VISION AND MISSION STATEMENT

VISION

Rhodes University's vision is to be an outstanding internationally-respected academic institution which proudly affirms its African identity and which is committed to democratic ideals, academic freedom, rigorous scholarship, sound moral values and social responsibility.

MISSION

In pursuit of its vision, the University will strive to produce outstanding graduates who are innovative, analytical, articulate, balanced and adaptable, with a life-long love of learning; and to strive, through teaching, research and community service, to contribute to the advancement of international scholarship and the development of the Eastern Cape and Southern Africa.

Accordingly, the University undertakes

- to develop shared values that embrace basic human and civil rights;
- to acknowledge and be sensitive to the problems created by the legacy of apartheid, to reject all forms of unfair discrimination and to ensure that appropriate corrective measures are employed to redress past imbalances;
- to create a research-based teaching and learning environment that will encourage students to reach their full potential, that is supportive of students from disadvantaged backgrounds, and that will produce critical, capable and skilled graduates who can adapt to changing environments;
- to promote excellence and innovation in teaching and learning by providing staff and students with access to relevant academic development programmes;
- to provide an attractive, safe and well-equipped environment that is conducive to good scholarship and collegiality;
- to provide a safe and nurturing student support system as well as a diverse array of residential, sporting, cultural and leadership opportunities that will foster the all-round development of our students, the university and the region as a whole;
- to attract and retain staff of the highest caliber and to provide development programmes for staff at all levels;
- to promote excellence in research and other creative endeavours;
- to play an active role in promoting inter-disciplinary and inter-institutional collaboration within the Eastern Cape Province;
- where appropriate, to assist in the development of the Eastern Cape Province by making available the university's expertise, resources and facilities;
- to play a leading role in establishing a culture of environmental concern by actively pursuing a policy of environmental best practice;
- to strive for excellence and to promote quality assurance in all its activities.

THE FRONTISPIECE

*The University motto ‘Vis, virtus, veritas’, means

Heraldic description of the arms

Or on a Pile Sable an Open Book inscribed with the words ‘Sapientiam Exquiret Sapiens’ between three Escallops of the first. On a Chief Argent a Lion passant Gules between two Thistles slipped and leaved proper. And for the crest a Wreath of the Colours upon a Rock the Figure of a Man mounted on a Horse representing ‘energy’ all Argent.

Derivation of the coat of arms

Black and gold are the livery colours of the Graham family. The pile (inverted triangle) is characteristic of the Graham coat of arms, as are the escallops (shells), an emblem of pilgrimage. The lion and two thistles were taken from the coat of arms granted posthumously to Cecil John Rhodes. The crest is a representation of the famous statue by Watts which forms part of the Rhodes Memorial in Cape Town. The open book is a common feature of the arms of a college or university e.g. Oxford University.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY

Rhodes University College, 1904-1951

The idea of establishing a university in Makhanda was first put forward in the 1880s. In the early 1900s a small group formed an ad hoc committee which recommended that it be called the Eastern Province University College. They changed this to Rhodes University College to leverage funding out of the Rhodes Trust, which administered the will of Cecil Rhodes, who had died in 1902. The Trust granted £50,000 towards the founding of Rhodes University College.

Rhodes University College, then affiliated to the University of the Cape of Good Hope, began functioning in July 1904 with about fifty students, the vast majority of whom were men and all of whom were white, with classes initially being given in St Andrew's College buildings. Early in 1905, operations moved to the university's current site, the old Drostdy grounds. For the first five decades or so of the university's history, student culture was for the most part genteel, constrained as it was by enduring Victorian codes of behaviour and by strict rules and regulations. Social life revolved around tightly controlled dances, respectable courting, and walks on Mountain Drive. Extracurricular cultural activity centred on the debating, musical and dramatic societies. Sport gained momentum, with rugby at the forefront.

The University operated as a racially segregated institution for the first 70 years of its existence. There was a slight relaxation of this stance in the 1940s. Benjamin Mahlasela was appointed in 1942 to teach isiXhosa to first-year students on a part-time basis – he would go on to serve the university for thirty-five years. In 1947 Rhodes eventually agreed to admit black postgraduate students into courses not offered at the University of Fort Hare. In the event, though, only three were admitted over the next twelve years.

Rhodes University in the early apartheid era

Rhodes became an independent university in 1951 (having been affiliated to UNISA since 1918) and took on Fort Hare as an affiliate. The first four decades of Rhodes' existence as an independent university more or less coincided with the apartheid era, which saw a growing polarisation between the defenders and opponents of apartheid in the university community.

While teaching was still considered to be the primary activity, there was evidence that research, writing and artistic output were gaining some momentum in the 1950s and 1960s. The scientist to gain the greatest international renown was JLB Smith, who identified a mysterious fish caught in East London as a coelacanth, believed to have been extinct for millions of years. Among other prominent scientists at Rhodes from the 1950s and 1960s were the physicist, Jack Gledhill, and the zoologist, Brian Allanson. The most notable figures in the Humanities during this time included Guy Butler of the Department of English, and Andre Brink in the Department of Afrikaans. Guy Butler was the driving-force behind the founding of the Rhodes theatre, the Institute for the Study of English in Africa (ISEA), and the National English Literary Museum (NELM). Andre Brink was by far the most prolific writer ever to have taught at Rhodes – the author of over twenty novels, in addition to his critical writings, plays and translated works.

Research productivity was enhanced by work undertaken at various institutes, including the Leather Industries Research Institute, the JLB Smith Institute (later the South African Institute for Aquatic Biodiversity), the ISEA and the Institute of Social and Economic Research (ISER). In 1978 the university took over the International Library of African Music (ILAM), comprising a superb collection of African musical recordings and instruments that had been built up over many years by Hugh Tracey and his son, Andrew.

In 1959 the National Party government passed legislation that ended the connection with the University of Fort Hare. This led to protests by students and staff at Rhodes. Fort Hare students who had registered during the affiliation years were permitted to complete their Rhodes degrees. These students were capped at graduation ceremonies held in the Rhodes Great Hall in 1960, 1961 and 1962 – among these graduands were Chris Hani and Griffiths Mxenge.

Unable to escape the dictates of apartheid, political controversies arose in the 1960s. In 1962, the decision was taken to award an honorary doctorate to the state president, CR Swart, an apartheid hard-liner who had previously, as Minister of Justice, cracked down ruthlessly on anti-apartheid activists.

Then, in 1967, the Rhodes authorities refused to allow black student delegates to stay in university residences while attending the annual congress of the National Union of South African Students (NUSAS). Among the delegates was Steve Biko, who proceeded to establish the South African Students Organisation (SASO), a new black student organisation which would become the pioneer of the black consciousness movement in the country.

In contrast, the 1950s and 1960s represented a golden era in the history of Rhodes' sport. Some outstanding cricketers passed through the university – among them John Waite and Colin Bland. There were also fine rugby players, squash players and athletes who studied at Rhodes in this era. The greatest success of all was achieved by Rhodes' swimmers in the 1960s, with several performing especially well at a national level.

Student life at Rhodes continued to be governed by strict residence rules and dress codes. For instance, mixed parties involving men and women students still required the vice-chancellor's permission. Men students had to wear jackets and ties at classes and in the library. As something of the more relaxed, permissive culture filtered into Rhodes from the west in the 1960s, Rhodes' students began to rail against what they saw as outdated regulations and restrictions. Calls for reform culminated in a student civil disobedience campaign in 1971, with students deliberately violating residence rules and dress codes.

The late apartheid era

The last two decades of the apartheid era, from the mid-1970s to the mid-1990s, were years when the National Party government had to contend with both growing international pressure and rising protest and resistance. The government devised a twofold response – mild reform combined with ever harsher repression and a ruthless crackdown on its opponents. Both trends had an impact on Rhodes, giving rise to growing turbulence and polarisation on campus.

The first government reform to have an impact on Rhodes was the slow, limited process of desegregation. From the early 1970s black students could apply for permits to register at white universities for courses not offered at black universities. In 1983 this policy was replaced by a quota system which allowed white universities to admit black students regardless of their chosen courses, but with a limit on the number who could be admitted.

The first Rhodes' students to register under the permit system mostly took courses in Journalism or Pharmacy, neither of which were offered at black universities. In 1976 Rhodes admitted seven black students; by 1985 black students constituted 18% of the total student population at the university.

Rhodes further expanded its engagement with the wider Eastern Cape community with the opening of its East London satellite campus in February 1981. Initially offering only B.Com. courses, the East London division geared its operations to the needs of the local business sector. It later ran Humanities and Education courses, before being transferred to Fort Hare in 2004 during the government's restructuring of the tertiary education sector.

The post-apartheid era

As South Africa moved into the post-apartheid era in the 1990s Rhodes University, like other South African universities, faced new challenges and pressures. The ANC-led government imposed demands on universities: that they expand their student enrolments; that they reduce their financial dependence on their government subsidy; that they become more responsive to the country's economic needs by producing more high-skilled graduates and more relevant research; and that they transform themselves. The transformation imperative had a number of dimensions – significantly increasing the number of black students and staff; addressing and changing the institutional culture of universities so as to make them more inclusive and congenial to a diverse community; examining and revising curricula and teaching practices to make them more Africa-focused; and reviewing governance structures and practices.

In the sphere of governance, leading black personalities would come to take their place in the upper echelons of the university – Jakes Gerwel as chancellor from 1999, followed by Lex Mpati from 2013; Colin Johnson, appointed as vice-principal in 2001; Saleem Badat, serving as vice-chancellor from 2006 to 2014, to be succeeded by Sizwe Mabizela, who had previously held the position of vice-principal.

After 1994 there was a gradual change in the racial composition of Rhodes' student population. In 1994 about 32% of the student body were black (in the wider sense of the term), out of a total student population of 4094. By 2014 the proportion of black students had doubled to 64%, out of a total population of 7519 students. There has been less success in achieving equity in the academic staff complement, with the proportion of black academics rising from 16% in 1994 to 25% in 2014. On the other hand, the picture is different in the case of administrative staff (in grades 6-13) – while in 1994 black administrative staff comprised about 27% of the total, this proportion rose to about 58% in 2014.

Reflections on Rhodes' past

The university is now a very different place from what it was fifty years ago, and a different place from what it was in 1994. Life for both students and academics has changed significantly. For several decades teaching was considered to be the primary academic activity. From the 1970s a growing emphasis has been placed on research productivity. Since the 2000s Rhodes University's research output per capita has been among the highest of all South African universities. In recent years its foremost researcher has been Distinguished Professor Tebello Nyokong, who has headed a highly productive team of postgraduate students in the Department of Chemistry, specialising in research into cancer. She herself has received many national and international awards.

Many students have benefited from the enduring commitment to undergraduate teaching, notwithstanding the more recent emphasis on research and postgraduate enrolments. In 2005 the national Council on Higher Education issued a report on Rhodes. There were some critical comments, but the report commended the university for the breadth of its community-related activities – activities which have continued to grow since 2005. The report noted that Rhodes' academic staff were for the most part highly qualified; research activity was on the increase; the library and IT system were well- resourced; and Rhodes' graduation rates were among the highest in the country. Later, in 2012, Rhodes was reckoned to be among the top four universities in the country for its rate of graduating masters and doctoral students.

The years 2015 and 2016 were turbulent ones for Rhodes and other South African universities. Student protests brought to the fore some fundamental issues facing the higher education sector, particularly those relating to institutional culture and finance. The challenges inherent in combining transformation and financial sustainability will continue to be met head on by Rhodes University, going forward.

The novel COVID-19 Pandemic

The World Health Organization (WHO) on March 11 2020 declared the novel coronavirus, COVID-19 a pandemic. On 16 March 2020 the President of South Africa, Mr Cyril Ramaphosa, declared a State of Disaster and a National Lockdown due to the outbreak of COVID-19. South African public universities including Rhodes closed their doors on 18 March 2020 and many activities were suspended, including face-to-face/in-contact classes and meetings, as well as large gatherings which were deemed to have a potential to spread the coronavirus. Many of our face-to-face activities were placed on hold and were gradually phased back under strict risk-controlled conditions as per the Department of Higher Education and Training (DHET) regulations and directives. The university had to migrate teaching and learning to remote and digital delivery platforms. Like many universities in our country and beyond, the university needed to ensure continuity of the education of the students and a productive use of their time towards building their futures while also observing the nationwide lockdown regulations of staying at home in order to curb the transmission of the novel coronavirus. So, on the one hand, the university had to ensure that the academic progress and the future of the students were not placed on hold and, on the other, that the students, staff and the greater Makhanda community were not placed at the risk of contracting the deadly coronavirus.

DEDICATION - ACADEMIC FREEDOM

Rhodes University declaration of academic freedom and other ethical principles

As members of the academic community of Rhodes University, we are committed to safeguarding the principle of academic freedom and affirming our commitment to an ethical orientation to our work. The principles listed below are complex and their meanings must be debated. We simultaneously affirm our rights to academic freedom and uphold the firm view that this freedom is matched by an obligation to ethical conduct with regard to our students, colleagues and wider society. In the context of our history and the inequalities of the present, this includes a firm embrace of the transformative commitment to equality and justice as laid out in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa ('Constitution' hereafter) and, more fundamentally, as flowing from a proper understanding of the ethic that ought to guide academic life.

Therefore, we declare our resolute commitment to promoting the following principles:

Freedom: As enshrined in the Constitution, academic freedom is a variety of human freedom, and it is a central condition for a thriving academic life. The proper instantiation of academic freedom requires the steadfast commitment to its survival by academics, students and administrators. Academic freedom includes the right to be critical of the state, the university, private power and our colleagues. Academic freedom is not compatible with the subordination of university life to a corporate or managerial logic that curtails the freedom of staff or students to pursue intellectual projects of their own choosing. Academic freedom does not extend to defamation, fraud and forms of speech prohibited by the Constitution or, more broadly, by the principle of human decency. It is a misuse of academic freedom, moreover, to invoke it to oppose just change. Academic freedom, finally, is predicated on adequate state funding of the academic project.

Integrity: Academic integrity requires personal and collective vigilance in the face of pressures and incentives that may threaten the autonomy and quality of academic work. It requires a firm commitment to aligning one's work and conduct with the ethical principles that ought to guide academic life. Such alignment cannot properly be achieved without ongoing interrogation of the values that inform current academic work.

Equality: The University is resolutely committed to the democratic ideal of universal equality. This requires active opposition to all forms of unjust discrimination and a vigorous attempt to build a university in which all students and staff are made to feel welcome and enjoy the same rights to participate freely in all aspects of academic life.

Collegiality: Academics should endeavor to foster a collegial environment where all staff and students are given a fair and equal platform to participate in the academic project, including playing an active part in maintaining and fostering proper institutional processes aimed at promoting a collegial environment. Collegiality, properly understood, is compatible with vigorous debate, provided that they are conducted in an ethical spirit, avoiding slander or acts designed to silence dissenting voices.

Excellence: Academics and students should be committed to producing work that is of the highest caliber in all spheres of academic life. Commitment to excellence implies ongoing critical interrogation of established norms of excellence.

CONSTITUTION OF THE UNIVERSITY

The University consists of the Chancellor, the Principal (who is also the Vice-Chancellor), the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic and Student Affairs), the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation), the Registrar, the Council, the Senate, the Institutional Forum, the Convocation, the Students' Representative Council, the academic staff, the professional, support and administrative staff and the students.

The Chancellor, elected by the Council, is the titular Head of the University and is empowered, in the name of the University, to confer all degrees. For this purpose, a Congregation of the University is held at least once a year under his/her presidency.

The Principal and Vice-Chancellor is the chief academic and administrative officer of the University and is ex officio a member of the Council and the Chairperson of the Senate.

The Council, which elects its own Chairperson, is the governing body of the University, administers its affairs and property, and is empowered to frame statutes and rules governing the general conduct and organisation of the University and to make all appointments to the staff.

The Senate in terms of the Statute is accountable to the Council for the teaching, learning, research and academic functions of the University, and all other functions delegated or assigned to it by the Council.

Convocation, elects its own President and is required to meet at least once a year, and may discuss and express its opinion on any matter relating to the University.

The Registrar of the University is the Secretary of Council, Senate and Convocation.

ADMISSION AND REGISTRATION OF STUDENTS

Completed application forms for undergraduate admission to all Faculties should be received by 30 September in the Student Bureau, P O Box 94, Makhanda 6140 for enrolment in the following year. Applications received after the end of September will be considered at the discretion of the Registrar.

NB late applications will only be considered at the discretion of the Registrar.

Admission requirements

The normal admission requirement for any undergraduate degree at Rhodes University is a National Senior Certificate with endorsement for degree studies. In addition, each faculty has its own minimum requirements for admission.

All students intending to register as candidates for degrees must produce their National Senior Certificates or equivalent certificates either before, or as soon as possible after, entering the University. Failure to do so will result in a change in registration status.

Students who have attended courses at another university should obtain a transcript and, if they attended another university in the Republic, a certificate of good conduct from the university previously attended. Application for exemption for courses completed at another university should be directed to the Student Bureau after acceptance and once final results are available and must be accompanied by brief course outlines.

Registration

The academic year begins in February. Students are expected to register on the stipulated date in February. Late registrations may be accepted with the approval of the Registrar. However, a late registration fee will be charged.

Arrangements of curricula

Students must have their curricula approved by the Dean of the Faculty in which they are to study at the beginning of each year. The Dean will advise on courses and approve curricula on behalf of the Senate.

Students are responsible for ensuring that there are no timetable clashes in their proposed curricula, not only in the current year but for the remainder of the curriculum.

Discontinuing courses

Courses may be dropped with their Deans and Faculty Officers. Courses may not be dropped after the last official day of undergraduate lectures in May (1st semester courses) or October (2nd semester and full year courses).

Changes of course or Faculty

Undergraduates who wish to change from one course to another must discuss the proposed change with the Dean of the Faculty concerned or representative and, if a change of Faculty is involved, with the Dean of the Faculty to which they wish to transfer.

Closing dates for change of course

The final closing date for changes of courses is the End of the 2nd week of each semester for semester courses. However, a student may discontinue a course after this date with the permission of the Dean.

Students may not register for a full year course after the end of the 2nd week of the first semester.

Full-time students

A full-time undergraduate student is a student who either is engaged in full-time university studies or is following a full curriculum. A full-time postgraduate student is a student who is engaged full-time in university studies.

Part-time students registered for a degree, diploma or certificate

A part-time undergraduate student is a student who is not engaged full-time in university studies and is not following a full curriculum. A part-time postgraduate student is a student who is not engaged full-time in university studies.

Part-time students not registered for a degree or diploma:

Occasional Students are those not registered for a degree or diploma, but who are following a course recognised towards a degree or diploma. See the Fees and Charges section

1. Occasional students must be in possession of a National Senior Certificate, and will be admitted to a course only if the Head of Department is satisfied that they will profit by the lectures for the course.
2. Occasional students must follow courses in full, which implies attending all classes, completing all class work and assignments, and writing examinations. They must earn Duly Performed (DP) certificates before being permitted to write the final examinations in any course.
3. The University reserves the right to ask occasional students to leave if their work or conduct is unsatisfactory at any time.

NB The Registrar's approval is required before an occasional student who does not intend to take a degree, diploma or certificate may be admitted.

Casual Students are those who take a course for interest, and will only be admitted to a course if:

1. the Head of the Department concerned is prepared to accept them; and
2. the Department's facilities will not be overextended as a result; and
3. the Registrar's approval is obtained.

Such students must comply with the appropriate DP requirements, but may not write examinations for the purpose of obtaining recognition towards any degree, certificate or diploma without converting their status and paying the requisite fee.

Casual students wishing to convert their status must comply with the admission criteria and rules of the University. The University reserves the right to ask casual students to leave if their work or conduct is unsatisfactory at any time.

Admission to Residence

Only full-time students are admitted to residence.

Additional requirements for specific courses

Mathematics

For admission to the Faculty of Science, a candidate must have obtained at least a level 4 for Mathematics in the NSC or an equivalent pass. Except with the permission of Senate a candidate may not take Chemistry 1, Computer Science 1, Mathematics 1, Physics 1, without the level 4 pass in the NSC. See Rule S.4 in the Faculty of Science. Mathematics Literacy is not accepted.

For admission to the Accounting curriculum in the Faculty of Commerce, a candidate must have obtained at least a level 4 pass for Mathematics in the NSC. Mathematics Literacy is not accepted.

For admission to the Bachelor of Business Science degree in the Faculty of Commerce, a candidate must have obtained at least a level 6 pass for Mathematics in the NSC.

For admission to the Bachelor of Science (Inf Sys) degree in the Faculty of Science, a candidate must have obtained at least a level 6 pass for Mathematics in the NSC.

For admission to the Faculty of Pharmacy, a candidate must have obtained at Least level 4 pass in the NSC. Mathematics Literacy is not accepted.

For admission to the Faculty of Education, a candidate must fulfil the general rules for admission to the first degree. Candidates shall not be admitted to the degree unless they have obtained at least an Admissions Points Score (APS) in Mathematics of 3 (40-49%) or higher in the NSC or an APS of 4 (50-59%) or above for Mathematics Literacy and a APS of 4 or above for a Home Language and an APS of 4 or above for a First Additional Language in the NSC. One of the languages must be English Home Language or English First Additional Language.

Biology or Physical Science

For admission to the Faculty of Science, candidates for the BSc degree must have obtained at least a Level 4 in either Biology or Physical Science. This is not required of candidates for the BSc (InfSys) degrees. For admission to the Faculty of Pharmacy, a candidate must have obtained at least level 4 pass in Mathematics and a level 4 pass in Physical Science and Biology

Other Languages

French 1, German 1 (Foreign Language), Latin 1 or Greek 1, may be taken without a pass in the language in question. Students who achieve a sufficiently high standard in the examination may be allowed to go on to the second course in the language.

See the relevant Faculty of Humanities Rules.

DP (Duly Performed) certificates

See Rule G.19 in the General Rules.

Advice to students

Students requiring advice on academic problems should consult either the relevant Dean of the Faculty or the Head of Department concerned. For advice on non-academic matters, they should consult the Director of Student Affairs, House Wardens, or the Student Bureau. The Career Centre and Counselling Centre are available for relevant advice.

Examination results

The results of June and November examinations are released as soon as they are available. The results will not be posted or given telephonically by the Student Bureau Staff, but will be available on the Rhodes University Web Page, <http://www.ru.ac.za>, under the heading ROSS (Rhodes Online Student Services); or by SMS (register for this service online at <http://ross.ru.ac.za/sms/>).

Masters and Doctoral candidates

Information for Masters and Doctoral candidates is available in the Higher Degrees Guide on the Rhodes University Web Page, <https://www.ru.ac.za/registrar/forms/>

GENERAL RULES FOR DEGREES, DIPLOMAS AND CERTIFICATES

The conditions under which the University grants degrees, diplomas and certificates are laid down in the Rhodes University Statute, the Higher Education Act (No 101, 1997) and these rules are framed in terms of Section 32 of the Higher Education Act (No 101, 1997) as amended.

Credits: The Higher Education Qualifications Sub-Framework (HEQSF) requires credits as a measure of the volume of learning required for a qualification. The credit rating system rates 10 notional study hours as equivalent to one credit. A minimum credit-load of 120 credits per academic year is required for Bachelor's degrees and 180 credits per academic year for Master's degrees and Doctorates. In this Calendar the term "credit" is not always used in its strict sense.

ADMISSION AND REGISTRATION

G.1

A candidate for a degree, diploma or certificate in any Faculty must comply with the conditions and meet the selection criteria set out in the University's admissions policy. The Council has the right to refuse admission to any student should it consider it to be in the interests of the University to do so.

G.2

Students are required, on admission, to register by signing the official registration form. Students must also pay the prescribed tuition fee. They must renew their registration and pay the prescribed fee annually as long as they continue to be students of the University; provided that students may be refused permission to renew their registration for any year of study if they fail to satisfy the prescribed minimum requirements of study. (See Rule G.7.)

G.3

Candidates for a degree in any Faculty must be registered as matriculated students of the University and for this purpose must be in possession of a are deemed to be equivalent to one course.

National Senior Certificate (NSC) or its equivalent with endorsement for degree studies. In addition, applicants for admission may be required to have attained such minimum standard in a specified subject or subjects at the NSC or equivalent examination, or such other qualifications as may be prescribed. Students will neither be permitted to register after the first year of study nor graduate until a copy of the National Senior Certificate or international equivalent is received.

The Senate may refuse to admit any student to a post-graduate course of study in any subject if the standard of proficiency which the student has previously attained is not, in the opinion of the Senate, sufficiently high.

G.5

Registered students of another higher education institution who desire to be admitted to the University must produce a certificate, satisfactory to the Senate, as to their conduct at the other higher education institution.

G.6

6.1 Students may not be admitted to any course in any subject until their curricula have been approved by the Senate.

6.2 Such curricula may be modified only with the permission of the Senate.

NB Students are responsible for ensuring that there are no timetable clashes in their proposed curriculae for each year of their registration. In selecting proposed majors, students should ensure that these subjects do not clash (including checking the timetable for subsequent years of these subjects).

In the rules which follow, unless otherwise specified or clear from the context, "course" means a course that extends over one academic year. Two half-courses or two semester courses

G.7

The Senate may refuse students permission to renew registration in any Faculty if they are deemed to be unable to benefit from further study, or if they have failed;

7.1 at the end of their first year of full-time attendance at this or any other university to complete two-year courses or four semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 60 NQF credits towards the degree;

and in the Faculties of Education and Humanities and Science

7.2 at the end of their second year of full-time attendance at this or any other university to complete four year courses or eight semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 120 NQF credits towards the degree; or

7.3 at the end of their third year of full-time attendance at this or any other university to complete six-year courses or twelve semester courses which is equivalent to 180 NQF credits towards the degree, at least 60 credits of which should be at least NQF level 6.:

and in the Faculty of Science

7.5 ...

7.6 at the end of every Calendar year of study to have passed a minimum of half of the courses for which they had been registered with the Dean’s approval; In the cases of the Faculties of Education, Science, Humanities, Commerce, Pharmacy and Law

7.7 to complete the undergraduate degree within a period of five years for a 360-credit qualification; and to complete the undergraduate degree within six years for a 480-credit qualification.

and in the Faculty of Commerce

as full-time candidates for the BAcc, BBusSc, BCom or BEcon degrees:

7.8 at the end of their second year of full-time attendance at this or any other university to have obtained five year courses or ten semester courses; or a combination which is equivalent to 150 NQF credits towards the degree; or

7.9 at the end of their third year of full-time attendance at this or any other university to have obtained seven year courses or fourteen semester courses, or a combination which is equivalent to 210 NQF credits towards the degree; 60 credits of which should be at least at NQF level 6:

7.10 at the end of every Calendar year of study to have passed a minimum of half of the courses for which they had been registered with the Dean’s approval;

7.11 ...

and for students enrolled on the Commerce, Humanities or Science Extended Studies Programmes

7.12 at the end of the first year of the extended programme, normally to have obtained all courses and to have achieved an average of 60% in the courses read in order to qualify for entry into mainstream courses in the following year.

and in the Faculty of Pharmacy

7.13 in the year of entry into the second year of the BPharm curriculum at this or any other university to complete second year courses to the value of 60 NQF credits, plus all courses of the first year curriculum;

7.14 in the subsequent years of full time attendance at this or any other university to complete courses to the value of 70 NQF credits per year;

and in the Faculty of Law

7.15.1 students in any year of study of the LLB programme will be excluded if:

7.15.1.1 they are registered for five or more courses in an academic year, and they fail 65% or more of the courses registered for in that year, irrespective of the number of credits thus far obtained towards the degree; or 7.15.1.2 they do not fulfil the terms of academic probation.

G.8

The Senate may, after the mid-year examinations in any year, cancel students’ registrations for the remainder of that year, and may refuse students permission to renew registration in any Faculty if the students are unable to satisfy, by the end of the year, the minimum requirements of study prescribed by the Faculty in which they are registered, and if they are not completing, will not be registered for more than one course in the semester following the mid-year examinations.

G.9

Except with the special permission of the Senate, a student who has been excluded on account of failure to satisfy the minimum requirements of study prescribed for in one Faculty may not be admitted to any other Faculty of the University.

NB Periods of attendance and examination results at another university are taken into account in the same manner as periods of attendance and examination results at this University.

A student may not be registered for more than one degree or diploma at the same time, or be registered as a student of another university, without the permission of the Senate.

ATTENDANCE AND WORK

G.11

A candidate for a degree or a diploma must attend the courses, perform the work and pass the examinations which are prescribed for that degree or diploma.

G.12

Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, students are not deemed to have attended the University in any academic year or any semester unless they have attended for at least three-quarters of that year or that semester.

For the purposes of these rules "academic year" and "semester" are defined in the University Calendar.

G.13

A candidate who is not a full-time student may be required to devote to the curriculum for a degree, diploma or certificate at least one year more than the normal period specified in these rules. The distribution of the courses in the curriculum of a part-time candidate is subject to the approval of the Dean of the Faculty concerned.

COMPLETION OF COURSES

G.14

Candidates for a degree, diploma or certificate must comply with all the requirements which Senate has approved for each subject taken by them for that degree, diploma or certificate.

G.15

An undergraduate course in any subject consists of not less than sixty separate class meetings in any year, and half-courses and semester courses consist of not less than thirty separate class meetings in any year.

G.16

Except as provided for in terms of Rules G.44 to G.48 or in terms of Faculty Rules, a candidate obtains credit for a course on meeting the requirements set for that course.

G.17

Except where otherwise provided in Faculty rules, or where in exceptional circumstances Senate waives this rule, students may not

17.1 enter upon the work of the second or subsequent course in any subject unless they have obtained credit for the preceding course in the subject; or 17.2 take examinations in more than one course in the same subject in a single semester.

or

17.3 a student may normally neither register nor sit for an examination at two different levels of the same subject in the same academic year.

G.18

Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, a student must have obtained a minimum number of credits in first year courses, as specified in Faculty Rules, before entering on the second course of any subject.

ADMISSION TO EXAMINATIONS

G.19

Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, a student may not be admitted to an examination in any course unless the Head of the Department concerned has certified that the student has satisfactorily attended the class meetings for the course under examination, and has satisfactorily performed the work of the class.

19.1 Certification of attendance and performance under Rule G.19 (usually known as “the issue of Duly Performed (DP) certificates”) will be notified by Heads of Departments to the Registrar after the last class meeting for the course.

19.2 Students failing to present themselves at the June examinations in any non-semesterised course in which any examination is set, without a medical certificate or other reason acceptable to the Senate, shall not qualify for a DP certificate for that course. Exemption from this rule may be granted by the Senate to a department which applies therefore.

19.3 In exceptional circumstances the Board of the Faculty, after consultation with the Head of the Department concerned, may reinstate a student’s previously withdrawn DP Certificate.

19.4 The following exceptions to Rule G.19 have been approved by the Senate:

19.4.1 ...

19.4.2 Candidates for the BA, BJourn, BCom, BEcon, BSc, BSc(InfSys) or BSocSc degree who have completed the final courses of their major subjects, have attended the university for three years, have not more than two subsidiary courses or four subsidiary semester courses outstanding for the degree, and have left the University, may write the examinations in such subsidiary courses without re-attaining DP certificates; provided that, where practical work is required, evidence must be submitted to the satisfaction of the Head of Department concerned that the candidate has received adequate practical training.

Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, certification in terms of Rule G.19 will be valid only for the examination of the year in which it is issued.

20.1 The following exceptions to Rule G.20 have been approved by the Senate, provided the student has written all exams required for the course in the year in which the DP certificate being extended, was earned:

20.1.1 A candidate granted a non-continuing pass may rewrite at a subsequent examination in order to obtain a continuing pass, provided that no special examination has to be set for the purpose. Students who have obtained a non-continuing pass in a course may enter, by application to the Dean, for examination in that course without earning a new DP certificate, provided they already had a DP certificate.

20.1.2 With the approval of the Board of the Faculty, the validity of the DP certificate of a student who is in attendance at the University may be extended by one year. In the Faculty of Commerce such extension will normally only be granted for subjects failed at the F1 level and students would normally be required to write and perform satisfactorily in class tests and in the June examinations. An application for such an extension must normally be made within two weeks of the start of the course.

20.1.3 In the case of students who do not return to the University in any year, the validity of their DP certificates for courses in which they failed or did not write the examination in the previous year may be extended by one year by the Dean of the Faculty after consultation with the Head of the Department concerned. In the Faculty of Commerce such extensions will normally only be granted for subjects failed at the F1 level. Extension in terms of this rule will not be granted, however, to students who are refused readmission in terms of Rule G.7.

An application for such an extension must normally be made within two weeks of the start of the course.

20.1.4 Candidates registered in Faculties other than the Law Faculty who have achieved an aggregate pass (ACR) in Legal Theory 1, 2 or 3 on a previous year of study, and who achieved a result of 40% or more for any of the component semester course(s) failed in Legal Theory 1,2, or 3, may at any subsequent examination rewrite any such component semester course failed in order to obtain credit towards the LLB degree, provided that no special examinations has to be set for this purpose. Candidates must register in the Faculty for the component Legal Theory semester in terms of this rule at the beginning of the academic year. The coursework component will not be included in calculating the final result. Students registered for the LLB degree in the Law Faculty may not rely on this rule.

A student, before being admitted to an examination or degree, diploma or certificate shall pay such fees as may be prescribed in each case.

G.22

The Council may refuse to admit to an examination or to a degree, diploma or certificate a student who has failed to pay the required fees due to the University or to an affiliated institute.

EXAMINERS

An examination of the University qualifying in any subject for a degree, diploma or certificate shall be conducted by at least two examiners, of whom at least one shall be an examiner who has not been connected with the preparation of the students for that examination; provided that, in the case of an examination qualifying in a first or second year course, or any examination qualifying for a diploma or certificate, the Senate may waive the requirement that one of the examiners shall be a person who has not been connected with the preparation of the student for that examination.

23.1 Under Rule G.23 the University will appoint as one of the examiners for the examinations set out below a person who has not been connected with the preparation of the students for that examination, and who is not in receipt of any remuneration other than examiner's fees from the University or from an affiliated institute:

23.1.1 All written examinations in final courses of degree and diploma subjects;

23.1.2 Practical examinations in final courses of degree subjects where required by departments;

23.1.3 All method courses for the PGCE;

23.1.4 ...

G.24

The Heads of the University Departments in which the subjects under examination are taught shall, ex officio, be responsible for the examination processes in their respective departments.

EXAMINATIONS

G.25

The Senate shall be the final authority in deciding the result of an examination.

G.26

Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, the results of examinations for all courses shall be published under seven heads, four for successful candidates namely, class 1, class 2 (divisions A and B) and class 3, and three for unsuccessful candidates, namely, Failure 1, Failure 2 and Failure 3, in all cases in decreasing order of marks according to the marks obtained by the candidates.

Senate does not permit re-marking or re-examination of scripts. However, students in all Faculties may request a re-scrutiny of their scripts, provided their academic record is not withheld. Re-scrutiny entails checking that (i) all questions have been marked and (ii) marks have been added up and transcribed correctly. Such a request should be made through the Office of Registrar within two weeks of the commencement of the University term following the examination concerned.

Senate will permit students in all Faculties to view their scripts provided that their academic record is not withheld. Applications in this respect must be made through the relevant Head of Department and can be made at any stage of the academic year.

G.28.2

Senate will permit students in all Faculties to obtain a copy of their scripts provided that their academic record is not withheld. Applications in this respect must be made through the Office of the Registrar, accompanied by payment of the prescribed fee, and can be made at any stage of the academic year.

Applications under Rules G.27 and G.28 in respect of examinations must reach the Registrar accompanied by the prescribed fee within three weeks of the release of results. In exceptional circumstances Senate may permit relaxation of this rule.

29.1 The fee under G.27 and under G.28 will be refunded if the re-scrutiny effects a change to the student's advantage in the classification of their results.

29.2 The result of the re-scrutiny shall supersede the result of the original examination. Thus, a student who applies for a re-scrutiny may be awarded a lower mark and thereby forfeit any advantage (e.g. permission to write a supplementary examination) accruing from the original mark.

G.30

Unless the contrary should appear from the context of these rules, an examination shall consist of such written, oral or other form of test as the Senate may prescribe in each case.

G.31

The examiners may require students to present themselves for viva voce questioning, in addition to the tests prescribed by the Senate under Rule G.30.

G.32

The results of an examination written in a subsequent year on an extended DP Certificate shall normally be calculated by taking into account the same component elements, and the same proportions, as those used for the examination for which the certificate was earned.

G.33 ...

G.34

Students who obtain a non-continuing pass and who re-write the examination later than the January/February immediately after the award of the non-continuing pass, shall be placed in the class which reflects the final mark which has been achieved.

G.35

The final marks for students re-writing an examination in terms of G.34 above will be calculated in accordance with Rule G.32.

G.36

Except as may otherwise be prescribed in these rules, ordinary examinations shall be held only at the end of each semester; provided that the ordinary examinations for the degree of Bachelor with Honours in any subject may also be held before the beginning of the following academic year, as may be decided by the Senate; provided further that a part-time candidate for the degree of Bachelor with Honours may, on completion of two years as a registered candidate, and with the permission of the Senate, write a special examination before the beginning of the following academic year.

36.1 Ordinary examinations will usually be held during June and November, save that examinations for the BEd (Hons) degree may be held outside of the normally scheduled exam period.

36.2 The Senate will permit the examinations for the Honours degree to be held before the beginning of the academic year only in exceptional circumstances.

The ordinary examinations may be extended by holding supplementary examinations.

37.1 The results of the supplementary examinations shall be calculated by taking into account the same component elements as those used for the ordinary examinations.

37.2 The conditions under which a candidate may be admitted to supplementary examinations shall be prescribed by the Senate.

37.2.1 ...

37.2.2 Candidates registered for first year first-semester courses and semester courses as approved within respective faculties may write supplementary examinations in the examination period prior to the start of term four if they fail the course in June but attain the required sub-minimum. There is no further opportunity to write the supplementary examination at any other time.

37.2.5 Candidates who have passed all but one of the courses (or two semester-courses) prescribed for their degree and who have failed the examination in such an outstanding course (or two semester-courses) may be admitted to a supplementary examination in that course (or two semester-courses), provided that, subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, such course (or two semester-courses) is(are) not the final course(s) of a major subject. *

In addition candidates in the Faculty of Humanities will be subject to the provisions of Rule H.3.3.

 Exceptions approved by the Senate are: History 3, Legal Theory 3 and Politics and International Studies 3.*

37.2.6 Candidates who have passed all but one of the courses prescribed for the BPharm degree and who have failed the examination in such an outstanding course, may be admitted to a supplementary examination in that course.

37.3 Unless otherwise provided for in Faculty rules, candidates admitted to supplementary examinations in terms of Rule G.37.2 above will, if successful, receive a classified result, in addition to the original mark obtained.

37.4 In all those subjects offered at a given level as a pair of semester-credit courses, where both semester courses are not obtained, an aggregate of at least 50% in the pair shall be deemed equivalent to a pass in a two-semester aggregate course for that subject.

37.5 Students who do not obtain a pass in both courses, but who meet the requirements of an aggregated course, will have their academic transcripts amended to show that an aggregated continuing credit (ACR) or aggregated non-continuing credit (NCR) has been achieved in the appropriate course, as the Department may allow.

37.6 Credit will not be given for an aggregate course in addition to credit for one or more of its semester-course components.

Special exams will not be granted to any student who fails to write the examination due to having misread the examination timetable, having overslept or for any other reason.

AEGROTAT CASES

G.39

An aegrotat examination may be granted by the Senate to candidates who by reason of illness, duly attested by a medical certificate on the prescribed form, or who for other reason acceptable to Senate have been unable to present themselves at an ordinary examination in any subject.

39.1 Applications must be made within one week of the date of the examination missed.

39.2 Other reason above would include the serious illness or death of a near relative at the actual time of the examination. In such a case evidence of the circumstances should be attached in support of the application.

39.3 An aegrotat will not be granted for a course in which an aegrotat had been granted and missed for any reason.

Candidates who have been admitted to aegrotat examinations in terms of Rule G.39 but who are unable to write those examinations for similar reasons, may be permitted, if their previous work in that subject is deemed by the Senate to be satisfactory, to proceed to the next course in that subject and, on completing that course to be given credit for both courses. Alternatively, the Senate may, subject to Rule G.39 above being complied with admit such candidates to subsequent aegrotat examinations. Such subsequent examinations, which may be in written or oral form are normally required to be held before the end of the following semester.

G.41

In cases where a student has already completed part of an examination, the Dean of the Faculty will consult with the internal examiners and the Head of the Department concerned before deciding whether or not to approve the aegrotat examination. In such cases the Dean shall have the power

41.1.1 not to award an aegrotat; or ,

41.1.2 ...

41.1.3 to award an aegrotat for the assessment/examination which is an assessment on its own and that was not attempted.

41.2 An aegrotat examination will not be granted to candidates who have entered the examination hall and seen any one of the papers or practicals of an examination and who subsequently report that they were ill at the time of the examination.

An aegrotat examination will not be granted to a candidate who is unfit to write as a result of having taken drugs or alcohol stimulants.

G.43

No application for aegrotat examinations will be considered unless DP certificates have been obtained in the courses concerned.

EXEMPTIONS

G.44

The Senate may accept, as part of the attendance of a student of the University qualifying for admission to a degree of Bachelor, periods of attendance as a registered matriculated student at another university or institution recognised by the Senate for the purpose, or accept examinations passed in any subject at such university or institution, or passed by an external student of the University of South Africa, or other examinations recognised by the Senate for the purpose, as granting exemption from examinations of the University in such subject.

G.45

Students exempted in terms of Rule G.44 shall not be admitted to the degree of Bachelor unless:

45.1 they have attended approved courses at the University;

45.1.1 in the case of the Faculties of Humanities, or of Science, or of Commerce, or of Pharmacy, for at least two academic years;

45.1.2 in the case of the Faculty of Law for at least the final two years; and,

45.1.3 in the case of the Faculty of Education for at least the final year;

45.2 their periods of attendance at such recognised university or institution, and at the University, are together not less than the complete period ordinarily prescribed for the degree;

45.3 they have passed such examinations of the University as the Senate may prescribe;

45.4 they have paid such fees as the Council may prescribe;

45.5 they have complied with any other requirements for the degree.

G.46

The following rules have been framed in respect of students who claim credit towards a degree of Rhodes University for subjects passed at another university -

46.1 Credit for courses passed at another university subsequent to registration at Rhodes University is subject to approval by Senate; provided that:

46.1.1 candidates for the BCom and BEcon degrees who have completed their major subjects may be granted credit for not more than three outstanding courses passed at other universities;

46.2 Credit will not be given for more than half of the courses prescribed for the degree at Rhodes University;

46.3 Candidates who have registered for a degree at Rhodes University for at least three years, who have completed at least one of their major subjects for the degree, and who leave the University, may be given credit for at most one final course of a major subject passed at another university, provided that the Head of the Department at Rhodes University is satisfied that the standard of the other university in the course concerned is equivalent to that of Rhodes University in that course;

Graduates in the Faculties of Humanities, Science, Commerce, or Pharmacy of the University who wish to proceed to a Bachelor's degree in another of these Faculties and who seek exemptions towards the degree in the second Faculty on the ground of having already passed in courses common to both Faculties are governed by these rules:

47.1 Exemption may be given by the Senate in not more than half of the courses prescribed for the degree in the second Faculty.

47.2 Exemption may be given only for first courses in any subject (the year in which such courses are required to be taken being immaterial), except in the case of three course subjects, in which exemption may be given for the first and second courses.

47.3 Any course passed for a degree in one Faculty, for which exemption is not granted for the degree in the second Faculty, may not be taken again as a course for the degree in the second Faculty.

47.4 The minimum period of attendance as a student in the second Faculty shall be two years.

In the case of a student holding the degree of Bachelor of Arts who wishes to proceed to the degree of Bachelor of Music or the degree of Bachelor of Fine Art the following rules apply:

48.1 The Senate, on the recommendation of the Board of the Faculty of Humanities, may grant exemption from not more than two years' work towards the degree of Bachelor of Music to specially gifted or distinguished students who have obtained the BA degree with Music as a major subject.

48.2 The Senate, on the recommendation of the Board of the Faculty of Humanities, may grant exemption from not more than two years work towards the degree of Bachelor of Fine Art to specially gifted or distinguished students who have obtained the BA degree with Fine Art Studies as a major subject.

AD EUNDEM GRADUM STUDENTS

Persons admitted to a qualification under this rule must have a minimum of a National Senior Certificate/matric or recognised equivalent. Persons who have graduated at another university who demonstrate that they have met the exit level outcomes, or who are able to give a portfolio of satisfactory evidence that demonstrates informal learning and mastery of competencies at the exit level of the qualifications at the NQF level(s) required for admission to the degree—may be admitted as students to courses of special study and research at the University, depending on their suitability for admission. Such persons may, on completion of such courses, be admitted to a degree of Master; provided that they before being so admitted:

49.1 have paid such fees as may be prescribed;

49.2 have completed the work for the degree, as a registered student of the University, for the prescribed period of the degree;

49.3 have attended at the University such courses as may be prescribed;

49.4 have undertaken research upon a subject approved by the Senate;

49.5 have presented a satisfactory report, dissertation or thesis upon the research undertaken; and

49.6 have complied with such further conditions as may be prescribed by the Senate.

The template as approved by Senate must be populated as part of the application process.

DEGREE OF MASTER (ALL FACULTIES)

G.50

Subject to the provisions of Rule G49 candidates shall not be admitted to the degree of Master in the Faculty of Humanities (except the degree of Master of Music and Master of Fine Art), or of Science, or of Commerce, until at least two years after admission to the degree of Bachelor or one year after admission to the degree of Bachelor with Honours in such Faculty, or, in the case of the degrees of Master of Education by thesis, Master of Fine Art, Master of Laws and Master of Music, until at least one year after admission to the degree of Bachelor. Special entry criteria for the degree of Master of Education by coursework and thesis are listed in the Faculty of Education Rules. Except with the permission of Senate a candidate for the degree of Master of Education by coursework and thesis will be allowed a maximum of three years' registration in which to fulfil all requirements for the degree.

50.1 Candidates for Master's degrees should register at the beginning of the academic year. New applicants may register up to 1 May and register by 1 June.

50.2 Normally only students holding an honours degree will be accepted as candidates for the degrees of MA, MSc, MCom, or MSocSc. Students holding an ordinary degree will be accepted only in exceptional cases.

50.3 Only students who have been admitted to the degree of Bachelor of Laws and who have attained a sufficiently high academic standard will be admitted as candidates for the degree of Master of Laws.

50.4 Only students who have been admitted to the degree of Bachelor of Pharmacy and who have attained a sufficiently high academic standard will be admitted as candidates for the Master's degrees in the Faculty of Pharmacy.

50.5 Candidates who have obtained the BPharm degree may not present their thesis for a Master's degree until at least 18 months after the date of registration for the MSc or MPharm degree.

G.51

No persons shall be admitted as candidates for the degree of Master unless they have obtained the approval of the Board of the Faculty, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned.

G.52

Candidates for the degree shall be registered for and attend an approved course of study or research at the University for the period prescribed in Rule G.50: provided that the Senate may exempt candidates from such attendance or part thereof, and may instead require them to perform such work as it may prescribe during that period.

52.1 When a candidate's subject of research has been approved, such approval will remain in force so long as the annual registration fee is paid.

The Faculty shall appoint a supervisor, or supervisors, to advise a candidate. At least one of the supervisors so appointed must be a member of staff. For the purpose of this Rule, members of associated institutes who are also members of a faculty of the University are regarded as members of staff. Candidates may be permitted to register in an associated Research Institute without requiring a co-supervisor in a related academic department, but the research proposal must be approved by the Dean after considering a recommendation from a member of a cognate department. At least one of the supervisors for such candidates must be a member of the relevant Faculty Board.

53.1 The Senate has decided that candidates for the degree of Master who are exempted from attendance under Rule G.52 will be required to report in person to their supervisors from time to time as directed by the latter, and that the time in which such a candidate may qualify for the award of the degree will be extended by one year (i.e. they must be registered candidates for the degree for at least two years); provided that Senate may waive the additional year in the case of candidates who are conducting full-time research under approved conditions.

Senate may, on the recommendation of the Board of the Faculty concerned, convert the registration of a candidate for the Master's degree by thesis to registration for the PhD degree if they consider that the work is of a standard normally expected of a doctoral student.

G.55

At least two months before the candidates present their theses, they shall give notice on ROSS to the Registrar of their intention to do so.

55.1 Candidates must submit their theses no later than the due date published in the Calendar Diary in the year preceding that in which they hope to graduate.

The Senate may prescribe the form in which a thesis shall be submitted, and the number of copies required.

56.1 Such copies, when submitted, shall become the property of the University.

56.2 The Senate requires a digital submission of the thesis uploaded on ROSS in the first instance, and suitably bound copies of the thesis where an examiner so indicates, to be presented for examination. The Registrar will inform the student of the exact number of copies required.

56.3 After the examination process has been completed, the candidate is required to submit an electronic version of the final corrected thesis in PDF format for deposit in the University's digital repository, together with the Final Thesis Submission Form signed by the candidate and supervisor to the Registrar's Division. Candidates and supervisors who would like a digital holding period of between 1 and 2 years before deposit in the digital repository, or a full embargo of the thesis, must request this in the Final Thesis Submission Form. The library offers assistance and training to post-graduate students for PDF conversion.

A thesis shall be accompanied by a declaration on the part of the candidates as to the extent to which it represents their own work. This declaration must be approved by the supervisor.

G.58

If, at the date of its presentation, the thesis has not been published in a manner satisfactory to the Senate, the University shall have the right to make copies of the thesis from time to time, for deposit in other universities or research libraries, and to make additional copies of it, in whole or in part from time to time, for the purposes of research. The University may, for any reason, either at the request of the candidate or on its own initiative, waive its rights.

Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, candidates may not present themselves for the examination for the degree more than twice in the same subject.

59.1 An application to re-submit a thesis which has been rejected shall not be entertained, but the Senate may, on the advice of the examiners invite a candidate to re-submit a thesis in a revised or extended form.

The degree may be awarded with distinction.

G.61

In the case of a candidate for the degree of Master of Music, the word “thesis” includes a set of musical compositions in such form as may be prescribed by the Senate.

DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY
(ALL FACULTIES)*G.62

Subject to the provisions of Rule G.49 a candidate shall not be admitted to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy until at least three years after admission to the degree of Bachelor with Honours (in any Faculty), or of Bachelor of Laws, or of Bachelor of Education, or of Bachelor of Music, or until at least two years after admission to the degree of Master.

G.63

Candidates for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in any Faculty shall be registered for and attend an approved course of special study or research at the University for the period prescribed in Rule G.62; provided that the Senate may exempt candidates from such attendance or part thereof, and may instead require them to perform such work as it may prescribe during that period.

63.1 Candidates for Doctor’s degrees should register at the beginning of the academic year. New applicants may register up to 1 May and register up to 01 June of each year.

Before registration, candidates for the degree shall obtain the approval of the Senate to the subject of special study or research which they propose to pursue.

64.1 When a candidate’s subject of research has been approved, such approval will remain in force so long as the annual registration fee is paid.

G.65

The Senate delegates the authority to the Faculty Boards to appoint a supervisor or supervisors to advise a candidate, and to report back to Senate to exercise its oversight of the process by way of Faculty minutes. At least one of the supervisors so appointed must be a member of staff. For the purposes of the Rule, members of associated institutes who are also members of a Faculty of the University and other formally affiliated researchers are regarded as members of staff. Candidates may be permitted to register in an associated Research Institute without requiring a co-supervisor in a related academic department, but the research proposal must be approved by the Dean after considering a recommendation from a member of a cognate department. Normally, at least one of the supervisors for such candidates must be a member of the relevant Faculty Board.

65.1 The candidate shall work in such association with the supervisor as the Faculty Board may direct.

Candidates shall submit a thesis on the results of their study which shows evidence of originality and independent research. This thesis may comprise entirely of a set of sequential chapters or may include academic articles and creative works such as artefacts, compositions, public performances and public exhibitions in partial fulfilment of the thesis requirements. Regardless of the forms of representation, the PhD must demonstrate coherence across the submission and the demonstration of high-level research capability that makes a significant and original academic contribution at the frontiers of a discipline or field (refer to the Higher Degrees Guide).

At least two months before candidates present their theses, they shall give notice in writing to the Registrar of their intention to do so.

67.1 Candidates must submit their theses no later than the date published in the Calendar Diary in the year preceding that in which they hope to graduate.

The Senate shall appoint at least three examiners for each thesis. In exceptional circumstances one examiner may be internal to the University.

G.69

The Senate may prescribe the form in which a thesis shall be submitted, and the number of copies required.

69.1 Such copies, when submitted shall become the property of the University.

69.2 The Senate requires a digital submission of the thesis uploaded on ROSS in the first instance, and suitably bound copies of the thesis where an examiner so indicates, to be presented for examination. The Registrar will inform the student of the exact number of copies required.

69.3 After the examination process has been completed, the candidate is required to submit an electronic version of the final corrected thesis in PDF format for deposit in the University's digital repository, together with the Final Thesis Submission Form signed by the candidate and supervisor to the Registrar's Division. Candidates and supervisors who would like a digital holding period of between 1 and 2 years before deposit in the digital repository, or a full embargo of the thesis, must request this in the Final Thesis Submission Form. The library offers assistance and training to post-graduate students for PDF conversion.

69.4 Every thesis must be accompanied by a double-spaced typewritten abstract in English of not more than 350 words. In addition, if the thesis is in a language other than English, it must be accompanied by an abstract in the language of the thesis. No illustrative materials such as tables, graphs or charts should be included. The abstract must be approved by the supervisor of the thesis and will, in the case of successful doctoral candidates, be submitted to University Microfilms International for publication and distribution. The abstract must be bound together with the thesis and be placed immediately after the title page.

Candidates shall submit a declaration, satisfactory to the Senate, stating to what extent the thesis is their original work, and certifying that it has not been submitted for a degree at any other university.

G.71

If, at the date of the presentation, the thesis has not been published in a manner satisfactory to the Senate, the University shall have the right to make copies of the thesis from time to time, for deposit in other universities or research libraries, make additional copies of it, in whole or in part from time to time and distribute the content in whatever format it deems fit, for the purposes of research. The University may, for any reason, either at the request of the candidate or on its own initiative, waive its rights.

G.72

Candidates may be required by the Senate, if the examiners so recommend, to submit to a written or oral examination on the subject of their thesis and on the whole field of study which it covers.

G.73

An application to re-submit a thesis which has been rejected shall not be entertained, but the Dean may, on the advice of the examiners, invite a candidate to re-submit a thesis in a revised or extended form.

G.74

A thesis accepted by the University, and subsequently published in whatever form, shall bear the inscription: "Thesis approved for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy of Rhodes University", or "Thesis approved in partial fulfilment of Doctor of Philosophy of Rhodes University", as the case may be.

G.75

In the case of a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Music, the word "thesis" includes a set of musical compositions in such form as may be prescribed by the Senate.

GENERAL RULES FOR HIGHER DEGREES

G.76

The Registrar, as delegated by Senate, may suspend or cancel the registration of any candidates whose progress is considered to be unsatisfactory.

76.1 If candidates have not completed their Master's degree within three years from first registration or their PhD degree within five years from first registration or six years if their PhD was upgraded from a Master's degree, their candidacy will lapse unless the Registrar, as delegated by Senate, is satisfied that an extension is warranted. Further, in line with Rule G.76.1 the following processes were approved by Senate. The Registrar receives:

- (i) A letter of request by the student; accompanied by
- (ii) Support documentation; and
- (iii) A motivation by the supervisor; and
- (iv) A motivation by the Head of Department; and
- (v) A motivation by the Dean.

GUIDELINES FOR SENIOR DOCTORATES

G.77

When applicants indicate their wish to submit work for a Senior Doctorate, the Board of the Faculty, on the recommendation of the Head of Department, supported by a full motivation, will consider recommending to Senate the acceptance of the work for examination.

G.78

If Senate approves the acceptance of work for a Senior Doctorate, the candidate must submit for the approval of the Senate, six copies of published work dealing with some subject falling within the scope of the studies represented in the University, or, in the case of the degree of Doctor of Music, a set of musical compositions, in such form as may be prescribed by the Senate. Normally the published work should be presented either conventionally bound, or in electronic form (in PDF format) on suitably indexed CD-ROM disks together with an explanatory synopsis. Such work shall constitute a distinguished contribution to the advancement of knowledge in that field.

78.1 Copies so submitted shall become the property of the University.

The Senate shall appoint at least three examiners for each candidate. In exceptional circumstances one examiner may be internal to the University.

The Senate delegates the authority to appoint examiners to the Vice-Chancellor to act on its behalf in or appoint a Deputy-Vice Chancellor to act on behalf of Senate in the approval of examiners and report to Senate for oversight purposes.

Every work submitted for the degree must be accompanied by a declaration on the part of the candidate, satisfactory to the Senate, to the effect that it has not been submitted for a degree at any other university.

Candidates for a Senior Doctorate should communicate with the Registrar, in the first instance.

BREACHES OF RULES

G.81

Subject to the provisions of the Higher Education Act and the Rhodes University Statute, the Senate may ex post facto condone any breach of the rules governing a curriculum, if it is satisfied that:

- 81.1 the students concerned are not themselves responsible for the breach of rules;
- 81.2 if the breach is not condoned the students concerned would be put to undue hardship; and
- 81.3 the rule broken is not of fundamental importance.

FACULTY OF COMMERCE

GENERAL INFORMATION

Bachelor of Business Science

The degree of Bachelor of Business Science is a four-year career-focused degree premised on the application of quantitative methods. The curriculum for this degree aims to provide a thorough grounding in the principles of the candidate's chosen field of expertise to the postgraduate level, supported by ancillary subjects which will equip candidates for the professional and managerial requirements of their chosen field at the highest level. To this end, Rule C.14 provides for five specialised curricula, enabling a student to specialise in one or more of the following fields: Economics, Information Systems, Management, Quantitative Management, and Computer Science. Entry into the second and fourth years of study for the degree is by permission of the Faculty Board.

Bachelor of Commerce

This is a three-year degree aimed at providing the graduate with a good academic grounding in the major subject areas of Commerce. The curricula provide for specialisation up to third year level in two or more of any of the following fields: Accounting, Economics, Information Systems, Law, Management, Science, Social Science and Statistics, in any of four curricula as follows:

The General Curriculum allows for a wide combination of subjects in second and third year including at least two major subjects. The curriculum enables students to qualify for or obtain exemption in respect of certain components of various professional qualifications. Further particulars are available from the Student Adviser.

The Accounting Curriculum is intended for students wishing to enter the accounting profession or to take the BCom degree with an accounting emphasis. If this curriculum is followed, the Postgraduate Diploma in Accountancy can be completed in one further year of study after Auditing 3, Management Accounting and Finance 3, and Taxation 3 has been passed. The curriculum enables students to qualify for or obtain exemption in respect of certain components of various professional qualifications. Further particulars may be obtained from the Head of the Department of Accounting.

The Law Curriculum is intended for students wishing to enter the legal profession, or to take a BCom degree with a legal emphasis. Following this curriculum, a candidate can obtain enough exemptions from LLB degree subjects to complete the LLB requirements in two further years of study.

The inter-faculty curriculum enables students to include a major subject in another faculty in their BCom degree, and, depending on the subjects chosen, is suitable for candidates interested in personnel management or industrial relations. This curriculum also enables students to include a Science major or any Humanities major in their degree.

Bachelor of Economics

This degree is designed for students who wish to include the maximum number of Economics courses and related subjects in their curriculum. The BEcon degree offers a suitable preparation for candidates interested in economic forecasting and analysis and economic planning, in both the public and private sectors. The following specialised curricula are offered:

The Bachelor of Economics (Environmental Science) is intended for students wishing to pursue careers in the economic aspects of environmental studies. The curriculum is designed to train students in the application of economic principles to environmental studies, and combines courses from the Faculties of Science and Commerce.

The Bachelor of Economics (Mineral Economics) is intended for students who wish to become economists with a geological background. The curriculum is designed to apply economic principles to the exploitation of mineral resources, and combines courses from the Faculties of Science and Commerce. Because of timetable constraints this degree cannot be completed in the minimum period of three years.

Master of Business Administration

The Master of Business Administration (MBA) offered by the Rhodes University Business School is a course-work degree together with a research mini-thesis of 15 000 words. The course-work comprises 124 credits and the research mini-thesis 60 credits. The degree is offered on a part-time, modular basis over two and a half years or on a full-time, modular basis over one and a half years.

If part-time, candidates are required to attend three two-week teaching blocks in Grahamstown each year of the first two years and to complete work-based assignments in the periods between the teaching blocks. If full-time, the coursework is completed in six two-week teaching blocks in the first year. The final six months in both cases, is dedicated to the completion of the research mini-thesis.

The Rhodes Business School's essence is "Leadership for Sustainability" and hence leadership and sustainability principles underline all subjects in the MBA curriculum. Emphasis is placed on business continuity, as well as achieving a balance between economic, social and environmental sustainability. The school applies its own unique 4E (Economy, Ethics, Ecology and Equity) model in its teaching and learning practice.

Normally candidates will only be admitted to the programme if they hold at least a NQF Exit Level 8 qualification (i.e. a Bachelor Honours Degree, Postgraduate Diploma or four year Bachelor Degree) in any discipline, are proficient in English and have had at least three years relevant practical experience. All applicants are required to sit the NMAT by GMAC™ Admission Test, or GMAT if the NMAT is not available in their country of residence. Furthermore, those applicants for whom English is a foreign language are required to sit an appropriate English language test.

Master of Commerce Degree in Financial Markets (by coursework and thesis)

The degree is aimed specifically at a Specialised career in the financial/banking sector. Exposure is given in the coursework to banking and monetary policy, debt and foreign exchange markets, equity and derivative markets, and portfolio theory and management. The coursework component is usually examined during the first year of academic study and the dissertation of approximately 30000 words is expected to be submitted by the end of the second year of study.

The coursework component constitutes 50% of the mark, with the balance being awarded to the dissertation. Admission requirements are those normally applicable to the Master of Commerce degree.

Master of Commerce Degree in Taxation (by coursework and thesis)

The coursework component consists of thirteen modules covering important aspects of taxation and tax planning at an advanced level, from which nine essay assignments are submitted for assessment. Two three-hour examinations are written on the coursework component. The dissertation on an appropriate topic would normally not exceed 30000 words. The duration of the coursework component is approximately fourteen months with examinations written on completion of the coursework component. The coursework and examinations together represent 50% of the total mark and the dissertation 50%. Admission requirements are those normally applicable to the Master of Commerce degree.

Commerce Extended Studies Programme

This programme is intended to supplement the instruction of major subjects within the Commerce Faculty. Students enrolled in the Commerce Extended Studies Programme receive additional literacy and numerical instruction via extended, augmented or developmental courses. Successful completion of the programme is recognized with the awarding of a certificate. Students, after successfully completing the two years of the programme, are awarded with 165 SAQA credits and may proceed to the regular degree streams offered by the Faculty.

Advanced Diploma in Business Analysis

This diploma provides a qualification for Business Analysis professionals that will enable them to develop a comprehensive understanding of the purpose, role, methods, and techniques to be applied in effective business analysis, business process modelling, business process engineering, management consulting, and either software testing or project management for sustainable business performance.

Postgraduate Diploma in Accountancy

This diploma is accredited by the South African Institute of Chartered Accountants for admission to SAICA's Initial Test of Competence (ITC); however, the diploma does not confer any professional rights. Graduates are entitled to complete their SAICA training contracts in three years instead of five.

Postgraduate Diploma in Enterprise Management

The diploma equips graduate students with knowledge and expertise to start their own businesses and/or to enhance their entry into employment in business. The Diploma is offered on a one-year full time basis and on a part-time basis over one year.

Postgraduate Diploma in Taxation

The diploma builds upon the knowledge level of taxation achieved in any Bachelor of Commerce degree which includes Taxation 3 as one of its courses. It equips these graduate students with the specialised taxation knowledge and expertise to consult and advise clients in dealing with their tax affairs.

Postgraduate Diploma in Business Analysis

The diploma provides a qualification for Business Analysis professionals that will enable them to strategically, operationally and critically address relevant methods, processes, systems and techniques that should be applied to achieve sustainable business performance.

Bachelor of Science (Information Systems)

The degree of Bachelor of Science (Information Systems) is offered for students wishing to become computer specialists in a commercial environment. This degree combines courses from the Faculties of Science and Commerce, and is administered by the Faculty of Science. See Faculty of Science Rule S.13.

RULES FOR DEGREES AND CERTIFICATES

See the General Rules applicable to all Faculties.

The following Rules apply to the Faculty of Commerce only. Rules C.3 to C.11 apply to all Bachelor's degrees in the Faculty. Except as provided in Rules G.44 to G.46 of the General Rules no candidate shall be admitted to any of the degrees of Bachelor in the Faculty unless they have attended approved courses subsequent to their first registration for degree study for at least the minimum time specified for each degree.

A course in a modern language

Each of these is a semester course.*

Principles of Professional Accountancy is normally taken in a student's second year of study and is compulsory for the Bachelor of Commerce (Accounting) curriculum $ Professional Communication is a semester course offered by the Department of English Language and Linguistics. It is normally taken in a student's second year of study and it is compulsory for all Commerce undergraduate curricula except for the Bachelor of Commerce (Accounting) curriculum in which students are required to complete Professional Communication for Accountants, a one-term course offered by the Department of English Language and Linguistics in conjunction with the Department of Accounting.

For major subjects in the Faculty see Rule C.11.

C2.2 Any approved course offered in the Faculties of Humanities or Science.

C2.3 Any approved sequence of three courses leading to a major in the Faculty of Humanities or in the Faculty of Science.

C2.4 Students registering for the degree will be allowed to choose as an elective a course not offered at Rhodes University, provided a strong case can be made for its inclusion. Permission will be granted at the discretion of the Dean.

C.3

For the purpose of the BCom, BEcon and BSc(InfSystems) degrees, a pass in both Accounting 1F and 1G will be deemed to be equivalent to a pass in Accounting 1.

C.4

For the purpose of these Rules, and in Rule G.7 as it applies to Commerce, unless otherwise indicated or clear from the context, “course” will mean a year course.

C.5

The onus is on students to ensure that they register for a curriculum which will lead to a degree or diploma as the case may be. The Dean’s approval of a curriculum does not imply permission to obtain a degree or diploma following a curriculum different from those contained in these Rules. Choices of subjects offered for a degree or certificate may be limited by the University timetable. Students who wish to take a degree over more than the minimum period of time are urged to consult the Dean or Deputy Dean to ensure that their choice of curriculum is feasible on the University timetable.

C.6

For purposes of the courses required for a specific degree, recognition shall not be given for:

Afrikaans-Nederlands 1 and 2 and also Afrikaans 1 and 2

Commercial Law 1 and Legal Theory 1

Commercial Law 2 and any course in Legal Theory

Psychology 2 and also Organisational Psychology 2

Psychology 3 and also Organisational Psychology 3

Sociology 2 and also Industrial Sociology 2

Sociology 3 and also Industrial Sociology 3

More than one of Statistics 1D, and Statistics 1

7.1 Subject to any exceptions approved by Senate, candidates may not proceed to any course listed in Group I below unless they have passed, or have been exempted from, the corresponding prerequisite course listed in Group II.

Group I	Group II
Accounting 3	Accounting 2 and Principles of Professional Accountancy
Applied Statistics 3	Mathematics 1, Statistics 102 and Mathematical Statistics 2
Auditing 3	Accounting 2 and Principles of Professional Accountancy
Computer Science 3	Computer Science 2 and one of Mathematics 101 (MAM 1) or MAT 1S1 or MST 102 or STA 1S1 or STA 1C2
Industrial Sociology 2	Sociology 1
Information Systems 2	Computer Science 112
Legal Theory 3	Legal Theory 2
Management 2	Management 1 and Accounting 1
Management 3	Accounting 1, Economics 1, Management 2, Mathematics 1 or Theory of Finance and Statistics 1C2
Management Accounting and Finance 3	Accounting 2, Principles of Professional Accountancy and one of Theory of Finance or Mathematics 1
Mathematical Statistics 2	Mathematics 1 and Statistics 102
Mathematical Statistics 3	Mathematics 1, Statistics 102 and Mathematical Statistics 2
Organisational Psychology 3	Organisational Psychology 2
Taxation 3	Accounting 2 and Principles of Professional Accountancy

7.2 Candidates shall not be admitted to the courses Theory of Finance and Statistics 1D, 101, 102 unless they have obtained at least an Admission Points Score (APS) in Mathematics of 4 or higher in the National Senior Certificate or a pass in Mathematics at another examination deemed to be equivalent thereto. Candidates seeking admission to the BBS Degree require Mathematics at a rating 6 or above.

7.3 Candidates who have passed Management 1 may register for Management 2 only if they have passed, or are concurrently registered for, Accounting 1.

7.4 Candidates who have passed Latin 1B may proceed to Latin 2 only with the permission of the Head of the School of Languages.

7.5 Candidates who have passed Organizational Psychology 2 may be permitted by Senate on the recommendation of the Head of the Department to take Psychology 3. Candidates who have completed Psychology 2 may not proceed to Organizational Psychology 3 except with the permission of the Head of the Department, in which case additional coursework assignments will normally be set, in which a specified level of performance must be achieved. In the event that candidates do not attain the specified level of performance by the end of the first term their registration will revert to Psychology 3.

7.6 A student deemed to be in the first year of study may not register for Information Systems 2.

7.7 Owing to physical constraints, it may be necessary to limit the numbers of students admitted to Information Systems 2 and 3. Should this become necessary, candidates may be required either to have completed the first year towards a degree or to have obtained at least five one-year courses or ten semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 150 NQF credits before being admitted to Information Systems 2. Should the number of candidates qualifying for admission to Information Systems 2 and 3 exceed the number that can be admitted, admission will be on merit, and those who fail to be thus admitted will be given priority for the following year.

7.8 Save with the permission of the Head of the Department of English Language and Linguistics, a student deemed to be in the first year of study may not register for the course Professional Communication.

7.9 Students wishing to proceed to the final year of the BCom (Accounting) degree and register for Accounting 3, Auditing 3, Taxation 3 and Management Accounting and Finance 3 must have obtained a mark of 60% or greater for Accounting 2. Students who obtain a mark of 50-59% for Accounting 2 will only be permitted to register for Accounting 3 and two of: Auditing 3, Taxation 3 and Management Accounting and Finance 3.

C.8

Candidates taking a course in the Faculty of Humanities shall be governed by the provisions of Rules H.3, H.4, H.5, H.6, H.13, H.14.

C.9

Candidates taking Mathematics or a course given only in the Faculties of Science and Pharmacy shall be governed by the provisions of the Rules S.4 and S.23.

10.1 Candidates may not present themselves for examination in courses amounting to more than six one-year courses or twelve semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 180 NQF credits in the first academic year and five-year courses or ten semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 150 NQF credits in the second academic year.

10.2 Subject to any exceptions approved by Senate, candidates may not present themselves for examination in courses amounting to more than seven semester courses in any year of study in which they are engaged on the final course of a major subject (normally no more than three in any semester, plus Professional Communication). The exception approved by the Senate being Accounting 3 when taken with Auditing 3, Management Accounting and Finance 3, and Taxation 3.

10.3 For all bachelor's degrees, candidates who have passed fewer than three one-year courses or six semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 90 NQF credits shall be deemed to be in the first year of study for the degree. Candidates who have passed more than three one-year courses or six semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 90 NQF credits, but with fewer than eight one-year courses or sixteen semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 240 NQF credits, shall be deemed to be in the second year of study unless they are registered for the final courses of at least two major subjects for the degree. Candidates who have passed at least eight one-year courses or sixteen semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 240 NQF credits towards the degree, or who are registered for the final courses in at least two major subjects shall be deemed to be in the third year of study.

10.4 Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, candidates must have passed at least two courses before they may enter on the second course in any subject.

10.5 Last Outstanding Course – Supplementary Examinations:

- a) Last outstanding course supplementary examinations will be allowed only for the last year course or two semester courses outstanding for the degree, provided this applies normally to one discipline only, and normally to a course written in the final calendar year of study;
- and
- b) Provided the student has a Duly Performed Certificate for the course concerned.

C.11

The degree certificates of candidates for three-year Bachelor's degrees who pass in Class I in the third year course of any subject listed in C.2.1 and C.2.3, shall be endorsed with distinction in that subject. These subjects shall be regarded as major subjects within the Faculty. For the purpose of this Rule the final mark in these courses shall, where applicable, be taken as the average mark of their component semester courses.

NB Auditing 3, Taxation 3 and Management Accounting and Finance 3 are only regarded as major subjects when taken in conjunction with Accounting 3.

Aggregation Rules:

- a) Aggregation is permitted between semester papers written in the same academic year and with the corresponding supplementary papers. Where the February result is invoked the supplementary mark is recorded on the transcript as "P" in the event of a pass and "ACR" where the mark results in an overall aggregated pass.
- b) In Accounting 1 students obtaining between 40-49% in Accounting 101, together with a corresponding mark of 51% and above for Accounting 102, and an aggregate mark of 50% or more, are awarded a continuing pass to Accounting 2. Where the student passes Accounting 101 but fails 102 with a mark of between 40-49%, and aggregates to 50% or more a non-continuing pass is awarded.
- c) For other subjects administered by the Commerce Faculty (Economics, Information Systems and Management) aggregation is permitted where one semester has been failed at the 45-49% level, provided that the overall average mark for the two semester marks is 50% or more.
- d) Where a course consists of 4 modules aggregation is permitted where 3 modules (papers) are passed and the fourth failed with a mark of 40% or more, provided that the overall average mark for the 4 modules is 50% or more.
- e) Where a course consists of 4 modules aggregation is permitted where 2 modules (papers) are passed and two failed with marks between 45 and 49%, provided that the overall average mark for the 4 modules is 50% or more.
- f) Subminima for other subjects taken by Commerce students may differ from this rule but aggregation always conforms to (a) above.

All students registered for a degree in the Faculty are required to pass Economics 1 and 2.

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF BUSINESS SCIENCE

C.14

14.1 The curriculum for the degree of Bachelor of Business Science shall extend over not less than four years of full-time study.

14.2 Candidates who do not pass all the courses for the Degree in the first year of study will be automatically reregistered in the second year as Bachelor of Commerce / Economics students with the approval of the Board of the Faculty.

14.3 Admission to the fourth year of study for the degree is subject to approval by the Board of the Faculty.

14.4 Candidates will not be admitted to any fourth-year course for the degree if they have not passed or been exempted from all the courses prescribed for the first three years of study for the degree.

14.5 Candidates normally require a minimum of 60% in their third year of study in the subject they wish to continue with in their fourth year.

14.6 Candidates wishing to be admitted to the fourth year of study in any discipline must note that the course can only be offered to a limited number of students. Departments reserve the right to select the best students regardless of the degree being studied.

14.7 Candidates who complete the third year of study for the degree and who fail the fourth year will, depending on courses passed, be awarded the degree of Bachelor of Commerce or the degree of Bachelor of Economics.

14.8 Candidates who complete the third year of study for the degree and who have passed the required courses, may elect to be awarded the BCom or BEcon degree. Such candidates may not subsequently be admitted to the degree of Bachelor of Business Science, but may be admitted to an Honours degree.

14.9 A paper in Strategic Management in the fourth year is compulsory for all students reading for full Management Honours, as well as those joint-honours students where Management is the dominant component. Other fourth year students may elect to read a paper in Strategic Management, which will count as 20% of their final fourth year mark. The weighting of the Strategic Management course for joint-honours students not reading Management as the dominant component, and in which Management is either a minor component or not taken at the fourth-year level, will be split equally (10%) between the two Departments in which the student is studying.

14.10 All candidates are required to submit a research essay/project in partial fulfilment of the fourth year of study. Where the candidate is taking the 60/40 split between two subjects, the research essay is normally supervised and examined by the dominant department. This paper will represent a maximum of 20% of the course content of the fourth year of study.

Candidates for the degree should note that they may, subject to the constraints imposed by Rules G.17, C.7, C.10, C.14, and those imposed by the lecture timetable, offer courses in a curriculum in a different order to that set out in this Rule.

NB It is important that candidates plan their curricula fully in advance to ensure feasibility on the lecture timetable.

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF COMMERCE

The degree of Bachelor of Commerce may be awarded either as an ordinary degree or as an honours degree.

A. The ordinary degree

15.1 Candidates for the ordinary degree must pass at least twenty-three semester courses, where a year course is equivalent to two semester courses, contained in one of the curricula set out below.

15.2 Candidates offering more than the minimum number of courses for the degree must select the additional courses from those listed in C.2.1.

15.3 Candidates for the degree may, subject to the constraints imposed by Rules G.17, C.7, C.10, C.14.3, and those imposed by the lecture timetable, offer courses in a curriculum in a different order to that set out in this Rule. Thus, for example, a candidate wishing to include Computer Science 2 in Curriculum 1 must take Computer Science 1 as the option in item 4 of Year 2, but must take the course in Year 1, and the course it displaces in Year 1, in Year 2. Similarly, a candidate wishing to take Information Systems 2 in Year 2 must take Computer Science 112 in Year 1 and any semester course in Year 1 omitted as a consequence, in Year 2 or thereafter.

CURRICULUM 1 (General)

This curriculum is intended for candidates who wish to specialise in one or more of the following fields:

Economics, Information Systems, Management, Statistics.

Year 1

1. Accounting 1

3. Economics 1
4. Management 1
5. Theory of Finance and Statistics 1C2 or Mathematics 1

NB See Rule C.15.3 above. Candidates are reminded that they shall not be permitted to register for Management 3 until they have obtained a pass in Accounting 1, Economics 1, Mathematics 1 or Theory of Finance and Statistics 1C2. They should register for Computer Science 112 should they intend to take Information Systems 2 in the second year.

Year 2

1. Economics 2
2. One of: Accounting 2; Information Systems 2; Management 2
3. One of: a course listed in (2) above not already taken; Computer Science 2; Commercial Law 2; Mathematical Statistics 2; Organisational Psychology 2

4. Commercial Law 1; if already taken: any other year course, or two semester courses, from C.2.1 or C.2.2 (Attention is drawn to Rule C.6)

5. Professional Communication

Year 3

1. One of the following: Accounting 3; Economics 3; Information Systems 3; Management 3

2. One of: A course listed in (1) above not already taken; Applied Statistics 3; Computer Science 3; Mathematical Statistics 3; Mathematics 3; Organisational Psychology 3

CURRICULUM 2 (Accounting)

Year 1

1. Accounting 1

2. Commercial Law 1

3. Computer Science 112

4. Economics 1

5. Management 1

Year 2

1. Accounting 2

2. Economics 2

3. Information Systems 2

4. Principles of Professional Accountancy

5. Professional Communication for Accountants

Year 3*

1. Accounting 3

2. Two of: Auditing 3; Management Accounting and Finance 3; Taxation 3

 Candidates may not take any other course if all four of Accounting 3; Auditing 3; Management Accounting and Finance 3; and Taxation 3 are taken. See also rule C.7.9.*

 Candidates who intend to take the Postgraduate Diploma in Accountancy must include all three of these subjects in their curriculum.*

CURRICULUM 3 (Law)

Year 1

1. Legal Theory 1

2. Accounting 1

3. Economics 1

4. Management 1

5. One of the following: A course in a modern language; Latin 1A or Latin 1B; Mathematics 1 or 1E, or Theory of Finance and Statistics 1C2

NB See Rule C.15.3. Candidates are reminded that they shall not be permitted to register for Management 3 until they have obtained a pass in Accounting 1, Economics 1, Mathematics 1 or Theory of Finance and Statistics 1D.

1. Legal Theory 2

2. Economics 2

3. One of: Accounting 2; Information Systems 2; Management 2

4. Any other year course, or two semester courses, from C.2.1, or C.2.2

5. Professional Communication (Attention is drawn to Rule C.6)

Year 3

1. Legal Theory 3

2. One of: Accounting 3; Economics 3; Information Systems 3; Management 3

CURRICULUM 4 (inter-faculty) *

NB Candidates are reminded of the need to plan any proposed curriculum with regard to its viability in terms of the University lecture timetable.

Year 1

1. Accounting 1

2. Economics 1

3. Management 1

4. A first-year course leading to a major in the Faculty of Humanities or the Faculty of Science.

5. One of the following: Commercial Law 1; Theory of Finance and Statistics 1C2, or Mathematics 1

NB See Rule C.15.3. Candidates are reminded that they shall not be permitted to register for Management 3 until they have obtained a pass in Accounting 1, Economics 1, Mathematics 1 or Theory of Finance and Statistics 1C2.

Year 2

1. A second-year course of a major subject offered in the Faculty of Humanities or the Faculty of Science.
2. Economics 2
3. One of the following: Accounting 2; Commercial Law 2; Information Systems 2; Management 2

5. Professional Communication

Year 3

1. The final course of a major subject offered in the Faculty of Humanities or the Faculty of Science.
2. One of the following: Accounting 3; Economics 3; Information Systems 3; Management 3

 For the purpose of this curriculum a major in the Faculties of Humanities and Science will be any major subject which can be taken for the BA, BSocSc and BSc degrees, excluding Accounting, Commercial Law, Economics, Information Systems, Legal Theory and Management.*

B. The Honours degree

C.16

The degree of Bachelor of Commerce with Honours may be taken in any major subject for the degree (excepting Legal Theory), or in any subject or combination of subjects approved by the Senate.

C.17

17.1 Candidates shall not be admitted to any course in the honours degree unless they have obtained the permission of the Board of the Faculty on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned. Normally candidates will not be admitted to the honours course unless they have obtained a good second class pass in the final undergraduate year in the subject in which they wish to take honours.

17.2 Candidates may present themselves for examination in more than one subject, provided that:

17.2.1 they satisfy for each subject involved the normal criteria for admission to Honours in that subject;

17.2.2 the Heads of the relevant Departments have agreed upon the contents of the course and the structure of the examination, and 17.2.3 the Heads of the Departments concerned and the Dean of the Faculty approve such arrangements.

17.2.4 Accounting Honours may not be taken jointly with any other subject.

C.18

Candidates shall attend the University for not less than one academic year after being admitted to the ordinary degree or to the status of that degree and shall pursue a course of advanced study in the chosen subject.

C.19

The honours degree normally requires a period of one year's full-time study. Such candidates may not take up any full-time employment while engaged on the course. They may, however, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned and with the approval of Senate, take up part-time employment. Candidates may, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned and with the permission of Senate attend and write the examination in a course in the same or another department concurrently with their honours degree.

C.20...

C.21

Senate may, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned, permit a student to take an honours course as a part-time student: Provided that:

21.1 the honours classes are attended within the normal timetable of the Department; and 21.2 the honours course is spread over two years, but, except with the special permission of Senate, not more than two years.

C.22

Candidates taking the honours degree may be required to satisfy the examiners that they have an adequate reading knowledge of an approved language other than the official languages.

C.23

Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, candidates shall not be permitted to present themselves for the examinations for the degree more than once in the same subject.

C.24

Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate candidates must write all parts of the examination at one time, and they shall not be exempted from any part of the examination, provided that a part-time candidate, or a candidate taking the degree over two years, may, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department and with the permission of Senate, write part of the examination at the end of the first year of study and part at the end of the second year of study.

C.25

Exceptions have been approved by Senate for the following subjects, and in these subjects parts of the Honours examination may be written at the discretion of the Head of the Department at any official examination session of the University pertaining to the period of study prescribed in Rules 6 and 8:

Computer Science,
Economics,
Information Systems,
Management,
Mathematics,
Statistics.

C.26

Candidates will not be admitted to the Honours degree in Accounting (Financial Accounting) unless they have achieved at least the minimum requirements for admission to the Postgraduate Diploma in Accountancy set out in Rules C.32 and C.33.

FACULTY OF COMMERCE

Candidates will not be admitted to the Honours degree in Accounting (Financial Management) unless they have achieved the requirements for admission to the Postgraduate Diploma in Accountancy set out in Rules C.32. This implies the requirement to pass papers 1 to 6 in aggregate and to satisfy the requirements of Rule C.23.

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ECONOMICS

The degree of Bachelor of Economics may be awarded either as an ordinary degree or as an honours degree.

B. The Honours degree

C.30

The degree of Bachelor of Economics with Honours may be taken in any major subject for the degree, or in Operations Research, or in a combination of any two of these subjects.

Rules C.17 to C.25 above shall also apply to the degree of Bachelor of Economics with Honours.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The Master of Business Administration (MBA) offered by the Rhodes Business School is a degree by coursework and research mini-thesis. The curriculum is weighted as follows:

Coursework: 124 credits

Research Mini-Thesis: 60 credits.

The degree is offered on a part-time, modular basis over two and a half years or on a full-time, modular basis over one and a half years.

If part-time, candidates are required to attend three two-week teaching blocks in Grahamstown each year of the first two years and to complete work-based assignments in the periods between the teaching blocks. If full-time, the coursework is completed in six two-week teaching blocks in the first year. The final six months in both cases, is dedicated to the completion of the research mini-thesis.

The Rhodes University Business School's essence is "Leadership for Sustainability" and hence leadership and sustainability principles underline all subjects in the MBA curriculum. Emphasis is placed on business continuity, as well as achieving a balance between economic, social and environmental sustainability. The school applies its own unique 4E (Economy, Ethics, Ecology and Equity) model in its teaching and learning practice. The school has committed itself to abide by the Principles for Responsible Management Education (PRME). Normally candidates will only be admitted to the programme if they hold at least an NQF Exit Level 8 qualification (i.e. a Bachelor Honours Degree, Postgraduate Diploma or four-year Bachelor Degree) in any discipline, are proficient in English and have had at least three years relevant practical experience. All applicants are required to sit the NMAT by GMAC™ Admission Test, or GMAT if the NMAT is not available in their country of residence. Furthermore, those applicants for whom English is a foreign language are required to sit an appropriate English language test.

The coursework component comprises a number of modules, comprising compulsory and elective, which are assessed by a mixture of assignments, texts and/or examinations, depending on the credit weighting of the module, which together count 67% of the degree. Each module comprising the coursework component of the degree must be passed. The research mini-thesis component which counts 33% of the degree must be passed.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF COMMERCE IN FINANCIAL MARKETS CURRICULUM:

The Master of Commerce in Financial Markets (MCom (Financial Markets)) is a degree by coursework and research mini-thesis. The curriculum is weighted as follows:

Coursework: 90 credits

Research Mini-Thesis: 90 credits

The coursework component comprises a number of modules and industry examinations. In terms of Financial Services Board's requirements for traders and advisors, candidates are required to sit industry examinations set by the South African Institute of Financial Markets (SAIFM) and the Johannesburg Securities Exchange. The coursework modules and industry examinations together count 50% of the final mark.

Coursework modules (with industry examinations added)

ECO 507 - Macroeconomics, Monetary Policy and Financial Markets

Industry examinations: Introduction to Financial Markets; and Regulation and Ethics of the SA Financial Markets

ECO 504 - Debt and Foreign Exchange Markets

Industry examinations:

The South African Money Market;

The Bond Market; and

The Foreign Exchange Market

ECO 505 - Equity and Derivative Markets

Industry examinations:

The Equity Market;

The Derivatives Market

ECO 508 (Paper 1) - Quantitative Finance

ECO 508 (Paper 2) - Financial Econometrics

ECO 506 - Portfolio Theory and Management

An aggregated pass (ACR) may be awarded for the coursework component provided that no more than one paper is failed and that the mark for this paper is between 45% and 49%. Students falling into this category do have the option of repeating the course during the second year of study. No supplementary examinations will be set. Students failing no more than two papers are obliged to repeat these courses during the second year of study and no aggregation of marks will be allowed in this case. Students failing more than two papers will not be permitted to continue with the programme except with the special permission of the Head of Department. Such permission is not automatic and motivations provided by affected students will be considered on a case-by-case basis. The coursework component of the degree must be passed.

