

In support of Emerging African Academics and Researchers

Rhodes University Library is proud to invite you to their first Research Week event.

Our aim is to strengthen research support and partnerships between the Research Office, researchers, postgraduate students and the Library.

We look forward to hosting and meeting you in The Meeting Room (Level 4) at the Rhodes University Library.

Embark on your personal roadmap to advance and enhance your research journey

Monday 8 May

The Digital Research Landscape contextualised

Chair: Larshan Naicker

14h15 to 14h30 Director: Library Services, Ujala Satgoor

Welcome Address

14h30 to 15h00 DVC: Research and Development, Dr Peter Clayton

Welcome Address

15h00 to 15h30 Professor Tebello Nyokong, Department of Chemistry, Rhodes University

Keynote address: Internalisation of Research

15h30 to 16h00 Tea

1

Tuesday 9 May

Building your Research Toolkit

Chair: Fiona Still-Drewett

13h00 to 14h00 Patricia Jacob, Rhodes University Research Office

National Research Foundation (NRF) funding opportunities for emerging researchers

14h15 to 15h30 Prof Sioux McKenna, CHERTL, Rhodes University

Do you know who I am? Building a collaborative academic space in an era of individualism

15h30 to 17h00 Dr Mandy Hlengwa, CHERTL, Rhodes University

nGAP: Experiences of emerging researchers' research journey

2

Wednesday 10 May

Engaging with Traditional and Social Research Practices

Chair: Patricia Jacob

13h00 to 14h00 Jill Otto, Rhodes University Library

Citation Analysis

14h15 to 15h30 Fiona Bester, Incites

Supporting Research and Innovation at Rhodes University: Library as the hub of the University

15h30 to 16h30 Fiona Still-Drewett, Rhodes University Library

Social Media in research—friend or foe?

3

Thursday 11 May

Measuring the IMPACT of your research

Chair: Linda Cartwright

13h00 to 14h00 Thandiwe Menze, Rhodes University Library

Handling Data

14h15 to 15h30 Matthew Buys, ORCID Regional Director, EMEA

Skype session: Your work is distinctive, what about your name?

15h30 to 16h30 Debbie Martindale and Patricia Jacob, Rhodes University

Your ORCID Researcher Identity: Enhancing the impact and visibility of your research web presence

4

Friday 12 May

Raising the visibility of your research

13h00 to 14h00 Khawulile Radebe and Debbie Martindale, Rhodes University Library

Rhodes Digital Commons: Raising the visibility of your research

14h15 to 15h30 Nick Shockey, Director of Programs & Engagement: SPARC

Skype session: Open Access in Africa

15h30 to 16h00 Closing address

5