

Postgraduate Orientation

Friday 13 and Monday 16 February 2015

All new postgraduate students are urged to attend our postgraduate orientation programme. At this orientation you will:

- Meet fellow postgraduate students
- Learn more about the Department
- Find out what is expected of postgraduate students in the Department
- Hear about the postgraduate courses on offer in 2015
- Learn about the support offered by the Library to postgraduate students
- Get to chat informally to students and to staff members in the Department
- Sign up for the coursework component of your programme
- Explore supervision options (MA and PhD students)

The first day of Orientation (Friday 13 February) will be held at the Makana Resort with lunch and snacks provided. Meet at the Department at 9:15 to get the bus there. The second day of Orientation (Monday 16 February) takes place in the Department and at the Library.

Postgraduate studies are, as I am sure you are aware, demanding and difficult, but as these photos show, postgraduate studies are also very rewarding.

MA students on a writing retreat.

Postgrads on a fieldtrip.

Postgrads at the Thinking Africa colloquium.

Please RSVP by Monday 9 February to Likhona Mdluli (l.mdluli@ru.ac.za).