The research mini-thesis comprises a written report and counts 50% of the final mark. The research mini-thesis component of the degree must be passed.

Students registered for the degree must normally be full-time and in-attendance for the first year of study.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF COMMERCE IN TAXATION

The Master of Commerce in Taxation (MCom (Taxation)) is a degree by coursework and research mini-thesis. The curriculum is weighted as follows:

Coursework:	90 credits
Research Mini-Thesis:	90 credits

The coursework component comprises a number of modules and two three-hour examinations which together count 50% of the final mark:

1. Income tax - aspects of the "gross income" definition
2. Income tax - further aspects of the "gross income" definition
3. Capital gains taxation
4. Income tax - aspects of the "general deduction formula"
5. Income tax - further aspects of "the general deduction formula"

ADVANCED DIPLOMA IN BUSINESS ANALYSIS

Candidates for the Diploma shall not be admitted to the course unless:

32.1 they have a National Diploma (NQF6) or a Bachelors Degree (NQF7), and 32.2 they have obtained the permission of the Board of the Faculty on the recommendation of the Director of the Rhodes Business School.

C.33

The status of national diploma or bachelor would be determined on the basis of Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL), taking into consideration having at least three years as a Business Analyst, but also consider age, seniority, number of tertiary level courses attended. Each candidate will be considered on their own merits. As a rule of thumb, only 10% of the class may be admitted under RPL. A detailed Portfolio of Evidence (POE) is to be provided in support of the application.

To qualify for the Diploma, candidates must pass each module.

The purpose of the Diploma is to provide a qualification for Business Analysis professionals that will enable them to develop a comprehensive understanding of the purpose, role, methods, and techniques to be applied in effective business analysis, business process modelling, business process engineering, management consulting, and either software testing or project management for sustainable business performance. This will enable understanding and identifying what, when, who, where, which and how business processes and methods can be changed to operate more economically, efficiently, effectively and sustainably; communicating and consulting with subject matter experts and key managers so as to analyse, model, and document the change requirements and support the communication and delivery of those requirements.

Modules constituting the AdvDip(Business Analysis) are:

Module 1: Sustainable Business Analysis (Core)

Module 2: Management Consulting (Core)

Module 3: Software Testing (Elective)

Module 4: Project Management (Elective)

Candidates are required to do both core modules and one elective module.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN ACCOUNTANCY

C.34

Candidates for the Diploma shall not be admitted to the course unless:

34.1 they have a Bachelor's degree or have been admitted to the status of bachelor and

34.2 they have obtained the permission of the Board of the Faculty on the recommendation of the head of the Department of Accounting. The Department of Accounting reserves the right to limit the number of students accepted into the programme.

35.1 Candidates who have been admitted to the degree or status of bachelor and who subsequently wish to obtain the Postgraduate Diploma in Accountancy must pass or have passed in Information Systems 2, Theory of Finance and Statistics, Economics 1, Commercial Law 1, Principles of Professional Accountancy, Accounting 3, Auditing 3, Management Accounting and Finance 3, Taxation 3, and such other courses as directed by the Board of the Faculty before being admitted to study for the Postgraduate Diploma in Accountancy.

35.2 Where candidates have passed in courses covering portions of the syllabus of pre-requisite courses they may be exempted from those courses provided they attend such courses and/or pass such papers or half papers as may be required by Senate on the recommendation of the Board of the Faculty.

A pass mark of 50% is required in each of the four courses. Candidates must pass all courses simultaneously.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN ENTERPRISE MANAGEMENT

Candidates for the Diploma shall not be admitted to the course unless:

37.1 they have a Bachelor's degree or have been admitted to the status of bachelor, and

37.2 they have obtained the permission of the Board of the Faculty on the recommendation of the Director of the Rhodes Business School.

C.38....

C.39

To qualify for the Diploma, candidates must attain at least 50% for the Alpha (full-time) or Problem Based Learning Project (part-time), 50% or more for at least six of the remaining seven papers listed below and an overall aggregate of at least 50%. In addition, a sub-minimum requirement of 45% applies to each paper. In the case of a candidate passing six papers and attaining an overall aggregate of 50% or more but failing to attain the sub-minimum in one paper, he or she shall be awarded a supplementary examination for that paper.* It is possible, however, subject to a maximum of three papers, for a candidate to be exempted from writing the examination for a course, with a pass being awarded for the paper, if the candidate obtains at least 70% for all individual assignments and for all tests for the paper, with two internal moderators concurring regarding the marks awarded for both forms of assessment and a review of the written work by the external examiner.

Papers constituting the one-year full-time PGDip (Enterprise Management) are: Paper 1: Strategic Marketing; Paper 2: Financial Management; Paper 3: People Management; Paper 4: Supply Chain and Project Management; Paper 5: Entrepreneurial Law; Paper 6: Computerised Accounting for Small Business; Paper 7: Entrepreneurship

Papers constituting the one-year part-time PGDip (Enterprise Management) are: Paper 1: Strategic Marketing; Paper 2: Financial Management; Paper 3: People Management; Paper 4 Sustainable Business Modelling; Paper 5: Leadership for Sustainability; Paper 6: Business Development and Consulting; Paper 7: Strategic Operations Management; Paper 8: Intrapreneurship; Paper 9: Sustainable Economics.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN TAXATION

Candidates for the Diploma shall normally not be admitted to the course unless:

40.1 they have a Bachelor's degree or have been admitted to the status of bachelor and completed an appropriate undergraduate taxation course and normally achieved a mark of 65%; and

40.2 they have obtained the permission of the Board of the Faculty on the recommendation of the head of the Department of Accounting.

40.3 Where candidates have passed in courses covering portions of the syllabus of pre-requisite papers they may be exempted from those papers provided they attend such courses and/or pass such papers or half papers as may be required by Senate on the recommendation of the Board of the Faculty

Candidates must pass all papers simultaneously in the aggregate. A sub-minimum of 40% is required in any individual paper.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN BUSINESS ANALYSIS

Candidates for the Diploma shall not be admitted to the course unless:

42.1 they have a Bachelor's degree or an Advanced Diploma in a related discipline (Information Systems, Business Analysis, Project Management) or have admitted to the status of bachelor, and 42.2 they have obtained the permission of the Board of the Faculty on the recommendation of the Director of the Rhodes Business School.

C.43

The status of bachelor would be determined on the basis of Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL), taking into consideration having at least three years as a Business Analyst, but also consider age, seniority, number of tertiary level courses attended. Each candidate will be considered on their own merits. A rule of thumb, only 10% of the class may be admitted under RPL.

To qualify for the Diploma, candidates must pass each module and attain at least a 50% aggregate for the coursework and 50% for the Project with supporting Portfolio of Evidence (POE).

In addition, a sub-minimum requirement of 40% applies to each component of each module. In the case of a candidate passing three modules and attaining an overall aggregate of 50% or more but failing to attain the sub-minimum in one module, he or she shall be awarded a supplementary examination for that module.* The coursework comprises 67% (80 credits) of the diploma and the Project with supporting Portfolio of Evidence (POE) 33% (40 credits). The overall mark is a weighted average of coursework and Project with supporting Portfolio of Evidence (POE).

The purpose of the Diploma is to provide a qualification for Business Analysis professionals that will enable them to strategically, operationally and critically address relevant methods, processes, systems and techniques that should be applied to achieve sustainable business performance. In so doing the number and quality of working Business Analysts in Africa who are able to effectively communicate and apply their understanding of the theory, principles, purpose, role, methods and techniques of business analysis, business modelling and business process improvement to achieve sustainable business performance will be achieved.

The PGDip(Business Analysis) is a one year, full-time or one and a half year, part-time modular programme, comprising four modules, where students are required to attend four teaching blocks. Between teaching blocks, students are required to complete work-based assignments. A practical 24-hour examination is undertaken at the commencement of the 4th teaching block, covering all four modules. A Project with Portfolio of Evidence (POE), is to be submitted by the end of the second semester for full-time students or at the end of the first semester of the second year for part-time students.

Modules constituting the PGDip(Business Analysis) course are:

Module 1: Sustainable Business Models

Module 2: Business Process Modelling

Module 3: Business Process Analysis

Module 4: Communicating and Consulting

HONOURS DEGREE IN ACCOUNTING

The Honours degree in Accounting can be presented in any one of the following specialisation areas:

Accounting

Auditing

Finance

Management Accounting

In each case papers forming part of the Postgraduate Diploma in Accounting will form the basis of the degree, together with a paper in an Introduction to Research Methodology and Design and a research essay. In each specialisation area one or more additional papers are prescribed. Candidates for the Honours Degree shall normally not be admitted to the course unless:

- they have a Bachelor's degree in the Accounting curriculum and have completed the appropriate undergraduate course majors and normally achieved a mark of 60% in each of the major subjects relevant to the Honours degree;
- they have obtained the permission of the Board of the Faculty on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Accounting.

The Department of Accounting reserves the right to limit the number of students accepted into the programme.

ADVANCED CERTIFICATE IN FOUNDATION PHASE LITERACY TEACHING

This is an NQF Level 6 qualification which is offered part-time over two years by the Centre for Social Development (CSD).

E.1 Purpose

The purpose of this qualification is to provide candidates with a sound knowledge base for teaching Reading and Writing in Grades R-3, as well as develop their ability to apply their knowledge and skills to classroom teaching in the Foundation Phase (FP), while equipping them to undertake more specialised and intensive learning. The course addresses the needs of:

- Foundation Phase teachers who want to strengthen specialisation in FP literacy teaching and are already qualified to teach in the Foundation Phase, having successfully completed a professional BEd degree or a PGCE, an initial three-year diploma in education offered by former colleges of education, or a National Professional Diploma in Education at NQF Level 5.
- Foundation Phase Heads of Department and Foundation Phase Subject Advisors who are already qualified to teach in the Foundation Phase and who want to strengthen their specialisation in FP literacy teaching in order to provide expert guidance to teachers about how to teach reading and writing in the Foundation Phase.

E.2 Admission requirements

E.2.1 BED degree in Foundation Phase Teaching, or

E.2.2 PGCE in Foundation Phase Teaching or equivalent, or

E.2.3 three-year Diploma in Education with a Junior Primary specialisation, or

E.2.4 three-year Junior Primary Teachers' Diploma, or

E.2.5 National Professional Diploma in Education (NPDE – Level 5) in Foundation Phase

E.3 Duration and mode of delivery

This part-time qualification consists of 12 modules offered over two years through a blended learning mode.

E.5 Assessment

E.5.1 Candidates must have passed at least four modules before they may enter the second year of the programme.

E.5.2 Candidates may repeat no more than two modules concurrently in their second year of study.

E.5.3 Candidates who fail four or more modules in the first year of study will normally be excluded.

E.5.4 Candidates who average an aggregated mark of 75% or more in all the modules will be awarded the certificate with distinction.

E.5.5 Owing to the modular nature of the course, candidates who have passed up to six modules as short courses may be considered for recognition of prior learning in those modules

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF EDUCATION (Foundation Phase Teaching) (Full-time initial teacher education)

The BEd is a 480-credit qualification at NQF Level 7. It is offered as a four-year full-time initial teacher education qualification by the Education Department.

E.6 Purpose

The BEd (Foundation Phase Teaching) is for candidates wanting to become qualified as professional educators in the Foundation Phase of schooling (Grades R to 3).

E.7 Admission requirements

Candidates must fulfil the general rules for admission to the first degree. Candidates shall not be admitted to the degree unless they have obtained at least an Admissions Points Score (APS) in Mathematics of 3 (40-49%) or higher in the NSC or an APS of 4 (50-59%) or above for Mathematics Literacy and an APS of 4 or above for a Home Language and an APS of 4 or above for a First Additional Language in the NSC. One of the languages must be English Home Language or English First Additional Language.

E.8 Duration

A minimum of four years full time study

- Obtained credit in all Foundation Phase Studies 2 subjects
- Obtained a minimum of 60 third year credits

E.9.9 Candidates who are repeating courses may have to forego their School Based Teaching Practice block in the fourth year.

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF EDUCATION (Foundation Phase Teaching)

(Part-time programme for in-service educators)

A part-time 480 credit NQF Level 7 BEd (FP) is offered by the Centre for Social Development (CSD) for in-service educators who wish to upgrade their initial teacher education qualifications to a degree. This seven-year part-time qualification pathway may include RPL credits and be no less than 180 new credits.

The BEd degree provides graduates with access to post-graduate studies at an Honours level (NQF Level 8).

E.10 Purpose

All the Bachelor of Education degrees offered for Continuing Professional Development purposes are part-time programmes to accommodate in-service teachers. It is expected that candidates enrolling for the degree will be working as 'underqualified' teachers or as teacher assistants in schools over the period of time that they are registered for the programme. Teachers registered for the programme would thus develop extensive classroom experience over and above the supervised and assessed work integrated learning during their period of registration. The curriculum is designed to ensure that candidates are provided with the required depth of theory, and the required level of supervised and assessed work integrated learning, and the required level of reflection on theory in everyday practice, to ensure that all candidates are able to attain the minimum level of teaching proficiency required by policy (MRTEQ, 2015) in the specialist phase and teaching subjects for which they register.

E.11 Admission requirements

E.11.1 ECD practitioners, holding a 240 credit NQF Level 5 National Diploma qualification may apply to gain entry into the part-time mode of delivery of this qualification at the start of year 3. Courses are numbered to show which year of the seven-year part-time degree curriculum they are offered.

E.11.2 Professionally qualified teachers, holding an initial teaching qualification of 360 credits at level 6 (for example, a former three-year College of Education Diploma or a National Professional Diploma in Education (NPDE) 360C qualification at former NQF Level 5) may apply to gain entry into this qualification with recognition of 180 credits (96 at level 5 and 84 at level 6). These students will be credited with the 180 credits described in years 1, 2 and 3 of the part-time mode of delivery of the programme (60C per year) through credit accumulation and transfer from their prior qualification. Such students would enter the programme at the start of year 4 and to complete the programme would need to attain a further 300C (180 at level 6 and 120 at level 7 according to the current NQF level system).

E.11.3 Professionally qualified teachers holding an initial teaching qualification of 480 credits at level 6 or above (for example, an Advanced Certificate in Education (120C at former NQF level 6), a former undergraduate Higher Diploma in Education, or a former Further Diploma in Education) may apply to gain entry into the part-time mode of delivery of this qualification with recognition of 240C (96 at level 5 and 144 at level 6). These students will be credited with 240C described in years 1, 2, 3 and 4 of the part-time mode of delivery of the programme (60C per year) through credit accumulation and transfer from their prior qualification. Such students would enter the programme at the start of year 5 and to complete the programme would need to attain a further 240C (120 at level 6 and 120 at level 7 according to the current NQF level system).

E.12 Duration

E.12.1 For candidates admitted under E.11.1, the duration shall not be less than five years of part-time study

E.12.2 For candidates admitted under E.11.2, the duration shall not be less than four years of part-time study.

E.12.3 For candidates admitted under E.11.3, the duration shall not be less than three years of study.

The PGCE is a 120-credit qualification at NQF Level 7 offered by the Education Department.

E.17 Purpose

The PGCE is a 'capping' qualification for persons wanting to become qualified as professional educators in schooling after having completed an appropriate Bachelor's degree (at least 360 credits) other than a Bed or an appropriate 360 credit NQF 6 diploma that is recognised by the DHET as per the DHET circular of 5 February 2015. The PGCE provides access to the BEd Honours degree at NQF Level 8.

E.18 Admission requirements

The entrance requirements for the course are:

E.18.1 The candidate has been awarded an appropriate bachelor's or higher degree.

E.18.2 The candidate must have subjects to teach one method at the Further Education and Training level and one at Senior Phase level, see tables below.

SENIOR PHASE TEACHING (GRADES 7-9)

School subject	University subject(s) and minimum year level
Creative Arts	At least two subjects from a range of appropriate Arts subjects e.g. Music, Drama, Anthropology, Classics, Dance Studies, Visual Arts, Design, Theatre Arts.
Economic and Management Sciences	A combination of any two of the following subjects at first year level; Accounting, Management or Economics.
Languages - First Additional Language	English: English 1 AND one of the following: English and Linguistics 1, Applied Language Studies 1, African Literature 1, Literary Theory 1, Communication and Media Studies 1. isiXhosa: isiXhosa (Mother-Tongue) 1 OR isiXhosa (Additional Language) 2 Afrikaans: Afrikaans 1

Languages - Home Language	A first-year level in that language
Life Orientation	A combination of two of the following subjects, one of which must be at second year level; Psychology, Philosophy, Anthropology, Sociology, Social Work, Human Kinetics and Ergonomics, Politics, Labour Studies, Industrial Studies. Psychology MUST be one of the subjects.
Mathematics	Mathematics 1
Natural Sciences	A combination of at least one subject from Life Sciences AND Physical Sciences; e.g. Botany 1, Biology 1, Chemistry 1, Earth Sciences 1, Geography 1, Geology 1, Physics 1, Zoology 1, Physical Geography 1, Environmental Science 1, Biological Sciences 1.
Social Sciences	Geography 1 and History 1.
Technology	At least two subjects from a range of appropriate technology-related subjects e.g. Practical Art, Computer Science, Design Studies, Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics. Each application to be examined and decided on its merits, including consideration of NSC subjects.

*Introductory courses do not meet the requirements

FURTHER EDUCATION AND TRAINING TEACHING (GRADES 10-12)

School subject	University subject(s) and minimum year level
Accounting	Accounting 2
Business Studies	Management 2
Information Technology	Computer Science 2 OR Computer Science 1 + Information Systems 2
Computer Applications Technology	Computer Science 1 OR Information Systems 2
Design	A combination of subjects from a range of appropriate technology-related subjects, e.g. Fine Art Practice, Computer Science, Design Studies, Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics, Engineering, Graphic Design, Architecture, Fashion Design, Interior Design. Each application to be examined and decided on its merits, including consideration of matric subjects.
Dramatic Arts	Drama 2
Economics	Economics 2
Geography	Geography 2 or Environmental Science 2
History	History 2
Language - First Additional Language	The particular language at 2nd year level English: English 2 AND one of the following: Linguistics 1, Applied Language Studies 1, African Literature 1, Literacy Theory 1, Communication and Media Studies 1 OR English 1 + Linguistics 2 isiXhosa: isiXhosa (Mother Tongue) 2 OR isiXhosa (Additional Language) 3 Afrikaans: Afrikaans 2
Language - Home Language	The particular language at second year level e.g. English 2 OR English 1 AND Linguistics 2, Applied Language Studies 2, African Literature 2, Literacy Theory 2, Communications and Media Studies 2 isiXhosa (Mother Tongue) 2 Afrikaans 2

Life Orientation	Psychology 2 AND one of the following subjects; Philosophy, Anthropology, Sociology, Social Work, Human Kinetics and Ergonomics, Politics, Labour Studies, Industrial Studies at first-year level.
Life Sciences	Combination of any two of the following: Biological Sciences, Biochemistry, Microbiology, Physiology, Biology, and Zoology, with one taken at second year level at least, is required to specialise in Life Sciences Teaching, provided that first year modules in Biology or Botany and Zoology are also included.
Mathematics	Mathematics 2 OR Mathematics 1 + Mathematics Stats 2/Applied Mathematics 2
Mathematical Literacy	Matric Mathematics + one or more of a range of subjects in the Mathematical field at first year level: Applied Mathematics, Statistics, Mathematical Modelling, Numerical Analysis, Dynamics and Mechanics. Each application will be considered on merit.
Music	Musicalology 3 + Instrument at 2nd year level + Theory of Music (Grade 8) + Piano (Grade 5)
Physical Sciences	Physics 2 + Chemistry 1 OR Physics 1 + Chemistry 2
Visual Arts	Art History and Visual Culture 2 AND Fine Art Practice 2 e.g. Drawing, Multimedia, Painting, Sculpture, Printmaking, Ceramic Art, Fibre and Textiles, Heavy Metal and Jewellery Arts.

*Introductory courses do not meet the requirements

E.20.1 Candidates will be required to do a minimum of 10 weeks of Teaching Practice (Work Integrated Learning).

E.21 Assessment

E.21.1 A candidate who fails Teaching Practice (WIL) shall be required to repeat Teaching Practice (WIL).

E.21.2 A candidate who fails a course at the F1 level shall be granted a supplementary examination.

E.21.3 A candidate who fails a course at F2 level and below, or fails the supplementary examination shall be required to repeat the course.

E.21.4 A candidate who fails three or more courses shall be required to repeat the entire curriculum for the certificate.

E.21.5 The certificate will be awarded “with distinction” if a candidate obtains a Class 1 pass for Education Studies, a Class 1 pass in at least one of the Teaching Practice Methods and a Class 1 pass in at least one of the following: Teaching Method 1, Teaching Method 2 or the remaining Teaching Practice Method.

E.21.6 A candidate who fails Education Studies or one of the Teaching Methods, at the F1 level (i.e. scoring between 45% - 49%) shall normally be permitted to write a supplementary examination in that course at the beginning of the following year.

E.21.7 A candidate who fails Education Studies or one of the Teaching Method courses at below F1 level, or who fails the supplementary examination in any of these courses, shall normally be required to re-attend the course.

E.21.8 A candidate who fails two or more of Education Studies, Teaching Method 1, Teaching Method 2, Teaching Practice Method 1 or Teaching Practice Method 2, shall normally be required to re-attend the entire curriculum for the certificate

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN HIGHER EDUCATION

The PGDip (HE) is a 120-credit qualification at NQF Level 8 offered by the Centre for Higher Education Research, Teaching and Learning (CHERTL).

E.22 Purpose

The PGDip (HE) aims to facilitate the professional development of lecturers as reflexive practitioners in higher education by developing their knowledge of Higher Education (HE) as a field of study. The course is designed to assist lecturers to enhance their ability to facilitate, manage and assess students' learning as well as provide professional accreditation for HE practitioners.

E.23 Admission requirements

The admission requirements are

E.23.1 A Level 8 or above qualification on the Higher Education Qualifications Sub-Framework.

E.23.2 A candidate is employed as a lecturer at a higher education institution for duration of registration.

E.23.3 A candidate must be proficient in both oral and written formal English.

E.23.4 A candidate must be computer literate and have reliable access to a computer and the Internet.

E.24 Duration

The duration of the course shall not be less than one academic year of study for full-time candidates, or two years of study for part-time candidates.

Candidates who require more than two years to complete the qualification need to apply for permission from the Dean of Education.

9201024	PGDHE 24	Reflective Practitioner	1	8	15
9201023	PGDHE 23	Portfolio	2	8	0

E.25.1 Candidates are required to EITHER register for five core modules:

- Becoming a critically reflexive practitioner
- Learning in Higher Education
- Curriculum Development
- Assessment of Student Learning
- Evaluation of Teaching and Courses, OR
- Candidates may register for four core modules and an elective research module. Research electives include topics such as: Design and Develop eLearning, Design and Structure Experiential Learning, Supervision of Research in Higher Education, Leadership in Higher Education, Service Learning and Research in Higher Education, Decolonisation or Africanisation of Higher Education, Integrating Sustainable Development Goals into the curriculum.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN HIGHER EDUCATION (for Academic Developers)

The PGDip (HE) for Academic Developers is a 120-credit qualification at NQF Level 8 (honours level) offered by CHERTL.

E.26 Purpose

The purpose of the PGDip (HE) for academic developers is to advance academic developers' knowledge of higher education as a field of study and to enable them to conceptualise, design and implement formal and informal academic development initiatives (with a particular focus on academic staff development) appropriate to their specific contexts.

E.27 Admission requirements

The admissions requirements are

E.27.1 Normally a Level 9 qualification on the HEQSF.

E.27.2 A candidate has to be employed as an academic developer or cognate role at a higher education institution

E.27.3 A candidate must be proficient in both oral and written formal English

E.27.4 A candidate must be computer literate and have reliable access to a computer and the Internet.

E.28 Duration

The duration of the course shall not be less than one academic year of study for full-time candidates, or two years of study for part-time candidates. Candidates who require more than two years to complete the qualification need to apply for permission from the Dean of Education.

9201017	PGDHE 17	Portfolio	2	8	-

E.29.1 Candidates are required to complete six core modules: The Higher Education Context, Teaching and Learning in Higher Education, Curriculum Development, Assessment of Student Learning, Development, Enhancement and Assurance of Quality of Teaching and Learning, Conceptualising and Designing Contextually-appropriate Development Initiatives.

E.30 Assessment (for all PGDip (HE) programmes)

E.30.1 Each core module of the course is assessed through a coursework assignment. Candidates are required to complete and pass the assignments for all core modules.

E.30.2 A candidate may only be allowed to proceed to Year 2 if they have passed at least two modules in Year 1.

E.30.3 Candidates will be required to submit an integrated, evidence-based portfolio for final assessment of the qualification.

E.30.4 Candidates may be required to present themselves for an oral defence of their portfolios.

E.30.5 Candidates who obtain an FI mark for their portfolio may be granted an extended duty performance to enable them to re-submit their portfolio for assessment.

E.30.6 The diploma will be awarded with distinction if the candidate achieves 75% or more for the portfolio.

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF EDUCATION HONOURS

The Bachelor of Education Honours degree is a 120-credit qualification at NQF Level 8. The Bachelor of Education Honours provides access to a 180-credit NQF Level 9 Master of Education/Professional Master's degree in Education. The Honours degree is offered by the Education Department and the ISEA.

E.31 Purpose

The Bachelor of Education Honours is the first postgraduate degree in education. It is intended to prepare students for research-based postgraduate studies in a particular field of education. It serves to consolidate and deepen the student's expertise and theoretical engagement in educational practice, and develop research capacity in the methodology and techniques of educational research.

E.32 Admission requirements

The admission requirements for the course are:

E.32.1 A four-year professional teaching degree OR

E.32.2 An appropriate bachelor's degree and a recognised professional teaching qualification OR

E.32.3 A four-year professional teaching qualification as well as an Advanced Diploma in a cognate subfield of education at NQF Level 7.

E.32.4 A candidate must be computer literate and have reliable access to a computer and the Internet.

E.32.5 The satisfactory fulfilment of the requirements of the selection process.

E.33 Duration

The duration of the course shall not be less than one academic year of study for full-time candidates, or two years of study for part-time candidates.

E.34 Curriculum

A Bachelor of Education Honours General candidate must obtain credit in the two foundation courses (Educational Issues and Ideas and Research in Education) and in two elective courses. A Bachelor of Education Honours Specialisation candidate must obtain credit in the two foundation courses (Educational Issues and Ideas and Research in Education) and a specialisation A and B course. See table below.

Bachelor of Education (Honours) - General OR Specialisation
Course code	Mnemonic	Course name	Year	NQF Level	Credits
9045000		Educational Issues and Ideas	1	8	30
9045001		Research in Education	1	8	30
*		Elective A or Specialisation A	2	8	30
*		Elective B or Specialisation B	2	8	30
* TWO of the following electives can be chosen for the BEd Honours (General) degree: Adult Education Processes, Bilingual Education for Diversity and Access, Curriculum Studies, Education Leadership & Management (ELM), English Language Teaching (ELT), Environmental & Sustainability Education, Geography Education, Information and Communication Technology (ICT) in Education, Life Orientation Education, Mathematics Education, Quality Teaching and Learning in Primary Education and Science Education.
A Bachelor of Education Honours in ONE of the following areas of specialisation may be taken: Bilingual Education for Diversity and Access, Curriculum Studies, Education Leadership and Management (ELM), English Language Teaching (ELT), Geography Education, Information Communication Technology (ICT) in Education, Mathematics Education, Primary Education and Science Education.

E.35.1 All courses are assessed by means of coursework and summative assessments. Coursework (for example, essays, tests and other tasks completed during the year) will comprise a year mark. Summative assessments (for example, written examinations, research reports, seminar presentations, portfolios or a combination of these) will comprise the examination mark. The year mark and the examination mark will normally be weighted equally (50:50) in the calculation of the final mark.

E.35.2 Regardless of format, all summative assessments shall be subject to the University's examination rules and be submitted during the University's examination period.

E.35.3 A pass mark for a course is 50% or more, calculated by aggregating the year mark and the final examination mark as described above.

E.35.4 A subminimum of 40% for both the year mark and final examination will normally be required. For example, marks of 40% for the year mark and 60% for the final examination (and vice versa) will normally result in a pass, whereas marks of, for example, 75% and 25% will not.

E.35.5 A candidate must obtain credit in both first-year courses before proceeding to second year studies.

E.35.6 A candidate who fails a first-year course at F1 level, may be granted a supplementary examination. A candidate may only fail one subject once.

E.35.7 The degree will be awarded with distinction if a candidate achieves an average of 75% across all four courses.

MASTER OF EDUCATION

The Master of Education degree is a 180-credit qualification at NQF Level 9.

The MED provides access to the PhD degree.

See also General Rules (G.49 to G.61) and Higher Degrees Guide.

Higher Degrees Guide

https://www.ru.ac.za/media/rhodesuniversity/content/postgraduategateway/documents/HDG_Guide_2019.pdf

E.36 Purpose

“The primary purpose of a Master of Education degree is to prepare researchers who could contribute to the development of knowledge in the field of Education, including knowledge about professional practice at an advanced level. A Master of Education degree comprises a significant research component and could be attained in one of two by:

- completing a single research project, culminating in the production and acceptance of a thesis, or
- successfully completing a course-work programme, requiring a high level of theoretical engagement and intellectual independence, and by completing and reporting on a research project culminating in the acceptance of a dissertation carrying a minimum of 60 credits at level 9.

Master of Education degree students should be able to deal with complex issues in education – both systematically and creatively. They should make sound judgements, using the data and information at their disposal, and be able to clearly communicate their conclusions to specialist and non-specialist audiences, demonstrate self-direction and originality in analysing and solving problems, act autonomously in planning and implementing tasks at a professional level and continue to advance” (Government Gazette no 38487 February 2015, p.45).

E.37 Admission Requirements

E.37.1 The minimum entry requirement is normally

- the Bachelor of Education Honours degree OR
- an appropriate 480 credit Level 8 Professional Bachelor’s degree (for example, a Bachelor of Psychology degree), or
- a relevant Honours degree. A postgraduate diploma may also be recognised as meeting the minimum entry requirement for a cognate Master of Education degree programme, as long as it meets the HEQSF research requirements of at least 30 credits.

E.37.2 For admission to the degree of Master of Education by coursework and research in the fields of Educational Leadership and Management, English Language Teaching, Environmental Education, Primary Education, Mathematics Education, Geography Education, Science Education and Information and Communication Technology, the minimum entry requirement is normally

- either the Bachelor of Education Honours degree or
- an honours degree plus PGCE or PGDip (HE) with, in each case, a credit in the underlying discipline at least at the second-year level, and at least three years of teaching experience in the field of MED specialisation. This does not apply to Educational Leadership and Management and Environmental Education.

E.37.3 E.50.3 Candidates may be admitted as Ad Eundem Gradum students as set out in the University rules (G.49).

E.38 Duration

E.38.1 The degree by coursework and half thesis runs over a two-year cycle with coursework being offered only in alternate years.

E.38.2 Full-time candidates can complete all requirements for the award of the degree within one year of full-time study.

E.38.3 Candidates in the Faculty of Education are required to submit research proposals within 18 months of registration for consideration by the Faculty Higher Degrees Committee which recommends acceptance or otherwise to the relevant Faculty Board.

E.38.4 In terms of Rule G.76.1, candidates are expected to have completed a Master's degree within three years from first registration. Given these timelines, Senate may suspend or cancel the registration of a candidate if they are not satisfied that an extension is warranted. Consequently, candidates should apply to Senate for the extension of their registration period.

E.38.5 The continued registration of MED candidates is conditional on the Dean receiving satisfactory reports on their progress.

MASTER OF EDUCATION BY RESEARCH

E.39 Curriculum

The degree may be undertaken in any field of educational research, depending on availability of supervisory staff.

E.40 Duration

In terms of Rule G.76.1, candidates are expected to have completed a Master's degree within three years from first registration. Given these timelines, Senate may suspend or cancel the registration of a candidate if they are not satisfied that an extension is warranted. Consequently, candidates should apply to Senate for the extension of their registration period.

E.41 Assessment

E.41.1 The research, in the form of a thesis, must show that

- the candidate is sufficiently acquainted with the appropriate methods of research;
- the candidate is sufficiently acquainted with the appropriate literature;
- the candidate has satisfactorily presented the results of independent research for the award of the degree.
- The thesis is satisfactory as to literary style and presentation.

E.41.2 Save for exceptional circumstances approved by the Senate, the upper limit for a thesis in the case of a Master's degree by research only will be 50 000 words of text (approximately 150 A4 pages of double-spaced typing, excluding footnotes, illustrative material and appendices).

MASTER OF EDUCATION BY COURSEWORK AND RESEARCH

E.42 Curriculum for coursework and half thesis

E.42.1 The coursework component should be spread over one year with examinations being written at the end of the year.

E.42.2 The coursework examination must be completed during the first year of study, in order for the candidate to proceed to work on the research in the second year of study.

E.42.3 The coursework component shall be valued at 50% of the final total mark. The thesis shall represent the other 50%.

E.42.4 With due consideration for the more limited nature of the work, the criteria in E.54 above apply equally to the evaluation of the thesis component.

E.42.5 The length of the thesis shall not exceed 30 000 words of text (approximately 100 A4 pages of double-spaced typing, excluding footnotes, illustrative material and appendices).

E.43 Curriculum for coursework and research projects

E.43.1 The coursework component should be spread over one year with examinations being written at the end of that year.

E.43.2 The coursework component shall be valued at 50% of the final total mark. The projects shall represent the other 50%.

E.43.3 The projects shall consist of the following components:

- the study and application of a range of research methods used in the social sciences and education. This shall include learning how to conduct research in differing circumstances requiring different approaches, and by undertaking and critically evaluating a range of small-scale research projects using different methods.

- development of the theoretical and practical capacity to critically evaluate research being done in education in South Africa and abroad.

E.44 Assessment

E.44.1 The overall examination procedure for MEd by coursework and research (half thesis or research projects) shall be as follows:

E.44.2 A candidate must normally obtain a minimum of 60% for the coursework component of the first year of the degree, in order to be allowed to proceed to the research component of the degree.

E.44.3 In order to be awarded the degree, candidates must obtain a minimum of 50% for the research component (half-thesis or research projects) and an aggregated mark of 50% for the coursework component (year mark and examination) and the research component (half-thesis or research projects). Candidates obtaining an aggregate of between 50% and 74% will obtain a pass mark for the MEd degree.

E.44.4 For a distinction to be awarded for the degree, in the case of degree by course work and half theses, the candidate should have obtained a sub-minimum of 70% for both the course work, and the half thesis. The combined mark should be 75% or more

E.44.5 No supplementary examinations for the coursework component will be permitted.

E.44.6 The examination rules of the thesis and half thesis are identical to those set out in the Higher Degrees Guide.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

The PhD is a 360-credit course at NQF level 10. See also General Rules and Higher Degrees Guide.

Higher Degrees Guide:

E.45 Purpose

“The defining characteristic of a general doctoral degree in the field of education is that it requires the candidate to demonstrate high-level research competence, and to make a significant and original academic contribution at the frontiers of education or in a sub-field of education. The research, which may be purely discipline-based, or multidisciplinary, or applied research, must be undertaken at the most advanced academic level, culminating in the production, defence and acceptance of a thesis. Course work may be conducted as a preparation for, or in support of the research, but may not contribute towards the credit value of the degree. The quality of the research should satisfy peer reviews and merit publication. The graduate should also be able to supervise the research of others in his/her area of specialisation” (Government Gazette no 38487 February 2015).

E.46 Duration

E.46.1 In terms of Rule G.76.1, candidates are expected to have completed a PhD within five years from first registration or six years if their PhD was upgraded from a Master’s degree. Given these timelines, Senate may suspend or cancel the registration of a candidate if they are not satisfied that an extension is warranted. Consequently, candidates should apply to Senate for the extension of their registration period.

E.46.2 The continued registration of PhD candidates is conditional on the Dean receiving satisfactory reports on their progress.

E.47 Curriculum

E.47.1 The degree may be undertaken in any field of educational research, depending on availability of supervisory staff.

E.47.2 A PhD can take either a traditional form or it can be presented in the form of peer-reviewed articles and papers in partial fulfilment of the degree

E.48 Assessment

E.48.1 The guideline for the upper length of a PhD thesis (excluding, footnotes, illustrative material, reference list and appendices) is 80 000 to 100 000 words. Candidates are cautioned against exceeding this length without careful consideration in consultation with their supervisor(s) on how the length might be viewed by their examiners.

E.48.2 The examination rules are set out in the Higher Degrees Guide.

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARTS AND BACHELOR OF SOCIAL SCIENCE

H.1

The degree of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Social Science may be awarded either as an ordinary degree or as an honours degree.

H.2

Except as provided in Rules G.44 to G.48 of the General Rules, candidates shall not be admitted to the degree unless they have attended approved courses subsequent to their satisfactory completion of the National Senior Certificate, or other examination deemed by the Senate to be equivalent, for at least three years.

H.3

Candidates for the ordinary degree must obtain credit in not less than ten courses; they may present themselves for examination in not more than four of these in the first year of study, and not more than four in the second year of study; provided that:

3.1 Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, a candidate must have obtained credit in at least two courses before entering on the second course in any subject;

3.2 Candidates with unweighted Admission points higher than 50 will normally be granted permission to take a fifth course in their first year of study;

3.3 Candidates may present themselves for examination and obtain credit in one additional course in the second year of study provided that the Dean of the Faculty is satisfied that the candidate has an above average academic record: and

3.4 Candidates who have only one course, other than a major course, outstanding for the degree may be permitted by the Senate to present themselves at a supplementary examination, provided that this concession will be granted only if candidates failed the course in the current year and obtained at least an F2 classification in the course;

3.4.1 Candidates may not enter the final course of any of the subjects listed in Rule H.5 for the BA degree or H. 19 for the BSocSc degree until they have at least five credits towards the degree;

3.4.2 Subject to any exceptions approved by Senate candidates who have obtained credit for the final course of a major subject may not present themselves for examination in the final course of any further major subject until they have at least six credits towards the degree;

3.5 In any given semester the final course of a major subject may not be taken in conjunction with more than two other courses, unless approved by the Dean of the Faculty.

H. 4

Candidates shall be deemed to be in their first year of study until they have obtained credit in two courses, including at least one of the subjects specified in Rule H.5 or H.19; they shall be deemed

GROUP B

Group B comprises all other subjects offered by the Faculties of Commerce, Law or Science for credit towards any undergraduate Bachelor's degree at Rhodes University. Candidates taking any course in the Faculty of Commerce, Law or Science shall be governed by that Faculty's rules pertaining to that course.

1 Not necessarily offered in any particular year.

2 May not be taken in a candidate's first academic year in terms of regulation A.2

NOTE Students are advised to take in their first-year curriculum only courses which lead to possible majors.

H.7

A candidate must obtain credit in all the required courses in at least two subjects, to be known as major subjects, which are taken at the third-year level (NQF level 7). At least one such major subject (and 180 credits overall) must be chosen from Group A.

NOTE Candidates who are permitted to register for the final courses of three major subjects in any one year will normally be required to write one in February of the following year.

H.8

A candidate must obtain credit in at least four non-initial courses. All second- and third-year courses and Modern Fiction count as non-initial courses.

H.9...

Save in exceptional circumstances approved by the Senate candidates

10.1.1 who have obtained a National Senior Certificate or equivalent qualification with German as a subject shall not be permitted to register for the course German Studies 1, as the language component starts at beginners' level.

10.1.2 who are German mother-tongue speakers shall not be permitted to register for German Studies courses, as the language components are at foreign language level.

10.2 who are French mother-tongue speakers will not be allowed to register for French 1.

10.3 who have passed isiXhosa at the National Senior Certificate with at least a 50% mark in shall not be permitted to register for the isiXhosa Language Acquisition course at any level except under exceptional circumstances and on the discretion of the relevant Head of Department in consultation with the Dean of the Faculty.

10.3.2 ...

10.4 who have passed Xhosa as 2nd or 3rd language at the National Senior Certificate level or other equivalent examination may be permitted to proceed to the second level course in isiXhosa Language Acquisition on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty in consultation with the Head of the School of Languages.

12.1.1 A candidate must obtain credit in Sociology 1 before proceeding to Industrial and Economic Sociology 2.

12.1.2 A candidate who has passed Industrial and Economic Sociology 2 may take Sociology 3 but only with the permission of the Head of the Department. A candidate who has passed Sociology 2 may not take Industrial and Economic Sociology 3 except with permission of the Head of the Department, in which case additional coursework assignments will normally be set in which a satisfactory level of performance must be achieved.

12.3.1 A candidate must obtain credit in Psychology 1 before proceeding to Organisational Psychology 2.

12.3.2 A candidate who has passed Organisational Psychology 2 may take Psychology 3 but only with the permission of the Head of the Department. A candidate who has completed Psychology 2 may not proceed to Organisational Psychology 3, except with the permission of the Head of the Department, in which case additional coursework assignments will normally be set in which a specified level of performance must be achieved. In the event that candidates do not attain the specified level of performance by the end of the first term their registration will revert to Psychology 3.

13.1 Only 120 first-year students gain entry into Journalism and Media Studies 2. Applications are submitted by students and reviewed in committee.

The following areas are taken into account: individual academic performance, portfolio of journalistic work completed by students, tutors reports and biographical questionnaires. Students offered a place in Journalism and Media Studies 2 need to take up the offer immediately following completion of Journalism and Media Studies 1. The offer lapses thereafter. A candidate accepted into Journalism and Media Studies 2 who fails the year will not be allowed to re-register for a second try, unless permission is granted by the Head of School.

13.2 A candidate who passes Journalism and Media Studies 2 will not automatically be admitted to the four-year degree but will be permitted to take Journalism and Media Studies 3 as a major in the Bachelor of Arts degree. Entry into Journalism and Media Studies 3 is predicated upon a candidate obtaining a minimum of 50% for both the Media Studies and Production components of the Journalism and Media Studies 2 course. A candidate who fails to obtain 50% for one of the components but passes on aggregate will be granted a non-continuing pass. No such candidate shall be permitted to re-register for the course or rewrite the examination, unless permission is granted by the Head of School. A candidate who passes Journalism and Media Studies 3 will not automatically be admitted to Journalism and Media Studies 4 but will be able to complete a Bachelor of Arts degree.

13.3 No candidate registered for a course in Journalism and Media Studies may carry a workload of more than 10 credit points, except with the permission of the Head of the Department. The maximum workload permitted may not exceed 12 credit points.

The Humanities Extended Studies Programme

Special provision is made in the Faculty of Humanities to accommodate students who would not normally be admitted to the curricula for the degrees of BA, BSocSc or BJourn. A number of special credit-earning courses are offered from which a curriculum suited to the needs of each student admitted to the Extended Studies Programme will be drawn up at Registration by the Dean, in consultation with appropriate Heads of Departments. Because of the nature of the programme, the number of students admitted to it in any one year will be limited.

The structure of the first-year programme shall normally consist of:

Academic and Computer Literacies plus 2 full courses from:

Anthropology, Journalism & Media Studies, Politics and Sociology plus the Extended Studies support course.

THE HONOURS DEGREE

The Rules that follow apply to candidates for the Bachelor of Arts (Honours) and Bachelor of Social Science (Honours) degrees.

H.23

The honours degree may be taken in any subject or combination of subjects approved by the Senate.

NOTE: The Faculty offers Interdisciplinary Honours degrees in African Studies, Development Studies, Gender Studies, Industrial Relations and any other inter-departmental and inter-faculties programs. See the entry under "Interdepartmental Studies" in the Calendar.

24.1 A candidate who has been awarded the ordinary degree, or has been admitted to the status thereof or, being a graduate of another Faculty, has passed such examinations as are deemed by the Senate to be equivalent to the prerequisites for the Honours degree, or has completed all the requirements thereof except the requirement regarding attendance, may, subject to the provisions of Rules H.31-H.35 inclusive, be admitted to the course for the Honours degree.

24.2 For the purpose of sub-paragraph (1), candidates shall attend the University for not less than one academic year after satisfying the said requirements and pursue a course of advanced study in their chosen subject.

24.3 As an alternative to sub-paragraph (1), a candidate who has been registered at Rhodes University for a minimum of two years prior to the application, may, subject to the provisions of Rules H.26 and H.27 and H.31, be admitted to the course for the Honours degree from the beginning of the third academic year of study for the ordinary degree. This is subject to the following conditions:

24.3.1. That such a candidate has passed with distinctions at least two of their majors both at first and second years, inclusive of the subject of their Honours application

24.3.2 That such a candidate shall apply for admission to an Honours degree, and the application is subject to special permission being granted to such a candidate by the Dean in consultation with the Head of the relevant academic Department of Faculty

24.3.3 That such a candidate who registers for this special Honours shall deregister from the general degree the moment his or her acceptance to study for an Honours degree is confirmed.

24.3.4 This rule shall not apply to students transferring from other academic institutions.

24.4 ...

24.5 ...

H.25

25.1 Candidates shall not be admitted to any course for the Honours degree unless they have obtained the permission of the Board of the Faculty, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department or Departments concerned. Normally candidates will not be admitted to an Honours course unless they have obtained at least a second class pass in the final year in the subject in which they wish to take Honours.

25.2 Candidates may present themselves for examination in more than one subject, provided

25.2.1 that they satisfy for each subject involved the normal criteria for admission to honours in that subject;

25.2.2 that the Heads of the relevant Departments have agreed upon the contents of the course and the structure of the examination, and 25.2.3 that the Board of the Faculty approves such arrangements.

25.3 Except for the Honours degree in African Studies and the Honours degrees in Development Studies, Gender Studies, and any other related programs, candidates may normally not present themselves for examination in more than two subjects.

25.4 If more than 60% of the honours degree programme is given in one subject, the degree will be awarded in that subject. If between 40% and 60% of the degree programme is given in each of two subjects, the degree will be awarded as a joint degree in the two subjects.

Candidates taking the honours degree under Rule H.23 will be required to study and complete their Honours degree within two years of registering for it.

H.27 Candidates that are registered for the Honours degree under rule 24.3. are subject to the same assessment rules that apply to any conventional Honours degree program of the Faculty, except that they will normally be expected to complete the degree in two years and that this program shall be taken only by full-time students.

27.1 ...

27.2 ...

27.3 ...

H.28

The periods referred to in Rule H.24 are the periods of full-time study required of an honours degree candidate. Such candidates may not take up any fulltime employment while engaged on the course. They may, however, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned and with the approval of Senate, take up part-time employment. Candidates may on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned and with the permission of Senate, attend and write the examination in a course in the same or another Department concurrently with their honours degree.

H.29

Senate may, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned, permit students to take an honours course as a part-time student: provided that

29.1 they attend the honours classes within the normal timetable of the Department, and 29.2 the honours course is spread over two years, but, except with the special permission of the Senate, not more than two years.

H.30

Candidates taking the honours degree may be required to satisfy the examiners that they have an adequate reading knowledge of an approved language other than the official languages.

H.31

Candidates shall not be admitted to the course for the honours degree in terms of Rule H.24.3, unless they have obtained credit in not less than eight courses

H.32

32.1 Other than for the candidates admitted under rule 24.3, all candidates shall not be admitted to any dual Honours degree, unless they have obtained at least three credits in each of two of the subjects they wish to take for Honours degree.

32.2 Candidates shall not be admitted to the course for the honours degree in African Studies unless they have a major in at least one of the following: African Languages, Anthropology, Economics, History, Industrial and Economic Sociology, Philosophy, Politics, Psychology or Sociology. Students will normally be expected to offer at least two papers in the honours programme conducted by a Department in which they majored.

Candidates shall not be admitted to any course for the honours degree unless they have obtained credit in such compulsory ancillary courses as may be prescribed for that course.

H.34

Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, honours degree candidates may not present themselves more than once for examination for the honours degree in the same subject.

Candidates must write all parts of the examination, other than the translation test (if required) at one time, and they shall not be exempted from any part of the examination: provided that part-time candidates may, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department and with the permission of Senate, write part of their examination at the end of their first year of study and part at the end of their second year of study.

NB Except in exceptional circumstances approved by the Senate, a research essay must be handed in before or at the same time as the other examinations are written. Normally a research essay of a maximum of 15 000 words shall be regarded as the equivalent of one paper.

A candidate who has been admitted to the course for the honours degree in terms of Rule H.24.3, and has failed to satisfy the examiners, may, subject to permission from the Dean of the Faculty, be permitted to re-register for outstanding courses offered for the ordinary degree.

H.37

Candidates who have obtained the Postgraduate Diploma in Journalism may be accepted as candidates for the Honours or Master's degree in Journalism and Media Studies, provided that the candidate has passed such examinations as could be deemed by Senate to be equivalent to the prerequisites for the relevant degree. Candidates wishing to enrol for the Master's degree may be required to complete one or more papers from the honours degree and must satisfy the general Rules governing the Master's degree in the Faculty of Humanities.

FINE ART

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF FINE ART

See the General Rules applicable to all Faculties. The following Rules apply to the Department of Fine Art only. Except as provided in General Rules G.44 to G.48 candidates shall not be admitted to the degree unless they have attended courses subsequent to their first registration as a matriculated student for at least four years.

38.1 A candidate for the degree must obtain credit in:

38.1.1 Two 30-credit courses in any subject approved by the Board of the Faculty, which would normally be taken during the first two years of study;

38.1.2 All the courses listed below:

First year

Fine Art Practice 1 (FAP 1A = FAP 1B)

Students are introduced to specialist media and diverse working methods through a series of projects in drawing, painting, sculpture, photography, print media and digital arts.

Art History and Visual Culture 1 (AHV 101 + AHV 102)

The course introduces students to the context of ‘art history’ and ‘visual culture’, and addresses the politics of visibility.

Second year

Fine Art Practice 2 (FAP 2A + FAP 2B)

Students continue their study of specialist media and diverse working methods through a series of projects in drawing, painting, sculpture, photography, print media and digital arts.

Art History and Visual Culture 2

Art History and Visual Culture 2 examines the concept of authorship in artistic practice.

Third year

Fine Art Practice 3

Each student is based in a specialist media area (Digital Arts, Painting, Photography, print media, Sculpture) but, by arrangement with the appropriate staff, is encouraged to work across the media areas. Teaching is primarily via projects and self-directed study.

Art History and Visual Culture 3

The course focuses on the overall theme of “Art, Power and Society”, deconstructing various politics of display, discourse and visual languages at work in the field of visual arts and culture.

Fourth year

Fine Art Practice 4

Each student is based in a specialist media area (Digital Arts, Painting, Photography, Printmaking, Sculpture) but, by arrangement with the appropriate staff, is encouraged to work across the media areas. Teachers direct students in such a way that they are able to develop their own areas of exploration rather than completing projects.

Art History and Visual Culture 4

This course, which is only for BFA students, comprises two courses and a research essay.

H.39

With the approval of the Board of the Faculty, candidates may present themselves for examination and obtain credit in not more than two courses additional to those prescribed in Rule H.38.

H40...

H.41

41.1 Candidates who fail Art History & Visual Culture 101 or Art History & Visual Culture 102, must obtain credit in at least one of these before proceeding to the next year of study. Candidates who fail Art History & Visual Culture 2 must obtain credit in it before proceeding to the next year of study in that subject.

41.2 Candidates who fail in any other course must obtain credit in it before proceeding to the next year of study in that subject.

Fine Art Practice: In first, second and third year, work will be examined via two assessments, one in mid-year and one at the end of the year. Midyear assessment counts 25% towards final mark. In fourth year, work will be examined via work-in-progress assessment in midyear, and summative assessment at the end of the year.

H.43

The degree certificate of candidates who pass in class I of the final examination shall be endorsed with distinction in Fine Art Practice and/or Art History & Visual Culture, as the case may be.

FINE ART OPTIONS FOR THE BACHELOR OF ARTS DEGREE

NOTE: Candidates may major in Art History and Visual Culture in the BA without doing the practical course.

Students undertaking a BA degree in the Faculty of Humanities may also obtain Fine Art credits by the following routes:

- BA students may major in Fine Art Practice if they also major in Art History and Visual Culture.
- BA students may study Art History and Visual Culture without studying Fine Art Practice.

DIPLOMA IN FINE ARTH.44

Candidates shall not be admitted to the course for the Diploma in Fine Art unless:

44.1 they have passed the School Leaving Certificate examination of the Independent Examinations Board, or another examination deemed by the Senate to be equivalent; or 44.2 the Board of the Faculty of Humanities, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Fine Art, is satisfied as to their suitability to take the course.

NB

44.2.1 For the purpose of this Rule the Senate will recognise a Cambridge Overseas School Certificate, plus passes in two matriculation subjects at subsidiary level in the Cambridge Overseas Higher School Certificate or at the "M" level examination conducted by the Associated Examining Board as equivalent to the School Leaving Certificate of the Independent Examinations Board.

44.2.2 Admission in terms of Rule H.44.2 above is only considered on the grounds of mature age and/or exceptional ability.

A candidate for the diploma shall attend the University for not less than four years after being admitted to the course, and must obtain credit in all the following courses:

First Year: Fine Art Practice 1, Art History and Visual Culture 1

Second Year: Fine Art Practice 2, Art History and Visual Culture 2

Third Year: Fine Art Practice 3, Art History and Visual Culture 3

Fourth Year: Fine Art Practice 4, Art History and Visual Culture 4

Examinations for practical subjects will be by assessment as follows:

Years 1-3

Advisory mid-year review of all practical work and end of year assessment by portfolio review of work produced during that year.

Final Year

A mid-year portfolio review, and final end of year assessment by exhibition and portfolio review of work produced during that year.

H.46

With the approval of the Board of the Faculty, candidates may present themselves for examination and obtain credit in not more than two courses additional to those prescribed in Rule H.45.

47.1 Candidates who fail Art History and Visual Culture 1 or 2 must obtain credit in it before proceeding to the next year of study in that subject.

47.2 Candidates who fail in any other course must obtain credit in it before proceeding to the next year of study in that subject.

The diploma certificate of candidates who pass in class 1 of the final-year examination shall be endorsed with distinction in Fine Art Practice and/or Art History and Visual Culture, as the case may be.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF FINE ART

Two options are offered for this degree, Option A and Option B.

Option A: The examination comprises an exhibition of studio work and the presentation of a mini thesis. The exhibition of studio work that the candidate submits for examination will be artwork produced since admission to the degree. It should be supplemented by a presentation of sketchbooks and/or other appropriate evidence of research and development. The mini thesis should be between 12 000 and 15 000 words and should be on a topic related to the candidate's studio work. The two components form an integrated submission and are assessed as such. The proposed area of investigation must be approved by the Head of Department and the Board of the Faculty of Humanities. The completed mini thesis must be submitted to the Registrar's Division at least three days before studio work is submitted for examination.

A detailed set of departmental Rules concerning the studio work and mini thesis is given to each candidate.

Option B: The examination comprises an exhibition that the candidate has curated in a major museum and a thesis. Unless the candidate is already employed in the museum sector, completing the curriculum will require him or her to undertake an internship in the museum hosting his or her exhibition. The final mark for the degree comprises 50% for the exhibition and 50% for the thesis. The proposed area of investigation must be approved by the Head of Department and the Board of the Faculty of Humanities. The completed thesis must be submitted to the Registrar's Division at least two weeks before the exhibition is submitted for examination. A detailed set of departmental Rules concerning the exhibition and thesis is given to each candidate.

MASTER OF ARTS (THESIS)

A thesis must be submitted for examination on any approved topic within the fields of Art History and Visual Culture. The General Rules and the Faculty of Humanity's rules governing Master's degrees by thesis apply.

DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

The General Rules and the Faculty of Humanities rules governing Doctoral Degrees apply. No candidate may be admitted who is not already in possession of a Master's Degree in Fine Art or History of Art or any other qualification deemed by the Senate to be equivalent for the purpose of entrance to this degree.

A Master's degree may be awarded by submission of:

- (i) a thesis,
- (ii) a portfolio of compositions*,
- (iii) two public recitals*(60%) and mini-thesis (40%)
- (iv) two public recitals (60%) and short composition portfolio (40%)

See also the General Rules for the Degree of Master.

Any culture or style may be included.*

DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

See also the General Rules for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

In addition to, or in modification of these Rules, the following apply:

1. A candidate for the PhD degree is required to submit for the approval of the Senate a thesis or a set of compositions. A candidate who submits a set of compositions in place of a thesis shall be required to submit 3 copies of the compositions.
2. A special treatise may be offered as a thesis on a subject previously approved by the Senate.
3. A set of compositions must consist of at least three substantial original compositions (not less than 70 minutes in duration), the character and form of which must receive the prior approval of the Senate on the recommendation of the Head of the Department and the Departmental Postgraduate Research Committee.
4. Where compositions are submitted, the candidate must also submit an explanatory statement (not less than 25 000 words) referring to important aspects of the scores, including in particular a description of the form or forms employed and of any contrapuntal, harmonic and orchestration devices used. This document should detail the portfolio's theme or contextualising thread. Recordings of compositions are required.

DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF MUSIC (SENIOR DOCTORATE)

The General Rules for the Degree of Doctor, other than Doctor of Philosophy, in all Faculties apply to the degree of Doctor of Music. The set of musical compositions referred to in Regulation G.39 may be printed or in manuscript together with suitable recordings.

In addition, the following apply:

1. A candidate for the degree of DMus is required to submit for the approval of Senate a published work or a set of compositions.
2. The published work must be of historical or theoretical or analytical research in music, and must open new aspects of the subject discussed.
3. A set of compositions must consist of three original compositions, the character and form of which must receive the prior approval of the Senate on the recommendation of the Head of the Department and the Departmental Postgraduate Research Committee.

JOURNALISM AND MEDIA STUDIES

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF JOURNALISM

H.62

Except as provided in General Rules G.44 to G.48, candidates shall not be admitted to the degree unless they have attended courses subsequent to their first registration as a matriculated student for at least four years.

H.63

63.1 Candidates for the degree must obtain credit in at least eleven courses which must include the following:

63.1.1 Journalism and Media Studies 1, 2, 3 and 4; and

63.1.2 all the required courses in a subject to be selected from those major subjects listed in Rule

H.7 or Rule S.8 of the Faculty of Science Rules, or Human Kinetics and Ergonomics or Information Systems, or Management.

63.1.3 ...

63.2 The remaining courses must be selected from those Humanities courses listed in Rule H.5; provided that:

63.2.1 Candidates who select a major subject from Rule S.8 must select ancillary courses as prescribed in Rule S.23.

63.2.2 ...

(1) Only 120 first-year students gain entry into Journalism and Media Studies 2. Applications are submitted by students and reviewed in committee. The following areas are taken into account: individual academic performance, portfolio of journalistic work completed by students, tutors reports and biographical questionnaires. Students offered a place in Journalism and Media Studies 2 need to take up the offer immediately following completion of Journalism and Media Studies 1. The offer lapses thereafter. Candidates wishing to return at a later stage must reapply before the 1st day of Term 4 of the previous year. If a student withdraws from the Journalism and Media Studies 2 course for certified reasons of illness or trauma or is excluded s/he will not be allowed to repeat completed modules or exams, unless permission is granted by the Head of School. These candidates will need to inform the School of their intention to return by the end of the first week of January. A candidate accepted into Journalism and Media Studies 2 who fails the year will not be allowed to re-register for a second attempt, unless permission is granted by the Head of School.

(2) A candidate who passes Journalism and Media Studies 2 will not automatically be admitted to the four-year degree but will be permitted to take Journalism and Media Studies 3 as a major in the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Social Science degree. Entry into Journalism and Media Studies 3 is predicated upon a candidate obtaining a minimum of 50% for both the Media Studies and Production components of the Journalism and Media Studies 2 course. A candidate who fails to obtain 50% for one of the components but passes on aggregate will be granted a non-continuing pass. A candidate who passes Journalism and Media Studies 3 will not automatically be admitted to Journalism and Media Studies 4 but will be able to complete a Bachelor of Arts degree. Entry into Journalism and Media Studies 4 is predicated upon a candidate obtaining a minimum of 60% for both the Media Studies and Production component of the Journalism and Media Studies 3 course.

Candidates accepted into Journalism and Media Studies 4, and who are registered for a Bachelor of Arts degree, may change their registration to Bachelor of Journalism subject to the rules for a Bachelor of Journalism degree being met.

H.64...

H.65

Candidates for the Bachelor of Journalism degree who take their second major from the subjects listed in Rule S.8 must complete three courses from the following basic subjects: Biochemistry, Botany, Chemistry, Computer Science, Economics, Entomology, Geography, Geology, Mathematics, Physics, Psychology, Zoology, Applied Mathematics, Mathematical Statistics, Microbiology.

NOTE Students intending to major in any of the subjects listed in Rule S.8 are referred to the prerequisite subjects listed in Rule S.23.

66.1 ...

66.3 Candidates shall be deemed to be in their first year of study until they have obtained credit in Journalism and Media Studies 1 and credit in at least one course in one further subject; they shall be deemed to be in their third year of study if they have at least six credits and are engaged in or have obtained credit in either Journalism 3 or the final course of a subject taken under Rule H.63; they shall be deemed to be in their final year of study when they have at least eight credits including the final course of a subject taken under Rule H.63 and are engaged in the study of Journalism 4; otherwise they shall be deemed to be in their second year of study.

66.5 Candidates shall not be permitted to enter the course Journalism 4 until they have obtained at least nine credits including both third year major courses.

H.67

The degree certificates of candidates shall be endorsed "with distinction" if they obtain an average mark equivalent to a Class 1 pass for the modules of their Journalism and Media Studies 4 course taken together.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN JOURNALISM

H.68

Candidates may be admitted to the course for the Postgraduate Diploma in Journalism and Media Studies (PgDip) if they have been admitted to the degree or status of Bachelor in any Faculty of the University; provided that a student with a major in Journalism and Media Studies from Rhodes University will not be admitted to courses already covered within that student's major; or Candidates for the Diploma will be admitted on the recommendation of the Head of School. The School reserves the right to limit the enrolment for the Postgraduate Diploma in Journalism to 12 students for any one academic year.

H.69

H.70

A candidate for the Diploma must obtain credit in all prescribed courses. (For further curriculum information, refer to the Journalism and Media Studies departmental entry.)

H.71

The duration of the Diploma course shall not be less than one academic year.

H.72

The Diploma may be awarded with distinction.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN MEDIA MANAGEMENT (FULL-TIME)

This postgraduate diploma is offered every year.

H.73

Candidates may be admitted to the course for the Postgraduate Diploma in Media Management if they have been admitted to the degree or status of bachelor in any faculty of the University or from other recognised universities.

H.74

A candidate for the Diploma must obtain a pass in at least seven of the eight core modules below with an overall aggregate pass of at least 50% for the combined eight modules:

Media Management Contexts, Policy and Institutions

Media Management and Leadership

Human Resources Management

Managing Media Markets, Audiences and Advertising

Financial Management and Media Economics

Managing Media Content

Managing New Media and Convergence

H.75

The duration of the Diploma course shall not be less than one academic year.

H.76

The Diploma may be awarded with distinction.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN MEDIA
MANAGEMENT (part-time, distance)

Candidates may be admitted to the two-year, part-time and mostly online course for the Postgraduate Diploma in Media Management if they have been admitted to the degree or status of a bachelor in any faculty of the University or from other recognized universities. Consideration will be given to admit students based on the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) provided that these students have been in the media industry for at least five years and have a diploma and/or advanced certificate in a cognate discipline (e.g. Diploma in Journalism or Advanced Certificate in Journalism; Marketing and Communications, etc.). The numbers of RPL students each year will be capped at 10% of the total student cohort of that year of online students.

A candidate for the Diploma must obtain a pass in all of the four modules offered in the first year to progress to the second and final year, where the candidate must pass at least an additional three other modules and the academic portfolio. A pass mark for each module is an aggregated 50% composed of the course and examination marks. A pass mark for the overall course is also an aggregated 50% of the marks of the modules and portfolio.

The duration of the Diploma shall be no less than two academic years.

The Diploma may be awarded with a distinction.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN INTERNATIONAL STUDIES*H.77

Candidates may be admitted to the course for the Postgraduate Diploma in International Studies if they have been admitted to the degree or status of bachelor in any Faculty of the University; or

H.78

A candidate for the Diploma must obtain a pass in at least four of the five courses and obtain an overall aggregated of at least 50 percent in order to qualify for the award of the Diploma. The examination consists of five papers from the following typical course listing:

International Relations

African Political Economy

Peace and Conflict in Africa

Diplomacy

Political Economy

African Politics

Africa in World Politics

H.79

The duration of the Diploma course shall not be less than one academic year.

H.80

The Diploma may be awarded with distinction.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN LOCAL GOVERNMENT ADMINISTRATION

This postgraduate diploma is not necessarily offered in any particular year.

H.81

Candidates may be admitted to the course for the Postgraduate Diploma in Local Government Administration if they have been admitted to the degree or status of bachelor in any Faculty of the University; or

H.82

82.1 A candidate for the Diploma must pass in at least two of the three non-practical components as well as pass the practical component, and obtain an overall aggregate of at least 50%, in order to qualify for the award of the Diploma. The basic components of the Diploma are:

Basics of Local Government

Local Government finance and administration

The role of Local Government in development and transformation

Practical in Local Government.

82.2 A pass will be obtained in the practical component by means of submission of a report by the candidate and by assessment of the performance of the candidate in the three-month placement.

H.83

The duration of the Diploma course shall be not less than one academic year.

H.84

The Diploma may be awarded with distinction.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN ENGLISH LANGUAGE TEACHING

This postgraduate diploma is not necessarily offered in any particular year.

H.85

Candidates may be admitted to the course for the Postgraduate Diploma in English Language Teaching if they have been admitted to the degree or status of bachelor EITHER with a language major and at least one credit in English or Linguistics OR with an Education major and at least three language credits, one of which must be English or Linguistics.

H.86

A candidate for the Diploma must obtain an overall aggregate of at least 50% in order to qualify for the award of the Diploma. There will be four components to the assessment of the Diploma course, each contributing equal amounts to the final grade:

Paper 1: General linguistics

Paper 2: Teaching methodology and language testing

Paper 3: Psychology of second language learning and teaching AND Language in society and education

Class record: Based on the course-work during the year.

H.87

The duration of the Diploma course shall not be less than one academic year.

H.88

The Diploma may be awarded with distinction.

MASTER'S DEGREES

In addition to Rules G.50 to G.61 the Board of the Faculty of Humanities has laid down the following guidelines for theses submitted for the degree of Master. The thesis must show that the candidate

- (a) is sufficiently acquainted with the appropriate methods of research;
- (b) is sufficiently acquainted with the relevant literature; and
- (c) has satisfactorily presented the results of independent research for the award of the degree.

In addition, such thesis must be satisfactory as to literary style and presentation. Except in exceptional circumstances approved by the Senate, the upper limit for masters' degrees in the Faculty of Humanities is 50 000 words of text (approximately 150 A4 pages of double-spaced typing excluding footnotes, illustrative material and appendices).

MASTER'S DEGREE BY COURSEWORK

1. Master's by coursework candidates will be required to register full-time in attendance for at least one year except for the Master's in English Second Language, and the Master's in Journalism and Media Studies.
2. The coursework section should be spread over one year with the examinations for that section written in November of that academic year, except in the case of students in Journalism and Media Studies.
3. The thesis shall be submitted not later than one year after the initial examination.
4. The coursework degree shall normally comprise three papers of three hours' duration together valued at 50% of the total final mark. The thesis shall represent 50% of the total.
5. The length of a thesis in the Master's degree by coursework should normally not exceed 30 000 words, but should not under any circumstances exceed 50 000 words (approximately 150 A4 pages of double-spaced typing, excluding footnotes illustrative material and appendices). The word limit for the extended writing project for the Masters degree in Creative Writing is 80 000.
6. The topics to be covered by the examination and the research project must be approved by the Humanities Higher Degrees Committee. The research proposal, including those for the MFA, must be approved by the Humanities Higher Degrees Committee.
7. The examination procedure shall be as follows:

- 7.1 A candidate must obtain a minimum of 50% for the papers as a whole as well as for the thesis to qualify for an overall pass.
- 7.2 Candidates obtaining between 50%–74% will obtain a pass mark for the Master's degree.
- 7.3 A distinction may be awarded for a Master's degree taken by coursework and thesis if the aggregate mark for both components of the course is > 75% .
- 7.4 Candidates will not be permitted to rewrite any papers in the examination section. No supplementary examinations will be permitted.
- 7.5 The examiner(s) may recommend that the thesis be revised and resubmitted for examination.
- 7.6 The formal examination plus a thesis are to be regarded as sub-components of an overall assessment . The scripts of the candidate and the thesis should go in the end to external examiners, who should have before them the internal examiners' marks for the scripts but not the internal examiner's mark for the thesis. The external examiners should be required to pass judgment on the candidate's overall performance in the formal examination plus the writing of the thesis.
- 7.7 Where the coursework degree has a research report which constitutes 35% or less of the marks, a distinction is awarded if the candidate obtains 75% or above in the coursework component and a 2A or better in the research report and the aggregated final mark is 75% or above.
8. Candidates may be admitted to the Master's degree by coursework and thesis in Journalism and Media Studies if they
 - 8.1 have obtained a four-year degree (BJourn) or an honours in Journalism and Media Studies or in a discipline deemed by the Head of Department to be an adequate foundation for a Master's degree in Journalism and Media Studies, or

- 8.2 have been admitted to an honours degree in a different discipline, but have in addition at least five years of professional experience in journalism and/or media studies; provided that
 - 8.3 a candidate will not be able to repeat any topic completed before in the Department of Journalism and Media Studies;
 - 8.4 a candidate may be required to complete one or more specific papers from the Honours degree;
 - 8.5 a candidate may be required to take the degree over two years,
 - 8.6 satisfy the general Rules governing the Master's degrees in the Faculty of Humanities.
9. A master's degree by coursework and thesis is also offered in Interdisciplinary Studies (refer to the Interdepartmental entry).

NOTE: The Board of the Faculty of Humanities has approved the following procedures for a Master's by examination in the Department of Psychology only:

The formal examinations are regarded as Part One of the examination and the department should appoint an external examiner for those papers and publish the results of the examinations. When the student completes the thesis, which is regarded as Part Two of the examination, this may go to an entirely different examiner who may see the thesis only. The final assessment of the candidate is made by the Head of Department and the internal examiners, based on the external examiner's report on the formal examination scripts and the external examiner's report on the thesis. Where there is clear conflict between Part One and Part Two, the candidate's examination scripts and the thesis are to be submitted to an arbiter approved by the Humanities Higher Degrees Committee.

DOCTORAL DEGREES

In addition to Rules G.62 to G.75 the Board of the Faculty of Humanities has laid down the following guidelines for theses submitted for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy:

The thesis must show that the candidate:

- (a) is sufficiently acquainted with the appropriate methods of research;
- (b) is sufficiently acquainted with the relevant literature;
- (c) has satisfactorily presented the results of independent research for the award of the degree; and
- (d) has made a substantial and original contribution to knowledge in the discipline, the substance of which is worthy of publication in a scholarly journal or book.

In addition, such thesis must be satisfactory as to literary style and presentation.

FACULTY OF LAW

GENERAL INFORMATION

Bachelor of Laws

The Faculty of Law offers all the courses required for the LLB degree, and in addition offers courses for degree curricula in other faculties. The Faculty offers the LLB in three streams, and admission is determined in accordance with set criteria.

Students are admitted in accordance with University and Faculty enrolment planning, and the availability of resources.

1. A three-year LLB for graduate students

Students enter this stream after having completed any Bachelor's degree without law subjects, or in the instance where the candidate has passed an insufficient number of law courses for the two-year programme.

2. A five-year combined Law and Humanities OR Law and Commerce OR Law and Science LLB stream

Students enter this stream with the intention of following an undergraduate programme in Law and Humanities OR Law and Commerce OR Law and Science leading to a BA/BSocSc or BCom/BBusSc or BSc and thereafter a two-year LLB. The objective of a broad-based education is achieved in this stream by including courses which ensure that the student has a thorough grasp of at least one discipline outside of Law. Students register for a BA, BSocSc, BCom, BBusSc or BSc in their first year of study and continue with that degree with Legal Theory as a major subject. Having obtained the first degree, students then apply for admission to the LLB, to be completed over two years. To do so they must have passed a sufficient number of law courses in the first degree, which is usually the case if they have majored in Legal Theory.

3. A four-year LLB stream

Students who meet the admission requirements for the LLB on the basis of their NSC, (or equivalent school exit level examinations), may be admitted to the LLB in their first year of study to follow the four-year curriculum.

Students who are registered in any one of the Faculties of Humanities, Science and Commerce and who successfully complete the Legal Theory 1 course as part of their first-year curriculum in terms of rule L.3.2 may, after their first year of study, apply for admission to the LLB to follow the four-year LLB curriculum.

Master of Laws, Doctor of Philosophy, and Doctor of Laws

A thesis on an approved topic must be submitted. The rules are the same as those for similar degrees in the other faculties.

RULES FOR DEGREES

See the General Rules applicable to all faculties. The rules that follow apply to the Faculty of Law only.

The following degrees may be awarded in the Faculty of Law:

Name	To be denoted by the letters
Bachelor of Laws	LLB
Master of Laws	LLM
Doctor of Philosophy	PhD
Doctor of Laws	LLD

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF LAWS

L.1

Except as provided in Rules G.44 to G.46 of the General Rules and in Rule L.9 below, candidates shall not be awarded the degree unless they:

- 1.1 have been registered for at least four years;
- 1.2 have completed the curriculum set out in L.4 below;
- 1.3 have performed satisfactorily in at least one moot in their final year of study.

2.1 The period of study for the degree shall be four years for candidates who are full-time students of the University

2.2 Subject to any exceptions approved by Senate, candidates may be allowed to qualify for the degree in three years, provided that they have no more than forty semester courses, or their equivalent, to complete during this period of three years.

2.3 Subject to any exceptions approved by Senate, candidates may be allowed to qualify for the degree in two years, provided that they have no more than thirty-two semester courses, or their equivalent, to complete during this period of two years.

2.4 The curriculum of candidates who during the course of their studies for their degrees change from full-time to part-time status, or vice versa, may be rearranged by the Dean.

3.1 Candidates who meet the admissions criteria for the LLB may be admitted to the LLB in their first year of study. In order to apply for admission, students must obtain a National Senior Certificate (NSC) Bachelor's Pass status or its equivalent, and normally obtain a minimum of a 45 admission point score (APS) across 6 subjects, two of which are languages, and one Mathematics or Mathematics Literacy.

Applicants must obtain at least 60% for English Home Language or 70% for English First Additional Language, and 50% for Mathematics or 60% for Mathematics Literacy in the NSC.

Students wishing to pursue Economics as one of their non-law courses, must obtain 50% in Mathematics in the NSC.

A limited number of places is available to pursue this route to the LLB. Motivations accompanying the applications will be used to differentiate between applicants of equal academic standing, and preference will be given to black South African and disabled applicants who meet the admission requirements.

3.2a Candidates who do not meet the admission criteria for the LLB may, subject to enrolment planning and the availability of resources, register for Legal Theory as a subject as part of their curriculum in another Faculty.

3.2b Normally candidates who do not have a degree may be admitted to the second year of study for the LLB degree (the four-year curriculum), provided that they have passed each of the law courses offered in their first year of study (Foundations of Law and Introduction to Law) with an average of 65% as well as have obtained an overall average of 65% for three non-law courses studied in that year. (Students who do not meet these criteria must follow the five-year route.)

Candidates who have completed more than one year of study must not only meet the first-year criteria, but must also have obtained an overall average of 65% for the subjects registered in the previous year of study.

3.3 Candidates who have a degree without any law courses or with insufficient law courses, may be admitted to the second year of study for the LLB degree (the three-year curriculum), provided that they obtained 60% for their major subjects. Where a candidate has not met this requirement, the Dean of Law has the discretion to admit that person, on good cause shown and subject to availability of Faculty resources.

3.4 Candidates who have a degree with sufficient law courses may be admitted to the third year of study for the LLB degree (the two-year curriculum). Normally, and subject to availability of places, candidates who obtained at least 60% in their Legal Theory major will be admitted, as will candidates from other universities who obtained an average of at least 60% in their previous year of study. Where a candidate has not met these requirements, the Dean of Law has the discretion to admit that person, on good cause shown and subject to availability of Faculty resources. Preference will be given to those candidates who obtained their first degree at Rhodes University.

Subject to the provisions of Rule L.8 candidates must pass all the courses set out in the following curriculum:

First year

- (1) In the First Semester: Foundations of Law
- (2) In the Second Semester: Introduction to Law
- (3) In the Second Semester: Law of Persons
- (4) Three non-legal courses as referred to in Rule L.5 below.

Second year

- (1) In the First Semester:
 - Constitutional Law A
 - Law of Contract A
 - Law of Life Partnerships
 - Law of Property A
 - Legal Interpretation
- (2) In the Second Semester:
 - Constitutional Law B
 - Law of Contract B

Law of Property B

Legal Pluralism

(3) One non-legal course as referred to in Rule L.5 at second-year level.

Third year

(1) In the First Semester:

Civil Procedure A

Company Law A

Criminal Procedure A

Criminal Law A

Jurisprudence

Law of Sale and Lease

(2) In the Second Semester:

Criminal Law B

Company Law B

Law of Agency, Insurance and Credit Agreements

Law of Evidence A

Law of Partnerships and Trusts

Public International Law

(3) In both First and Second Semesters, counted as one semester course: Legal Skills

(4) In either First or Second Semester, counted as one semester course: Legal Practice

Final year

(1) In the First Semester:

Administrative Law (first half)

Civil Procedure B

Criminal Procedure B

Labour Law

Law of Delict (first half)

2 Electives offered in the First Semester, selected from the list set out in Rule L.6 below.

(2) In the Second Semester:

Administrative Law (second half)

Law of Evidence B

Law of Delict (second half)

Ethics and Professional Responsibility

Law of Succession and Administration of Estates

2 Electives offered in the Second Semester, selected from the list set out in Rule L.6 below.

L.5

5.1 With the permission of the Dean, and subject to time-table constraints, a candidate may select any non-legal course offered at the University.

L.6

6.1 Candidates may select their elective courses, referred to in the curriculum set out in Rule L.4, from the following list (note that not all electives listed below are offered every year):

In the first semester:

Alternative Dispute Resolution (limited registration)

Copyright and Trade Marks

International Human Rights and Humanitarian Law

International Trade Law

Law of Banking and Payments

Legal Accounting

In the second semester:

Constitutional Litigation

Environmental Law

Introduction to Conveyancing

IsiXhosa

Law of Patents, Designs and Geographical Indications

The Law of Obligations in a Global Context

Law of Tax and Estate Planning

In both the first and second semesters:

Research Paper (counted as two semester courses)

LLB candidates are permitted to complete a Research Paper in a topic of their choice, subject to the availability of a suitable supervisor and the approval of the Dean.

Research Paper: International Moot (counted as one semester course)

Participation in the African Human Rights Moot Court Competition or any other International Moot Competition may qualify as a research paper provided that the research material for the moots is presented in a coherent written form.

6.2 All electives will not necessarily be offered every year and the semester in which electives are offered may also be varied. The availability of options, and the semester in which they will be taught, will depend upon enrolment numbers and teaching arrangements in the Faculty of Law. Student numbers may be restricted in any particular elective.

6.3 Candidates may not take more than three electives in any one semester.

6.4 Candidates who have passed a university course in accounting may not register for Legal Accounting.

6.5 Candidates who have passed a university course in Taxation may not register for Tax and Estate Planning.

6.6 Candidates who have passed a university course in isiXhosa may not register for IsiXhosa. Mother tongue speakers of isiXhosa may not enrol for this course

6.7 A candidate may not register for more than one research paper elective, except where a candidate participates in an International Moot Court Competition and presents a research paper on that participation. A student is only allowed to present one such research paper, irrespective of the number of times the student participated in International Moot Court Competitions.

The order in which courses are taken may be varied by the Dean on good cause shown.

L.8

Full-time candidates shall not be permitted to register for more than nine courses in a semester (including courses being repeated).

9.1 Candidates may be granted exemption from any course or courses; provided that they have passed any equivalent course or courses at Rhodes University or elsewhere, and have attained in such course or courses the standard required by the Faculty of Law.

9.2 Candidates who have been granted exemption in terms of sub-paragraph 9.1, but who are unable to qualify for the degree in two years in terms of Rule L.2, shall allocate the remaining courses to each of their three years of study in accordance with the direction of the Dean; provided that in their Final Year they include at least eight semester courses prescribed for that year.

10.1 ...

10.2 To proceed to the Penultimate Year, candidates must have no more than thirty-two semester courses, or their equivalent, outstanding for the award of the degree.

10.3 To proceed to the Final Year, candidates must have passed all the courses prescribed in the first year of study and must have no more than eighteen semester courses, or their equivalent, outstanding for the award of the degree and, further, must comply with the provisions of Rule L.8.

The Board of the Faculty of Law may permit candidates to write supplementary examinations in January/February of the following year in accordance with the following rules:

11.1 Normally a supplementary examination will not be granted to a candidate who has obtained a result of less than 40%.

11.2 Candidates will be eligible for supplementary examinations in no more than four semester courses or their equivalent in any one year, provided that they have passed at least four semester courses, or their equivalent, in that academic year.

11.3 Candidates who fail Legal Practice, Legal Skills and the Research Paper are not eligible for supplementary or aegrotat examinations.

Candidates in their Final Year who have passed all the semester courses for the degree, save four, may, with the permission of the Dean, register at another university for a similar course or courses to those outstanding for the award of the degree, and may, on successful completion, be granted exemption for such course or courses. For purposes of this rule, year courses count as two semester courses.

13.1 Candidates for examination in any course may be required to present themselves for oral examination.

13.2 Candidates in their Final Year of study who, after the November examinations, have one or two courses outstanding for their degree, will be eligible for an oral examination in those courses, subject to any policy determined by Faculty.

The degree may be awarded with distinction.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF LAWS, DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY AND DOCTOR OF LAWS

L.15

The provisions set out in the General Rules apply.

L.16

16.1 All postgraduate admissions in the Faculty of Law are subject to the availability of resources and supervisory capacity.

16.2 To be admitted to the Master's degree, candidates must have obtained at least a 65% average in the final year of their LLB degree.

16.3 Where a candidate has not met the requirement set out in L16.2, the Dean of Law has the discretion to admit that person, on good cause shown.

16.4 Admission to the PhD degree is at the discretion of the Dean of Law, on good cause shown.

FACULTY OF PHARMACY

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Faculty of Pharmacy at Rhodes University is dedicated to achieving excellence in an environment of interdisciplinary co-operation, mutual respect, consistent with the mission of the University and with the mission of the profession of Pharmacy.

MISSION

The mission of the Faculty is to promote pharmaceutical care through education, research, scholarship, creative endeavour and service.

Thus its priorities are to:

- Prepare its students for entry into the practice of pharmacy as informed, caring and ethical citizens and professionals;
- Prepare pharmaceutical scholars and researchers through professional undergraduate, graduate and post-doctoral studies of distinction;
- Conduct postgraduate education to advance the knowledge, expertise and competence of pharmacists and pharmaceutical scientists;
- Analyse and apply knowledge about pharmaceutical products and services, their use in society through basic and applied research and to advance, communicate and preserve that knowledge;
- Analyse and apply knowledge in areas that may involve health education and/or promotion, public health, management, accountability, leadership, policy analysis, and other relevant areas;
- Promote, facilitate and conduct educational courses, research, and interventions to extend the knowledge of drugs and medicines in addition to the rational and cost-effective use of medicines.

The course for the BPharm degree is of four years duration. The degree meets the academic requirements as laid down by the South African Pharmacy Council and entitles holders who are either South African Citizens or permanent residents to apply for registration as a pharmacist in South Africa after completing an internship and subsequently serving one year of community service in the public or other designated sector.

The University is prepared to consider recognising prior learning by granting credits to students who have passed such courses or equivalent courses at another university or institution recognised by the Senate for this purpose, subject to the provisions of Rule G.46 of the General Rules.

Performance in a course is assessed in terms of:

- (a) the results of prescribed written, practical and/or oral examinations, and/or
- (b) assessment of such essays, exercises, tests, reports, presentations, assignments and/or practical work as may be prescribed for a course.

The registration in the Faculty of Pharmacy of any student who is convicted for the illegal use or possession of any illicit drug or medicinal substance in a court of law (in any country) may be terminated by the Vice-Chancellor after consultation with the Dean of the Faculty of Pharmacy.

RULES FOR DEGREES

See the General Rules applicable to all Faculties.

Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, the last date for registration and change of course in the Faculty of Pharmacy shall be the end of the second week of the first term.

The following degrees may be awarded in the Faculty of Pharmacy:

Name	To be denoted by the letters
Bachelor of Pharmacy	BPharm
Master of Science	MSc(Pharm)
Master of Pharmacy	MPharm
Doctor of Pharmacy	PharmD
Doctor of Philosophy	PhD
Doctor of Science	DSc

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF PHARMACY

The BPharm degree is registered on the NQF as a level 8 qualification.

P.1

Candidates shall not be admitted to the degree unless they have attended and successfully completed approved courses for at least four years subsequent to their first registration as a matriculated student.

P.2

Normally candidates shall not be admitted to the courses for the degree of Bachelor of Pharmacy unless they have:

2.1 obtained either the National Senior Certificate with Bachelor status, or obtained a matric exemption certificate from the Board.

2.2 obtained at least a rating of 7 for Mathematics, Life Sciences and Physical Sciences to receive a firm offer.

2.3 Mathematical Literacy will not be considered.

2.4 if a candidate has 45 points and above they may receive a firm offer, if between 35 and 44 points then admission will be at the Dean's Discretion. Normally candidates who have 34 points or less are likely to be rejected.

2.5 candidates who have obtained a matric exemption of the Joint Matriculation Board must normally have obtained at least a D symbol in Mathematics, Physical Science and Biology on the Higher Grade.

Candidates shall not be admitted to the degree of BPharm unless they have:

3.1 passed all courses of the following curriculum (with the consent of the Board of the Faculty, courses may be taken in years other than those specified);

3.2 candidates who have obtained at least a rating of 5 in Computer Science in the National Senior Certificate or a pass in Computer Science deemed to be the equivalent of the above in another examination, may be permitted to take Computer Science 101 instead of Introduction to ICT;

3.3 passed electives chosen, with the approval of the Dean of the Faculty, from the electives listed under Rule P.9 or other courses approved by the Senate for this purpose;

P.4

4.1.1 Candidates in first year may not take Chemistry 102 or Pharmaceutical Biochemistry 1 if they have not passed Chemistry 101, unless they have been awarded a Supplementary exam for Chemistry 101.

4.1.2 Candidates who fail the subminimum for Chemistry 101 may be permitted to take Chemistry 1R and will not be permitted to register for Chemistry 102 or Pharmaceutical Biochemistry 1.

4.1.3 Candidates in first year who fail Cell Biology and are not awarded a Supplementary exam may not continue with Pharmacy Anatomy and Physiology 1.

4.1.4 Candidates in first year who fail either Introduction to ICT or Mathematics for Life Sciences with the option of a Supplementary exam may continue with second semester subjects unless they have also failed Chemistry 101 or Cell Biology without the possibility of a Supplementary exam.

4.1.5 Candidates in first year who fail all four first semester subjects will be excluded.

4.2 Normally students repeating second-year courses with a total value exceeding 50 or more credit points will be denied entry into later courses. With the permission of the Dean, candidates carrying 50 or fewer credit points from their second year may be admitted to appropriate third-year courses.

