now have a clash with times, PLEASE report it to the Graduate assistants WITHIN the first week, so that they can allocate you to another tutorial group.

Any queries as to tutorial groups must be addressed by e-mail to the Graduate Assistants:

Anthony Hanauer g9630006@campus.ru.ac.za

Chipso Sitotombe g05s2810@campus.ru.ac.za

- a) Students will normally be required to prepare work for discussion in their tutorials. Such work will be indicated to students by the respective lecturers of each section. Note: Being absent from lectures and hence not knowing what work is required for tutorials is obviously unacceptable.
- b) It is a DP requirement to attend ALL tutorials and to submit any prescribed work for a given tutorial. Should you not comply with these requirements, you may not be allowed to write the Commercial Law 1 examinations. Students should note that leaving town early for, and arriving back late from, the university vacations is not an acceptable reason for missing a tutorial, lecture or tests or for submitting work late.
- c) You are required to attend the tutorial group you have been allocated to.
- d) The tutors will keep a register and a student who, without a valid excuse misses a tutorial may be refused a DP certificate. If a tutorial has been missed, the student must furnish the tutor with a copy of the leave of absence (LOA), while the original leave of absence form should be handed to the Law Secretary. IMPORTANT: If you are granted a LOA, it is your responsibility to attend another tutorial in the same cycle. You must email the Graduate assistants to indicate to them which tutorial you normally attend (for which a LOA has been granted) and the details of the make-up tutorial you have attended.

6. ASSIGNMENTS

There will be 3 assignments each for Commercial Law 101 and Commercial Law 102. These assignments will be marked by your tutor and moderated by the lecturer concerned. The due dates thereof will be STRICTLY ENFORCED. Absolutely no informal extensions will be granted by a tutor, graduate assistant, lecturer or course co-ordinator for submission of work. Failure to submit an assignment may lead to the loss of your DP and will result in a mark of zero for that assignment.

If a LOA is granted for an assignment, students are still required to submit the assignment within one week after the period for which the LOA has been granted. Failure to do so will result in a student being awarded a mark of zero for the assignment.

NB: Assignments, which must be typed, must be timeously place in the relevant tutor's box outside the Law Library with the following information on the cover page:

8. EXAMINATIONS

There will be a three-hour examination for Commercial Law 101 in June. This will cover the work done in the first semester and will count as a write-off course. A prerequisite for entry into Comm Law 102 is a credit or mark of above 35% for Comm Law 101. There will be a three-hour examination for Commercial Law 102 in November.

- A pass in Commercial Law 1 counts as a credit towards a B Com, B Bus Sci, B Soc Sci and B Sc degrees.
- Comm Law 101 and 102 are separate courses and a pass in either gives a student a half credit towards a degree. A credit in either course is not contingent upon passing the other. However, one must pass both courses, or obtain an aggregate (ACR) for Commercial Law 1, in order to proceed to Commercial Law 2.
- A student will obtain a credit for Commercial Law 1 according to the following rules:
- A credit will be given if a candidate has passed both courses irrespective of the year of examination in which they were passed.
- An aggregated credit (ACR) will be given if the candidate has an aggregated mark of at least 50% for both courses and has obtained at least 45% in the course failed.
- A non-continuing credit (NCR) will be given if the candidate has an aggregated mark of at least 50% for both courses and has obtained between 40% and 45% in the course failed.
- Aggregation may take place only in respect of examinations written in the same academic year.

- In the Faculty of Commerce an NCR may be given for Commercial Law 1 if a student has obtained a credit in both Legal Theory 1 and Legal Theory 2. (Rule C.6). This rule does not apply to the students registered in the Faculty of Humanities.
- A student who passes Commercial Law 1 with at least 60% may be admitted to Legal Theory 2 provided that the student registers concurrently for Foundations of Law, obtains a credit in Foundations of Law, and attends and performs satisfactorily in all the tutorials in Introduction to Law. In these circumstances a student will be exempted from obtaining a credit for Introduction to Law in the LLB degree.

SUPPLEMENTARY / REWRITE EXAMINATIONS

- Students in COL 101 may rewrite the subject in November, provided that they obtain at least 35% in the June examination. In such cases the mark obtained in November shall be the final result for that course, except in those instances in which a student has an ACR or and NCR and wished to obtain a credit in the course failed. No further supplementary examinations will be written in February.
- Students in Commercial Law 102 may be granted a February supplementary examinations provided that they obtain at least 40% in the November examination, and provided that they otherwise qualify for a supplementary examination in the Faculty in which they have been registered.
- Students who have obtained an NCR may rewrite the subject at a subsequent examination session in order to obtain a continuing credit provided that no special examination will be set for this purpose.
- Comm Law 1 NCR's will not be at risk when students rewrite the supplementary examination in February. So if they do worse, the NCR credit stands. The supplementary mark supersedes the first exam mark in all cases except where a student has an NCR or ACR.

9. DP CERTIFICATE

According to the University Calendar, in order to be admitted to an examination, a student

- a) must have satisfactorily attended the class meetings for the course under examination, and
- b) must have satisfactorily performed the work of the class.
(General rule)

The general provision applicable, except where otherwise stated, is that:

- Tutorial attendance is compulsory.
- Students are required to do all work of the class. The written work includes the tutorial assignments, essays and tests scheduled during the year.

Commercial Law students MUST comply with the DP requirements in respect of each component of the course.

These requirements will be applied strictly. Students wishing to apply for leave of absence for compassionate reasons; for health reasons (which must be supported by a medical certificate); and for any other compelling reason, must apply for such. Application forms can be obtained from the Law Faculty Secretary and returned to her for consideration by the Deputy Dean. It is your obligation to check whether an LOA has been granted to you for the missing of a lecture, tutorial, test or late submission of an assignment.

10. LIBRARY

Commercial Law students have the use of the main and the Law library and a lecturer may, from time to time, put material on short loan in the main or Law library. Due to the large numbers of the Commercial Law 1 class, any such material will ordinarily be placed at the main university library.

THERE IS NO PRESCRIBED BOOK FOR COMMERCIAL LAW 1 (i.e. you do not have to buy a textbook). Lecturers may recommend textbooks for specific parts of the course.

11. WARNING

Plagiarism and cheating of any form in assignments, tests, exams, etc. is strictly prohibited. Anyone found to have committed any of the foregoing acts will be charged under the University Disciplinary Code.
