

COMMERCIAL LAW 201: PAPER 2

Labour Law, Real and Personal Security, and Banking Law and Payment Instruments 2023

Lecturer: Ms Y Ndamase (y.ndamase@ru.ac.za)

Course Coordinator: Mr Jabavu (p.jabavu@ru.ac.za)

SECTION A: COMMERCIAL LAW 2 GENERAL INFORMATION

Welcome to Commercial Law 2! The information in this hand-out has been compiled to assist you. Please read it carefully to ensure that you are familiar with the contents.

1. COL 201 and COL 202 are separate courses, each of which gives a student a one semester credit towards a degree. A credit in one course is not contingent upon passing or registering for the other course.
2. COL 201 is taught and examined in the first semester and COL 202 is taught and examined in the second semester.
3. A student will obtain a credit for Commercial Law 2 according to the following rules:
 - 3.1 A credit will be given if a student has passed both courses irrespective of the year or examination in which they were passed.
 - 3.2 An aggregated credit (ACR) will be given if a student has an aggregated mark of at least 50% for both courses (i.e. COL 201 and COL 202) and has obtained at least 45% in the course failed.
 - 3.3 Aggregation may only take place in respect of examinations written in the same academic year.
4. COL 201 consists of two papers.
 - a. Paper 1 covers Special Contracts: sale, lease, carriage and insurance.
 - b. Paper 2 covers Labour Law, Real and Personal Security, Banking Law and Payment Instruments.
 - c. If a student does not obtain a final mark above 50% for COL 201, the student must re-write both papers for COL 201. The same rules apply to COL 202.
5. The course coordinator for COL 201 and COL 202 is Mr Jabavu and he can be contacted at p.jabavu@ru.ac.za. Any problems of an administrative nature should be directed to him while queries regarding the content of the course should be directed to the relevant lecturer.
6. It is recommended that students join the RUConnected pages for this course (COL 201 and COL 202). These pages will be used as the primary mode of communication with the class. Students will be provided with course materials, and they will be directed to any further reading during lectures through RUconnected. Additional sources of information will be posted on RUConnected.

7. Two one-hour exams will be written in June/July 2023 and two in November 2023 i.e. one examination each for Papers 1 and 2 in June/July and November.
8. The class mark component of COL 201 and COL 202 amount to 50% of the final mark. COL 201 will be examined in June 2023 and COL 202 will be examined in November 2023. The marks for Papers 1 and 2 will be added together and reduced to a mark out of 50. The remaining 50 marks will be calculated on the basis of the tests written during the relevant semester.
9. Students who fail COL 201 or COL 202 may be granted supplementary examinations provided that they obtain at least 40%.
10. There will be six continuous assessments in the form of short quizzes for both COL 201 and COL 202 (i.e. three tests for Com Law 201 and three tests for Com Law 202).

IT IS A DP REQUIREMENT FOR STUDENTS TO WRITE THE TESTS AND YOU WILL ONLY BE EXCUSED IF YOU HAVE A VALID LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

STUDENTS ARE REQUIRED TO IDENTIFY THEMSELVES AT TEST BY PRODUCING A VALID STUDENT CARD OR SOME FORM OF PHOTOGRAPHIC ID.

The marks obtained for the tests will count 50% towards the final mark for COL 201 and COL 202 and so it is in students' interests to take them seriously. The test dates, times and venues are reflected in the course outlines for each module.

11. More information regarding the duration, marks and structure of each assessment will be sent to students by the relevant lecturer.

COURSE OUTLINE

1. INTRODUCTION

Welcome to Commercial Law 201, Paper 2 in 2023. This is a component course of Commercial Law 201. Upon completion of this course, students should have a broad overview of the legal principles of Labour Law, Real and Personal Security and Banking Law & Forms of Payment and should be able to apply these principles in the commercial accounting profession. It includes the three modules for this course, namely:

- (a) Labour Law;
- (b) Real and Personal Security; and
- (c) The Law of Banking and Payment Instruments.

Labour law, real and personal security, and banking law and payment instruments together form one of two Commercial Law courses offered in the first semester to second year level students registered in the Faculty of Commerce (COL 201, paper 1 and COL 201, paper 2). Approximately 50% of the course is dedicated to labour law and the remaining 50% will be divided between real and personal security and banking law and payments. The purpose and outcomes of the course follow and expand upon the South African Institute for Chartered Accountants' (SAICA) recommendations for law courses.

In general, the course aims to provide insight into the nature and function of these areas of law in South Africa. In particular, the course aims to ensure that students have insight into the principles governing employment and labour contracts, the rights and responsibilities of employers and employees, the law relating to mortgages and pledges, as well as suretyship agreements, and finally the law relating to bills of exchange, promissory notes, cheques and electronic payments. In addition, the purpose of the course is to introduce students to the relevant legislation relating to each topic and to give them an understanding of some of the more common legal situations which can arise in a labour or banking relationship and how situations are dealt with by the law.

1.1 Credit Value

The course contains 7.5 Credits which translates into 7.5 hours to be spent on this course per week.

1.2 Assumptions of Prior Learning

In order successfully to complete this course, students need to be able to:

- be capable of writing and communicating in coherent English.
- have a basic working knowledge of the South African legal system, legal terminology and the general principles of contract learnt and applied in Commercial Law 101.
- know how and where to access resources such as textbooks, law reports and statutes in the Law Library.
- be capable of independent learning.
- be able to identify and apply legal principles to a set of facts given; and
- be capable of solving problems.

2. OUTCOMES

2.1 Critical Outcomes

Students will be able to:

- demonstrate knowledge of employment law;
- distinguish between employees and independent contractors;

7. RESOURCES

Please note that there are no prescribed texts for this course. However, there are several general Commercial Law textbooks which are very useful, as well as the relevant volumes of LAWSA (the Law of South Africa) which you will be able to find in the reference section of the Law Library (see some examples listed below). You will also need to consult legislation from time to time (specifically in reference to labour law). Legislation can be accessed on the internet via the Rhodes library webpage.

S Kopel	Guide to Business Law 6 th edition (2017) OUP: Cape Town. This textbook is particularly recommended as it covers the topics in Com Law 201 as well as 202