4.3 Normally students repeating third-year courses with a total value exceeding 60 or more credit points will be denied entry into later courses. With the permission of the Dean, candidates carrying 60 or fewer credit points from their third year may be admitted to appropriate fourth-year courses.

4.4 Normally students may only register for courses in Pharmacy Practice 4, Pharmacology 4, Elective courses offered by the Faculty of Pharmacy, and Pharmacotherapy in the year they can complete the BPharm degree

4.5 Students transferring from other universities may not normally take courses from the second year of the BPharm curriculum unless they have passed courses deemed to be equivalent to those listed in the first-year BPharm curriculum.

4.6 Normally, candidates will not be permitted to register for any course more than twice.

P.5

5.1 Before admission to a course, a candidate must have passed all prerequisites for that course except as provided for in 5.2 below.

5.2 In exceptional circumstances on the recommendation of the Dean, Senate may permit a candidate to repeat ONE prerequisite course concurrently with the courses for which it is designated a prerequisite provided that

5.2.1 the student has passed all other prerequisite courses, and that

5.2.2 such permission will not normally be granted in respect of courses which themselves lead to more advanced courses in the same subject area.

5.3 This will be conditional on obtaining a pass in its prerequisite courses.

P.6

Normally at the Dean's discretion, candidates may be granted a Supplementary examination in two of the courses for which they are registered – other than in the first year of study - provided that:

6.1 they are taking the full complement of courses for that year;

6.2 they have failed no other courses in that year;

6.3 they have no examination outstanding for that year of study.

Normally final year students are permitted to write no more than 30 credits worth of Supplementary examinations in their final year.

P.7

7.1 Courses in the Faculty of Pharmacy are measured in terms of credit points. Each credit point is based on the notional hours that an average student would require to master the content and develop skills in a subject. In this respect in the BPharm curriculum one credit point is equivalent to 10 notional hours.

7.2 Candidates must have the permission of the Dean to undertake a work-load exceeding 120 credit points in the first and second year of study, and 135 credit points in the third and fourth year of study.

7.3 For the purpose of General Rule G.46.2, credit in courses to a total of 360 credit points must be obtained at the University towards the degree.

P.8

The degree certificate of a candidate who passes with an average of not less than 3,0 merit marks per credit in all courses of the second year and subsequent years shall be endorsed "with distinction". Merit marks are calculated by multiplying the credit point rating of the course by the numerical value of the class of pass obtained by the student, for that course. For this purpose, a Class 1 pass (75–100%) is valued at 4 points, Class 2A (70–74%) at 3 points, Class 2B (60–69%) at 2 points, and Class 3 (50–59%) at 1 point. The merit mark is multiplied by the number of credits per course, and the total divided by the total number of credits.

P.9

9.1 All candidates must complete elective courses to the value of 30 credit points to be admitted to the degree.

9.2 All candidates must successfully complete electives to the value of 30 credit points. This could be two elective courses (each worth 15 credit points) or one elective worth 30 credit points. Electives may be offered and taken in the Faculty of Pharmacy or in a different Faculty if it is relevant to Pharmacy and can be accommodated in the BPharm 4 timetable.

9.3 For the purposes of 9.2 a one semester elective course within the Faculty will count 15 credit points and a two-semester elective course will be worth 30 credit points.

9.4 The elective courses offered within the Faculty of Pharmacy will be dependent on relevance to the Pharmacy profession, staff availability and expertise.

9.5. With the permission of the Dean and subject to the provision of rules P.4 and P.7 candidates may take elective courses in the second and third year of study provided they are courses offered by other faculties and can be accommodated in the timetable.

P.10

All candidates must complete the Research Methodologies course to the value of 30 credit points to be admitted to the degree.

P.11

The Calendar for the year in which students enter the first-year programme will govern their curriculum for the BPharm degree

FACULTY OF SCIENCE

RULES FOR DEGREES

See the General Rules applicable to all Faculties.

The following Rules apply to the Faculty of Science only

S.1

The following degrees may be awarded in the Faculty of Science:

Name	To be denoted by the letters
Bachelor of Science	BSc
NQF Level 7 (360 credits)
Bachelor of Science (Information Systems)	BSc(InfSys)
NQF Level 7 (360 credits)
Bachelor of Science with Honours	BSc(Hons)
NQF Level 8 (120 credits)
Master of Science (by full thesis)	MSc
NQF Level 9 (180 credits)

May be taken in the following subjects:

Applied Mathematics, Biochemistry, Bioinformatics, Biotechnology, Botany, Chemistry, Computer Science, Electronics, Entomology, Environmental Biotechnology, Environmental Science, Ergonomics, Geography, Geology, Human Kinetics & Ergonomics, Hydrology, Ichthyology & Fisheries Science, Marine Biology, Mathematical Statistics, Mathematics, Microbiology, Physics, Water Resource Science, Zoology

Master of Science (by coursework and thesis)	MSc
NQF Level 9 (180 credits)

May be taken in the following subjects:

Applied Mathematics, Bioinformatics, Computer Science, Economic Geology, Environmental Biotechnology, Exploration Geology, Mathematical Statistics, Mathematics

Doctor of Philosophy	PhD
NQF Level 10 (360 credits)

May be taken in the following subjects:

Applied Mathematics, Biochemistry, Bioinformatics, Biotechnology, Botany, Chemistry, Computer Science, Entomology, Environmental Biotechnology, Environmental Science, Geography, Geology, Human Kinetics & Ergonomics, Hydrology, Ichthyology & Fisheries Science, Marine Biology, Mathematical Statistics, Mathematics, Microbiology, Physics, Water Resource Science, Zoology

-------------------	------------

This is a Senior Doctorate awarded for a body of work completed after a PhD. See G.77 for additional details.

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREES

S.2.1 Many undergraduate subjects in the university are now offered as pairs of semester-courses; some subjects are offered as year-long courses, and some offered as single semester-long courses. Passing any of these courses earns NQF credits at specific exit levels and these accrue towards the total credits required for a degree.

S.2.2 In the rules and tables that follow, subjects are denoted sometimes by their full names, and sometimes by mnemonics and numbers (for example the subject Physics 1 (or PHY 1) is a semesterised year-course that consists of two semester-courses PHY 101 and PHY 102). The first digit of the number denotes the level (year) at which the subject is offered, the second digit is either numeric denoting a course that proceeds to a higher academic level or a letter denoting a service course describing the intended audience with no progression to a higher academic level, and a third digit denoting the semester in which the course is offered. A two-digit number denotes a year-long course. For example, MAT 1S1 is a service course offering Mathematics to students primarily registered for courses offered by the Science faculty at the first-year level and in the first semester, while MAT 1F is a service course offered at the first-year level but over the whole year and is offered to student in the Bachelor of Science Extended Studies Programme. By contrast, MAM 101 is a Mathematics course offered at the first-year level in the first semester that leads onto

MAM 102 and then in later years MAM 2, MAT 3 and/or MAP 3.

S.2.3. Candidates should consult the timetable to determine in which semester a course will be offered in any particular year.

S.2.4 Candidates may present themselves for examination in the following Science and non-Science subjects:

Science subjects

The following subjects are offered by departments within the Faculty of Science. Course-specific details can be found in the departmental entries. Normally, some subjects are offered in the first semester (S1), second semester (S2) or are offered throughout the year (Y). Subminimum requirements for supplementary examinations and aggregation of two semester-courses are also provided.

Non-science subjects

Non-science subjects comprise all other undergraduate subjects currently offered in the Faculties of Commerce, Humanities and Law.

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

S.3

Except as provided in Rules G.44 to G.47 of the General Rules, candidates shall not be awarded the degree unless they have attended approved courses for at least three years subsequent to their first registration as students.

S.4.1 Candidates shall not normally be admitted to any of the full curricula for the degree of Bachelor of Science unless either they have met the minimum admission requirements for Bachelor's degree programmes requiring a National Senior Certificate (NSC) or they are in possession of a matriculation certificate issued by the Matriculation Board or have obtained a certificate of exemption therefrom; and have achieved English (Home language or Additional language) at a rating of 5 or above and at least a rating of 4 in Mathematics in the NSC, or a pass in Mathematics deemed to be the equivalent of the above, or they have successfully completed a year of study under the provisions of the Science Extended Studies Programme.

S.4.2 Except with the permission of Senate, candidates shall not be admitted to any of the full curricula for the degree of Bachelor of Science unless they have obtained a pass in Life Sciences or Physical Sciences at a rating of 5 or above in the NSC, or equivalent subjects in another examination deemed by the Senate to be equivalent thereto.

Notwithstanding any exceptions to Rule S.4 approved by Senate, candidates will not normally be admitted to various courses in Chemistry, Computer Science, Mathematics, Physics or Statistics unless they have achieved a rating of 5 or above in Mathematics in the NSC or have completed Mathematics 1F. It should be noted that these restrictions may apply to some courses that are co-requisites (subjects required to be completed by the end of the degree) to certain major subjects (see Rule S.22.5); ineligibility to register for a co-requisite may thus preclude certain major subjects from being selected for a candidate's degree.

A limited number of students who do not meet the strict criteria of Rule S.4 may be admitted under the auspices of the Science Extended Studies Programme (see Rules S.39 to S.41).

S.7

Candidates for the BSc degree must obtain not less than 360 NQF credits in various approved subjects with at least 120 credits at the NQF level 7.

S.8

S.8.1 A candidate for the degree must obtain credit for all the required courses up to the NQF level 7 in at least two subjects, to be known as major subjects.

S.8.2 Some major subjects are offered only at the second and third-year level, that is, at the NQF levels 6 and 7, respectively.

S.8.3 A candidate for the degree must have at least one major subject as a Science subject (see S.2).

S.8.4 Candidates may elect to take not more than one non-Science subject as a major subject (see S.2). In this case the only other non-Science subjects permitted are those that are prerequisites (subjects required prior to registration of a subject) or co-requisites for that major. Registration for a non-Science major subject shall be subject to the rules of the Faculty in which the department which offers the subject is placed. In the case of Music at most 150 NQF credits shall be allowed for courses in Music Theory & Analysis, Music Culture & History, and Instrumental Music Studies.

S.8.5 Students electing to take both major subjects from the list of Science subjects may take non-Science subjects, but are limited to from those offered within a single non-Science department and to at most 60 NQF credits.

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (INFORMATION SYSTEMS)

This degree is intended for students who wish to become computer specialists in a commercial or technical environment, and comprises courses offered by departments in the Faculties of Science and Commerce.

S.9

Except as provided in Rules G.39 to G.41, candidates shall not be awarded the degree of Bachelor of Science (Information Systems) unless they have attended approved courses for at least three years subsequent to their first registration.

S.10

Candidates shall not normally be admitted to the full curriculum for the degree of Bachelor of Science (Information Systems) unless either they have met the minimum admission requirements for Bachelor's degree programmes requiring a National Senior Certificate (NSC), or have a matriculation certificate issued by the Matriculation Board, or have obtained a certificate of exemption therefrom; and have achieved English (Home language or additional language) at a rating of 5 or above, a rating of 5 or above for Physical Science, and at least a rating of 6 in Mathematics on the NSC, or a pass in Mathematics deemed to be the equivalent.

S.11

A limited number of students who do not meet the strict criteria of Rule S.10 may be admitted under the auspices of the Science Extended Studies Programme (see Rules S.39 to S.41).

S.12

S.12.1 A candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Science (Information Systems) must obtain at least 360 NQF credits in courses as set out in the following curriculum:

First and second years

1. Computer Science (CSC 1 and CSC 2)
2. Information Systems (INF 2)

3. Economics (ECO 1) OR Management (MAN 1) but see S.12.3

4. Accounting (ACC 1)

5. Statistics (STA 1S1 or STA 1C2, or MST 102 as a prerequisite for MST 2)

6. Mathematics (MAT 1S1 or MAM 101, or MAM 1 as a prerequisite for MST 2)

7. Electronics Literacy (PHY 1E2)

8. Business problem solving with computers (CSC 112) (must be taken in the first year as it is the prerequisite for Information Systems)

9. Two further semester-courses in Management or Economics or Mathematics or Statistics or Mathematical Statistics or some other Science subject approved by the Dean.

Third year

1. Computer Science 3

2. One of the following; Accounting 3, Applied Mathematics 3, Applied Statistics 3, Economics 3, Information Systems 3, Management 3, Mathematical Statistics 3, Mathematics 3.

S.12.2 Candidates will be advised at registration as to how the first two years of these degrees are to be structured, taking into account timetable constraints and their previous performance or experience in Computer Studies and Mathematics. Normally candidates will be required to register for Computer Science, Accounting, Economics, Management, MAM 101 and CSC 112.

S.12.3 Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Science (Information Systems) who fail CSC 2 in their second year at Rhodes will be required to change registration to a degree in the Faculty of Commerce.

S.12.4. Candidates who wish to move from the degree of Bachelor of Science (Information Systems) to the degree of Bachelor of Science and wish to major in both Computer Science and Information Systems will be permitted an additional 60 NQF credits obtained for Accounting, Management or Economics from their Bachelor of Science (Information Systems) degree.

Rules common to the BSc and BSc(InfSys) degreesS.13

If a candidate for the BSc and BSc(InfSys) degree selects more than the minimum number of courses required for a degree, the additional courses may be in any of the subjects offered in the faculties of Science, Commerce, Humanities and Law.

S.14.1 At the start of the year students will normally register for both components of each semesterised subject, unless they make it clear that they intend on obtaining credit for only one of the semester-courses, or to complete an outstanding component of a semesterised subject.

S.14.2 Students will be allowed to register for semester-courses held in the second semester in subjects for which they have not previously been registered (provided that they have met the prerequisite requirements for such courses). Such registrations will be at the discretion of the Dean, in consultation with the Head of the Department concerned.

S.14.3 Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, the last date for registration and change of course in the Faculty of Science shall be the end of the second full week of the semester in which the course begins.

S.14.4 Candidates who fail to perform adequately in the first semester component of a semesterised subject may have their registrations for the second semester component of that subject cancelled at the discretion of the Head of Department. This decision may sometimes be reversed, on appeal through the Head of Department to the Dean of the Faculty.

S.14.5 Candidates are strongly advised to include at least six second-year level semester-courses in their curricula. If candidates include only four second-year level semester-courses, they will be required to include three first-year level semester courses in order to ensure the correct number of NQF credits for the degree.

S.15.1 In all those subjects offered at a given NQF level as a pair of semester-courses, if both semester-courses are not passed outright, an aggregate of at least 50% in the pair may be deemed equivalent to credit in a year-long aggregate course for that subject, as the Department may allow. See Rule S.16.2.

S.15.2 Students who do not obtain credit for both components, but who meet the requirements for an aggregated course, will have their academic transcripts amended to show that an aggregated continuing course (ACR) or aggregated non-continuing course (NCR) has been achieved in the appropriate subject, as the Department may allow.

S.15.3 Candidates cannot obtain credit for an aggregated course in addition to credit for one of its semesterised components.

S.16.1 Credit for any course normally requires that a student score an overall mark of at least 50%. At the discretion of the Board, non-continuing credit may occasionally be awarded for an overall mark of at least 48%.

S.16.2 Credit for an aggregated course of a semesterised subject requires that a student has met any adequate performance subminima imposed for each constituent.

S.16.3 Subjects for which aggregated credit may be granted are shown in the table that accompanies Rule S.22.

S.16.4 If an aggregated pass is not achieved, credit for any constituent semester-course passed can still be earned towards the degree as a whole.

S.16.5 In the case of first-year first semester subjects, candidates awarded supplementary examinations in terms of Rule S.24.1 who have scored the necessary sub-minimum may be permitted either to write the supplementary examination in August, or to take a chance of obtaining an aggregate pass if the Department feels that their performance in the remaining (November) paper may achieve this.

S.16.6 Aggregated courses will normally only be granted on the basis of marks earned for the first semester course of a subject obtained in June (or for the replacement mark earned during the August supplementary examination for that course) and for the second semester course obtained in November (or at a supplementary examination in the following February) of a single academic year.

S.16.7 Aggregate year-courses may be obtained only for two semester-courses comprising a single subject, with the following exceptions:

Aggregated year course	Comprising of a semester-course in each of
Botany 1	Cell Biology (CEL 101) and Botany (BOT 102)
Geography 1	Earth Science (EAR 101) and Geography (GOG 102)
Geology 1	Earth Science (EAR 101) and Geology (GLG 102)
Zoology 1	Cell Biology (CEL 101) and Zoology (ZOO 102)

Note: Aggregated year-courses may not be earned for both Geography 1 and Geology 1; at most three semester-courses may be earned for EAR 101, GOG 102, GLG 102. Similarly, aggregated year-courses may not be earned for both Botany 1 and Zoology 1; credit for at most three semester-courses may be earned for CEL 101, BOT 102, ZOO 102.

For the purposes of Rule G.7 as it applies to the Faculty of Science, students may be refused permission to renew registration in the Faculty if they are deemed to be unable to profit from further study, or if they have failed:

S.17.1 by the end of their first year of full-time attendance at this university or any other university to have obtained at least 60 NQF credits, which is equivalent to two year-courses or four semester-courses or an equivalent combination thereof; or
S.17.2 at the end of their second year of full-time attendance at this or any other university to have obtained at least 120 NQF credits, which is equivalent to four year-courses or eight semester-courses or an equivalent combination thereof, and are prerequisite courses for at least two NQF level 6 courses; or

S.17.3 at the end of their third year of full-time attendance at this or any other university to have obtained at least 180 NQF credits, which is equivalent to six year-courses or twelve semester-credits or a combination thereof of which at least 60 credits of which should be at least NQF level 6; or

S.17.4 at the end of every calendar year of study to have passed a minimum of half of the courses for which they were registered with the Dean's approval; or

S.17.5 to have completed the undergraduate degree within a period of five years; or

S.17.6 (for students enrolled on the Science Extended Studies Programme) by the end of the first year of study to have passed all courses offered as part of the programme and to have achieved an average of 60% in the Extended Studies Programme courses (CSC 1S, MAT 1F, ISCM 1F) read in order to qualify for entry into mainstream courses in the following year.

S.18

S.18.1 A candidate is not permitted to obtain certain overlapping combinations of subjects. The table below lists, for each of certain subjects and courses, those other courses for which credit will not also be given:

Subject	Credit may not be obtained in more than one of:
Accounting	ACC 1; ACC 1F/ACC 1G
Computer Science	CSC 101; CSC 1L1
Computer Science	CSC 1L1; CSC 112
Computer Science	CSC 1S; CSC 1L1
Statistics	STA 1S1; STA 1C1; STA 1P1
Mathematical Statistics	MST 3; AST 3
Physics	PHY 101; PHY 1E1
Psychology	ORG 2; PSY 2
Psychology	ORG 3; PSY 3
Maths	MAT 1S1; MAM 101

Maths

MAT 1S1; MAT 1F

S.19

Except with the permission of Senate, candidates shall be deemed to be in their first year of study until they have obtained at least 90 NQF credits at the NQF level 5 as specified in Rule S.2 or S.13; they shall be deemed to be in their third year of study when they have obtained at least 150 NQF credits (120 at NQF level 5 and at least 30 at NQF level 6 as to continue with the subject into third year), otherwise they shall be in their second year of study.

S.20.1 Candidates may present themselves for examination in not more than the equivalent of eight semester-courses in the first year of study for a BSc, and in not more than the equivalent of ten semester-courses in the first year of study for a BSc(InfSys); provided that the Senate may permit candidates for a BSc to present themselves for examination in two additional semester-courses approved by the Senate.

S.20.2 Candidates may present themselves for examination in not more than the equivalent of eight semester-courses in their second year of study and not more than the equivalent of six semester-courses in their final year of study; provided that candidates in their final year of study may be permitted by Senate to present themselves at supplementary examinations for which they are eligible under Rule G.37, so as to obtain credit for two additional semester-courses in subjects in which they have previously failed.

S.21.1 Except with the permission of Senate, candidates may not enter the second year of any subject unless they have obtained credit for first-year level courses equivalent to 90 NQF credits, and may not enter the third year of any subject until they have obtained credit for courses equivalent to 150 NQF credits.

S.21.2 Notwithstanding Rule S.22.1, candidates may not register for second year courses in the second semester if they have not previously been registered as second year students in the first semester.

S.22.1 Except with permission of the Senate, candidates may not enter courses in any subject unless they have satisfied all prerequisite conditions imposed for entry into such courses.

S.22.2 There may be prerequisite required course(s) that must be obtained before a candidate may register for a particular course. Similarly, a co-requisite is a required course that must be obtained before a candidate may be awarded the degree.

S.22.3 Permission of the Senate is necessary to attend any course concurrently with a higher-level course for which it is a prerequisite. Permission will not normally be given to attend a required first course concurrently with a final course. Applications in this regard should be made to the Dean of the Faculty at registration.

S.22.4 A candidate who has passed the final course of a major subject, but has failed in a prescribed co-requisite, may rewrite the examination in that course without being required to rewrite the examination in the related major subject.

S.22.5 The accompanying table summarises for each major Science subject and includes those constituent prerequisite(s) and co-requisite(s) courses required for the subject.

S.23.1 Except with permission of the Senate, candidates may not enter courses in any subject unless they have satisfied all prerequisite conditions imposed for entry into such courses, and may not obtain credit for any subjects until they have obtained credit in all prescribed ancillary courses for such subjects.

S.23.2 There may be prerequisite (ancillary) requirements that must be met before a candidate may register for a particular course, and similar requirements that must be met before a candidate may obtain credit for a given course. Credit requirements will usually be stricter than registration requirements, which might stipulate “adequate performance” in an ancillary subject (or even at a lower level in the same subject) rather than “credit”.

S.23.3 Permission of the Senate is necessary to attend any course concurrently with a higher-level course for which it is a prerequisite. Permission will not normally be given to attend a required first course concurrently with a final course. Applications in this regard should be made to the Dean of the Faculty at Registration.

S.23.4 A candidate who has passed the final course of a major subject, but has failed in a prescribed ancillary subject, may rewrite the examination in that ancillary subject without being required to rewrite the examination in the related major subject.

S.23.5 The accompanying tables summarise, for each major subject, those constituent credits and ancillary subjects in which credit must be obtained, and, for specific constituents, the prerequisite credits needed for registration.

The following notes apply to the courses marked with the appropriate superior numbers in the tables below. For further details, candidates should consult the departmental entries elsewhere in the Calendar.

1. Permission may be given to register for this course concurrently with the course for which it is a required ancillary however it is expected that students will attempt the course in their first year.
2. A candidate who has passed Organisational Psychology 2 may take Psychology 3, but only with the permission of the Head of the Department. A candidate who has completed Psychology 2 may not proceed to Organisational Psychology 3, except with the permission of the Head of the Department, in which case additional coursework assignments will normally be set in which a specified level of performance must be achieved. In the event that candidates do not attain the specified level of performance by the end of the first term their registration will revert to Psychology 3.

3. MAT IS1 has replaced MAT 1P which was taught in 2012 and earlier.
4. MAT IS1 and MAT 1F are equivalent single-semester credit courses. The difference is that MAT 1F is taught over two semesters and MAT IS1 over one.

S.24.1 Students who have failed first-year first-semester courses but who have reached the necessary subminima may, on the recommendation of the Head of Department, be admitted to supplementary examinations, normally written in August. Students who have passed first-year first-semester courses, but who wish to try to improve their classification may also be admitted to such examinations.

S.24.2 Only in exceptional circumstances will supplementary examinations be allowed in second- or third-year semester-courses for subjects offered by the Faculty of Science (see S.2).

S.24.3 Notwithstanding S.24.2, a supplementary examination will be permitted for the last semester course outstanding for the degree and for a course taken in the final calendar year of study provided that the student has previously written the examination for the course concerned.

S.24.4 A candidate who sits a supplementary examination for a first-year semester course shall have the higher mark and classification earned in the two examinations recorded for that semester-course, and any computation of an aggregate course mark shall be based on the higher marks earned for the constituent examinations.

The degree certificate of a candidate who passes with a Class 1 ($\geq 75\%$) in the final course of a major subject shall be endorsed with distinction in that subject. For the purpose of this rule, the final mark in a major subject shall, where applicable, be taken as the average mark of the semester-course components.

POSTGRADUATE DEGREES

Degree of Bachelor of Science with Honours

S26

Candidates shall not be admitted to any course for an honours degree unless they have been awarded the ordinary degree, or have been admitted to the status thereof; or have completed all the requirements therefore, except the requirements regarding attendance. Attention is drawn to the provisions of Rule G.49 of the General Rules.

S.27

S.27.1 Candidates shall not be admitted to any course for the honours degree unless they have obtained the permission of the Board of the Faculty on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned. Normally candidates will not be admitted to an honours course unless they have obtained at least a second class pass in the final year of the subject in which they wish to take honours.

S.27.2 The continued registration of honours candidates beyond the first semester may be dependent on a satisfactory review of their progress.

S.28

A candidate who has satisfied the requirements of Rule S.27 by completing an ordinary degree in a faculty other than Science may, with the approval of Senate, be admitted to the status of BSc, and allowed to study for the degree of BSc(Hons).

S.29

S.29.1 A candidate shall attend the University for not less than one academic year after satisfying the requirements of Rule S.26, and pursue a course of advanced study in a subject approved by the Senate.

S.29.3 A non-Science subject (as defined in Rule S.2) may also be offered for the honours degree; except that a candidate for an honours degree in such a subject may be required to obtain permission to transfer registration to the Faculty in which the subject is normally offered, and to proceed to an honours degree in that Faculty, depending on the combination of papers to be offered.

S.30.1 The honours degree normally requires a period of one year's full-time study.

S.30.2 Senate may, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned, permit candidates to take honours courses over two years as full-time or as part-time students; provided that they attend the honours classes (including practicals) within the normal timetable of the Department, and that the honours course is spread over two years, but, except with the special permission of the Senate, no more than two years.

S.30.3 Students who originally register to take the honours degree over two years may, if progress is satisfactory, be allowed to change registration to complete the degree in the first year as full-time students. Full-time students who originally register to take the degree over one year may be advised by the Head of Department to take the degree over two years, or may opt to change registration to part-time. Any such changes must be effected no later than the end of the second week of the second semester.

S.30.4 Full-time candidates may withdraw from an Honours course during the second semester, but may not alter their registrations otherwise. On the recommendation of the Head of Department, candidates who withdraw may be permitted to register for the course in the following year, but will be required to complete all requirements for examination (including practical and project work) as though they had not previously been registered.

S.30.5 Any project work that forms part of the examinable material of an Honours degree must be completed and submitted before the final examinations are written.

A candidate may not take up any full-time employment while engaged in the course. However, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned, with the approval of Senate, part-time employment is permitted.

S.32

An honours candidate may, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned and with the permission of Senate, attend concurrently and write the examination of two undergraduate semester- courses in the same or another department.

S.33

S.33.1 Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, or as provided in Rule S.33.2, the subject of an honours degree shall be one which the candidate has completed as a major subject for the ordinary degree.

S.33.2 Candidates for Honours degrees in some subjects not offered as major subjects in the ordinary degree shall normally have credit in cognate major subjects as provided as follows:

S.34

Candidates may, with the approval of the Senate, present themselves for examination in more than one subject; provided that the Heads of the relevant Departments have agreed upon the contents of the course and the structure of the examination. If more than 60% of the honours degree programme is given in one subject, the degree will be awarded in that subject. If between 40% and 60% of the degree programme is given in each of two subjects, the degree will be awarded as a joint degree in the two subjects.

S.35

Candidates who fail an honours examination paper may be permitted by the Senate to re-present themselves, at most once, for that examination paper, and for this purpose they shall be required to re-attend the course prior to such re-examination.

Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, a candidate must write all parts of the examination at one time, and shall not be exempted from any part of such examination; provided that students who are required to take the degree over two years may, on the recommendation of the Head of

Department, and with the permission of Senate, write part of the examination at the end of the first year of study, and part at the end of the second year of study.

Degrees of Master of Science, Doctor of Philosophy, and Doctor of Science

See General Rules and individual departmental entries.

S.37

The continued registration of MSc and PhD students (and, in particular, past the first year) is conditional on the Dean receiving satisfactory reports on their progress.

S.38

Applications to upgrade from MSc to PhD registration must be made on the official form and must normally be submitted within the first 18 months of registration.

The Science Extended Studies Programme

Special provision is made in the Faculty of Science to accommodate students who would not normally be admitted to the curricula for the degrees of Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Science (Information Systems), or are identified as requiring additional support in certain key subject areas. The Science Extended Studies Programme extends over a year, during which specially designed courses are offered, which earn credit towards a full degree.

S.39.1 Candidates shall not normally be admitted to the Science Extended Studies Programme unless they are in possession of a National Senior Certificate or a matriculation certificate issued by the Matriculation Board, or have obtained a certificate of exemption therefrom.

S.39.2 Candidates are normally expected to have achieved at least a level 4 in Mathematics in the NSC, and to have achieved at least a level 4 in either Biology or Physical Science at the NSC.

S.40

S.40.1 A student admitted to the full Science Extended Studies Programme will register for a first-year curriculum that will earn 60 NQF credits if completed: Computer Skills for Science 1S, Introduction to Science Concepts and Methods, Mathematics 1F.

S.40.2 A student admitted to the Science Extended Studies Programme is required to obtain ISCM 1F, CSC 1S and/or MAT 1F before later being admitted to other full courses.

S.40.3 A student admitted to the Science Extended Studies Programme is expected to obtain at least 360 NQF credits before being awarded a BSc degree.

S.40.4 Attention is drawn to Rule S.17 and Rule S.22.

S.41

A candidate admitted to the Science Extended Studies Programme may be permitted by the Dean to change registration to a regular curriculum during the first two weeks of the academic year.

The following subjects and courses may be studied for degree and higher diploma curricula in the Faculties of Commerce and Science. One, or in some cases two, courses in Accounting are allowed as credits for degree/diploma curricula in the Faculties of Education, Law and Humanities (in Social Science).

BACHELOR'S DEGREE COURSES

Accounting 1 consists of two one-semester courses ACC 101 and ACC 102 or ACC 112. Credit may be obtained in any of the courses separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a two-semester course ACC 1, provided that the courses constituting Accounting 1 are read in the same year and a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each course (see Rule C.12). Credit in ACC 101 and ACC 102 or ACC 1 with ACC 101 and ACC

102 aggregated at the required level is a pre-requisite for admission to ACC 2.

Accounting 1F (ACC 1F) consists of ACC 101 taken over a full year and Accounting 1G (ACC 1G) consists of ACC 102 taken over a full year. Only students who have credit in ACC 1F may register for ACC 1G. Credit in ACC 1F and ACC 1G is equivalent to credit in ACC 1.

ACC 102 has a greater focus in company accounting than ACC 112.

A candidate who fails ACC 101 shall be permitted to proceed to ACC 102 or ACC 112 provided the required sub-minimum in ACC 101 has been obtained. A pass in either ACC 102 or ACC 112 in such circumstances shall NOT relieve the candidate of the need to pass ACC 101 in order to gain credit for the full course unless an aggregated pass is awarded.

First-year courses

Accounting 101 (ACC 101)

First-year, first-semester course (NQF Level 5, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: none

Course description: The accounting cycle; presentation and disclosure of financial statements; adjustments; accounting for receivables and payables; inventories; cash and cash equivalents.

DP requirements: Attend 80% of all lectures; attend 80% of the tutorial sessions; hand in 100% of all assignments; write both formal tests and the examination; obtain a mark of at least 35% in each of the two formal tests.

Assessment: Formal test 1 counts 15%, Formal test 2 counts 15%, tutorial work and mini tests count 10%, and Final Examination counts 60%

Supplementary examination: yes

Accounting 102 (ACC 102)

First-year, second-semester course (NQF Level 5, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: sub-minimum of 35% in ACC 101

Course description: Accounting for non-current assets; partnerships; companies; statements of cash flow.

DP requirements: Attend 80% of all lectures; attend 80% of the tutorial sessions; hand in 100% of all assignments; write both formal tests and the examination; obtain a mark of at least 35% in each of the two formal tests.

Assessment: Formal test 1 counts 15%, Formal test 2 counts 15%, tutorial work and mini tests count 10%, and Final Examination counts 60%.

Supplementary examination: yes

Accounting 112 (ACC 112) (One three-hour paper)

First-year, second-semester course (NQF Level 5, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: sub-minimum of 35% in ACC 101

Course description: Accounting for non-current assets; partnerships; companies; statements of cash flow.

DP requirements: Attend 100% of the tutorial sessions; hand in 100% of all assignments and tutorial exercises; write both formal tests and the examination; obtain a mark of at least 35% in each of the two formal tests.

Assessment: Formal test 1 counts 15%, Formal test 2 counts 15%, tutorial work and mini tests count 10%, and Final Examination counts 60%.

Supplementary examination: yes

Accounting 1F (ACC 1F)

This course consists of ACC101 taken over a full academic year.

Accounting 1G (ACC 1G)

This course consists of ACC102 taken over a full academic year, but may only be taken by students who have passed Accounting 1F.

Second-year courses

Principles of Professional Accountancy (ACC 2PA)

Second-year, full-year course (NQF Level 6, 30 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: ACC 101 and ACC 102 or ACC 1 with ACC 101 and ACC 102 aggregated at the required level

Course description: Fundamental Principles of: Management Accounting, Corporate Finance, Taxation, Governance & Risk Management, and Business Ethics.

DP requirements: Write all tests and the June examination; attend all tutorials and submit all tutorial hand-ins by the due date; attend at least 80% of all lectures; attend all compulsory supplementary instruction and alternative support sessions; complete and submit all compulsory assignments and quizzes by the due date; achieve 35% minimum mark for test 1; achieve 40% minimum mark for each of test 2, test 3 & June examination; achieve 40% minimum overall course mark for the year excluding the November examination; achieve 40% average for each of the other assessment components (calculated on termly average for pre-lecture tasks & assignment hand-ins).

Assessment: November examination counts 40%; June examination counts 15%; Term tests (3 tests @ 5% each) count 15%; Pre-lecture tasks count 6%; Tutorial hand-ins count 6%; Essay – ethics counts 9%; Integrated assignment counts 9%.

Supplementary examination: yes

Accounting 2 (ACC 2)

Second-year, full-year course (NQF Level 6, 30 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: ACC 101 and ACC 102 or ACC 1 with ACC 101 and ACC 102 aggregated at the required level

Course description: Intermediate financial accounting, including individual company financial statements and tax; introduction to management accounting and specialised financial accounting topics.

DP requirements: Write all tests and the June examination; attend all compulsory tutorials; attend at least 80% of all lectures; attend all compulsory supplementary instruction and alternative support sessions; complete and submit all compulsory assignments by the due date; achieve 35% minimum mark for test 1; achieve 40% minimum mark for each of test 2, test 3 & June examination; achieve 40% minimum overall course mark for the year excluding the November examination; achieve 40% minimum overall mark for assignments and quizzes (if any).

Assessment: Class tests count 20%, tutorial tests count 5%, June examination counts 30%, and November examination counts 45%.

Supplementary examination: yes

Third-year courses

Accounting 3 (ACC 3)

Third-year, full-year course (NQF Level 7, 60 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: ACC 2

Course description: Consolidations. Equity accounting. Income Taxes. Foreign exchange. Forward exchange contracts. Leasing. Borrowing costs. Government grants. Presentation of financial statements. Accounting policies, estimates, errors. Provisions and contingencies. Earnings per share. Revenue. Segment information. Events after the reporting period. Financial instruments (excl. derivatives).

DP requirements: Write all tests and the June examination; attend all compulsory tutorials; attend at least 80% of all lectures; attend all compulsory supplementary instruction and alternative support sessions; complete and submit all compulsory assignments and quizzes (if any) by the due date; participate in the integrated assignment; achieve 35% minimum mark for test 1; achieve 40% minimum mark for each of test 2, test 3 and June examination; achieve 40% minimum overall course mark for the year excluding the November examination; achieve 40% minimum overall mark for assignments and quizzes (if any).

Assessment: November examination counts 40%; June examination counts 20%; Term tests (Terms 1, 2 & 4; 7% each) count 21%; Integrated assignment counts 7%; continuous assessment counts 12%.

Supplementary examination: yes

Auditing 3 (AUD 3)

Third-year, full-year course (NQF Level 7, 45 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: ACC 2 and ACC 2PA

Course description: Nature, definition and objective of an audit. The auditor: qualities, qualifications, duties and responsibilities. The South African Institute of Chartered Accountants (SAICA) Code of Professional Conduct. The Companies Act and the Auditing Profession Act. The King Code of Corporate Governance. The audit process. Internal controls. Compliance and substantive auditing of the major business cycles. Completing the audit. Audit reports. Computer auditing.

DP requirements: Write all tests and the June examination; attend all compulsory tutorials; attend at least 80% of all lectures; attend all compulsory supplementary instruction and alternative support sessions; complete and submit all compulsory assignments and quizzes (if any) by the due date; participate in the integrated assignment; achieve 35% minimum mark for test 1; achieve 40% minimum mark for each of test 2, test 3 & June examination; achieve 40% minimum overall course mark for the year excluding the November examination; achieve 40% minimum overall mark for assignments and quizzes (if any).

Assessment: November examination counts 40%; June examination counts 20%; term tests (terms 1, 2 and 4; 7% each) count 21%; integrated assignment counts 7%; continuous assessment counts 12%.

Supplementary examination: yes

Management Accounting and Finance 3 (MAF 3)

Third-year, full-year course (NQF Level 7, 45 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: ACC 2, ACC 2PA, TOF 1 and STA 1D

Course description: Cost terms, concepts and techniques for inventory valuation; tools and techniques for planning, control and performance management including budgeting, standard costing and financial statement analysis, techniques to assist decision-making such as relevant costs and revenues; concepts, terms and techniques used to assist with maximizing value of stakeholders with the three financial management decisions, namely investment decisions, financing decision and dividend decisions.

DP requirements: Write all tests and the June examination; attend all compulsory tutorials; attend at least 80% of all lectures; attend all compulsory supplementary instruction and alternative support sessions; complete and submit all compulsory assignments and quizzes (if any) by the due date; participate in the integrated assignment; achieve 35% minimum mark for test 1; achieve 40% minimum mark for each of test 2, test 3 & June examination; achieve 40% minimum overall course mark for the year excluding the November examination; achieve 40% minimum overall mark for assignments and quizzes (if any).

Assessment: November examination counts 40%; June examination counts 20%; term tests (terms 1, 2, 6% each, and term 4; 8% each) count 20%; Integrated assignment counts 8%; continuous assessment counts 12%.

Supplementary examination: yes

Taxation 3 (TAX 3)

Third-year, full-year course (NQF Level 7, 45 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: ACC 2 and ACC 2PA
Course description: Principles of income tax. Practical application of the Income Tax Act, the Value-Added Tax Act, the Tax Administration Act and other relevant tax Acts to financial and commercial transactions. Preparation of estate duty calculations in deceased estates. Anti-avoidance provisions in tax-related matters.

DP requirements: Write all tests and the June examination; attend all compulsory tutorials; attend at least 80% of all lectures; attend all compulsory supplementary instruction and alternative support sessions; complete and submit all compulsory assignments and quizzes (if any) by the due date; participate in the integrated assignment; achieve 35% minimum mark for test 1; achieve 40% minimum mark for each of test 2, test 3 & June examination; achieve 40% minimum overall course mark for the year excluding the November examination; achieve 40% minimum overall mark for assignments and quizzes (if any).

Assessment: November examination counts 40%; June examination counts 20%; Term tests (Terms 1, 2 & 4; 7% each) count 21%; Integrated assignment counts 7%; continuous assessment counts 12%.

Supplementary examination: yes

POSTGRADUATE STUDIES IN ACCOUNTING

Postgraduate Diploma in Accountancy

Accounting 4

Advanced financial accounting (including advanced group accounting) with specific emphasis on International Financial Reporting Standards published by the International Accounting Standards Board. The Accounting 4 curriculum includes advanced work on all topics covered in Accounting 3.

Auditing 4

The topics included in the first course with more emphasis on analysis and application, together with issues of a topical and important nature.

Management Accounting and Finance 4

Advanced management accounting and financial management with more focus on application, analysis and integration; a closer look at the implications of strategy, risk management and governance on management decision-making, control and finance.

Taxation 4

The law and procedures in South Africa relating to taxation. The Income Tax Act, Value-Added Tax Act, Estate Duty Act, Tax Administration Act and other relevant Acts, court decisions and SARS rulings and Interpretation Notes. The preparation of statements and the calculation of taxes payable. Estate and tax planning.

Accounting Honours course

- Paper 1 Accounting 4
- Paper 2 Management Accounting and Finance 4
- Paper 3 Auditing 4
- Paper 4 Taxation 4
- Paper 5 A research essay on a topic approved by the Head of the Department
- Paper 6 Introduction to Research Methodology and Design.

Postgraduate Diploma in Taxation

The programme comprises modules on advanced aspects of taxation, each module assessed by a written assignment; the Taxation 4 paper (see above); an introductory module on research methodology and design; a research essay on an approved topic.

Master's Degree in Taxation (by coursework and thesis)

The programme comprises a coursework component assessed by written assignments, two coursework examinations and a dissertation of limited scope. The requirement for admission is an Honours degree or the equivalent of a Postgraduate Diploma in Accountancy with a CA(SA) qualification, with a good academic record.

Master's Degree in Financial Accounting, Auditing, Management Accounting & Finance or Taxation

Full thesis, addressing a research question approved by the Head of Department and the Higher Degrees Committee of the Faculty of Commerce.

Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Financial Accounting, Auditing, Management Accounting & Finance or Taxation

Full thesis, addressing a research question approved by the Head of Department and the Higher Degrees Committee of the Faculty of Commerce. Acceptance of the candidate will depend on a good academic record, the acceptance of a topic statement and the availability of expertise in the department to supervise the project.

NB Not all the above courses will be offered in any one year.

Postgraduate Diploma in Accountancy

Normally an average of a minimum of 58% across all 4 subjects, with a sub-minimum of 55% in each of Accounting 3, Auditing 3, Management Accounting and Finance 3 and Taxation 3 with the examinations for all four subjects written in a single examination session in the academic year immediately preceding the year of registration for PDipAcc.

Accounting Honours Course

As for the PDipAcc, with a minimum mark of 60% in each of the four third year subjects.

Postgraduate Diploma in Taxation

Bachelor of Commerce with an undergraduate exit-level credit in Taxation with a minimum of 65%.

Anthropology is a three-year major subject, which may be studied for degree curricula in the faculties of Humanities, Commerce and Science. One or two courses in anthropology are allowed as credits for degree curricula in the Faculty of Law.

Introduction to Anthropology: Anthropology as a Social Science A (ANT 101)

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits).

Entrance requirements: None.

Course description: Students will be introduced to key concepts and fields of anthropology, including socio-cultural, biological, medical and environmental. This is done through engagement with socio-cultural institutions.

DP requirements: 80% attendance of tutorials and submission of 100% of coursework.

Assessment: 40% exam, 60% coursework.

Supplementary examination will be granted if the June examination mark falls between 40-49%.

Sub-minimum for aggregation: 40%.

Introduction to Anthropology: Ethnographic Theory and Application B (ANT 102)

First-year, second-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: Subminimum of 40% for ANT 101.

Course description: Term three will introduce students to a case study which provides a grounding for concepts learnt in semester 1. The final term of the year introduces students to anthropological theories and provides them with an understanding of the development of anthropological thought.

DP requirements: 80% attendance of tutorials and submission of 100% of coursework.

Assessment: 40% June and November exam, 60% coursework

Supplementary examination will be granted if the November examination mark falls between 40-49%.

Sub-minimum for aggregation: 40 %

Anthropology 2 (ANT 2)

Second-year, full year course (NQF level 6, 30 credits).

Entrance requirements: ANT 101, ANT 102 or an aggregation in Ant 1

Course description: During this year the concerns of anthropology are explained in greater analytical and methodological depth, with a focus on specialist ethnographic and thematic topics. The following courses are usually taught but topics offered may vary depending on availability of staff.

- Ethnographic Research Methods
- Anthropological Theories and Approaches
- Evolution and Human Origins
- Medical Anthropology
- Anthropology of Youth and Childhood
- Ecological Anthropology: Oceania

DP requirements: 80% attendance of tutorials and lectures, 100% submissions and 45% subminimum of overall class mark.

Assessment: 40% June and November exam, 60% coursework

Supplementary examination: No supplementary exams will be given at 2nd year level.

Anthropology 3 (ANT 3)

Third-year, full year course (NQF level 7, 60 credits).

Entrance requirements: ANT 101, ANT 102, ANT 2

Course description: During this seminar-focused year, students are introduced to additional ethnographic perspectives. They will pursue the analysis of institutions in greater depth with particular emphasis on changing and contemporary societies as well as the application of anthropology and its career opportunities. The theoretical aspects of the discipline are also underscored more overtly. The following courses are usually taught but topics offered may vary depending on availability of staff.

- Anthropology of Play
- Anthropology in Action
- Music as Communication and Social Practice
- Ways of Knowing
- Ecological Anthropology
- Applied Anthropology
- Post Humanism Theories
- Contemporary Theories of Practice
- Medical Anthropology

Students also complete a mini research project that is carried out concurrently with their course work and contributes 20% to their final end of year mark.

DP requirements: 80% attendance of tutorials and lectures, 100% submissions and 45% subminimum of overall class mark.

Assessment: 60% coursework and research project, 40% June and November examinations.

Supplementary exam: Will be given if coursework mark falls between 45 – 49% and exam mark falls between 40-49%

Sub-minimum for June: 45%

Anthropology Honours

Full-year (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance requirements: Completed degree with ANT 3 or a cognate discipline as a major, with a minimum of second-class pass. Approval of preliminary research concept note.

Course description: The year consists of three course modules and the completion of a research dissertation. The following courses are usually taught but topics offered may vary depending on availability of staff.

- Bio-cultural Diversity and Heritage Studies
- Anthropology of Gender
- Families and Households
- Anthropology of Dreams and Dreaming
- Anthropology of Performance
- Maritime Anthropology
- Decolonising Anthropology
- Wellness and Wellbeing: Transcultural Perspectives
- Medical Anthropology
- Biological Anthropology

A research thesis of about 15 000 words, incorporating original fieldwork on a topic chosen by the candidate and approved by the Departmental Research Committee and the Rhodes University Ethics Committee.

Students must pass two of the three courses and receive a minimum of 55% for their research dissertation.

Joint Honours

Full-year (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance requirements: Completed degree with ANT 3 or a cognate discipline as a major, with a minimum of a second-class pass. Approval of preliminary research proposal.

Course description: Combining Anthropology with another subject is encouraged to foster interdisciplinary interaction across faculties. Requirements from anthropology include completing two course modules and a research thesis, which can be interdisciplinary.

Students must pass both courses completed within Anthropology and receive a minimum of 55% for their research dissertation.

Master's Degree

(NQF level 9, 180 credits)

Entrance requirements: Completed Honours degree in anthropology or a cognate discipline, with a minimum result of 60%. Approval of preliminary research proposal.

Course description: A thesis (for which fieldwork will normally be required) on any approved topic within any anthropological field. Periods of residence for consultation with the supervisor are required over the period of study (usually two years).

Doctoral Degree

(NQF level 10, 360 credits)

Entrance requirements: Completed Honours degree in anthropology or a cognate discipline.

Course description: A thesis (for which fieldwork will normally be required) on any approved topic within any anthropological field. Periods of residence for consultation with the supervisor are required over the period of study (usually three years).

- Research project (47%).

Candidates must obtain an overall aggregate of at least 50% to qualify for the award of the Diploma.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN HERITAGE MANAGEMENT (PDHM)

Fourth year, full-year course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance requirements: Any undergraduate degree. Admission to the course is also possible via the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) option.

Course description: The course introduces the idea of heritage as fundamental to humanity's pastoral care of the past, and intrinsic to the experience of the present. Students obtain an overview of the national and international legislative framework for heritage. Engaging the issues of Africa's position in the global heritage scape, we critically consider national and international dialogues on heritage management offering valuable insights from the local perspectives. Students are encouraged to craft new definitions of heritage and consider innovative approaches to heritage management, so as to respond to the existing and potentially hegemonic definitions of the concept and its dominant approaches. The course content includes both theoretical and experimental learning. Students are required to take up internship placements or workplace reflections at heritage institutions in the second semester or design a digital heritage project in their locality. and to consider innovative approaches to heritage management, so as to respond to the existing and potentially hegemonic definitions of the concept and its dominant approaches.

Assessment: This includes assignments, research report and portfolio of evidence.

- Module 1: Key principles of Heritage and Heritage Management Theory: 2 assignments (20%)
- Module 2: Heritage in Practice: 2 assignments (20%)
- Module 3: Institutional placements (13%) and

See the departmental web page <http://www.ru.ac.za/bm/> for further details, particularly on the contents of courses.

BIOCHEMISTRY

Biochemistry (BCH) is a four-semester subject which may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BCom and BJourn.

To major in Biochemistry, a candidate is required to obtain the following courses: CHE 1; BCH 2; BCH 3: See Rule S.23. In addition, students wishing to major in Biochemistry are encouraged to obtain CEL 101; MIC 202.

Students who aim to major in Biochemistry and progress to postgraduate studies in Bioinformatics are encouraged to register for advanced courses in one or more of Microbiology, Computer Science, Chemistry or Mathematics.

Second-year level courses in Biochemistry

There are two second-year courses in Biochemistry. BCH 201 is held in the first semester and BCH 202 in the second semester. Each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-long course BCH 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum (40%) in each component. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course. Practical reports, essays and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark.

Chemistry 1 (CHE 1) is required before a student may register for BCH 201 or BCH 202. A sub-minimum of 40% in BCH 201 is required before a student may register for BCH 202. In addition, MIC 202 is strongly encouraged for students wishing to major in Biochemistry.

BCH 201

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: CHE 1

Course description: Building Blocks: Aqueous biochemistry & buffers; building blocks in biochemistry; amino acids & proteins; nucleotides DNA & RNA; carbohydrates; lipids & membranes; bioenergetics & metabolism; membrane transporters.

DP requirements: None

Assessment: Class record 50%, Examinations 50%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with BCH 202

BCH 202

Second-year, second-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: CHE 1

Course description: Biochemical Techniques: This course is taught in the context of protein purification and analysis and includes: protein purification strategies; cell disruption and centrifugation; chromatography; spectroscopy; electrophoresis; immunological techniques and protein-protein interactions.

DP requirements: None

Assessment: Class record 50%, Examinations 50%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with BCH 201

Third-year level courses in Biochemistry

There are two third-year courses in Biochemistry. BCH 301 is normally held in the first semester and BCH 302 in the second semester but the department reserves the right to offer them in either semester subject to timetable constraints. Each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-long course BCH 3, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum (40%) in each component. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course. Practical reports, essays and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark.

Biochemistry 2 (BCH 2) is required before a student may register for BCH 301 or BCH 302. In addition, MIC 202 is strongly encouraged for students wishing to major in Biochemistry.

BCH 301

Third-year, first-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: BCH 2

Course description: Biochemistry of Information Flow: The structure of chromosomes and plasmids; DNA replication and repair; transcription and regulation of gene expression; protein synthesis, transport and degradation, and the genetic basis of disease. Medical biochemistry: Signal transduction in the context of hormones and neurotransmission.

DP requirements: None

Assessment: Class record 50%, Examinations 50%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with BCH 302

BCH 302

Third-year, second-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: BCH 2

Course description: Enzyme Kinetics and Mechanisms: Enzyme mechanisms; advanced enzyme kinetics; advanced theory and application of computational methods and tools for the visualisation and modeling of enzymes. Protein trafficking and organelle formation: The formation of eukaryotic cell organelles and their protein compositions.

Biochemistry Honours

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Course description: The course consists of course- work modules and lectures on selected advanced topics such as drug discovery, cell culturing and fluorescence techniques, research methods, advanced enzymology, applied enzymology & immobilised enzymes; a literature review, essays and a research project.

DP requirements:

Assessment: This course is assessed through written tests, continual assessment of a research project, and examinations.

Supplementary exam: None

MICROBIOLOGY

Microbiology (MIC) is a four-semester subject which may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BCom and BJourn.

To major in Microbiology, a candidate is required to obtain the following courses: CHE 1; CEL 101 (or an aggregate pass in ZOO 1 or BOT 1); MIC 2; MIC 3. See Rule S.23. In addition, students wishing to major in Microbiology are strongly encouraged to obtain BCH 201.

Students who aim to major in Microbiology and progress to postgraduate studies in computational biology or genomics are encouraged to register for advanced courses in one or more of Biochemistry, Computer Science, Chemistry or Mathematics.

Second-year level courses in Microbiology

There are two second-year courses in Microbiology. MIC 201 is held in the first semester and MIC 202 in the second semester. Each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-long course, MIC 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum (40%) in each component. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course. Practical reports, tutorials and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark.

Chemistry 1 (CHE 1) and Cell Biology (CEL 101) (or aggregated passes in either Botany (BOT 1) or Zoology (ZOO 1) are required before a student may register for MIC 201. A sub-minimum of 40% in MIC 201 is required for registration in MIC 202. In addition, BCH 201 is strongly recommended for students wishing to major in Microbiology.

The courses comprise of the following modules, not necessarily in the given position, with each module lasting about three weeks.

MIC 201 (Microbes and their environment)

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: CHE 1, CEL 101 or ZOO 1 or BOT 1

Course description: Introductory microbiology, bacteriology, mycology, virology, microbial pathogenicity and epidemiology, nutrient cycling and metabolism.

The course includes practical experience in the isolation and culture of microbes and a field trip.

DP requirements: None

Assessment: Class record 33%, Theory and Practical Examinations 67%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with MIC 202

MIC 202 (Molecular Biology and Genetics)

Second-year, second-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% MIC 201

Course description: Introductory molecular biology, bacterial genetics, prokaryote gene regulation, recombinant DNA technology. The course will include a practical introduction to basic molecular techniques such as DNA isolation and characterisation, bacterial transformation, gene regulation, and recombinant DNA technology.

DP requirements: None

Assessment: Class record 33%, Theory and Practical Examinations 67%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with MIC 201

Third-year level courses in Microbiology

There are two third-year courses in Microbiology. MIC 301 is held in the first semester and MIC 302 in the second semester. Each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-long course MIC 3, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum (40%) in each component. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course. Practical reports, tutorials and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark.

Microbiology 2 (MIC 2) is required before a student may register for MIC 301 or MIC 302. A sub-minimum of 40% in the first semester is required before a student may register for the second semester. In addition, BCH 201 is strongly recommended for students wishing to major in Microbiology. The courses comprise of the following modules, not necessarily in the given position, with each module lasting about three weeks:

MIC 301 (Eukaryotic Cell Biology and Immunology, Host-pathogen interactions and Advanced Virology)

Third-year, first-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: MIC 2

Course description: Eukaryotic cell biology and concepts in immunology, host-pathogen interactions, biology of selected human and animal viruses. The practical component of this course focuses on recombinant DNA techniques and genetic manipulation of bacteria.

DP requirements: None

Assessment: Class record 33%, Theory and Practical Examinations 67%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with MIC 302

MIC 302 (Applied Microbiology)

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% MIC 301

Course description: Exploiting microorganisms for industrial and commercial purposes. Topics covered include industrial microbiology, microbial ecology, stem cell biology, vaccine design and development and agricultural microbiology. The course includes practical experience in fermentation techniques, bioreactor design and the characterisation of bacteria. A field trip to local industries is included. DP requirements: None

Assessment: Class record 33%, Theory and Practical Examinations 67%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with MIC 301

Microbiology Honours

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Course description: The course consists of modules on scientific writing, mammalian cell culture techniques and microscopy, plant soil microbe interactions and cellular microbiology. The course is assessed through essays, tutorials, journal clubs and seminars with written tests. Each candidate is required to submit a report on practical work done on a specific project in the areas of molecular virology, cell biology, mycology, pathogenic microbes or marine biotechnology during the course, and this together with all assessment marks will be considered part of the final examination.

DP requirements:

Assessment: This course is assessed through coursework, oral examinations and comprehension examinations

Supplementary exam: None

BIOINFORMATICS

MSc in Bioinformatics

(NQF level 9, 180 credits)

General background

Bioinformatics and computational molecular biology is the systematic development and application of information technologies and data mining techniques for analysing biological data obtained by experiments, modelling, database searching and instrumentation to make novel observations and predictions about biological function. This course will be taught in an interdisciplinary manner and focusing on the interface between the computational sciences and the biological, physical and chemical sciences. Graduates who complete this course will be skilled in the assimilation of biological information through the use and development of computational tools for a range of applications including simple pattern recognition, molecular modelling for the prediction of structure and function, gene discovery and drug target discovery, the analysis of phylogenetic relationships, whole genome analysis and the comparison of genetic organisation.

Eligibility

Candidates who hold a BSc Honours degree with subjects from the life sciences (especially Biochemistry, Genetics and Microbiology), Chemistry, Computer Science, Mathematics, Physics and Statistics and who have basic computer literacy, may apply for admission.

Course structure:

The Master's programme will be offered over 12 months and incorporates a number of course work modules and a research project. The course work modules will involve an integration of formal lectures, self-learning computer-based tutorials and practicals. In addition, problem solving tutorials would be designed to guide the student through current information-based problems and involve the assimilation and reduction of biological information. A number of the tutorials and practical components will be assessed and contribute towards a course work year mark. The examination of the course work component would be through oral and open-book theory examinations. The course work component will be externally examined.

A number of research projects will be offered, depending on the interests of the academic staff associated with the program.

The projects will be assessed by seminar presentations of the proposed and final work, and as a written thesis that will be externally examined.

Course work modules

The course work consists of modules and lectures on introductory and advanced topics including computer operating systems and programming (e.g. Linux, Python and MatLab), basic statistics, databases, basic and advanced genomics, comparative genomics, metagenomics and structural bioinformatics (e.g. homology modelling, protein-ligand, protein-protein interactions, protein engineering).

Assessment

The course work modules will be assessed by internal grading of tutorials and practicals, and by internal and external grading of work assignments, mini- projects and examinations. The project report and thesis will be graded internally and externally. The overall course work mark and the thesis mark will each contribute equally to the final mark. Successful completion of the course will be subject to a final mark of at least 50%, provided that a candidate obtains at least 50% for the course work, with a sub- minimum of at least 40% from each module (with at least 40% in the examination) and at least 50% for the project report, project presentations and thesis.

MASTER'S AND DOCTORAL DEGREES

Suitably qualified students are encouraged to proceed to the research degrees of MSc (NQF level 9, 180 credits) and PhD (NQF level 10, 360 credits) under the direction of the staff of the Department. Requirements for the MSc and PhD degrees are given in the General Rules.

BIOTECHNOLOGY HONOURS

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)
Entrance Requirements: MIC 3, BCH 3 or equivalent

Course description: This course is offered as a professional qualification for students interested in careers in the biotechnology sector. Biotechnology is a multi-disciplinary field of study at the intersection of the biological, chemical and physical sciences. As a prerequisite, candidates normally have either Microbiology or Biochemistry (or equivalent subjects) as one of their major BSc subjects. The course consists of lectures, seminars and essays covering a series of topics in Biotechnology such as alternative energy, wastewater treatment, biosensor technology, stem cells, tissue and protein engineering, industrial bioprocess design and strategy and advanced topics in environmental biotechnology and management. The course also includes enrichment modules and seminars in bio-entrepreneurship, intellectual property management, biotechnology communication and current trend analysis. The coursework is followed by a research project of original investigation conducted in one of the research laboratories of the supervisor.

DP requirements: Completion of all assessments & participation in enrichment modules.

Assessment: Class record 33.3%, Project 33.3%, Examinations 33.3%

Supplementary exam: None

BIOTECHNOLOGY MASTERS AND PHD

Degrees in Biotechnology at the Masters and Doctoral level are offered by research to suitably qualified graduates. MSc (NQF level 9, 180 credits) and PhD (NQF level 10, 360 credits) students conduct research under the supervision of one of the staff or in collaboration with affiliates in other departments at Rhodes as well as affiliates in the public and private research and industrial sector. Academic programmes including research seminars, conference presentations and advisory committees (constituted for masters and doctoral candidates) further support research activities. All postgraduates are offered voluntary short courses to enrich their learning and enhance their preparedness for the job market in areas including business plan development and biotechnology communication and public engagement. Finally, the Biotechnology Innovation Centre provides the innovation space for graduates interested in the future technology transfer and commercialisation of their postgraduate research.

Requirements for the MSc and PhD degrees are given in the General Rules.

Botany (BOT) is a six-semester subject that may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BA and BJourn. Botany is a recommended co-major with Environmental Science (ENV 3), Entomology (ENT 3), Ichthyology (ICH 3), Microbiology (MIC 3) or Zoology (ZOO 3). Full details are given in a separate entry.

To major in Botany, a candidate is required to obtain the following courses: CHE 1, CEL 101, BOT 102, ZOO 102, BOT 201, BOT 202, BOT 301, BOT 302. See Rule S.23.

Two, or in some cases four, Botany semester courses are allowed for other degree/ diploma curricula in the Faculties of Humanities and Education.

For further details see the Departmental Web Page <http://www.ru.ac.za/botany/>, particularly on the contents of courses.

FIRST-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN BOTANY

There are two first-year semester-long courses in Botany. CEL 101 is held in the first semester and BOT 102 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-long course BOT 1, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum (45%) in each component. Both theory and practical examinations are held. Supplementary examinations may be awarded in either course, provided that a candidate achieves 35% for CEL 101 and 45% for BOT 102. Practical reports, essays and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark. Adequate performance for CEL 101 (at least 35%) is required before a student may register for BOT 102. Each course is comprised of modules of two to four weeks, with 5 lectures and 1 practical per week.

CEL 101: Cell Biology

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits) jointly taught by the Departments of Botany and Zoology & Entomology

Entrance requirements: None

Course description: This course compares cell structure in prokaryotic and eukaryotic cells and examines cellular processes including cell to cell communication, photosynthesis and cell respiration. Cell division and fundamental genetics, including the structure of genetic material and how it controls cellular processes, are also covered.

DP requirements: Attend at least 90% of practicals; hand in all assignments; obtain at least 40% for the class record and write all tests and essays Assessment: Class record 30%, Theory examination 40%, Practical examination 30%

Supplementary exam: 35%

Subminimum for June: 45% to aggregate with BOT 102 or ZOO 102

BOT 102: Plant Evolution and Ecology

First-year, second-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: 35% for CEL 101

Course description: This course examines the mechanisms of evolution through natural selection and the resultant plant diversity. Whole plant function and adaptations are then used to introduce plant ecology, which deals with the characteristics and processes found at different levels of organisation from the individual to ecosystems. Ecological concepts are illustrated with their applications in conservation and environmental management. A compulsory field excursion to the coast provides an introduction to field ecology.

DP requirements: Attend all practicals, lectures, tests and the field excursion. Hand in all assignments. 40% for the class record.

Assessment: Class record 30%, Theory examination 40%, Practical examination 30%

Supplementary exam: 45%

Subminimum for November: 45% to aggregate with CEL 101

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN BOTANY

There are two semester-long second-year courses in Botany. BOT 201 is normally held in the first semester and BOT 202 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-long course BOT 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required subminimum of 45% in each semester. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course. When the intention is to major in Botany, Botany (CEL 101, BOT 102), Zoology (ZOO 102) and Chemistry (CHE 1) is required before a student may register for BOT 201 or BOT 202. Permission may be granted to repeat CHE 1 or ZOO 102 concurrently with BOT 2 or BOT 3. Adequate performance (at least 40%) in the first semester is required before a student may register for the second semester. These courses each comprise several modules and weekly practicals. Students registered for BOT 201 will also be required to assemble a plant collection, and students will participate in field trips in BOT 201 and BOT 202.

BOT 201

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: BOT 1 Co-requisites: CHE 1, ZOO 102

Course description: The course begins with a module on the diversity of Angiosperms focusing on the diversity of plant structures and life forms of the spectacularly diverse South African flora. This module also introduces the basic principles of modern taxonomy and systematics. The second half of the course deals with plant reproduction and introduces some of the many modes of reproduction in Angiosperms before focusing on the interaction between plants and their pollinators. Practical and field trips train students in key skills important for botanists, ecologists and environmental scientists, such as collecting and identifying plants, using the herbarium, and collecting and analysing ecological data.

DP requirements: Attend all practicals, lectures, tests and field trips. Hand in all assignments and plant collection. 40% for the class record.

Assessment: Class record 60%, Examination 40%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 45% for aggregation with BOT 202

BOT 202

Second-year, second-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% for BOT 201

Co-requisites: CHE 1, ZOO 102

Course description: The course starts with a module on carbon and nitrogen metabolism in plants, which examines pathways of energy production and utilisation and the regulation of metabolism. This is followed by a module on disturbance-driven ecosystems, which covers aspects of trophic ecology, plant-herbivore interactions, plant adaptations to fire and herbivory, rangeland-ecology. The final module deals with invasion biology, which explores the nature, extent, impact and management of biological invasions. A joint ecology field trip with other life science departments introduces hypothesis testing, research design, data collection and analysis.

DP requirements: Attend all practicals, lectures, tests and field trips. Hand in all assignments. 40% for the class record.

Assessment: Class record 60%, Examination 40%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November: 45% for aggregation with BOT 201

THIRD-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN BOTANY

There are two independent semester-long third-year courses in Botany. BOT 301 is normally held in the first semester and BOT 302 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-long course BOT 3, provided that a candidate obtains the required subminimum in each semester. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course. Students are also required to undertake a year-long mini-research project, culminating in a written project and research seminar.

BOT 301

Third-year, first-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: BOT 2

Course description: The course commences with an intensive two-week session on project development to enable students to commence their research projects with a firm foundation of research planning, project design and data analyses. A module on functional ecology in a changing world covers plant life histories, functional traits and the responses of vegetation to global change. A module on climate change and ecophysiology includes aspects of plant physiology and the environment where these plants grow, in particular the physiological consequences of stress. Both modules are linked to climate change issues and highlight how an understanding of southern African ecological systems has contributed to these fields globally.

DP requirements: Attend all practicals, lectures, tests and field trips. Hand in all assignments including project components. 40% for the class record.

Assessment: Class record 40%, Project 20%, Examination 40%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November: 45% for aggregation with BOT 302

BOT 302

Third-year, second-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: 45% BOT 301

Course description: This course comprises three modules. A module on applied community ecology examines plant-soil-environment interactions, with specific focus on how competition shapes plant communities. A second module on plant speciation covers various topics along the speciation continuum. The module starts with divergent selection and local adaptation that initiates speciation, and ends with reinforcement and the evolution of reproductive isolation that completes speciation. Finally, the course concludes with a module focusing on the idea of relentless evolution working constantly on every generation in a population. DP requirements: Attend all practicals, lectures, tests and field trips. Hand in all assignments including project components. 40% for the class record.

Assessment: Class record 40%, Project 20%, Examination 40%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November: 45% for aggregation with BOT 302

BOTANY HONOURS

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Course description: The Botany Honours degree focuses on plant ecology and evolution in the context of global change. Plants form the basis for all life on earth, but the conditions for plant growth are rapidly changing due to climate change, elevated atmospheric CO₂ concentrations, biological invasions and land transformation. The last decades have seen widespread vegetation change, including woody encroachment of savannas and ecosystem shifts caused by invasive species. Climate change and increased atmospheric CO₂ also alter plant-animal interactions and their outcomes, including plant-pollinator relationships and the susceptibility of invasive plants to biological control. The course includes a field trip, seminars, tutorials and a research project, and is intended to provide the student with the opportunity for in-depth study in particular aspects of the subject. Botany Honours may serve as relevant training for subsequent employment or as a step between an undergraduate degree and a research degree. Modules include: functional ecology, savanna ecology, pollination biology, invasion biology, climate change and stress physiology.

DP requirements:

Assessment: Class record 40%, Project 35%, June Examination 10%, November Examination 15%

Supplementary exam: None

JOINT HONOURS

Joint Honours courses may be followed subject to approval by both departments, where topics from the Botany Honours course may be taken in combination with courses in some other Departments (for example, Geography, Entomology, Environmental Science, Ichthyology or Zoology).

MSC AND PHD DEGREES

Suitably qualified students are encouraged to proceed to the research degrees of MSc (NQF level 9, 180 credits) and PhD (NQF level 10, 360 credits) under the direction of the staff of the Department or associated Institutes. Requirements for the MSc and PhD degrees are given in the General Rules.

Besides the staff of the Business School presenting the various MBA and Post-Graduate Diploma modules, associate faculty are appointed mostly from other departments of Rhodes University and adjunct faculty from outside of the university with relevant academic and/or industry experience.

ADVANCED DIPLOMA IN BUSINESS ANALYSIS

The purpose of the Diploma is to provide a qualification for Business Analysis professionals that will enable them to develop a comprehensive understanding of the purpose, role, methods, and techniques to be applied in effective business analysis, business process modelling, business process engineering, management consulting, and either software testing or project management for sustainable business performance. This will enable understanding and identifying what, when, who, where, which and how business processes and methods can be changed to operate more economically, efficiently, effectively and sustainably; communicating and consulting with subject matter experts and key managers so as to analyse, model, and document the change requirements and support the communication and delivery of those requirements.

The AdvDip(Business Analysis) is a one year programme, comprising three modules of 40 credits (two core modules and one elective), which is delivered either contact or distance learning modes.

Modules constituting the AdvDip(Business Analysis) course and their respective aims are:

Module 1: Sustainable Business Analysis (Core): Business Analysis Process, Modelling, Analysing and Applying as well as Sustainability.

Module 2: Management Consulting (Core): The Consulting Process, Strategy and Business Consulting, Business Analysis Consulting and Skills as well as Consulting Ethics.

Module 3: Software Testing (Elective): Fundamentals and Concepts of Testing; Testing Techniques and Tool Automation, Strategic Test Management as well as Application and Tool Automation.

Module 4: Project Management (Elective): Fundamentals and Concepts of Project

Management; Project Selection and Strategy; Project Planning, as well as Integrating Processes.

Candidates are required to do both core modules and one elective module.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN ENTERPRISE MANAGEMENT

The target candidates are graduate students seeking a qualification to equip them to start their own business and/or to enhance their entry into employment in business. The Diploma is offered on a one-year full-time basis or an intensive one-year part-time basis. The part-time programme is offered to graduates who are currently employed in a full-time capacity but realise the value of in-depth management education to enhance their career prospects.

Course Structure:

The Diploma comprises seven modules (both on the full-time and the part-time basis) and a project. For the full-time option, the students take part in a group based Alpha Project. Students will be required to start and run a micro- enterprise that spans the duration of the course and in so doing will learn about entrepreneurship, through entrepreneurship and for entrepreneurship.

For the part-time option, the students take part in a group focused Case Based Learning Project. Students will be required to analyse a business case and document an integrated review and response to the challenges and opportunities raised and in so doing will learn about solving contemporary business issues in a holistic fashion.

Full-time option: this course runs within the normal Rhodes University academic calendar with daily lectures through the university term calendar and exams during the university exam timetable.

Part-time option

This course normally runs over 3 or 4 one-week teaching blocks through the year. Teaching blocks normally take place during the following months, for example, Block 1 – January/February, Block 2 – May, Block 3 – August and Block 4 – spread evenly through the year in one-week slots. Teaching blocks 1-3 take place in attendance at Rhodes University. Normal class times are from 8am to 6pm. Teaching block 4 is a virtual classroom type where students are expected to link into the classroom from their own location via the Internet. Examinations and /or tests are written during the teaching blocks.

To qualify for the Diploma, candidates must attain at least 50% for the Project, 50% or more for at least six of the remaining seven modules listed below and an overall aggregate of at least 50%. In addition, a sub-minimum requirement of 45% applies to each module. In the case of a candidate passing six modules and attaining an overall aggregate of 50% or more but failing to attain the subminimum in one module, he or she shall be awarded a supplementary examination for that module.

For the full-time course only

It is possible*, however, subject to a maximum of three modules, for a candidate to be exempted from writing the examination for a module, with a credit being awarded for the module, if the candidate obtains at least 70% for all individual assignments and for all tests for the paper, with two internal moderators concurring regarding the marks awarded for both forms of assessment and a review of the written work by the external examiner.

* in the same way that a last outstanding credit would normally be treated.

Modules constituting the one-year full-time PGDip (Enterprise Management) course are:

- Strategic Marketing
- Financial Management
- People Management
- Supply Chain and Project Management
- Entrepreneurial Law
- Computerised Accounting for Small Business
- Entrepreneurship

Modules constituting the one-year part-time PGDip (Enterprise Management) course are selected from (7 in total):

- Strategic Marketing
- Financial Management

- People Management
- Sustainable Business Modelling
- Strategic Operations Management
- Leadership for Sustainability
- Business Development and Consulting
- Intrapreneurship
- Sustainable Economics

The Project and module descriptions are:

- Alpha Project (Full-time option)
This is a group project, which requires that students run a micro-business for the duration of the academic year. The Alpha project is evaluated via a series of written reports, comprising a business plan, evidence of establishing the micro-business (e.g. minutes of meetings, social media campaigns, website) and a reflective report with a portfolio of evidence. The project includes these support modules BizzSupport incorporates a focus on community led businesses /enterprises/cooperatives with social impact to offer business support services c and document case studies from these entities.
Lean Bootcamp for StartUps : Design Thinking using business model canvas for Lean Startup , Value Proposition, Customer Discovery, Empathy map, systems mindwash focusing on adopt and deliver the product (value proposition) given its unique identity and context using the HMW (How might we...?) statement. Design and develop a minimum viable product (MVP) then test the prototype for market validation.
- Case Based Learning Project (part-time option)
This is a group project, which entails analysing a business case and providing an integrated review and response to the challenges and opportunities raised. The Case Based Learning project is evaluated via a group prepared 8 000-word report and online virtual presentation in addition to an individual self-reflection report.

Modules: (all modules are normally assessed via assignments and/or class tests, and three-hour examinations, or in-class tasks under examination-type conditions)

- Business Development and Consulting: Focuses on the important role that consultants play in developing new business opportunities. There are three components to this module, run at three different intervals. This first investigates the role of the business consultant and the consulting frameworks that support successful consulting engagements. The second investigates the role played and the importance of knowledge management within the developing organisation. The third examines communication theory and the critical role played by effective, ethical communicators within a business, both from a consulting as well as a general perspective. Assignments for each component are applied and unique to each students' business environment.
- Computerised accounting of small businesses (One two-hour practical paper): Provides aspirant entrepreneurs with basic accounting principles, development of appropriate accounting systems for a small business, and preparing post the cash book for bank reconciliation. The course uses software to help students to design and use the Debtors and Creditors system, design and use the Inventory system and teach on how to extract information, such as reports and financial statements, to analyse small business's performance. A touch on the basics of tax in a small business, thus enabled to keep accurate records of financial transactions and manage assets and liabilities on a sound basis
- Entrepreneurial Law: forms of business ownership, dispute resolution, business structures, law of contract, labour law, special contracts, copyright, trademarks and insolvency.
- Entrepreneurship: Focus on fundamentals for new product and services development to sustain a company's long-term competitive advantage targeting StartUp and Small enterprise. Capitalising on R & D units, and a small business who take risks and embrace technology and innovative approaches. This explores how these complex activities must be integrated using a procedural framework that acknowledges barriers and other obstacles whilst incorporating contributions made by networks, resources, technologies in developing products within a company.

- Financial Management: Focus on aspects specific to entrepreneurs and intrapreneurs, inter alia, alternative sources of capital, bootstrapping, financial contracting issues, insurance, private equity, taxation, valuing a business and key decision making concepts and tools including ratio analysis, break even analysis, budgets and working capital management.
- Intrapreneurship: Focus on firm's growth using new products and new markets to sustain a company's long-term competitive advantage targeting medium to large firms capitalising on innovation. Harnessing of R & D special projects, to embrace technology and innovative ways to explore complex activities to help firm rejuvenation and growth strategies.
- People Management: Focus from the perspective of the manager of an SME, manage organisational behaviour, exercise leadership, carry out various human resource functions and comply with the South African labour relations framework and supporting legislation.
- Strategic Marketing: Focus is on the place a marketing plan has within the overall business plan of an organisation. It examines the marketing strategies most appropriate under a range of different market and product life-cycle circumstances. The approach offers a template for developing a case study-based marketing plan that meets the needs of the firm's aims and objectives within the context of a product and market for any aspiring entrepreneur.
- Strategic Operations Management: process types and process flows in manufacturing, performance measurement, benchmarking and re-engineering, production planning, quality management, lean thinking and world class manufacturing, sustainable supply chain management and procurement, risk assessment, life-cycle analysis and systems.
- Supply Chain and Project Management: introduction to supply chain management, supply strategies, organisation of the supply chain, managing inventories, quality management, total cost of ownership, integrated logistics management, distribution management and managing the global supply chain. Introduction to project management, project lifecycle phases, stakeholders' communication, cost, quality, time management, risk management, tools and techniques. Focus is on special Projects for StartUps/SME/ Co-ops. Having requisite technology, internationalisation and integrates Project Management, Information systems, Agile projects, technology application with a view to developing a global entrepreneurial mindset and intercultural exchange.
- Leadership for Sustainability: Focus is on considering the changes to the organizational "playing field" resulting from increased awareness and demands for sound corporate governance and social and environmental accountability and how an understanding of these changes can assist in leveraging competitive advantage. Key themes that will be introduced are concepts of sustainable development within the South African, regional and international contexts, governance and corporate social responsibility, plus local and international drivers and considerations for business organisations.
- Sustainable Business Modelling: Focus is on developing an in-depth understanding of the value creation process of a business as an integrated model.
- Sustainable Economics: Focus is on presenting an insight into the theoretical and applied Economics concepts required to engage successfully as a manager or business leader in a sustainable economy. The module relies on two principal theoretical frameworks, namely Resource-Based Theory and Bourdieu's Theory on Capital. Key topics covered include scarcity, supply and demand, elasticity, competition and the regulation of markets, externality, poverty and inequality, the macroeconomic perspective, economic growth, inflation, money and banking, and the government's role. Also explores environmental economics.

The School reserves the right to teach the papers in any order.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN BUSINESS ANALYSIS

The purpose of the Diploma is to provide a qualification for Business Analysis professionals that will enable them to strategically, operationally and critically address relevant methods, processes, systems and techniques that should be applied to achieve sustainable business performance. In so doing, the number and quality of working Business Analysts in Africa who are able to effectively communicate and apply their understanding of the theory, principles, purpose, role, methods and techniques of business analysis, business modelling and business process improvement to achieve sustainable business performance will be achieved.

The PGDip(Business Analysis) is a one year, full-time or one and a half year, part-time modular programme, comprising four modules, where students are required to attend four teaching blocks. Between teaching blocks, students are required to complete practical assignments. A practical 24 hour examination is undertaken at the commencement of the 4th teaching block, covering all four modules. A Project, with supporting Portfolio of Evidence (POE), is to be submitted by the end of the second semester for full-time students or at the end of the first semester of the second year for part-time students.

Modules constituting the PGDip(Business Analysis) course and their respective aims are:

- Module 1: Sustainable Business Models: Provide a strategic context to Business Analysis and develop capability to effectively engage with the entity's stakeholders to design and implement sustainable business models, processes and systems.

- Module 2: Business Process Modelling: Undertake critical evaluation of business process methodologies and tools and develop capability in utilising them to achieve sustainable business performance.
- Module 3: Business Process Analysis: Undertake critical evaluation of business process improvement approaches and develop capability to deploy and harness them to achieve sustainable business performance.
 - Module 4: Communicating and Consulting: Undertake critical evaluation of all the soft skills requirements, aptitude, and characteristics to be an effective Business Analyst.

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The Rhodes MBA is a course-work degree comprising 18 courses (made up of core courses and electives) and either a research mini-thesis or a teaching case mini-thesis of 15 000 words. The degree is offered on a part-time, modular basis over two years or on a full-time, modular basis over one and a half years. If part-time, candidates are required to attend three two-week teaching blocks in Grahamstown each year of the first two years and to complete work-based assignments in the periods between the teaching blocks. If full-time, the coursework is completed in six two-week teaching blocks in the first year. The final six months in both cases, is dedicated to the completion of the research or teaching case mini-thesis.

Normally candidates will only be admitted to the programme if they hold at least a NQF level 8 qualification (i.e. An Honour's Degree or Post Graduate Diploma) in any discipline, are fluent in English, and have had at least three years relevant practical experience. All applicants are required to sit the NMAT by GMAC™ Admission Test, or GMAT if the NMAT is not available in their country of residence. Furthermore, those applicants for whom English is a foreign language are required to sit an appropriate English language test.

Curriculum

Our MBA is offered with a focus on sustainability and leadership concepts and contexts infused within a range of management courses. The order of modules, following the part-time option, are as follows:

First Year:

1. Academic Skills
2. Economics
3. Principles of Sustainability
4. Quantitative Decision-Making
5. Research Methods
6. Strategic Operations Management
7. Financial Management
8. Strategic Marketing
9. People Management

Second Year:

10. Responsible Leadership
11. People Management
12. Management Accounting
13. Strategic Management
14. Ethical Organisation and Governance

Elective courses: (choose five, one in first year and four in second year)

15. Business Development Consulting
16. Climate change and organisations
17. Sustainable Entrepreneurship
18. Environmental Economics
19. Integrated Coastal Management
20. Knowledge Management
21. Project Management
22. Sustainable Business Modelling
23. Sustainable Fisheries
24. Sustainability Law

[Note: The school has discretion as to which electives are on offer and in what order they are taught].

OR

25. International Option (In lieu of one teaching block).
 26. Dissertation
 27. Financial and Quantitative Skills
- [Note: Only for candidates who do not have requisite accounting knowledge. This is taught after Block 1].

Sustainable Ocean Resources (SOR)

Those candidates who have a specific interest in sustainable ocean resources management, namely professionals in coastal, terrestrial and ocean resources, fisheries, aquaculture/mariculture practices, within an entrepreneurial and/or management context, are required to register for the sustainability themed electives. This option arises due to our partnership with Rhodes University's Department of Ichthyology and Fisheries Science (DIFS) a leading African academic institution supporting the sustainable utilisation and study of fish and fisheries. This partnership was established out of a need to contribute to the sustainability of the blue economy. Offering of this is subject to sufficient candidates being registered.

Course descriptions (alphabetical)

- Academic Skills: academic knowledge, academic writing, academic assessment, writing skills. (NQF9: four (4) credits, one assignment).
- Business Development and Consulting: consulting to the business in a way that adds value by presenting innovative ideas and projects that can help the organisation be sustainable. (NQF8: five (5) credits, one assignment).
- Climate change and organisations: impact, risk and opportunities of climate change on business, as it relates to the international and South African policy developments and best practices. (NQF9: six (6) credits, one assignment).
- Dissertation: A research mini-thesis OR a teaching case mini-thesis of 15 000 words on a research or teaching case topic of the candidate's choice but aligned with some aspect of resource-based theory and/or stakeholder theory and subject to suitable supervisory support. (NQF9: sixty (60) credits).
- Economics: macro and microeconomics. Factors and policy that influence the firm and decision-making, monetary policy, nature and trends of the South African economy and challenges confronting it, indicators of economic activity. Managerial economics and its application to problem solving and decision-making, pricing, costs & profits, pricing for greater profits, decision-making in uncertainty, organizational design and firm decision-making (NQF8: ten (10) credits, one assignment, one examination).

- Environmental Economics: the economy-environment interaction, techniques for the valuation of ecological goods and services, environmental policy intervention, environmental economic impact analysis. (NQF8: five (5) credits, one assignment).
- Ethical Organisation and Governance: business ethics, corporate citizenship, corporate social investment, corporate governance. (NQF9: six credits, one assignment).
- Financial and Quantitative Skills: this course is only required for those candidates who have not had any formal accounting qualification or prior accounting work experience. This course is also recommended for candidates wanting to review accounting principles (zero (0) credits).
- Financial Management: working capital decisions, capital investment appraisal, measuring and dealing with risk, sources of finance, cost of capital, ratio analysis, dividend decision. (NQF8: six (6) credits, one assignment).
- Integrated Coastal Management: responsible management of the coastal zone (terrestrial and aquatic), in an integrated manner and considering various development (e.g. port, marine protected areas, etc.), planning and management aspects. (NQF9: ten (10) credits, one assignment, one group project).
- International Option: attend a two-week summer school at a business school outside of South Africa in lieu of the courses offered in one teaching block. There are certain conditions attached to this option and the timing thereof, covered in the School rules.
- Knowledge Management: the creation and utilization of knowledge and intellectual capital in organizations, as well as information technology for knowledge management. (NQF8: six (6) credits, one assignment).
- Management Accounting: cost-volume-profit analysis, measuring relevant costs and revenues for decision making, cost assignment, activity-based costing, the budgeting process, standard costing and variance analysis (NQF8: six (6) credits, one examination).
- People Management: the human resource management function and its role, role of managers in managing people, strategic human resource management (HRM), labour legislation, organisational behaviour, sustainable organisations and implications for HRM, stakeholder engagement, researching critical people management issues, change management. (NQF9: six (6) credits, one assignment).
- Principles of Sustainability: sustainability concepts and definitions, corporate social responsibility, triple/quadruple bottom line, triple top line, integrated reporting, climate change, trends in sustainability and its management. (NQF8: ten (10) credits, one assignment, one examination).
- Project Management: key project management concepts and tools, project management methodology, implementation approaches, project management control, use of project management software, environmental impacts assessment. (NQF9: six (6) credits, one assignment).
- Quantitative Decision-Making: summarizing data statistically, presenting and interpreting data, inferential statistics, significance testing, time series analysis and forecasting, marketing research practice (NQF8: six (6) credits, one test or assignment, one examination).
- Research Methods: the research proposal, research paradigms, research methods, data collection methods, quantitative and qualitative data analysis. (NQF9: ten (10) credits, four assignments).
- Responsible Leadership: Leadership theory and principles, Leadership styles, Systems theory and how it applies to Responsible Leadership, Stewardship and agency theory, Servant leadership, Philosophy of African leadership and Sustainable Leadership (NQF9: ten (10) credits, one assignment, one examination).
- Strategic Management: strategic intent, strategy maps, the business environment, SWOT analysis, core competency analysis, strategic objectives and the Balanced Scorecard, corporate level strategies, business level strategies. (NQF9: six credits, one assignment).

- Strategic Marketing: the marketing concept, market segmentation, consumer behaviour, marketing research, distribution strategy, product strategy, pricing strategy, promotional strategy, services marketing, relationship marketing, social marketing, responsible consumption. (NQF9: ten (10) credits, one assignment).
- Strategic Operations Management: process types and process flows in manufacturing, performance measurement, benchmarking and re-engineering, production planning, quality management, lean thinking and world class manufacturing, sustainable supply chain management and procurement, risk assessment, life-cycle analysis and systems. (NQF8: six (6) credits, one assignment)
- Sustainable Business Modelling: developing an in-depth understanding of business and the supply chain as an integrated model thereby providing critical insights into the value creation process. (NQF8: five (5) credits, one assignment).
- Sustainable Entrepreneurship: characteristics of an entrepreneur, generating entrepreneurial ideas, feasibility studies, growth and turnaround strategies, business plans, social entrepreneurship, international business. (NQF9: six (6) credits, one assignment).
- Sustainable Fisheries Management: fish stock assessments, fisheries administration, fisheries management practices and approaches. (NQF8: five (5) credits, one assignment).
- Sustainability Law: to enable the identification, location and preliminary interpretation of key sustainability and relevant governance legislation, relevant to the environmental, social, infrastructure development and investment legal frameworks applicable to business and other organizations. (NQF9: six (6) credits, one assignment).

Note: The School reserves the right not to offer a particular elective if there are too few candidates who choose that option.

PRE-MBA COURSE

For certain candidates, acceptance onto the MBA programme will be dependent on their attendance at a four-day Financial and Quantitative Skills course at the end of the first teaching block. This course is also open to anyone who wishes to refresh their knowledge of finance and accounting.

Accelerated Programme

In certain circumstances, candidates may be permitted to register on an accelerated programme, whereby the degree can be completed in a year and a half. Under the accelerated programme, all course work can be completed within the first year, with the research mini-thesis or case studies being completed in the first semester of the second year. Acceptance onto the accelerated programme must be suitably motivated and is subject to current work commitments and prior academic performance.

Extended Programme

In certain circumstances, candidates may be permitted to register on an extended programme, whereby the degree can be completed in four and a half years. Under the extended programme, all course work can be completed in the first four years, with the research mini-thesis or case studies being completed in the first semester of the fifth year. Acceptance onto the extended programme, is only permitted for candidates who have the necessary academic qualifications and are currently working towards the achievement of professional status (for example, a Chartered Accountant or an Advocate), which requires that they fulfil obligations whilst undergoing the designated period of training, articles, pupillage, internships, houseman-ship or the like. Continued participation on the Extended Programme is subject to the ongoing fulfilment of the professional body requirements. If these requirements are fulfilled within the first or second year of registration for the extended programme, then registration in subsequent years will typically be against the requirements of the normal programme.

Final Mark

The final mark will be made up of a weighted average mark of two components in the ratio of 67% for the course-work and 33% for the research mini-thesis or two case studies. The course-work component will comprise the weighted average mark of all the modules making up the course-work, according to their credit load. A distinction will be awarded if the final mark is greater than or equal to 75%, provided that a subminimum of 70% is obtained for each component.

MASTER OF COMMERCE DEGREE

Suitably qualified students are encouraged to proceed to the full thesis research degree of MCom under the supervision of staff of the Business School. Acceptance of the candidate will depend on a good academic record, the acceptance of a topic statement and the availability of expertise in the Business School to supervise the project. Further details for this degree is given in the General Regulations.

DOCTORAL DEGREES

Candidates are required to hold a Master's level qualification at NQF level 9 in a relevant discipline

(for example, Commerce, Management, Leadership or Business Administration). This would include course-work Master's degrees such as an MBA degree. In the case of a coursework masters, the applicant must have achieved an aggregate mark of 65% or more for the degree. In reviewing the application, the School will consider the following:

- Research capability: Proven ability to conduct independent research. This would be reflected in good research performance and output during the Master's programme. Evidence of publishing research findings would be a distinct advantage.
- Attendance: While the PhD degree is usually offered on a part-time basis and not in attendance, candidates are expected to regularly attend the online PhD seminars that are arranged from time to time.
- Capacity and alignment: Matching supervisor and student research interests, along with supervision capacity.
- Access to data: Applicant has access to a potential site for conducting field work.

Further details for this degree are given in the General Regulations.

Chemistry (CHE) is a six-semester subject, which may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BCom and BJourn. To major in Chemistry a candidate is required to obtain a pass in CHE 1; CHE 2; and CHE 3; as well as two semester-long courses, normally comprised of one full first-year course in Mathematics (MAM 1), or a semester each of Mathematics (MAM 101 or MAT 1S1) and Statistics (STA 1S1, STA 1C2, MST 102). Students are advised to discuss their choice of the above courses with the Head of the Chemistry Department. Students are also referred to the relevant Departmental Calendar sections that limit entry into CSC 102, PHY 102 and MST 102 to those performing satisfactorily in the corresponding 101 courses. See also Rule S.23. Two, or in some cases four, Chemistry semester courses are allowed for other degree/diploma curricula in the Faculties of Humanities and Education. In particular, both CHE 101 and CHE 102 are required (or the equivalent aggregated course CHE 1) for admission to BPharm 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in the theory section of each course separately. Each undergraduate year is offered as a pair of semester-long courses. All semester-courses are subject to a sub-minimum in the theory paper/s. See the departmental webpage for further details, particularly the content of courses and their requirements.

<http://www.ru.ac.za/chemistry>

FIRST-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN CHEMISTRY

4 lectures, 1 tutorial and 3 hours of practical weekly.

Note: Students in Chemistry in 101 are expected to have a knowledge of chemistry at the standard of Physical Science in the National Senior Certificate.

There are two semester courses in Chemistry in first-year: CHE 101 is offered in the first semester and CHE 102 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately or, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-course CHE 1, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum of 40% in the theory papers of each course separately and 45% of the overall for each course. Supplementary examinations may be recommended in either course, provided that a candidate achieves a minimum standard specified by the department.

Continuation requirements

Candidates obtaining less than 20% in the theory paper of CHE 101 in the June examination are not permitted to continue with any Chemistry course in that year. A mark of at least 40% in the theory paper of CHE 101 is required for entry into CHE 102. Candidates who achieve this standard, but fail to obtain at least 50% overall, may join the CHE 102 course in July, but must write the CHE 101 supplementary examination paper in August. The higher of the two marks for the CHE 101 papers will count (see Rule S.25.5). Candidates who obtain between 20% and 39% in the theory paper of CHE 101 in June cannot continue into CHE 102. They must transfer to the remedial course, Chemistry 1R1, to revise the topics from CHE 101 for re-examination in November, but will continue with the CHE 102 practical course. In the following year, candidates with CHE 101 or 1R1 (but not for CHE 102) must register for CHE 1R2 in the first semester and if they pass the course requirements satisfactorily in June, will obtain CHE 1R2, which is equivalent to CHE 102. Those students who fail the CHE 1R2 examination in June will proceed into the mainstream CHE 102 in the second semester, and rewrite the CHE 102 paper in November.

CHE 101

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: None

Course description: The course consists of an introduction to chemistry, including chemical symbols and numeracy, atomic structure and bonding, chemical and physical equilibrium and an introduction to organic chemistry and biological molecules.

DP requirements: Writing all tests and submitting all assessments, as well as AT LEAST 90% attendance at all practical and tutorial sessions is a requirement for Due Performance (DP).

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examination 60%. The Overall mark for each course comprises a class mark (40%) and an end-of-semester Theory examination mark (60%). The class mark consists of a combination of practical assessments, short tests, tutorial tests, and a mid-semester departmental test.

Supplementary exam: 40% Sub-minimum in the June examination to qualify for a supplementary exam

Subminimum for June: 40% Theory and 45% CHE 101 to aggregate with CHE 102

CHE 102

First-year, second-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: None

Course description: This course builds on the foundations developed in the previous course, with emphasis on properties of inorganic systems, atmospheric and environmental chemistry, organic functional group chemistry, biological building blocks, reaction rates, chemical thermodynamics, and electrochemistry.

DP requirements: Writing all tests and submitting all assessments, as well as AT LEAST 90% attendance at all practical and tutorial sessions is a requirement for Due Performance (DP).

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examination 60%. The Overall mark for each course comprises a class mark (40%) and an end-of-semester Theory examination mark (60%). The class mark consists of a combination of practical assessments, short tests, tutorial tests, and a mid-semester Departmental test.

Supplementary exam: 40% Sub-minimum in the June examination to qualify for a supplementary exam

Subminimum for November: 40% Theory and 45% CHE 102 to aggregate with CHE 101

CHE 1R1

This semester course is equivalent to CHE 101 (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: A minimum of 20% in the Theory paper for Chem 101.

Course description: See CHE 101

DP requirements: 90% attendance at lectures and tutorials; write all tests and assessments

Assessment: November exam: 60%; Practical mark (from Chem 101) 25%; Class tests: 15%

Supplementary exam: No supplementary exam

Subminimum for November: 40% theory

CHE 1R2

This semester course is equivalent to CHE 102, but is offered in the first semester (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: Pass CHE 1R1 or CHE 101, or a minimum of 20% for CHE 102 in the previous exam

Course description: See CHE 102

DP requirements: 90% attendance at lectures and tutorials; write all tests and assessments

Assessment: June exam: 60%; Practical mark (Chem 102 practicals completed previous semester) 25%; Class tests: 15%

Supplementary exam: No supplementary exam is normally given.

Subminimum for June: 40% theory

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN CHEMISTRY

These courses comprise 5 lectures and 4.5 hours of practical work weekly with an additional one-hour tutorial every week. There are two independent semester courses in Chemistry at second year. CHE 201 is offered in the first semester and CHE 202 in the second semester. Credit for both courses may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-course CHE 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum of 40% in the theory paper of each course separately and 45% of the overall for the course. No supplementary examinations will normally be offered for either course. Chemistry 1 (CHE 1) is required before a student may register for either CHE 201 or CHE 202.

Second-year, second-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: CHE 1 and pass or concurrent registration in Mathematics or Statistics

Course description: This course comprises Sampling and Sample Handling, Statistical and Classical Methods in Chemistry, Principles of spectroscopic methods: UV, IR, 1H - and 13C - NMR, MS, Atomic absorption/emission; Electroanalytical techniques; and Chromatography.

Practical components are aligned with theory and deal mostly with Analytical Chemistry. A second-year project is also undertaken as part of the practical component, usually as a group project throughout the semester.

DP requirements: a student must have attended AT LEAST 80% of all lectures and performed all assigned tutorials, essays and practical work satisfactorily

Assessment: Class record 40%, Theory examination A 30%, Theory examination B 30%. The class record comprises a mid-semester Departmental test, a number of class assessments and marks from the practical courses.

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% theory and 45% overall to aggregate with CHE 202

CHE 202

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: CHE 1 and a pass in one of the Mathematics or Statistics courses.

Course description: This follows on from foundations in Chemistry 1, dealing with intermediate Organic Chemistry, particularly fossil fuels, feedstocks and organic reactions, reactions of unsaturated systems, cycloalkanes, and aromatic compounds, as well as an introduction to stereochemistry, and an introduction to polymer chemistry. In the latter half of the semester students study chemical thermodynamics, chemical kinetics of complex reactions, and intermediate-level inorganic chemistry.

Practical Components deal with techniques and skills in physical chemistry, organic and polymer chemistry.

DP requirements: a student must have attended AT LEAST 80% of all lectures and performed all assigned tutorials, essays and practical work satisfactorily

Assessment: Class record 40%, Theory examination A 30%, Theory examination B 30%. The class record comprises a mid-semester Departmental test, a number of class assessments and marks from the practical courses.

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November: 40% theory and 45% overall to aggregate with CHE 201

THIRD-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN CHEMISTRY

These courses consist of 5 lectures and 6 hours of practical per week, and a practical-based internship requiring approximately 5 hours of work per week over 12 weeks. Tutorials of 1 hour are held weekly. The internship may usually be taken either in the first or second semester, but is recorded as part of the second semester class mark. There are two independent third-year courses in Chemistry. CHE 301 is held in the first semester and CHE 302 in the second semester. Credit for both semester courses may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-course CHE 3, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in the theory paper of each course separately. No supplementary examinations will normally be offered for either course.

Chemistry 2 (CHE 2), as well as two semester-long courses, normally comprised of one full first-year course in Mathematics, or a semester each of Mathematics and Statistics are required before a student may register for CHE 301 or CHE 302.

Students are referred to the relevant departmental Calendar sections that limit entry into CSC 102, PHY 102 and MST 102 to those performing satisfactorily in the corresponding 101 courses. Note also that the university timetable may prevent certain first year courses from being taken concurrently with Chemistry 3. See also Rule S.23.

CHE 301

Third-year, first-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: CHE 2

Course description: Topics covered in third year build on the second year with Advanced Organic Chemistry, Synthesis and Retrosynthesis; Green Chemistry; Quantum Mechanics and Molecular Modelling; Linear Free Energy; Photochemistry; Nanotechnology. There is also a short component linked to one of our industry partners. Practicals are for Physical and Organic chemistry.

DP requirements: a student must have attended AT LEAST 80% of all lectures and performed and submitted ALL assigned tutorials, essays and practical work satisfactorily

Assessment: Class record 40%, Theory examination A 30%, Theory examination B 30%. The class mark comprises the mid-semester departmental tests, combined coursework continuous assessment tasks, and a mark for both the organic and physical chemistry practical course modules.

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% in each of the theory papers to aggregate with CHE 302

CHE 302

Third-year, second-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: CHE 2 and a pass or previous registration in CHE 301

Course description: Transition Metal Chemistry; Crystallography; Organometallic Chemistry; Bioinorganic Chemistry; Statistical Kinetics and Energetics. Practicals are in Research internship and Inorganic chemistry.

DP requirements: a student must have attended AT LEAST 80% of all lectures and performed and submitted ALL assigned tutorials, essays and practical work satisfactorily

Assessment: Class record 40%, Theory examination A 30%, Theory examination B 30%. The class mark comprises the mid-semester departmental tests, combined coursework continuous assessment tasks, and a mark for the inorganic chemistry practical course module as well as the mark for the research internship.

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November: 40% in each of the theory papers to aggregate with CHE 301

CHEMISTRY HONOURS

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Students who achieve a satisfactory standard in Chemistry 3 (normally 65% or above) may be accepted for the Honours course (normally 70% is required for consideration in a Joint Honours with another department). The Honours course consists of lectures on advanced topics selected from around 20 modules offered each year as electives, together with four compulsory core modules: Symmetry and Group Theory, Advanced Synthetic Techniques, Spectroscopy, and one of the Industrial Chemistry modules.

A review essay (completed in the first semester) and a research project (conducted over most of the year in one of the department's research groups) is submitted as a mini-thesis and presented at the end of the year.

Further details are available on the website at <https://www.ru.ac.za/chemistry>

Assessment: Class record 40%, Theory examination 5% in June and 55% in November. The theory consists of a combination of continuous assessment and end-of-year examinations. Further details are available on the website at <https://www.ru.ac.za/chemistry>

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November Exam: 40% in each of the theory papers

MASTER'S AND DOCTORAL DEGREES

Suitably qualified students are encouraged to proceed to the research degrees of MSc (NQF level 9, 180 credits) and PhD (NQF level 10, 360 credits) under the direction of the staff of the department. Requirements for the MSc and PhD degrees are given in the General Rules.

In addition to functioning as an academic department offering qualifications, the Centre is also a resource for the University in support of the achievement of its mission and vision. To this end, it is involved in the promotion and assurance of quality in relation to teaching and learning and the development of academic staff as professional educators. Educational Technology Specialists in the Centre provide support for and manage RUConnected (Learning Management System).

The Educational Technology team further supports learning technologies to enable blended and online teaching and learning. The team supports academics by providing academic development opportunities to enable blended and online course design and technology integration. The Educational Technology Specialists also undertake research about the use of educational technologies in Higher Education and contribute to policy development and provide advice on online education for applications for accreditation of new programmes.

The Centre also incorporates an Extended Studies Unit which is responsible for the development, co-ordination and teaching of four-year degrees in the Faculties of Commerce, Humanities and Science.

The Centre for Higher Education Research, Teaching and Learning specialises in the study of the field of higher education. The Centre offers programmes leading to a range of qualifications in higher education including:

- Postgraduate Diploma in Higher Education (Lecturers)
- Postgraduate Diploma in Higher Education (Academic Developers)
- Master of Education
- Doctor of Philosophy

CHERTL staff also undertake research into higher education.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN HIGHER EDUCATION [PGDip (HE)]

The purpose of the Postgraduate Diploma in Higher Education (PGDip (HE)) is to facilitate the professional development of lecturers as reflexive practitioners in higher education by developing their knowledge of Higher Education (HE) as a field of study. The programme is designed to enhance participants' competence in facilitating, enabling and assessing students' learning. It provides professional accreditation for HE practitioners. Shifts in higher education around globalisation and transformation imperatives have increased expectations that academics should negotiate new challenges and identities. These international changes have particular nuances in the South African context where historical disadvantage, social justice and transformation need to be redressed. This course aims to strengthen lecturers' ability to respond meaningfully to these challenges and to meet the learning needs of their students.

The Centre offers three Postgraduate Diploma in Higher Education (PGDip (HE)) programmes:

- one for lecturers at Rhodes University
- one for lecturers from other higher education institutions
- one for academic developers

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN HIGHER EDUCATION [PGDIP (HE)] FOR ACADEMICS AT RHODES UNIVERSITY

The Diploma is registered as a NQF level 8, 120 credit course on the Higher Education Qualifications Sub-Framework (HEQSF). Rhodes University is a registered provider for the course and the qualification is awarded by the Rhodes Education Faculty. Participants must complete normal registration procedures through the Faculty of Education at the beginning of each year.

Structure of the Diploma

In order to obtain the qualification participants are required to meet the outcomes of four compulsory modules and one elective module.

Core modules

Learning and Teaching in Higher Education: 9201001 (40 credits)

The purpose of this module is through participants' reflection and critical practice, to deepen their understanding of the nature of learning in higher education and to gain a practical understanding of the ways in which to facilitate students' access to knowledge in the disciplines.

Curriculum Development: 9201002 (30 credits)

The purpose of this module is to develop participants' theoretical understanding of the different approaches to curriculum development in higher education and to enable them to design, interpret and implement curricula that are aligned to the HEQSF.

Assessment of and for Student Learning: 9201000 (30 credits)

The purpose of this module is to deepen participants' theoretical understanding of assessment and to enable the informed implementation of assessment principles and processes into their practice.

Evaluation of Teaching and Courses: 9201004 (10 credits)

The purpose of this module is to engage with the theories and principles of evaluation in higher education, thus enabling participants to evaluate their own practice as educators.

Elective modules: 9201009 (10 credits)

Participants are required to choose an area of their practice for specific investigation. Some examples from which participants can choose, include

- Supervision of Postgraduate Research
- Developing Student Writing
- Design and Implement eLearning
- Design and Implement Service Learning
- Social Inclusion in Higher Education (e.g. Integrating HIV-Aids, Race and Gender Issues into the Curriculum)
- Decolonisation or Africanisation of Higher Education
- Integrating Sustainable Development Goals into the Curriculum

Candidates are required to discuss their choice of elective with the course coordinator.

Assessment of the course

The course as a whole will be assessed by means of an integrated teaching portfolio. Participants will be required to submit an assignment on completion of each module. The submission of these assignments constitutes a DP requirement for the course. The objective of the assignments is to provide formative assessment to support the participants in the building of the teaching portfolio and meeting the outcomes of the qualification appropriate to the purpose, exit level outcomes and HEQSF level of the PGDip (HE) qualification.

A candidate may only be allowed to proceed to Year 2 if they have passed at least two modules in Year 1.

Participants are required to submit their electronic portfolios in November of the second year of their studies in order to graduate in April the following year. The portfolio will be subject to internal, as well as external, examination. A defence of the portfolio may be required.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN HIGHER EDUCATION [PGDip (HE)] FOR ACADEMICS (NATIONAL)

The Diploma is registered as a NQF level 8, 120 credit qualification on the HEQSF. Rhodes University is a registered provider for the course and the qualification is awarded by the Rhodes Education Faculty. Participants must complete normal registration procedures through the Faculty of Education at the beginning of each year.

Structure of the Diploma

In order to obtain the qualification participants are required to meet the outcomes of five compulsory modules.

Becoming a Reflective Practitioner in Higher Education: 9201024 (15 credits)

The purpose of this module is to provide an overview of the PGDip (HE) and to introduce participants to the field of higher education studies (HES). Higher Education is contextualised so that participants are able to reflect on and articulate their beliefs about teaching and their understanding of how students learn in their disciplines. They are introduced to criticality, reflexivity and praxis as core practices in the course.

Learning and Teaching in Higher Education: 9201018 (30 credits)

The purpose of this module is through participants' reflection and critical practice, to deepen their understanding of the nature of learning in higher education and to gain a practical understanding of the ways in which to facilitate students' access to knowledge in the disciplines.

Curriculum Development: 9201019 (30 credits)

The purpose of this module is to develop participants' theoretical understanding of the different approaches to curriculum development in higher education and to enable them to design, interpret and implement curricula that are aligned to the HEQSF.

Assessment of and for Student Learning: 9201020 (30 credits)

The purpose of this module is to deepen participants' theoretical understanding of assessment and to enable the informed implementation of assessment principles and processes into their practice.

Evaluation of Teaching and Courses: 9201021 (15 credits)

The purpose of this module is to engage with the theories and principles of evaluation in higher education, thus enabling participants to evaluate their own practice as educators.

Assessment of the course

The course as a whole will be assessed by means of an integrated teaching portfolio. Participants will be required to submit an assignment on completion of each module. The submission of these assignments constitutes a DP requirement for the course. The objective of the assignments is to provide formative assessment to support the participants in the building of the teaching portfolio and meeting the outcomes of the qualification, appropriate to the purpose, exit level outcomes and HEQSF level of the PGDip (HE) qualification.

A candidate may only be allowed to proceed to Year 2 if they have passed at least two modules in Year 1.

Participants are required to submit their electronic portfolios in November of the second year of their studies in order to graduate in April the following year. The portfolio will be subject to internal, as well as external, examination. A defence of the portfolio may be required.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN HIGHER EDUCATION [PGDIP (HE)] FOR ACADEMIC DEVELOPERS

The Diploma is registered as a NQF level 8, 120 credit qualification on the HEQSF. Rhodes University is a registered provider for the course and the qualification is awarded by the Rhodes Education Faculty. Participants must complete normal registration procedures through the Faculty of Education at the beginning of each year. The purpose of this Postgraduate Diploma in Higher Education is to advance academic developers' knowledge of higher education as a field of study and to enable them to conceptualise, design and implement formal and informal academic development initiatives appropriate to their contexts and the challenges facing contemporary South African higher education.

Structure of the course

In order to obtain the qualification participants are required to meet the outcomes of six compulsory modules (20 credits each). The total credits for the course are thus 120 credits.

The Higher Education Context: 9201011 (20 credits)

The purpose of the module is to enable participants to analyse the higher education context (at international, national, departmental and disciplinary levels) in order to understand specific institutional academic development needs (including the developmental needs of academic staff) in their contexts.

Teaching and Learning in Higher Education: 9201014 (20 credits)

The purpose of this module is to develop participants' knowledge of the nature of student learning in higher education and to enable them to contribute to driving a teaching and learning agenda in their institutions.

Curriculum Development: 9201015 (20 credits)

The purpose of this module is to enable participants to conceptualise the role of academic development (and their role) in relation to the design and quality assurance of HEQSF-aligned curricula (at all levels) in their institutions.

Assessment of Student Learning: 9201016 (20 credits)

The purpose of this module is to enable participants to conceptualise the role of academic development (and their role) in relation to the design, implementation and quality assurance of student learning in their institutions.

Development, Enhancement and Assurance of Quality Teaching and Learning: 9201012 (20 credits)

The purpose of this module is to enable participants to critically examine the notion of quality assurance in higher education. In addition, the module will help participants to use evaluation processes to enhance, develop and assure the quality of teaching and learning appropriate to their contexts.

Conceptualising and Designing Contextually appropriate Academic Development Initiatives: 9201013 (20 credits)

The purpose of this module is to integrate ideas and strategies conceptualised over the course of the Diploma thus far. In particular the module focuses on participants designing principled and theoretically sound academic development initiatives appropriate to their institutional contexts

Assessment

Participants will be required to complete module tasks as well as an integrated final assignment for each module which will require them to document the design and implementation strategies for academic/ higher education development initiatives for their institution. This assignment will include inter alia discussion of theories and principles underpinning the proposed initiatives. The objective of the assignments is to provide formative assessment to support the participants in the building of a teaching portfolio and meeting the outcomes of the qualification appropriate to the purpose, exit level outcomes and HEQSF level of the PGDip (HE) qualification.

A candidate may only be allowed to proceed to Year 2 if they have passed at least two modules in Year 1.

Course assessment

The course will be assessed summatively by means of an integrated professional portfolio. The assignments from all the modules will be synthesised to complete the portfolio which provides evidence of the participants having met the course outcomes. Portfolios will be assessed by two CHERTL staff/associates and will be externally examined. Candidates may be requested to defend their portfolios in an oral examination.

Computer Science (CSC) is a six-semester subject which may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BSc(InfSys), BCom, BJourn, BA and BEcon.

To major in Computer Science, a candidate is required to obtain credit in the following courses: CSC 1; CSC 2; CSC 3; one of MAM 101 (or MAM 1), MAT 1S1, STA 1S1, STA 1C2, or MST 102. See Rule S.23.

Candidates who aim to major in Computer Science are advised to register for the ancillary course in Mathematics or Statistics in their first or second year of study; permission will not normally be granted to repeat a prerequisite course concurrently with CSC 301 and CSC 302.

The attention of students who hope to pursue careers in the fields of Computing and Information Systems in general is drawn to the degree of BSc (Information Systems), in which Computer Science and Information Systems are the usual major subjects, supported by other appropriate courses from the Faculties of Science and Commerce.

The courses offered in Computer Science concentrate on the technology, engineering, project management and professional topics of computing, such as programming and application development, algorithm and system design, software engineering, operating systems and real-time computing, graphics, multimedia, artificial intelligence, networks and distributed computing, telecommunications and the Internet, and formal computer science theory. Management and organisational aspects of computing are handled more specifically in courses offered by the Department of Information Systems, and aspects such as computer and digital electronics and hardware are complemented by courses offered in the Department of Physics and Electronics. In all courses students are required to perform practical work on the computer, the marks of which might count towards the final assessment. See the Departmental Web Page <http://www.ru.ac.za/computerscience> for further details, particularly on the contents of courses.

FIRST-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN COMPUTER SCIENCE

There are four first-year courses in Computer Science, each contributing a semester-course towards a degree.

CSC 101 is offered in the first semester only, and leads on to CSC 102 in the second semester. This is the conventional first year combination, which prepares students for further study in the subject. Each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-course CSC 1, provided that a candidate obtains the required subminimum in each component. However, students who wish to major in Computer Science must obtain both CSC 101 and CSC 102. Students admitted to the Science, Commerce or Humanities Extended Studies Programmes, or who have little or no experience of computers, are required at the discretion of the Dean and Head of Department to complete a Computer Skills course in the Extended Studies Unit before registering for CSC 101.

CSC 1L1 (Introduction to ICT) is offered in the first semester, and is intended as a terminal course.

CSC 112 is offered in the second semester and is the prerequisite for Information Systems 201.

A candidate is not allowed to obtain CSC 1L1 and CSC 1S, offered by the CHERTL.

A candidate may also not obtain CSC 101 and CSC 1L1.

CSC 1L1: Introduction to ICT

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: None

Course description: CSC 1L1 is intended as a non-continuing course for students who require computing principles and skills to support their activities in other disciplines. Topics include an introduction to the fundamental concepts and applications of hardware, computing environments, editing and word processing, publishing and presentations, spreadsheets, other software packages, networks, the Internet, and social issues. Practical submissions and class tests collectively contribute to the class mark, which forms part of the final mark.

DP requirements: 40% test average and 50% practical average

Assessment: Class record 25%, Examinations 75%

Supplementary exam: 35%

CSC 112: Business Problem Solving with Computers

First-year, second-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: None

Course description: CSC 112 is the first course for students who intend to continue to INF 201, and is offered in the second semester. The course introduces students to a modern computing environment, and teaches skills that enable the application of computers to typical business problems. These skills include internet-based skills for web page creation and knowledge discovery, as well as problem solving and knowledge retrieval skills using tools such as spreadsheets. Business problem solving and IS Theory are introduced, and contextualised by an overview of the place of IT in a typical organization.

DP requirements: 40% test average and 40% practical average

Assessment: Class record 25%, Examinations 75%

Supplementary exam: 35%

CSC101: Problem Solving and Introductory Programming

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: None

Co-requisite: One of MAM 101 (or MAM 1), MAT 1S1, STA 1S1, STA 1C2, or MST 102

Course description: This course presents basic problem-solving techniques with an emphasis on logical, algorithmic and computational processes, using the Python programming language. Students are introduced to programming concepts, including: output, input, variables, types, operators and operands, debugging, iteration, modules, functions, selection, strings, lists and files.

DP requirements: 40% test average and 40% practical average

Assessment: Class record 20%, Examinations 80%

Supplementary exam: 40%

Subminimum for June: 40% to aggregate with CSC 102

CSC102: Intermediate Programming

First-year, second-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% CSC 101 in same calendar year or CSC 101

Co-requisite: One of MAM 101 (or MAM 1), MAT 1S1, STA 1S1, STA 1C2, or MST 102

Course description: This course further develops programming skills, and deals with algorithms, object-oriented principles and practices, the software development life cycle, and more advanced language features, in the scope of the Java programming language.

DP requirements: 40% test average and 40% practical average

Assessment: Class record 20%, Examinations 80%

Supplementary exam: 40%

Subminimum for November: 40% to aggregate with CSC 101

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN COMPUTER SCIENCE

There are two second-year courses in Computer Science. CSC 201 is held in the first semester and CSC 202 in the second semester. Each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-course CSC 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component. Practical submissions and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark.

Computer Science 1 (CSC 101 and CSC 102) is required before a student may register for second year courses. Adequate performance in CSC 201 is required before a student may register for CSC 202.

The second year of Computer Science is devoted to foundational computing and system design concepts.

CSC 201

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: CSC 101 and CSC 102

Course description: Machine organization and low-level programming; advanced data structures and data abstraction; object-oriented principles; advanced programming concepts. The practical work covers low and high-level imperative programming and design principles.

DP requirements: 30% test average and 40% practical average

Assessment: Class record 33%, Examinations 67%

Supplementary exam: Not offered

Subminimum for June: 40% to aggregate with CSC 202

CSC 202

Second-year, second-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% CSC 201 Theoretical foundations of computing; database theory and query languages; the theory and practice of operating systems. The practical work covers the use of software engineering techniques, operating systems, and database design and query.

DP requirements: 30% test average and 40% practical average

Assessment: Class record 33%, Examinations 67%

Supplementary exam: Not offered

Subminimum for November: 40% to aggregate with CSC 201

Third-year level courses in Computer Science There are three third-year courses in Computer Science. CSC 302 and CSC 303 (not offered in 2022) are normally held in the first semester and CSC 301 in the second semester, but the department reserves the right to offer them in either semester, according to timetable constraints. Each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% for CSC 301 and CSC 302 will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-course CSC 3, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component.

A major in Computer Science requires both CSC 301 and CSC 302, or an aggregate course for CSC3. Practical submissions and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark.

Credit in Computer Science (CSC 2) and in one of MAM 101 (or MAM 1), MAT 1S1, STA 1S1, STA 1C2, or MST 102 is required before a student may register for CSC 301 or CSC 302. Credit in CSC 201 is required before a student may register for CSC 303. The student should also be in his/her third year of study.

THIRD-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN COMPUTER SCIENCE

The third-year of Computer Science is devoted to systems programming and systems analysis and digital lifestyle technologies.

CSC 301

Third-year, second-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: CSC 2

Pre-requisite: One of MAM 101 (or MAM 1), MAT 1S1, STA 1S1, STA 1C2, or MST 102

Course description: Web and internet technologies; theory and implementation of computer languages. Practical work reinforces these aspects of application development and systems programming.

DP requirements: 30% test average and 40% practical average

Assessment: Class record 33%, Examinations 67%

Supplementary exam: Not offered

Subminimum: 40% to aggregate with CSC 302

CSC 302

Third-year, first-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: CSC 2

Pre-requisite: One of MAM 101 (or MAM 1), MAT 1S1, STA 1S1, STA 1C2, or MST 102

Course description: Data communications and computer networks; functional programming; software design and practices.

DP requirements: 30% test average and 40% practical average

Assessment: Class record 33%, Examinations 67%

Supplementary exam: not offered

Subminimum: 40% to aggregate with CSC 301

CSC 303

This course will not be offered in 2022.

Course description: Data analytics, parallel patterns, and machine learning.

COMPUTER SCIENCE HONOURS

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Course description: The course consists of a selection of six topics and a large project. To this selection is added a compulsory module in project management and communications, and a portfolio of practical assignments. The course work comprises the advanced treatment of an approved selection from the following list of topics (the list is not exhaustive and not all topics are offered in every calendar year): real time multimedia; Java enterprise programming; image processing; networks and data communications; distributed and parallel processing; security and cryptology; computer-based education; artificial intelligence; human computer interfaces; advanced computer architecture; microcomputer hardware and interfacing; operating system design; systems analysis and design methodologies; functional programming; real-time programming; data abstraction; modelling; formal aspects of computer science; software and hardware engineering in low resource settings; general purpose parallel computing using GPUs; bioinformatics; machine learning. At the discretion of the Head of Department, the course may include topics from Electronics, Information Systems, Pure and Applied Mathematics, Mathematical Statistics, or any other topics approved by the Head of Department.

DP requirements: as set by the lecturer

Assessment: 6 x 10% modules, 10% Project Management, 30% Project

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum: a student must normally pass all courses and the project

MASTER'S AND DOCTORAL DEGREES

Suitably qualified students are encouraged to proceed to the research degrees of MSc (NQF level 9, 180 credits) and PhD (NQF level 10, 360 credits) under the direction of the staff of the Department. Requirements for the MSc and PhD degrees are given in the General Rules. Current areas of specialisation are software defined networks and cloud automation; real time distributed multimedia; graphics and virtual reality; audio networking; computer security; distributed processing and ICT for development. A coursework MSc specialising in Information Security is also offered, specially structured for part-time students.

More information on research can be found on the web site of the Centre of Excellence in Distributed Multimedia, housed within the Computer Science Department: <http://www.coe.ru.ac.za>.

Drama is a three-year major subject which may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculty of Humanities.

Drama courses are designed to give wide experience in and appreciation of the creative and technical skills associated with theatre: acting, creative writing, movement, design, physical theatre, stage management, theatre-making, and voice. On a personal level, drama encourages growth, self-esteem and confidence by developing communication, interpersonal and collaborative skills. All courses have a theoretical component including literary, critical and performance studies. Professional theatre practitioners are periodically invited to contribute to the production and learning programme. As the department is relatively small, there are ample opportunities in theatre-making and choreography as well as in performance and stage management. Students are required to take part in the production, community and learning activities of the department.

The department also hosts two acclaimed theatre companies: the First Physical Theatre Company and the Ubom! Eastern Cape Drama Company. The department participates extensively in the National Arts Festival, Regional Schools' Festivals and the National Schools' Festival.

DRAMA 1

Theatre Studies

First-year, full-year course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

A study of significant developments and current directions in the theatre using playtexts, contextual studies, oral traditions, theories of performance, and visual documentation.

Theatre Practice

First-year, full-year course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Voice and Communication Skills, Theatre Making and Physical Theatre.

DRAMA 2

Theatre Studies

Second-year, full-year course (NQF level 6, 15 credits)

A study of significant developments in theatre and performance, including historical and critical studies, playtexts, current theatre trends, theatre design and dance traditions.

Theatre Practice

Second-year, full-year course (NQF level 6, 15 credits)

Voice and Communication Skills, Physical Theatre, Acting, Theatre Design and Shortform Improvisation.

DRAMA 3

Theatre Studies

Third-year, full-year course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

The thematic study of significant developments in twentieth century theatre including historical studies, developments in the related arts, playtexts, contemporary theories of theatre, theatre design, and dance theatre.

Theatre Practice

Core Course: Communication and Vocal practice

Third-year, full-year course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Students are required to undertake TWO of the following electives: Acting, Applied Theatre, Choreography on Site, Directing for the Theatre, Physical Theatre, Theatre Design, Theatre Technology and Writing for Performance. Any other practicals approved by the Head of Department.

Not all electives are offered in any one academic year.

DRAMA HONOURS COURSE

(NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Candidates are required to complete FIVE papers in consultation with the Head of Department. Papers 1 and 2 are compulsory and ensure that every student completes at least 50% theory. A student chooses a further THREE papers, in any combination, from those offered in any one year. All papers are of equal weighting (excluding directing which is weighted at 200 marks) with the final mark calculated out of 500.

Not all papers are offered in any one academic year.

GROUP A

Paper 1 Performance Studies (compulsory)

Final Assessment: One extended research essay and a course record mark

Paper 2 Dramatic Literature

Final Assessment: Two research essays and a course record mark.

GROUP B

Paper 4 Applied Theatre

Paper 5 Directing

Paper 6 Choreography

Paper 7 Physical Performance

Final Assessment: A practical examination, three research essays and a course record mark.

GROUP C

Paper 8 Acting

Paper 9 Performance Design and Scenography

Paper 10 Writing for Performance

Final Assessment: A major practical project; a research essay, and a course record mark.

Paper 11 Any other paper approved by the Head of Department.

Not all papers are offered in any one academic year.

MASTER'S DEGREE

There are three possible options by which the Master's degree may be taken;

1. combination of coursework, thesis project and half thesis, or
2. combination of coursework, practical thesis project, and research report or
3. by thesis only.

The options are determined in consultation with the Head of Department.

Master's by coursework

Creative Practice Specialisations:

Candidates will select one specialisation from the following; Applied Theatre, Choreography, Contemporary Performance, Writing for Performance, Directing, Interdisciplinary Performance Practice or another specialisation in consultation with HoD.

Note: Not all specialisations are offered in any one year.

Performance research

This core course is required for all first year Master's students. Topics include areas relevant to research practice in the performing arts such as practice as research, reflective writing, performative writing, research methodologies, applied case studies, interdisciplinary theatre interventions, integrated and interactive collaborations, and research ethics.

Candidates are required to submit two research papers (8000–10000 words), in their first year of study.

Thesis Project

The candidate can select one of the following options:

1. Thesis Project to be completed at the end of the first year followed by a half thesis (30,000 words) in the second year.

2. Thesis Project to be completed in June of the second year of study followed by a Research Report in support of the research practice (12000 - 15000 words).

DOCTORAL DEGREE

The PhD in Drama is offered by thesis which may be practice based.

STRUCTURE OF COURSES AND RULES

Economics is a three-year major subject which may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculties of Commerce, Humanities and Science. One, or in some cases two, courses in Economics are allowed as courses for degree/diploma curricula in the Faculties of Education and Law. Post graduate studies in Economics are available through Honours, Master's and Doctoral degrees.

Economics 1

Economics 1 consists of TWO semester courses (1 per semester)

CODE	COURSE	SEMESTER OFFERED
ECO 101	Microeconomics	1
ECO 102	Macroeconomics	2

Credit may be obtained in any of the courses separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a two-semester course ECO 1, provided that the courses constituting Economics 1 are read in the same year and a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each course (see Rule C.12).

Economics 2

Economics 2 consists of TWO semester courses (1 per semester)

------	--------	------------------

ECO 202 Macroeconomics 1

Credit may be obtained in any of the courses separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a two-semester course ECO 2, provided that the courses constituting Economics 2 are read in the same year and a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each course (see Rule C.12).

Economics 3

Economics 3 consists of FOUR half-semester modules from the following list

*CODE	MODULE	SEMESTER OFFERED
ECO 312	International Trade Theory & Policy	1
ECO 313	Public Finance	2
ECO 314	South African Economy	2
ECO 315	Econometrics	1
ECO 316	Money, Banking & International Finance	2
ECO 317	Environmental Economics	1
ECO 318	Mathematical Economics	1
ECO 319	Any other paper approved by the Department

Credit may be obtained in any four of the modules separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a two-semester course ECO 3, provided that the four modules constituting Economics 3 are read in the same year and that a sub-minimum of 45% is obtained for at least two modules, with credits being obtained in the remaining two modules; or that a sub-minimum of 40% is obtained for one module, with credits being obtained for the remaining three modules (see Rule C.12).

Economics 3B consists of TWO half-semester modules (normally one per semester) from the list under Economics 3. Students registered for both Economics 3 and Economics 3B would take 6 courses (three per semester) in total.

Credit may be obtained in any of the two modules separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a two-semester course ECO 3B, provided that the two modules constituting Economics 3B are read in the same year and a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each course (see Rule C.12).

Econometrics is strongly recommended for students planning to do Honours. The Department reserves the right to offer second- and third-year courses in either Semester 1 or Semester 2 and to withdraw any of the third-year courses.

Admission Prerequisites

Course	Admission prerequisite
ECO 201,202	Economics 1 or ECO 101 & ECO 102
ECO 311,312,313, 314, 315, 316, 318	Economics 2 or ECO 201 & ECO 202
ECO 317	ECO 101

In addition to the above admission prerequisites, students are normally only allowed to register for third-year courses after successful completion of a total of 14 semester courses.

Economics Honours

Economics Honours consists of a research project plus SIX courses from the following:

Compulsory Courses

Code	Course	Semester offered
ECO 401	Research project	1&2
ECO 418	Microeconomics	2
ECO 403	Macroeconomics	1

Elective Courses

FOUR courses are selected from the following list

*Code	Module	Semester offered
ECO 402	Mathematical Economics	1
ECO 404	Econometrics	1
ECO 405	Monetary Economics	1
ECO 406	Growth and Technology	1
 ECO 407	Financial Economics and Derivatives	2
ECO 408	Political Economy and Labour	1
ECO 409	Development Economics	2
ECO 410	Environmental and Resource Economics	2
ECO 411	Development of Capitalism in South Africa: history, theory and policy
 ECO 412	Trade and Industrial Policy	2
ECO 415	Public Finance
 ECO 416	Industrial Organisation
 ECO 417	Any other paper approved by the Department

Internal departmental codes only*

 Not offered in 2019*

NB Not all the above courses will be offered in any one year. Economics Honours can only be taken fulltime.

The TWO compulsory courses and ONE elective course in the first semester and THREE elective courses in the second semester will normally be taken. Examinations are written in June and November. The research project is completed over the whole year and should be handed in by 1 October in order to be examined in November. A student is permitted to take a paper from another department to the maximum weight of 0,2. Students who have not done Econometrics at the third-year level, are allowed to take ECO 315 in lieu of one of the elective Honours courses.

INTERDISCIPLINARY HONOURS DEGREE IN DEVELOPMENT STUDIES

The degree consists of FOUR papers and a long research essay from participating departments.

MASTER'S DEGREE IN ECONOMICS

Master's degree by research thesis

This option is available to students wishing to pursue a clearly defined field of research and where such students have the ability to work independently.

Master of Commerce (Financial Markets) by Coursework and Thesis

This degree is aimed specifically at a specialised career in the financial/banking sector. A minimum registration of 5 students is normally required for the degree to be offered.

The requirement for admission is an Honours degree or a four-year degree, with a strong background in Economics. A satisfactory pass in econometrics and/ or mathematical economics at the Honours level is required. Professional experience will be taken into account.

The courses are structured with the above career in mind and are all compulsory. The degree consists of:

*Code	Course	Semester offered
ECO 501	Thesis	1&2
ECO 507	Financial Institutions, Regulation and Monetary Policy	1

ECO 508	Paper 1: Quantitative Finance	2
ECO 508	Paper 2: Financial Econometrics	2
ECO 504	Debt & Foreign Exchange Markets	1
ECO 505	Equity & Derivative Markets	1
ECO 506	Portfolio Theory & Management	2
ECO 509	Financial Markets 1&2 Industry Exams

Internal departmental codes only*

DOCTORAL DEGREE

A PhD degree may be taken by research thesis. Acceptance of the candidate will depend on previous academic record, an acceptable research proposal and the availability of expertise in the department to supervise the project.

COURSE CONTENTS

Economics 101 (ECO 101) – Microeconomics

First-year, first-semester course (NQF Level 5, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: none

Course description: Fundamental economic concepts; comparative economic systems; demand, supply and market equilibrium; elasticities of demand and supply; consumer behaviour; production and costs; price and output determination under competitive and monopolistic conditions. The South African economy, structure and development.

DP requirements: Obtain a coursework mark of at least 35%, attend all tutorials, submit all essays on or before the due date and write all term tests.

Assessment: Coursework counts 30% and three-hour examination counts 70%

Supplementary examination: yes

Economics 102 (ECO 102) – Macroeconomics

First-year, second-semester course (NQF Level 5, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: none

Course description: National income accounts; index numbers; determination of national output, income and employment; money and banking; quantity theory of money; money, prices and output; unemployment; inflation; introduction to international economics.

DP requirements: Obtain a coursework mark of at least 35%, attend all tutorials, submit all essays on or before the due date and write all term tests.

Assessment: Coursework counts 30% and three-hour examination counts 70%

Supplementary examination: yes

Economics 201 (ECO 201) - Microeconomics

Second-year, second-semester course (NQF Level 6, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: ECO 101 or ECO 1 with ECO 101 and ECO 102 aggregated

Course description: The economist's view of human nature; preferences, budgets, and consumer equilibrium; income and substitution effects; the Chicago school; production, technology and costs. Fundamentals of market structure; general equilibrium and second best; asymmetric information; the South African labour market; oligopoly and oil; product differentiation (automobiles and airlines); globalisation.

DP requirements: Obtain a coursework mark of at least 35%, attend all tutorials, submit all essays on or before the due date and write all term tests.

Assessment: Coursework counts 40% and three-hour examination counts 60%

Supplementary examination: yes

ECO 202 - Macroeconomics

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF Level 6, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: ECO 102 or ECO 1 with ECO 101 and ECO 102 aggregated

Course description: Measurement of macroeconomic variables; classical macroeconomics; the role of aggregate demand; money, interest and income; policy effects in the ISLM model; aggregate supply and aggregate demand; output, inflation and unemployment; the balance of payments and exchange rates; monetary and fiscal policy in the open economy; the Mundell-Fleming model; cases of imperfect and perfect capital mobility. Supplementary examination: yes

Economics 314 (ECO 314) - South African Economy

Third-year, quarter module (NQF Level 7, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: ECO 201 and ECO 202 or ECO 2 with ECO 201 and ECO 202 aggregated

Course description: South African economy in the 20th century; political economy of development; role of the state in industrialisation; inward industrialisation versus export led growth; changing labour relations; development in the financial sector; foreign direct investment; balance of payments and fiscal discipline; primary sector developments.

DP requirements: Obtain a coursework mark of at least 35%, attend all tutorials, submit the essay on or before the due date and write the test.

Assessment: Coursework counts 30% and three-hour examination counts 70%

Supplementary examination: yes

Economics 315 (ECO 315) - Econometrics

Third-year, quarter module (NQF Level 7, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: ECO 201 and ECO 202 or ECO 2 with ECO 201 and ECO 202 aggregated

Course description: The nature and scope of econometrics; basics of probability and statistics;

the linear regression model: the two-variable model, estimation and hypothesis testing; multiple regression estimation, goodness of fit and hypothesis testing; functional forms of regression models: how to measure elasticity and the growth rate, reciprocal models; regression on dummy explanatory variables; regression analysis in practice: multicollinearity and heteroscedasticity; autocorrelation and spurious regression in economic time series data.

DP requirements: Obtain a coursework mark of at least 35%, attend all tutorials, submit the assignment on or before the due date and write all term tests.

Assessment: Coursework counts 40% and three-hour examination counts 60%

Supplementary examination: yes

Economics 316 (ECO 316) - Money, Banking and International Finance

Third-year, quarter module (NQF Level 7, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: ECO 201 and ECO 202 or ECO 2 with ECO 201 and ECO 202 aggregated

Course description: Money and interest rates; the demand for money; interest rate behaviour; transmission mechanism; rational expectations theory (traditional, new classical and new Keynesian models); financial instruments and markets; central banking and depository institutions; foreign exchange markets and the balance of payments accounts (monetary, portfolio balance, price adjustments approaches to the external balance); national income and current account; the exchange rate systems and international monetary system, and macroeconomic policy in the open economy; contemporary issues; macroeconomic policy in South Africa.

DP requirements: Obtain a coursework mark of at least 35%, attend all tutorials and write all term tests.

Assessment: Coursework counts 30% and three-hour examination counts 70%

Supplementary examination: yes

Economics 317 (ECO 317) - Environmental Economics

Third-year, quarter module (NQF Level 7, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: ECO 101 and ECO 102 or ECO 1 with ECO 101 and ECO 102 aggregated

Course description: Scope and development of environmental economics; a model of the economy and the environment; the economics of pollution; measuring economic impacts on the environment; resource economics; sustainable development; issues and applications.

DP requirements: Obtain a coursework mark of at least 35%, attend all tutorials, submit the essay on or before the due date and write the test.

Assessment: Coursework counts 30% and three-hour examination counts 70%

Supplementary examination: yes

Economics 318 (ECO 318) - Mathematical Economics

Third-year, quarter module (NQF Level 7, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: ECO 201 and ECO 202 or ECO 2 with ECO 201 and ECO 202 aggregated

Course description: Analytic and mathematical models in economics; linear models; Leontief input-output analysis; optimisation - single and several variables with constraints; consumer theory; demand theory; expenditure minimisation; production theory; profit maximisation; equilibrium and its basic welfare properties; dynamical models of economic processes.

DP requirements: Obtain a coursework mark of at least 35%, attend all tutorials and write all term tests.

Assessment: Coursework counts 40% and three-hour examination counts 60%

Supplementary examination: yes

ECO 401 - Research Project

(NQF Level 8, 30 credits)

A research project of limited scope (in the form of a journal article) on an approved topic in economics to be selected by 28 February, handed in by 1 October, involving either a theoretical analysis or an application of economics. Empirical work is strongly recommended. A presentation of the results is to be made at the Departmental postgraduate conference. Candidates are encouraged to present a paper at an economics conference.

ECO 402 – Mathematical Economics

(NQF Level 8, 15 credits)

Analytic and mathematical models in economics; linear models; Leontief input-output analysis; optimisation - single and several variables with constraints; consumer theory; demand theory; expenditure minimisation; production theory; profit maximisation; equilibrium and its basic welfare properties; dynamical models of economic processes; constrained optimisation, integration and applications.

ECO 403 - Macroeconomics

(NQF Level 8, 15 credits)

Overview: uneven development and hegemony in the global economy since 1873; Keynes in the 1920s and 'the Marx in Keynes'; the Keynesian critique of Classical economics; The long run; The savings investment nexus and the East Asian model; The LM nexus and the global financial crisis; Dutch disease and premature de-industrialisation.

ECO 404 - Econometrics

(NQF Level 8, 15 credits)

Dynamic econometric modeling: distributed lag and autoregressive models, Granger causality; Time series econometrics: stationarity, unit root tests, cointegration, forecasting with ARIMA and VAR models; Simultaneous equation systems: simultaneous equation bias, the identification problem, indirect and two-stage least squares; Qualitative response models: LPM, logit and probit models; Panel data modeling: fixed versus random effects approaches.

ECO 405 - Monetary Economics

(NQF Level 8, 15 credits)

The monetary sector; money and credit; monetary theory (classical, Keynesian, portfolio models and post Keynesian); the demand for money; the transmission mechanism; the money supply process; theory and application of the definition of money; monetary policy; monetary control in South Africa; monetary vs inflation targeting.

ECO 406 - Growth and Technology

(NQF Level 8, 15 credits)

Technology and macroeconomic growth models; technical change and the economic system; the sources of innovation; the new manufacturing technologies; international differences in growth and technology; national systems of innovation; foreign direct investment and multinational corporations in developing countries; technology and industrial policy; government intervention in the market; South Africa: a case study.

ECO 407 - Financial Economics & Derivatives

(NQF Level 8, 15 credits)

Financial markets and the economy; portfolio theory; interest rate theory; capital market theory and the valuation of assets (the capital asset pricing model and arbitrage pricing); pricing of bonds and equities; the cost of capital, corporate finance and investment; money, bond and equity markets. Types of futures contracts; pricing of futures and the futures market; options; pricing of options including the Black- Scholes model; the regulation of financial markets; banking supervision and financial market efficiency.

ECO 408 - Political Economy and Labour

(NQF Level 8, 15 credits)

A preliminary organising framework: US and South African segmentalism and Swedish solidarism; Economic determinism, class and social exclusion; Welfare regimes; Collective bargaining structures, class conflict, and macroeconomic considerations; Education and training systems and the ideological state apparatus; Workplace issues: voice, systems of pay, corruption; A revised organising framework: Smith and Marx.

ECO 409 - Development Economics

(NQF Level 8, 15 credits)

The meaning and measurement of development; theories of economic development: mainstream and alternative perspectives on development; structural adjustment programmes; the post-Washington consensus; globalisation; role of the state in development; the role of institutions in development; sustainable development; development in the 21st Century; the developmental state; South African economic policy in relation to development.

ECO 410 - Environmental and Resource Economics

(NQF Level 8, 15 credits)

The application of economic principles to the valuation of environmental services and of degradation; the Environmental Kuznets Curve; Global Warming; natural resource valuation issues; economic sustainability; the development of Environmental Economics and of Ecological Economics.

ECO 411 - The development of capitalism in South Africa: history, theory and policy

(NQF Level 8, 15 credits)

History: Global, historical and comparative dimensions; sectoral trends and history; Theory: Liberal and early revisionist perspectives; other radical alternative perspectives; Policy: Evolution of economic policies; Social policy in historical context; Policy, power and politics - economic policy challenges of the post-apartheid period: Economic policy options; Politics, ideology and power relations.

ECO 412 - Trade and Industrial Policy

(NQF Level 8, 15 credits)

Historical background on the role of the state in development; Trade theory under imperfect competition and the case for a strategic trade and industrial policy; Industrial policy and the role of the manufacturing and services sectors in development; The articulation between macroeconomic and industrial policies; Economic concentration, competition policy and industrial development; Public procurement; Intellectual property rights; Technology, foreign direct investment and industrial policy; The WTO, the Doha Round and the shrinking of development policy space; Regional integration, industrial policy and South-South economic cooperation.

ECO 416 - Industrial Organisation

(NQF Level 8, 15 credits)

Origins of industrial organisation: the principle of total costs, the active firm, transaction costs and the firm; Market entry barriers: product differentiation, absolute cost advantage, economies of scale, imperfections in capital markets, other barriers; Market concentration: market share, concentration ratios, Herfindahl index; The theory of contestable markets; The market structure-conduct-performance (SCP) paradigm; Porter's five forces model; the Schumpeterian hypothesis; Behavioural theory of the firm; Evolutionary theory of the firm; Anti-trust laws/competition laws; Competition policy in South Africa; Alternative theories.

ECO 418 - Microeconomics

(NQF Level 8, 15 credits)

Introduction to game theory, oligopoly and bargaining; bounded rationality and private information; moral hazard and performance incentives; risk sharing and incentive contracts, rents and efficiency, ownership and property rights; production, information costs and economic organisation; auction theory; intertemporal microeconomics; outlook on industrial organisation and on recent developments in microeconomics.

ECO 504 - Debt and foreign exchange markets

Economics of the money market, its instruments, its functions and development; role of interest rates and monetary policy role of the central bank via the two interbank markets; risk-free rates and the relationship between money market rates and other interest rates; the microstructure of money market; international aspects. The bond market, its instruments, development, importance and international aspects; economics of the bond market; theory of pricing; term structure theories; emergence of the corporate sector in the bond market; role of the Bond Exchange of South Africa; microstructure of the bond market. The foreign exchange market; exchange rate theory and determinants; exchange rate systems; exchange rate policy in South Africa; participants, including importers, exporters, speculators, the foreign sector; microstructure of forex market; derivatives - hedging tools, such as the forex and currency swaps, forwards, futures.

ECO 505 - Equity and derivative markets

Equity market - primary and secondary markets; role of the regulator and the JSE as manager of the market; participants, mechanics of the market; microstructure of the equity market; theories of valuation of shares; efficiency of equity market; behaviour of prices; international aspects of the market. The financial derivatives market - forwards, futures, options, swaps, hybrids such as swaps, other such as weather and credit derivatives; valuation of derivatives; role of the exchange (Safex) and the regulator; use of markets - investors, hedgers, speculators, arbitrageurs; microstructure of the derivatives market.

ECO 506 - Portfolio theory and management

Macroeconomic analysis as it applies to financial markets; asset class analysis and strategic asset allocation as the first level of analysis; sector / industry analysis and security analysis; aspects of security analysis: financial statement analysis and ratio analysis; behavioural finance. Concepts, terminology and definitions in portfolio management; portfolio theory; modern approaches to portfolio management including resample efficiency; types of portfolio managers; asset classes; types of financial portfolios; life staging; portfolio monitoring including performance and risk attribution, statutory environment of the portfolio manager in South Africa.

ECO 507 - Financial institutions, financial regulations and monetary policy

This course is aimed at acquainting the student with the theories underlying the role of the financial system and institutions, financial regulation and monetary policy. The course is made up of three modules - financial institutions, financial regulation and monetary policy. The first module, financial institutions, covers asymmetric information and uncertainty, adverse selection and moral hazard, principal-agent theory, financial sector and macroeconomic performance, institutional aspects of financial sector development and private sector banking, operation and management of banks. The financial regulation module focuses on the theories and practice of financial regulation, drawing on South African experience. The third module focuses on the core theories underlying monetary policy formulation, analysis and implementation. The topics covered in this module are: central banking and monetary policy (goals, tools, targets, conflicts, independence and time consistency of policy); monetary aggregation; empirical models of money demand and money supply; theories of the interest rate; the monetary transmission mechanism; the international monetary system; and the practice of monetary policy formulation and implementation in South Africa, other developed and emerging market economies.

ECO 508 - Quantitative techniques in financial markets

The overall aim of this course is to acquaint students with modern quantitative techniques used in solving financial problems in a dynamic and complex financial environment. The course is made up of two modules - financial mathematics and financial econometrics.

Paper 1: Quantitative Finance

This course contains an introduction to selected mathematical principles that can be applied to the valuation of plain vanilla and exotic contingent claims on assets traded in various markets. Topics covered include asset price dynamics in a deterministic and stochastic setting, the risk-neutral pricing technique and the application of the finite differencing method to contingent claim valuation.

Paper 2: Financial Econometrics

The financial econometrics component focuses on the application of statistical and econometric methods in financial analyses. The module covers: univariate linear time series models (AR, MA, and ARIMA, Box Jenkins approach, forecasting using ARIMA models); multivariate models (simultaneous equation models and vector autoregressive models); long-run relations models (unit root testing, cointegration, and the error correction model); volatility modelling and forecasting (ARCH, GARCH, EGARCH etc.); and simulation (Monte Carlo simulation, bootstrapping).

POSTGRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN EDUCATION (Senior Phase and Further Education and Training Teaching)

Our aim in the professional preparation of our candidates is to develop critically reflective practitioners who have the capacity and the will to act as agents of appropriate change in the southern African context. The course consists of the following major components:

Educational Studies 9061100 (NQF 7, 42 credits)

This course offers an overview of many of the important issues in education. The aim is to provide students with a framework for understanding the field of education using sociological, philosophical and psychological lenses. The course explores aspects such as: classroom interaction and various classroom dynamics which includes micro-teaching in small peer groups; historical and contemporary aspects of South African education; environmental education and sustainability; human development, barriers to learning, mediating learning, curriculum processes, different pedagogical approaches, assessment, values, teachers' rights and responsibilities, organisational dimensions of schooling and educational technology.

Assessment: Class record 50% Examination 50%

Subminimum: 45% exam

Teaching Method Courses (NQF level 7, 24 credits)

A broad range of teaching method courses is offered. These are aligned to national curriculum policy. Each course aims to prepare prospective teachers to be able to teach a subject or learning area competently in a variety of situations. Students acquire a critical understanding of the curriculum and its philosophical underpinnings, and learn how to implement it in a practical and reflective manner. Students are encouraged to become innovative and inspirational teachers.

Assessment: Class record 50% Examination 50%

Subminimum: 45% exam

Teaching Practice (NQF level 7, 13 credits)

Students get a taste of a range of different schools, and finally spend the equivalent of a school term as fully integrated members of a school's staff. As such, they become involved in the academic, cultural, sporting and administrative activities of a particular institution, and so experience a full immersion into what it means to be a practicing professional.

Assessment: Observation, mentor teacher evaluation report, portfolio 100%

Community Engagement 9061102 (NQF level 7, 4 credits)

Service-learning and situational learning component of the PGCE that provides candidates with an opportunity to learn about context and to learn in context.

Endorsements

Endorsements are obtainable in the following: Computer Literacy, Educational Technologies and Languages. Teacher education certificates must give some indication of the ability of the holder to use any of the official languages of South Africa as a medium of instruction. Opportunities are provided during the year for students to obtain such endorsements in English, Afrikaans and isiXhosa.

BACHELOR OF EDUCATION (HONOURS) (NQF Level 8, 120 credits)

The BEd Honours qualification consists of two foundation courses in Year One and a specialism made up of two electives in Year Two. The degree is normally offered on a two-year part-time basis. It is intended to prepare candidates for research-based postgraduate studies in a particular field of education. It serves to consolidate and deepen candidates' expertise and theoretical engagement in educational practice, and develop research capacity in the methodology and techniques of educational research. The qualification is offered alternately in Makhanda and Okahandja, Namibia. In 2022, the foundation programme will be offered in Makhanda whilst the specialisms will be offered in Okahandja, Namibia.

FOUNDATION COURSES (Year 1)

The foundation programme comprises a 30-credit course called "Educational Ideas and Issues" and a 30-credit course called "Research in Education". Each of these courses is at NQF Level 8 and each is weighted as follows: coursework (50%) and an exam equivalent (50%).

Educational Ideas and Issues 9045000 (NQF level 8, 30 credits)

This compulsory course provides opportunities to analyse and evaluate educational ideas and issues relevant to a South and Southern African context using philosophical, psychological and sociological lenses. It will examine, inter alia, issues of equity (in relation to, for example, language, gender, culture and socio-economic status), the role of language in mediating learning, and issues relating to knowledge and knowing. Students' critical engagement with these issues and ideas will be underpinned by theories of teaching and learning (including, but not limited to, Piaget, Vygotsky, Bruner), debates around issues of quality in education, and in-depth consideration of the above in terms of curricular design and implementation. The course will also include philosophical, psychological and sociological perspectives on the role of values, creativity and democracy in education. Wherever possible, candidates will be required to consider these perspectives in relation to their own educational experience and context.

Research in Education 9045001 (NQF level 8, 30 credits)

In this compulsory course, students will “develop research capacity in the methodology and techniques of that discipline [Education]” (HEQSF, 2013), by “conducting and reporting research under supervision, worth at least 30 credits, in the form of a discrete research component” (MRTEQ, 2015). This course forms the discrete research component required according to the policy. The ‘Research in Education’ course is to be conducted as a supported educational research course, that is, through supervision, the student is closely guided through an independent research process, by means of selected readings and developmental on-course activities.

SPECIALISM COURSES (Year 2)

Below is a list of the specialisms. Each specialism is worth 60 credits and all are at NQF Level 8. The specialisms may not all be offered in any given year and are dependent on staff availability, timetabling and viable class sizes. Students have to have passed the foundation programme in order to gain entry into the specialisms. Specialisms are assessed through coursework (50%) and an exam equivalent (50%). The specialisms are:

Bilingual Education for Diversity and Access 9045002 theory, 9045003 research (NQF level 8, 60 credits) For the description of these courses, refer to THE INSTITUTE FOR THE STUDY OF THE ENGLISHES OF AFRICA (ISEA) section.

Curriculum Studies TBC (NQF level 8, 60 credits)

This specialism provides an overview of the core functions and characteristics and underpinnings of curriculum and pedagogy from a national and international perspective focusing on curriculum processes and the socio-political and economic drivers of national curriculum development and change in post-apartheid South Africa. It challenges students to critically analyse and evaluate their lived experiences of curriculum implementation and to critically analyse and evaluate curriculum policy and the emergent and ongoing issues associated with curriculum. Students will review contemporary curriculum research in southern Africa and engage in debate about decolonising and Africanising the curriculum.

Educational Leadership & Management theory, policy and practice 9045004 theory, 9045005 research (NQF level 8, 60 credits)

This specialism introduces students to the field of Educational Leadership and Management (ELM) and particularly distributed approaches to leadership which include the leadership of teachers, learners and parents. The specialism takes a strong cultural historical orientation to developing and researching leadership and students are challenged to develop more nuanced, contextually situated understandings of leadership through a small-scale qualitative research project.

English Language Teaching 9045013 theory, 9045014 research (60 credits, NQF level 8))

This research-based specialism introduces English Language educators to the broad field of English Studies and its three disciplines: Language, Literature and Culture, Communication and Media. The specialism is designed to encourage students to engage critically with theoretical, philosophical, and research-based studies of the English Studies field, and the implications for teaching, research, curriculum design and assessment, both within schooling and higher education contexts.

Geography Education TBC

This research-based specialism is designed for practicing geography educators wishing to re-orient school geography to education for sustainable development. It seeks to develop an understanding of contemporary challenges and developments in the field of Geography Education with a specific focus on curriculum. It addresses contemporary issues in Geography Education and looks at how professional skills can be enhanced through: change oriented pedagogical approaches; experiential learning; spatial conceptual understanding and graphicacy.

Information and Communication Technology (ICT) in Education 9045007 theory, 9045008 research (NQF level 8, 60 credits)

This research-based specialism is aimed at providing students with a wide range of knowledge, concepts and applications of ICT in education as well as fundamental research skills suited to researching the use of ICT in educational settings. It also aims to provide students with the opportunity to realise the social, ethical and legal issues pertaining to the use of ICT and appreciate how the sharing of knowledge using ICT influences decision-making.

Maths Education TBC (NQF level 8, 60 credits)

This specialism introduces mathematics educators to the systematic, research-based and critical study of mathematics education. It will consolidate and deepen students' expertise in the teaching and learning of mathematics and develop their capacity to undertake research into the practice of mathematics education. Students will engage in advanced reflection on current thinking, practice and research methods relating to mathematics teaching in particular phases and content areas.

Quality Teaching and Learning in Primary Education 9045009 theory, 9045010 research (NQF level 8, 60 credits)

This specialism is for primary school teachers, heads of departments, principals, subject advisors or education development officers. Its purpose is to orientate participants to contemporary debates and issues related to teaching and learning in primary schools. Participants will critically engage with the complex interrelationship between discourses on quality education, and the issues that mediate and impact quality teaching and learning. The specialisation culminates with a research project into quality teaching and learning practices in primary schools.

Science Education 9045011 theory, 9045012 research (NQF level 8, 60 credits)

This research-based specialism aims to enhance the study of science teaching and learning. It focuses on issues that are directly or indirectly related to science teaching and learning such as the active involvement of learners in practical activities, investigations and real-life experiences, science curriculum knowledge and discourse, as well as science literacy/multiliteracy. Other aspects of the specialism include human rights, inclusivity and issues of diversity as they relate to Science Education as well as the importance of Education for Sustainable Development and valuing of indigenous knowledge systems.

Environmental Science (ENV) is a four-semester subject which may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BEcon, BJourn and BA, subject to the conditions specified below.

The Department takes an inter/transdisciplinary approach to sustainable environmental management and aims to attract students from a variety of academic disciplines. Candidates who wish to major in Environmental Science should, however, structure their degrees around a specific sub-discipline of Environmental Science, for example biological resources, earth resources, water resources, environmental policy, environmental economics, or people and the environment. Their choice of additional subjects at the second and third level should thus reflect a specific focus.

To major in Environmental Science a candidate is required to obtain credit for the following first year level courses: EAR 101 and GOG 102, and one of ANT 1, BOT 1, ECO 1, GLG 1 or ZOO 1; followed by ENV 201 and ENV 202 at second year level, and then ENV 301 and ENV 302 at the third-year level.

An exception is made for Law students who, due to a timetable clash between Legal Theory 1 and EAR 101 and GOG 102, are permitted to enter ENV 201 and ENV 202 without having completed EAR 101 and GOG 102. Such students shall register for EAR 101 and GOG 102 concurrently with ENV201 and ENV 202. They must obtain credit for EAR 101, GOG 102, and ENV 2 in order to be eligible to register for ENV 3. See the Departmental Web Page <http://www.ru.ac.za/environmentalscience/> for further details, particularly on the content of courses.

Recommended curricula

The following are examples only. Not all the options and possible subject combinations are covered, and curricula are subject to timetable constraints. Students with particular interests are encouraged to discuss other possible course combinations with the Head of Department.

Where both semesters of a year course are recommended, the subject is indicated by its year number only, e.g. ENV 2 instead of ENV 201 and 202. GOG 1 is used instead of EAR 101 and GOG 102.

Curricula could, for example, be structured around one of the following sub-disciplines:

• Biological resources

Year 1: CHE 1; CEL 101; BOT 102; ZOO 102; EAR 101; GOG 102; STA 101.

Year 2: ENV 2; two of BOT 2, ENT 2, ICH 2, MIC 2 or ZOO 2.

Year 3: ENV 3; and one of BOT 3, ENT 3, ICH 3, MIC 3 or ZOO 3 depending on the choice of second year subjects.

• Earth resources

Year 1: CHE 1; CEL 101; BOT 102; EAR 101; GOG 102; GLG 102; MAN 101.

Year 2: ENV 2; GLG 2; GOG 2.

Year 3: ENV 3; GOG 3 or GLG 3.

● Water resources

Year 1: CHE 1; CEL 101; ZOO 102 or BOT 102; EAR 101; GOG 102; GLG 102; MAN 101.

Year 2: ENV 2; one of GLG 2 or GOG 2; and one of BOT 2, ZOO 2 or ENT 2.

Year 3: ENV 3; GLG 3 or GOG 3.

● People and the environment

Year 1: ANT 1; CEL 101; ZOO 102; BOT 102; EAR 101; GOG 102; STA 101.

Year 2: ENV 2; ANT 2; ECO 1; GOG 2.

Year 3: ENV 3; ANT 3 or ECO 3.

● Environmental Economics

See the BEcon calendar entry under the Faculty of Commerce.

● Environmental Law

Year 1: Legal Theory 1; ECO 1; ANT 1; BOT 1 or ZOO 1

Year 2: Legal Theory 2; ENV 2; GOG 2

Year 3: Legal Theory 3; ENV 3

Note: These are illustrative curricula only and students must ensure that they have the correct number of NQF credits to meet their respective faculty needs.

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE

There are two second-year level courses in Environmental Science. ENV 201 is normally taught in the first semester and ENV 202 in the second semester. Credit for each course can be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to the year-long course ENV 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required 35% sub-minimum in each component (i.e. the class mark and for each exam) and obtains DP. However, students who wish to major in Environmental Science must obtain credit for both ENV 201 and ENV 202. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course. Practical reports, essays, seminars and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark.

Geography (EAR 101 and GOG 102) and either Anthropology (ANT 1), Botany (CEL 101 and BOT 102), Economics (ECO 1), Geology (GLG 1) or Zoology (CEL 101 and ZOO 102) are required before a student may register for ENV 201 or ENV 202, other than for Law students. These students shall register for EAR 101 and GOG 102 concurrently with ENV201 and ENV 202. Adequate performance in ENV 201 (i.e., obtains the required 35% sub-minimum and DP) is required before a student may register for ENV 202.

ENV 201 (Foundations of Environmental Science)

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: EAR 101 and GOG 102, and one of ANT 1, BOT 1, ECO 1, GLG 1 or ZOO 1.

Course description: ENV 201 provides the conceptual foundation for all other courses in Environmental Science, and covers the following topics: integrated perspectives on environmental issues; ecosystem services and human well-being; characteristics of complex adaptive social-ecological systems, introduction to inter/transdisciplinary and local ecological knowledge; ecosystem services and human well-being; complexity; social-ecological systems; planetary boundaries and sustainability; social systems; economic valuation of natural resources; ecological systems. Practicals: interaction between social, economic and ecological components of the environment. Students will be required to undertake compulsory field site visits during one weekend as part of their practicals.

DP requirements: The following DP requirements are applied within the Department of Environmental Science. (1) Attend all practicals and 80% of the lectures; (2) hand in all assignments for marking on the due date. Any assignments handed in late without prior permission from the lecturer concerned will be penalised by a deduction of 10% per day or part thereof; (3) a sub-minimum of 35% in the year mark, and (4) a sub-minimum of 35% in each written examination. A student obtaining less than 35% in any examination will be deemed to have failed the course irrespective of their final aggregated mark for the semester course.

Assessment: Class record 64%, Examinations 36%
Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with ENV 202 but cannot proceed to ENV 3 without passing both ENV 201 and ENV 202

Class attendance: at least 80%

ENV 202 (Global Environmental Challenges and Policies)

Second-year, second-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% ENV 201

Course description: The ENV 202 course is designed to cover a selection of current major global issues and challenges in environmental science. The purpose of the course is to apply interdisciplinary skills, systems approaches and perspectives to analyse and understand environmental issues and policies of global and local concern. Critical analysis and consideration of counter-viewpoints, from a systems perspective, is central. This will be done at different spatial and temporal scales. The skills covered in Environmental Science 201 are particularly relevant, especially those relating to systems analysis, team work, and interdisciplinarity as well as rigorous and in-depth critical analysis and thinking. Practicals: a variety of different classroom and field exercises pertaining to the issues covered in lectures.

DP requirements: The following DP requirements are applied within the Department of Environmental Science. (1) Attend all practicals and 80% of the lectures; (2) hand in all assignments for marking on the due date. Any assignments handed in late without prior permission from the lecturer concerned will be penalised by a deduction of 10% per day or part thereof; (3) a sub-minimum of 35% in the year mark, and (4) a sub-minimum of 35% in each written examination. A student obtaining less 35% in any examination will be deemed to have failed the course irrespective of their final aggregated mark for the semester course.

Assessment: Class record 64%, Examinations 36%
Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November: 40% for aggregation with ENV 201

Class attendance: at least 80%

THIRD-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE

There are two third-year level courses in Environmental Science. ENV 301 is normally taught in the first semester and ENV 302 in the second semester. Credit for each course can be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to the year-long course ENV 3, provided that a candidate obtains the required 35% sub-minimum in each component (i.e. the class mark and each exam) and obtains DP. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course, unless ENV 301 or ENV 302 is the student's last outstanding semester course, wherein a special exam may be written. Practical reports, essays, seminars and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark. Students will be required to plan, execute and write up a mini-research project starting in the first term and spanning the whole academic year.

There is one compulsory weekend field trip during the first semester. Environmental Science 2 (ENV 201 and ENV 202) is required before a student may register for ENV 301 or ENV 302. Concurrent registration is not allowed for second-year and third-year courses in Environmental Science. In addition, candidates must have satisfied the prerequisites for ENV 201 and ENV 202.

ENV 301 (Integrated environmental management for sustainability)

Third-year, first-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: ENV 2 (both ENV 201 and ENV 202)

Course description: This course focuses on sustainable natural resource management in practice. The aim is to develop applied professional skills, coupled with rigorous analysis, to promote more effective environmental thinking and management. The emphasis is on conceptual frameworks to evaluate, understand and study environmental impacts and resource use patterns. (Concepts include political ecology, integrated landscape management, adaptive management, participatory natural resource management, adaptive co-management, etc.). The course also focuses on environmental methods for collection, analysis and interpretation of data to support environmental management and decision-making. The aim is to develop applied professional skills, coupled with rigorous analysis, to promote effective environmental management. Each topic is illustrated by up to date examples. Practicals: the practical application of the course will be incorporated into the year-long mini- research project. Field visits may take place over a limited number of weekends.

DP requirements: The following DP requirements are applied within the Department of Environmental Science. (1) Attend all practicals and 80% of the lectures; (2) hand in all assignments for marking on the due date. Any assignments handed in late without prior permission from the lecturer concerned will be penalised by a deduction of 10% per day or part thereof; (3) a sub-minimum of 35% in the year mark, and (4) a sub-minimum of 35% in each written examination. A student obtaining less 35% in any examination will be deemed to have failed the course irrespective of their final aggregated mark for the semester course. Assessment: Class record 64%, Examinations 36% Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with ENV 302
Class attendance: at least 80%

ENV 302 (Environmental monitoring and monitoring systems)

Third-year, second-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% ENV 301

Course description: This course builds on the foundations laid in ENV 2 in terms of systems thinking, interdisciplinarity and the scientific analysis of environmental challenges and on the integrated management approaches covered in ENV 301. The focus is on the design and implementation of environmental monitoring systems appropriate at different spatial and temporal scales integrating across the biological, social and economic components of an environmental system. Examples will include industrial, terrestrial and aquatic systems and different types of monitoring approaches. The course also covers sustainability assessments, strategic environmental assessment, environmental management programme reports, ISO 14000 and environmental impact assessment. Practicals: the practical application of the course will be incorporated into the year-long mini-research project. Field visits may take place over a limited number of weekends.

DP requirements: The following DP requirements are applied within the Department of Environmental Science. (1) Attend all practicals and 80% of the lectures; (2) hand in all assignments for marking on the due date. Any assignments handed in late without prior permission from the lecturer concerned will be penalised by a deduction of 10% per day or part thereof; (3) a sub-minimum of 35% in the year mark, and (4) a sub-minimum of 35% in each written examination. A student obtaining less 35% in any examination will be deemed to have failed the course irrespective of their final aggregated mark for the semester course.

Assessment: Class record 64%, Examinations 36% Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November: 40% for aggregation with ENV 301

Class attendance: at least 80%

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE HONOURS

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Course description: The Honours course in Environmental Science is designed as an interdisciplinary programme. It consists of four modules selected from a list of available options along with a short course in Statistics. Additionally, candidates undertake an independent research project. The course may be done full-time over one academic year, or, rarely, part-time over two academic years with the agreement of the Head of Environmental Science. Tuition emphasis is on self- learning guided through lectures, tutorials, seminars and practical work. Students are encouraged to work in interdisciplinary teams and to address practical, “real life” issues in their projects and seminars. A limited number of students are selected annually on the basis of academic excellence, previous experience, and qualifications in environment-related fields, group diversity and staff availability. Candidates must be in possession of an appropriate Bachelor's degree, majoring in at least one of the following: Anthropology, Botany, Economics, Environmental Science, Entomology, Geography, Geology, Ichthyology, Microbiology or Zoology. Preference will be given to applicants with undergraduate Environmental Science qualifications and/or with applicable practical experience. For internal (RU) applicants, adequate performance and participation in ENV 3 is necessary.

Students may be required to attend blocks of lectures and practicals before the official commencement of the first term (typically the last week of January or first week of February) and during vacations. This usually takes the form of a compulsory field trip of 5-10 days. Candidates should consult the Head of Department in this regard before registering for the course.

Students may consider registering for a joint course with other relevant departments.

DP requirements: (1) Sub-minimum of 40% for the research project; (2) sub-minimum of 35% for each module, and (3) attend the honours fieldtrip.

Assessment: Assessments comprise a statistical exam, a year-long research project, including a written and verbal research proposal, a final research paper, a paper presentation, and a popular article. Students select four modules, weighted 12.5 % of their overall course value (see below for module descriptions). Module coordinators set assignments such as essays, tests, reports, and verbal presentations as assessment tasks. All modules have exams, or assignments that replace exams, in the semesters they are offered.

Supplementary exam: None

Modules

The short course in Statistics must be taken by all students. For the optional modules, candidates must select four from the list of available modules, with at least two Environmental Science modules. The list changes from year to year, and not all are available to part-time candidates. Some modules are offered by Departments collaborating with Environmental Science and candidates should discuss their options with the course-coordinator and Head of Department and, where applicable, with the staff member offering that module. Modules offered by Environmental Science may include: land degradation neutrality, biodiversity, non-timber forest products and rural livelihoods; ecological modelling; environmental impact assessment; urban forestry; people and protected areas, scenarios, planning social-ecological protected areas, urban ecology, food security, and restoration ecology. The Geography department offers GIS for students who have completed GOG 3. The Institute for Water Research offers environmental water quality. Modules offered by Economics Department: environmental and resource economics. Additional suitable environmental related modules may be available in other departments at the time of registration, and prospective candidates should consult with the Head of Department and Honours Coordinator regarding the availability and choice of such modules. Students will also undertake a research project related to their selected courses.

MASTER'S AND DOCTORAL DEGREES

Suitably qualified students are encouraged to proceed to the research degrees of MSc (NQF level 9, 180 credits), MA (180 credits at NQF level 9) and PhD (NQF level 10, 360 credits) under the direction of the staff of the Department. Requirements for the MSc, MA and PhD degrees are given in the General Rules. An Environmental Science Master's degree is by dissertation. It has four distinguishing characteristics:

- the research and dissertation deal with integrative
- ecological, social and economic systems;
- it incorporates the concept of sustainability,
- e.g. sustainable use and management of the environment and sustainable consumption and living;
- it addresses issues affecting people's quality of life and their livelihoods;
- it is interdisciplinary, i.e. it is not confined to a single academic discipline, and is often linked to a broader programme with several related projects.

The following candidates are eligible to register:

- applicants in possession of an Honours degree in Environmental Science; if Rhodes University Honours graduates, adequate performance and participation in the Honours year is necessary;
- applicants with a good Honours degree in any other discipline which has covered either biological, physical, human or economic aspects of the environment;
- environmental practitioners with an appropriate Bachelor's degree in an environmental discipline, plus a minimum of two years relevant practical experience, at the discretion of the Head of Department and Senate;
- environmental practitioners without a Bachelor's degree, but with 5-10 years in-depth experience and proven achievements and skills in an environmental field, may be admitted as Ad Eundem Gradum students at the discretion of the Head of Department and Senate.

Students also have the option of attending appropriate undergraduate and Honours modules during their period of registration. Part-time students should aim to spend two to four months on campus at the early stage of registration and another two to four months during the final writing-up stage.

Master's in Business Administration - Environmental Electives

The Rhodes MBA is designed to enable practising and potential managers to succeed in creating, developing and directing successful organizations in a competitive business environment. The Rhodes MBA is now able to offer business the opportunity to engage with the challenges of sustainable development and environmental management through its new electives programme. Details of the six environmental electives can be found under the Faculty of Commerce.

The Department of Fine Art, which is part of the Faculty of Humanities, provides comprehensive tuition in the practical, theoretical and historical aspects of the visual arts. Our courses ensure a solid grounding for those wanting to pursue careers as professional artists, but are equally valuable to those with an interest in arts education and a wide variety of creative industries - including arts administration, community arts, design, and curation. Most undergraduate students enrol for a BFA, a professional 4-year honours-equivalent degree. But our courses are also open to BA students, and students from other Faculties, who may benefit from the creative problem-solving, visual literacy, and/or practice-based research methodologies foregrounded in our course offerings.

Fine Art Practice courses are those in which students engage with art making, and the professional practice aspects of art making. Art History & Visual Culture courses do not involve the making of art but are studies in the theory and history of visual representations.

Bachelor of Fine Art students must major in both Fine Art Practice and Art History & Visual Culture, and should thus enrol for Fine Art Practice and Art History & Visual Culture concurrently.

Non-BFA students may study Fine Art Practice without Art History & Visual Culture, but can only take Fine Art Practice as a minor in this case (at a first-year level or to a second-year level). To major in Fine Art Practice, students must have a corresponding major in Art History & Visual Culture.

Non-BFA students may study Art History & Visual Culture independently without also studying Fine Art Practice - either as a major or for only one or two years.

UNDERGRADUATE COURSES OFFERED BY THE DEPARTMENT

FINE ART PRACTICE

Fine Art Practice 1A (FAP1A)

First-year, full-year course (NQF level 5, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: Art portfolio approved by HoD. Bachelor of Fine Art students should take both FAP1A and FAP1B, as well as Art History & Visual Culture 1 (AHV1) (see below). Non-BFA students may take FAP1A as a standalone credit, with or without FAP1B, and with or without AHV1.

Course description: Fine Art Practice 1A serves as an introduction to practical, art-making skills across the media areas of Painting, Sculpture, Printmedia, Digital Arts and Photography. The course comprises a series of directed projects, covering both 'traditional' and 'new' media.

DP requirements: Submission of all course projects, 80% attendance of compulsory timetabled periods, submission of all work for mid-year and final exam assessment.

Assessment: Two assessments, one in mid-year and one at the end of the year. Mid-year assessment counts 25% towards final mark.

Supplementary exam: No

Sub-minimum for June: N/A

Fine Art Practice 1B (FAP1B)

First-year, full-year course (NQF level 5, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: Art portfolio approved by HoD. Bachelor of Fine Art students should take both

FAP1A and FAP1B, as well as Art History & Visual Culture 1 (AHV1) (see below). Non-BFA students may take FAP1A as a standalone credit, with or without FAP1B, and with or without AHV1. However, FAP1B cannot be taken as a standalone credit – it can only be taken concurrently with FAP1A.

Course description: Fine Art Practice 1B is an introduction to the professional practice aspects of art-making, and is specifically for Bachelor of Fine Art students. It introduces students to a range of professional practice skills, including drawing, story-boarding and project planning; proposal writing and design; documentation and cataloguing; portfolio development, and so forth.

DP requirements: Submission of all course projects, 80% attendance of compulsory timetabled periods, submission of all work for mid-year and final exam assessment.

Assessment: Two assessments, one in mid-year and one at the end of the year. Mid-year assessment counts 25% towards final mark.

Supplementary exam: No

Sub-minimum for June: N/A

Fine Art Practice 2A (FAP2A)

Second-year, full-year course (NQF level 6, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: At least FAP1A. Bachelor of Fine Art students should take both FAP2A and FAP2B, as well as Art History & Visual Culture 2 (AHV2) (see below). Non-BFA students may take FAP2A as a minor credit, with or without FAP2B, and with or without AHV2.

Course description: Fine Art Practice 2A extends and develops students' practical, art-making skills across the media areas of Painting, Sculpture, Printmedia, Digital Arts and Photography. For the most part, the course follows an elective-based structure: students choose between two projects offered concurrently, thus testing and honing their preferences for working in particular media.

DP requirements: Submission of all course projects, 80% attendance of compulsory timetabled periods, submission of all work for mid-year and final exam assessment.

Assessment: Two assessments, one in mid-year and one at the end of the year. Mid-year assessment counts 25% towards final mark.

Supplementary exam: No

Sub-minimum for June: N/A

Fine Art Practice 2B (FAP2B)

Second-year, full-year course (NQF level 6, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: At least FAP1A; preferably FAP1A and FAP1B. Bachelor of Fine Art students should take both FAP2A and FAP2B, as well as Art History & Visual Culture 2 (AHV2) (see below). Non-BFA students may take FAP2A as a minor credit, with or without FAP2B, and with or without AHV2. However, FAP2B cannot be taken as a standalone credit – it can only be taken concurrently with FAP2A.

Course description: Fine Art Practice 2B extends and develops students' professional practice skills, and is specifically for Bachelor of Fine Art students. Projects enable students to hone their expertise in areas such as drawing, story-boarding and project planning; proposal writing and design; documentation and cataloguing; portfolio development, and so forth.

DP requirements: Submission of all course projects, 80% attendance of compulsory timetabled periods, submission of all work for mid-year and final exam assessment.

Assessment: Two assessments, one in mid-year and one at the end of the year. Mid-year assessment counts 25% towards final mark.

Supplementary exam: No

Sub-minimum for June: N/A

Fine Art Practice 3 (FAP3)

Third-year, full-year course (NQF level 7, 60 credits)

Entrance requirements: At least FAP2A; preferably FAP2A and FAP2B.

Course description: Fine Art Practice 3 enables students to work more concertedly in particular media, in the broadly defined media areas of Painting, Sculpture, Printmedia, Digital Arts and Photography. Students are also encouraged to work across media as this suits their purposes. The course aims to develop students' technical skills alongside their professional practice, and self-reflexivity as creative practitioners.

DP requirements: Submission of all course projects, 80% attendance of compulsory timetabled periods, submission of all work for mid-year and final exam assessment.

Assessment: Two assessments, one in mid-year and one at the end of the year. Mid-year assessment counts 25% towards final mark.

Supplementary exam: No

Sub-minimum for June: N/A

Fine Art Practice 4 (FAP4)

Fourth-year, full-year course (NQF level 8, 60 credits)

Entrance requirements: FAP3.

Course description: Fine Art Practice 4 is undertaken by Bachelor of Fine Art students as a core component of their final year, alongside Art History & Visual Culture 4 (AHV4). The course is largely self-directed, and lecturers facilitate and support students' development of a cohesive body of work, culminating in a solo exhibition.

DP requirements: 80% attendance of compulsory timetabled periods.

Assessment: A work-in-progress assessment in mid-year, and summative assessment at the end of the year.

Supplementary exam: No

Sub-minimum for June: N/A

ART HISTORY & VISUAL CULTURE

Art History & Visual Culture 101 (AHV101)

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Art History & Visual Culture None.

Course description: Art History & Visual Culture 101 introduces the subject of 'art history and visual culture', developing practical skills in reading and looking as well as the politics of visibility and representation within a South African context.

DP requirements: Submission of all course assessment tasks, 80% attendance of lectures and tutorials.

Assessment: Coursework counts 100%

Supplementary assessment: June result 40 – 49%

Sub-minimum for aggregation: 40%

Art History & Visual Culture 102 (AHV102)

First-year, second-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Art History & Visual Culture None.

Course description: Art History & Visual Culture 102 engages with the colonial realities of Western Art History and the politics of representation while developing critical skills in the visual analysis of arts and visual culture.

DP requirements: Submission of all course assessment tasks, 80% attendance of lectures and tutorials.

Assessment: Coursework counts 100%

Supplementary assessment: November result 40 – 49%

Sub-minimum for aggregation: 40%

Art History & Visual Culture 2 (AHV2)

Second-year, full-year course (NQF level 6, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: At least one of AHV101 and AHV102.

Course description: Art History & Visual Culture 2 examines the concept of authorship in artistic practice.

DP requirements: Submission of all course assessment tasks, 80% attendance of lectures and tutorials.

Assessment: Coursework counts 100%

Supplementary assessment: November result 40 – 49%

Sub-minimum for June: 40%

Art History & Visual Culture 3 (AHV3)

Third-year, full-year course (NQF level 7, 60 credits)

Entrance requirements: AHV2

Course description: The course focuses on the overall theme of "Art, Power and Society", deconstructing various politics of display, discourse and visual languages at work in the field of visual arts and culture.

DP requirements: Submission of all course assessment tasks, 80% attendance of lectures and tutorials.

Assessment: Coursework counts 100%

Supplementary assessment: November result 40 – 49%

Sub-minimum for June: 40%

Art History & Visual Culture 4 (AHV4)

Fourth-year, full-year course (NQF level 8, 60 credits)

Entrance requirements: AHV3.

Course description: Art History & Visual Culture 4 is undertaken by Bachelor of Fine Art students as a core component of their final year, alongside Fine Art Practice 4. It comprises two research seminars and an independently researched long essay. The course aims to consolidate students' critical, writing and researching skills through a sustained research enquiry.

DP requirements: Submission of all course assessment tasks, 80% attendance of lectures and tutorials.

Assessment: Coursework counts 100%

Supplementary assessment: November result 40 – 49%

Sub-minimum for June: 40%

POST-GRADUATE STUDIES OFFERED BY THE DEPARTMENT

Honours in Art History & Visual Culture

(NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance requirements: A completed NQF level 7 degree, normally with Art History & Visual Culture (or similar) as a major.

Course description: This course comprises a series of papers, as well as an independently researched long essay (of approximately 10 000-15 000 words).

Master of Arts in Art History

(NQF level 9, 180 credits)

Entrance requirements: A completed NQF level 8 honours degree, or honours-equivalent degree, normally in Art History, Fine Art or similar.

Course description: Students write a thesis of up to 50 000 words on a topic within the broadly-defined field of Art History, approved by the Supervisor and the Humanities Higher Degrees Committee. Examination is by thesis only. The General Rules and the Faculty of Humanity's rules governing Master's degrees by thesis apply.

Master of Fine Art

(NQF level 9, 180 credits)

Entrance requirements: A completed NQF level 8 honours degree, or honours-equivalent degree, normally in Fine Art or similar.

Option 1: Practice as Research

Course description: The degree is by Practice as Research and mini-thesis. The candidate produces an exhibition or installation of original work as well as a mini thesis of 12 000 – 15 000 words positioning this artwork in relation to an existent body of work or theory. The two components form an integrated submission. The proposed area of investigation must be approved by the Supervisor and the Humanities Higher Degrees Committee. The completed mini thesis must be submitted to the Registrar's Division at least three days before the exhibition is submitted for examination. A detailed set of departmental Rules concerning the exhibition and mini thesis is given to each candidate.

Option 2: Curatorial Practice

Course description: The degree is by Curatorial Practice and thesis, and caters specifically for candidates looking to develop their capacities and understanding of professional curatorial practices. A candidate is required to curate an exhibition (rather than producing an exhibition of own work) in an established art museum or gallery and to develop a thesis of between 25 000 and 30 000 words exploring the curatorial theme, logistic approach, and exhibition strategy. The final mark for the degree comprises 50% for the exhibition and 50% for the thesis. The proposed area of investigation must be approved by the Supervisor and the Humanities Higher Degrees Committee. The completed thesis must be submitted to the Registrar's Division at least two weeks before the exhibition is submitted for examination. A detailed set of departmental Rules concerning the exhibition and thesis is given to each candidate.

Doctor of Philosophy in Art History

(NQF level 10, 360 credits)

Entrance requirements: A completed NQF level 9 master's degree, normally in Art History or similar; plus recent writing samples. Students who have completed a MFA rather than a MA may qualify for entrance into the degree if they demonstrate strong abilities in relevant history and theory.

Course description: Students write a thesis on an approved topic within the broadly-defined field of Art History. The General Rules and the Faculty of Humanity's Rules governing Doctoral Degrees apply.

Doctor of Philosophy in Fine Art

(NQF level 10, 360 credits)

Entrance requirements: A completed NQF level 9 master's degree, in Fine Art/Visual Art or similar; plus a portfolio of recent work.

Course description: Students produce a body of creative practice and a thesis, conceptualised and developed as an integrated, practice-based research endeavour. The General Rules and the Faculty of Humanity's Rules governing Doctoral Degrees apply.

Additional Faculty rules will be amended as follows:

FINE ART

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF FINE ART

See the General Rules applicable to all Faculties. The following Rules apply to the Department of Fine Art only. Except as provided in General Rules

G.44 to G.48 candidates shall not be admitted to the degree unless they have attended courses subsequent to their first registration as a matriculated student for at least four years.

FIRST YEAR

Fine Art Practice 1A

Fine Art Practice 1A serves as an introduction to practical, art-making skills across the media areas of Painting, Sculpture, Printmedia, Digital Arts and Photography. The course comprises a series of directed projects, covering both 'traditional' and 'new' media.

Fine Art Practice 1B

Fine Art Practice 1B is an introduction to the professional practice aspects of art-making, and is specifically for Bachelor of Fine Art students.

It introduces students to a range of professional practice skills, including drawing, story-boarding and project planning; proposal writing and design; documentation and cataloguing; portfolio development, and so forth.

Art History & Visual Culture 101

Art History & Visual Culture 101 introduces the subject of 'art history and visual culture', developing practical skills in reading and looking as well as the politics of visibility and representation within a South African context.

Art History & Visual Culture 102

Art History & Visual Culture 102 engages with the colonial realities of Western Art History and the politics of representation while developing critical skills in the visual analysis of arts and visual culture.

SECOND YEAR

Fine Art Practice 2A

Fine Art Practice 2A extends and develops students' practical, art-making skills across the media areas of Painting, Sculpture, Printmedia, Digital Arts and Photography. For the most part, the course follows an elective-based structure: students choose between two projects offered concurrently, thus testing and honing their preferences for working in particular media.

Fine Art Practice 2B

Fine Art Practice 2B extends and develops students' professional practice skills, and is specifically for Bachelor of Fine Art students. Projects enable students to hone their expertise in areas such as drawing, story-boarding and project planning; proposal writing and design; documentation and cataloguing; portfolio development, and so forth.

Art History & Visual Culture 2

Art History & Visual Culture 2 examines the concept of authorship in artistic practice.

THIRD YEAR

Fine Art Practice 3

Fine Art Practice 3 enables students to work more concertedly in particular media, in the broadly defined media areas of Painting, Sculpture, Printmedia, Digital Arts and Photography. Students are also encouraged to work across media as this suits their purposes. The course aims to develop students' technical skills alongside their professional practice, and self-reflexivity as creative practitioners.

Art History & Visual Culture 3

The course focuses on the overall theme of “Art, Power and Society”, deconstructing various politics of display, discourse and visual languages at work in the field of visual arts and culture.

FOURTH YEAR

Fine Art Practice 4

Fine Art Practice 4 is undertaken by Bachelor of Fine Art students as a core component of their final year, alongside Art History & Visual Culture 4 (AHV4). The course is largely self-directed, and lecturers facilitate and support students’ development of a cohesive body of work, culminating in a solo exhibition.

Art History & Visual Culture 4

Art History & Visual Culture 4 is undertaken by Bachelor of Fine Art students as a core component of their final year, alongside Fine Art Practice 4. It comprises two research seminars and an independently researched long essay. The course aims to consolidate students’ critical, writing and researching skills through a sustained research enquiry.

FINE ART OPTIONS FOR DEGREES OTHER THAN BFA

NOTE: Non-BFA students may study Fine Art Practice without Art History & Visual Culture, but can only take Fine Art Practice as a minor in this case (at a first-year level or to a second-year level). To major in Fine Art Practice, students must have a corresponding major in Art History & Visual Culture. Non-BFA students may study Art History & Visual Culture independently without also studying Fine Art Practice - either as a major or for only one or two years.

* Non-BFA students may take Fine Art Practice 1A, with or without Fine Art Practice 1B, and with or without Art History & Visual Culture. Non-BFA students may continue to Fine Art Practice 2A, with or without Fine Art Practice 2B, and with or without Art History & Visual Culture, but would not be able to proceed to Fine Art Practice 3 without a corresponding major in Art History & Visual Culture.

* Non-BFA students may only major in Fine Art Practice if they also major in Art History & Visual Culture.

* Non-BFA students may study Art History & Visual Culture without studying Fine Art Practice, either as a major or for one or two years.

Diploma in Fine Art

A candidate for the diploma shall attend the University for not less than four years after being admitted to the course, and must obtain credit in all the following courses:

First Year: Fine Art Practice 1A, Art History & Visual Culture 1

Second Year: Fine Art Practice 2A, Art History & Visual Culture 2

Third Year: Fine Art Practice 3, Art History & Visual Culture 3

Fourth Year: Fine Art Practice 4, Art History & Visual Culture 4

Examination for Fine Art Practice will be assessed as follows:

In the first, second and third year, work will be examined via two assessments, one in midyear and one at the end of the year. Midyear assessment counts 25% towards final mark. In fourth year, work will be examined via work-in-progress assessment in midyear, and summative assessment at the end of the year.

Geography (GOG) is a six-semester subject that may be taken as a major for the degrees of BSc, BA, BJourn and BSocSc.

To major in Geography, a candidate is required to obtain credits for the following courses: EAR 101; GOG 102; GOG 201; GOG 202; GOG 301; and GOG 302. See Rule S.23. At the discretion of the Head of Department students may replace one third level course with an acceptable alternative course deemed to be its equivalent.

EAR 101 and GOG 102 are pre-requisites for students majoring in Environmental Science (ENV), details of which are given in a separate entry.

Students are expected to participate in Departmental excursions. Costs are kept as low as possible. Honours students are encouraged to attend the South African Student Geographical Conference, held at a different university each year. See the Departmental Web Page (<http://www.ru.ac.za/geography>) for further details, particularly on the content of courses.

FIRST-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN GEOGRAPHY

Geography 1 consists of two first-year semester courses, namely Earth Science 101 (jointly taught by the Geography and Geology Departments) and Geography 102 (Exploring Global Human Geographies), typically taught in the first and second semesters, respectively. Students who take both Geography 1 and Geology 1 will have to take an additional semester course in an appropriate subject during the first semester to ensure that they have enough NQF credits for their degree. Each semester course may be obtained separately. In addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed equivalent to a year-long course GOG 1, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component. However, students wishing to major in Geography must normally obtain both semester-courses components separately. Supplementary examinations may be recommended in either course, provided that a candidate achieves a minimum standard specified by the Department.

These courses provide a sound foundation for the student majoring in Geography and for the student studying Geography for one year. Practical work, including fieldwork, tutorials are integral parts of both courses that reinforce themes covered in lectures and ensure that academic and geographic literacy are developed within the curriculum. Students reading for an "Environmental Law" degree (i.e. with Environmental Science and Law as majors) may complete EAR 101 and GOG 102 in their second year of study, as both these courses have timetable clashes with first-year Law modules.

A mark of at least 50% for Geography in the National Senior Certificate (or equivalent) is recommended for entry into Earth Science. Students may not register for Geography 102 unless they have met the subminimum requirements in both the theory and practical papers (35%) for EAR 101, or a mark of at least 50% in Geography in the National Senior Certificate (or equivalent).

EAR 101

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: 50% NSC Geography, or Maths, or Physical Science, or Biology.

Course description: Introduction to Earth Systems. This course introduces the processes that have shaped the Earth and its environment over both geological and recent time scales. The interrelationships between the Earth, the atmosphere, and living organisms form key themes through the course. EAR 101 comprises five lectures/tutorials, plus one three-hour practical per week.

DP requirements: Over 80% lecture attendance; attendance and completion of ALL tutorials, assignments and practicals.

Assessment: Class record 50%, Examination 50%

Supplementary exam: 35% subminimum

Subminimum for June: 35%, and 40% for aggregation with GOG 102

GOG 102

First-year, second-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: 35% EAR 101 or 50% NSC Geography

Course description: Exploring Global Human Geographies. This course examines key concepts and understanding within Human Geography that serve as an introduction to the sub-discipline. Space and place are considered fundamental to an understanding of human societies and structures. Key themes include: modes of production and consumption; demography and migration; inequalities and development; globalisation; and exploration of urban and rural spaces within historical, political, economic, social and spatial contexts. GOG 102 comprises five lectures/tutorials, plus one three-hour practical per week.

DP requirements: Over 80% lecture attendance; attendance and completion of ALL tutorials, assignments and practicals.

Assessment: Class record 50%, Examination 50%
Supplementary exam: 40%

Subminimum for November: 40% for aggregation with EAR 101

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN GEOGRAPHY

There are two independent second-year courses in Geography. GOG 201 is normally held in the first semester and GOG 202 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-long course GOG 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required subminimum in each component. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course.

Practical work is an integral part of both courses and is related to the relevant lecture courses and the development of research techniques.

Both GOG 102 and EAR 101 are required before a student may register for GOG 201 or GOG 202. At the discretion of the Head of Department, students who have an aggregated pass of at least 60% for GOG 1 (i.e. EAR 101 plus GOG 102) may be allowed to register for GOG 201 and GOG 202.

GOG 201

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: EAR 101 50% and GOG 101 50% (or GOG 1 60%)

Course description: Space and place in Southern Africa 1. This course examines the key processes that determine the physical and human geography of southern Africa. Concepts, theories and examples from other regions will be used where appropriate to help us understand the southern African experience. Contemporary issues such as environmental change and associated problems of human development will be examined. Selected human and physical geographical perspectives are used to understand the rural and urban landscapes. The complementary course for GOG 201 is GOG 202, and it comprises five lectures/tutorials, plus one three-hour practical per week.

DP requirements: Over 80% lecture attendance; attendance and completion of ALL tutorials, assignments and practicals.

Assessment: Class record 50%, Examination 50%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with GOG 202

GOG 202

Second-year, second-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: EAR 101 50%, GOG 101 50% (or GOG 1 60%)

Course description: Space and place in Southern Africa 2. This course examines the key processes that determine the physical and human geography of southern Africa. Concepts, theories and examples from other regions will be used where appropriate to help us understand the southern African experience. Contemporary issues such as environmental change and associated problems of human development will be examined. Selected human and physical geographical perspectives are used to understand the rural and urban landscapes. The complementary course for GOG 202 is GOG 201, and it comprises five lectures/tutorials, plus one three-hour practical per week.

DP requirements: Over 80% lecture attendance; attendance and completion of ALL tutorials, assignments and practicals.

Assessment: Class record 50%, Examination 50%
Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November: 40% for aggregation with GOG 201

THIRD-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN GEOGRAPHY

There are two independent third year courses in Geography. GOG 302 is offered in the second semester and GOG 301 in the first semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately. At the discretion of the Head of Department, an aggregate mark of at least 50% can be deemed equivalent to the year-long course GOG 3, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component. Normally, both GOG 201 and GOG 202 are required before a student may register for either or both of the third year semester courses GOG 301 and GOG 302. At the discretion of the Head of Department, a student with only an aggregated year-course GOG 2 may be allowed to register for either or both of the semester courses GOG 301 and GOG 302.

GOG 301

Third-year, second-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: GOG 201 50% and GOG 202 50%

Course description: African Geographical Studies.

In this course students will develop a critical understanding of Africa from a Geographical perspective through topics that relate to the Continent's complex social, built and physical environments, environmental processes, resources, as well as social, cultural, economic, and political systems. The specific content of the course will depend on the research and teaching interests of the academic staff available at the time and will vary from year to year. The course comprises five lectures/tutorials and a three-hour practical per week, while a compulsory field weekend may be a component of the course.

DP requirements: Over 80% lecture attendance; attendance and completion of ALL tutorials, assignments and practicals.

Assessment: Class record 50%, Examination 50%
Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November: 40% and 45% for aggregation with GOG 302

GOG 302

Third-year, first-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: GOG 201 50% and GOG 202 50%

Course description: Applied Spatial Technologies in Geography. The aim of this course is to provide students with the theoretical background and related practical competencies in Geospatial thinking utilising Geographic Information Systems and Remote Sensing. The course comprises five lectures/tutorials/practical preparation sessions and a three-hour practical per week, while a compulsory field weekend may be a component of the course.

DP requirements: Over 80% lecture attendance; attendance and completion of ALL tutorials, assignments and practicals.

Assessment: Class record 50%, Examination 50%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% and 45% for aggregation with GOG 301

HONOURS DEGREES

The Department offers BSc (Hons), BA (Hons) or a BSocSc (Hons) degrees in Geography, and Environmental Water Management, depending on students' undergraduate qualifications and curricula. Humanities students are reminded of the alternative route to Honours. See Rules H.25(3) and H.25(4).

Each Honours degree is a year-long course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Students are required to read four modules, submit a research project proposal, a research project, and present at least two seminars during the year. To pass the Honours degree, a candidate must achieve a pass (i.e. a minimum of 50%) for all four courses and their research project. At the start of the academic year, all students will have to attend an orientation programme that may include a compulsory field trip. Other field trips, which may be scheduled during a vacation, are also compulsory for several individual Honours modules and students will normally be expected to attend the annual Geography Students Conference. For all programmes, the modules offered may be subject to timetable and staffing constraints. Other appropriate modules may be taken if approved by the Head of Department. Entry into any module will be dependent on being able to provide evidence of appropriate prior knowledge to the Head of Department.

Part of the Geography degree may be taken in conjunction with modules in other departments. Where approximately 50% of a student's courses are examined in another department, a joint degree is awarded (for example, Honours in Geography/Environmental Science). Any combined degree must be agreed to by both Heads of Department concerned.

Honours in Geography

Students are required to take a core, integrative, module (Research Philosophy and Methodology), and select three other courses from those offered by the staff of the Department, Visiting Professors, Visiting Lecturers and Research Associates. Our courses reflect the interests of the staff members and normally include a selection from the following: Extended GIS (Geographical Information Systems); GIS Internship; Integrated Catchment Management; Catchment Systems; Wetland Ecology and Management; Climate Change and Extreme Events; Critical Urban Geographies; Geography and Spatial Planning; Political Ecology; Hydrology; Environmental Water Quality; Freshwater Ecology; and Earth Observation in a Changing World. Course selection depends on the prerequisite knowledge and experience in the respective field at the undergraduate level. Specific specialisations in Geography may be taken (if the personnel and teaching programme allows it) in Landscape Processes and Management, or Spatial Development, where their curricula will be tailored by the course coordinator.

Honours in Environmental Water Management

Candidates must hold an appropriate Bachelor's degree, normally majoring in at least one of Geography, Environmental Science or Hydrology. Other candidates with relevant professional experience in water resource management may be considered. This degree aims to equip students with the conceptual understanding and practical knowledge that are needed to make an effective contribution to the sustainable management of catchment systems and their associated water resources. Students are required to take a core, integrative, course (Research Philosophy and Methodology) and the course Water Resources Management. Students must also select two other courses. Recommended elective courses include: Catchment Systems; Wetland Ecology and Management; Climate Change and Extreme Events; Environmental Water Quality; Hydrology; Freshwater Ecology; Extended GIS (Geographical Information Systems); Earth Observation in a Changing World; or other appropriate courses approved by the Course Coordinator. Course selection depends on the prerequisite knowledge and experience in respective field at the undergraduate level and the research project must be related to Environmental Water Management and approved by the Course Coordinator.

Entrance requirements: 65% average for final year undergraduate studies, with a major in Geography or an equivalent subject (with 65% average). Entry into the GIS and Earth Observation modules requires a pass of 65% for GOG 302 (or an equivalent).

DP requirements: 100% lecture attendance; attendance and completion of ALL tutorials, assignments, practicals and Departmental academic activities; involvement in demonstrating and tutoring in the Department undergraduate programme.

Subminimum for Coursework and Exams: 45% in each course.

Interdisciplinary Honours Degrees

The Geography Department offers courses as components of various interdisciplinary honours programmes (see Interdepartmental Studies in this Calendar) including Development Studies and Industrial Society. Students should consult the Head of Department concerning available courses.

MASTER'S AND DOCTORAL DEGREES

Suitably qualified students are encouraged to proceed to the research degrees of MSc, MA, MSocSc (NQF level 9, 180 credits) and PhD (NQF level 10, 360 credits), under the direction of the staff of the Department. Requirements for these degrees are given in the General Rules.

Geology (GLG) is a six-semester subject which may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BCom, BJourn and BEcon (Mineral Economics).

Geology is a recommended co-major with other Science majors such as Chemistry, Physics, one of the Mathematical Sciences, Life Sciences, Geography, and Environmental Science. A BSc in Geology and Economics is also offered. To major in Geology, a candidate is required to obtain the following courses: GLG 1 (comprising EAR 101 and GLG 102); GLG 2; GLG 3. CHE 101 is also required and at least one other appropriate first year semester course chosen from amongst those offered in the departments of Chemistry, Mathematics or Physics. Students are strongly advised to include additional courses in these subjects in their curriculum. Two, or in some cases four, semester-courses in Geology are allowed for degree/diploma curricula in the Faculty of Humanities.

Field-work is a necessary part of Geology courses and a field course fee is payable annually for GLG 2 and GLG 3 and per semester for GLG 102.

For further details see the Departmental web page <http://www.ru.ac.za/geology/>, particularly on the contents of courses.

FIRST-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN GEOLOGY

Geology 1 consists of two first-year courses, namely Earth Science 101 (jointly taught by the Geology and Geography departments) and Geology 102 which are taught normally in the first and second semesters respectively. Students who take both Geography 1 and Geology 1 will have to take an additional semester course in an appropriate subject during the first semester to ensure that they have enough NQF credits for their degree. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to the year-long course GLG 1, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component. Supplementary examinations may be recommended in either course, provided that a candidate achieves a minimum standard specified by the Department.

Earth Science 101 (EAR 101) is taught jointly by the Departments of Geology and Geography, and focuses on the topic: "Introduction to Earth Systems". This course introduces the processes that have shaped the Earth and its environment over both geological and recent time scales. The interrelationships between the Earth, the atmosphere and living organisms forms a key theme through the course. No prior background in geology or geography is required.

EAR101 is a suitable semester-course for non-Science majors. Students may not register for GLG 102 unless they have obtained at least 35% or greater and met the subminimum requirements in both the theory and practical papers for EAR 101. GLG 1 is required before a student can proceed to any second-year course in Geology.

EAR 101

This is a first-year, second-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits) jointly taught by the Departments of Geography and Geology.

See specific details in the Department of Geography.

GLG 102

First-year, second-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: EAR 101 35%

Course description: GLG 102 provides a more detailed introduction to the basic principles of geology and to the geology of South Africa. Practical work focuses on the recognition and interpretation of geological maps. Short (one-day) local field excursions are also conducted.

DP requirements:

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examinations 60%

Supplementary exam: 45%

Subminimum for November: 40% for aggregation with EAR 101

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES
IN GEOLOGY

There are two second-year courses in Geology: GLG 201 held in the first semester and GLG 202 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to the year-long course GLG 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course. Practical reports, essays, seminars, class tests, and field course reports collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark.

GLG 1 is required before a student may register for GLG 201 and attendance in GLG201 is required before a student may register for GLG202. CHE 101 is required and at least one other appropriate first year semester course chosen from amongst those offered in the departments of Chemistry, Mathematics and Physics. Permission may be granted to repeat these courses concurrently with GLG 201 and GLG 202.

GLG 201 and 202

Second-year, first and second-semester courses (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: For GLG 201, GLG 1 50% and attended CHE 101, for GLG 202, , adequate performance (i.e. a valid DP certificate) in GLG 201 required.

Course descriptions: These courses consist of lectures and associated practical work through introductory courses in mineralogy, geochemistry and petrology (igneous, sedimentary and metamorphic), as well as in structural geology, palaeontology, and hydrogeology. The course includes a compulsory field course in appropriate mapping and stratigraphic techniques which is normally held in the September term break.

DP requirements:

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examinations 60%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for aggregation: 40% for aggregation to obtain GLG 2

THIRD-YEAR LEVEL COURSES
IN GEOLOGY

There are two third-year courses in Geology. GLG 301 is held in the first semester and GLG 302 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to the year-long course GLG 3, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course. Practical reports, essays, seminars, class tests, and field course reports, collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark. A student may not register for GLG 301 before (a) first obtaining at least one second-year semester Geology course and having adequately performed in the other; (b) first obtaining the compulsory ancillary courses in Chemistry or Physics or Mathematics. Attendance in GLG 301 is required before a student may register for GLG 302.

GLG 301 and 302

Third-year, first and second-semester courses (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: For GLG 301, GLG 2 or either GLG 201 or 202 and adequate performance in the other AND at least CHE 101 and/or CHE 102 or a semester course in Mathematics or Physics. For GLG 302, adequate performance (i.e. a valid DP certificate) in GLG 301 is required.

Course descriptions: These courses include “advanced” modules in igneous, sedimentary and metamorphic petrology, in addition to structural geology and palaeontology, which follow on from the introductory courses in GLG2. GLG 3, along with courses in economic geology (the geology of ore deposits) and stable isotope geochemistry. It comprises lectures, practical work and essays and/or oral presentations, and includes a field course normally held in the September term break.

DP requirements:

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examinations 60%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for aggregation: 40% for aggregation to obtain GLG 3

GEOLOGY HONOURS

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Course description: The Honours course comprises a theoretical component (lectures, tutorials, seminars, essays) with related practical work, a field school and a research project. Depending on staff availability the topics covered in the course may be drawn from a selection of the following: research and analytical techniques, geochemistry, mineralogy, igneous petrology, metamorphic petrology, sedimentology, basin analysis, structural geology, palaeontology, Earth history, geotectonics, ore-forming processes, geohydrology, and exploration techniques. Honours students should consult with appropriate members of staff for guidance regarding the research project and are encouraged to formulate their own projects. The results of the research project are submitted in the form of a comprehensive report.

DP requirements:

Assessment: Class record 40%, Project 30%,

Examinations 30%

Supplementary exam: None

MSC AND PHD DEGREES

The Department pursues an active programme of research into a wide range of problems in Earth Science, leading to the award of the MSc (NQF level 9, 180 credits) or PhD degree (NQF level 10, 360 credits). Students with Honours degrees are encouraged to participate in these research programmes and prepare theses on their research work.

In addition, the department usually offers a professionally- oriented postgraduate programme leading to the award of Master’s degrees in Exploration Geology or Economic Geology, through part time coursework and thesis. These degrees will not be offered in 2022.

Requirements for the MSc and PhD degrees are given in the General Rules. Prospective candidates may write for further details on any of these courses. A detailed booklet on postgraduate courses is available on request.

MSc in Exploration Geology

(NQF level 9, 120 credits)

This advanced course is open to candidates holding the BSc (Hons) degree, or equivalent four-year degree. Three years’ relevant professional experience is an additional requirement. In exceptional cases only, applications may be considered from candidates who hold a good BSc degree and have at least five years’ relevant work experience.

The course is designed to cover the most important theoretical and practical aspects of the exploration for, and evaluation of, mineral resources. Instruction is through the medium of lectures, seminars, directed reading, assignments and practical work led by the staff of the Department supported by inputs from experts drawn from industry and other universities. Field-work visits to areas of economic mineralization, and report writing, form integral parts of the course.

The course is offered on a part-time basis only. Coursework is divided into 4 modules presented over 2 years: 2 devoted to the characteristics, origin and distribution of the major ore deposit types and the appropriate exploration methods for discovery and development; the remaining 2 are devoted to exploration techniques, resource assessment, mineral economics and project evaluation. The ore deposit modules have an associated field exercise of two weeks. The ore deposit module is offered in the early part of the year (usually February-April); the techniques module in the third quarter (usually August).

Requirements for the award of the degree include the completion of four coursework modules, and the submission of a dissertation on a topic selected in consultation with the course Director. Coursework is evaluated based on written assignments, reports and verbal presentations throughout the course. Award of the degree requires an aggregate mark of at least 50% on all assessed components.

MSc in Economic Geology

(NQF level 8, 120 credits)

This course is designed for graduates holding the qualification of BSc (Hons) or equivalent, and lays greater emphasis upon a research thesis than the degree in Exploration Geology. Previous professional experience is preferred but not a pre-requisite for admission. The requirements for the degree are the completion of two of the modules offered for the MSc Exploration Geology, and the submission of a thesis based on original field or laboratory work on economic geology.

History is a three-year major subject which may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculty of Humanities. The department offers a set of semester courses. A student majoring in History is normally expected to obtain 30 credits in History courses for the first- and second-year level of study and 60 in the third year, but in some instances that requirement can be waived (see below for specific rules).

Course codes: The digit indicates the year or level of study.

General rules

- a) At every level marks for semester courses are aggregated. Students achieving an aggregate of 50% will be deemed to have passed every course at that level except that at third-year level students who either fail more than one course or obtain a mark of less than 40% in a course will not be granted an overall pass.
- b) All final examinations are written at the end of the semester in which the course is offered (i.e. June or November).
- c) Students not majoring in History may, with the permission of the head of department, register for second-level courses in History, without having taken either of the first-level courses, or they may register for third-level courses without having taken any first or second-level courses.
- d) In some instances, with the permission of the two heads of department concerned, a student majoring in History may be allowed to take a course in another department as part of the History major. This course must be in a history-related field.

FIRST-LEVEL COURSES

History 101: Africa and the making of the World 1: From the earliest times to c. 1900

First-year, first- semester course (15 credits at NQF level 5)

History 102: Africa and the making of the Modern World 2: From Colonisation to Independence

First-year, second-semester course (15 credits at NQF level 5)

Entrance requirements: A university entrance pass or equivalent.

Course description: Varies from year to year, see course handbook.

DP requirements: See course handbook.

Assessment: A combination of summative and continuous assessment finalized in June for History 101 and November for History 102 - see our course handbook.

Supplementary exam for History 101: June result 40 – 49%

There are no supplementary exams for History 102.

Sub-minimum for aggregation: 40%

- a) Students who fail either History 101 or History 102, but achieve an overall aggregate of 50% or more in both courses, will be deemed to have passed both courses.
- b) Students who fail the History 101 June write-off paper may rewrite the paper in November.
- c) Students may register for History 102 at the beginning of the second semester, without having taken History 101. At the discretion of the head of department such a student may be exempted from History 101 or be required to take History 101 the following year concurrently with History 201.
- d) Students who pass History 101 but fail History 102 and do not achieve an overall aggregate pass may, at the discretion of the head of department, proceed to History 201, but would be required to repeat History 102 concurrently with History 202 in the second semester. Similarly, students who fail History 101 but pass History 102 without achieving an overall aggregate pass may be permitted to proceed to History 201, but would be required to repeat History 101 concurrently with History 201.

SECOND-LEVEL COURSES

History 201: Twentieth Century World History
Second-year, first-semester course (15 credits at NQF level 6)

History 202: Themes in Southern African History
Second-year, second-semester course (15 credits at NQF level 6)

Course description: Varies from year to year, see course handbook.

DP requirements: See course handbook.

Assessment: A combination of summative and continuous assessment finalized in June for History 201 and November for History 202 - see our course handbook.

- a) Students intending to major in History should normally have passed History 101 and 102 (individually or on aggregate) in order to enter History 201. At the discretion of the head of department such students may proceed to History 201 having passed History 102 but without having taken History 101, but they may be required to take History 101 concurrently with History 201.
- b) Students who fail History 201 with a mark of 40- 49% can proceed to History 202, but such students who are majoring in History will be required to repeat History 201 concurrently with their third- level courses if they do not achieve an aggregate second level pass. Similarly, majoring students who pass History 201 but fail History 202, and do not achieve an aggregate pass, will be required to repeat History 202 concurrently with third-level courses.
- c) Students not majoring in History may, with the permission of the head of department, register for History 201 and/or History 202 without having previously taken either first-level courses in History.

THIRD-LEVEL COURSES

Students normally read for two term courses in each semester, giving a total of 30 credits at NQF level 7 for each semester, or 60 for the year.

The Department cannot guarantee that all these options will be available in a particular academic year.

History 301: The Making of Modern South Africa
Third year term course (15 credits at NQF level 7)

History 302: Gender in southern African history
Third year term course (15 credits at NQF level 7)

History 304: Popular Culture, Politics and Protest
Third year term course (15 credits at NQF level 7)

History 305: History of modern South Asia
Third year term course (15 credits at NQF level 7)

History 306: Africa in crisis
Third year term course (15 credits at NQF level 7)

- a) Majoring students who have failed either History 201 or History 202 and have not achieved an aggregate pass may, at the discretion of the head of department, register for third-level courses and repeat the failed second level course concurrently.
- b) Students not majoring in History may, with the permission of the head of department, register for one or more third-level courses without any History prerequisites.

Course description: Varies from year to year, see course handbook.

DP requirements: See course handbook.

Assessment: A combination of summative and continuous assessment finalised in June for the two courses presented in the first semester and November for the two second semester courses - see our course handbook.

HONOUR'S COURSE

120 credits at NQF level 8

Entrance requirements: Students may read for Honours in either History or as part of a combined Honours degree in History and one other subject (see Rule H.24) or under one other programme. The course is normally entered in the fourth year of study, unless the student opts, with the permission of the Head of Department, to begin the course in the third year in terms of the alternative route (see Rule H.25.3).

Course description: Students will normally write three papers and a research essay. The three (or four) papers will be written on topics chosen from a range of courses offered by the department. These courses may vary from year to year according to the particular interests of staff and students. The research essay should be a maximum of 15 000 words in length (excluding end matter). Master's Degree

MASTERS

180 credits at NQF level 9

Entrance requirements: A recognised Honours qualification in History or in a field which the Department feels will enable the student to cope with the demands of a Masters degree in History. Under special circumstances, ad eundem gradum applications may be considered.

Course description: Either a written thesis or an examination. Masters by examination will only be offered at the discretion of the Department. Students who wish to write a thesis should note that their research topics must be approved in advance by the Board of the Faculty of Humanities. Students will work under the supervision of a member of the staff of the Department of History. A student may select a co-supervisor from another department or faculty at the discretion of the head of department. The choice of subject or research is not restricted to those based on archival research.

Students who wish to take the Master's degree by examination will offer the following:

- a) Three topics for advanced individual study to be selected from fields not previously studied for the Honours degree. These will be selected by the candidate in consultation with the Head of the Department.
- b) A research essay in a cognate field. Candidates must complete and present the research essay within six months of the completion of the written papers.

DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

360 credits at NQF level 10

Entrance requirements: A recognised MA in History or in a field which the Department feels will enable the student to successfully undertake the writing of a PhD thesis in History

Course description: A written thesis under the supervision of a member of the staff of the Department of History. A student may select a co-supervisor from another department or faculty at the discretion of the head of department.

HUMAN KINETICS AND ERGONOMICS (HKE)

Human Kinetics and Ergonomics (HKE) is a six-semester subject which may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BCom, BJourn and BA. HKE as a major is designed to provide students with an interdisciplinary academic approach to the analysis of performance and human health, in sport, at work and any other domains of life.

Each year (HKE 1, HKE 2, and HKE 3) comprises of modules from the bio-physical domain, the physiological domain, and the cognitive domain; as well as a module that focuses on the integration and application of the three domains. The subject aims at equipping students to understand human responses to the environment they are interacting with. The professional aspects of the programme prepare students for careers or further education in diverse fields including Ergonomics, Sports Science, general health and rehabilitation.

To major in Human Kinetics and Ergonomics, a candidate is required to obtain the following courses: HKE 1; HKE 2; HKE 3. See Rule S.23.

For further details see the departmental web page <http://www.ru.ac.za/humankineticsandergonomics/>, particularly on the content of courses.

FIRST-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN HUMAN KINETICS AND ERGONOMICS

HKE 1 is comprised of two first-year courses: HKE 101 is held in the first semester, and HKE 102 in the second semester. A sub-minimum mark of 40% is required to progress from HKE 101 to HKE 102. An aggregate mark for the two semester-courses of at least 50% allows the candidate to obtain the year-course HKE 1, provided the candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component. HKE 1 is required before a student may register for HKE 2. A wide variety of tutorials and laboratory practicals, during which human responses to varying environmental demands are evaluated, complement the theoretical basis of all these courses. Supplementary examinations are offered in either course, provided that a candidate achieves a minimum standard specified by the Department.

HKE 101

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: None

Course description: Introduction and application: introduction to Human Kinetics and Ergonomics, the departmental philosophy and how it applies to the study of humans in the context of sport, work and activities of daily living, biophysical domain: basic introduction to the biophysical domain, physiological domain: cardiovascular and respiratory physiology

DP requirements: 100% attendance of tests and laboratories, minimum 75% tutorial attendance, 100% submission of all assignments

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examinations 60%
Supplementary exam: 40%

Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with HKE 102

HKE 102

First-year, second-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% for HKE 101

Course description: Biophysical domain: functional anatomy of the upper extremities, cognitive domain: sensory perception, integration and application

DP requirements: 100% attendance of tests and laboratories, minimum 75% tutorial attendance, 100% submission of all assignments

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examinations 60%

Supplementary exam: 40%

Subminimum for November: 40% for aggregation with HKE 101

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN HUMAN KINETICS AND ERGONOMICS

HKE 2 is comprised of two second-year courses: HKE 201 is held in the first semester, and HKE 202 in the second semester. HKE 1 is required before registering for HKE 2. A sub-minimum mark of 40% is required to progress from HKE 201 to HKE 202. An aggregate mark for the two semester-courses of at least 50% allows the candidate to obtain the year-course HKE 2, provided the candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component. HKE 2 is required before a student may register for HKE 3. Participation in a wide variety of laboratory experiences, as well as tutorials form part of all modules of both HKE 2 courses. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course.

HKE 201

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: HKE 1

Course description: Integration and application; cognitive domain: human information processing; biophysical domain: functional anatomy of the lower extremities, linear kinetics and kinematics of human movement.

DP requirements: 100% attendance of tests and laboratories, minimum 75% tutorial attendance, 100% submission of all assignments

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examinations 60%
Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with HKE 202

HKE 202

Second-year, second-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% for HKE 201

Course description: Physiological domain: neuromuscular physiology, cognitive domain: attention and situational awareness; integration and application. This course includes neuromuscular physiology and human information processing with respect to human performance under various conditions.

DP requirements: 100% attendance of tests and laboratories, minimum 75% tutorial attendance, 100% submission of all assignments

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examinations 60%
Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November: 40% for aggregation with HKE 201

THIRD-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN HUMAN KINETICS AND ERGONOMICS

HKE 3 is comprised of two third-year courses: HKE 301 is held in the first semester, and HKE 302 in the second semester. HKE 2 is required before registering for HKE 3. A sub-minimum mark of 40% is required to progress from HKE 301 to HKE 302. An aggregate mark for the two semester-courses of at least 50% allows the candidate to obtain the year-course HKE 3, provided the candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component. HKE 3 is required before a student may register for postgraduate (honours) studies in HKE. Participation in a wide variety of laboratory experiences forms part of all modules of both HKE 3 courses. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course.

HKE 301

Third-year, first-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: HKE 2

Course description: This course includes perceptual motor control; exercise physiology; integration and application.

DP requirements: 100% attendance of tests and laboratories, 100% submission of all assignments

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examinations 60%
Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with HKE 302

HKE 302

Third-year, second-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% HKE 301

Course description: The HKE 302 course focuses on the functional anatomy of the trunk and spine, angular kinetics and kinematics of human movement; attention and situation awareness, integration and application, semester project.

DP requirements: 100% attendance of tests and laboratories, 100% submission of all assignments

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examinations 60%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November: 40% for aggregation with HKE 302

HUMAN KINETICS AND ERGONOMICS HONOURS

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Course description: This one-year postgraduate course comprises a seminar block and a research project, complemented by field trips, research seminars and exposition to advanced research. The seminar modules cover the whole range of Human Kinetics and Ergonomics subjects with consideration of theoretical and applied aspects. Modules offered include: Research Methods, Work and Exercise Physiology, Ergonomics Assessment and Systems, advanced biomechanics and chronobiology. The research project is undertaken by the student in consultation with a supervising staff member, to add depth in an area of particular interest. These areas may include physical and mental performance, human responses and human behaviour to different types of tasks (incl. sport activities and lifestyle), as well as environmental influences. Scientific rigour, linked with application skills, is emphasised throughout the course.

DP requirements: 100% submission of all assignments

Assessment: Class record 30%, Project 40%, November examinations 30%

Supplementary exam: None

MASTER'S AND DOCTORAL DEGREES

Suitably qualified students are encouraged to pursue research degrees at the MSc (NQF level 9, 180 credits) and PhD (NQF level 10, 360 credits) level. These involve preparation of a thesis under the supervision of a member of staff of the Department.

Requirements for these degrees are given in the General Rules.

The Department of Ichthyology and Fisheries Science is a leading African academic institution supporting the sustainable utilisation and study of fish and fisheries through teaching and training of students, and conducting research.

At the undergraduate level the Department offers a four-semester major in Ichthyology (ICH), which may be taken as a major subject for the BSc, BA and BJourn degrees.

At the postgraduate level the following degrees are offered: BSc Honours in Ichthyology and Fisheries Science, Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy in either Ichthyology or Fisheries Science. Masters and Doctoral degrees are by research only through the preparation of a thesis.

Detailed information on course work and curricula may be obtained from the Head of Department.

For further details See the departmental web page <http://www.ru.ac.za/ichthyology>, particularly on the contents of courses.

To major in Ichthyology, a candidate is required to pass the following courses: CEL 101; ZOO 102; BOT 102; ICH 201; ICH 202; ICH 301; ICH 302; CHE 1; two first year semester-courses in any of following subjects: Mathematics, Theory of Finance, Statistics or Computer Science (with the exception of the literacy course CSC 1L1). See Rule S.23. Both ICH 201 and ICH 202 are required before a student may register for ICH 301.

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN ICHTHYOLOGY

There are two semester-long second-year courses in Ichthyology. ICH 201 is offered in the first semester and ICH 202 is offered in the second semester. Credit for each semester-course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-course ICH 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component. However, students who wish to major in Ichthyology must pass both ICH 201 and ICH 202. Adequate performance in ICH 201 is required before a student may register for ICH 202. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course. Practical reports, essays, seminars and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark. An ecological fieldtrip is held jointly with the Departments of Entomology and of Botany, and all students are required to attend.

In addition to theme-centered topics, the ICH 2 course include theme-independent topics that include ecology, oceanography and evolution and systematics.

Cell Biology (CEL 101) and Zoology (ZOO 102) are required before a student may register for ICH 201 or ICH 202. CHE 1 and BOT 102 are required to major in Ichthyology.

ICH 201

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: CEL 101 and ZOO 102, or ZOO 1

Co-requisites: CHE 1, ZOO 102

Course description: The course is structured around the theme “fish form” and is comprised of lectures, tutorials and practicals in fish diversity and habitats, anatomy, larval fishes, sensory systems and communication, genetics and fish behaviour. The writing of essays forms an integral part of the course.

DP requirements: Completion of all formal assignments and course attendance.

Assessment: Class record 30%, Project 20%, Theory Examination 1: 25%, Theory Examination 2: 25%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with ICH 202

ICH 202

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% ICH 201

Co-requisites: CHE 1, ZOO 102

Course description: The course is structured around the theme “fish function” and is comprised of lectures, tutorials and practicals on fish life history styles, ecology, reproduction, feeding biology, nutrition, age and growth, physiology and aquaculture. The writing of essays forms an integral part of the course.

DP requirements: Completion of all formal assignments and course attendance.

Assessment: Class record 30%, Theory Examination 1: 35%, Theory Examination 2: 35%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November: 40% for aggregation with ICH 201

THIRD-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN ICHTHYOLOGY

The ICH 301 and 302 semester courses cover the modules aquaculture, fisheries science, conservation, limnology, biodiversity of freshwater, estuarine and marine fishes, population ecology, experimental design and scientific writing. Credit may be obtained for each semester-course separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-course ICH 3, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component. Adequate performance in ICH 301 is required before a student may register for ICH 302. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course. Practical reports, essays, seminars and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark.

ICH 301

Third-year, first-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: 50% ICH 201, 50% ICH 202

Co-requisites: CHE 1, ZOO 102

Course description: The course consists of modules of different durations, offered by way of lectures, tutorials, practicals, and field trips. There are modules on aquaculture, and conservation of the aquatic environment, on fish biodiversity in the estuarine, freshwater, and marine environment. The writing of essays and presentation of seminars form an integral part of the course.

DP requirements: Completion of all formal assignments and course attendance.

Assessment: Class record 30%, Theory Examination 1: 35%, Theory Examination 2: 35%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November: 40% for aggregation with ICH 302

ICH 302

Third-year, first-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% ICH 302

Co-requisites: CHE 1, ZOO 102, and two first year semester-courses in Mathematics, Theory of Finance, Statistics or Computer Science.

Course description: A module on experimental biology includes a third-year project, project-related data analysis, and scientific writing. The second part of ICH 302 covers fisheries management and stock assessment and population ecology. The preparation of essays, writing of scientific papers, and the presentation of seminars are important components of the course.

DP requirements: Completion of all formal assignments and course attendance.

Assessment: Class record 30%, Theory Examination 1: 35%, Theory Examination 2: 35%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November: 40% for aggregation with ICH 301

ICHTHYOLOGY AND FISHERIES SCIENCE HONOURS

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance requirements: 65% ICH 3 or equivalent

Course description: The aim of the Ichthyology Honours degree is to produce free-thinking and critical young scientists capable of performing independent research and equipped with practical skills to work in fisheries, aquaculture, ichthyology, environmental and aquatic science related fields. Applicants for Honours in Ichthyology and Fisheries Science are required to have completed a BSc before the start of the honours year, with a major in the life sciences and with the equivalent of Chemistry 1 (CHE 1) and any two first-year semester-long courses in a Mathematics-related subjects or Statistics or Computer Science (with the exception of computer literacy).

The Honours course is comprised of advanced studies in data analysis, evolution and systematics, speciation, biodiversity, fish biology and ecology, conservation, population dynamics and fisheries resource management, fisheries oceanography, aquaculture and an advanced course in scientific writing. There are two field excursions, the first to gain insight and practical experience in field sampling techniques and the second to obtain insight into operational aquaculture ventures. Students are required to design an aquaculture production facility, prepare a business plan for a hypothetical aquaculture venture and manage the DIFS hatchery during the trout spawning season. A major research project is undertaken through the year, and a report submitted for the final examination, in a form suitable for publication in a peer-reviewed journal. The course is run on the basis of lectures, tutorials, seminars and extended essays. The examination consists of three theory papers, two practical examinations, an oral examination, and research project report. Practical and theoretical work done during the year counts towards the final mark.

Applications for the Honours course must be submitted to the Rhodes University administration (academicadmin@ru.ac.za). Besides this application, all applicants are also encouraged to forward a letter of motivation and a curriculum vitae directly to the department administration (difs@ru.ac.za) at the time that they submit their application. The application and selection process will start 1st July of the preceding year. Late applications will be considered up until the start of the academic year, provided places are available.

DP requirements: Completion of all formal assignments and course attendance.

Assessment: Class record 33%, Project 20%, Theory examinations (×3) 30%, Practical examinations (x2)

12%, Oral Examination 5%

Supplementary exam: None

MASTER'S AND DOCTORAL DEGREES IN ICHTHYOLOGY OR FISHERIES SCIENCE

Candidates who wish to register for the MSc degree (NQF level 9, 180 credits) in Ichthyology or Fisheries Science must have a four-year BSc degree at the NQF 8 level or BSc Honours degree in Ichthyology, Fisheries Science, Aquaculture, Zoology or equivalent (as approved by both the Head of the Department and the Board of the Faculty of Science).

Candidates for the PhD degree (NQF level 10, 360 credits) in Ichthyology or Fisheries Science must have a Master's degree or equivalent in Ichthyology, Fisheries Science, Aquaculture or Zoology or equivalent (as approved by the Head of Department and the Board of the Faculty of Science).

The degree of MSc or PhD in Ichthyology is awarded for the satisfactory preparation of a thesis based on original research on fishes (freshwater, estuarine or marine), especially in the classical fields of systematics, morphology, distribution, ecology, behaviour or biology. The degree of MSc or PhD in Fisheries Science is awarded for the satisfactory preparation of a thesis based on original research on aspects of fisheries management, fisheries modelling, aquaculture or fisheries economics. Candidates for MSc or PhD degrees may additionally be required to complete such examinable coursework as may be prescribed by the Head of Department.

The PhD degree must make a substantial contribution towards the advancement of knowledge in the chosen field.

All postgraduate students in attendance are required, if called upon, to assist as demonstrators in practical classes.

Applications for PhD and MSc in Ichthyology or Fisheries Science must follow the department's application procedure that is available on the department's website:
<https://www.ru.ac.za/ichthyology/studying/prospectivestudents/applicationprocessformscphdcandidates/>

Information Systems (INF) is a two-year major subject which is primarily studied for degree curricula in the Faculty of Commerce. The subject is also studied for the specialist BSc (Information Systems) degree in the Faculty of Science.

The courses offered in the Department concentrate on aspects of the development, application and management of Information Systems in organisations and the technologies used in these processes. Other topics in the courses include corporate communications, project management, databases, data analytics, information systems theory, and the audit and control of information systems. There is an emphasis on computer-based information systems, and practical courses include the use of spreadsheets, financial modelling, database design, decision support systems, IT project management tools, and application development. In addition, various guest lecturers present seminars during the year on a variety of topics relevant to all areas of Information Systems. The management and strategy aspects are well complemented by courses in the Department of Management, while technical and computer-specific aspects are handled in more depth by courses in the Department of Computer Science.

For further details, particularly on the content of courses, see the departmental web page (<http://www.ru.ac.za/informationssystemsf/>)

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN INFORMATION SYSTEMS

The Department offers three second-year level courses: INF 201, INF 202 and INF 203. Information Systems 2 consists of the two one-semester courses INF 201 and INF 202; or INF 201 and INF 203. Credit may be obtained in any of the courses separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a two-semester course INF 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component (see Rule C.12). A candidate who fails INF 201 shall be permitted to proceed to INF 202 or INF 203 provided the required sub-minimum in INF 201 has been obtained. A pass in INF 202 or INF 203 in such circumstances shall NOT relieve the candidate of the need to pass INF 201 in order to gain credit for the full course unless an aggregated pass is awarded.

INF 202 is normally taken by students following a general or Information Systems professional route, whilst INF 203 is normally taken by students following an Accounting professional route as set out in the Bachelor of Commerce (Accounting) curriculum or who intend to register later for the Post-Graduate Diploma in Accountancy or the Honours programme in Financial Management. Students are also permitted to take both INF 202 and INF 203, in which case any one of the general or Information Systems professional or Accounting professional routes is available to them.

Students must normally gain credit in INF 201 and INF 202, or INF 2 with INF 201 and INF 202 aggregated, before being permitted to register for INF 301.

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Information Systems 201 (INF 201)

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF Level 6, 15 credits)

Admission Pre-requisites: CSC 112; candidates deemed to be in their first year of study may not register for INF 201

Course description: Information Systems Analysis; User Interface Design; Information Architecture; Database Fundamentals.

DP requirements: Obtain a coursework mark of at least 40%; attend at least 90% of practical sessions; attend at least 80% of lectures; submit all practicals and assignments on or before due date; and write all term tests

Assessment: Coursework counts 40%; examinations count 60%. The examination for the INF 201 course consists of not more than one practical examination of two hours, and one theory examination of three hours. Outside of examinations there are various other assessments (short presentations, essays, tests, practical assignments, etc.) which will contribute towards a semester class mark which is incorporated into the course assessment.

Supplementary examination: yes

Information Systems 202 (INF 202)

Second-year, second semester course (NQF Level 6, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: sub-minimum in INF 201

Course description: Web Dev 1 (HTML/CSS); Web Dev 2 (JavaScript); Databases SQL.

DP requirements: Obtain a coursework mark of at least 40%; attend at least 90% of practical sessions; attend at least 80% of lectures; submit all practicals and assignments on or before due date; and write all term tests

Assessment: Coursework counts 40%; examinations count 60%. The examination for the INF 202 course consists of not more than one practical examination of two hours, and one theory examination of three hours. Outside of examinations there are various other assessments (short presentations, essays, tests, practical assignments, etc.) which will contribute towards a semester class mark which is incorporated into the course assessment.

Supplementary examination: yes

Information Systems 203 (INF 203)

Second-year, second semester course (NQF Level 6, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: sub-minimum in INF 201

Course description: Accounting Information Systems Security and Control; Databases SQL, Data Analytics.

DP requirements: Obtain a coursework mark of at least 40%; attend at least 90% of practical sessions; attend at least 80% of lectures; submit all practicals and assignments on or before due date; and write all term tests

Assessment: Coursework counts 40%; examinations count 60%. The examination for the INF 203 course consists of not more than one practical examination of two hours, and one theory examination of three hours. Outside of examinations there are various other assessments (short presentations, essays, tests, practical assignments, etc.) which will contribute towards a semester class mark which is incorporated into the course assessment.

Supplementary examination: yes

THIRD-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Information Systems 3 consists of the two one-semester courses INF 301 and INF 302. Credit may be obtained in each course separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a two-semester course INF 3, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component (see Rule C.12). A candidate who fails INF 301 shall be permitted to proceed to INF 302 provided the required sub- minimum in INF 301 has been obtained. A pass in INF 302 in such circumstances shall NOT relieve the candidate of the need to pass

INF 301 in order to gain credit for the full course unless an aggregated pass is awarded.

Information Systems 301 (INF 301)

Third-year, first semester course (NQF Level 7, 30 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: INF 201 and INF 202, or INF 2 with INF 201 and INF 202 aggregated

Course description: Project Management and Communications; Software Quality; Digital Transformation; Information Systems Development Project.

DP requirements: Obtain a coursework mark of at least 40%; attend at least 90% of practical sessions; attend at least 80% of lectures; submit all practicals and assignments on or before due date; and write all term tests

Assessment: Coursework counts 40%; examinations count 60%. The examination for the INF 301 course consists of not more than two practical examinations of three hours, and two theory examinations of three hours. Students may also be required to research and submit a written assignment on a specific topic. This, in conjunction with other assessments (short presentations, tests, practical assignments, etc.) during the semester, contributes towards a semester class mark which is incorporated into the course assessment.

Supplementary examination: yes

Information Systems 302 (INF 302)

Third-year, second semester course (NQF Level 7, 30 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: sub-minimum in INF 301

Course description: Application Development; Big Data; Data Analytics; IT Governance; Information Systems Development Project.

DP requirements: Obtain a coursework mark of at least 40%; attend at least 90% of practical sessions; attend at least 80% of lectures; submit all practicals and assignments on or before due date; and write all term tests

Assessment: Coursework counts 40%; examinations count 60%. The examination for the INF 302 course consists of not more than two practical examinations of three hours, and two theory examinations of three hours. Every student is also expected to participate in and complete a group systems development project. This, in conjunction with other assessments (short presentations, tests, practical assignments, etc.) during the semester, contributes towards a semester class mark which is incorporated into the course assessment.

Supplementary examination: yes

INFORMATION SYSTEMS HONOURS

The Honours course is a one-year, full-time programme and consists of a coursework component and a project component. Students may also register for joint Honours in which the honours programmes of two departments, for example Information Systems and Computer Science, are taken 60%:40% with some coursework and some project components selected from each department.

Coursework component

Students must take an agreed selection of modules. Students may also take any one equivalently weighted Honours level module from another department, provided that it is approved by the Head of Department, in consultation with the Head of the other department.

Modules offered by the Department include:

A selection of the following modules will be offered in any one year, subject to a minimum number of students per module and staff availability: Blockchain; Business Analysis; Business Consulting; Data Analytics; Enterprise Architecture; e-Governance; Information Systems Management; Information Systems Security; Research Methodology; User Experience; Data Visualisation.

In addition to the modules listed above, students are required to attend any other activities as may be deemed appropriate by the Head of Department.

Project component

All students are required to undertake a research project in a given area and to produce a written report.

INFORMATION SYSTEMS MASTERS AND DOCTORAL DEGREES

Suitably qualified students are encouraged to proceed to the research degrees of MCom and PhD under the supervision of staff in the Department. Requirements for these degrees are given in the General Regulations.

INTERDEPARTMENTAL STUDIES

SCHOOL OF LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES –

INTERDISCIPLINARY COURSES

CULTURES AND LANGUAGES IN AFRICA (CLIA) 101 AND 102

These two courses are open to all undergraduates, can be taken independently of one another and will, if passed, result in a semester credit each.

PURPOSE OF CLIA 101 AND 102: To familiarise students with the relationships between societies, cultures, identities and languages in Africa; to give students the tools to think holistically and critically about a multicultural, intercultural and multilingual world.

OUTCOMES OF CLIA 101 AND 102: An understanding of the relationships between cultures, languages, societies and identities in Africa; an understanding of inter-, intra- and cross-cultural communication; an understanding of what it means to be a socially engaged African and global citizen.

CULTURES AND LANGUAGES IN AFRICA 101

Students will engage critically with the relationships between cultures and languages in Africa. In CLIA 101 the focus will be on the functioning of African languages, in particular isiXhosa, in pre-colonial social contexts, on reciprocal influences in languages in Africa since the 18th century, on the introduction of Dutch, French, German and the classical languages (Latin and Ancient Greek) during the colonial period, and on the relationships between these languages, the indigenous languages, and the societies in which they are embedded, i.e. the process of creolization.

CULTURES AND LANGUAGES IN AFRICA 102

In CLIA 102 the focus will be on language as a site of struggle and identity formation in Africa, with particular focus on works of isiXhosa scholarship, and other African intellectuals, on the rise of Négritude in Francophone Africa, on German-speaking communities in Africa during the two World Wars, the German language and its role in the shaping of some South African identities during World War II, and on the appropriation of the classical languages (and translations thereof) in the shaping of some South African cultural identities. A study of selected South African texts will explore the cross-cultural tensions of pre-and post-1994 in South Africa. In addition, an analysis of visual media (e.g. soap operas, film and cartoons) will be used to explore language and multi-cultural communication (and miscommunication) in Africa.

MODERN FICTION

This is a one-year non-initial course, presented by members of various language departments, for students who have already obtained two credits. See also Regulation H.13.1. This course is designed primarily to give students of literature a greater appreciation of modern fiction.

Major works of film and fiction written between 1850 and the present are studied in English translation. The course also introduces students to the intellectual and cultural currents within which these works were produced. Lists of prescribed texts and recommended reading for the course are available from members of the Division of Afrikaans and Netherlandic Studies in the School of Languages.

AFRICAN STUDIES PROGRAMME

In the belief that knowledge of events in Africa is of vital importance to this country, the University offers postgraduate courses in African Studies at Honours, Master's and PhD levels for students wishing to make comparative studies of social, political and economic development in Africa. The approach is essentially interdisciplinary.

THE HONOURS DEGREE

1. Honours curricula proposals must be submitted to the Dean of Humanities for approval.

The Honours Degree is a one-year course, the aim of which is to enable students to pursue interrelated or complementary topics from various disciplines in African Studies.

The examination normally consists of four papers and a research essay on a topic approved by the Head of the Department within which the essay is to be supervised.

The candidate may be permitted to write a fifth examination paper in place of the research essay.

Faculty of Humanities regulations governing research essays (see the note to Regulation H.35) will apply to a research essay in the African Studies Honours degree.

2. Students must write at least two papers (counting the research essay as a paper) in one of the following academic disciplines: African Languages; Anthropology; Economic History; Economics; English; History; Industrial Sociology; Journalism and Media Studies; Psychology; Political and International Studies or Sociology. Both papers must be specifically related to Africa.

Students will not normally be admitted to the programme unless they satisfy the criteria for admission to the honours programme in which the above two papers are written.

The remaining three papers (or two papers and a research essay) may be chosen from honours courses offered by the participating disciplines noted above, or from any other discipline, provided that:

- two papers must be specifically related to Africa, and
- the third paper must be sufficiently related to the other four papers to contribute to the overall aim of the Honours degree in African Studies.

The head of the department in which the paper is being offered is satisfied that the student has a training adequate to the demands of the paper being offered.

The degree will be an honours degree in the principal subject with the words "African Studies" added.

3. African Studies components in other curricula African Studies components are included in the normal curricula in a number of departments, including the Division of African Languages in the School of Languages, Anthropology, Economics and Economic History, Geography, History, Political and International Studies. See the relevant department entries for undergraduate and/or postgraduate courses including African Studies components.

The Master's degree is offered by coursework and thesis and by thesis only, and PhD in African Studies is offered by thesis only. However, the African Studies co-ordinators, with the approval of the dean, may require Master's or Doctoral candidates to pass relevant courses offered by the university at Honours or Master's level. Master's and PhD candidates in African Studies will be registered in a disciplinary department.

INTERDISCIPLINARY HONOURS DEGREES

The University offers a number of interdisciplinary honours degrees which are designed to enable students who have majored in a variety of disciplines to concentrate their studies in relatively new areas of research in which the traditional divide between disciplines is no longer appropriate and in which a multi-disciplinary approach offers a richer understanding of some important topics of intellectual interests. The current programmes are: Development Studies; Gender Studies; Industrial Relations; Southern African Cultural Studies.

The participating departments and divisions are African Languages (AL); Afrikaans and Netherlandic Studies (A&N); Anthropology (A); English (Eng); Economics and Economic History (Econ); Fine Art (FA); Geography (G); History (H); Information Systems (IS); Journalism and Media Studies (J); Law (LW); Linguistics and English Language (L); Management (M); Philosophy (PH); Political and International Studies (PO); Psychology (P); and Sociology (S).

The following papers may be offered by participating departments and divisions in each of the above areas, although it should be noted that not every paper may be on offer every year. (The brackets indicate in which department or division the paper is offered.)

Development Studies

(administered by the Faculty of Humanities)

Child in Context (P); Development Economics (Econ); Development Studies (S); Economic Geography (G) ; Global Commons (PO); Human-Computer Inter-action (IS); International Economics (Econ); Literacy: Theory and Development (L); Media and Development (J); Method (H); Methodology (H); Population, Resources and Development (G); Post coloniality and Post-Colonial discourse (Eng and A&N); Psychology and Community (P); Resettlement and Land Issues (A); Tourism (A); A specialised area of study offered by a participating department, relevant to the overall course.

Gender Studies

(administered by the Department of Anthropology)

Cultural Studies (J); Feminist Literary Theory (A&N); Interdisciplinary Gender Studies (PH); Language and Gender (L); Literature and Gender (A&N); Methodology (H); Social and Political Theory or Freedom and Domination (PO); Women and Art (FA); Women and the Law (LW); Women in History (H); A specialised area of study offered by a participating department, relevant to the overall course.

Industrial Relations

(administered by the Department of Sociology)

Critical Human Resource Management (S); Cross-Cultural Communication (L); Economic Geography (G); Geographic Information Systems (G); Industrial Anthropology (A); Industrial Relations (S); International Relations of Regions (PO); Methodology (H); Organizational Behaviour (M); South African Urban History (H); Trade Unions (S); A specialised area of study offered by a participating department, relevant to the overall course.

Southern African Cultural Studies

(administered by the Division of Afrikaans and Netherlandic Studies)

African Literature (Eng); African Music (A and ILAM); Afrikaans Literature in English Translation (A&N); Contemporary South African Ethnography (A); Cultural Studies (J) or (E); Language in Society and Education (L); Literacy (L); Methodology (H); Post-Colonialism (A&N and Eng); Religion in South Africa (A); Social Theory (S); South African Literature (A&N and Eng); Urban African Culture (H); Xhosa Literary Studies (AL); A specialised area of study offered by a participating department, relevant to the overall course.

1. Students will be subject to the Regulations for Honours Degrees in the Faculty of Humanities (H.23 to H.37) except that the “alternate route to Honours”, provided in H.24.3 shall not be permitted.
2. Students will be required to write five papers, one of which will be a long essay.
3. Although the programmes are administered by different departments, students would register in a department in which they majored and would be required to take two papers (which may include a long essay) in that department.
4. The Dean of the Faculty, in consultation with the head of the department which administers the degree, is responsible for approving the structure of papers for the degree and all other matters relating to the regulation of the degree.
5. No student will be admitted to a particular paper without the consent of the head of the department in which the paper is being offered.
6. Assessment of individual papers will follow the rules of the department in which they are offered.
7. The degree will be the BA (Hons) degree or the BSocSc (Hons) degree in Development Studies (or in Gender Studies, or Industrial Society, or in Southern African Cultural Studies) in the department.

JOURNALISM AND MEDIA STUDIES 1 (JMS1)

First-year, full-year course (NQF level 5, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: None.

Course description: An introduction to Communications Studies and Communication Practice, Journalism Studies and Journalism Practice, Media Studies and Digital Media Studies.

DP requirements

- 80% attendance of all course meetings and events, including lectures, tutorials, practicals, tests and examinations.
- Submission of all practical and essay assignments by the due date and time.
- If unable to do any of the above, a student must apply for a Leave of Absence (LOA) and/or an extension from the School Administration Manager.
- A student may be excluded from continuing with a course if they miss more than 20% of lectures and tutorials/practicals.

Assessment: The programme is divided into modules, each between four and six weeks in duration. Each module is organised around coursework assignments. 50% of the course marks are based on assignments completed in Semester 1, and 50% on assignments in Semester 2.

Supplementary exam: None

JOURNALISM AND MEDIA STUDIES 2 (JMS2)

Second-year, full-year course (NQF level 6, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: JMS1. There are 120 places in JMS2 – entry into JMS2 is not guaranteed. Applications are submitted by students and reviewed in committee. The following areas are taken into account: individual academic performance; a portfolio of media work completed by students during their first year; tutors' reports and students' progress; an evaluative and biographical questionnaire and a critical reflection of media work undertaken in the course of the year. Furthermore, students wishing to apply for entry to JMS2 must complete a portfolio of media work in order to meet the application criteria. NB: Students will not qualify to enter JMS2 unless they have passed at least two other first year credits in addition to JMS1.

Course description: This course is divided equally into two streams, which are taught concurrently: Media Production and Media Studies. Media Production consists of a semester-long module in Podcasting and another semester-long module in Publication Production.

IsiXhosa for Journalism is a one-year course offered by the School of Languages. This course is compulsory for all students majoring in Journalism and Media Studies and must be taken during the second year of their degree.

DP requirements: Same as above. In addition, it is a DP requirement that all JMS2 students who intend to proceed to JMS3 complete a portfolio of media work, to be submitted as part of their applications for JMS3. The portfolio may include both coursework assignments and extracurricular work. Work done in JMS1 will not count.

Assessment: Media Studies = 50%; Podcasting = 25%; Publication Production = 25%

No exam is written for production courses.

Supplementary exam: None

A candidate who fails to obtain 50% for one of the components but passes on aggregate will be granted a non-continuing pass and may not repeat Journalism and Media Studies 2. It is therefore strongly recommended that students who register for Journalism and Media Studies 2 also register for two other second year credits in order to ensure that they still have two major options should they fail Journalism and Media Studies 2 or pass the year with a non-continuing pass.

JOURNALISM AND MEDIA STUDIES 3 (JMS3)

Third-year, full-year course (NQF level 7, 60 credits)

Entrance requirements: JMS2 + entry to Journalism and Media Studies 3 is predicated upon a candidate obtaining a minimum of 50% for both the Media Studies and Media Production components of the Journalism and Media Studies 2 course. Entry into the student's first-choice media specialisation is based on individual performance at Journalism and Media Studies 2 level as well as on written motivations and additional media experience. Students wishing to apply for entry to JMS3 must complete a portfolio of media work in order to meet the application criteria.

Course description: This course is divided equally into two streams, which are taught concurrently: Media Production Electives and Media Studies. Media Production Elective options include: Design, Photography, Audio, Television, Writing and Editing.

DP requirements: Same as JMS1 and JMS2

Assessment:

Media Production Elective = 50% of year mark

Media Studies = 50% of year mark

Supplementary exam: None

JOURNALISM AND MEDIA STUDIES 4 (JMS4)

Fourth-year, full-year course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance requirements: JMS3 (students wishing to enter fourth year must normally have completed two third-year majors). Acceptance into a fourth-year media practice specialisation will be decided on the basis of performance, portfolio and written motivation and/or interview. Students who achieve below 60% for either their final JMS3 specialisation or Media Studies mark will jeopardise their chances of advancing into JMS4.

Course description: JMS4 consists of three courses, all of which are compulsory:

1. Media Production (possible options include Audio, Design, Multimedia, Photography, Video, and Writing and Editing).
2. Media Studies
3. Media Electives in which students select from a range of options related to media production or relevant media topics.

DP requirements: Same as JMS1.

Assessment: In order to complete Journalism and Media Studies 4, students must pass the Media

Production and Media Studies courses and obtain a sub-minimum of 45% in their Media Elective.

Media Production = 60%

Media Studies = 20%

Media Elective = 20%

Supplementary exam: None

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN JOURNALISM AND MEDIA STUDIES (PGDIP JMS)

Fourth-year, full-year course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance requirements: An undergraduate degree in any discipline.

Course description: The Postgraduate Diploma in Journalism is designed for students and working practitioners (with a previous NQF 7 qualification). It is organised around participation in Grocotts Mail, an award-winning digital news organisation, Rhodes Music Radio and other media platforms. Such participation enables students to experiment with emerging innovations in journalism, digital media production and engagement while exploring relevant debates in the study of journalism, media and communication. In this way they develop the mindset and competencies required of journalists and communication practitioners more generally in the contemporary world.

Assessment:

Media Production = 60%

Media Studies = 20%

Media Elective = 20%

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN MEDIA MANAGEMENT (PGDIP MM)

Fourth-year, full-year course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance requirements: An undergraduate degree in any discipline.

Course description: This course provides graduate students with specialised skills in the management of media. There are eight modules in specialised areas of media management; an experiential learning component involving a media management research project and a further project relating to active participation in a media initiative.

Assessment:

Media management contexts, policy and institutions = 10%

Media management and leadership = 10%

New technology and convergence = 10%

Media economics and financial planning = 10%

Human resource management = 10%

Markets, audiences and advertising = 10%

Managing media content = 10%

Circulation, distribution and transmission = 10%

Portfolio assignment = 20%

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN MEDIA MANAGEMENT (PART-TIME, DISTANCE)

Candidates may be admitted to the two-year, part-time and mostly online course for the Postgraduate Diploma in Media Management if they have been admitted to the degree or status of a bachelor in any faculty of the University or from other recognised universities. Consideration will be given to admit students based on the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) provided that these students have been in the media industry for at least five years and have a diploma and/or advanced certificate in a cognate discipline (e.g. Diploma in Journalism or Advanced Certificate in Journalism; Marketing and Communications, etc.). The numbers of RPL students each year will be capped at 10% of the total student cohort of that year of online students.

A candidate for the Diploma must obtain a pass in all of the four modules offered in the first year to progress to the second and final year, where the candidate must pass at least an additional three other modules and the academic portfolio. A pass mark for each module is an aggregated 50% composed of the course and examination marks. A pass mark for the overall course is also an aggregated 50% of the marks of the modules and portfolio.

First Year Modules:

Media Management Contexts, Policy and Media Institutions: 10%

Managing Media Convergence, Digital and Social Media: 10%

Media Management and Leadership: 10%

Managing Media Content (Research Module): 10%

Second Year Modules:

Managing Media Economics and Financial Management: 10%

Human Resources Management: 10%

Managing Audiences, Advertising and Marketing: 10%

Managing Media Distribution and Circulation: 10%

Academic Portfolio Assignment: 20%

The duration of the Diploma shall be no less than two academic years.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN ECONOMICS JOURNALISM (PGDIP EJ)

Fourth-year, full-year course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance requirements: An undergraduate degree in in any discipline.

Course description: This course, which is run part-time over two years, builds on the journalistic skills of participants by giving them the intellectual tools to report on issues and events in the economic arena in a way that improves their career prospects and deepens their understanding of business journalism. The programme consists of eight modules.

Assessment:

Financial Journalism = 12.5%

Economics for Journalists = 12.5%

Financial Markets for Journalists = 12.5%

Accounting and Finance for Journalists = 12.5%

Data Analysis and Interpretation = 12.5%

Public Policy = 12.5%

Capstone Assignment = 12.5%

All assignments must be completed in order for the candidate to pass.

JOURNALISM AND MEDIA STUDIES HONOURS

Fourth-year, full-year course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance requirements: An undergraduate degree in humanities or social sciences.

Course description: Honours students will complete three compulsory papers, two elective papers and a research essay of 10-15 000 words.

Assessment:

Media Studies and Social Theory (compulsory) = 15%

Research Methods (compulsory) = 15%

Academic Writing (compulsory) = 15%

Two electives are to be chosen from the list of those offered in a year = 2 x 15%

Research Report = 25%

JOURNALISM AND MEDIA STUDIES MASTERS

(NQF level 9, 180 credits)

Entrance requirements: The student has:

- obtained a good Honours degree or fourth-year in Journalism and Media Studies or related discipline;
- provided that a candidate may be required to complete one or more specific papers from the Honours degree,
- provided that candidates satisfy the general regulations governing Master's degrees in the Faculty of Humanities.

Course description: An MA degree can be obtained by a 100% thesis or there are three routes for the MA Degree by course work and thesis:

Option A: Coursework and Thesis. First year coursework consists of three compulsory papers and two electives. Second year thesis (30 – 50 000 words).

Compulsory courses (assessed by assignment and examination):

Media Studies and Social Theory = 10%

Media Research Methods = 10%

Academic Writing = 10%

Two electives must be chosen from a list of courses each of which is worth 10%

Students then complete a thesis which counts 50% of the degree.

Option B: Media Practice Project and Thesis.

(The supervisor may specify that the student participate in/audit Media Studies courses to complement the research.)

Media Practice Project = 50%

Thesis = 50%

Option C: Specialising in Digital Journalism.

This option is offered on a part-time basis subject to availability of resources

Compulsory courses (assessed by assignment):

Digital Journalism Studies = 15%

Digital Media Economics = 15%

Audience and Narrative in Digital Times = 10%

Digital Media Research Methods = 10%

Thesis = 50%

DOCTORATE IN JOURNALISM AND MEDIA STUDIES

(NQF level 10, 360 credits)

Entrance requirements: A Master's Degree in Humanities or Social Sciences

Course description: Doctoral studies are undertaken by full thesis and under the guidance of supervisors.

INTERDEPARTMENTAL COURSES

1. Cultures and Languages in Africa (CLIA) 101 and 102

First-year level courses, NQF Level 5, 15 credits each

Entrance requirements: None. These two courses are open to all undergraduates, and can be taken independently of one another.

PURPOSE OF CLIA 101 AND 102: To familiarise students with the relationships between societies, cultures, identities and languages in Africa; to give students the tools to think holistically and critically about a multicultural, intercultural and multilingual world.

OUTCOMES OF CLIA 101 AND 102: An understanding of the relationships between cultures, languages, societies and identities in Africa; an understanding of inter-, intra- and cross-cultural communication; an understanding of what it means to be a socially engaged African and global citizen.

Course descriptions

Cultures and Languages in Africa 101

Students will engage critically with the relationships between cultures and languages in Africa. In CLIA 101 the focus will be on the relationships between languages, and the societies in which they are embedded.

Cultures and Languages in Africa 102

In CLIA 102 the focus will be on language as a site of struggle and identity formation in Africa.

DP requirements: 80% attendance at lectures and tutorials; submission of assignments on time.

Assessment: Under normal circumstances, course work 40% and Exam 60% for both CLIA 101 and CLIA 102. In an online learning environment, coursework will count 60% and the exam 40%.

Supplementary exam: None, unless last outstanding credit.

2. Modern Fiction

Second-year, full-year course (NQF level 6, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: Students must be at least 2nd-year level students and should usually have passed at least two first-year Humanities subjects.

Course description: This is a one-year non-initial course, presented by members of the various sections of the School of Languages and Literatures, for students who have already obtained two credits. (See also Regulation H.13.1). The course is designed to give students with an interest in literature and film a greater appreciation of modern fiction produced in languages other than English.

Major works of film and prose fiction written between 1850 and the present are studied in English translation. The course introduces students to relevant aspects of the structure of literary texts and film, as well as the intellectual and cultural currents within which the works were produced..

DP requirements: 80% lecture and tutorial attendance.

Assessment: Coursework 60%; Exams 40%. Paper 1 (3 hours) is written off in June; Paper 2 (3 hours) is written off in November.

Supplementary exam: June/November result 35-49%

Sub-minimum for June: 35% Further information, including lists of prescribed texts and recommended readings for the course are available from members of the Division of Afrikaans and Netherlandic Studies in the School of Languages and on the course website (<http://www.ru.ac.za/modernfiction>)

African Languages at Rhodes is offered as both an academic course (African Language Studies) and a language acquisition course. Both are three-year major courses which may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculty of Humanities. One, or in some cases, more than one course is allowed as a credit for a degree/ diploma/certificate curricula in the Faculties of Commerce, Law, Education and Science.

African Language Studies 1

Full year course (NQF Level 5, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: This course is offered to isiNguni (isiXhosa, isiNdebele, isiZulu, Siswati) language speakers who have matriculated with an isiNguni language.

Course description: The African Language Studies course takes a multi-disciplinary approach to isiXhosa, mainly, and other isiNguni languages. It can be taken in combination with any other discipline in the University. It is also market-driven and modules offered are meant to enhance the employability of the students. Presently the modules on offer are Introduction to Linguistics, Language and Society, Literary Studies, as well as Comparative isiNguni Language Studies. The medium of teaching and learning is, primarily, isiXhosa but other isiNguni students are allowed to use their respective languages in both oral and writing engagements.

Assessments: The modules in the first semester count 50% towards the final year mark.

Coursework counts 40% and the examination in June/Nov counts 60%

DP requirements: Class participation and attendance of classes is critical to language learning. A minimum of 70% lecture attendance and tutorial participation is required.. Students should attain a minimum of 40% for their year mark..

African Language Studies 2

Full year course (NQF level 6, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: This course is offered to isiNguni (isiXhosa, isiNdebele, isiZulu, Siswati) language speakers. African Language Studies 1 is a prerequisite to be admitted to this course. If a student has done an isiXhosa for Journalism course which forms part of Journalism and Media Studies at Rhodes then they can take African Language Studies 2.

Course description: The course consists of 4 modules per year which are divided into 2 modules per semester. The African Language Studies course 2 takes a multi-disciplinary approach to isiXhosa, mainly, and other isiNguni languages. It can be taken in combination with any other discipline in the University. It is also market-driven and modules offered are meant to enhance the employability of the students. Presently the modules on offer are Introduction to Linguistics, Human Language Technology, Translation Studies, Language and Society, Cultural Studies, Literary Studies, Lexicography, as well as Comparative isiNguni Language Studies. The medium of teaching and learning is, primarily, isiXhosa but other isiNguni students are allowed to use their respective languages.

Assessments: The modules in the first semester count 50% towards the final year mark.

Coursework counts 40% and the three-hour examination in June/Nov counts 60%

DP requirements: Class participation and attendance of classes is critical to language learning. A minimum of 70% lecture attendance and tutorial participation is required.. Students should attain a minimum of 40% for their year mark.

African Language Studies 3

Full year course (NQF level 7, 60 credits)

Entrance requirements: African Language Studies 2

Course description: The course consists of 4 modules per year which are divided into 2 modules per semester. The modules in the first semester are a write-off and they count 50% towards the final year mark. IsiXhosa for Journalism

One-year course (NQF level 5, 30 credits).

Entrance requirements: This course is compulsory for all students majoring in Journalism and Media Studies and must be taken during the second year of their degree. If students fail the course at the end of this year, they will be allowed to repeat the course during their third year of study. The course must be completed before a student can graduate. Students who intend to graduate with a BJourn degree should note that the full course must be completed by the end of the third year of their Journalism and Media Studies major. Once the course has been passed, students can also proceed to second year. Such students will be allocated either to the African Language Studies or isiXhosa Language Acquisition stream, depending on their level of proficiency. in isiXhosa. Students who plan to proceed to isiXhosa 2 in this way may apply to complete the isiXhosa for Journalism course during their first year.

Course description: The purpose of the IsiXhosa for Journalism course is to enable students to work confidently and sensitively as journalists in multilingual and multicultural environments. It achieves this goal by focusing on what it means to work as a journalist in the environment in which Rhodes University is based. Because isiXhosa is the primary language of communication for the majority of people in this context, the course focuses on strengthening students' ability to communicate in this language. This aspect of the course is designed to accommodate students with widely different proficiency levels in isiXhosa, from those who are fluent to those who have no experience in speaking the language. The course also assists students in strengthening their ability to reflect in an informed way on how journalism is produced and circulated in multicultural contexts. They do so by exploring cultural and linguistic questions and debates of relevance to the South African context, with particular reference to issues of relevance to environments in which isiXhosa is spoken. The knowledge students acquire in this way is, however, more widely applicable, strengthening their ability to engage with the languages and cultures that are of relevance to any work environment.

Assessment: It is both formative and summative and in the form of orals that simulate contexts where language is used in journalistic environments and journalistic projects and essays. Students are assessed throughout the duration of the course to evaluate whether they have accomplished the specific outcomes as given in the course. Formative assessment is 50% and summative assessment is 50%

IsiXhosa for Pharmacy

Semester course that can be taken in either semester (NQF level 5, 15 credits).

Entrance requirements: It is taken during the fourth year of the pharmacy degree where students are required to interact, during their Community Experience Programme, with speakers of isiXhosa in Grahamstown and in other communities where isiXhosa is spoken.

Course description: The purpose of the course is to give students language skills, specific to their vocation, to be able to cope during “patient-client” interviews in contexts where isiXhosa has to be spoken. This is a beginners course and other than basic literacy skills in English, there is no prior knowledge expected of isiXhosa from the students. During lectures the focus is in all four language learning skills (i.e. speaking, listening, reading and writing). Students are also provided with knowledge and skills which will be necessary for them to understand and interpret cultural issues embedded in isiXhosa communication, especially those specific in the context of medicine.

Assessment: It is both formative and summative and in the form of orals that simulate contexts where language is used (or “On-site clinical examinations” – OSCEs) and reflective essays. Students are assessed throughout the duration of the course to evaluate whether they have accomplished the specific outcomes as given in the course.

PhD in Greek and/or Latin

(NQF level 10, 360 credits)

Entrance requirements: A completed Master's degree in Greek and/or Latin.

Entrance requirements: Candidates require an Honours degree in any discipline or the NQF equivalent. A portfolio of creative work must accompany the application. For detailed guidelines please consult our Prospectus available for download from the Creative Writing section of our website.

Course description: Both full-time and part-time programmes are offered in 2022. The full-time programme consists of sixteen weeks of coursework during the first semester, presented by at least fifteen writers. During the second semester students create an extended creative work under supervision. The part-time programme is completed over a two-year period.

All coursework is presented in English but candidates may discuss language preferences at the beginning of the year with the Course Coordinator and the Section Head. Parallel seminars and reading groups are offered in isiXhosa and Kaaps, as well as for the Graphic Novel genre, where the need arises. Application portfolios should reflect both the language and the genre preference of the applicant.

Creative Writing is committed to innovative approaches to literary production that expand the possibilities of writing. At once, critical and creative, the programme emphasises the essential relationship between reading and writing. As such, a core requirements is the production of a formatively assessed record of reflection on this process as it is experienced across all facets of the course. These weekly reflections (bi-weekly for part-time students) are then compiled and edited into a process journal of critical reflection on the creative process for submission with the final half-thesis of creative work.

In addition to seminars, coursework assignments, and reading groups, candidates are required to complete four book reviews, a short essay on book reviewing, a Community Project exercise and report, as well as a short essay on poetics.

The final half-thesis of poetry, prose, a hybrid genre, or a graphic novel is formatively assessed by an anonymous reader skilled within the particular genre of the thesis who produces a short report. This report is used by the student in consultation with their supervisor to reflexively assess the creative work and to write up the assessment for inclusion in the process journal.

Formal assessment of the creative work plus process journal is performed by two external examiners for monolingual theses and by four examiners for dual-language theses. Where possible we pair local and international examiners.

Teaching Assistants

To be appointed

The object of courses in Linguistics and Applied Language Studies is to develop students' understanding of language systems and behaviour in the context of human communication and society. The focus is on language within the South African context, though there are modules involving foreign languages as well. Linguistics is an important component in the study of people and their culture, and is of potential interest to students planning Humanities, Social Science or Law degrees, as well as being of practical value to those specifically intending to qualify as journalists and language teachers. Students are also encouraged to combine Linguistics and Applied Language Studies with a major in another language. Linguistics and Applied Language Studies is a three-year major subject. Entrance to the course is open to students in all faculties.

Module Themes

Module 1: Sound systems: Sounds of the World (NQF 5), Phonetics and Phonology (NQF 6), Phonetics and Phonology (NQF 7)

Module 2: Sociolinguistics: Language in South Africa and Society (NQF 5), Sociolinguistics (NQF 6), Sociolinguistics (NQF 7)

Module 3: Semantics: Language and Meaning (NQF 5), Semantics (NQF 6), Semantics (NQF 7)

Module 4: African Linguistics (NQF 5), African Linguistics (NQF 6), African Linguistics (NQF 7)

Module 5: Psycholinguistics: Language in Childhood and Education (NQF 5) Second Language Learning (NQF 6), Linguistics of Literacy (NQF 7)

Module 6: Syntax: Language structures (NQF 5), Syntax (NQF 6), Syntax (NQF 7)

Module 7: Discourse: Language in Context (NQF 5); Conversation Analysis (NQF 6), Critical Discourse Analysis (NQF 7)

Module 8: Comparative Linguistics: Introduction to Japanese Linguistics (NQF 5), Introduction to Sign Language Linguistics (NQF 7)

Module 9: Systemic Functional Linguistics: Language in the Media (NQF 5), Systemic Functional Linguistics (NQF 6), Systemic Functional Linguistics (NQF 7)

Module 10: Linguistics and Community (NQF 6)

Module 11: Linguistic Interfaces (NQF 6)

Module 12: Special Topic in Linguistics (NQF 5); Special Topics in Linguistics (NQF 6), Special Topics in Linguistics (NQF 7)

Linguistics and Applied Language Studies 1 (ELN 1)

First-year, full-year course (NQF level 5, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: None.

Course description: This course provides an introduction to eight of the modules listed above at NQF Level 5, maintaining a balance between the study of language systems and language in use. Students registered for ELN 1 must take eight modules assessed at NQF Level 5. Two 1½-hour examination papers are written in June, and two in November.

DP requirements: students must attend 80% of all class meetings and submit all written tests and assignments by the due date.

Assessment: Coursework counts 50%; two 1½-hour examinations in June and two in November count 50%.

Supplementary exam: none

Sub-minimum for June: 35%

Students in their second and third years of study continue with these broad strands, completing four semester-long modules at NQF Levels 6 and 7 respectively from the list above for each credit. The modules to be offered in any given year are chosen to provide a coherent linguistic programme, maintaining a balance between formal and applied linguistics, and according to staff availability.

Linguistics and Applied Language Studies 2 (ELN 2)

Second-year, full-year course comprising four modules (NQF level 6, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: ELN 1

Course description: The focus of the course is divided between description of linguistic systems and studies on language in use.

DP requirements: students must attend 80% of all class meetings and submit all written tests and assignments by the due date.

Assessment: Coursework counts 50%; two 3-hour examinations in June and two in November count 50%.

Supplementary exam: none

Sub-minimum for June: 35%

Combined English Studies 2

Second-year, full-year course (NQF level 6, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: ELN 1 and ENG 1

Course description: This course enables students to take half their modules for the year in Linguistics and the other half in English Literature. The Linguistics component consists of any four modules offered at NQF Level 6. Students who follow this option may not, in addition, take Linguistics and Applied Language Studies 2 and/or English Literature 2 as separate subjects.

DP requirements: In the Linguistics component, students must attend 80% of all class meetings and submit all written tests and assignments by the due date.

Assessment: In the Linguistics component, coursework counts 50%; one 3-hour examination in June and one in November count 50%. These marks are aggregated with the marks from English Literature.

Supplementary exam: none

Sub-minimum for June: 35%

Linguistics and Applied Language Studies 3 (ELN 3)

Third-year, full-year course (NQF level 7, 60 credits)

Entrance requirements: ELN 2 or Combined English Studies 2

Course description: The focus of the course is divided between the description of linguistic systems and studies on language in use. Students registered for ELN 3 take eight modules at NQF Level 7. In addition students produce a research report on a linguistic topic assessed at NQF Level 7.

DP requirements: students must attend 80% of all class meetings, including 100% of all Research Group meetings, and submit all written tests and assignments by the due date.

Assessment: June Exam 21.25%; November Exam 21.25%; Class record: 42.50%; Research Report: 15.00%

Supplementary exam: none

Sub-minimum for June: 35%

Combined English Studies 3

Third-year, full-year course (NQF level 7, 60 credits)

Entrance requirements: ELN 2 and ENG 2, or Combined English Studies 2

Course description: This course enables students to take half their modules for the year in Linguistics and the other half in English Literature. The Linguistics component consists of any two modules offered at NQF Level 7 and a research report in Linguistics assessed at NQF Level 7. Students who follow this option may not, in addition, take English Language and Linguistics 3 and/or English Literature 3 as separate subjects.

DP requirements: In the Linguistics component, students must attend 80% of all class meetings and submit all written tests and assignments by the due date.

Assessment: In the Linguistics component, coursework counts 50%; one 3-hour examination in June and one in November count 50%. These marks are aggregated with the marks from English Literature.

Supplementary exam: none

Sub-minimum for June: 35%

Professional Communication

Second-year, one-semester course (NQF level 6, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: The course is intended for Commerce students who are in at least their second academic year, apart from those registered for BCom (Accounting). Students from other Faculties are only admitted to the course if they are majoring in a subject from the Commerce Faculty.

Course description: The Professional Communication course aims to improve the spoken, written and small-group communication skills of students, and focuses on communication in the commercial and professional world. Some theoretical background is given, but the bulk of the course is experiential and practical, and students are expected to participate in all activities. It is a compulsory course required for the completion of a Commerce undergraduate degree in all curricula apart from a BCom (Accounting). Students attend three classes every week (two tutorials and one lecture). Additional online resources and compulsory exercises are also offered every week.

DP requirements: Students must submit all written tests and assignments by the due date, and must complete all spoken presentation assessments. Students must attend 80% of tutorials.

Assessment: Coursework counts 40%; one 3-hour examination counts 60%.

Supplementary exam: None

Professional Communication for Accountants

Second-year, one-term course
(NQF level 6, 7.5 credits)

Entrance requirements: The course is intended for Commerce students in their second academic year, registered for BCom (Accounting).

Course description: Professional Communication for Accountants aims to improve the spoken, written and small-group communication skills of students, and focuses on communication in the commercial and professional world with a special emphasis on the communicative needs of accountants. Some theoretical background is given, but the bulk of the course is experiential and practical, and students are expected to participate in all activities. It is a compulsory course required for the completion of a BCom (Accounting). Students attend three classes every week (two tutorials and one lecture). Additional online resources and compulsory exercises are also offered every week. The course content is partly assessed through an assignment in the Principles of Professional Accountancy course, which is jointly assessed by both the Linguistics and Applied Language Studies and Accounting departments.

DP requirements: Students must submit all written tests and assignments by the due date, and must complete all spoken presentation assessments. Students must attend 80% of tutorials.

Assessment: Coursework counts 100%; there is no examination for the course.

Supplementary exam: None

POSTGRADUATE DEGREES IN LINGUISTICS AND APPLIED LANGUAGE STUDIES

There are a number of options for postgraduate studies in Linguistics and Applied Language Studies, including Honours, Master's and PhD degrees. Some of these options can be taken on either a full-time or part-time basis, and at Master's level the options include degrees by thesis only or by coursework and half thesis.

The following coursework modules may be offered at Honours and Master's degree levels:

Module 1: Introduction to Linguistics at Rhodes

Module 2: Phonetics and Phonology

Module 3: Language, Mind and Biolinguistics:
Introduction to Minimalist Syntax

Module 4: Debates in Language Change

Module 5: The Acquisition of Grammar

Module 6: Ethnographic Investigation of Literacy Practices

Module 7: Language and Gender

Module 8: Language Contact: Bilingualism and Related Phenomena

Module 9: Topics in Psycholinguistics: Literacy and Reading

Module 10: The Investigation of Interpersonal Meaning

Module 11: Research Project

Module 12: Corpus Linguistics

Module 13: Sign Language Linguistics

Module 14: Psycho- and Neurolinguistics

Module 15: External language credit

Module 16: Language and Knowledge

Module 17: Introduction to Critical Discourse Analysis

Module 18: Special Topics in Linguistics

Please consult the Department's Postgraduate Handbook (available on the Department website) for more information on the structuring and content of these modules. Modules passed at the Honours degree level may not be repeated at Master's degree level (see below). In terms of assessment, all modules carry equal weight, and are assessed by assignments and examinations. Examinations are written at the end of the semester in which modules are taught. The department may offer take-home, open-book, pre-allocated questions or standard exams.

1. Postgraduate Diploma in English

Language Teaching

(NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance requirements: This course is offered subject to student numbers and is intended for students without a major in English Language and Linguistics. The entry requirement for the course is any Bachelor's degree, subject to the approval of the Head of Department (BA, BCom, BFA, BJourn, BMus, BSocSc or BSc). Students who have credits in Linguistics will be admitted at the discretion of the Head of Department.

Course description: The Postgraduate Diploma in English Language Teaching is a one-year full-time course, or (in special circumstances) it may be taken part-time over two years. The course aims to provide graduates with the theoretical knowledge and awareness of the skills, methods and techniques necessary to be effective English teachers in English Second Language and multilingual classrooms in South Africa. The curriculum combines components from the undergraduate programme in English Language and Linguistics with postgraduate modules.

2. Honours degrees

The aim of the Honours course is to provide students with a balance between the social and formal aspects of the central disciplines of Linguistics. All modules include a strong commitment to methodological and analytical aspects, drawing on relevant theory and consolidated by a supervised research report. The Honours degree can be completed full-time in one year (minimum) or over two years on a part-time basis.

Honours in Linguistics and Applied Language Studies

(NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance requirements: Entry to the Honours programme in Linguistics and Applied Language Studies requires a first degree in English Language and Linguistics or a cognate discipline.

Course description: Students must complete four coursework modules (see above). In addition, students will complete a research report on a topic to be mutually negotiated, taking into account the research and/ or teaching interests of the department, e.g. further developing Linguistics and Applied Language Studies 3 research reports, Honours modules or departmental research projects. At the discretion of the Head of Department, students may take a non-mother-tongue language credit from the Rhodes University School of Languages and Literatures in place of one of the four modules. Additional coursework will be required.

Honours in English Language Teaching

(NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance requirements: Entry to the course requires a first degree in Linguistics or a cognate discipline or a Postgraduate Certificate in Education or its equivalent.

Course description: This course is offered subject to student numbers and current staff expertise and aims to give teachers with professional qualifications, or graduates planning a career in language teaching, a specialised and professional training in English Language Teaching (ELT) as an applied discipline. Students will be required to take modules with an ELT focus which may not be available in any particular year.

3. Master's degrees

Two structures are possible in the Master's degree:

Master of Arts by full thesis

(NQF level 9, 180 credits)

Entrance requirements: Entry into the Master's programme in Linguistics and Applied Language Studies is open to students with any of the following qualifications: (a) an Honours degree in Linguistics or English Language Teaching, or (b) an Honours degree in a cognate discipline, subject to the approval of the Head of Department.

Course description: This is a research degree, which is governed by the general regulations for Master's degrees in the University. Full-time candidates can complete the requirements for the award of the degree in a minimum of one year but usually take at least two years to complete the degree. Part-time candidates can complete the requirements in a minimum of two years.

Master of Arts by coursework and half thesis

(NQF level 9, 180 credits)

Entrance requirements: Entry into the Master's programme in Linguistics and Applied Language

Studies is open to students with any of the following qualifications: (a) an Honours degree in Linguistics or English Language Teaching, or (b) an Honours degree in a cognate discipline, subject to the approval of the Head of Department.

Course description: This degree can be completed on a full-time basis over one year, or part-time over two years, and consists of both coursework and a half thesis. Coursework includes four modules. The half thesis is guided research, supervised by a member of the department. Part-time candidates can complete the coursework in the first year of study and the half thesis in the second year. Full-time candidates can complete both coursework and the half thesis in one year.

4. Doctoral degrees

(NQF level 10, 360 credits)

Entrance requirements: Students with a Master's degree in linguistics can register for the Doctoral degree.

Course description: The Doctoral degree in Linguistics can only be done by thesis, and only under the supervision of a member of staff. Students who have not studied Linguistics at Rhodes previously will be required to take four modules as part of their preparation for the thesis.

Assessment: Core paper counts 60% (essays 24% and exam 36%) and the elective paper 40%.

Supplementary exam: None

Sub-minimum for aggregation: 40%

COMBINED ENGLISH STUDIES 3 (AES 3A)

Third-year, full-year course (NQF level 7, 60 credits)

Entrance requirements: Candidates who have passed English 2 and English Language and Linguistics 2, or Combined English Studies 2, may take a combined major in English and Linguistics. They will take two papers from the Linguistics programme (ENL 3) and two core papers from the Literature programme (ENG 3). Students will, in addition, register for another major. Candidates who take Combined English Studies 3 may not, in addition, take English 3 or English Language and Linguistics 3 as separate subjects. Students registered for the Combined English Studies 3 programme will take one paper from each department in each semester.

DP requirements: Submission of all essays and writing the June and November examination for the core paper.

Assessment: Core paper counts 60% (essays 24% and exam 36%).

Supplementary exam: None

ENGLISH HONOURS

(NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance requirements: 65% for English 3. Subject to the approval of both Heads of Department and the Dean, Honours courses may be offered in (a) English or (b) English in combination with Honours courses offered by other departments (see Rule H.26). The latter option will be termed “joint Honours” if the candidate takes two or more papers from another department. Full English

Honours candidates may nevertheless include in their curriculum one paper chosen from another Honours course in the Humanities Faculty. The attention of prospective candidates is also drawn to the separate entry on Interdisciplinary Honours degrees (see Interdepartmental Studies) for information on other options involving input from the Department of Literary Studies in English.

Course description: Candidates for Honours in English choose five papers from the following:

- Paper 1 Literary Theory
- Paper 3 American Literature
- Paper 4 Global Modernisms
- Paper 5 Africa in the World
- Paper 6 Imaginings of Place in SA Literature Subject to the approval of the Head of the Department, a candidate may choose to submit a research essay of not more than 10 000 words in place of one of the above papers.

DP requirements: Submission of all essays; 100% attendance of seminars; writing the June and November examinations

Assessment: Coursework counts 60% and June and November examinations 40%.

MASTER’S DEGREE

Candidates for this degree are required to complete a research thesis.

DOCTORAL DEGREE

Management is a three-year major subject which may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculty of Commerce. It is also possible to take Management as a major subject in the BSc, BSocSc and BJourn degrees. In addition, one, or in some cases, two, courses in Management are allowed as courses for degree/diploma curricula in the Faculties of Education, Law and Science. The BBusSc degree in the Department of Management is designed to equip students to pursue a career in Management. Normally a candidate will only be admitted to Management 2 if credit has been obtained in Accounting 1. A candidate will normally be admitted to Management 3 only if credit has been obtained in Accounting 1, Economics 1, and either one of Mathematics 1, or Theory of Finance and Statistics 1D.

Students will normally be refused admission to any course offered by the Department after the second week of the start of the course.

FIRST-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN MANAGEMENT

Management 1 consists of two semester courses: MAN 101 and MAN 102. Credit may be obtained in any of the courses separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a two-semester course MAN 1, provided that the courses constituting Management 1 are read in the same year and a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each course (see Rule C.12). A candidate who fails MAN 101 shall be permitted to proceed to MAN 102 provided the required sub-minimum in MAN 101 has been obtained. A pass in MAN 102 in such circumstances shall NOT relieve the candidate of the need to pass MAN 101 in order to gain credit for the full course unless an aggregated pass is awarded.

Management 1 is seen as an undergraduate introductory course in business management. The purpose of the course is to equip students with knowledge of management in the South African business environment.

Management 101 (MAN 101)

First-year, first-semester course (NQF Level 5, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: none

Course description: This semester course focuses on the world of business management, the role of an entrepreneur and manager in the South African business environment, and managerial competencies. Further the module focuses on the general management tasks of planning, organising, leading and controlling.

DP requirements: Obtain a coursework mark of at least 40%; attend all tutorials; submit all assignments on or before due date; and write all term tests

Assessment: Coursework counts 40%; one two-hour examination counts 60%

Supplementary examination: yes

Management 102 (MAN 102)

First-year, second-semester course (NQF Level 5, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: sub-minimum of 35% in MAN 101

Course description: This semester course continues to focus on the business organisation and management, and explores managing in various contexts which includes marketing management, financial management, operations management, human resource management and purchasing and supply chain management.

DP requirements: Obtain a coursework mark of at least 40%; attend all tutorials; submit all assignments on or before due date; and write all term tests

Assessment: Coursework counts 40%; one two-hour examination counts 60%

Supplementary examination: yes

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN MANAGEMENT

Management 2 consists of four half-semester modules: MAN 211, MAN 212, MAN 213 and MAN 214. Credit may be obtained in any of the modules separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a two-semester course MAN 2, provided that the modules constituting Management 2 are read in the same year and that a sub-minimum of 45% is obtained for at least two modules, with credit being obtained in the remaining two modules; or that a sub-minimum of 40% is obtained for one module, with credit being obtained for the remaining three modules (see Rule C.12).

Management 211 (MAN 211) - Human Resource Management A

Second-year, first quarter module (NQF Level 6, 8 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: MAN 101 and MAN 102 or MAN 1 with MAN 101 and MAN 102 aggregated, and ACC 101 and ACC 102 or ACC 112, or ACC 1 with ACC 101 and ACC 102 or ACC 112 aggregated

Course description: The human resource management function with emphasis on human resource planning, staffing, compensation, labour relations, training and development, performance management, human resource information technology and international human resource management maintenance.

DP requirements: Attend all tutorials; submit all assignments on or before due date; and write all tests
Assessment: Coursework counts 40%; one two-hour examination counts 60%

Supplementary examination: yes

Management 212 (MAN 212) - Supply Chain Management

Second-year, second quarter module (NQF Level 6, 8 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: MAN 101 and MAN 102 or MAN 1 with MAN 101 and MAN 102 aggregated, and ACC 101 and ACC 102 or ACC 112, or ACC 1 with ACC 101 and ACC 102 or ACC 112 aggregated

Course description: An overview of operations and supply chain management with an emphasis on the concepts of supply chain strategy, integrated logistics, inventory, quality and quality tools, forecasting and supply chain management challenges and future trends.

DP requirements: Attend all tutorials; submit all assignments on or before due date; and write all tests

Assessment: Coursework counts 40%; one two-hour examination counts 60%

Supplementary examination: yes

Management 213 (MAN 213) - Principles of Marketing A

Second-year, third quarter module (NQF Level 6, 8 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: MAN 101 and MAN 102 or MAN 1 with MAN 101 and MAN 102 aggregated, and ACC 101 and ACC 102 or ACC 112, or ACC 1 with ACC 101 and ACC 102 or ACC 112 aggregated

Course description: The principles of Marketing which includes – the marketing concept, the marketing mix with specific emphasis on product, price, place and promotion decisions; an introduction to marketing research; an introduction to consumer behaviour; and segmentation, targeting and positioning.

DP requirements: Attend all tutorials; submit all assignments on or before due date; obtain a sub-minimum mark of at least 40% for the group assignment; and write all tests and obtain a sub-minimum of at least 40% for the class test

Assessment: Coursework counts 40%; one two-hour examination counts 60%

Supplementary examination: yes

Management 214 (MAN 214) - Financial Management A

Second-year, fourth quarter module (NQF Level 6, 8 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: MAN 101 and MAN 102 or MAN 2 with MAN 101 and MAN 102 aggregated, and ACC 101 and ACC 102 or ACC 112, or ACC 1 with ACC 101 and ACC 102 or ACC 112 aggregated

Course description: This course builds on the foundation of the financial management topics introduced in the first year programme. The specific focus is on capital budgeting, cost of capital, working capital management, and financial statement analysis.

DP requirements: Attend all tutorials; submit all assignments on or before due date; and write all tests
Assessment: Coursework counts 40%; one two-hour examination counts 60%

Supplementary examination: yes

The Department reserves the right to teach MAN 211, MAN 212, MAN 213 and MAN 214, which constitute MAN 2, in any combination in each of the two semesters.

THIRD-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN MANAGEMENT

Management 3 consists of four half-semester modules: MAN 311, MAN 312, MAN 313 and MAN 314. Credit may be obtained in any of the modules separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a two-semester course MAN 3, provided that the modules constituting Management 3 are read in the same year and that a sub-minimum of 45% is obtained for at least two modules, with credit being obtained in the remaining two modules; or that a sub-minimum of 40% is obtained for one module, with credit being obtained for the remaining three modules (see Rule C.12).

Management 311 (MAN 311) - Human Resource Management B

Third-year, first quarter module (NQF Level 7, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: MAN 211, MAN 212, MAN 213 and MAN 214 or MAN 2 with MAN 211, MAN 212, MAN 213 and MAN 214 aggregated, ECO 101 and ECO 102 or ECO 1 with ECO 101 and ECO 102 aggregated, MAT 1C or TOF 1 and STA 1D

Course description: Building on MAN 311 – Human Resource Management A, this module focuses on organisational behaviour, with the emphasis on understanding the behaviour and leadership of people in the organisation; labour relations, with the emphasis on South African labour relations systems and management.

DP requirements: Submit all assignments on or before due date; and write all tests

Assessment: Coursework counts 40%; one three-hour examination counts 60%

Supplementary examination: yes

Management 312 (MAN 312) - Strategic Management

Third-year, second quarter module (NQF Level 7, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: MAN 211, MAN 212, MAN 213 and MAN 214 or MAN 2 with MAN 211, MAN 212, MAN 213 and MAN 214 aggregated, ECO 101 and ECO 102 or ECO 1 with ECO 101 and ECO 102 aggregated, MAT 1C or TOF 1 and STA 1D

Course description: A study of the principles of strategic management, in accordance with the constraints and opportunities imposed by both internal and external environmental factors.

DP requirements: Attend all tutorials; submit all assignments on or before due date; and write all tests

Assessment: Coursework counts 40%; one three-hour examination counts 60%

Supplementary examination: yes

Management 313 (MAN 313) - Principles of Marketing B

Third-year, third quarter module (NQF Level 7, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: MAN 211, MAN 212, MAN 213 and MAN 214 or MAN 2 with MAN 211, MAN 212, MAN 213 and MAN 214 aggregated, ECO 101 and ECO 102 or ECO 1 with ECO 101 and ECO 102 aggregated, MAT 1C or TOF 1 and STA 1D

Course description: Building on MAN 213 - Principles of Marketing A, this module focuses on a selection of the following topics – designing a customer-driven marketing strategy, marketing research, consumer behaviour, brand management, international marketing, marketing communications, services marketing, social and digital marketing.

DP requirements: Attend all tutorials; submit all assignments on or before due date; and write all tests
Assessment: Coursework counts 40%; one three-hour examination counts 60%

Supplementary examination: yes

Management 314 (MAN 314) - Financial Management B

Third-year, fourth quarter module (NQF Level 7, 15 credits)

Admission pre-requisites: MAN 211, MAN 212, MAN 213 and MAN 214 or MAN 2 with MAN 211, MAN 212, MAN 213 and MAN 214 aggregated, ECO 101 and ECO 102 or ECO 1 with ECO 101 and ECO 102 aggregated, MAT 1C or TOF 1 and STA 1D

Course description: This course continues the development of a coherent knowledge structure in financial management, building on topics introduced in the first and second year programmes. There are four main subject areas: capital structure; dividends and other payouts; environmental, social and governance (ESG) issues; and mergers and acquisitions.

DP requirements: Attend all tutorials; submit all assignments on or before due date; and write all tests
Assessment: Coursework counts 40%; one three-hour examination counts 60%

Supplementary examination: yes

The Department reserves the right to teach MAN 311, MAN 312, MAN 313 and MAN 314, which constitute MAN 3, in any combination in each of the two semesters.

HONOURS LEVEL COURSESBachelor of Commerce (Honours) in the Department of Management

Students can register for one of two options:

1. B.Com (Hons) Management/Management 4 (BBS4)
2. B.Com (Hons) Management: Financial Management

B.Com (Hons) Management/Management 4 (BBS4)

This honours degree option consists of the following 3 compulsory papers:

Paper 1: Strategic Management

Paper 2: Personal Financial Management

Paper 8: Research

And any 2 papers out of the following:

Paper 3: Human Resource Management

Paper 4: Strategic Marketing

Paper 7: Project Management

Admission requirements: A degree with a major in Management or equivalent. Credit should be obtained for all relevant Management courses with an aggregate of 60%. Admission however remains at the discretion of the Department of Management.

BCom (Hons) Management: Financial Management

This option consists of the following 5 compulsory papers:

Paper 1: Strategic Management

Paper 2: Personal Financial Management

Paper 5: Investments

Paper 6: Derivatives and Risk Management

Paper 8: Research

Admission requirements: A degree with a major in Financial Management (equivalent to Management 314). Credit should be obtained for all relevant Management courses with an aggregate of 60% as well as a minimum of 60% for Financial Management. Admission, however, remains at the discretion of the Department of Management.

Paper Content

Paper 1: Strategic Management

The aim of this course is to enable students to think strategically and be aware of the importance of ethical principles, values and responsible corporate citizenship. Topics include:

- Strategy, stakeholders and strategic direction
- Strategic analysis
- Strategy development and formulation
- Strategy implementation and strategic risk management

Paper 2: Personal Financial Management

The course aims to increase the financial literacy levels of students. The course will ensure that students acquire the necessary knowledge of personal finance content, execute financial calculations (improving financial numeracy), and transfer class-based financial knowledge into real-world experience. This course will also allow students to gain practical experience with personal financial content through Service-learning. Topics include:

- Personal finance theory and financial education
- Cash management
- Risk management and insurance
- Savings products and investment
- Retirement planning
- Estate planning

Paper 3: Human Resource Management

The aim of this course is to enable students to initiate and manage organisational change and development.

Topics include:

- The skills, task and role of an organisational consultant
- Organisational development (OD)
- Organisational diagnosis
- Organisational development interventions
- Learning Organisations
- Knowledge and intellectual capital

Paper 4: Strategic Marketing

The aim of this course is to enable students to solve contemporary topical marketing problems.

Topics include:

- International Marketing
- Consumer Behaviour
- Brand Management
- Marketing Research
- Customer Relationship Management (CRM)
- B2B Marketing
- Services Marketing
- E-Marketing
- Integrated Marketing Communications (IMC)

Paper 5: Investments & Paper 6: Derivatives and Risk Management

The aim of this course is to extend the corporate finance focus of the undergraduate programme, by introducing students to key concepts underpinning investment and risk management.

Topics include:

- Investment returns
- Equity valuation using dividend discount, free cash flow, and residual income models
- Equity valuation using price and enterprise value multiples
- Equity risk and return
- Fixed income and money market valuation
- Fixed income duration (risk) and return
- Pricing and valuation of forward commitment and contingent claim derivatives
- Introduction to financial risks
- Hedging financial risks using derivative and non-derivative strategies

Paper 7: Project Management

Project management is the discipline of leading, planning, organising, and managing resources to bring about the successful completion of specific project goals and objectives.

The aim of this course is to familiarise and empower students to lead project teams, and to manage projects in the workplace, using a clearly defined and powerful set of knowledge resources, tools and techniques, while adding value to the overall organisational objectives.

Topics include:

- Introduction to Project Management, Knowledge Areas and Process Groups
- Project, Program and Portfolio Selection
- Project Leadership, Management and Team Selection

- Project Scope, Time, Cost and Quality Management
- Project Stakeholder, Procurement, Communication, Human Resource and Risk Management
- Project Management Tools and Techniques

Paper 8: Research

The aim of the course is to enable students to conduct research independently within a team.

Topics include:

- Identify a research project
- Write a research proposal
- Conduct a literature review
- Analyse and explain research results in a meaningful manner
- Write up the research in the form of a 5000-word research paper

Note 1: The Department of Management reserves the right to offer the papers in no particular order from academic year to year.

Note 2: The Department also permits students to register for either 40% or 60% Management Honours. 60% Honours candidates are required to read any two of the listed papers in addition to Paper 7 (Research), the Research Paper. 40% Honours candidates are required to read any two of the listed papers, excluding Paper 7 (Research). The 60% or 40% option is only available to those registering for the BCom (Hons) Management, and BCom (Hons) Management: Financial stream.

Degree credit requirements

50% or more is required for each of the papers for which candidates are registered in order to satisfy the requirements for the honours degree.

Course admission pre-requisites

Management 102: Sub-minimum of 35% for Management 101

Management 2: Management 1; Accounting 1

Management 3: Economics 1, Management 2, Mathematics 1C or Theory of Finance and Statistics 1D

Management 3 (Marketing): Management 213 (Marketing)

Management 3 (Finance): Management 214 (Financial Management) and Mathematics 1 or Theory of Finance and Statistics 1D

Management 3 (Human Resource Management): Management 211 (Human Resource Management)

Honours/ Management 4 (BBS4): Management 3, with a minimum aggregate of 60% for all courses and a credit for each course

Honours (Financial Stream): Major in Financial Management (equivalent to MAN 314), with a credit for all relevant majors, a minimum aggregate of 60% for all courses and minimum of 65% for financial management.

Aggregation

In cases where credit is obtained for a course on the basis of aggregation of marks awarded for courses/modules, candidates are permitted to proceed to any course at the next level of Management, but not to fourth-year (Honours and Management 4) level. Aggregation is not permitted at Honours and Management 4 level. Candidates are required to obtain credit in each of the papers constituting Honours and Management 4.

MASTER'S AND DOCTORAL DEGREES IN MANAGEMENT

Suitably qualified students are encouraged to proceed to the full thesis research degrees of MCom and PhD under the supervision of staff of the Department. Acceptance of the candidate will depend on a good academic record, the acceptance of a topic statement and the availability of expertise in the Department to supervise the project. Further details for these degrees are given in the General Regulations.

Mathematics (MAT) and Applied Mathematics (MAP) may be taken as major subjects for the degrees of BSc, BA, BJourn, BCom, BBusSci, BEcon and BSocSc, and for the diploma HDE(SEC).

To major in Mathematics, a candidate is required to obtain credit in the following courses: MAT1C; MAM2; MAT3.

To major in Applied Mathematics, a candidate is required to obtain credit in the following courses: MAT1C, MAM2; MAP3. See Rule S.23.

The attention of students who hope to pursue careers in the field of Bioinformatics is drawn to the recommended curriculum that leads to postgraduate study in this area, in which Mathematics is a recommended co-major with Biochemistry, and for which two years of Computer Science and either Mathematics or Mathematical Statistics are prerequisites. Details of this curriculum can be found in the entry for the Department of Biochemistry and Microbiology.

See the departmental web page for further details, particularly on the content of courses.

FOUNDATION YEAR COURSES

The Mathematics Department offers two courses as part of the extended studies programme, providing an opportunity for students without the required school- level mathematics credits to gain the background required to enter the mainstream program.

MAT 1F (Foundation Mathematics)

First-year, year-course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: Level 4 Mathematics or the NSC or equivalent

Course description: A full year course for students who do not qualify for entry into MAM 1 or MAT 1S1. This is particularly suitable for students in the Social Sciences and Biological Sciences who need to become numerate or achieve a basic level in mathematics. A 60% pass gives admission to MAM 1. The goal of this course is to help students develop appropriate mathematical tools necessary to represent and interpret information quantitatively. It also develops skills and meaningful ways of thinking, reasoning and arguing with quantitative ideas in order to solve problems in any given context.

Syllabus: Arithmetic: Units of scientific measurement, scales, dimensions; Error and uncertainty in measure values. Fractions and percentages - usages in basic science and commerce; use of calculators and spreadsheets.

Algebra: Polynomial, exponential, logarithmic and trigonometric functions and their graphs; modelling with functions; fitting curves to data; setting up and solving equations. Sequences and series, presentation of statistical data. Differential Calculus: Limits and continuity; Rules of differentiation; Applications of Calculus in curve sketching and optimisation.

This course is equivalent to MAT 1S1.

DP requirements: 100% attendance at tutorials and tests. 40% for the class record.

Assessment: June class record 20%, June Examination 30%, November class record 20%, November Examination 30%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% to continue into the second semester

Theory of Finance 1F (TOF 1F):

First-year, year-course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: Level 4 Mathematics or the NSC or equivalent

Course description: A full year course for students planning to enter the degree program in the Faculty of Commerce. The course material is identical to that of the TOF course (listed below), but covered at a slower pace over the course of two semesters. Syllabus: See description of TOF1, below.

DP requirements: None

Assessment: Class record 10%, June Examination 10%, November Examination 80%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: None

FIRST-YEAR LEVEL COURSES

Mathematics 1 (MAM 1): This is a year-long semesterised two-credit course. Credit in MAM 1 must be obtained by students who wish to major in certain subjects (such as Mathematics, Applied Mathematics, Physics and Mathematical Statistics) and by students registered for the BBusSci degree.

Introductory Mathematics (MAT 1S1): A semester-long course recommended for Pharmacy students and for Science students who do not need credits in MAM 1.

Theory of Finance (TOF 1C1): A single semester course taken for degree curricula in the Faculty of Commerce emphasising mathematical techniques required in finance and financial applications.

Course descriptions

Mathematics 1 (MAM 1)

There are two first-year courses in Mathematics for candidates planning to major in Mathematics or Applied Mathematics. MAT 101 is held in the first semester and MAM 102 in the second semester. Credit may be obtained in each course separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to the two-credit course MAM 1, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum (40%) in each component. Supplementary examinations may be recommended in either course, provided that a candidate achieves a minimum standard specified by the department. Candidates must obtain at least 40% for MAT 1C1 in order to be permitted to continue with MAM 102.

MAM 101

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: Level 5 Mathematics or the NSC or equivalent

Course description: Basic concepts (number systems, functions), calculus (limits, continuity, differentiation, curve sketching, introduction to integration), propositional calculus, proof techniques, permutations, combinations, binomial theorem, vectors, lines and planes, matrices and systems of linear equations.

DP requirements: Class record of at least 40% including two test results

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examination 60%

Supplementary exam: 40%

Subminimum for June: 40% to aggregate with MAM 102

MAM 102

First-year, second-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% MAM 101

Course description: Calculus (integration, applications of integration, improper integrals, ordinary differential equations), complex numbers, sequences and series including Taylor series.

DP requirements: Class record of at least 40% including two test results

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examination 60%

Supplementary exam: 40%

Subminimum for June: 40% to aggregate with MAM 101

Introductory Mathematics (MAT 1S1)

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: Level 4 Mathematics or the NSC or equivalent

Course description: Functions: Review of coordinate geometry, absolute values (including graphs); Inequalities; Power functions, trig functions, exponential functions, the number e (including graphs); Inverse functions: roots, logs, \ln (including graphs); Graphs and working with graphs; Interpretation of graphs, modeling; Introduction to differentiation and basic derivatives; Differentiation techniques (product, quotient and chain rules); Introduction to integration and basic integrals; modeling, translation of real-world problems into mathematics.

DP requirements: Class record of 40% including two test results

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examination 60%
Supplementary exam: 40%

Theory of Finance (TOF 1C1)

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirement: Level 4 Mathematics or the NSC equivalent

Course description: A single semester course for students planning to enter the degree program in the Faculty of Commerce. Syllabus: Simple Interest and Simple Discount, compound Interest, simple and complex annuities, loans, linear equations, linear programming, depreciation, differentiation, application of differentiation, integration

DP requirement: Class record of 40%

Assessment: Class record 20%, Examination 80%
Supplementary exam: 40%

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES

The Department offers a common second-year program for students intending to major in either Mathematics or Applied Mathematics. Mathematics and Applied Mathematics 2 (MAM 2) comprises two semesterised courses, MAM 201 and MAM 202. Each course may be obtained separately, alternatively, an aggregate mark of 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-long course MAM 2, provided a sub-minimum of 40% is achieved in both semesters.

MAM 201

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: MAM 1

Course description: This course is comprised of three modules which run concurrently throughout the semester:

- Multivariable Calculus: Partial differentiation: directional derivatives and the gradient vector; maxima and minima of surfaces; Lagrange multipliers. Multiple integrals: surface and volume integrals in general coordinate systems. Vector calculus: vector fields, line integrals, fundamental theorem of line integrals, Green's theorem, curl and divergence, parametric curves and surfaces.
- Ordinary Differential Equations: First order ordinary differential equations, linear differential equations of second order, Laplace transforms, systems of equations, series solutions.
- Mathematical Modeling and Programming 1: Introduction to the python programming language, basic syntax, tools, programming principles. Applications taken from MAM 2 modules. This course continues over both semesters.

DP requirements: None

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examination 60%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% to aggregate with MAM 202

MAM 202

Second-year, second-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% MAM 201

Course description: This course is comprised of four modules which run concurrently throughout the semester:

- Linear Algebra: Linear spaces, inner products, norms. Vector spaces, spans, linear independence, basis and dimension. Linear transformations, change of basis, eigenvalues, diagonalization and its applications.

- Introduction to Algebra and Analysis: Set theory; mappings; binary operations; equivalence relations and order; groups.
- Introduction to Analysis: Real numbers; open and closed intervals; sequences and series (convergence); functions of a real variable (continuity, limit); series of functions; Taylor series.

- Mathematical Modelling and Programming 2: Introduction to the python programming language, basic syntax, tools, programming principles. Applications taken from MAM 2 modules. This course continues over both semesters.

DP requirements: None

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examination 60%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% to aggregate with MAM 201

THIRD-YEAR LEVEL COURSES

Entrance requirement: MAM 2

The two majors, Mathematics (MAT) and Applied Mathematics (MAP), are organised into the semester-modules listed below:

	Major	NQF credits and level
MAM 311: Complex Analysis	MAP and MAT	NQF level 8, 18 credits
MAP 311: Numerical Analysis	MAP	NQF level 8, 18 credits
MAP 312: Dynamical Systems	MAP	NQF level 8, 18 credits
MAP 314: Partial Differential Equations	MAP	NQF level 8, 18 credits
MAT 311: Algebra	MAT	NQF level 8, 18 credits
MAT 313: Real Analysis	MAT	NQF level 8, 18 credits
MAT 315: Topics in Mathematics	MAT	NQF level 8, 18 credits

A major in MAP requires an average mark of at least 50% over the four modules MAP 311, MAP 312, MAP 314 and MAM 311, with at least 50% in two of the modules and a subminimum of 40% in each course.

A major in MAT requires an average mark of at least 50% over the four modules MAT 311, MAT 313, MAT 315 and MAM 311, with at least 50% in two of the modules and a subminimum of 40% in each course.

Students who obtain an average of at least 50% over all seven courses will be granted credit for both MAP 3 and MAT 3, provided that the average of the MAP modules is at least 50% and the average of the MAT modules is at least 50%, two of the MAT and two of the MAP modules are passed with at least 50%, and a minimum of 40% is achieved in each module.

Individual modules may be carried forward from year to year.

Changes to the topics offered may be made from time-to-time depending on the interests of the academic staff.

Course descriptions

MAM 311 - Complex Analysis

(This is a common course required by both MAP and MAT majors.) Revision of complex numbers, Cauchy- Riemann equations, analytic and harmonic functions, elementary functions and their properties, branches of logarithmic functions, complex differentiation, integration in the complex plane, Cauchy's Theorem and integral formula, Taylor and Laurent series, Residue theory and applications. Fourier Integrals.

MAP 311 - Numerical Analysis

Systems of non-linear equations, polynomial interpolation, cubic splines, numerical linear algebra, numerical computation of eigenvalues, numerical differentiation and integration, numerical solution of ordinary and partial differential equations, finite differences, approximation theory, discrete Fourier transform.

MAP 312: Dynamical Systems

Differential equations and iterated maps as dynamical systems. Geometric representation of trajectories.

Limiting behaviour of trajectories in linear and nonlinear systems. Equilibria of linear systems and linearisation of hyperbolic equilibria of nonlinear systems. Invariant sets and attractors. Bifurcation and chaos in nonlinear maps. Notions of stability. Some applications of dynamical systems in modeling.

MAP 314: Partial Differential Equations

First- order partial differential equations, classification of second-order equations, construction and behaviour of solutions, the method of characteristics, shocks and nonlinear phenomena, maximum principles, energy integrals, Fourier transform methods.

MAT 311: Algebra

Sets, equivalence relations, groups, rings, fields, integral domains, homomorphisms, isomorphisms, and their elementary properties.

MAT 313: Real Analysis

Topology of the real line, continuity and uniform continuity, Heine- Borel, Bolzano-Weierstrass, uniform convergence, introduction to metric spaces.

MAT315 - Topics in Mathematics: This course consists of two modules:

- Module A - Differential Geometry: Local theory of curves in Euclidean 3-space (parametrised curves, level curves, curvature, torsion, Serret-Frenet equations, fundamental theorem of space curves).
- Module B -Discrete Mathematics: Permutations, combinations, generating functions, recursions, inclusion- exclusion, graph theory.

DP requirements: Per course – consult lecturer

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examination 60% (each course)

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: None

HONORS LEVEL COURSESMathematics and Applied Mathematics Honours

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Course description: Each of the two courses (Mathematics and Applied Mathematics) consists of six topics and one project. A Mathematics Honours degree usually requires the candidate to have majored in Mathematics (MAT 3). An Applied Mathematics Honours degree usually requires the candidate to have majored in Applied Mathematics (MAP 3).

The topics are selected from the following general areas covering a wide spectrum of contemporary mathematics: Algebra; Algebraic Graph Theory; Combinatorics; Functional Analysis; General Relativity; Geometry; Information Theory; Manifolds, Measure Theory; Number Theory; Numerical Modelling; Statistical mechanics; Continuum Mechanics; Topology.

Joint Honours in Mathematics or Applied Mathematics

For joint Honours programmes, an approved selection of topics may be taken from the options listed above. These modules must contribute to between 40% and 60% of the final grade.

It is also possible to substitute individual modules from other departments into a Mathematics or Applied Mathematics honours programme, with the approval of the Heads of the departments concerned. Alternatively, honours modules from the Department of Mathematics may be considered by other departments as components of their postgraduate courses, again with the approval of the departments concerned.

MASTER'S AND DOCTORAL DEGREES IN MATHEMATICS OR APPLIED
MATHEMATICS

Masters degrees

(NQF level 9, 180 credits)

PhD degree

(NQF level 10, 360 credits)

Suitably qualified students are encouraged to proceed to these degrees under the direction of the staff of the Department. Requirements for these degrees are given in the General Rules.

A Master's degree in either Mathematics or Applied Mathematics may be taken by thesis only, or by a combination of course work and a thesis. If course work is offered, normally four examination papers and/or essays are required in addition to the thesis. The course of study must be approved by the Head of Department.

THE BACHELOR OF MUSIC DEGREE (BMUS)

The four-year BMus degree is intended for students who wish to pursue music as a profession. In order to be recognised as a teaching qualification it must be combined with the Postgraduate Certificate in Education (PGCE) offered by the Faculty of Education. Except as provided in Rules 14 and 15 of the General Rules, candidates shall not be admitted to the degree unless they have attended approved courses subsequent to their first registration as a matriculated student for at least four years. Students who wish to take more than the minimum number of BMus courses in any one year may do so, subject to the approval of the Dean of Humanities.

Music as a subject in other degree courses (Humanities and Science Faculties)

Music, Culture and History (MCH), Music Theory and Analysis (MTA) or Instrumental Music Studies (IMS) may be taken as a three-year major subject for the BA and BSc degrees. Sound Technology may be taken up to second year level, in those Faculties for which it is approved.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC STUDIES

Instrumental Music Studies (IMS) is a three-year major subject which may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculties of Humanities and Science. It comprises three musical genres: Western Art, Jazz, African Music.

Instrumental Music Studies 1 (IMS 1)

First-year, full-year course (30 credits at NQF level 5).

Entrance requirements:

Western Art and Jazz: Matric music or equivalent (ABRSM/UNISA/ TRINITY Gr 6) plus an audition at Rhodes University. Students who lack the literacy skills and knowledge necessary for IMS 1 are required to register for MTA 101 and 102.

African Ensemble: no prior musical experience required.

Course description:

Western Art and Jazz: This includes the study of a major instrument, ensemble training, aural training, and a paper on Music Literature. Syllabi for the various instruments are available from the Department of Music. The “instrument” includes voice and can belong to any style, period or culture. Choice is subject to the approval of the Head of Department.

African Ensemble: The year will focus on skills which include learning songs and dances from South Africa, the marimba, various drumming styles, the mbira and other African instruments.

DP requirements: 80% attendance

Assessment: Year mark counts 30%; June and November examinations count 70%.

Supplementary exam: None

Sub-minimum for June: N/A

Instrumental Music Studies 2 (IMS 2)

Second-year, full-year course (30 credits at NQF level 6).

Entrance requirements:

Western Art and Jazz: IMS 1 or equivalent (ABRSM/UNISA/TRINITY Gr 7) plus an audition at RU.

African Ensemble: IMS 1

Course description:

Western Art and Jazz: This includes the study of a major instrument, ensemble training, aural training and a paper on Music Literature. Syllabi for the various instruments are available from the Department of Music. The “instrument” includes voice and can belong to any style, period or culture. Choice is subject to the approval of the Head of Department.

African Ensemble: The year refines and builds upon skills learnt in IMS 1 and includes a module on instrument making. Aural training and Western notation are introduced.

DP requirements: 80% attendance

Assessment: Year mark counts 30%; June and November examinations count 70%.

Supplementary exam: None

Sub-minimum for June: N/A

Instrumental Music Studies 3 (IMS 3)

Third-year, full year course (60 credits at NQF level 7).

Entrance requirements:

Western Art and Jazz: IMS 2 or equivalent (ABRSM/UNISA/TRINITY Gr 8) plus an audition at RU Music.

African Ensemble: IMS 2

Course description:

Western Art and Jazz: This includes the study of a major instrument, ensemble training aural training and a paper on Music Literature. Syllabi for the various instruments are available from the Department of Music. The “instrument” includes voice and can belong to any style, period or culture. Choice is subject to the approval of the Head of Department.

African Ensemble: The year refines and builds upon skills learnt in IMS 1 and 2.

DP requirements: 80% attendance

Assessment: Year mark counts 30%; June and November examinations count 70%.

Supplementary exam: None

Sub-minimum for June: N/A

NB All IMS students are required to take part in at least one approved ensemble: RU Chamber Choir, Opera / Vocal Ensemble, Jazz Ensemble, Wind band, RU Orchestra, African Ensemble for the duration of their course of study. Please note that tuition in and examination of the ensemble component (or second instrument) of Instrumental Music Studies is in addition to these requirements. Attendance of a minimum of 75% of the rehearsal schedule is obligatory.

MUSIC, THEORY AND ANALYSIS

Music, Theory and Analysis is a three-year major subject which may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculties of Humanities and Science.

Music, Theory and Analysis 101 (MTA 101)

First-year, semesterised course (15 credits at NQF level 5).

Entrance requirements: None.

Course description: MTA 101 is a one semester course introducing students to the core elements of music literacy including basic keyboard skills.

DP requirements: 80% attendance

Assessment: Semester mark counts 30%; June and November examinations count 70%.

Supplementary exam: Overall mark of 40 – 49%.

Sub-minimum for aggregation: 40%.

Music, Theory and Analysis 102 (MTA 102)

First-year, semesterised course (15 credits at NQF level 5).

Entrance requirements: MTA 101.

Course description: MTA 102 focuses on more advanced aspects of music literacy including an introduction to four-part harmony. Students who pass the Music Theory entrance test with a mark of 65% or more may register for IMS 1 without registering for MTA 101/102. For those registering for IMS 2 and/or 3 successful completion of MTA 101 and 102 is required.

DP requirements: 80% attendance

Assessment: Semester mark counts 30%; June and November examinations count 70%.

Supplementary exam: Overall mark of 40 – 49%.
Sub-minimum for aggregation: 40%.

Music, Theory and Analysis 2 (MTA 2)

Second-year, year course (30 credits at NQF level 6).

Entrance requirements: MTA 1. Students who can demonstrate significant proficiency in theory as determined by an entrance examination may be permitted to register for MTA 2 at the discretion of the HOD

Course description: Music Theory and Analysis 2 introduces students to compositional practices from the Western Baroque and Classical music periods mainly through analysis of representative works and a study of four-part harmony.

DP requirements: 80% attendance

Assessment: Year mark counts 50%; June and November examinations count 50%.

Supplementary exam: November exam 40%-49%

Sub-minimum for June: N/A

Music, Theory and Analysis 3 (MTA 3)

Third-year, year course (60 credits at NQF level 7).

Entrance requirements: MTA 2

Course description: Music Theory and Analysis 3 introduces students to compositional practices in Western Romantic music through a study of chromatic harmony and four-part harmony, twentieth & twenty-first century musics, and African art music studied through analysis of representative works.

DP requirements: 80% attendance

Assessment: Year mark counts 50%; June and November examinations count 50%.

Supplementary exam: Overall mark of 40 – 49%.

Sub-minimum for June: N/A

MUSIC, CULTURE AND HISTORY

Music, Culture and History (MCH) is a three-year major subject which may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculties of Humanities and Science. There are four semester modules offered in Music Culture and History: Western Art Music; World Music; Music Health and the Brain; Jazz and African American Music. Depending on timetable constraints, students may elect to take any two of these to obtain a full first year level credit MCH 1. A student who wishes to major in Music Culture and History must then take the remaining two modules to obtain a full second year level credit MCH 2. The first and second courses are taken together, but examined separately.

MCH first semester options:

Western Art Music 1 (MCH 1WE and MCH 2WE)

First-year/second-year, semesterised course (15 credits at NQF level 5/6).

Entrance requirements: None

Course description: An introduction to the elements of music and a survey of Western Art music traditions

DP requirements: 75% attendance

Assessment: Semester mark counts 30%; November examinations count 70%.

Supplementary exam: Overall mark of 40 – 49%.

Sub-minimum for aggregation: 40%.

World Music 1 (MCH 1WO and MCH 2WO)

First-year/second-year, semesterised course (15 credits at NQF level 5/6).

Entrance requirements: None

Course description: This course does not require any prior musical knowledge and explores topics relating to World Music, African Music and music from the African Diaspora and World Music. It introduces students to the cross-cultural study of music and culture. It explores music in human life in a variety of cultural contexts, from indigenous to modern hybrids, and in various locations around the world.

DP requirements: 80% attendance.

Assessment: Semester mark counts 50%; November examinations count 50%.

Supplementary exam: Overall mark of 40 – 49%.

Sub-minimum for aggregation: 40%.

MCH Second semester options:

Music Health and the Brain (MCH 1MH and MCH 2MH)

First-year/second-year, semesterised course (15 credits at NQF level 5/6).

Entrance requirements: None

Course description: Music, Health and the Brain is an interdisciplinary study of some elements of human engagement with music, focusing on musical cognition, emotion, identity and music's therapeutic potential.

DP requirements: 75% lecture attendance

Assessment: Semester mark counts 50%; November examinations count 50%.

Supplementary exam: Overall mark of 40 – 49%.

Sub-minimum for aggregation: 40%.

Jazz and African American Music (MCH

1JZ and MCH 2JZ)

First-year/second-year, semesterised course (15 credits at NQF level 5/6).

Entrance requirements: None

Course description: An introduction to the aesthetics, history and politics of Jazz.

DP requirements: 75% attendance

Assessment: Semester mark counts 50%; November examinations counts 50%.

Supplementary exam: Overall mark of 40 – 49%.

Sub-minimum for aggregation: 40%.

Music, Culture and History 3

Third year, year course (60 credits at NQF level 7).

Entrance requirements: MCH 2

Course description: Music Culture and History 3 includes specialist topics in World Music, Western Art music, Jazz, Music Psychology & Music Education. Students are introduced to research methods in the various musical sub-disciplines.

DP requirements: None

Assessment: Year mark counts 50%; November examinations counts 50%.

Supplementary exam: Overall mark of 40 – 49%.

Sub-minimum for June: N/A

Sound Technology may be taken up to second year level, in those Faculties for which it is approved.

Sound Technology 1

First-year, year course (30 credits at NQF level 5).

Entrance requirements: None

Course description: Fundamentals of studio recording techniques, utilising both the analogue and digital protocols, and the installation and operation of public address equipment.

DP requirements: 75% lecture attendance

Assessment: Year mark counts 50%; June and November examinations count 50%.

Supplementary exam: Overall mark of 40 – 49%. Sub-minimum for June: N/A

Sound Technology 2

Second-year, year course (30 credits at NQF level 6).

Entrance requirements: Sound Technology 1

Course description: The course builds on the theory introduced in Sound Technology 1 and provides exposure to additional and more in-depth practical applications. The course also includes additional modules on room acoustics, synthesis and the MIDI protocol.

DP requirements: 75% lecture attendance

Assessment: Year mark counts 50%; June and November examinations count 50%.

Supplementary exam: Overall mark of 40 – 49%. Sub-minimum for June: N/A

MUSIC 4 (MUS 4)

Full-year (120 credits at NQF level 8) Entrance requirements: BMus 3

Course description: The Honours course is completed in the fourth year of study. Students must complete five papers or their equivalent in credit points (5). Subject to student preferences and the availability of staff, the topics for the papers are selected from the following:

Compulsory: At least one of the following:

Paper 1: Extended essay (2) or

Paper 2: Full Recital (2) or

Paper 3: Full Composition Portfolio (2)

Options: Remaining credit points are acquired from the following courses. If Paper 1 has not been chosen, the options must include Musicology 4, or Analysis 4, or Ethnomusicology 4. All options are not necessarily offered every year.

Paper 4: Analysis 4 (1)

Paper 5: Musicology 4 (1)

Paper 6: Ethnomusicology 4 (1)

Paper 7: Sound Technology (1)

Paper 8: Short composition portfolio (1)

Paper 9: Short public performance (1)

- *Paper 10: Instrumental Music Studies 4 (1)
- Paper 11: Conducting (1)
- Paper 12: Chamber Music Recital (1)
- Paper 13: Concerto Performance (1)
- Paper 14: Music Education (1)
- Paper 15: Arts Management (1)

Paper 10 may not be taken in conjunction with Papers 2 and / or 9.*

JOINT HONOURS

Full-year (120 credits at NQF level 8)

Entrance requirements: A completed degree with one music major.

Course description: See BMus 4

INTERDISCIPLINARY HONOURS DEGREE

Full-year (120 credits at NQF level 8)

Entrance requirements: A completed degree with one music major.

Course description: See BMus 4

MASTERS DEGREE (MMUS)

180 credits at NQF level 9

Entrance requirements: BMus or a completed BA Honours or BSc Honours in Music degree.

Course description: A Master's degree may be awarded by submission of a thesis, a portfolio of compositions*, two public recitals* (60%) and mini-thesis (40%), two public recitals (60%) and short composition portfolio (40%).

Any culture or style may be included.*

• Thesis

The research proposal and title of the thesis must be approved by the Humanities Higher Degrees Committee within four months of registration for the degree.

• Composition

The nature and scope of the compositions must receive the prior approval of Senate on the recommendation of the Head of Department, before submission. Candidates must also submit an explanatory commentary on important structural, textural and stylistic aspects of the work submitted, including its contextualisation within contemporary South Africa. A candidate who submits a set of compositions shall be required to submit three copies of the compositions together with suitable recordings.

• Performance and Mini-Thesis and/or Short Composition Portfolio

The nature and scope of public recitals (60%) and mini-thesis (40%) and/or Short Composition Portfolio (40%) must receive prior approval of Senate on the recommendation of the Head of Department, and a departmental subcommittee. The research proposal and title of the mini-thesis must also be approved by the Departmental Postgraduate Research Committee within four months of registration for the degree.

Options available for the recitals are as follows:

- 1.) performance in two separate public solo recitals
or
- 2.) one public solo recital and one full chamber recital or
- 3.) one public solo recital, one short chamber recital and one concerto, where the genres are applicable to the culture or style of the chosen instrument.

Any culture or style may be included.*

DOCTORAL DEGREE

360 credits at NQF level 10

Entrance requirements: A completed Master's degree in Music or equivalent.

Course description: a PhD may be awarded by the submission of:

- 1.) a thesis (90 000 words)
- 2.) a set of compositions consisting of at least three substantial original compositions (not less than 70 minutes in duration. The candidate must also submit an explanatory statement (not less than 25 000 words) referring to important aspects of the scores, including in particular a description of the form or forms employed and of any contrapuntal, harmonic and orchestration devices used. This document should detail the portfolio's theme or contextualising thread. Recordings of compositions are required.

- 3.) a special treatise may be offered as a thesis on a subject previously approved by the Senate.
- 4.) three performances (60 – 70 min duration) and
- 5.) a mini thesis (50 000 words)

DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF MUSIC (SENIOR DOCTORATE)

360 credits at NQF level 10

Entrance requirements: A completed Master's degree in Music or equivalent.

Course description: A candidate for the degree of DMus is required to submit for the approval of Senate a published work or a set of compositions. The published work must be of historical or theoretical or analytical research in music, and must open new aspects of the subject discussed.

A set of compositions must consist of three original compositions, the character and form of which must receive the prior approval of the Senate on the recommendation of the Head of the Department and the Departmental Postgraduate Research Committee.

CURRICULUM FOR BMUS DEGREE

FIRST YEAR

IMS 1 Music Culture and History 1

Music Theory and Analysis 101 and 102

Sound Technology 1

OR

one Bachelor of Arts or Science course

SECOND YEAR

Instrumental Music Studies 2 Music Culture and History Music Theory and Analysis 2

Sound Technology 1 or 2 OR one Bachelor of Arts or Science course

THIRD YEAR

Instrumental Music Studies 3

Students choose two of the following courses:

- IMS 3
- MCH 3

- MTA 3

FOURTH YEAR

Students must do FIVE papers or their equivalent in credit points (5). All choices are subject to the approval of the Head of Department.

Paper 1: Extended essay (2)

The candidate is required to submit an appropriately researched extended essay of not more than 10 000 words on a subject approved by the Head of Department. Three copies of the extended essay must be presented, suitably bound.

Paper 2: Full Recital (2)

A public recital of not less than 70 minutes. Repertoire subject to the approval of the Head of Department after consultation with the full-time staff.

Paper 3: Full Composition portfolio (2)

The portfolio must consist of a minimum of 20 minutes of music, representing at least two of the following categories:

- 1.) Solo Instrument.
- 2.) Chamber Ensemble including Choir (up to 10 instruments or Double Choir of 8 voices).
- 3.) Voice or solo instrument with accompaniment.
- 4.) Orchestra (Chamber or Symphony) /Large Jazz Ensemble.

Paper 4: Analysis 4 (1)

Advanced analytical projects in Western art music and/or jazz and/or African music.

Paper 5: Musicology 4 (1)

Musicalogical theories and their application, which may be linked to the topic chosen in Paper 1.

Paper 6: Ethnomusicology 4 (1)

Semester 1 is a readings seminar with a focus on contemporary theory in Ethnomusicology and Cultural Studies. Students begin work on a chosen research project which culminates in preparation of an extended essay based on the research project in Semester 2.

Paper 7: Sound Technology (1)

Studio recording and mixing down using both analogue and digital protocols. A portfolio of 4 mixed down works must be submitted as 50 % of the course requirement.

Paper 8: Short Composition Portfolio (1)

Individual project(s) in composition leading to the submission of a short, varied portfolio of completed work. Minimum composition time of 10 minutes.

Paper 9: Short public performance (1)

A public recital of not less than 35 minutes with works approved by the Head of Department after consultation with the full-time staff.

Paper 10: Instrumental Music Studies 4 (1)

The study of a major instrument and ensemble training. No public recital is attached to this course. Repertoire subject to the approval of the Head of Department after consultation with the full-time staff.

Paper 11: Conducting (1)

The introduction to orchestral and choral conducting.

Paper 12: Chamber Music Recital (1)

A chamber music performance of not less than 30 minutes with works and ensembles approved by the Head of Department after consultation with the fulltime staff.

Paper 13: Concerto Performance (1)

Public performance of a concerto or movements thereof as approved by the Head of Department after consultation with the full-time staff.

Paper 14: Music Education (1)

Music education research topics as approved by the Head of Department.

Paper 15: Arts Management (1)

This course provides an overview of arts management using dialogue, research and practical illustration through informal and interactive sessions. The objectives are to equip the student with vital skills required in the arts environment, both nationally and internationally.

NB. Not all fourth year/honours papers are necessarily available every year.

BA, BSocSci AND BSc DEGREES WITH MUSIC AS A MAJOR

Normally not more than FIVE music subjects may be taken in the BA or FOUR in a BSc degree (see the relevant Faculty Rules).

FIRST YEAR COURSES

Students may choose from the following courses:

Instrumental Music Studies 1

Music Theory and Analysis 101 and 102

Music Culture and History 1 (one or more of MCH 1WAM, MCH 1WM, MCH 1MHB, MCH 1JZ);

Sound Technology 1

SECOND YEAR COURSES

Students may choose from the following courses:

Instrumental Music Studies 2

Music Culture and History 2

Music Theory and Analysis 2

(one or more of MCH 2WAM, MCH 2WM, MCH 2MHB, MCH 2JZ not already taken at 1st year level)

Sound Technology 2

THIRD YEAR COURSES

Students may choose one of the following:

Instrumental Music Studies 3 Music Culture and History 3 Music Theory and Analysis 3

MUSIC HONOURS (BA or BSc)

Curriculum and syllabi are identical to BMus fourth year

INTERNATIONAL LIBRARY OF AFRICAN MUSIC

The International Library of African Music (ILAM) an independent research institute and archive. Internationally recognised as a leading centre for the study of African music, it offers opportunities for undergraduate studies and postgraduate research in Ethnomusicology. ILAM occupies a purpose-built building with an archive, library, sound digitizing lab, recording studio, outdoor performance area, and is a prominent resource centre for research in various sub-Saharan African musical traditions.

- Provision of formal training in both undergraduate and postgraduate degrees, and
- Undertaking research and involvement in Community and Professional service.

The BPharm degree has been registered as an NQF Level 8 qualification. The following information is a summary of the documentation submitted to the NQF to register the qualification. The BPharm curriculum is accredited by the South African Pharmacy Council.

Purpose of the BPharm degree (Competence)

Learners who have completed the BPharm have the education and training to enter the pharmacy profession as interns and gain the necessary experience and confidence to render a professional service as pharmacists to the community. As a pharmacist registered with the South African Pharmacy Council, the learner will be able to practise the profession of Pharmacy and serve as a:

- Custodian of medicines;
- Formulator, manufacturer, distributor and controller of safe, effective and quality medicine;
- Advisor on the safe, rational and appropriate use of medicines;
- Provider of essential clinical services including screening and referral services;
- Provider of health care education and information;

Exit Level Outcomes (Capabilities)

The exit level outcomes for the BPharm curriculum indicate that on completion of the degree, the candidate will be able to:

- Participate in the manufacturing, compounding and packaging of pharmaceutical products
- Participate in the procurement, storage and distribution of pharmaceutical materials and products
- Dispense and ensure the optimal use of medicines prescribed to the patient
- Provide pharmacist-initiated-care to the patient and ensure the optimal use of medicine
- Provide education and information on health care and medicine
- Promote community health and provide related information and advice
- Participate in research to ensure the optimal use of medicine.

Critical cross field outcomes (for undergraduate degrees)

- Identify and solve problems
- Work in a team
- Organise and manage themselves
- Collect, analyse and evaluate information

- Communicate effectively
- Use science and technology
- Recognise problem solving contexts
- Reflect on and explore effective learning strategies
- Participate as a responsible citizen
- Be culturally and aesthetically sensitive
- Explore education and career opportunities
- Develop entrepreneurial opportunities

Critical cross-field outcomes of the BPharm curriculum indicate that on completion of the degree, the candidate will be able to:

- Identify, analyse and solve problems related to the provision of pharmaceutical care using creative approaches
- Work effectively with others as a member of a team of health care professionals in applying pharmaceutical care management principles.
- Organise and manage activities responsibly and effectively in contributing to the institution and broader community
- Collect, analyse, organise and critically evaluate information in using evidence-based approaches in provision of services and information to develop a pharmaceutical product or enhance pharmaceutical care programmes and services
- Communicate effectively using visual, mathematical and/or language skills in the modes of oral, written and/or practical presentation in a sustained discourse.
- Use science and technology, including informatics, in pharmacy effectively and critically, showing responsibility towards the environment and health of others by promoting ethical conduct in all contexts
- Demonstrate an understanding of the world as a set of related systems by recognising that problem-solving contexts do not exist in isolation

Specific exit level outcomes (Abilities)

The primary aim of pharmacy education is to develop life-long learners who can provide a professional service to the community using their knowledge, skills, professional thinking, behaviour and attitudes in all avenues of pharmacy practice, as caring health care providers and managers of health care resources. On completion of the undergraduate programme, the learner must demonstrate the following knowledge, skills, professional thinking, behaviour and attitudes.

Knowledge outcomes

On completion of the degree, the candidate will be able to:

- Use science and technology to formulate, manufacture, distribute and use drugs and medicines
- Identify and manage diseases, their processes, as well as environmental and social determinants
- Apply the principles of disease prevention and health promotion, with emphasis on primary health care as an integral part of the health care team
- Apply the principles of pharmacotherapy, the effect of drugs and medicines in the body, the appropriateness of different drug delivery systems and the ability to assess the effect of medicines in the body
- Use appropriate and cost-effective screening and monitoring procedures
- Be able to solve problems that arise with the use of medicines and predict, identify, prevent and/ or treat such problems
- Understand human behaviour, relationships and communication, individually and in the context of the community so as to work effectively with people
- Identify and resolve ethical and legal issues relevant to the practice of pharmacy
- Manage the provision of health care at national, community and individual practice level
- Promote and deliver cost effective health care
- Apply the principles and procedures governing research, with particular emphasis on evidence- based medicine

Skills

On completion of the degree learners must be able to demonstrate proficiency in the skills required for pharmacy practice, including the following:

- Laboratory skills

- Clinical skills and procedures, including patient history taking, assessing patient data, formulating treatment plans and follow-up plans
- Management skills
- Computer skills
- Communication skills and language proficiency
- The ability to work in a multi-disciplinary team

Attitudinal and behavioural outcomes

On completion of the degree learners should be able to demonstrate behaviour essential to the practice of pharmacy, with particular reference to:

- Respect for patients and colleagues, without judgement or prejudice with regard to race, culture, and/or gender amongst others
- Recognition of human and patients' rights
- A positive approach to self-directed life-long learning
- A positive approach towards primary health care
- An awareness of moral and ethical responsibilities
- A desire and ability to practice legally and ethically
- A desire and ability to ensure patient care of the highest possible quality
- An awareness of personal limitations and a willingness to seek help when necessary
- A positive attitude towards change and functioning within the uncertainties of our times
- A positive attitude towards the advancement of medical and health related knowledge

Assessment

Assessment will take place using tests, assignments, practicals, presentations, written and/or oral examinations and any other relevant forms of assessment. Continuous assessment is emphasised, especially during the first two years of study.

Quality Assurance

The Quality Assurance system for this qualification relies on:

- External examiners
- Internal moderation
- Monitoring and accreditation by the South African Pharmacy Council
- South African Qualifications Authority
- Internal reviews by the University in terms of its quality assurance criteria
- Higher Education Quality Committee

Articulation

The possession of a BPharm degree permits both vertical and horizontal articulation. Graduates may gain access to postgraduate studies at the Master, PhD and/or PharmD levels.

Candidates may receive exemption for some first-year courses obtained at other tertiary level learning institutions.

COURSES FOR THE BACHELOR OF PHARMACY DEGREE

Chemistry 1: Chemistry 101 (CHE 101) is offered in the first semester and Chemistry 102 (CHE 102) in the second semester. Both courses are taught by the Chemistry Department. CHE 101 includes learning about chemical symbols and numeracy, nuclear chemistry, atomic structure and bonding, chemical and physical equilibrium, introduction to organic chemistry. CHE 102 includes learning about properties of inorganic systems, chemistry and the environment, organic functional group chemistry, biological building blocks, reaction rates, chemical thermodynamics and electrochemistry.

Cell Biology (CEL101): is offered in the first semester. The course is taught by the Botany and Zoology Departments. This course compares cell structure in prokaryotic and eukaryotic cells and examines cellular processes including cell to cell communication, photosynthesis and cell respiration. Cell division and fundamental genetics, including the structure of genetic material and how it controls cellular processes are also included.

Mathematics for Life Sciences (MAT 1S): A study of mathematical concepts and applications relevant for the study and practice of Pharmacy. The course is taught by the Mathematics Department.

Introduction to ICT (Information and Communication Technology) (CSC 1L1):

Fundamental concepts and applications of hardware, computing environments, editing and word processing, spreadsheets, databases, other software packages, networks, the Internet, social issues, and the logic of problem solving. The course is taught by the Computer Science Department.

Pharmacy Anatomy and Physiology 1: A study of the functional anatomy and physiology of humans.

Pharmaceutical Biochemistry 1: A study of the important molecules found in living organisms.

Foundations of Pharmacy: An introductory course in Pharmacy, where learners will be introduced to the fundamentals of Pharmacy Practice, Pharmaceutics, Law and Ethics.

Anatomy, Physiology, Pathophysiology and Pathology: A study of the functional anatomy and physiology of humans and of diseases and pathological conditions in different body systems, how diseases develop, their characteristics, features of common diseases and conditions as they occur in humans and the effects of diseases on human functioning.

Biochemistry, Microbiology and Immunology: A study of the important molecules found in living organisms and of the role of Pharmaceutical Microbiologists and the application of microbiology in the practice of pharmacy, the health and economic implications of microbial contamination of pharmaceutical and hospital environments, the basic characteristics, pathogenesis, diagnosis, disease, epidemiology, prevention and treatment of microorganisms found in pharmaceutical and hospital environments, water and sewage systems.

Pharmaceutics: A two-and-a-half -year course covering basic pharmaceutical principles and their application to the formulation, production and assessment of medicinal products, microbiology and sterility.

Pharmaceutical Chemistry: A two-year course covering the study of the purity and chemical properties of various materials and formulations used in the practice of pharmacy.

Pharmacy Practice: A two-and-a-half-year course, which examines Pharmaceutical Care and the role of the pharmacist; various aspects of management including performance management, organisational management, managing pharmaceutical supply; understanding and influencing behaviour; Primary Health Care; Ethics; legal and psychosocial principles and their application in providing safe and effective medicine use by pharmacists and patients.

Pharmacology: A one-and-a-half-year course of the interaction between medicaments and the human body, disease states and medicinal therapy used to relieve these conditions, the toxic effects of household agents, medicines and street drugs.

Statistics for Pharmacy: A one semester course offered by the Statistics Department, in the third year. A study of statistics that is used in pharmaceutical and biomedical research, so as to use and understand different statistical methods used in research.

Pharmacotherapy: An integrated study of the relevant pathophysiology of diseases and conditions, how mechanisms of action of medicines are used to treat these diseases and/or disorders to counteract their pathophysiological origins, synthesising and integrating information to make informed and rational pharmacotherapeutic decisions justifying the selection of appropriate dosage forms.

Research Methodologies: A year-long course offered in the final year covering fundamental aspects relating to the conduct of research. Students are expected to complete a research project.

Electives: These include electives offered in the Faculty of Pharmacy, or candidates may select elective courses offered in other Faculties provided they are relevant to Pharmacy and can be accommodated in the time- table for that academic year.

ELECTIVES

All candidates must take either two elective courses offered within the Faculty of Pharmacy or in other Faculties that are relevant to Pharmacy and can be accommodated in the BPharm 4 timetable.

The elective courses offered by the Faculty of Pharmacy entail study at an advanced level of aspects of the BPharm curriculum and will depend on staff availability and interest.

Individuals could also do a year-long research project on an approved topic in any pharmaceutical field in lieu of two electives.

SAPC REGISTRATION

Pharmacy students will be required to register with the SAPC in their first year of study. Registration requires the payment of a registration fee and annual fees in order to remain registered whilst completing the BPharm degree. In addition, students are reminded that as professionals, registered with the SAPC, that professional indemnity insurance is required.

WORK BASED LEARNING (WBL)

As part of the BPharm curriculum students must participate in work-based learning (WBL). This allows pharmacy students practical experience and work integrated learning opportunities within the work environment.

The outcomes of the WBL programme include:

- Exposure to the workplace in order to create awareness of the realities of the workplace,

- To reinforce and integrate theoretical concepts,
- To consolidate knowledge,
- To develop desired attitudes, and
- To develop the ability to apply knowledge and skills appropriately.

MASTER'S DEGREES

Students who have completed the BPharm degree at a sufficiently high academic standard may be admitted as candidates for the degree of Master of Science (Pharmacy) or Master of Pharmacy.

Students who have completed a bachelor's degree and at least an Honours (or equivalent) degree in another Faculty and have attained in their degree a standard suitable for continuation to a Master's degree in that Faculty, and who have an interest in the application of elements of other subjects to pharmaceutical disciplines, may be admitted as candidates for the degree of Master of Science.

The Master of Science degree is taken by thesis. The Master of Pharmacy degree is taken either by examination, or by thesis, or a combination of the two. Registration for the Master of Science or Master of Pharmacy degree will depend upon the field of study of the candidate.

Registration with the South African Pharmacy Council may be a pre-requisite for registration for the Master of Pharmacy programme.

DOCTOR OF PHARMACY (PHARM D)

A new PharmD is currently being developed.

Philosophy is a three-year major subject which may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculty of Humanities. Philosophy 1 and Philosophy 2 but not Philosophy 3 are semesterised. One, or in some cases two, courses in Philosophy are allowed as credits for degree/diploma curricula in the Faculties of Law and Science.

Philosophy 101 (PHI 101)

First-year, first semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits).

Entrance Requirements: None

Course description: The course introduces students to philosophical ideas, issues and methods drawing on topics in metaphysics, epistemology and ethics from a range of philosophical traditions. PHI 101 typically focuses on issues in Epistemology and Metaphysics.

Assessment: Coursework 60%; June exam 40%.
Supplementary exam: June result 40– 49%
Sub-minimum of 40% for aggregation.

Philosophy 102 (PHI 102)

First-year, second semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits).

Entrance Requirements: None

Course description: The course introduces students to philosophical ideas, issues and methods not dealt with in PHI 101, with the focus typically being on issues in Ethics.

Assessment: Coursework 60%; June exam 40%.
Supplementary exam: November result 40 – 49%
Sub-minimum of 40% for aggregation.

Philosophy 201 (PHI 201)

Second-year, first semester course (NQF level 6, 15 credits).

Entrance Requirements: any of the following configurations — PHI 101 AND PHI 102; PHI 101 (OR PHI 102) AND BOM 101 (OR BOM 102); a 70% pass in BOM 101 OR BOM 102.

Course description: The course deepens the examination of historical and contemporary debates in Moral Philosophy, metaphysics, epistemology and might include specialised topics in Philosophy of Mind, or Religion, or Ancient Philosophy.

Assessment: Coursework 60%; June exam 40%.
Supplementary exam: June result 40 – 49%
Sub-minimum of 40% for aggregation.

Philosophy 202 (PHI 202)

Second-year, second semester course (NQF level 6, 15 credits).

Entrance Requirements: any of the following configurations — PHI 201; PHI 101 AND PHI 102; PHI 101 (OR PHI 102) AND BOM 101 (OR BOM 102); a 70% pass in BOM 101 OR BOM 102.

Course description: The course continues the examination of historical and contemporary debates in metaphysics, epistemology and ethics of PHI 201.

Assessment: Coursework 60%; June exam 40%.
Supplementary exam: November result 40 – 49%
Sub-minimum of 40% for aggregation.

Philosophy 3 (PHI 3)

Third-year, full-year course (NQF level 7, 60 credits)

Entrance requirements: PHI 201 and PHI 202.

Course description: The course covers an advanced examination of some particular historical and contemporary debates. PHI 3 consists of four Papers, one of which is an Options Paper which is taught in small groups and focuses on developing philosophical writing skills.

Assessment: Continuous 50%; Summative 50%.

Supplementary exam: June/November result 40 – 49%

Philosophy Honours

Year course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance Requirements: 60% in PHI 3

Course Description: Honours students normally take four Papers, chosen from a range of topics, and in addition submit an independent research essay. With the permission of the Head of the Department, an Honours student may substitute a research essay written during the year for one of the Papers. The length of the research essay and the date on which it is to be submitted are laid down in the Faculty of Humanities rules.

Assessment: continuous and/or summative assessment as per requirements of individual lecturers.

Master's Degree

2-year course (NQF level 9, 180 credits)

Candidates may take the Master's degree in Philosophy either by examination or by thesis, as recommended by the Head of the Department.

Candidates for the degree by examination are normally required to write a number of examinations on topics within their main field of interest, to submit an independent research essay in their first year, and to submit a short dissertation by the end of their second year.

Doctoral Degree

(NQF level 10, 360 credits)

Candidates for this degree are required to complete a research dissertation.

Accounting Ethics

Accounting Ethics is a compulsory module in Accounting. The aim of this course is to alert students to the ways in which our standard decision-making practices can lead us astray when we reason morally and to help them develop some of the skills that will help them avoid similar pitfalls in their professional capacity.

liNtetho zoBomi: Conversations About Ethics, Meaning and Community

This student-led service-learning course (the first of its kind at Rhodes University and in South Africa) deals with some of the pressing questions that define the discipline of philosophy as well as our age; but, most importantly, it focuses on giving students the opportunity to become more effective ethical agents through, among other things, philosophical reflection and critical engagement with others. It is of interest to students who want to live in ways that are informed by deep reflection about self, others and their context, and which reflect their own endorsed values and beliefs, as opposed to those they have pre-reflectively learnt from (our highly problematic) society. This course has no prerequisites and can be taken by anyone who is registered at Rhodes University. It can be taken either as a one-year course, starting in the first or second semester of any given year, or as a semester course (either in the first or the second semester of any given year). It is an offering of the Allan Gray Centre for Leadership Ethics, which is part of the Department of Philosophy. It complements but is not a replacement of courses offered as part of the philosophy major. A 70% pass in BOM 101 and BOM 102 may be used for entrance to PHI 2.

liNtetho zoBomi 1 consists of liNtetho zoBomi 101 and liNtetho zoBomi 102

liNtetho zoBomi 101 First-year, first semester (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance Requirements: None

Course description: liNtetho zoBomi 101 introduces students to some of the pressing philosophical questions in relation to free will and ethics, as well as the central concepts of agency, awareness, lucidity, and responsibility through exploring some of the basic cognitive biases and behavioural forces that get in the way of our acting according to the values that we ourselves endorse—e.g. confirmation bias, selective attention, conformity, and obedience to authority. Assessment: Coursework 100% DP requirement: 80% attendance at conversations and lectures (absence beyond 80% for either conversations or lectures must be justified with an LOA), 100% attendance at service learning (a valid LOA must be provided for missing any service-learning activities).

Supplementary exam: June result 40 – 49%

Sub-minimum of 40% for aggregation.

liNtetho zoBomi 102 First-year, second semester (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance Requirements: None

Course description: liNtetho zoBomi 102 focuses more specifically on social, phenomenological, and epistemological questions by exploring the constitutive role that others, and the Other, play in constituting our personhood, identity and subjectivity, as well as how structural forces present obstacles to effective ethical agency.

Assessment: Coursework 100%

DP requirement: 80% attendance at conversations and lectures (absence beyond 80% for either conversations or lectures must be justified with an LOA), 100% attendance at service learning (a valid LOA must be provided for missing any service-learning activities).

Supplementary exam: November result 40 – 49%

Sub-minimum of 40% for aggregation.

Physics with Electronics (PHY) is a six-semester subject which may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BCom and BJourn.

To major in Physics with Electronics a candidate is required to obtain the following courses: PHY 1; PHY 2; PHY 3; MAM 1 (or its equivalent), and MAM 2 (or its equivalent).

Up to two, or in some cases four, Physics with Electronics semester-courses may be allowed for degree/diploma curricula in the Faculties of Humanities, Education and Pharmacy.

Besides the major course, the department offers two terminal semester courses in Physics and Electronics, namely PHY 1E1 (non-calculus Elementary Physics) and PHY 1E2 (Electronics Literacy).

Physics 1E1 is a service course designed to meet the needs of students in the Department of Human Kinetics and Ergonomics but is also well suited to students majoring in the biological sciences. Any student accepted into the university may register for PHY 1E2, which affords students in a wide range of disciplines an opportunity to gain an understanding of basic electronics and modern electronic devices such as computers. Aggregating Physics 1E1 and Physics 1E2 is not permitted.

PHY 101, PHY 102, PHY 1E1 and PHY 1E2 are highly recommended choices of prerequisites for students who wish to major in Chemistry. (Refer to the Department of Chemistry Calendar entry.)

See the Departmental Web Page <http://www.ru.ac.za/academic/departments/physics/> for further details, particularly on the contents of courses.

FIRST-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN PHYSICS WITH ELECTRONICS

There are two first-year courses in Physics with Electronics for candidates planning to major in physical, computational, mathematical or earth science subjects. PHY 101 is held in the first semester and PHY 102 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-course PHY 1, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component. Supplementary examinations may be recommended in either course, provided that a candidate achieves a minimum standard specified by the Department. Class tests and reports collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark for each course. Candidates wishing to register for PHY 101 must have obtained a level 5 pass in Mathematics and a level 5 pass in Physical Science in the National Senior Certificate examination, or the equivalent thereof.

Adequate performance in PHY 101 is required before a student may register for PHY 102. Alternatively, candidates who attain a sufficiently high standard in PHY 1E1 may be allowed to register for PHY 102, obtain PHY 1 and then proceed to PHY 2.

PHY 101

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: Level 4 in NSC Mathematics or equivalent

Course description: Theory component: Introduction to Mechanics, Rotations. Experimental component: Measurement and data analysis.

DP requirements: Class record of 40%

Assessment: Class record 45%, Examinations 55%
Supplementary exam: 40%

Subminimum for June: 40% to aggregate with PHY 102

PHY 102

First-year, second-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% PHY 101 or 70% PHY 1E1

Course description: Theory component: Waves, Fields, Modern Physics and Kinetic Theory. Experimental component: Electrical circuits; elementary analogue and digital electronics.

DP requirements:

Assessment: Class record 45%, Examinations 55%, Supplementary exam: 45%

Subminimum for November: 45% to aggregate with PHY 101

The Department offers two other first-level courses in Physics and Electronics. PHY 1E1 is held in the first semester and PHY 1E2 in the second semester. Aggregating PHY 1E1 and PHY 1E2 is not permitted. Supplementary examinations may be recommended in either course, provided that a candidate achieves a minimum standard specified by the Department. Class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark for each course. Entry into PHY 1E2 does not require that a student have attended or passed PHY 1E1. The course is open to all university students. All three of the courses PHY 101, PHY 102 and PHY 1E2 may be obtained.

PHY 1E1: Elementary Physics for non-Physics Majors

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: Level 4 pass in NSC Mathematics or equivalent Course description: Theory component: Mechanics; thermal physics; vibrations and waves; Applications to the life sciences are emphasised. Experimental component: Measurement practice and data analysis.

DP requirements: Class record of 40%

Assessment: Class record 33%, Examinations 67%, Supplementary exam: 40%

Subminimum for June: No aggregation with PHY 1E2

PHY 1E2: Electronics Literacy

First-year, second-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: Level 4 rating for Mathematics on the NSC

Course description: Theory component: Basic electricity and electronics necessary to connect up and commission modern, popular commercial instrumentation, in particular microprocessor-based devices. Experimental component: Electrical circuits; elementary analogue and digital electronics; elementary interfacing and communication between computers and peripheral devices.

DP requirements: Class record of 40%

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examination 60%
Supplementary exam: 45%
Subminimum for November: No aggregation with PHY 1E1

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN PHYSICS WITH ELECTRONICS

There are two second-year courses in Physics with Electronics. PHY 201 is held in the first semester and PHY 202 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-course PHY 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required subminimum in each component. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course. Class tests, assignments and reports collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark for each course.

Physics with Electronics 1 (PHY 1) and Mathematics 1C (MAT 1C) are normally required before a student may register for PHY 201 or PHY 202. Students are strongly encouraged to register for MAM2 and PHY 2 concurrently

PHY 201

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: PHY 1, MAT 1C

Course description: Theory component: AC Theory, Vibrations, Waves and Optics, Properties of Matter. Experimental component: AC circuits; analogue and digital electronics.

DP requirements: None

Assessment: Class record 33%, Examinations 67%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% to aggregate with PHY 202

PHY 202

Second-year, second-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% PHY 201 Course description: Theory component: Electrostatics, Classical Mechanics, Special Relativity, and Quantum Mechanics I. Experimental component: Physics laboratory techniques.

DP requirements: None

Assessment: Class record 33%, Examinations 67%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November: 45% to aggregate with PHY 201

THIRD-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN PHYSICS WITH ELECTRONICS

There are two third-year courses in Physics with Electronics. PHY 301 is held in the first semester and PHY 302 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-course PHY 3, provided that a candidate obtains the required subminimum in each component. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course. Class tests, assignments and reports collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark for each course.

Physics with Electronics 2 (PHY 2) and Mathematics 2 (MAM 2 with the modules in Advanced Calculus and Linear Algebra) are normally required before a student may register for PHY 301 or PHY 302. Adequate performance in PHY 301 is required before a candidate may register for PHY 302.

PHY 301

Third-year, first-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: PHY 2, MAM 2

Course description: Theory component: Electromagnetism, Quantum Mechanics II, Thermodynamics, Signals and Systems. Experimental component: Analogue electronics; Advanced digital electronics.

DP requirements: None

Assessment: Class record 33%, Theory examinations 67%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% to aggregate with PHY 302

PHY 302

Third-year, first-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: 40% PHY 301, MAM 2

Course description: Theory component: Solid State Physics, Nuclear Physics, Statistical Physics. Experimental component: Physics laboratory techniques.

DP requirements: None

Assessment: Class record 33%, Examinations 67%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for November: 45% to aggregate with PHY 301

HONOURS COURSES

Candidates may choose to read for Honours degrees in Physics, Electronics, Telecommunications, Joint Physics and Electronics or in approved combinations with subjects offered by other departments. A BSc with a major in Physics with Electronics, and second year mathematics (MAT 2 or MAM 2) or MAP 2 is the normal entrance requirement for these courses.

Practical work, essays, tests and a project done during the year form part of the final mark, and a full course typically includes an approved selection of seven topics from those listed below, depending on the availability of lecturing staff.

Honours in Physics

Year-long courses (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Course description: Classical Mechanics; Computer Interfacing I; Computational Physics; Electrodynamics; General Relativity; Nuclear Physics; Optics; Quantum Physics; Radio Astronomy; Particle Physics; Space Science; Solid State Physics; Statistical Mechanics, Signal Processing. Appropriate topics from the list of the Electronics Honours course may be chosen.

Honours in Electronics

Year-long courses (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Course description: Computer Interfacing 1; Computer Interfacing 2; Computational Physics; Control Theory; Electronic Design; FPGA, Optics;

Signal Processing. Appropriate topics from the list of the Physics Honours course may be chosen.

Joint Honours in Physics and Electronics, and other combinations

Year-long courses (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Course description: For Joint Honours programmes, an approved selection of topics may be taken from the lists given for the Physics and Electronics Honours courses, so that the final proportion in each is between 40% and 60%. Similarly, Physics or Electronics may be combined with another approved Honours course (e.g. in Computer Science, Geology, Chemistry, Mathematics) to form a joint Honours course. A candidate may substitute approved topics from other Honours courses in the Faculty of Science for topics in any of the Honours courses in this Department.

MASTER'S AND DOCTORAL DEGREES

Suitably qualified students are encouraged to proceed to the research degrees of MSc (NQF level 9, 180 credits) and PhD (NQF level 10, 360 credits) under the direction of the staff of the Department. Requirements for the MSc and PhD degrees are given in the General Rules.

The Master's degree may be taken in Physics, or Electronics, and will be examined by thesis. Candidates may also be required to take an oral examination. Acceptance of the candidate will depend on previous academic record and availability of suitable projects. Current areas of specialisation include experimental solid-state physics, nuclear physics, radio astronomy, upper atmosphere physics, physics education and theoretical physics. The current areas of specialisation in Electronics are transducers, instrumentation and digital signal processing.

A PhD degree may be taken by thesis. Candidates may also be required to take an oral examination. Acceptance of the candidate will depend on previous academic record and availability of suitable projects, and is at the discretion of the Head of Department. Current areas of specialisation are as for the MSc degree.

Political and International Studies is a three-year major subject which may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculties of Humanities, Commerce and Science. Courses offered in the Department are studied from a global, regional and local perspective with particular attention paid to the South African and African contexts.

POLITICAL AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES 101

First-year, first-semester course, NQF level 5, 15 credits.

Entrance requirements: None.

Course description: This course introduces students to the basic components of the discipline of Political and International Studies.

DP requirements: Attendance of tutorials, submission of course work.

Assessment: The course assessment consists of course work and a final assessment during the exam period.

Supplementary exam: June result 40-49%

Sub-minimum for aggregation: 40%

POLITICAL AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES 102

First-year, second-semester course, NQF level 5, 15 credits.

Entrance requirements: None. Students who receive a DPR for POL101 may not enter POL102 in the same year they receive the DPR for POL101.

Course description: This course builds on Political and International Studies 101 in order to introduce students to the basic components of the discipline of Political and International Studies.

DP requirements: Attendance of tutorials, submission of course work.

Assessment: The course assessment consists both of course work and a final assessment during the exam period.

Supplementary exam: November result 40-49%

Sub-minimum for aggregation: 40%

POLITICAL AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES 2

Second-year, full-year course, NQF level 6, 30 credits.

Entrance requirements: Political and International Studies 101 and Political and International Studies 102.

Course description: This course consists of a selection of courses in Political Theory, Comparative Politics, Political Studies, Political Philosophy and/ or International Relations.

DP requirements: Attendance of tutorials, submission of course work.

Assessment: The course assessment consists both of course work and a final assessment during the exam period.

Supplementary exam: None.

POLITICAL AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES 3

Third-year, full-year course, NQF level 7, 60 credits.

Entrance requirements: Political and International Studies 2.

Course description: This course consists of a selection of courses in Political Theory, Comparative Politics, Political Studies, Political Philosophy and/ or International Relations.

DP requirements: Attendance of tutorials, submission of course work.

Assessment: The course assessment consists both of course work and a final assessment during the exam period.

Supplementary exam: None.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN INTERNATIONAL STUDIES (PDIS)

Not offered in 2022.

NQF level 8, 120 credits.

Entrance requirements: An undergraduate degree in any field with a good pass.

Course description: The Diploma consists of five courses in the field of International Studies with a focus on Africa. To be awarded the diploma students must pass at least four out of the five courses taken and achieve an overall aggregated pass of at least 50%.

HONOURS IN POLITICAL AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

NQF level 8, 120 credits.

Entrance requirements: An undergraduate degree in Political and International Studies with a good second-class pass. Students with a good second class pass degree in a cognate discipline may also be considered for admission.

Course description: The Honours degree consists of either five courses or four courses and a research essay of 10 000 words. The latter option may be exercised only on recommendation of the Head of Department. Students may choose from a range of postgraduate courses offered in the Department and, with the permission of the Head of Department, may also take one course from another discipline. The courses on offer vary from year to year. Prospective students should inquire as to which courses are on offer in the year that they will be registered. To be awarded the degree students must pass at least four out of the five courses taken and achieve an overall aggregated pass of at least 50%.

MASTER'S IN POLITICAL AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

NQF level 9, 180 credits.

Entrance requirements: An Honours degree with at least a good second class pass in Political and International Studies or, with the approval of the Head of Department, in a cognate discipline. Students with a mark of 70% or above for the Postgraduate Diploma in International Studies may also be considered for admission.

Course description: Students may register for either a combined coursework and thesis Master's degree or a Master's degree by thesis only, as recommended by the Head of Department. The Master's by coursework and thesis consists of three approved postgraduate courses and a thesis of 15 000 to 25 000 words. The required thesis length for the Master's by thesis only is 30 000 to 50 000 words. Master's students are required to have a thesis proposal passed by the Humanities Higher Degrees Committee by the 30th of November in the year in which the degree is begun. Those who do not succeed in doing so may not be permitted to continue with the Master's degree. Thesis proposals must conform to the requirements set out in the Rhodes University Higher Degrees Guide and must be submitted to the Higher Degrees Committee with the approval of the supervisor and Head of Department. To be awarded the degree, coursework Master's students need to pass all three courses as well as the thesis. They may not repeat courses already passed at Honours level.

DOCTORAL STUDIES (PHD)

NQF level 10, 360 credits.

Entrance requirements: A Master's degree with at least a good second class pass in Political and International Studies or, with the approval of the Head of Department, in a cognate discipline. Admission is also subject to the availability of suitable supervision expertise in the chosen field of study of any prospective student.

Course description: The PhD consists of a dissertation which must conform to the requirements set out in the Rhodes University Higher Degrees Guide. Doctoral students are required to have a thesis proposal passed by the Humanities Higher Degrees Committee by the 30th of November of the year in which the degree is begun. Those who do not succeed in doing so may not be permitted to continue with the doctorate.

A three-year major in Psychology or a two-year major in Organisational Psychology may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculties of Humanities, Commerce and Science.

All undergraduate courses in Psychology and Organisational Psychology are semester courses; for all three undergraduate levels, the first semester should normally be taken before the second semester course. Psychology 101 and 102 are common first-year credit for students majoring in Psychology or Organisational Psychology. In the second-year students elect to continue either to Psychology 201 and 202 or Organisational Psychology 201 and 202. A major in Psychology (Psychology 301 and 302) is recommended for students planning to enter a career in psychological and/or social research, or in the helping professions with an emphasis on counselling or clinical work. It is also recommended for students wanting to work in a range of settings that require interactions with individuals and groups. A major in Organisational Psychology (Organisational Psychology 301 and 302) is a good preparation for work in human resources, management or organisational development. Students who wish to switch from Psychology to Organisational Psychology or vice versa require permission from the Head of Department. This will not be automatic and in cases where permission is given assignments may be set to enable students to cover the work they have missed. Currently, it is not permitted to major in Psychology and Organisational Psychology.

Concurrent registration for first- and second-year courses, or second- and third-year courses in Psychology or Organisational Psychology requires permission from the Head of Department and is only allowed in exceptional circumstances.

The Critical Studies in Sexualities and Reproductions Research Programme (CSSR) is a unit within the Psychology Department that conducts multidisciplinary research. Masters and doctoral supervision is open to postgraduate students located in psychology or other humanities departments who have a background in any of the relevant social sciences.

FIRST-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN PSYCHOLOGY

Psychology 101 (PSY 101)

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits).

Entrance requirements: None.

Course description: This is first semester course, in which the following three modules are usually taught: Developmental Psychology, Biological Psychology, and Mental Health and Wellbeing.

POSTGRADUATE COURSES IN PSYCHOLOGY

Psychology Honours

Full year degree course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)
Entrance requirements: A completed degree with Psychology as a major subject. Normally 50% of places are reserved for applicants who completed their third year in Psychology at Rhodes University. See the Psychology Honours selection policy for more details.

Course description: The full-year course provides in-depth study for students interested in careers in Clinical, Counselling and Research Psychology. Entrance into the Honours programme will normally be restricted to students who have a good result in their final year of undergraduate study. Students write one compulsory paper (Research methodology – quantitative and qualitative) of 30 credits and three elective papers (3 x 20 credits), and complete a research project (30 credits). Electives usually cover a variety of topics in Psychology that may change from year to year, depending on staff availability.

DP requirements: See the course handbook.

Assessment: One written examination for each paper. Examinations are written in June and November.

Supplementary exam: A result of 40 – 49%, usually for no more than two papers with the permission of the Head of Department. In such cases, the overall mark for the paper will be capped at a maximum of 50%.

Organisational Psychology Honours

Full year degree course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance requirements: A completed degree with Organisational Psychology as a major subject. Normally 70% of places are reserved for applicants who completed their third year in Organisational Psychology at Rhodes University. See the Organisational Psychology Honours selection policy for more details.

Course description: The full-year course provides in-depth study for students interested in careers in Organisational Psychology or research. Entrance into the Honours programme will normally be restricted to students who have a good result in their final year of undergraduate study. Students write one compulsory paper (Research methodology – quantitative and qualitative) of 30 credits and four electives (4 x 15 credits), and complete a research project (30 credits). Electives usually cover a variety of topics in Organisational Psychology that may change from year to year, depending on staff availability.

DP requirements: See the course handbook.

Assessment: One written examination for each paper. Examinations are written in June and November.

Supplementary exam: A result of 40 – 49%, usually for no more than two papers with the permission of the Head of Department. In such cases, the overall mark for the paper will be capped at a maximum of 50%.

Master's Degree in Clinical Psychology

A two-year degree course (NQF level 9, 180 credits; the first year is a coursework year and the second year is the internship)

Entrance requirements: A completed degree with Psychology as a major subject and an Honours degree in Psychology. Further details of the selection criteria and the process are available online.

Course description: The Master of Arts in Clinical Psychology is a professional training course that provides the foundations leading to graduates being able to apply for registration as a Clinical Psychologist with the Professional Board for Psychology of the Health Professions Council of South Africa (HPCSA). The Masters course consists of academic and practical training, and may only be taken on a full-time basis following careful selection processes. Modules in psychopathology, assessment and psychotherapy for adults and children/young people are offered with an emphasis on evidence-based practice, as well as modules that cover contextual, professional and ethical issues relevant to the practice and profession of Clinical Psychology (including public mental health interventions). Students work in a range of settings with adults, young people and children. Practical training includes supervised work with cases within individual, group and community contexts. Students must complete a research half-thesis on a topic relevant to the practice of Clinical Psychology. The internship is served at an accredited internship site and is a requirement for registration as a Clinical Psychologist. The coursework, thesis and internship together constitute the academic requirements for the award of the degree. All coursework must be completed before the commencement of the internship. An HPCSA requirement for registration as a Clinical Psychologist in Independent Practice is the completion of a national board examination. Clinical psychologists are also required to complete a year of community service.

DP requirements: See the course handbook.

Assessment: See the course handbook.

Supplementary exam: A supplementary exam, usually for no more than one of the three written papers, may be awarded in special cases with the permission of the Head of Department. In such cases, the overall mark for the paper will be capped at a maximum of 50%.

Master's Degree in Counselling Psychology

A two-year degree course (NQF level 9, 180 credits; the first year is a coursework year and the second year is the internship)

Entrance requirements: A completed degree with Psychology as a major subject and an Honours degree in Psychology. Further details of the selection criteria and the process are available online.

Course description: The Master of Arts in Counselling Psychology is a professional training course that provides the foundation leading to graduates being able to apply for registration as a Counselling Psychologist with the Professional Board for Psychology of the Health Professions Council of South Africa (HPCSA). The Master's course consists of academic and practical training, and may only be taken on a full-time basis following careful selection processes. Modules in i) psychological assessment, ii) psychological therapies and interventions (including community psychology) and iii) professional practice (including ethical issues and skills relevant to the practice and profession of Counselling Psychology) are offered. Students work in a range of settings with adults, young people and children. Practical training includes supervised work with cases within individual, group and community contexts. Students must complete a research half-thesis on a topic relevant to the practice of Counselling Psychology. The internship is served at an accredited internship site and is a requirement for registration as a Counselling Psychologist. The coursework, thesis and internship together constitute the academic requirements for the award of the degree. All coursework must be completed before the commencement of the internship. An HPCSA requirement for registration as a Counselling Psychologist in Independent Practice is the completion of a national board examination. Counselling psychologists are not presently required to complete a year of community service.

DP requirements: See the course handbook.

Assessment: See the course handbook.

Supplementary exam: A supplementary exam, usually for no more than one of the three written papers, may be awarded in special cases with the permission of the Head of Department. In such cases, the overall mark for the paper will be capped at a maximum of 50%.

Master's Degree by Thesis

A minimum of a one-year degree course (NQF level 9, 180 credits)

Entrance requirements: Usually an Honours degree in Psychology

Course description: A Master's degree by thesis may be undertaken on a full-time or part-time basis. Students complete a thesis proposal that is approved by the Humanities Higher Degrees Committee. Under the supervision of a staff member, students produce a research thesis on a topic negotiated with a supervisor.

PhD in Psychology

A minimum of a three-year degree course (NQF level 10, 360 credits)

A PhD must be taken by thesis (see the General Rules). Students complete a thesis proposal that is approved by the Humanities Higher Degrees Committee. Under the supervision of a staff member, students produce a doctoral thesis on a topic negotiated with a supervisor.

- Sociology is a three-year major subject that may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculties of Humanities and Commerce
- Industrial and Economic Sociology is a two-year major subject that may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculties of Humanities and Commerce
- Sociology and Industrial and Economic Sociology may not be taken together
- A non-continuing pass in Sociology I will not meet the entrance requirements for Sociology II or Industrial and Economic Sociology II
- First-semester courses are examined in June, and second-semester courses are examined in November
- Any student, who fails an examination paper by no less than 40%, may be granted the option of writing a supplementary examination for that paper

Sociology 1 (SOC1)

First-year, full-year course (NQF level 5, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: None

This course introduces students to the concepts (i.e. language) used by sociologists as well as the theoretical perspectives they employ when analysing society. Social inequality, institutions (such as the state, the family, education, and the economy), and social change are discussed. Also included in Sociology I are topical themes such as deviance, social change, work and leisure, population, urbanisation, environment, sexuality, poverty, sub-cultures, the media in society, religion, and other relevant issues. The papers in this course have a strong South African focus.

Assessment: Coursework counts 30% and examinations in June and November count 70%

Supplementary exams: June/November result of 40 – 49%

Sociology 2 (SOC2)

Second-year, full-year course (NQF level 6, 30 credits)

Entrance requirement: SOC1

This course consists of the following core papers:

- Theory and Society: This course begins by introducing students to the theorising process in sociology. The central concerns and ideas of the major classical theorists are discussed. The focus is on ideas and theories developed to understand and explain significant social changes brought about by earlier economic, social and political transformations up to and including events of the early 20th century. The relevance of these theories for contemporary societies is addressed.
- Introduction to Social Research: This is an introductory course to research methods, which are indispensable to the work of sociologists as they construct scientific explanations of human society through empirical investigations. The basic dimensions of the research process, including research design and research techniques, are covered.

Two specialised areas of study that will be on offer, as determined by the Department in a particular year, include Sociology of Development, Crime and Deviance, Political Sociology, Family

Sociology, Sociology of Language, Race and Class, Environment and Society, Mass Communication, Migrant Studies, Sociology of Education, Sociology of Health and Illness, and Popular Culture.

Assessment: Coursework counts 40% and examinations in June and November count 60%

Supplementary exams: June/November result of 40 – 49%

Sociology 3 (SOC3)

Third-year, full-year course (NQF level 7, 60 credits)

Entrance requirement: SOC2

This course consists of the following core papers:

- Contemporary Social Theory: This course includes contemporary theories and covers modern debates on the theorising process as well as the contours of the different systems of thought in the discipline.
- Social Research: This is an intermediate research methods course that builds on the second-year social research course. It provides a deeper and more nuanced understanding of the research process as well as the many complexities and challenges faced in undertaking social research.

Two specialised areas of study that will be on offer, as determined by the Department in a particular year, include Development Studies, Sociology of Education, Sociology of Race and Ethnicity, Gender Studies, Sociology of Religion, State and Society, Political Sociology, Sociology of Law, Environment and Society, and Popular Culture.

Assessment: Coursework counts 40% and examinations in June and November count 60%

Supplementary exams: June/November result of 40 – 49%

Industrial and Economic Sociology 2 (INS2)

Second-year, full-year course (NQF level 6, 30 credits)

Entrance requirement: SOC1

This course consists of the following papers:

- Industry, Economy, and Society: This course provides a conceptual and theoretical foundation for Industrial and Economic Sociology and lays a basis for the courses that follow. It examines the historical rise of capitalist societies and developments in the economy and industry during the 20th and 21st centuries. Both classical and contemporary thinkers are covered in the course.

- Sociology of Work: This course explores in detail the question of work in industrial society and considers the related areas of technological development and managerial strategies. It examines both classical and contemporary theoretical views on work. Included in the course is a discussion of the debates on the changing labour process. Contemporary forms of industrial restructuring and the future of work are also covered.
- Introduction to Social Research: This is an introductory course to research methods, which are indispensable to the work of sociologists as they construct scientific explanations of human society through empirical investigations. The basic dimensions of the research process, including research design and research techniques, are explored.
- Sociology of Labour Markets: This course offers a distinctively sociological understanding of labour markets in capitalist societies. It examines the power structures and inequalities that underpin labour markets. In addition, it traces the important changes in the standard employment contract that have taken place under neoliberal restructuring.

Other specialised areas of study that may be on offer, as determined by the Department in a particular year, include Gender and Work, Industrial and Occupational Health, Organisational Studies, Labour in the World Economy, and Conflict in the Workplace.

Assessment: Coursework counts 40% and examinations in June and November count 60%

Supplementary exams: June/November result of 40 – 49%

Industrial and Economic Sociology 3 (INS3)

Third-year, full-year course (NQF level 7, 60 credits)

Entrance requirement: IES2

This course consists of the following papers:

- Political Economy of Contemporary Capitalism: This course explores contemporary capitalism, with specific reference to neo-liberal restructuring, locating South African developments within larger global and historical processes. It introduces economic sociology and political economy, an examination of the theory underlying, and the causes and effects, of neo-liberal models; it also considers the impact of competing state policies and state capacity – and class struggles – on those policies. The course also examines alternative models and considers the question of whether there are alternatives to neo-liberalism.

- Industrial Relations: This course introduces the dynamics and institutions of industrial relations. The role in collective bargaining of trade unions, employers' organisations, and the government are explored in some detail. Aspects of labour law, such as discipline, retrenchment and dismissal, are also covered. The final part of the course deals with the nature of industrial conflict and the various models of and mechanisms for dispute resolution.
- Social Research: This is an intermediate research methods course that builds on the second-year social research course. It provides a deeper and more nuanced understanding of the research process as well as the many complexities and challenges faced in undertaking social research.
- Trade Unions and Comparative Labour History: In this course, classical and contemporary theories of trade unions are reviewed. This is followed by a comparative and historical study of trade union movements in selected countries. A primary focus is on the nature and functions of trade unions, their relationship to political parties and the state, their organisation and politics, and their structures and tactics. In addition, we consider issues such as the historical shifts in trade union tactics, the role of the trade union movement in democratic change, and the strategic challenges faced by the trade union movement.

Other specialised areas of study that may be on offer, as determined by the Department in a particular year, include Development and Industrialisation, State and Labour, Contemporary Capitalism and Globalisation, Economic and Industrial Policy, Economic Sociology, and Labour and Workplace Restructuring.

Assessment: Coursework counts 40% and examinations in June and November count 60%

Supplementary exams: June/November result of 40 – 49%

Honours Degree

NQF level 8, 120 credits

Entrance requirement: at least 65% for SOC3, IES3, or cognate discipline

An Honours degree may be taken in Sociology, Development Studies, or Industrial and Economic Sociology.

Candidates will be registered in the faculty in which their undergraduate degree was completed.

Assessment: Coursework counts 40% and examinations in June and November count 60%

Supplementary exams: June/November result of 40 – 49%

Honours in Sociology (SOC4-GEN)

The degree consists of four papers and a research report on a topic approved by the Department. The papers to be offered in a particular year are determined by the Department and include four of the following:

Advanced Research Methodology
Advanced Social Theory
Environmental Sociology
Gender Studies
Land and Agrarian Studies
Sociology of Health
Sociology of Identities
Sociology of Race
State and Society
Any other specialised area of study

Honours in Development Studies (SOC4-DEV)

The degree consists of four papers and a research report on a topic approved by the Department. The papers to be offered in a particular year are determined by the Department and include four of the following:

Advanced Research Methodology
Development Theory
Gender and Development

Land and Agrarian Studies
Models of Industrial Development
Social Policy and Development
State and Social Accountability
Value and Commodity Chains
Any other specialised area of study

Honours in Industrial and Economic Sociology (SOC4-IES)

The degree consists of four papers and a research report on a topic approved by the Department. The papers to be offered in a particular year are determined by the Department and include four of the following:

Advanced Labour Market Studies
Advanced Research Methodology
Advanced Sociology of Work
Comparative Labour Law
Economic and Industrial Policy
Human Resource Development and Management
Industrial and Employment Relations
Labour and Globalisation
Trade Unions and Comparative Labour Studies
Any other specialised area of study

In the case of all three honours programmes listed above, a candidate may, with the approval of the Head of Department, register for no more than one paper in a cognate department.

Interdisciplinary Honours (SOC4-IDS)

See Interdepartmental Studies.

The Department participates in the Interdisciplinary Honours degree offerings in Industrial Relations, Development Studies, Gender Studies, and South African Cultural Studies.

Master's Degree

(NQF level 9, 180 credits)

Entrance requirement: at least 68% for honours in sociology, development studies, industrial and economic sociology, or cognate discipline

A Master's degree may be taken in Sociology, Development Studies, Industrial and Economic Sociology, and Industrial Relations by thesis or by coursework/dissertation. Students will only be accepted for a Master's degree by thesis if they have completed a dissertation in their honours programme or submitted a satisfactory long essay with their Master's application. Candidates may be registered in Humanities or Commerce, depending on the faculty in which their Honours degree was completed. See the General Rules.

Master's by Thesis (SOC5-THS)

This degree involves research only and the production, within two years of full-time study, of a thesis of 50,000 words. Proposals should be submitted to the Humanities Higher Degrees Committee within nine months of registration.

Master's by Coursework and Dissertation (SOC5-CWD)

This degree takes place over 12 months and consists of three papers and a dissertation of 25,000 words. The papers to be offered in a particular year are determined by the Department and include three of the following:

- Advanced Social Research
- Advanced Social Theory
- Development Studies
- Industry, Economy, and Society
- Land and Agrarian Studies

Any other specialised area of study

The coursework will commence one week before the first term of the academic year. Proposals for the dissertation must be reported to the Humanities Higher Degrees Committee at a date announced by the Department. The dissertation must be submitted for examination within 24 months of registration. Students must pass at least two papers and get at least a 50% aggregate for the three papers in order to pass the degree. Passing at least two papers with at least a 50% aggregate for the three papers is also a precondition for proceeding to the dissertation. Passing the dissertation is a precondition for passing the degree.

Assessment: Coursework counts 50% and the dissertation counts 50%

Doctoral Degree (SOC-PHD & IR-PHD)

(NQF level 10, 360 credits)

Entrance requirements: at least 68% for a Master's degree in sociology, industrial and economic sociology, or cognate discipline, as well as a strong concept note

A Doctoral degree (PhD) in Sociology or Industrial Relations is taken by thesis. The faculties in which the degree may be registered are Humanities or Commerce. Proposals should be submitted to the Humanities Higher Degrees Committee within nine months of registration. See the General Rules.

RESEARCH UNITS

Governance and Development Unit (GDU)

The GDU seeks to strengthen the governance of public resources and to improve public service delivery and development outcomes in South Africa, particularly at the municipal level. The GDU's Municipal Governance programme undertakes research into municipal services (like water, sanitation, refuse removal, and electricity) and provides tailored short certificate course training to municipal councillors, officials, and members of civil society. The GDU also offers opportunities to postgraduate students to gain work experience as paid interns in South African municipalities. Selected students undertake research and support municipal management and oversight structures (by, for instance, acting as Municipal Public Accounts Committee researchers). They subsequently integrate their findings and experiences into their Master's dissertations and are assisted to publish their research.

Neil Aggett Labour Studies Unit (NALSU)

The NALSU is a labour studies hub at Rhodes University, built around a vibrant interdisciplinary team. It is named in honour of Dr Neil Hudson Aggett, a trade union organiser and medical doctor who died in 1982 in the jails of the apartheid state. NALSU is located in the Department of Sociology and Industrial Sociology, but includes members from History and Economics and Economic History. NALSU has developed active research partnerships with various national and international research and advocacy organisations and draws strength from its location in the Eastern Cape Province. Its work includes research on a wide range of issues, public engagement and trade union education, and the related production of popular materials.

Unit of Zimbabwean Studies (UZS)

The UZS has two main components. First, Master's and doctoral students, who undertake research on a range of topics pertaining to Zimbabwean history and society, including land and land reform, livelihoods, civil society, social movements and political parties. Second, research is undertaken by the UZS in conjunction with colleagues at universities in Zimbabwe. In addition and when possible, Zimbabwean studies are covered at third-year and honours levels.

Mathematical Statistics (MST) and Applied Statistics (AST) are five semester subjects which may be taken as major subjects for the degrees of BSc, BSc(InfSys), BA, BSocSc, BCom, BBusSc and BEcon.

To major in Mathematical Statistics a candidate is required to obtain the following courses: MAM 1; MST 102; MST 2; MST 3. See Rule S.22.

To major in Applied Statistics a candidate is required to obtain the following courses: MAM 1; MST 102; MST 2; AST 3. See Rule S.22.

The availability of both MST 3 and AST 3 in any year is subject to adequate staffing.

A pass in Mathematics (level 4 or greater) on the NSC is a prerequisite for admission to all first-year courses in the Department.

If a candidate obtains a pass in a semester-course offered by the Department, but fails to gain an aggregate pass for the year-long course in the following ordinary or supplementary examination, then that candidate is required to pass the semester-course failed in order to obtain credit for the year-long course.

Besides the major courses, the department offers various other courses in Statistics.

Mathematical Statistics 102 (MST 102) is a one-semester first-year course for students majoring in Mathematical Statistics/Applied Statistics.

Statistics for Science (STA 1S1) is a one-semester first-year course which may be taken for degree/diploma curricula in the Faculties of Science, Commerce and Humanities.

Statistics for Pharmacy (STA 1P1) is a one-semester course taken for degree curricula in the Faculty of Pharmacy.

Statistics for Commerce (STA 1C2) is a one-semester first-year course taken for degree curricula in the Faculty of Commerce, Science and Humanities.

For further details, particularly on the content of courses, see the departmental web page <http://www.ru.ac.za/statistics/>

FIRST-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN STATISTICS

There are four first-year courses in Statistics. STA 1S1 and STA 1P1 are held in the first semester and MST 102 and STA 1C2 are held in the second semester. Credit for each course is obtained separately and aggregation is not permitted. Credit may not be obtained for STA 1S1 and STA 1C2; STA 1S1 and STA 1P1, STA 1P1 and STA 1C2. Supplementary examinations may be recommended in either course, provided that a candidate achieves a minimum standard specified by the Department. MST 102 is one of the prerequisites for MST 2.

Statistics for Science (STA 1S1)

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credit)

Entrance requirements: Level 4 pass on the NSC or equivalent

Course description: Numerical descriptive statistics; simple classical probability theory; basic discrete and continuous distributions; expected values and moments; correlation and linear regression; point and interval estimation; modern univariate statistical inference; ANOVA; design and analysis of questionnaires; categorical data analysis; survival analysis.

DP requirements: The department maintains that attendance at lectures, tutorials, tutorial tests and term tests is mandatory (100% attendance). Students who do not attain leave of absence certificates for tests and tutorial tests will be deemed to not have duly performed or completed the course. Students who do not attain at least 30% in each term test will be deemed to not have duly performed. Students who do not attain at least 35% for their class record will be deemed to not have duly performed.

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examinations 60%

Supplementary exam: A subminimum of 35%

Statistics for Pharmacy (STA 1P1)

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: Level 4 pass on the NSC or equivalent

Course description: Numerical descriptive statistics; simple classical probability theory; basic discrete and continuous distributions; expected values and moments; point and interval estimation; modern univariate statistical inference; correlation and linear regression; ANOVA; design and analysis of questionnaires; categorical data analysis; survival analysis.

DP requirements: The department maintains that attendance at lectures, tutorials, tutorial tests and term tests is mandatory (100% attendance). Students who do not attain leave of absence certificates for tests and tutorial tests will be deemed to not have duly performed or completed the course. Students who do not attain at least 30% in each term test will be deemed to not have duly performed. Students who do not attain at least 35% for their class record will be deemed to not have duly performed

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examinations 60%

Supplementary exam: A subminimum of 35%

Statistics for Commerce (STA 1C2)

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: Level 4 pass on the NSC or equivalent

Course description: Collection and tabulation of statistical data; graphs and diagrams; frequency distributions; measures of central tendency and dispersion; shapes and parameters of classical distributions (normal, binomial, Poisson); simple classical probability theory; conditional probability; sampling distributions; point and interval estimation; hypothesis testing; analysis of time series; correlation and simple linear regression.

DP requirements: The department maintains that attendance at lectures, tutorials, tutorial tests and term tests is mandatory (100% attendance). Students who do not attain leave of absence certificates for tests and tutorial tests will be deemed to not have duly performed or completed the course. Students who do not attain at least 30% in each term test will be deemed to not have duly performed. Students who do not attain at least 35% for their class record will be deemed to not have duly performed.

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examinations 60%

Supplementary exam: A subminimum of 45%

Mathematical Statistics 102 (MST 102)

First-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15 credits)

Entrance requirements: Level 4 pass on the NSC or equivalent and at least 40% for MAM 101.

Course description: Probability: introduction; sample spaces; probability measures; calculating probabilities; conditional probability; independence. Discrete random variables: Bernoulli; binomial; geometric; negative binomial; hypergeometric and Poisson distributions. Expected values, moments and moment-generating functions.

DP requirements: The department maintains that attendance at lectures, tutorials, tutorial tests and term tests is mandatory (100% attendance). Students who do not attain leave of absence certificates for tests and tutorial tests will be deemed to not have duly performed or completed the course. Students who do not attain at least 30% in each term test will be deemed to not have duly performed. Students who do not attain at least 35% for their class record will be deemed to not have duly performed.

Assessment: Class record 40%, Examinations 60%

Supplementary exam: A subminimum of 45%

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN MATHEMATICAL STATISTICS

There are two second-year semester-long courses in Mathematical Statistics. MST 201 is held in the first semester and MST 202 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to the year-long course MST 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum of 40% in each component. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course.

Mathematics 1 (MAM 1) and Mathematical Statistics 102 (MST 102) are required before a student may register for MST 201 or MST 202. Adequate performance in MST 201 is required before a student may register for MST 202.

Students intending to major in Mathematical Statistics should note that an average of at least 60% for MST 2 is strongly suggested to register for MST 3 or AST 3.

Students intending to major in statistics are strongly encouraged to take Mathematics 2 (MAM 2).

Mathematical Statistics 201 (MST 201)

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: MAM 1, MST 102

Course description: Continuous univariate distributions including the uniform, normal, exponential, gamma, beta, student-t, chi-square and F distributions. Expected values: expectation; variance and standard deviation. Moment-generating functions. Jointly distributed random variables: discrete; continuous; independent; conditional distributions; Covariance and correlation. Functions of random variables; order statistics. Limit theorems: law of large numbers; central limit theorem. Sampling distributions derived from normal populations.

DP requirements: The department maintains that attendance at lectures, tutorials, tutorial tests and term tests is mandatory (100% attendance). Students who do not attain leave of absence certificates for tests and tutorial tests will be deemed to not have duly performed or completed the course. Students who do not attain at least 30% in each term test will be deemed to not have duly performed. Students who do not attain at least 35% for their class record will be deemed to not have duly performed.

Assessment: Class record 30%, Examination 70%

Supplementary exam: None

Sub-minimum for June: 40% to aggregate with MST 202

Mathematical Statistics 202 (MST 202)

Second-year, second-semester course (NQF level 6, 20 credits)

Entrance requirements: At least 40% MST 201

Course description: Sampling: population parameters; simple and stratified random sampling. Estimation of parameters: Goodness-of-fit and Poisson distribution; method of moments; method of maximum likelihood; confidence intervals; efficiency; sufficiency. Hypothesis testing: types of errors; power; Neyman- Pearson lemma; generalised likelihood ratio tests; measures of location and dispersion; comparison of two independent samples; paired samples; categorical data analysis; simple linear regression.

DP requirements: The department maintains that attendance at lectures, tutorials, tutorial tests and term tests is mandatory (100% attendance). Students who do not attain leave of absence certificates for tests and tutorial tests will be deemed to not have duly performed or completed the course. Students who do not attain at least 30% in each term test will be deemed to not have duly performed. Students who do not attain at least 35% for their class record will be deemed to not have duly performed.

Assessment: Class record 30%, Examination 70%

Supplementary exam: None

Sub-minimum for November: 40% to aggregate with MST 201

THIRD-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN MATHEMATICAL STATISTICS

There are two third-year semester-long courses in Mathematical Statistics. MST 301 is held in the first semester and MST 302 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to the year-long course MST 3, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum of 40% in each component. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course.

Mathematical Statistics 2 (MST 2), Mathematics Statistics 102 (MST 102) and Mathematics 1 (MAM 1) are required before a student may register for MST 301 or MST 302. Adequate performance of at least 40% in MST 301 is required before a student may register for MST 302.

Mathematical Statistics 301/Applied Statistics 301 (MST 301/AST 301)

Third-year, first-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: MAM 1, MST 102, MST 2

Course description: Distribution theory; normal sampling theory, multivariate normal distribution; the general linear model, analysis of variance; non-linear regression.

DP requirements: The department maintains that attendance at lectures, tutorials, tutorial tests and term tests is mandatory (100% attendance). Students who do not attain leave of absence certificates for tests and tutorial tests will be deemed to not have duly performed or completed the course. Students who do not attain at least 30% in each term test will be deemed to not have duly performed. Students who do not attain at least 35% for their class record will be deemed to not have duly performed.

Assessment: Class record 30%, Examination 70%

Supplementary exam: None

Sub-minimum for June: 40% to aggregate with MST 302

Mathematical Statistics 302 (MST 302)

Third-year, second-semester course (NQF level 7, 30 credits)

Entrance requirements: At least 40% MST 301

Course description: A selection of topics from: limit theorems; stochastic processes; multivariate statistical procedures; nonparametric procedures; sampling techniques; quality control; Bayesian inference; financial statistics.

DP requirements: The department maintains that attendance at lectures, tutorials, tutorial tests and term tests is mandatory (100% attendance). Students who do not attain leave of absence certificates for tests and tutorial tests will be deemed to not have duly performed or completed the course. Students who do not attain at least 30% in each term test will be deemed to not have duly performed. Students who do not attain at least 35% for their class record will be deemed to not have duly performed.

Assessment: Class record 30%, Examination 70%

Supplementary exam: None

Sub-minimum for November: 40% to aggregate with MST 302

THIRD-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN APPLIED STATISTICS

Applied Statistics 3 is comprised of the two third year courses MST 301 and AST 302.

MST 301 is held in the first semester and AST 302 in the second semester. Each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-long course AST 3, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum of 40% in each component. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course.

Mathematical Statistics 2 (MST 2), Mathematical Statistics 102 (MST 102) and Mathematics 1 (MAM 1) are required before a student may register for MST 301 or AST 302. Adequate performance in MST 301 / AST 301 is required before a student may register for AST 302.

AST 302

Due to staffing constraints AST 302 will not be offered this year.

MATHEMATICAL STATISTICS HONOURS

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120 credits)

Entrance requirements: Students are required to attain at least 65% on average, where no module or component is less than 60%, in their undergraduate third year Mathematical Statistics course(s).

Students are strongly encouraged to take at least Mathematics 2 in their undergraduate studies.

Course description: The course consists of four modules, a series of seminars and a research project. The modules may be selected from the following topics: Bayesian statistics; econometrics; generalized linear models; multivariate analysis; probability theory; stochastic processes; time series analysis; survey methods and sampling techniques; stochastic calculus in finance; queueing theory and simulation; applied data analysis; pattern recognition.

DP requirements: The department maintains that attendance at lectures, seminars, tutorials, practicals and term tests is mandatory (100% attendance). Students who do not attain leave of absence certificates for tests will be deemed to not have duly performed or completed the course. Students who do not attain at least 30% in each test will be deemed to not have duly performed.

Students who do not attain at least 35% for their class record will be deemed to not have duly performed. Students who do not attain at least 40% for their applied statistics and consulting portfolio seminar series will be deemed to not have duly performed.

Assessment: For each module the class record counts 30% and the examination 70%. The four modules count 65%, that is 16.25% each, of the final Honours mark. A portfolio is assessed for the applied statistics and consulting seminar series. The portfolio counts 5% of the final Honours mark. The research project counts 30% of the final Honours mark. The project mark is the average of the supervisors and external examiners mark. The oral presentation of the project counts 30% of the research project mark. The presentation mark is the average of the mark awarded by the members of staff at the presentation.

Supplementary exam: None

Sub-minimum: 40% for each module, 40% for the seminar series, 40% for the research project, 40% for the research presentation.

MASTER'S AND DOCTORAL DEGREES

Suitably qualified students are encouraged to proceed to research degrees under the direction of the staff of the Department. Requirements for the MSc (NQF level 9, 180 credits) and PhD (NQF level 10, 360 credits) degrees are given in the General Rules. The Master's degree is either by thesis or by coursework and thesis. A candidate may also be required to take an oral examination.

Zoology (ZOO) is a six-semester subject, which may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BCom and BJourn.

Entomology (ENT) is a four-semester subject that may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc and BJourn.

To major in Zoology, a candidate is required to obtain credit for the following courses: CHE 1; CEL 101; ZOO 102; BOT 102; ZOO 201; ZOO 202; ZOO 301, ZOO 302.

To major in Entomology, a candidate is required to obtain credit for the following courses: CHE 1; CEL 101; ZOO 102; BOT 102; ENT 201; ENT 202; ENT 301; ENT 302.

Two, or in some cases four, semester courses in Zoology are allowed for degree/diploma curricula in the Faculties of Humanities and Education.

Detailed information on course structures and the types of curricula involving Zoology or Entomology is available from the Head of Department.

For further details, particularly on the contents of courses, see the departmental web page <http://www.ru.ac.za/zoologyandentomology>

Students are required to attend all official field trips which form part of any semester-course for which they are registered.

FIRST-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN ZOOLOGY

There are two first-year courses in Zoology. CEL 101 is held in the first semester and ZOO 102 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to the year-long course ZOO 1, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum (45%) in each component. However, students wishing to major in Zoology and/or Entomology must normally obtain credit for each semester course separately. Supplementary examinations may be awarded in either course, provided that a candidate achieves 35% in semester 1 and 45% in semester 2. Adequate performance (at least 35%) for CEL 101 is required before a student may register for ZOO 102.

CEL 101: Cell Biology

This is a first-year, first-semester course (NQF level 5, 15-credits) jointly taught by the Departments of Botany and Zoology & Entomology.

See specific details in the entry for the Department of Botany.

ZOO 102: Animal Diversity, Structure and Function

First-year, second-semester course (NQF level 5, 15-credits)

Entrance requirements: 35% for CEL 101

Course description: This course provides an introduction to the evolution, systematics, structure and functional biology of the animal kingdom, both vertebrate and invertebrate.

DP requirements: Attend at least 90% of practicals and hand in all assignments.

Assessment: Class record 40%, Summative assessments 60%

Supplementary exam: yes

Subminimum for November: 45% to aggregate with CEL 101

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN ZOOLOGY

There are two independent second-year courses in Zoology, ZOO 201 and ZOO 202. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to the year-course ZOO 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required subminimum in each component. No supplementary examinations are offered for either course.

Practical reports, essays, seminars and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark.

When the intention is to major in Zoology, Zoology 1 (CEL 101, ZOO 102), Botany 102 (BOT 102), and Chemistry 1 (CHE 1) is normally required before a student may register for ZOO 201 or ZOO 202. Permission may be granted to repeat CHE 1 or BOT 102 concurrently with ZOO 201 and ZOO 202. Adequate performance (at least 45%) in the first semester is required before a student may register for the second semester.

ZOO 201: Principles of Ecology and Evolution

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF level 6, 20-credits)

Entrance requirements: ZOO 1

Co-requisites: CHE 1, BOT 102

Course description: This course concerns the general principles of ecology, micro- and macro-evolution. Ecological topics covered fall under the levels of organism, population, community, and ecosystem. Short field trips may be held. Evolution topics include evolutionary genetics and species diversification.

DP requirements: Attend at least 90% of practicals, hand in all assignments, and attend compulsory field trips.

Assessment: Class record 40%, Summative assessments 60%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 45% to aggregate with ZOO 202

ZOO 202: Environmental and Behavioural Physiology

Second-year, second-semester course (NQF level 6, 20-credits)

Entrance requirements: ZOO 201

Course description: This course examines the effects of environmental variables such as oxygen, carbon dioxide, ions, water, temperature, and other external stimuli on how animals function and how different groups of animals respond to different environmental conditions and stimuli.

DP requirements: Attend at least 90% of practicals and hand in all assignments.

Assessment: Class record 40%, Summative assessments 60%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 45% to aggregate with ZOO 201

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES
IN ENTOMOLOGY

There are two independent second-year courses in Entomology, ENT 201 and ENT 202. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to the year-long course ENT 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required subminimum in each component. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course.

Practical reports, essays, seminars and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark.

When the intention is to major in Entomology, Zoology 1 (CEL 101, ZOO 102), Botany 102 (BOT 102), and in Chemistry 1 (CHE 1) is normally required before a student may register for ENT 201 or ENT 202. Permission may be granted to repeat CHE 1 or BOT 102 concurrently with ENT 201 and ENT 202. Adequate performance (at least 45%) in the first semester is required before a student may register for the second semester.

ENT 202: Professional Entomology: Insects and Man

Second-year, first-semester course (NQF level 6, 20-credits)

Entrance requirements: ZOO 102

Co-requisites: CHE 1, BOT 102

Course description: This course provides an overview of the biology of the major insect orders and their impact on humans, particularly in the context of major entomology career pathways such as agricultural entomology, medical and veterinary entomology, pesticides and biological control, aquatic entomology and biomonitoring. Practical will be both field- and laboratory-based, and students normally submit an insect collection.

DP requirements: Attend at least 90% of practicals, hand in 90% of assignments, and attend compulsory field trips.

Assessment: Class record 40%, Summative assessments 60%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 45% to aggregate with ENT 202

ENT 201: General Insect Biology

Second-year, second-semester course (NQF level 6, 20-credits)

Entrance requirements: ENT 201

Course description: This course provides an introduction to the anatomy, physiology, genetics, population biology, diversity, phylogeny, and conservation of insects. Practical will be both field- and laboratory-based and students normally submit an insect collection and attend short weekend field trips.

DP requirements: Attend at least 90% of practicals, hand in 90% of assignments, and attend compulsory field trips.

Assessment: Class record 40%, Summative assessments 60%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 45% to aggregate with ENT 201

THIRD-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN ZOOLOGY

There are two independent third year courses in Zoology. A student wishing to major in Zoology must obtain ZOO 301 and ZOO 302. Credit for each of these courses may be obtained separately. Aggregation will be deemed equivalent to a year-long course ZOO 3, provided the candidate obtains the required subminimum in each semester. No supplementary examinations are offered in third year courses. Practical reports, essays, seminars and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final course mark. A research project, which is carried out during the year, forms a component of each semester in Zoology. The project mark for the first semester will be based on a midyear report. Students who register for one semester undertake a shorter project. The examination may include an oral examination at the discretion of the examiners. When the intention is to major in Zoology, ZOO 201 and ZOO 202, or its equivalent ZOO 2, are required before a student may register for a third-year semester. Adequate performance (at least 45%) in the first semester is required before a student may register for the second semester.

ZOO 301: African Zoology: land animals and life histories

Third-year, first-semester course (NQF level 7, 30-credits)

Entrance requirements: ZOO 2

Course description: This course uses the African vertebrate fauna to illustrate the principles of behavioural and physiological adaptation to terrestrial habitats. Normally, an introductory section on African biogeography is followed by an examination of the problems and solutions associated with life in particular environments. These include arid habitats, montane and forest habitats and grasslands/savanna. A short field trip may be held.

DP requirements: Attend at least 90% of practicals, hand in all assignments, and successfully complete a mini-research project.

Assessment: Class record 20%, Project 20%, Summative assessments 60%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 45% to aggregate with ZOO 302

ZOO 302: Marine Biology

Third-year, second-semester course (NQF level 7, 30-credits)

Entrance requirements: ZOO 2

Course description: The oceans have a profound effect on life on earth, providing food for man and influencing both weather and climate. This course emphasizes the physical properties of the marine environment and how these shape species' interactions and food webs. Topics covered may include ocean circulation, primary production, zooplankton dynamics, the deep sea, rocky shores, sandy beaches, estuaries, planktonic food webs, pelagic/demersal fisheries, climate change, and the behavioural and physiological ecology of marine animals. Short field trips may also be held.

DP requirements: Attend at least 90% of practicals, hand in all assignments, and successfully complete a mini-research project.

Assessment: Class record 20%, Project 20%, Summative assessments 60%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 45% to aggregate with ZOO 301

THIRD-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN ENTOMOLOGY

There are two independent third year courses in Entomology. A student wishing to major in Entomology must obtain ENT 301 and ENT 302. Credit for each of these courses may be obtained separately. Aggregation will be deemed equivalent to the year-long course ENT 3 provided the candidate obtains the required subminimum in each semester. No supplementary examinations are offered in third year courses. Practical reports, essays, seminars and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final course mark. A research project, which is carried out during the year, forms a component of each semester in Entomology. The project mark for the first semester will be based on a mid-year report. Students who register for one semester only either undertake a shorter project or write an extended essay. The examination may include an oral examination at the discretion of the examiners.

When the intention is to major in Entomology, ENT 201 and ENT 202, or the equivalent ENT 2, is required before a student may register for a third-year semester. Adequate performance (at least 45%) in the first semester is required before a student may register for the second semester.

ENT 302: Environmental Entomology

Third-year, first-semester course (NQF level 7, 30-credits)

Entrance requirements: ENT 2

Course description: This course investigates the role of insects in the environment and covers aspects of conservation entomology, biological monitoring and aquatic entomology.

DP requirements: Hand in all assignments and successfully complete a mini-research project.

Assessment: Class record 20%, Project 20%, Summative assessments 60%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 45% to aggregate with ENT 301

ENT 301: Applied Insect Ecology

Third-year, second-semester course (NQF level 7, 30-credits)

Entrance requirements: ENT 2

Course description: This course illustrates the application of ecological theory to applied problems in, for example, agricultural entomology, apiculture, weed biocontrol and forensic entomology.

DP requirements: Hand in all assignments and successfully complete a mini-research project.

Assessment: Class record 20%, Project 20%, Summative assessments 60%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 45% to aggregate with ENT 302

HONOURS COURSES

Honours in Zoology and Entomology

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120-credits)

Entrance requirements: 65% ZOO 3 or 65% ENT 3

Course description: The department offers separate Honours courses in Zoology, Entomology, Marine Biology, and African Vertebrate Biodiversity. The aim of these courses is to produce graduates who think in an analytical and critical way and who are capable of independent research, from project planning and experimental design to scientific writing. Students participate in core courses of statistics, scientific writing, global ecology, evolution, and trophic ecology and undertake a series of seminars, research project(s) and a number of content-based courses. Whenever possible, students undertake a field trip and attend a local scientific conference. Details of each Honours course are presented below. Joint honours with cognate disciplines may be permitted at the discretion of the heads of departments concerned.

DP requirements: Hand in all assignments and successfully complete the assigned research project(s).

Assessment: Class record 30%, Project 40%, Theory examinations (x3) and Oral Examination 30%

Supplementary exam: None

Zoology Honours

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120-credits)

Entrance requirements: 65% ZOO 3 or equivalent

Course description: The content-based courses may include special topics in animal reproduction and life histories, animal behaviour, disturbance ecology, evolutionary biology, invasion biology, trophic ecology, and applied zoology. Candidates undertake research project(s) in any field of Zoology.

DP requirements:

Hand in all assignments and successfully complete the assigned research project(s).

Assessment: Class record 30%, Project 40%, Theory examinations (x3) and Oral Examination 30%

Supplementary exam: None

Entomology Honours

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120-credits)

Entrance requirements: 65% ENT 3

Course description: The course consists of advanced studies in Entomology, with special emphasis on insect ecology, economic entomology, biological control, biological invasions. Candidates undertake entomological research project(s).

DP requirements:

Hand in all assignments and successfully complete the assigned research project(s).

Assessment: Class record 30%, Project 40%, Theory examinations (x3) and Oral Examination 30%

Supplementary exam: None

Marine Biology Honours

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120-credits)

Entrance requirements: 65% ZOO 3 or equivalent Candidates should have either Botany, Zoology, or Ichthyology as major BSc subjects (exceptions may be made at the discretion of the Head of Department). Course description: The course consists of advanced studies in Marine Biology that may include special topics in physical/chemical oceanography, planktonic food webs, benthic food webs, fringing communities, and life history strategies. Candidates undertake marine biological research project(s). This course may involve a short oceanic research cruise.

DP requirements:

Hand in all assignments and successfully complete the assigned research project(s).

Assessment: Class record 30%, Project 40%, Theory examinations (x3) and Oral Examination 30%

Supplementary exam: None

African Vertebrate Biodiversity Honours

Year-long course (NQF level 8, 120-credits)

Entrance requirements: 65% ZOO 3 or equivalent. This course focuses on the principles that underpin sustaining vertebrate biodiversity in Africa. The course consists of advanced studies in vertebrate biology with emphasis on biogeography and biodiversity, population processes and life history patterns, physiological adaptations, and conservation and management. There is normally a strong practical component, in which students get field experience in vertebrate biology. Candidates undertake vertebrate research project(s). If possible, there will be field trip(s) in a local game reserve.

DP requirements:

Hand in all assignments and successfully complete the assigned research project(s).

Assessment: Class record 30%, Project 40%, Theory examinations (x3) and Oral Examination 30%

Supplementary exam: None

MASTER'S AND DOCTORAL DEGREES

MSc (NQF level 9, 180-credits)

PhD (NQF level 10, 360-credits)

Suitably qualified students are encouraged to proceed to the research degrees of MSc and PhD under the direction of the staff of the Department. Requirements for the MSc and PhD degrees are given in the General Rules.

The Albany Museum falls under the Department of Sport, Recreation, Arts and Culture in the Eastern Cape government, although the building and collections are owned by a Board of Trustees. The Museum, as an Affiliated Institution, has enjoyed a long and productive relationship with Rhodes University. Several staff members are Science Faculty Board Members, continue to supervise numerous student projects over the years, and have run courses within the academic programmes of departments such as Entomology, Botany and Geology. Museum staff engage extensively with the public in the form of tours and talks to local school groups (contact the Museum for a copy of our Education Booklet with a schedule of focus weeks run by each department). Staff also participate in SciFest, careers days and many other initiatives. The extensive collections of insects and other invertebrates, fossils, birds and plants, historical, anthropological and archaeological artefacts, are an important research and heritage resource.

History of the Albany Museum

The Albany Museum, the second oldest museum in southern Africa, was founded in September 1855. The Museum acquired its own building in 1902 when the core block of the present Natural Sciences Museum was built. The palaeontological and geological collections have their origins with the collections of Andrew Geddes Bain and Dr W Guybon Atherstone; Dr Schonland built up the herbarium and the library.

With Dr Schonland, came the historic ties which the Museum has with Rhodes University. He addressed the Cape Parliament, speaking for the establishment of a university in Makhanda (then known as Grahamstown), and persuaded the trustees of Cecil Rhodes's estate to pledge funds for the establishment of Rhodes University College. When the College was established in 1904, the Director, Dr Schonland, became its first professor of Botany. Dr Schonland was succeeded as director by Dr John Hewitt.

John Hewitt's research lay in the fields of vertebrate zoology and archaeology. The earliest collections of archaeological material date back to 1895. During this period, Makhanda's longstanding affair with fishes started. In 1930 Dr JLB Smith, Senior Lecturer in Chemistry at Rhodes, identified and catalogued the Museum's marine fish collection. In 1952 the Museum's collection of fishes was loaned to the University's Department of Ichthyology. In 1968, the marine fish collection was moved to the newly established JLB Smith Institute of Ichthyology (now known as SAIAB, the South African Institute for Aquatic Biodiversity), leaving the developing freshwater fish collection at the Albany Museum. Over the next decades, the freshwater fish collections of the Transvaal and Cape Nature Conservation authorities, the Natal Museum and the South African Museum were all transferred to the Albany Museum. Then, in 2015, the freshwater fish collection was amalgamated with the SAIAB fish collection on a 99-year loan agreement, putting all of the fish under one roof again.

On 6 September 1941 the Museum was burnt down. The library and most of the collections were saved but there was a great loss of exhibited material. The Museum was rebuilt and the displays were reconstructed.

In 1955, the Museum celebrated its centenary and, in 1957, its staff became Provincial employees. Dr John Hewitt retired the following year, and was succeeded by Dr T. H. Barry. During Dr Barry's tenure of five years the Hewitt and Rennie Wings were added to the Natural Sciences Museum and the 1820 Settlers Memorial Museum was built. The period between 1965 and 1977, under the directorship of Mr C. F. Jacot Guillarmod, was one of consolidation. Fort Selwyn was restored by the Province and handed over to the Museum in 1977. The National Collection of Freshwater Organisms was transferred from the CSIR to the Museum, founding what is now known as the Department of Freshwater Invertebrates, with Dr KMF Scott the first curator. In 1958 the Department of Entomology and Arachnology was created with Charles Jacot-Guillarmod, its first curator.

Under Mr Jacot Guillarmod's successor, Mr B.C. Wilmot, the Museum entered a new period of growth. De Beers Consolidated Mines Limited purchased and restored the Observatory and the Priest's House and donated them to the Museum. The Old Provost was restored by the Province. The Observatory Museum received considerable maintenance again in 2019 under the directorship of Mr Manzi Vabaza, facilitated by the Department of Public Works.

Museum staff started teaching short courses at the University and, in 1983, the Museum became an Associated Research Institute of Rhodes University. The Museum's close relationship with the University was expanded with the consolidation of the herbaria of the two institutions and the formation of the Selmar Schonland Herbarium, housed in the Museum.

The National English Literary Museum was officially renamed Amazwi South African Museum of Literature in 2019. The museum now has a mandate to collect literary artefacts relating to the literatures of all South African languages.

NELM was founded with a small collection of South African English manuscripts by the late Professor Guy Butler of Rhodes University in the 1960s. Butler had a vision of a national repository for South African literary manuscripts, and this was the genesis of the museum. The museum became a Declared Cultural Institution in 1980 and is principally funded by the national Department of Sport, Arts and Culture. Although autonomous, Amazwi maintains close links with the ISEA and is an associated research institute of Rhodes University.

In 2016 the museum moved into its new custom-designed building. The building has a 5-star rating from the Green Building Council of South Africa, the first museum in the country to achieve this. The permanent exhibitions, "Voices of the Land", depict the literary representation of the South African landscape from early colonial times to the present day. Through literary imaginings the landscape is presented as a physical place with its long history of ownership conflicts, and as an aesthetic symbol of cultural identity. The building also has temporary exhibition space, an auditorium, activity rooms and a reading room for visiting researchers.

Amazwi has two satellite museums: Schreiner House in Cradock and the Eastern Star in Makhanda.

The exhibitions at Schreiner House explore the life and work of Olive Schreiner – the renowned author of The Story of an African Farm – and recognise her contribution as a writer, women's rights activist and human rights activist. Some of her belongings and part of her and her husband's personal libraries are on display. Schreiner House – No. 9 Cross Street – was once her home, and she lived there with her siblings Theo, Ettie and Will from 1867 to 1870.

The Easter Star gets its name from a newspaper that was established in Grahamstown in 1871. The newspaper and its proprietors followed the gold rush to Johannesburg in 1887 and the paper was renamed The Star – still a popular daily. The Eastern Star houses exhibits of 19th century printing equipment, including a 120-year old Wharfedale printing press, and an exhibition that examines the history of the press in South Africa.

Amazwi has more than 100 000 literary artefacts in its collection. These include authors' manuscripts, printers' proofs, diaries, correspondence, publishers' archives, photographs, posters, play-scripts, theatre programmes, cultural artefacts and rare books that date back to the 17th century. The museum's collection of published poems, short stories, novels, plays, autobiographies, travel writing and children's literature exceeds 30 000.

Amazwi provides support for the teaching of literature as well as less formal guided tours of the museums and indigenous gardens, and storytelling sessions for learners in the lower grades and special schools. Our aim is to inspire future generations of writers and nurture avid readers.

See <https://amazwi.museum> or <https://www.facebook.com/NationalEnglishLiteraryMuseum> for further information, or e-mail: info@amazwi.museum.

The Biopharmaceutics Research Institute (BRI) is a Specialty Contract Research Organisation, established in 1987 and dedicated to conducting bioavailability/bioequivalence and pharmacokinetic studies on topical corticosteroid drug products in accordance with international requirements and specifications. The Institute has been inspected, audited and approved by a number of international regulatory authorities such as the USA's Food & Drug Administration (FDA), the World Health Organization (WHO) and the South African Health Products Regulatory Authority (formerly known as the Medicines Control Council – MCC) and is internationally acknowledged as a premier testing site using the Vasoconstrictor Assay (VCA) in accordance with the internationally accepted FDA's guidance for such products.

A full range of services for the clinical, statistical and report generation aspects of bioavailability/bioequivalence and pharmacokinetic studies are undertaken according to Good Clinical Practice (GCP) and standard operating procedures (SOPs). The BRI provides safety and efficacy testing services to pharmaceutical manufacturing companies for topical corticosteroid drug products for national and international regulatory registration purposes as well as for formulation development purposes. Topical corticosteroid products which have been successfully tested at the BRI have received marketing authorisation in South Africa, Europe, United States of America and Canada.

Studies are conducted in a clinic staffed by experienced investigators including study physicians, registered pharmacists and QA officers where the Executive Director has over forty years of experience with studies on topical corticosteroids. The Institute has a pool of well-trained professional nurses who assist in general clinical activities. Study protocols are submitted for review for ethical approval according to GCP principles and in accordance with the requirements of the Declaration of Helsinki.

Motivated and responsible volunteers are recruited from male and female members of the Rhodes University student body. The clinic is ideally situated on the Rhodes University campus and is within easy walking distance of volunteers residing in University residences or off-campus - over 50% of the student body reside on campus.

The Institute also provides facilities for postgraduate projects leading to MSc and PhD degrees.

The focus of the Centre for Social Development is Early Childhood Development. Its work proceeds in three broad directions:

- community development through institutions and activities including, for example, toy libraries and skills training for ECD practitioners in the form of Education, Training and Development Programmes (EDTP) Sector Education Training Authority (SETA) accredited Level 5 qualifications, capacity developing workshops, and emergent literacy and numeracy interventions.

- CHE accredited formal teacher education qualifications, namely a part-time Bachelor of Education (Foundation Phase Teaching) and Advanced Certificate in Foundation Phase Literacy Teaching, which are offered under the auspices of the Education Faculty.
- Engaged research linking the community and academic projects

The CSD's work provides a pathway for ECD practitioners with little formal education training into a formal teacher education programme, the BEd (Foundation Phase Teaching) degree. This pathway is contributing to the professionalisation of both the ECD sector and the Foundation Phase (Grades R to 3) of formal schooling.

The CSD undertakes research into literacy, early childhood development and education. The institute is uniquely positioned in the University to contribute to a growing field of engaged research given its dual mandate of academic advancement and community engagement.

The CSD is an accredited service provider and offers qualifications for the EDTP SETA.

NATIONAL DIPLOMA IN EARLY CHILDHOOD DEVELOPMENT

(NQF Level 5)

Duration: 18 months part-time study

Course description: This course is for in-service ECD practitioners under CSD supervision. It focuses on the teaching of young children from birth to 6 years and includes Grade R studies.

The CSD also offers a part time continuous professional development Bachelor of Education degree to in-service practitioners through the Education Faculty.

The Dictionary Unit for South African English (DSAE) is the National Lexicography Unit (NLU) dedicated to the South African variety of English. Now funded by the Pan South African Language Board (PanSALB), it is one of eleven NLUs (one for each official language). The project of documenting South African English vocabulary and usage was formally initiated in 1969 by the late Professor Bill Branford, Rhodes University's first professor of English Language and Linguistics. Following decades of research by subsequent teams of linguists and lexicographers, including intermediate publishing milestones, the Unit's flagship project was published in print by Oxford University Press as A Dictionary of South African English on Historical Principles (DSAEHist, 1996). The lexical archives supporting this unparalleled diachronic linguistic and cultural research project constitute a unique resource for students of the English language as it is used in South Africa, particularly in the context of multilingualism. In addition to computerised holdings and a library of lexicographical materials, the Unit's resources include over 300,000 card indexes collected between 1969 and the 1990s showing contexts for words and phrases in South African English. Sources range from early explorers' and settlers' journals to printed books, contemporary newspapers and oral transcriptions.

Subsequently the DSAE became a Digital Humanities project. In 2014 the DSAE's transition to electronic platforms and research methods was signalled by the publication of a pilot online version of the historical Dictionary of South African English (DSAE). Following early collaborations with the University of Hildesheim, Germany and the University of Stellenbosch, South Africa – and associated journal publications – the Unit produced a comprehensive electronic adaptation of this dictionary as an enhanced Desktop Edition (2019) followed by the Mobile Edition (2020). Both are freely accessible at <http://dsae.co.za>. Locally and internationally, the Unit – now an online dictionary publisher in its own right – plays a leading role in electronic dictionary design, as evidenced by its most recent, cutting-edge project, the DSAE Visual Edition (<http://visual.dsae.co.za>, 2021). Its current project is the dramatic expansion of the Unit's electronic database holdings by applying computational linguistic methods to a newly-created South African English corpus of about 3 billion words.

In addition to its dictionary projects, the DSAE assists both national and international researchers as well as the general public with enquiries about South African English. It contributes to the promotion of multilingualism in South Africa by maintaining regular contact with the National Lexicography Units for all other official languages and participating in the wider language community.

The DSAE is an Associated Institute of Rhodes University, operating as a registered Non-Profit Company. In addition to core funding from PanSALB, the DSAE receives royalties from the sales of its commercial publications, the Francolin Illustrated School Dictionary for Southern Africa (Francolin 1997/Longman 2001), the Oxford South African Concise Dictionary (OUP Southern Africa 2010) and the Oxford South African Pocket Dictionary (2015). The Institute for Environmental Biotechnology, Rhodes University (EBRU) targets research in environmental biotechnology at the interface between the fundamental and applied sciences. In doing so it undertakes the innovation and development of bioprocess solutions to environmental problems, and focuses on the diffusion and transfer of environmental technology from laboratory to full-scale industrial application. This activity targets excellence in capacity building and the development of associated academic and applied disciplines. Historically, innovation and development of environmental bioprocesses related to water treatment was the main focus area. More recently, the scope of research and bioprocess development has been widened to include contemporary fields such as alternative energy and bio-fuels. As part of our human resource development programme the institute offers intensive Masters' and Doctoral research opportunities. The various research programmes are focused on the development of human resource capacity and link the application of biotechnology to industrial and municipal related environmental degradation, and clean technology.

Environmental biotechnology may be defined as the development, use and regulation of biological systems and their derivatives and processes for sustainable socio-economic benefit in environmental protection, remediation and energy generation. It is a knowledge-intensive, research-driven field which addresses a broad spectrum of environmental sector needs in the major areas of soil, air, and water, and in co-product (waste) valorization. In brief, use of natural products / microbes to perform industrially important tasks in an environmentally sustainable way is the focus of attention.

EBRU welcomes applications to undertake independent postgraduate research in the field of environmental biotechnology. Candidates who are employed and fulfil the admission criteria may after consultation with the Institute register as 'not in attendance' and undertake their research remotely. Opportunities are available for MSc (180 credits and NQF level 9) and PhD (360 credits and NQF level 10) study by research in agricultural biotechnology, industrial and municipal wastewater bioremediation and beneficiation, land rehabilitation, microalgal biotechnology, and renewable energy. The entrance requirements for research MSc and PhD degrees are outlined in the General Rules section of the Rhodes University calendar. Candidates with an Honour's degree in the chemical, natural and/or life sciences are welcome to apply for the MSc degree, while PhD candidates are required to already be in possession of a relevant postgraduate qualification at time of application. Applications are also welcome from candidates interested in postdoctoral fellowship at the Institute. For further information, please visit the Institute's website (<http://www.ru.ac.za/eburu/>).

The Institute was established in July 1964 during the University's Diamond Jubilee celebrations, at the suggestion of Professor Guy Butler. The mission of the ISEA is to "sponsor research, collect information, provide liaison with South African and overseas scholarship and organize conferences and courses of training for teachers and others interested in language". Since its inception, the Institute has given rise to three independent organisations:

- The National English Literary Museum
- The Dictionary Unit for South African English
- The Molteno Language and Literacy Institute

The first two are separate, nationally funded institutions, while the Molteno Language and Literacy Institute, the largest and most successful language-learning programme in primary education in Southern Africa, is now an independent project of Rhodes University.

Today the ISEA fulfils the aims of its founders in large-scale research and development projects in English education, in the publication of journals devoted to the English language in South Africa, and by providing a research base for scholars working in the field covered by the Institute.

The ISEA mounts an extra-curricular Creative Writing Programme each year during the first semester, which is open to staff, students and members of the public. Contact isea@ru.ac.za

The Institute runs Wordfest, a multilingual, multicultural celebration of language and literature held annually during the National Arts Festival in Makhanda. The event includes lectures, book launches, poetry performances and readings, exhibitions, short courses, its own newspaper, live interviews and word-based shows.

Publications

Periodicals published by the ISEA include English in Africa (from 1974), a scholarly journal devoted to African writing in English, New Coin Poetry (from 1964), and Shakespeare in Southern Africa (from 1987). In addition, the ISEA publishes research reports, scholarly monographs, anthologies and collections of poetry.

The ISEA is a research institute within the University subsidised largely by private donations and endowments, and it retains complete independence in its research.

The ISEA offers the following qualifications in the Faculty of Education:

- Bachelor of Education (Senior Phase and Further Education and Training Teaching) (part time, in-service)
- Bachelor of Education Honours in Bilingual Education for Diversity and Access
- Master of Education (full thesis)
- Doctor of Philosophy

BACHELOR OF EDUCATION (SENIOR PHASE AND FURTHER EDUCATION AND TRAINING TEACHING) IN ENGLISH LANGUAGE TEACHING

Part-Time, Continuing Teacher Professional Education

The BEd(Senior/FET Teaching) in ELT qualification is offered as a three year part time Continuing Professional Development qualification for in-service teachers admitted under E.19.2. In each year there are common core modules, a major specialisation in English First Additional Language (FAL) Senior Phase and FET Phase, and a minor specialisation in School Librarianship.

CORE MODULES

BACHELOR OF EDUCATION (HONOURS)

The BEd Honours qualification consists of two foundation courses in Year One (2020) and a specialism made up of two electives in Year Two (2021). This 120-credit, NQF level 8 degree is normally offered on a part-time basis. It is intended to prepare candidates for research-based postgraduate studies in a particular field of education. It serves to consolidate and deepen candidates' expertise and theoretical engagement in educational practice, and develop research capacity in the methodology and techniques of educational research.

Foundation Programme

The foundation programme comprises a 30-credit course called "Educational Ideas and Issues" and a 30-credit course called "Research in Education".

Educational Ideas and Issues:

9045000 (NQF Level 8, 30 credits)

This compulsory course provides opportunities to analyse and evaluate educational ideas and issues relevant to a South and Southern African context using philosophical, psychological and sociological lenses. It will examine, inter alia, issues of equity (in relation to, for example, language, gender, culture and socio-economic status), the role of language in mediating learning, and issues relating to knowledge and knowing. Students' critical engagement with these issues and ideas will be underpinned by theories of teaching and learning (including, but not limited to, Piaget, Vygotsky, Bruner), debates around issues of quality in education, and in-depth consideration of the above in terms of curricular design and implementation. The course will also include philosophical, psychological and sociological perspectives on the role of values, creativity and democracy in education. Wherever possible, candidates will be required to consider these perspectives in relation to their own educational experience and context.

Research in Education:

9045001 (NQF Level 8, 30 credits)

In this compulsory course, students will "develop research capacity in the methodology and techniques of that discipline [Education]" (HEQSF, 2013), by "conducting and reporting research under supervision, worth at least 30 credits, in the form of a discrete research component" (MRTEQ, 2015). This course forms the discrete research component required according to the policy. The 'Research in Education' course is to be conducted as a supported educational research course, that is, through supervision, the student is closely guided through an independent research process, by means of selected readings and developmental on-course activities.

Specialism Programmes

The ISEA offers one specialism (BEd Honours in Bilingual Education for Diversity and Access) from a suite of specialism Honours programmes offered by the Education Department (for further details on these refer to the Education Department entry)

Bilingual Education for Diversity and Access

9045002. (NQF Level 8, 30 credits)

This module examines key debates in bi/multilingual education, drawing on Janks's theoretical framework of power, diversity, access and design to explore relationships between language(s) learning and teaching, in the one hand, and societal language policy and practices, on the other. Through seminars and structured reading, the module engages with issues of language(s), identity and power, language policy and planning in South Africa, and the challenges of literacy, diversity and epistemic access in South African education.

Classroom based Research in Bilingual Education

9045003 (NQF Level 8, 30 credits)

In this compulsory module, students will deepen their "research capacity in the methodology and techniques of that discipline [Education]" (HEQSF, 2013), by "conducting and reporting research under supervision, worth at least 30 credits, in the form of a discrete research component" (MRTEQ, 2015). This module is the discrete research component required according to the policy. The 'Research Project in Language Education' module is to be conducted as a supported educational research course; that is, by supervision and collaborative peer self-study, the student is guided through an independent, practice-based research process, by means of selected readings and developmental on-course activities.

Current Secondary Schools Language Project research comprises investigations into the impact of the ISEA's BEd programme, into the quality of writing and reading pedagogy in South Africa. Other research under way in the ISEA includes translanguaging for disciplinary access; tracking teachers' professional development in aspects of the teaching of visual literacy, literature and reading.

The Institute of Social and Economic Research (ISER) was established in Rhodes University in 1954. Strongly grounded in the Eastern Cape since its inception, the ISER soon developed a diverse portfolio of research initiatives involving its own staff and staff members of other Rhodes academic departments. Throughout its existence, engagement by academics from a range of departments within the university in the work of the ISER contributed not only to the content and quality of ISER's research work, but also enriched teaching within those academics' home departments.

Scholars associated with the ISER in the early period of its establishment produced a series of scholarly volumes comprising the Keiskammahoek Rural Survey (1947–1952) and the Border Regional Survey (1956–1964) amongst others. Although the former documented changes in Keiskammahoek since the establishment of the apartheid regime in 1948, the ISER, in its early years, generally did not engage with the consequences of apartheid for the well-being of the black majority, and did not challenge the status quo of repressive, white minority rule. This approach gradually changed in later years, when the ISER came to engage more actively with the social conditions and development problems of the Eastern Cape through empirical research and public policy engagement.

Currently the ISER focuses on multidisciplinary research across varied socio-economic challenges in rural and urban spaces, locally, nationally and on the African continent. These include socio-economic research activities on the interface of the use and consumption of agricultural land and environmental water resources, cross border trade, rural to urban livelihoods, informal to formal economic sector activities, digital skills development and education issues for youth employment and productive activities, and other such related areas under the leadership of Prof. Cyril Nhlanhla Mbatha who joined the ISER in 2020.

A brief history

Under Prof Peter Vale's Directorship from 1984, the ISER's research agenda directly and indirectly exposed the consequences of the apartheid political economy on the black inhabitants of the Eastern Cape. The ISER developed a research specialisation on well-being studies under Professor Valerie Möller, a leading internationally recognised scholar in the field and Director of the ISER between 1998 and 2006. From 2006 to 2010, the ISER was led by Professor Greg Ruiters, who introduced a vibrant, large-scale programme of research rooted in concerns of political economy and municipal service provision in the Eastern Cape. Prof Ruiters also introduced an annual ISER Winter School, which drew together community-based organisations and leading academics into in-depth discussions on topical social, developmental and political concerns for the province and the country.

In 2009, the ISER started developing Social Policy as a core research and teaching focus area, joined, in late 2012, by labour studies. Led by Prof Robert van Niekerk, the Social Policy focus area developed into a number of collaborative research programmes including programmes on health, social policy and the developmental role of the state and social citizenship. The Social Policy focus area was strengthened by the appointment of Prof Rebecca Surender in 2014 until her departure in 2015. Work on Social Policy as a distinct focus area was discontinued in mid-2018.

The Neil Aggett Labour Studies Unit (NALSU) was established in 2012 under the leadership of Dr John Reynolds and formally launched in 2014. NALSU, a hub for labour studies at Rhodes University, was relocated out of the ISER in 2019.

The ISER has had an abiding influence on a number of institutions within Rhodes University and the wider Eastern Cape. In 1979, the International Library of African Music was moved to Rhodes University under the auspices of the ISER, where it was hosted until its incorporation into the Rhodes Department of Music and Musicology in the mid-nineties. Also in 1979, a Development Studies Unit, headed by a Chair in Development Studies, was started; that unit was discontinued in 1994, when Prof Bill Davies joined the new Eastern Cape Provincial Government, where he built an economic planning and research unit in the Department of Economic Affairs, Environment and Tourism. An International Studies Unit was established in the ISER in 1988 and, in 1992, was migrated to the Rhodes Department of Political Studies, into which it was fully incorporated in the early 2000s, changing the name of the department to the Department of Political and International Studies. In 2003, the East London branch of the ISER was incorporated into the University of Fort Hare as the Fort Hare Institute of Social and Economic Research (FHISER).

POSTGRADUATE DEGREES

The following is the general information and requirements for postgraduate study in ISER.

Interdisciplinary Honours Degree in Development Studies

The ISER is participating in the offering of the Interdisciplinary Honours Degree in Development Studies in the Faculty of Humanities. It participates by coordinating a specialised programme, with modules selected annually from other participating departments that are listed under the programme (see Interdepartmental Studies in this Calendar). The ISER's coordinated programme is aimed at developing theoretical and technical skills for social and economic policy analyses. From the contributing departments the programme will present the following core and elective topics on, a) Discussions and analyses of selected social and economic policies in South Africa and in an African context; b) Political thinking and challenges on the African continent; c) Topics on the South African economic history; d) Policy and political language analyses OR Organised labour movement issues in Africa OR Development Economics and Trade & Industrial Policy (Economics and Economic History) OR Development Economics and Environmental Resources Economics.

An interdisciplinary honours degree in Development Studies may be undertaken on a fulltime basis. To be accepted as an honours student for interdisciplinary degree under the ISER, applicants would usually require a bachelor's degree with at least a good second class pass in a social science discipline, as well as satisfy any honours module pre-requisite requirements. Applicants for honours study would usually be submitted by 15 November of the year preceding the year of study, and would require approval by the Director: ISER.

The Honours degree programme requires students to register for at least four semester modules which will be presented by the following departments as well as a research project undertaken in the participating departments:

- a) The Institute of Social and Economic Research
- b) Political and International Studies
- c) History
- d) Linguistics and Applied Language Studies
- e) Sociology
- f) Economics and Economic History

The list of available modules and presenters from each participating department will be presented to prospective students by the ISER at the beginning of each academic year.

Master's Degree

A Master's degree by thesis may be undertaken on a full-time or part-time basis. To be accepted as a Master's student in the ISER, applicants would usually require an Honours degree with at least a good second class pass in a social science discipline. Applications for Master's study would usually need to be submitted by 15 November of the year preceding the first year of study, and would require approval of the ISER Research Committee, which would also consider supervisory capacity.

Students complete a thesis proposal that is approved by the ISER Research Committee and the Higher Degrees Committee of either the Humanities or Commerce Faculties. Under the supervision of an academic staff member, students produce a full-length research thesis on a topic negotiated with a supervisor and approved by the Faculty in which they are registered.

Doctoral Degree (PhD)

A PhD may be taken by thesis (see the General Rules and Higher Degrees Guide). Prospective students must usually be in possession of a good Master's degree in a social science discipline. Applications for PhD study would require approval of the ISER Research Committee, which would also consider supervisory capacity.

Students complete a thesis proposal that is approved by the ISER Research Committee and the Higher Degrees Committee of either the Humanities or Commerce Faculties. Under the supervision of an academic staff member, students produce a full-length research thesis on a topic negotiated with a supervisor and approved by the Faculty in which they are registered.

The Institute for Water Research (IWR) is home to a multi-disciplinary group of researchers and postgraduate students, that contribute to the understanding and sustainable management of water resources in southern Africa. These objectives are achieved through fundamental and applied research into the structure, function and components of natural water systems and their associated social systems, in the landscape. There is an emphasis on the co-development of knowledge, and knowledge sharing, directly and through academic and more accessible publications. Consulting services are offered to solve specific problems through the application of research developments. The IWR contributes to teaching at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels, as well as offering professional training courses and other capacity building and professional training initiatives. Specifically, postgraduate students can register in the Institute for MSc and PhD degrees (by thesis) in both Hydrology and Water Resource Science. The IWR co-hosts the Honours Degree in Environmental Water Management, with the Department of Geography:

Environmental Water Management Honours is offered together by the Geography Department and the Institute for Water Research at Rhodes University. Candidates must be in possession of an appropriate Bachelor's degree, normally majoring in at least one of Geography, Environmental Science/Ecology, Biological/Chemical Sciences or Hydrology. Other candidates with appropriate professional experience in water resource management may be considered. This degree aims to equip students with the conceptual understanding and practical knowledge that are needed to make an effective contribution to the sustainable management of catchment systems and their associated water resources. Students are required to take a core, integrative, module: Adaptive Integrated Water Resource Management and Water Governance; and must also select three other courses. Recommended courses include: Catchment Systems; Climate Change, Extreme Events and Disasters; Environmental Water Quality; Hydrology; Freshwater Ecology; Extended GIS (Geographical Information Systems); Remote Sensing for a Changing World; or other appropriate courses approved by the Course Coordinator. Please note that entry into the Extended GIS and Remote Sensing modules requires a pass at 3rd year level in the respective disciplines. The research project must be related to Environmental Water Management and approved by the Course Coordinator.

Staff members of the IWR serve on various research, management and policy making committees both within South Africa and internationally. The staff of the Institute actively collaborate with other departments and institutes at Rhodes University including the departments of Geography, Zoology and Entomology, Environmental Science, Ichthyology and Fisheries Science, the Environmental Learning Research Centre, The South African Institute for Aquatic Biodiversity and the Albany Museum. The Institute also cooperates with other universities, state departments and private consulting companies, both in South Africa and internationally.

The Institute has expertise in several areas within the broad field of water resource science, including hydrology, integrated and transdisciplinary Adaptive Integrated Water Resource Management, freshwater ecology, water chemistry data and analysis, ecotoxicology, biomonitoring, the management of water services, water governance, and community-based engaged education. The combination of research and practical problem solving within the IWR allows recently developed research methods to be rapidly deployed for water resource planning and management. Within the field of ecology, the Institute has focused on understanding the processes and requirements of aquatic ecosystems and the effects of flow variability and anthropogenic stressors. Much of the work has been directed at assessing the environmental water quantity and quality requirements of rivers, an important component of the 'Reserve' determination process designed to ensure the sustainable use of water resources under the National Water Act (No 36 of 1998). This research has been supported by the IWR's long history (over 30 years) of research into the development and application of methods for analysing and modelling hydrological information for various water resource planning and management purposes. The focus has been on combining a sound understanding of hydrological processes with the development of practical simulation tools. This has included the development of computer software designed to facilitate access to hydrological information and the integration of modelling and data visualisation tools with databases. Recent work has focused on issues of uncertainty (including climate change effects) associated with hydrological estimation and how imperfect information impacts on decision making.

Within the IWR, the Unilever Centre for Environmental Water Quality (UCEWQ) focuses on ecology, ecotoxicology, biomonitoring and water chemistry. Ecotoxicology at the IWR concentrates on determining the tolerances of indigenous riverine macroinvertebrates and algae, under controlled laboratory conditions, to selected water quality variables and complex effluents. Ecotoxicology is included in an integrated approach to assessing the water quality of a water resource and is being practically applied to evaluate the effects of industrial effluents on rivers. UCEWQ is actively involved in the development of policies and strategies for improving the quality of the nation's freshwater resources. In recent years, UCEWQ has initiated research into complex social-ecological systems and the need to account for multiple perspectives and adopt transdisciplinary approaches to solving water resources management problems. UCEWQ research has extended to explicitly include connections between people and their landscapes, viewing surface and groundwater catchments as complex social-ecological systems.

The IWR is largely self-funded and managed through a Board of Control, made up of representatives of Rhodes University, private, government and other university groups who have an interest in water resources. It derives part of its income from research contracts with agencies such as the Water Research Commission, as well as from international research support organisations (e.g. Unilever and the Carnegie Foundation). The majority of the remaining income base is from shorter term consultancy projects through partnerships with consulting companies.

The Rhodes University Mathematics Education Project is an outreach programme of the University. RUMEP offers Mathematics Education teacher professional development, and develops curriculum resources for use in schools. It conducts short courses for the Department of Education and other NGOs. RUMEP publishes reports, articles and newsletters in the field of mathematics education, and provides a centre for research in mathematics education. For many years, RUMEP has offered a part-time Bachelor of Education degree for in-service mathematics teachers in all phases. Two of these degree programmes are in a 'teach-out' phase (refer to the Education Faculty entry E.12). In 2021, a new Bachelor of Education (Senior Phase and Further Education and Training Teaching) degree will be offered for the first time. This degree is offered part-time for continuing teacher professional development purposes. The admission requirements rules are contained in the Education Faculty section

BACHELOR OF EDUCATION (SENIOR PHASE AND FURTHER EDUCATION AND TRAINING TEACHING) IN MATHEMATICS TEACHING

[Part-time, Continuing Teacher Professional Education]

CORE MODULES

Education Studies 6:

(NQF level 7, 15 credits)

Course description: This course consolidates knowledge in the study of education (history of education, theories of pedagogy), with particular emphasis on grounding this knowledge in a socio-culturally situated South African educational practice.

Assessment: Class record 50% Examination 50%

Subminimum: 45% exam

Teaching Tools and Technologies 6:

(NQF level 7, 10 credits)

Course description: This course develops a sound, reflective, practice-based engagement with educational technology and the cognitive tools of the teaching community of practice.

Assessment: Class record 100%

Professional Studies 6:

(NQF level 7, 10 credits)

Course description: This course consolidates knowledge of professional issues in teaching and grounds this knowledge in educational and classroom practice: classroom management, planning, sequencing, pace and progression, integration.

Assessment: Class record 50% Examination 50%

Subminimum: 45% exam

MATHEMATICS TEACHING SPECIALISM COURSES (SENIOR PHASE AND FURTHER EDUCATION AND TRAINING)

Mathematics Senior Phase Major 2

(NQF level 7, 16 credits)

(for those specialising in Senior Phase Mathematics)

Course description: This course focuses on the current teaching and learning context for Senior Phase Mathematics in schools. The emphasis is on all mathematical knowledge and skills applicable to the Senior Phase. Students engage with numbers, operations and relationships, patterns, functions and algebra, measurement, geometry and data handling. In addition, the course seeks to provide students with the necessary competencies to develop detailed lesson plans together with the use of appropriate teaching strategies and media to inform the teaching and learning in the Mathematics classroom.

Credits: 16

Assessment: Class record 50% Examination 50%

Subminimum: 45% exam

Mathematics Further Education and Training Minor 2

(NQF level 7, 9 credits)

Entrance requirements: (same as above)

Course description: This course aims to allow students to interact with mathematics at a higher cognitive level and to promote a level of confidence and to develop their understanding of more detailed mathematical knowledge and skills applicable to the Further Education and Training Band. In addition the emphasis on more complex content knowledge such as algebra, inequalities, functions, trigonometry, geometry, statistics and probability are studied.

Credits: 9

Assessment: Class record: 50% Examination 50%

Subminimum: 45% exam

Mathematics Literacy 2

(NQF level 7, 20 credits)

Course description: This course focuses on integrating the mathematical skills and knowledge used to develop competence in solving practical problems.

Work focuses on skills and knowledge acquired by the end of senior phase in the school curriculum, and specialises in application situations we find in finance, measurement and maps, and plans applications. Students will be expected to apply knowledge in problem-solving situations, and be able to refer to underlying principles which govern actions and concepts in problem-solving work.

Credits: 14

Assessment: Class record: 50% Examination 50%

Subminimum: 45% exam

Mathematics FET Major 2

(NQF level 7, 16 credits)

(for those specializing in FET Mathematics)

Course description: This course focuses on the current teaching and learning context for FET Mathematics in schools. Key content areas covered include functions, trigonometric identities, limits and continuity, euclidean geometry, statistics and probability at a higher cognitive level. In addition, the course seeks to provide students with the necessary competencies to develop detailed lesson plans together with the use of appropriate teaching strategies and media to inform teaching and learning in the Mathematics classroom.

Credits: 16

Assessment: Class record: 50% Examination 50%

Subminimum: 45% exam

Mathematics SP Minor 2

(NQF level 7, 9 credits)

Course description: This course aims to allow students to interact with mathematics at a fundamental level and to promote a level of confidence to develop students understanding of the basic mathematical knowledge and skills applicable to the Senior Phase.

Credits: 9

Assessment: Class record: 50% Examination 50%

Subminimum: 45% exam

The South African Institute for Aquatic Biodiversity (SAIAB) is a National Facility of the National Research Foundation and an internationally recognised centre for the study of aquatic biodiversity. SAIAB serves as a major scientific resource for knowledge and understanding of the biodiversity and functioning of Africa's aquatic ecosystems. With both marine and freshwater biogeographical boundaries, southern Africa is ideally placed to monitor and document climate. As a National Facility, SAIAB is required to provide research platforms within the National System of Innovation which are not generally available in other institutions. SAIAB offers five primary research platforms which make unique sets of skills and infrastructure available to the broader research community.

MARINE RESEARCH PLATFORMS

The African Coelacanth Ecosystem Programme (ACEP) offers technical expertise, ships' time, coastal craft, specialised equipment, monitoring networks and dive units. ACEP is the largest inter-institutional, multi-disciplinary, marine programme in South Africa. ACEP is a flagship programme of the Department of Science and Technology and is managed by SAIAB as a Marine Science platform. ACEP promotes competitive, multidisciplinary, multi-institutional east coast marine research with an emphasis on building capacity and transforming marine science, providing competitive access to funding, research platforms and marine research infrastructure within the National System of Innovation. ACEP's highly successful coastal craft and instrumentation platform comprises the 13m LeeCat, uKwabelana, which is based in the port of Port Elizabeth and the more recently acquired 15m Legacy Cat, Phakisa, which is based in Durban, and a Remote Observation Vehicle (ROV) capable of diving to 300m depth, for use by the South African marine research community.

Through ACEP, SAIAB plays a key interface role between researchers and other South African research platforms. ACEP's partner platforms include SAIAB's Acoustic Telemetry Array Platform (ATAP) and Marine Remote Imaging Platform (Mar-RIP), as well as the the South African Environmental Observation Network (SAEON) Sentinel Site and the SAEON Agulhas System Climate Array (ASCASAEON). Partnerships developed by ACEP with international projects and various South African Government departments have allowed competitive scientific access to the R/V Algoa and other ships.

ACEP has developed an excellent track record of training the next generation of marine scientists, technicians and innovators. SAIAB initiated a profound paradigm shift in 2012 by establishing the Phuhlisla Programme through ACEP to ensure that black South African postgraduates are trained in the marine sector and that marine science is more deeply entrenched at historically black universities. A significant highlight of recent years has been cementing its relationship with the Universities of Fort Hare and Walter Sisulu in the Eastern Cape through the Phuhlisla Programme and extending its reach beyond the Eastern Cape to include the University of the Western Cape and the University of Zululand. One-third of ACEP's funding is dedicated to the Phuhlisla Programme. The focus is on capacity building and generating interest in and enthusiasm for marine sciences at the four universities. Currently, ACEP reaches a minimum of 80 postgraduate students. This is in addition to over 100 students supported in previous phases. The Phuhlisla programme provides a winning model to develop high quality graduates in marine science by inspiring talent at historically black universities in South Africa.

The Acoustic Tracking Array Platform (ATAP) is a collaborative programme which provides a service to the greater marine science community. The ATAP network includes over 100 marine and estuarine acoustic receivers, positioned at ecologically important points along the coastline from Hout Bay on the cool temperate Atlantic coastline, to Mozambique on the sub-tropical east coast. These receivers detect unique signals sent by acoustic transmitters that have been attached to, or surgically implanted in, marine animals. The ATAP team at SAIAB manages this expanded network of automated data-logging acoustic telemetry receivers. The receivers are serviced by ATAP and its local collaborating partners and data uploaded from these receivers is stored on a national database.

The Marine Remote Imaging Platform (Mar-RIP) provides sophisticated and standardised remote benthic sampling tools and protocols to the marine research community in South Africa. These tools include ten baited, remote underwater stereo-video systems (stereo-BRUVs) for sampling fish assemblages and a benthic jump camera for photographing benthic macro-fauna assemblages. SAIAB partners with the Coastal (Elwandle) Node of SAEON on Mar-RIP projects in the Sundays River catchment area, SAEON's Algoa Bay Sentinel Site and a number of marine protected areas along the South African coast. The synergies with the Elwandle Node are highly significant and position the SAIAB as an international and regional centre for South Western Indian Ocean marine research. Researchers at SAIAB and SAEON Elwandle Node have been developing innovative technology to survey reef fishes of South Africa. Novel sampling techniques aim to provide standardised data to further our understanding of the ecology of South Africa's reef fish and support effective management.

SAIAB also offers a range of customised equipment such as specialised trailers, electro-fishers, inflatable and fixed hull boats, nets and environmental monitoring instruments for working in different aquatic environments in and around South Africa.

COLLECTIONS AND SPECIALISED LABORATORIES PLATFORM

The Collections and Specialised Laboratories Platform includes a molecular preparation laboratory, an X-ray laboratory with a digital X-Ray inspection system and, in association with the Rhodes Department of Ichthyology and Fisheries Science, an ecophysiology research laboratory.

SAIAB is the recognised leader in natural history wet collection management and curation in South Africa. The JLB Smith Collection Management Centre provides a collection-sorting laboratory, accommodation for collection staff and for visiting scientists and students. The Wet Collections Storage Facility provides storage for the National Fish Collection, African Amphibian Collection, a new and developing Cephalopod Collection and Aquatic Biodiversity Tissue Bank. Back-up support includes a separate, ultra-cold-storage tissue biobank and preparation room; a bulk inflammable liquid storage chamber with automated preservative mixing and delivery; specialised specimen preservation laboratories and glass storage; and an isolated dermestarium for the preparation of vertebrate skeletal specimens. SAIAB also manages the National Diatom Collection which is housed at the University of the North-West. These are dynamic research platforms for molecular, systematic and conservation orientated studies.

THE BIODIVERSITY INFORMATION PLATFORM

The Biodiversity Information Platform includes the Margaret Smith Library and the Biodiversity Informatics Unit.

As an academic library, the Margaret Smith Library shares resources and library services with Rhodes University Library to support research and teaching; main users are staff and students of the Rhodes Department of Ichthyology and Fisheries Science. The Margaret Smith Library houses one of the largest document collections and resource centres for African aquatic biodiversity research in Africa. The Library contributes to the Rhodes University online catalogue and Open Access institutional repositories at Rhodes and the NRF. The Library is also partnered with the Biodiversity Heritage Library - Africa.

The Library was established in the 1940s with a small collection of books and scientific papers belonging to Professor JLB Smith. The early indexing system and card catalogue were developed by Professor Margaret Smith. The collection was first stored in a small room in Artillery Road, which was then part of the Rhodes University Ichthyology Department. The library moved to the present premises in Somerset Street in 1975. After being fully refurbished in 2010, the Library was named for Margaret Smith to commemorate her contribution to preserving the legacy of early Ichthyological research at Rhodes University.

The Library offers users a dedicated computer lab; up-to-date library processes and procedures; social media and Open Access initiatives; additional partners and new collections. The Library holdings include some 5000 books and 2000 serial titles, a large reprint collection dating back to the 1800s and 206 titles in the rare book collection. The Institute has published a number of books on the freshwater fishes of southern Africa, fishes of the Southern Ocean, the biology and ecology of southern African estuarine fishes and coastal fishes of southern Africa as well as the Smithiana monograph and Special Publications series. Popular guides to estuaries and coastal fisheries resources have also been published and are available in the digital commons.

The Biodiversity Informatics Unit supports collections management and is available to anyone with a need for management and analysis of aquatic biodiversity and ecological information. SAIAB offers a hosting platform to various museums and is pioneering new techniques in biodiversity data-mining.

RESEARCH

SAIAB has an internationally recognised profile in aquatic research and a dynamic and active research staff and postgraduate school are involved in numerous collaborative research programmes concerned with aquatic biodiversity and serve on several national advisory committees. They are also involved in teaching undergraduate and postgraduate courses, supervising Honours, MSc and PhD projects particularly through Rhodes and other universities, both nationally and internationally.

The geographical focus of projects extends from the primary focus area, South Africa, through southern Africa to the African continent. SAIABs research strategy is strongly influenced by societal imperatives with an emphasis on demand-driven, collaborative research that is aligned with national and international initiatives (e.g. National Development Plan, Marine and Antarctic Research Strategy (MARS), Phakisa Programme and the Sustainable Development Goals) through three core research areas:

- Taxonomy and BioDiscovery which contributes directly to the description and quantification of global biodiversity assets. Core competencies include taxonomy and systematics, biogeography, molecular biology and biodiversity genomics on a variety of taxa including diatoms, zooplankton, crustaceans, amphibians and fishes.

- Biology and ecology, which are the foundation for understanding ecosystems and the services that they provide. This research area directly informs the management of ecological infrastructure to enhance resilience and ensure benefits to society. Key research areas include life-history assessments, biodiversity assessments, predator-prey interactions, plankton ecology, movement biology, food webs, ecophysiology and population modelling.
- Drivers of global change and their impacts on aquatic ecosystems is a research area that intends to inform the development of proactive response strategies to mitigate against adverse impacts on ecosystem service provision. Although SAIAB engages in research at all levels of global change, there is a strong focus on understanding the impacts of climate change, invasions and fisheries.

SOUTHERN OCEAN GROUP

Director

PW Froneman, PhD (Rhodes)

Senior Research Officer

CD McQuaid, PhD (UCT)

The Southern Ocean Group was established in the Department of Zoology and Entomology in 1981 under the directorship of Professor Brian Allanson. The group was the first unit in South Africa involved in the study of biological oceanography in the Southern Ocean, Antarctica and in the vicinity of the Prince Edward Islands. This programme forms part of the oceanographic component of the South African National Antarctic Research Programme (SANAP) and is concerned with the spatial variability in Southern Ocean ecosystems and its response to global climate change. Present projects concern the spatial and temporal patterns in the plankton community structure and food web dynamics in the Southern Ocean. This research provides opportunities for research towards Honours, Master's and Doctoral degrees, and postgraduates form a very active part of the group.

Purpose Statement

Rhodes University Library and Information Services is committed to supporting the mission of Rhodes University in the pursuit of knowledge by students, researchers, scholars and surrounding communities, by providing quality learning resources, client centered services, the skills required to effectively participate in the information society and knowledge economy and, a conducive physical and virtual learning environment, that enhances intellectual creativity as well as the free and open exchange of knowledge and ideas.

Library Profile and Policies

The Rhodes University Library profile, strategy and policies are available on the Library webpage at: <https://www.ru.ac.za/library/about/>.

RHODES UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES (RUL)

RUL consists of four libraries and three affiliated libraries. These are; the Main Library, the Cory Library for Humanities Research, the Alistair Kerr Law Library and the Sound Library. The affiliated libraries are the Margaret Smith Library at SAIAB, the Teacher Resources Centre, and the International Library of African Music (ILAM). Click here for more information on each of these libraries.

Library membership

A valid Rhodes University ID card validates a user as a library member and grants you access rights to and use of the Main Library and branch libraries facilities. All registered students and Rhodes University staff are automatically members of the Library. Staff and community members are required to register annually to have access to the library service and facilities.

Access to Library resources and facilities

Students use their student identity cards as Access and Borrowers' cards. Staff use their staff identity cards as Access and Borrower's cards. Visiting members will be issued with cards after registration at the Library. Loss of a card must be reported to the library immediately to prevent unauthorized use. Users may not use someone else's card to gain access to the libraries, to borrow library material or to use library facilities. New students and new staff members have to activate/set up their library account in order to access online databases and eBooks remotely/off-campus. To create your library account, click here. This short video explains the easy steps to follow in setting up your library account.

My Library Account TutorialVideo.mp4

Library collections

The Library has approximately 300 000 volumes of print books onsite, approximately 700 000 e-books and 66 online scholarly databases. The short loan collection is the most heavily used print collection by both staff and students. Access to the Library's collections is through the Library's web page

The loan schedule of the Main Library is as follows:

- Undergraduates: six (6) items for two weeks.
- Postgraduate: twelve (12) items for four weeks
- Senior postgraduates: twenty (20) items for eight weeks
- Academic staff, Research staff, Support staff and post-doctoral scholars: thirty (30) items for twelve weeks
- Community members: up to three months six (6) items for two weeks
- Visiting scholars: more than three months twenty (20) items for eight weeks

Lending rules

- A borrower is responsible for returning any loaned item/s by the due date. Items which are retained for longer than the stipulated loan period are subject to fines. The University requires all categories of users to pay such fines.
- No item may be transferred to any other person.
- Items which are lost or damaged must be paid for or replaced.
- The Director: Library Services may at his/her discretion restrict the loan period of any item or refuse its loan altogether.
- An item on loan may be recalled at any time.

Use of Electronic resources

We encourage users to make use of our e-Resources which are accessibly remotely. Access to the Library's electronic collections is available from the Library's web page; for current Rhodes University staff and registered students. As a significant portion of these e-resources is subject to terms and conditions stipulated in license agreements, community members are limited to on-site access only. Community members who need access to subscription-based resources must contact the Circulation Desk.

Library Facilities and Venues

Research Commons

Located on Level 2 in the Main Library, the Research Commons is a dedicated space for academic staff, researchers and senior post-graduate (Master's and Doctoral) students. A valid Rhodes University ID card is required to gain access to this area.

Postgraduate Commons (PGCs)

Located on the Ground Level, the PGC is a dedicated space for academic staff, researchers and postgraduate (Honours, Master's and Doctoral) students. A valid Rhodes University ID card is required to gain access to this area. Click here for further information on research support.

Information Commons (IC)

Located on Level 2 in the Main Library, the IC is a dedicated space for undergraduate students, accessible during Library operating hours, with differentiated learning spaces, fifty-six PCs and a dedicated Information Literacy Coordinator available during Library hours. Click here to access the libguide for new students or here for more information about IC.

24/7 study area

This facility is available to all registered students. A valid Rhodes University ID card is required to access the facility from 22:30 to 08:30.

CORY LIBRARY FOR HUMANITIES RESEARCH

Cory Library collects archival and published material to support research in the humanities and social sciences. Its book, journal and archival holdings are particularly strong in the fields of Eastern Cape history, heritage and culture, mission and church history, family history, and various southern African topics, including politics, literature, education, mining, commerce and agriculture. Since the initial deposit of Sir George Cory's collections, there has been a focus on the history of the Eastern Cape and on Makhanda itself. Cory Library's collections include manuscripts and other documents, Cape and other government publications, rare and modern books, pamphlets, periodicals and newspapers, maps, photographs, audio-visual recordings, and electronic media. Through its book publishing programme (the Graham's Town Series, Eastern Cape Themes, and Eastern Cape Reprints), Cory Library contributes to the intellectual and academic culture of the University.

Access

Cory Library is a non-circulating library. It is open to students and staff of Rhodes University in the first instance. Members of the wider research community and the public are welcome to buy readers' tickets to do research in this library. To contact Cory Library, use the following email address: coryv@ru.ac.za

THE RESIDENCES

Residence accommodation is comfortable and attractive. Most of the older houses, some designed by Baker and Kendall, the original architects of Rhodes, have been restored externally and the interiors modernised. Generally, students have their own rooms. We have 3829 single residence rooms on campus due to Covid-19 regulations. First year students are allocated to these rooms using a lottery system. Early application for residence accommodation is essential, and ensures a wider choice of residence. For details of residence fees see the Fees and Charges section.

The fifty-five residences or 'houses' are grouped in fourteen halls, all with their own dining-halls, and all within easy walking distance of lectures and town. There are three women's halls, one men's hall and 10 halls accommodating men and women in separate houses, as well as a separate Postgraduate Village, which offers a choice between self-catering, and full board.

Each hall governs its own internal affairs to a large extent. However, certain rules apply to all students in residence (see the Student Disciplinary Code). It is important to note that a student living in a University residence may at any time be required to leave that residence if the Director of Student Affairs, in consultation with the Hall Warden concerned, is satisfied that this is in the best interest of the residence or of the student concerned. Subject to conditions laid down from time to time by the Director of Student Affairs, Hall Wardens have the right to decide which returning or Oppidan students (who have previously lived in a Rhodes residence) they will admit to their respective halls, and may refuse to admit or readmit a student if they consider this advisable. Should a Hall Warden decide not to admit a student into residence he/she would need to substantiate his/her decision in writing to the Director of Student Affairs. The final decision, with regard to admitting a student into residence shall always be vested with the Vice Chancellor.

A hall warden is in charge of each hall, and House Wardens, assisted by sub-wardens and house committees, are in charge of individual houses. Senior members of the academic and administrative staff are elected as Fellows of the various halls, and play an active part in the life of their Hall.

Warden's powers of search

A hall or house warden has the right to search a student's room if they have reasonable grounds for believing that evidence of the commission or attempted commission of a disciplinary offence may be found in the room concerned. In such instances, the Student Protocol for Search and Seizure is closely adhered to.

Housekeeping

It is important to be aware that there are certain times when housekeepers are required to enter student rooms. They are trained, as per hotel standards, to knock three times before entering a room. They are also required to say "housekeeping" between each knock. If there is no response from the room, they are then permitted to enter using the master key, which has been entrusted to them.

Reasons why housekeeping may be required to enter a student room include: window cleaning; fumigation; requisition work; checking Rhodes University furnishings etc.

Responsibility for University property

Each student allocated a room in residence must sign a Room Statement Form as and when required to do so by the hall warden listing all university furniture and other property in the room and certifying that it is in good order. At the end of each term when students are required to clear their rooms, the house warden will check the rooms, and the students will be held responsible for leaving all the furniture, other property and the room itself, in the same good order in which it was found (fair wear and tear excepted).

In the case of damage to, or loss of, university property, the student or students responsible, if known, are required to bear the cost. If not known, the cost of loss or damage will be charged either to a particular group of students or to the general funds of students in the house.

A student should report any damage or loss of university property in a room while he/she is in occupation, and for which he/she is not responsible, immediately, in writing, to the house warden. If this is not done, it will be presumed that the loss or damage is the responsibility of the occupant of the room, who will have to bear the cost.

Insurance (accident)

Students are not covered by university insurance while at Rhodes unless they are injured while engaged in activities for which they are remunerated by the university. All other insurance is the responsibility of each student.

Loss of or damage to students' property

Students are strongly advised to ensure that they carry the necessary insurance against theft, housebreaking, fire and other similar risks.

The University will in no way hold itself responsible for any loss or damage by theft, fire or any other means to students' property kept in the residences either during term time or during vacations.

All students' room doors are fitted with locks. Student rooms should be locked at all times.

Property left in residence box rooms

Any property belonging to persons who no longer live in residence, which has been stored or left in residence box rooms, will be sold if it has not been removed from such box rooms by the end of the first vacation of each year. The proceeds will be paid into an official account of the relevant Hall Committee for the benefit of the students of the House concerned.

Property left in residence box rooms is left entirely at the student's own risk.

Residence during vacations

Undergraduate residences (undergraduate and postgraduate students)

- a) Accommodation in residence is available during the April and September recesses, when normally at least one women's residence and one men's residence are open. No accommodation is offered during the mid-year recess or during December and January each year.
- b) Students wishing to stay in the vacation residences during the April and September vacations must submit the appropriate online application on ROSS (Application for Vacation Accommodation Form) two weeks prior to the start of the vacation in question.
- c) Students remaining in residence during the April vacation pay an extra fee for room and board (see Fees and Charges section).

NB University residences are used during most vacations for conferences etc. Students must clear their residence rooms during all vacations. The University has the right to close all, or any, houses and Halls during a vacation, and determines when, for how long and on what conditions residential facilities are available during vacations and at other times.

Residence fees do not cover accommodation during vacations, except in the following case:

- a) Students may move into residence at the beginning of the academic year up to two days before the day on which they register academically, and one day before the beginning of the second, third and fourth terms.
- b) A student may remain in residence 24 hours after the end of the first and third terms, and 48 hours after completing the June and November examinations.

No reduction in fees is made if students finish their examinations before the official end of term.

NB Students not writing examinations (including students who have not obtained DP certificates) must leave residence before the examination period begins. No reduction in residence fees will be granted.

Accommodation in residence is normally available during the supplementary/aegrotat examinations in November and February, and students wishing to return to residence early for the purpose of writing such examinations must submit the appropriate form (Application for Vacation Accommodation) available from the Residential Operations Division, Student Bureau or hall wardens, at least two weeks prior to the start of the day accommodation is required. A fee will be charged for such accommodation.

Postgraduate students (Celeste House, Oakdene House, Gilbert Street postgraduate units)

- Full-time students will be accommodated in Celeste House, Oakdene House and three smaller houses on campus.
- Students may remain in residence throughout the year, provided that they have registered administratively
- Students will be charged a fee as set out in the Fees Booklet. This will also allow them to have meals in a dining hall. In the event of all dining halls being closed, the students will have to make their own arrangements for meals.
- A pro-rata rebate will only be paid out in the final year of study upon provision of proof of submission of thesis.
- Cooking is permitted in designated self-catering units only. Subletting of rooms, or permitting squatting, shall result in exclusion from the residence.
- Students who wish to make use of the self-catering facilities provided in Oakdene, Celeste and Gavin Relly Post Grad Village residences, must indicate their choice when registering administratively. Should a student need to change during the year, under exceptional circumstances this will be considered. An application should be sent via email to meals@ru.ac.za

Postgraduate students (Gavin Reilly Postgraduate Village)

- Students will be charged a fee as set out in the Fees Booklet. The different rates for self-catering and full board, are indicated in the fees booklet.
- If a student opts for full board, their meals will be provided in the Courtenay Latimer dining hall. Meal bookings are managed online on ROSS. Email meals@ru.ac.za with any queries relating to meal bookings.
- Cooking is permitted in the units. A fridge and hotplate are provided.
- Subletting of rooms or permitting squatting shall result in exclusion from the village.

RU Health Care Centre

The Health Care Centre is staffed by four qualified nursing sisters and two Health Care Centre assistants. The Sisters attend to minor ailments, dispense medicines, dress wounds, carry out first aid, run a contraception clinic and conduct health education during regular clinic hours. There is a 24-hour emergency service. The Health Care Centre has eight beds for in-patients, such as those with infectious diseases in need of nursing care or isolation, depression or other psychological disorders. Students may choose any medical practitioner they wish to attend them. They or their parents are responsible for the medical practitioner's charges, the cost of any prescriptions made up by local chemists, and the fees for any additional special nursing required by an individual student. Students requiring operations or specialised attention not given in the Health Care Centre are moved to hospital for treatment, and are responsible for any resultant charges. A student who is admitted to the Health Care Centre must comply with the Health Care Centre rules and shall obey all lawful instructions by the Health Care Centre sisters.

Mail to residences

Students should notify their correspondents that letters must be addressed to the particular house they live in, and not merely to Rhodes University.

Discipline in the residences

The relevant rules and procedures are to be found in the Student Disciplinary Code and the Hall and House rules applicable in each house. Students should ensure that they are aware of these.

Special diets

Meat, Vegetarian, Halaal, Hindu, African, Fast Food and Health Diets are offered. Regrettably specialised medical diets cannot be offered.

Fees for residence accommodation

(a) Fees payable for residence accommodation are set out in the “Fees” section of the Calendar.

NB A student who has moved into residence but who leaves before registering for a course of study, will be charged such residence fees as the University determines. The fee normally payable is a daily rate fixed by the Council.

(b) Residence fees are currently set according to a facility-grading system.

(c) Students’ accommodation for 2022 is based on single rooms. Adjustments are made where students change residences. The total amount is debited to the students’ account.

Cancellation of provisional or final residence booking

In the case of an early withdrawal from residence, for any reason, other than immediate family bereavement, medical illness or academic exclusion, a cancellation fee of two months residence fee will be levied over and above the fee calculation for the period of residence accommodation. A penalty will not be charged if a provisional residence booking is cancelled prior to the Initial Fee (IF) deadline as set out in the Fees Booklet each year.

Sharing of double rooms

Due to Covid-19 regulations the University will not require students to share double rooms. All rooms have been converted to single room occupancy.

Accommodation in University transit housing units

In order to meet the demand for residence accommodation a number of students are allocated to suitable transit houses. This accommodation is temporary, and students housed in such accommodation will be required to move into residences as and when vacancies occur in residences. Placement in any particular Hall or residence cannot therefore be guaranteed.

Linen and laundry

Bed linen is supplied and laundered free of charge. Washing machines and tumble driers are installed in each residence for students’ personal laundry.

Rebate on residence fees

No deduction is made from residence fees if a student is away from residence because of illness, or for any other reason.

Cancellation of provisional/final residence booking

In the case of an early withdrawal from residence, for any reason, other than immediate family bereavement, medical illness or academic exclusion, a cancellation fee of two months (60 days) residence fee will be levied over and above the fee calculation for the period of residence accommodation. A penalty will not be charged if a provisional residence booking is cancelled prior to the Initial Fee (IF) deadline of 18 January 2021.

Residence merit scholarships

A number of residence merit scholarships are available each year on application. Specific criteria are laid down for these scholarships. Applications should be made to the House Warden concerned, who will pass them on to the Hall Warden for consideration by a committee consisting of Wardens and students.

Students leaving residence during the academic year

(a) Students who wish to withdraw from residence before the end of the academic year, must give notice of such intention, in writing, to the Student Bureau.

(b) Any student who has registered for a course of study and who, for any reason, leaves the residence during the course of the year, is liable for fees according to the scale set out in the section on “Fees and Charges”.

(c) Students who have withdrawn from residence during the course of the year must vacate their rooms within 24 hours of having submitted such notification to the University.

Electrical appliances

No fridges, hot plates, snackwich makers, immersion heaters or other cooking appliances are permitted in residence rooms. Kettles are allowed.

Residence booking

Students must apply for residence accommodation for subsequent years by a date made known in a circular published by the Registrar each year. Please note that in view of the demand for residence accommodation, the application must be submitted to the Student Bureau on or before the due date.

Meal management system

A computerised meal management system operates in all dining halls. Students who have been awarded bursaries, NSFAS loans or full financial aid packages may not withdraw any credit balance from their account. Students will be refunded twice yearly (at the end of each semester) with the credit owing to them (up to the maximum refundable amount, as stipulated in the Fees & Charges booklet) as a result of unbooking meals. Meal credits will not be paid out at other times. Meal refunds are limited to a maximum amount per semester. See Fees & Charges for details.

RHODES UNIVERSITY STUDENT DISCIPLINARY CODE

1. APPLICATION OF RULES

1.1 In common with other communities of like size and complexity, the University has rules which contribute to the smooth and harmonious running of the institution.

1.2 If the University identifies a risk and it is in the best interest of the University community to do so, the University may act in terms of these interests in order to avert the risk.

1.3 The rules and procedures in this Student Disciplinary Code apply to every student of the University regardless of whether the alleged conduct in question takes place on or off campus. Where the alleged conduct has taken place off campus, there must be a sufficient link between the alleged conduct in question and the University and/or it must be reasonably likely to bring the University into disrepute. All policies and procedures governing students must be consistent with this Code. In the case of any inconsistency with this Code, the Code prevails. The headings in this Code are for ease of reference only and do not have any relevance to the interpretation of the clauses contained herein.

1.3.1 All disciplinary proceedings are confidential except as provided by this code.

1.4 A student shall not contravene:

- (a) Any of the rules set out in Rule 4 of this Code.
- (b) Any rule of the Halls of residence of the University.
- (c) Any rule of the Oppidan Union; or
- (d) Any rule of the SRC or the Sports Council.

A contravention of any of these rules shall be deemed a disciplinary offence.

1.5 The Higher Disciplinary Authority has jurisdiction over all offences which contravene the rules as set out in this Code.

1.6 The Lower Disciplinary Authorities have jurisdiction over all offences which contravene the rules as set out in this Code unless there is a possibility of a sanction greater than 75 hours compulsory service, or the equivalent fine, in which event the Prosecutor/s must be consulted for a decision as to which disciplinary authority shall hear the matter.

1.7 An Oppidan Hall Warden shall have jurisdiction over all Oppidan students.

1.8 A Hall/House Warden shall have jurisdiction over:

- (a) All students resident in the Hall/House concerned; and
- (b) All other students who commit any disciplinary offence referred to in Rule 4 in any of the constituent houses of the Hall, the dining halls or the precincts which form part of the Hall. If there is concurrent jurisdiction, the Hall Warden of the Hall where the alleged offence occurred shall exercise jurisdiction unless there is agreement to the contrary.

1.9 A Hall Warden shall have jurisdiction over all students in another Hall where:

- (a) the student's Hall Warden cannot hear a matter because s/he has an interest in the matter and
- (b) in order to ensure a separation of power
- (c) the student's Hall Warden appoints another Hall Warden to hear the case. This will only apply where the Hall Warden does not exercise his/her discretion to convene a Hall Disciplinary Panel.

1.10 A House Warden shall have jurisdiction over all students in another House (from within the Hall or another Hall) where:

- (a) the student's Hall Warden cannot hear a matter because s/he has an interest in the matter and
- (b) in order to ensure a separation of powers
- (c) the student's Hall Warden appoints another House Warden to hear the case. This will only apply where the Hall Warden does not exercise his/her discretion to convene a Hall Disciplinary Panel.

1.11 The Library, Information & Technology Services Division and Sports Council have jurisdiction over all offences contained in the Library Use and Conduct Code, the IT Facilities Use and Conduct Code and the Sports Council rules respectively unless there is a possibility of a sanction greater than 75 hours compulsory service, or an equivalent fine, in which event the Prosecutor/s must be consulted for a decision as to which disciplinary authority shall hear the matter.

1.12 The Campus Protection Unit has jurisdiction over all offences contained in Rule 4.7 as set out in this Code unless there is a possibility of a sanction greater than 75 hours compulsory service, or an equivalent fine, in which event the Prosecutor/s must be consulted for a decision as to which disciplinary authority shall hear the matter.

1.13 The SRC has jurisdiction over all offences contained in its rules provided that as soon as it determines to take action, it shall immediately report the matter to the Prosecutor/s who may decide to refer the matter to any other disciplinary authority, in which case s/he shall immediately inform the SRC of the decision. The SRC Disciplinary Committee shall thereupon cease to have jurisdiction in the matter.

1.14 The burden of proof in all disciplinary matters is on a balance of probabilities.

1.15 A student who is convicted of any crime in a court of law shall be rebuttably presumed to have committed the crime(s) of which they have been found guilty.

2. DEFINITIONS

In this Disciplinary Code, unless the context otherwise clearly indicates:

Affirmation means a solemn declaration in lieu of an oath.

Advisor means a person representing an accused student at a disciplinary hearing before a Lower Disciplinary Authority. An advisor must be a registered student of the University. No accused student may be represented at a Lower Disciplinary Hearing by a person who is qualified to practise as an attorney or advocate whether or not that person is admitted to practise as such or practises as such in the ordinary course. Should the Advisor be a law student, an Assistant Prosecutor may be appointed to represent the University as a presenter at the Lower Disciplinary Hearing.

Appeal means an appeal as contemplated in Section 8.

Assistant Prosecutor means a suitably qualified person appointed by the Vice-Chancellor – for such a period as the Vice Chancellor may periodically determine – to assist the Prosecutor/s in investigating and assessing contraventions of this Code and represent the University before a Proctor or a Disciplinary Appeal Committee. The Assistant Prosecutor is usually appointed from within the ranks of law students.

Competent verdict means any verdict that is provided for in Chapter 26 of the Criminal Procedure Act 51 of 1977 (as amended).

Compulsory service means any appropriate service as determined by the Registrar or a Hall/House Warden as the case may be.

Common cause means any fact or issue that is not in dispute.

Days means days within official university terms as set out in the Rhodes University Calendar to the exclusion of Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays unless the Vice-Chancellor, in consultation with the Prosecutor/s, directs that a hearing be commenced or continued outside official University dates, or the accused student agrees thereto

Digs means accommodation in Grahamstown which is not a residence, occupied by a student, with or without his/her parents or guardians.

Disciplinary authority means any Board, Committee or person authorised to hold a disciplinary hearing, or any person required to carry out an investigation to determine whether or not a student should appear at a disciplinary hearing to answer a charge of committing a disciplinary offence.

Disciplinary Board means a panel of three suitably qualified people appointed in the discretion of the Vice-Chancellor, (or his/her delegate), one of whom shall be designated Chairperson, to hear matters deemed by the Vice-Chancellor (or his/her delegate) to be of a serious nature, including but not limited to sexual offences.

Disciplinary Appeal Committee means a panel of three people appointed by the Vice-Chancellor (or his/her delegate), one of whom shall be the designated chairperson, to hear matters on appeal from a Proctor or from a lower disciplinary authority.

Disciplinary Committee means the sub-committee of Senate charged with overseeing disciplinary matters.

Fine means a sum of money payable by a student as a sanction by a student in exceptional circumstances.

Hall Disciplinary Panel means a panel convened in exceptional circumstances at the discretion of the Hall Warden. The Panel shall consist of at least one Hall Warden, one Senior / Head Student, one House Warden, one Fellow, and one Hall SRC representative. The panel is to be chaired by either a Hall Warden, a Warden or a Hall Fellow.

Hate Speech means any utterance – verbal, written, published, advocated or communicated in person – directed towards any person that could reasonably be construed to be demonstrate a clear intention to:

- (a) Be hurtful
- (b) Be harmful or incite harm
- (c) Promote or propagate hatred

The grounds of discrimination are as follows: race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, ethnic or social origin, colour, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion, conscience, belief, culture, language and birth; or any other discrimination-based grounds which

- (i) Causes or perpetuates systematic disadvantage
- (ii) Undermines human dignity
- (iii) Adversely affects equal enjoyment of a person's rights and freedoms in a serious manner.

Visiting means no visitors are permitted in a university residence between midnight and 7.30 daily, without the express permission of the warden.

Jurisdiction period means any period during which a student can be held accountable for his/her conduct and includes but is not limited to the following:

- (a) Attendance at a Summer School or an Orientation Week Programme or any similar period of attendance at the University, however described.

- (b) The time when a registered student is in Grahamstown for a supplementary examination or for any other reason linked to the University and its functions.
- (c) The time when any previously registered student has returned to or remained in Grahamstown, and who thereafter registers again and, specifically, a person in this category who is present in Grahamstown during the Orientation Week.
- (d) The time when any registered student, whilst out of Grahamstown, is representing the University at any academic, club, cultural, sporting, society or other official University function or activity.
- (e) Any other time by agreement with the accused student.
- (f) The University retains jurisdiction to prosecute a person for a disciplinary offence, to finality, and in accordance with the Code if that person is still a 'student' in terms of the Code when disciplinary proceedings are instituted (this will include when notice of a hearing has been served on the student) The aforementioned jurisdiction period will include the exercise of the right of appeal in terms of the Code.

No-Contact Order means an absolute prohibition from making contact directly or indirectly, with the named person(s) in any way including but not limited to contact in person, by mail, by telephone, by electronic media or by or through any other medium or person, unless the Vice-Chancellor, Proctor presiding over a disciplinary hearing, or Disciplinary Board determines otherwise.

Oppidan means a student living in 'digs'.

Person with legal qualifications means a person who is a legal practitioner or a person who has an LLB degree or a postgraduate qualification in law.

Presenter means a person in the Lower Disciplinary Authority who investigates and presents a case on behalf of the Hall/House. The status of the presenter may vary from case to case and will normally follow line authority. For example, a Sub-Warden would present to a Warden and a Warden would present to a Hall

Warden. In circumstances where there would be a conflict of interest for a Hall Warden to adjudicate a matter, a Hall Warden may then present the case to another Hall Warden.

Proctor means a suitably qualified person appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, for such a period as the Vice-Chancellor may from time to time determine, to preside at a disciplinary hearing.

Prosecutor means a suitably qualified person, appointed by the Vice-Chancellor for such a period as the Vice-Chancellor may from time to time determine, to investigate and assess contraventions of this Code and represent the University before a Proctor or a Disciplinary Appeal Board and to make written representations to a Disciplinary Appeal Committee.

Public nuisance means any act, omission or condition on any premises, including any building, structure or growth thereon, which is offensive or dangerous, or which materially interferes with the ordinary comfort, convenience, peace or quiet of other people or which adversely affects the safety of the public.

Representative means a person representing a student at a disciplinary hearing before a Proctor, or a Disciplinary Board. A representative may be a SRC Defence Counsellor, a member of the University staff, a registered student of the University, an attorney or advocate.

Residence means a building belonging to or leased by the University housing students either on or off the campus, but excluding digs.

Search and seizure A Hall/House warden (excluding the Oppidan Warden) who is lawfully in charge of a University premises, or a Prosecutor/s, or the Campus Protection Unit, or the Vice-Chancellor or his/her nominee, who reasonably suspects the breach of any law or any breach of this Code may enter such University premises for the purpose of searching the premises and any student thereon. Such search and seizure must be carried out in terms of the Protocol for search and seizure on Rhodes University campus.

Settled by Mediation means that the parties to the mediation have reached an agreement that is reduced to writing and signed by both parties.

Student means the following persons:

(a) Any person who is registered as a student at the University.

(b) Any person who has been accepted by the University with a view to his/her becoming a registered student.

(c) Any person who has left the University where the question of the propriety of a degree improperly obtained, or of conduct during an examination, is in issue.

(d) Any person contemplated in (a) to (c) above when disciplinary proceedings are instituted (this will include when notice of a hearing has been served on that person) until disciplinary proceedings (including any appeal proceedings) are finalised.

Suspension in the context of a sanction means a temporary or permanent postponement of the implementation of the sanction subject to a condition. Suspension in the context of the Vice-Chancellor's powers means in terms of Rule 5.1

(a) that a student may be ordered not to attend classes, and/or participate in any other University activities, and/or remain in residence (if applicable), and / or set foot on campus, pending a final decision in a disciplinary matter or criminal prosecution.

3. MEDIATION

3.1 Any student who has been the victim of any form of harassment (sexual, racial, gender-based, religious etc.), defamation, or other offensive verbal behaviour, may elect to have the complaint settled by mediation rather than at a disciplinary hearing. At the discretion of the Prosecutor/s any other suitable matter may be referred, in writing, to mediation.

3.2 Mediation shall not be an option in matters which are (in the discretion of the Vice-Chancellor/or his/her delegate) of a serious nature.

3.3 Any student complaining of the type of behaviour set out in 3.1 above (hereafter called the complainant) may approach the Director: Student Affairs. The Director: Student Affairs or his/her designate, may, if the complainant so requests, assist the student in making contact with an appropriate counsellor to assist such student.

3.4 If no counselling is undertaken or if, after counselling, the complainant desires mediation, then the Director: Student Affairs shall contact the person/s who allegedly harassed, defamed or behaved offensively (hereafter called the respondent/s) and enquire of him/her/them whether they wish to settle the issue by mediation.

3.5 Where mediation is desired and agreed to by all parties, a suitably trained and qualified person will be appointed to mediate the dispute.

3.6 As mediation is a voluntary process, if at any time either the complainant/s or the respondent/s wish to withdraw from the mediation process, the process shall cease.

3.7 Where the parties do not agree to mediation, or the mediation is unsuccessful, the complainant/s may request to proceed by means of a disciplinary hearing in which case s/he/they must refer the matter to a Prosecutor/s.

3.8 Where the dispute is settled by mediation, the complainant/s will waive his/her/their right to request to proceed with disciplinary action.

3.9 The mediation process shall be privileged, confidential, and no information disclosed during such process shall be disclosed or be admissible at any subsequent disciplinary hearing.

4. DISCIPLINARY OFFENCES

4.1. A disciplinary offence is behaviour which, without justification

- (a) Unlawfully infringes another person's human rights as contained in the Bill of Rights, Chapter 2 of the Constitution, 1996.
- (b) Is an offence in terms of South African Law (common law or statutory law), including any regulations, instructions or protocols promulgated in terms thereof, and such act is prejudicial, or potentially prejudicial, to any member of the University Community.
- (c) Materially interferes with the safety, security or well-being of any member of the University community.
- (d) Materially interferes with the governance and proper administration of the University.
- (e) Materially interferes with the conditions necessary for teaching, learning, research or community service.

- (f) Materially interferes with the maintenance of order and discipline at the University.

Without restricting the generality of Rule 4.1 the following are examples of disciplinary offences if committed during the jurisdictional period:

4.2 A student must comply with any lawful notice, instruction, request, order, direction or sanction issued in terms of this Code. A written mediated agreement has the same status as a lawful notice. Breach of a written mediated agreement is a disciplinary offence. The breach of a no-contact order is a disciplinary offence.

4.3 A student may not commit any common law crime. As far as common law crimes are concerned, the provisions of Section 2 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act 1 of 1988 shall apply.

4.4 A student is bound by the Disaster Management Act 57 of 2002, and its regulations. The offences sections shall be applicable as disciplinary offences.

4.5 A student may not contravene the offence sections of the Criminal Law (Sexual Offences and Related Matters) Amendment Act 32 of 2007.

4.6 A student may not commit furtum usus (unlawful use or removal of the property of another person without their permission but without any intention to steal e.g. borrowing of another person's clothing without permission) of another's property.

4.7

(a) A student possessing a motor vehicle or motor cycle in Grahamstown must register it with the Student Bureau when registering as a student each year, and supply the make, registration number, and the student's address. In the event of a student acquiring possession of a vehicle in Grahamstown after registration, s/he must register it with the Student Bureau within 72 hours of acquiring it.

(b) A student may not park a vehicle in any area in the precincts of the University reserved for other purposes.

(c) A student is bound by the provisions of the National Road Traffic Act 93 of 1996, and its regulations, as amended, with the necessary changes, to all roads on the campus of the University.

(d) A student charged with certain offences under Rule 4.7 may elect to admit their guilt in accordance with an admission of guilt penalties as laid down from time to time by the Disciplinary Committee.

4.8

(a) A student may not contravene the offences sections of the Liquor Act 27 of 1989.

(b) A student may not contravene the offences sections of the Drugs and Drug Trafficking Act 140 of 1992, as read with the Protocol for Students on the Use of Illicit Drugs.

(c) A student may not consume alcohol on any part of the University property without the written permission of the Vice-Chancellor, or such other person to whom the Vice-Chancellor has in writing delegated the authority to control the possession of or use of alcohol.

(d) A student may not be under the influence of alcohol or drugs where this interferes with the rights of other persons or their property.

(e) A student may not be in possession of any glass bottles and glasses containing liquor and soft drinks whilst on any part of the campus that has been designated by the Registrar to be a glass free area.

4.9

(a) A student may not contravene section 2 of the Makana Local Municipality Prevention of Public Nuisances By-Law as published in the Provincial Gazette no.1991 dated 10 October 2008.

(b) A student may not at any time make an unreasonably loud noise. Sound systems shall be turned off at 22h00 on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Sundays and at 24h00 on Fridays and Saturdays. This rule applies equally to students in residence and in 'digs'.

(c) A student may not use abusive or threatening language that is audible beyond the precincts of a digs or a residence.

(d) A student may not remove motor vehicle registration number plates, street signs, street numbers, hotel names, doctor's name plates or any other similar property without the authority of the lawful owner or occupant.

4.10

(a) A student may not contravene the offence sections of the Firearms Control Act 60 of 2000, the Dangerous Weapons Act 71 of 1968 and the Explosives Act 26 of 1956.

(b) A student may not bring a firearm (including an air-rifle and air-gun) or use a firearm on any part of the University property without the permission of the Vice-Chancellor.

4.11

A student may not be violent or disorderly.

4.12

(a) A student may not contravene the Acceptable Use Policy or IT Facilities Use and Conduct Code as published by the Information & Technology Services Division as read with the relevant legislation.

(b) A student may not contravene the Policy for Advertising on Campus by Students and Student Organisations.

4.13

(a) A student shall notify the Student Bureau of their contact details i.e. home address, address in Grahamstown, e-mail address and cell phone number. In the event of a student moving residences or digs, s/he must notify the Student Bureau of his/her new address within seven days.

(b) A student must identify him/herself by producing a student card or any other satisfactory form of identification upon request by any member of the University staff. Such power shall only be exercised where the staff member seeking the information has reasonable cause to believe that the student has committed a disciplinary offence, or that the student in question is in a position to give information about the commission of a disciplinary offence. Failure by a student in these circumstances to answer promptly and truthfully and provide satisfactory identification will be regarded as a serious breach of discipline.

(c) A student may not damage or deface any property of the University or any property whatsoever within the precincts of the University.

(d) A student may not intentionally interfere with any Rhodes University emergency equipment (emergency assistance buttons, fire-extinguishers, cameras and telephones, etc.).

(e) A student may not put up a poster on any surface not specifically designated or reserved for putting up of posters.

(f) A student may not occupy or use any portion of the University premises otherwise than in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the University or in any manner contrary to the purposes for which such premises have been intended to be used by the University or for which they are, in fact, normally used.

4.14

(a) A student shall obey all lawful instructions given by any member of the University staff concerning his/her conduct, including an order to proceed immediately to, and remain at, his/her place of residence or the Campus Protection Unit office.

(b) A student shall obey a lawful instruction by the Prosecutor/s to furnish information to him/her or to appear before any disciplinary authority provided:

(i) that any student appearing before the Prosecutor shall be cautioned that she/he need not answer any question the answer to which is likely to expose him/her to a disciplinary hearing.

(ii) that an accused student appearing before the Prosecutor shall not be compelled to furnish him/her with a written statement. An accused student may, however, furnish the Prosecutor with a written statement if s/he freely chooses to do so.

4.15

(a) A student may not take into an examination/test venue, or have in their possession whilst in such a venue, any cell phone, book, memoranda, notes, papers or other materials whatsoever, except answer books or such other books, or other materials as shall have been supplied by the Examinations Officer or authorised by the examiners.

(b) A student may neither aid/attempt to aid another candidate during an examination/test, nor obtain/attempt to obtain aid from another candidate. A student may not communicate or attempt to communicate in any way with any other candidate during an examination/test.

(c) Absence without authority: The incident of a student being absent without authority will be dealt with as an academic matter.

(d) Instances of plagiarism will be dealt with in terms of the University Plagiarism Policy. All students are required to familiarise themselves with and comply with this policy.

(e) Every member of the academic staff shall have the right to exclude from class any student guilty of misconduct or insubordination in such class. If the exclusion is for more than one lecture or other class meeting it shall be reported in writing to the Head of the Department concerned. The HOD may, after an enquiry where the student/s concerned have been given the right to explain his/her/their alleged misconduct, confirm or vary the order of exclusion. If the order of exclusion is for more than two weeks, it must be reported, in writing, by the Head of the Department to the Dean of that Faculty. After considering the Head of Department's report, the Dean of the Faculty may confirm or vary the order, or refer the matter to the Prosecutor/s.

(a) While a student may receive visitors in a University student residence (this includes balconies, verandas and common rooms) no visitors are permitted in a University student residence between 24h00 (midnight) and 07h30 daily, without the express permission of the warden. All visitors to any residence must be escorted at all times and hosts are responsible for their guests' conduct during this time.

(b) In application of the above rules, there are residence rules applicable to each hall of residence. Students are required to familiarize themselves with their own residence rules and to ensure that the friends partners who visit them in the residence are aware of the relevant Hall or House rules.

4.17

(a) A student may not initiate, raid, or coerce another student, with or without the consent of the participants.

(b) A student may not be present in a residence of which he/she is not a member, without being in compliance of the rules of the University.

(c) A student may not engage in conduct which interferes or is likely to interfere with teaching, studying, research, lectures, meetings, or other events at the University, any constituent part of the University, an associated research institute, the administration of the University, or of any other of the normal processes and activities of the University.

(d) A student may not interfere, even by omission, with the governance and proper administration of the University.

(e) A student may not engage in conduct which obstructs or interferes with an officer, member, employee, and any other student in the performance of his/her lawful duties.

4.18

(a) A student may not engage in any conduct which is offensive to and/or defamatory of any staff member, student, or member of the public.

(b) A student may not be insubordinate towards any member of the University staff.

(c) A student may not utter, distribute, display, show, screen or project disparaging, discriminatory, and derogatory material based on a person's race, cultural identity, gender or sexual orientation – this includes hate speech.

(d) A student may not engage in conduct likely to bring the University, or any part of it, into contempt or disrepute

(e) A student may not engage in any form of harassment or discrimination.

4.19

(a) A student may not intimidate, interfere with, or harass potential University witnesses.

(b) A student may not deliberately mislead a Prosecutor or University official in an attempt to affect the outcome of disciplinary action during an investigation.

(c) A student may neither deliberately nor negligently respond untruthfully to any relevant and lawful question put to him/her in the course of a disciplinary hearing or by a Prosecutor during an investigation into an alleged disciplinary offence.

(d) A student may neither hinder nor obstruct the hearing of any disciplinary proceedings or fail to obey an instruction given by the person chairing or conducting the proceedings.

(e) A student may not fail to attend a disciplinary hearing. During a hearing, a student must remain in attendance until excused.

(f) If a student fails to attend a disciplinary hearing and the person chairing/conducting the proceedings is satisfied that service of the notice had been effected – in terms of rule 7.3 and that all reasonable attempts to contact the student have been made, then the disciplinary hearing shall proceed in his/her absence.

(g) A student may not intentionally:

i) Insult any person lawfully present at a disciplinary hearing during its sitting.

ii) Interrupt the proceedings or otherwise misbehave during a hearing.

A student who contravenes this rule is liable to exclusion from the hearing and to immediate punishment on condition that s/he is first given an opportunity to either explain or to apologise.

4.20 A student may not conspire with or aid and abet anybody in committing an offence.

4.21 A student may not contravene the Library Use and Conduct Code.

4.22 A student may not contravene Rule 1.3.1 subject to the recognition of his/her rights in terms of South African law.

4.23 Voluntary intoxication caused by any substance to the extent that a person lacks intention or capacity is not a defence to any offence in this Code.

5. DISCIPLINARY AUTHORITIES

5.1 The Vice-Chancellor

The Vice-Chancellor is the Chief Disciplinary Authority of the University and has the following powers:

(a) S/he may take interim action against any student as s/he in his/her discretion may consider desirable in the case of any apparent disciplinary offence by the student. In exercising this power, the Vice-Chancellor may suspend the student concerned from attendance at classes and/or from participation in any other activities of the University pending a final decision in the matter. In suspending the student, the Vice-Chancellor or his/her designate shall allow the student to make an oral representation against suspension.

(b) S/he may delegate all or any of his/her powers in connection with student discipline to a Deputy Vice-Chancellor or any other person.

(c) Any additional powers, functions and/or privileges as assigned to the Vice-Chancellor by council, as contemplated in section 7(6) of the Rhodes University Statute.

(d) Notwithstanding the terms of the appointment of the University Prosecutor/s and Proctor/s, the Vice-Chancellor shall be entitled, at any time, to relieve any of them of the powers entrusted to them herein, and may thereafter appoint another person/s in their stead, subject in all cases to the provisions of the Labour Relations Act 66 of 1995, as amended.

(e) The Vice-Chancellor shall, when exercising disciplinary powers, have jurisdiction over all students, shall be entitled to preside at any disciplinary hearings (alone or, in his/her discretion, with two suitably qualified assessors) and shall have the power to impose the same sanction as any disciplinary authority may impose.

(f) The Vice-Chancellor or the Director: Office of the Vice-Chancellor may determine to withhold examination results of any student, in respect of whom an investigation by a Prosecutor is pending, until any proceedings resulting from the investigation have been completed or withdrawn.

(g) The Vice-Chancellor has the power to exercise clemency. This power shall only be invoked once all internal remedies have been exhausted. Clemency should only be granted in exceptional circumstances after a thorough investigation.

(h) The Vice-Chancellor (or person designated to perform this function by the Vice-Chancellor) may issue a no-contact order. Such an order may be on such terms and on such conditions and for such period of time as the Vice-Chancellor (or person designated by the Vice-Chancellor) may in his/her discretion consider desirable. A no-contact order may be issued whether or not a student has lodged a formal complaint against a student in respect of an alleged breach of this Code. Before making such an order the Vice-Chancellor (or the person designated by the Vice-Chancellor) shall allow oral representations in person from the student against whom the order is sought and the university prosecutor as to whether or not a no-contact order is to be issued. The maximum period of a no contact order is six months unless exceptional circumstances exist. Unless the Vice-Chancellor determines otherwise when issuing a no contact order, the order shall constitute an absolute prohibition from making contact, directly or indirectly, with the named person(s) in any way including but not limited to contact in person, by mail, by telephone, by electronic media or by or through any other medium or person. Any student against whom a no-contact order has been issued, may, before the expiration date of the order, approach the Vice-Chancellor (or the person designated by the Vice-Chancellor) with a request to rescind the order on the basis that exceptional circumstances exist that warrant rescission. A hearing, similar to that which preceded the issuing of the order will be held to allow both representations, in person, by both the student and the prosecution, before the decision as to rescission of the order is made.

5.2 The Acting Vice-Chancellor

When the Vice-Chancellor is absent from the University, the Acting Vice-Chancellor (or if no acting appointment has been made, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor: Academic and Student Affairs) shall take over the disciplinary powers vested in the Vice-Chancellor.

5.3 The Director: Office of the Vice-Chancellor

The Director: Office of the Vice-Chancellor shall oversee student discipline at the University and may request updates on all matters involving student discipline at all levels and communicate such updates to the Vice-Chancellor.

5.4 The Registrar

The Registrar shall be responsible for the overall administration of the student disciplinary system and shall be responsible for, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) Maintaining a central hard copy repository of all documents relating to the Higher Disciplinary Authorities.
- (b) Making available case precedents to both the Prosecutor/s and the accused and his/her representative. Such precedents must remain in the Registrar's office given their confidential nature.

- (c) Endorsing academic transcripts where directed by a Proctor.
- (d) Exclusion of a student where directed by a Proctor.
- (e) Recording the outcomes of cases on the University Student Discipline Database (Protea).
- (f) Posting outcomes of each Higher Disciplinary case on the designated official University notice board outside the Student Bureau, unless otherwise advised by the Proctor or Director: Office of the Vice-Chancellor.
- (g) Posting the June and November case summaries as produced by the Prosecutor/s on the designated official University notice board outside the Student Bureau.
- (h) Enforcing and monitoring only the sanctions of compulsory service ordered by the Higher Disciplinary Authorities.
- (i) Withholding examination results where a student has not completed compulsory service in the stipulated time.
- (j) Refusing re-admission to residence at the beginning of a new academic year where a student has not completed compulsory service in the stipulated time.
- (k) Overseeing the progress made by each convicted student as regards their compulsory service and/or payment of compensation orders and/or fines ordered by the higher disciplinary authorities.
- (l) Convening a Disciplinary Appeal Committee and a Disciplinary Board.
- (m) Collating and distributing documents to be placed before a Disciplinary Appeal Committee and a Disciplinary Board.
- (n) Providing administrative assistance if and when requested by the Prosecutor/s.
- (o) Recording the acquisition of vehicles by students after registration in terms of Rule 4.7.
- (p) Ensuring that the latest version of this Code appears in the Calendar and on all electronic platforms of the University.

5.5 Director: Student Affairs

The Director: Student Affairs has no disciplinary jurisdiction, but is responsible for the following:

- (a) Posting the June and November case summaries (as produced by the Prosecutor/s) on designated official University notice boards.
- (b) Providing a written update (June and November) of cases to the Director: Office of the Vice-Chancellor of the progress made with each case dealt with by the Lower Disciplinary Authorities. This update will be posted by the Director: Student Affairs on designated official University notice boards and electronic notice boards with the names of the parties deleted and reported on at the Disciplinary Committee.
- (c) Drafting an annual trends analysis of Lower Disciplinary cases in order to identify areas of concern and to ensure consistency of sanctions.
- (d) Communicating any incident report that may involve discipline at the higher level, to the Prosecutor/s within 48 hours. These incident reports should not include statements as these will be gathered by the Prosecutor/s. Such incident reports should contain the following:
 - (i) A description of the incident, including the date, time and place.
 - (ii) The names, student numbers, and contact cell-phone numbers of the affected persons and potential witnesses.
- (e) Liaising with Hall Wardens to ensure that the Hall Administrators are enforcing and monitoring all sanctions of compulsory service and fines ordered by a Lower Disciplinary Authority.

5.6 Campus Protection Unit

The Head: Campus Protection Unit shall be responsible for the following:

- (a) Receiving incident reports and ensuring that they are hand-delivered to the Prosecutor/s within 48 hours (it is vitally important that this time frame is adhered to). These incident reports should not include statements as these will be gathered by the Prosecutor/s. Such incident reports should contain the following:

- (i) A description of the incident, including the date, time and place;
- (ii) The names, student numbers and contact cell-phone numbers of the affected persons and potential witnesses;

(b) Serving charge sheets where requested to do so by the Prosecutor/s. The charge sheets must be served within 48 hours and a return of service must be delivered to the Prosecutor/s immediately following the service.

6. HIGHER DISCIPLINARY AUTHORITIES

6.1 The Proctor

(a) A Proctor shall have jurisdiction over all students and in respect to all disciplinary offences set out in this Code.

(b) If, during a hearing before a Proctor, s/he becomes unable to continue to serve and it appears that s/he will be unable to resume participation within a reasonable time, the proceedings may be terminated and new proceedings commenced de novo before another Proctor.

(c) A Proctor may, at any time after the accused student has pleaded in terms of Rule 7.9 and before the proceedings are finalised (either by a finding of not-guilty or by the imposition of sanction in the case of a guilty finding), if there is reason to believe that there are grounds for a no-contact order, or if a no-contact order is requested by any of the parties involved, authorise that a hearing as contemplated in Rule 5.1(h) take place.

6.2. Disciplinary Board

(a) A Disciplinary Board means a panel of three people appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, one whom shall be the designated Chairperson.

(b) A Disciplinary Board shall have jurisdiction over all students and over all offences of a serious nature, including but not limited to sexual offences as set out in this Code.

(c) If, during a hearing before a Disciplinary Board, any member of the Board becomes unable to continue to serve, and it appears that the Board member will be unable to resume participation within a reasonable time, the proceedings may continue with the remaining Board members, or be terminated and new proceedings commenced de novo before another Board. This decision will be made by the Chairperson of the Board.

(d) The decision to prosecute a matter as a sexual offence shall be determined by the Prosecutor/s.

6.3 The Prosecutor

(a) The Vice-Chancellor, in consultation with the Prosecutor/s, may appoint Assistant Prosecutors to assist the Prosecutor/s. The Vice-Chancellor may, at his/her discretion, appoint any suitably qualified person to act as an Assistant Prosecutor.

(b) The Prosecutor/s and Assistant Prosecutors shall have the power to investigate any alleged disciplinary offence which is reported, that they are referred to, or of which they become aware. In conducting an investigation, the Prosecutors have the authority to request assistance from any University Official, if so required. If it appears that a student has committed a disciplinary offence they may, at their discretion, convene a hearing.

(c) The Prosecutor/s may, in assessing a case, put the allegation to the student prior to the student being charged with a disciplinary offence. The student must be warned and cautioned that s/he is under no obligation to make any statement whatsoever, but if s/he does, then it should be a voluntary statement in writing which may then be handed in as evidence.

(d) The Prosecutor/s shall have the power to terminate or suspend proceedings already commenced before any of the lower disciplinary authorities referred to in this Code on condition that there are reasonable grounds for doing so and that the rights of the accused are not unduly compromised.

(e) The Prosecutor/s shall provide a written update in June and November of each year to the Director: Office of the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar of the progress made in each case they have dealt with. The Registrar will post these updates on the official University notice board outside the Student Bureau.

(f) The Assistant Prosecutors shall draft a case summary for each case with the names of the parties deleted for the Registrar to post on the designated official University notice board.

(g) The Prosecutor/s may direct that a case be heard by a Lower Disciplinary Authority.

(h) At the Prosecutor/s discretion a plea bargain discussion may occur prior to the commencement of a hearing before a Proctor or Disciplinary Board.

7. PROCEDURE IN HEARINGS BEFORE A PROCTOR OR DISCIPLINARY BOARD

7.1 A student appearing before a Proctor or Disciplinary Board may be assisted by any member of the University staff, any registered student of the University, other than a student summoned to answer charges in the same proceedings, or an attorney or advocate, provided that such representation shall be at his/her own cost. A person assisting a student by virtue of this provision will be referred to as their representative.

7.2 Where the Prosecutor/s is/are satisfied that there is a prima facie case against a student, and in the case of an offence that has occurred off campus that it is a matter that should be dealt with by this Code, s/he should draw up a notice setting out:

(i) The disciplinary offence/s allegedly committed, or any alternative disciplinary offence/s.

(ii) The date, time, and place of the offence/s.

(iii) The person/s against whom the offence/s was/were allegedly committed, if any, and any other relevant details sufficient to inform the accused student of the charge/s s/he will be responding to.

(iv) The date, time, and place of the hearing.

7.3 The notice must be served on the student in person in the first instance by the Prosecutor/s, their nominee, or a member of the Campus

Protection Unit. In the case of an Oppidan student, the notice must be served on the student in person in the first instance by the Prosecutor/s, their nominee, a member of the Campus Protection Unit, or an Oppidan Warden. The notice must be served on the accused at least five days before the date of the hearing. Should the student not be located in person in the first instance, the notice may be served by the Prosecutor/s or their nominee via email to the student's official Rhodes University email address. The student shall then be deemed to be served.

(a) In the event that a student is not in attendance in Grahamstown, the notice may be served by the Prosecutor/s or their nominee by email to the student's official Rhodes email address.

7.4 An accused student will be entitled to receive a bundle of the documents, witness statements and/or affidavits, photographs and/or details of any electronic evidence the Prosecutor intends to use at least five days prior to the hearing. In the case of electronic evidence, arrangements will be made for the accused to access such evidence at least three days prior to the hearing. A bundle shall also be provided to the Proctor or Disciplinary Board. Witness statements relating to evidence in aggravation of sanction need not be provided.

7.5 The person serving the notice must inform the Prosecutor/s in writing as to when, how, where, and to whom the notice was served.

7.6 The Prosecutor/s shall have the right to direct that any student attends and gives evidence and remains in attendance until excused from a disciplinary hearing.

7.7 The Proctor may, for any good reason, postpone a hearing.

7.8 At a hearing, before a Proctor or Disciplinary Board, the reading of the charge, the plea, the evidence of all witnesses, any oral arguments and the reasons for both the judgment and sanction shall be digitally recorded.

7.9 The Prosecutor shall read the charge/s to the accused student only when all the parties are assembled before the Proctor or Disciplinary Board.

The accused student will be required to answer the charge/s (i.e. plead to the charge/s). S/he may:

(a) Deny that s/he committed the offence (Not Guilty).

(b) Admit that s/he committed the offence (Guilty).

(c) Admit to a lesser offence (e.g. charged with assault with intent to commit grievous bodily harm but only admits common assault).

(d) Allege that s/he has already been found guilty or not guilty of the disciplinary offence (i.e. the same set of facts).

(e) Allege lack of mental capacity (should this be alleged the evidence to be led must include oral evidence of a psychiatric assessment to support this allegation).

7.10 Where a student admits a charge (pleads guilty), the Proctor or Chair of the Disciplinary Board shall question the student to ensure that the student's admission of the charge (plea of guilty) is a genuine and complete admission on the question of both fact and law.

7.11 Where the accused student is represented, his/her representative may hand in a written plea statement in lieu of the questioning mentioned above.

7.12 If the Proctor or Disciplinary Board is satisfied that the student's answer to the charge is a genuine and complete admission of the charge (a plea of guilty) with no defence, the student may be found guilty of the charge or a competent verdict, as the case may be, without any evidence being heard.

7.13 Where a student denies the charge (pleads not guilty), the Proctor or Chair of the Disciplinary Board may question the student to ascertain which of the allegations in the charge/s are in dispute. The student must, however, be informed that s/he is not obliged to answer any such questions. Where a student elects to answer questions and admits to any of the allegations in the charge/s, these charges will be regarded as proved.

7.14 Where a student denies the charge (pleads not guilty), the Prosecutor shall lead viva voce (oral) evidence in support of the charge. The Prosecutor may submit written statements from witnesses. These written statements may be received into evidence if their content is common cause and if the Proctor or Chair of the Disciplinary Board allows this.

7.15 Witnesses appearing before a Proctor or Disciplinary Board will be required to confirm that the evidence they are about to give is truthful.

7.16 Each witness will be examined, cross-examined, or re-examined (as the case may be) by only one person at a time – though not necessarily the same person for different witnesses.

7.17 An accused student shall have the right to remain silent or to give evidence on affirmation, provided that s/he is not compelled either way. Where the student is represented, his/her representative may lead the evidence on behalf of the defence. The student may then be cross-examined by the Prosecutor. After cross-examination, re-examination may follow.

7.18 An accused student will have the right to call witnesses. Should the accused elect to give evidence, his/her evidence must be heard before that of his/her witnesses.

7.19 A bundle of the documents, witness statements and/or affidavits, photographs and/or details of any electronic evidence which the defence intends to use at the hearing must be submitted to the Prosecutor/s at least three days prior to the hearing. A bundle shall also be provided to the Proctor or Disciplinary Board. Written statements may be received into evidence if their content is common cause and if the Proctor or Chair of the Disciplinary Board allows this.

7.20 The Proctor or the Disciplinary Board may question any witness, including the accused student, at any time while they are giving evidence. The proceedings may be conducted in either the accusatorial or the inquisitorial method; alternatively, a combination of both may be used.

7.21 The Proctor or Chair of the Disciplinary Board shall decide on any question of law, procedure, or the admissibility of evidence. In deciding any question of procedure not provided for in this Code, or on the admissibility of evidence, s/he will not be bound by the formal rules of criminal procedure or evidence applicable in any court of law. Instead, s/he will follow the dictates of fairness, natural justice and relevance, even if this includes the application of the rules of procedure and evidence applicable in courts of law.

7.22 The Proctor or Chair of the Disciplinary Board may call any witness not already called, or recall any witness who has already given evidence, if s/he believes that the evidence or further evidence of that witness is essential to the just decision of the case.

7.23 After all the evidence has been presented, the Prosecutor and the accused student or his/her representative shall have the right to give a closing argument regarding guilt or innocence of the accused to the Proctor or Disciplinary Board. This argument may be delivered orally or in writing, or both.

7.24 After the conclusion of the arguments, the Proctor or Chair of the Disciplinary Board shall there and then, or after time is taken to consider the verdict, give a judgment with reasons for the verdict, as to whether or not the accused is guilty of the charge/s, alternative charge/s, or a competent verdict. In a case before a Disciplinary Board a verdict shall be reached by way of a majority vote.

7.25 Where a student is found guilty of a disciplinary offence the Prosecutor and the student or his/her representative may lead evidence in aggravation or mitigation of sanction. Thereafter the Prosecutor and the student or his/her representative may address the Proctor or Disciplinary Board on what the sanction should be.

7.26 A Proctor or Disciplinary Board may, at any time after the accused student has pleaded in terms of Rule 7.9 and before the proceedings are finalised (either by a finding of not-guilty or by the imposition of sanction in the case of a guilty finding), if there is reason to believe that there are grounds for a no-contact order, or if a no-contact order is requested by any of the parties involved, refer the matter in terms of Rule 5.1 (h).

7.27 The Proctor or Disciplinary Board will there and then, or after time is taken to consider the sanction, give a judgment setting out the reasons for sanction and the sanction imposed.

7.28 A Proctor or Disciplinary Board shall have jurisdiction to impose any one or more of the following sanctions upon a student who has been found guilty of a disciplinary offence:

- (a) Deprivation of a degree improperly obtained.
- (b) Permanent exclusion from the University.
- (c) Exclusion from the University, its premises, and from participation in all University activities (which shall include all student activities) for a specified period.
- (d) Exclusion from a specific University residence or all residences.
- (e) Exclusion from attendance at certain classes and/or University examinations, either permanently or for a specified period.
- (f) Exclusion from participation in University activities or from such post or office in the University as may be specified, either permanently or for a specified period.
- (g) Imposition of a fine not exceeding 20 % of the Bachelor of Arts fee.
- (h) Payment of a sum of money required to compensate for any loss, damage, or expense caused to the University or to another person as a result of the offence.
- (i) A period of compulsory service.
- (j) Prohibition from driving or possessing a motor vehicle/motor cycle on campus. (Note: This sanction may only be imposed on a student who is found guilty of a disciplinary offence involving the use and/or driving of a motor vehicle/motorcycle).
- (k) Suspension of all or part of any of the above sanctions for a period of up to five years.
- (l) Endorsing the academic record of the student to the effect that the student's conduct has been unsatisfactory.
- (m) Any other appropriate sanction.

7.29 Where a student has been acquitted due to lack of mental capacity, the student may not remain at the University or return to the University without undergoing a full psychiatric assessment, the findings of which must confirm that the student is of sound mind.

7.30 In assessing the sanction to be imposed on a student who has been found guilty of a disciplinary offence, the Proctor or Disciplinary Board hearing the matter, shall regard the fact that the student was under the influence of alcohol or drugs at the time the offence was committed as an aggravating factor.

7.31 Where a student has been sanctioned in terms of this Code, the sanction shall come into effect immediately regardless of whether the student intends to take the matter on appeal, unless the Vice-Chancellor, on written application by the student, decides that there is good cause to suspend the implementation of the sanction pending the outcome of an appeal. The written application by the student shall set out fully all relevant facts and submissions that he or she wishes the Vice-Chancellor to consider in arriving at a decision in this regard.

7.32 If there is reason to believe that a condition upon which the whole or a portion of a suspended sanction rests has been breached, the student shall, on two days' notice, be required to attend an enquiry for the purpose of establishing whether or not an order should be made bringing the suspended sanction into operation.

7.33 If a student who has been directed to appear before a Proctor or Disciplinary Board fails to appear at the place, date, and time specified in the notice, fails to remain in attendance or to attend any adjourned proceedings, the Prosecutor shall make all reasonable attempts to locate the student. If the Proctor or Disciplinary Board is satisfied that all reasonable attempts have been made to contact the accused the hearing shall proceed in his/her absence.

7.34 If, during the course of a hearing before a Proctor or Disciplinary Board, it comes to the knowledge of a Prosecutor that a student appearing at such hearing may have committed any disciplinary offence/s other than, or in addition to, those with which s/he has been charged, the Prosecutor may charge the student concerned with such supplementary disciplinary offence/s and, provided that the provisions of this Code in relation to particulars and time to prepare are satisfied, the enquiry may then proceed. The evidence lead until that point will retain its full force and effect.

7.35 At any disciplinary hearing before a Proctor or Disciplinary Board, no person/s other than the Proctor, members of the Disciplinary Board, Prosecutor/s, Assistant Prosecutors, the accused and his/her representative, parent/s, legal guardian/s, counsellor or any person requested by the complainant may attend. The status of a parent, legal guardian, counsellor, or person requested by the complainant, is strictly that of an observer who may support the student and not in any way engage in the process. The Proctor or Chair of the Disciplinary Board retains the right to exclude any of these parties from a hearing on the grounds of inappropriate behaviour.

7.36 If a student appearing at a hearing before a Proctor or Disciplinary Board conducts him/herself in a manner which makes the continuance of the proceedings in his/her presence impossible or impractical, the Proctor or the Chair of the Disciplinary Board may, after warning the student of the consequences of such conduct, direct that s/he be removed. On such occasions, the proceedings will continue in his/her absence.

7.37 Within seven days of the imposition of a sanction by a Proctor or Disciplinary Board, the Proctor or Chair of the Disciplinary Board shall record the charge/s, plea/s, material facts found proved, including aggravating and mitigating circumstances, if any, the reasons for the verdict, the verdict, the sanction imposed, and the reasons for the imposition of the sanction, and forward such record to the Registrar, the Prosecutor/s and the convicted student and his/her representative. This document constitutes the record of the proceedings.

7.38 The record should be made available to the Prosecutor/s and any student summoned to appear before a Proctor, or his/her representative, so that it may be referred to as a precedent in future enquiries or be used by such student in the preparation of her/his defence.

7.39 If either the Proctor or the Director: Office of the Vice-Chancellor is of the view that the sensitivity of a particular case renders publication of the details undesirable, s/he may withhold or restrict publication.

7.40 If a student is not able to complete any compulsory service within the time specified by a Proctor or Disciplinary Board, written application for an extension of time shall be made to the Registrar. The Registrar, after consultation with a Prosecutor, may authorise an extension provided that he/she is satisfied that valid grounds exist.

8. APPEAL FROM A PROCTOR OR DISCIPLINARY BOARD

8.1 A student who has been found guilty and sanctioned by a Proctor or Disciplinary Board shall, have the right to appeal such decision. Such an appeal will be a 'wide appeal', which may incorporate grounds of appeal and/or review. This Rule must be read in conjunction with Rule 8.7.

8.2 The appeal will be decided by a Disciplinary Appeal Committee appointed by the Vice-Chancellor or his/her designate.

8.3 A student (or his/her representative) wishing to exercise the right of appeal shall, within five days of being sanctioned, advise the Registrar in writing that s/he wishes to have the case appealed. The request for appeal shall be accompanied by a deposit of an amount to be determined on an annual basis and payable to the Registrar, which shall serve as part payment for costs related to the appeal, which shall immediately become due and payable. The deposit shall only be refundable to the student in the event that the conviction is quashed.

8.4 At the request of the student (or his/her representative) the digital recording of the proceedings will be made available to a recognised transcription service. The full cost of the transcription of the entire digital recording shall be borne by the student. If the student wishes to rely on the recording in the appeal proceedings, s/he will be responsible for providing the members of the Disciplinary Appeal Committee and the Prosecutor/s with a transcription of the entire digital recording by an organisation or business that normally transcribes court records, at his/her own cost.

8.5 Within 5 days of the record being transcribed the student (or his/her representative) may submit written submissions (in regard to the appeal) to the Disciplinary Appeal Committee (and a copy provided to the Prosecutor/s).

8.6 Within 5 days of having received the written submissions of the student (or his/her representative), or within 5 days of the record being transcribed (should the student (or his/her representative) fail to submit written submissions) the Prosecutor/s may submit written submissions to the Disciplinary Appeal Committee (and a copy provided to the student or his/her representative).

8.7 Should the Prosecutor/s be of the view that the sanction imposed by a Proctor or Disciplinary Board is so lenient as to be unjust, s/he shall have the right to have the sanction appealed before a Disciplinary Appeal Committee.

8.8 The Disciplinary Appeal Committee shall decide the outcome of the appeal solely upon a consideration of the record and the written submissions of both parties. No further evidence and/or submissions unless specifically requested by the Disciplinary Appeal Committee, shall be permitted.

8.9 The Disciplinary Appeal Committee shall have the following powers:

(a) To confirm, alter or reject the decision or find the student guilty on an alternative charge or competent verdict;

(b) To confirm, reduce, increase, alter or set aside the sanction and replace it with an appropriate sanction; or

(c) Generally to give such judgment or impose such sanction or make such order as the Disciplinary Appeal Committee deems fit.

8.10 The decision of the Disciplinary Appeal Committee shall be determined by a majority vote.

8.11 The Chairperson in consultation with the members of the Disciplinary Appeal Committee shall within seven days of having received written submissions by both parties (alternatively, should either party not make any written submissions, within 10 days of the record being transcribed) provide the student involved, the Prosecutor/s and the Registrar with a written report setting out the Disciplinary Appeal Committee's decision and the reasons for such decision.

9. LOWER DISCIPLINARY AUTHORITIES

Lower Disciplinary authorities include Assistant Wardens, Wardens, Hall Wardens, Oppidan

Wardens, a Hall Disciplinary Panel, designated Library staff, designated Information Technology staff and designated Campus Protection Unit staff.

9.1 A member of a Lower Disciplinary Authority shall be disqualified from exercising any of the functions or powers conferred upon him/her by this Code in a disciplinary hearing, if s/he witnessed all or any of the conduct alleged to constitute the disciplinary offence, or is the complainant, or has a personal interest in the matter except in the circumstances outlined in 9.5 below.

9.2 There must be a separation of powers. The person chairing the hearing cannot be the person investigating and presenting the case in order to comply with the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, and the rules of natural justice and fairness.

9.3 Hall/House Wardens shall not have jurisdiction over shoplifting.

9.4 No legal representation or person with legal qualifications will be permitted to represent a student appearing before a Lower Disciplinary Authority. A student appearing before such authority may, however, be accompanied by a Sub-Warden, or a Hall or House Senior/Head Student. Such person shall be referred to as the accused student's advisor. Should the student's advisor (as per the definition) be a law student, an Assistant Prosecutor may be appointed to represent the University at the Lower Disciplinary Hearing.

9.5 Any student in respect of whom a Hall/House Warden has jurisdiction shall have his/her hearing before the Hall/House Warden alone or in exceptional circumstances at the discretion of the Hall Warden, before a Hall Disciplinary Panel. A Hall Disciplinary Panel shall consist of at least one Hall Warden, one Senior / Head Student, one House Warden, one Fellow, and one Hall SRC representative. The panel is to be chaired by either a Hall Warden, a Warden or a Hall Fellow.

9.6 Students who are charged with certain disciplinary offences, which are agreed to from time to time by the Disciplinary Committee, may, rather than appearing before a Lower Disciplinary Authority, be permitted to admit their guilt in accordance with the admission of guilt sanctions as laid down from time to time by the Registrar after consultation with the Disciplinary Committee. It should be noted that there are five admissions of guilt sanction documents relating to offences falling within the jurisdiction of Oppidan Hall Wardens, Hall/House Wardens, the Library, Information & Technology Services Division and the Campus Protection Unit. In the case of an admission of guilt, separation of powers is not necessary. The student concerned will, however, always have the right to appear before the relevant disciplinary authority. S/he cannot be compelled to admit guilt. Any student issued with a notice that an admission of guilt sanction may be imposed in respect of a particular offence who elects to appear before a disciplinary authority rather than accept the sanction shall notify the Oppidan Warden, Hall/House Warden, Director: Library Services or Director: Information & Technology Services Division, or in the case of traffic offences the Head: Campus Protection Unit, in writing within seven days of being issued with such notice. If no such notice has been given, the relevant authority may, after a further seven days, impose the prescribed period of compulsory service or debit the student's fees account.

9.7 A Hall/House Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel shall have jurisdiction over the following students:

- (a) all students resident in the Hall/House concerned;
- (b) all students who commit a disciplinary offence in any of the constituent houses of the Hall/House, the dining halls or the precincts which form part of the Hall/House. If there is concurrent jurisdiction, the Hall Warden of the Hall where the alleged offence occurred shall exercise jurisdiction unless there is agreement to the contrary;
- (c) In order to ensure a separation of powers as set out in Rule 9.2 above, a Hall Warden may hear a case emanating from any other Hall. This will only apply where the Hall Warden does not exercise his/her discretion to convene a Hall Disciplinary Panel.

9.8 The Oppidan Hall Warden shall have jurisdiction over all students who are not in residence. Where the alleged conduct has taken place off campus, there must both be a sufficient link between the alleged conduct in question and Rhodes University, and / or it must be reasonably likely to bring Rhodes University into disrepute. The Oppidan Hall Warden shall not have jurisdiction over shoplifting, domestic violence and contraventions off campus of the National Road Traffic Act 93 of 1996, and its regulations, as amended.

9.9 A Hall/House Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel shall have jurisdiction over the following offences:

(a) All offences set out in Rule 4 unless there is a possibility that a sanction greater than that of the jurisdiction of a Hall/House Warden may be justified, in which case, the Prosecutor/s must be consulted for a decision as to which disciplinary authority shall hear the matter.

(b) A contravention of any Hall or House Rule.

9.10 A Hall/House Warden shall have the power to search and seize as set out in the definition section. Such search and seizure must be carried out in terms of the Protocol for search and seizure on Rhodes University campus, as read with the Protocol for Students on the Use of Illicit Drugs.

9.11 The Oppidan Hall Warden shall have jurisdiction over all offences set out in Rule 4 unless there is a possibility that a sanction greater than that of the jurisdiction of a Hall Warden may be justified, in which case, the Prosecutor/s must be consulted for a decision as to which disciplinary authority shall hear the matter;

9.12 The Hall Wardens and Oppidan Warden shall provide a written update at the end of each term of the cases in their Hall to the Director: Student Affairs of the progress made with each case dealt with by the Hall. The Director: Student Affairs shall collate all such reports and provide a written update in June and November of each year of Lower Disciplinary cases to the Director: Office of the Vice-Chancellor of the progress made with each case dealt with by the Lower Authorities.

10. PROCEDURE IN HEARINGS BEFORE LOWER DISCIPLINARY AUTHORITIES

10.1 Where a Warden is satisfied that a student has committed a disciplinary offence and the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel has jurisdiction, s/he should:

(a) Draw up a notice setting out the disciplinary offence/s allegedly committed, the date, time and place of the offence/s, the person against whom the offence/s was/were allegedly committed (if any), the property in respect of which the offence/s were committed (if any), and any other relevant details sufficient to inform the accused student of the charge/s she/he has to meet. The notice must also set out the date, time, and place of the hearing.

(b) The notice must be served on the student in person.

(c) The notice must be served on the accused at least three days before the date of the hearing.

(d) The Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel may postpone the hearing if a valid reason is given.

(e) When all the parties are assembled the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Chair of the Hall Disciplinary Panel shall read the charge/s to the accused student. The accused student will be required to answer the charge/s (i.e. plead to the charge/s). S/he may:

(i) Deny that s/he committed the offence – plead “not guilty”. Should the student plead “not guilty” it is at this point that a separation of power must be implemented.

(ii) Admit that s/he committed the offence – plead “guilty”.

(f) Where a student pleads guilty, the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Chair of the Hall Disciplinary Panel shall question the student to ensure that the student’s plea includes all the relevant facts of the offence.

(g) If the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel is satisfied that the student’s answer to the charge is a genuine and complete admission of the charge with no defence – pleads guilty –the student may be found guilty of the charge without any evidence being heard.

(h) Where a student denies the charge or pleads not guilty the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Chair of the Hall Disciplinary Panel may question the student to ascertain which of the allegations in the charge/s are in dispute. The student must, however, be informed that s/he is not obliged to answer any of the questions posed to him/her. Where a student elects to answer questions and admits any of the allegations in the charge/s, they will be regarded as proved.

(i) Where a student denies the charge – pleads not guilty – the Presenter shall lead oral evidence in support of the charge.

(j) Witnesses appearing before a Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel will be required to affirm that the evidence they will give will be truthful.

(k) An accused student or his/her representative will have the right to cross-examine any witnesses called by the Presenter. Thereafter such witnesses may be re-examined by the Presenter. Each witness will be examined, cross-examined, or re-examined (as the case may be) by only one person at a time – though not necessarily the same person for different witnesses.

(l) An accused student shall have the right to remain silent or to give evidence on affirmation, provided that the student shall not be compelled to give evidence. Where the student is assisted / represented his/her advisor may lead the evidence on behalf of the accused. She/he may then be cross-examined by the Presenter. After cross-examination, re-examination may follow.

(m) An accused student will have the right to call witnesses. Should the accused elect to give evidence his/her evidence must be heard before that of his/her witnesses.

(n) The Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel may ask questions of any witness, including the accused student, at any time whilst they are giving evidence.

(o) After all the evidence has been led or presented, the Presenter and the accused student or his/her advisor shall have the right to make a final statement should they so wish.

(p) Thereafter the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel shall deliver a decision as to whether the accused student is found either guilty or not guilty of the charge/s.

(q) Where a student is found guilty of a disciplinary offence/s, both the Presenter and the student or his/her advisor may present argument in aggravation or mitigation of sanction.

(r) Thereafter the Presenter and the student or his/her advisor may address the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel on what the sanction should be.

(s) The Hall/House Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel will give a decision setting out the reasons for sanction and the sanction imposed.

(t) A Hall Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel may impose the following sanctions:

(i) Exclusion from the Hall.

(ii) A fine not exceeding 10% of the Bachelor of Arts fee.

(iii) Compulsory service up to 75 (seventy five) hours.

(iv) Exclusion from participation in any Hall or House activity for a maximum of 1 (one) term.

(v) Exclusion from any post or office in the Hall, except that of Sub-Warden.

(vi) Suspension of all or part of any of the above sanctions for a period of up to 5 (five) years.

(vii) Payment of compensation to make good any loss, damage or expense caused to the University or to any other person as a result of the offence; and (viii) Suspension of visiting rights for a period of time.

(u) An Oppidan Warden may impose the following sanctions:

(i) A fine not exceeding 10% of the Bachelor of Arts fee.

(ii) Compulsory service up to 75 (seventy five) hours.

(iii) Exclusion from any post or office in the Hall, except that of Sub-Warden.

(iv) Suspension of all or part of any of the above sanctions for a period of up to 5 (five) years; and

(v) Payment of compensation to make good any loss, damage or expense caused to the University or to any other person as a result of the offence.

10.2 In assessing the sanction to be imposed on a student who has been found guilty of a disciplinary offence, the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel hearing the matter shall regard the fact that the student was under the influence of alcohol/liquor/drugs at the time the offence was committed as an aggravating factor. As far as common law crimes are concerned, the provisions of Section 2 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act 1 of 1988 shall apply.

10.3 A House Warden or Assistant Warden may impose the following sanctions:

(a) A fine not exceeding 5% of the Bachelor of Arts fee.

(b) Compulsory service up to 50 (fifty) hours.

(c) Suspension of all or part of any of the above sanctions for a period of up to 1 (one) year subject to a specified condition; and

(d) Suspension of visiting rights for a period of time.

10.4 The Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel must inform the student that they have the right to take the matter on appeal as contemplated in Rule 8 (with the necessary changes as required by the context).

10.5 If a student who has been directed to appear before a Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel fails to appear at the place and on the date and at the time specified in the notice, or fails to remain in attendance, or to attend any adjourned proceedings, the Presenter shall make all reasonable attempts to locate the student. If the Hall/House Warden is satisfied that all reasonable attempts have been made to contact the accused the hearing shall proceed in his/her absence.

10.6 If, during the course of a hearing before a Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel, it comes to the knowledge of a Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel that a student appearing at such hearing may have committed any disciplinary offence/s other than, or in addition to, those with which she/he has been charged, the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel may charge the student concerned with such supplementary disciplinary offence/s and, provided that the provisions of this Code in relation to particulars and time to prepare are satisfied, the enquiry may then proceed, the evidence led to that stage retaining its full force and effect.

10.7 The Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel shall have the right to direct that any student attends and gives evidence and remains in attendance until excused from a disciplinary hearing.

10.8 If a student appearing at a hearing before a Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel conducts him/herself in a manner which makes the continuance of the proceedings in his/her presence impossible or impractical, the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel may, after warning the student of the consequences of such conduct, direct that s/he be removed. On such occasions, the proceedings will continue in his/her absence.

10.9 Where a student has been sanctioned in terms of this Code, the sanction shall come into effect immediately regardless of whether the student intends to take the matter on appeal, unless the Vice-Chancellor, on written application by the student, decides that there is good cause to suspend the implementation of the sanction pending the outcome of an appeal. The written application by the student shall set out fully all relevant facts and submissions that he or she wishes the Vice-Chancellor to consider in arriving at a decision in this regard.

11. SUB-WARDENING STAFF

Sub-Wardens may only administer admission of guilt sanctions as defined by the Registrar on an annual basis and for minor infringements of house rules, and in imposing such sanctions, shall not exceed 50% of the sanction that a House Warden or Assistant Warden may impose.

12. UNIVERSITY LIBRARY STAFF

(a) Library staff designated by the Director: Library Services shall have jurisdiction over all student library users in respect of any contravention of a rule contained in the Library Use and Conduct Code.

(b) There shall be a Library Disciplinary Committee consisting of two members of the Library staff appointed for this purpose by the Director: Library Services.

(c) Students who are charged with certain disciplinary offences, which are agreed to from time to time by the Disciplinary Committee, may be permitted to admit their guilt in accordance with the admission of guilt sanctions as laid down from time to time by the Registrar after consultation with the Disciplinary Committee, rather than appear before a Lower Disciplinary Authority. The student concerned will, however, always have the right to appear before the relevant disciplinary authority. S/he cannot be compelled to admit guilt. Any student issued with a notice that an admission of guilt sanction may be imposed in respect of a particular offence who elects to appear before a disciplinary authority rather than accept the sanction shall notify the Director: Library Services in writing within seven days of being issued with such notice. If no such notice has been given, the relevant authority may, after a further seven days, impose the prescribed period of compulsory service or debit the student's fees account.

(d) The procedure to be followed should a student elect to appear before a Lower Disciplinary Authority will be as set out in Rule 10 of this Code with the necessary changes.

(e) The Library Disciplinary Committee shall have the authority to impose the following penalty per offence:

(i) A fine not exceeding 10% of the Bachelor of Arts fee.

(ii) Compulsory service up to 75 (seventy five) hours.

(iii) Payment of compensation to make good any loss, damage or expense caused to the University or to any other person as a result of the offence.

(f) The Director: Library Services shall provide a written update (June and November) of cases to the Director: Office of the Vice-Chancellor of the progress made with each case dealt with by the Library Disciplinary Committee. This update will be posted by the Director: Student Affairs on designated official University notice boards and electronic notice boards with the names of the parties deleted, and reported on at the Disciplinary Committee.

13. INFORMATION & TECHNOLOGY SERVICES DIVISION STAFF

(a) Information & Technology Services Division staff designated by the Director: Information & Technology Services Division shall have jurisdiction over all student computer users in respect of any contravention of a rule contained in the IT Facilities Use and Conduct Code.

(b) There shall be an Information & Technology Services Division Disciplinary Committee consisting of two members of the Information & Technology Services Division staff appointed for this purpose by the Director: Information & Technology Services Division.

(c) Students who are charged with certain disciplinary offences, which are agreed to from time to time by the Disciplinary Committee, may be permitted to admit their guilt in accordance with the admission of guilt sanctions as laid down from time to time by the Registrar after consultation with the Disciplinary Committee, rather than appear before a Lower Disciplinary Authority. The student concerned will, however, always have the right to appear before the relevant disciplinary authority. S/he cannot be compelled to admit guilt. Any student issued with a notice that an admission of guilt sanction may be imposed in respect of a particular offence who elects to appear before a disciplinary authority rather than accept the sanction shall notify the Director: Information & Technology Services Division in writing within seven days of being issued with such notice. If no such notice has been given, the relevant authority may, after a further seven days, impose the prescribed period of compulsory service or debit the student's fees account.

(d) The procedure to be followed should a student elect to appear before a Lower Disciplinary Authority will be as set out in Rule 10 of this Code with the necessary changes.

(e) The Information & Technology Services Division consisting of the Manager: Student Services and Manager: IT Operations, shall have the authority to impose the following penalty per offence:

(i) A fine not exceeding 10% of the Bachelor of Arts fee.

(ii) Compulsory service up to 75 (seventy five) hours.

(iii) Payment of compensation to make good any loss, damage or expense caused to the University or to any other person as a result of the offence.

(f) The Director: Information & Technology Services Division or his/her nominee shall provide a written update (June and November) of cases to the Director: Office of the Vice-Chancellor of the progress made with each case dealt with by the Information & Technology Services Division. This update will be posted by the Director: Student Affairs on designated official notice boards and electronic notice boards with the names of the parties deleted, and reported on at the Disciplinary Committee.

(g) Copyright and Take Down Notices will be dealt with in the following way:

(i) First Offence – Students will be notified by the Information & Technology Services Division of a warning and can accept guilt or ask to appear before a disciplinary authority.

(ii) Second Offence – Students will be notified and sanctioned 40 hours of compulsory service administered by the Information & Technology Services Division. If a student declines to accept the admission of guilt, the student shall appear before a hearing.

(iii) Third or any following Offence – Students will be handed over to the University Prosecutor/s by the Information & Technology Services Division.

14. CAMPUS PROTECTION UNIT

(a) Campus Protection staff designated by the Head: Campus Protection Unit shall have jurisdiction over all student vehicle users in respect of any contravention of a rule contained in Rule 4.7 of this Code.

(b) There shall be a Campus Protection Unit Disciplinary Committee consisting of the Head: Campus Protection Unit and two members of the Campus Protection Unit staff appointed for this purpose by the Head: Campus Protection Unit.

(c) Students who are charged with certain disciplinary offences, which are agreed to from time to time by the Disciplinary Committee, may be permitted to admit their guilt in accordance with the admission of guilt sanctions as laid down from time to time by the Registrar after consultation with the Disciplinary Committee, rather than appear before a Lower Disciplinary Authority. The student concerned will, however, always have the right to appear before the relevant disciplinary authority. S/he cannot be compelled to admit guilt. Any student issued with a notice that an admission of guilt sanction may be imposed in respect of a particular offence who elects to appear before a disciplinary authority rather than accept the sanction shall notify the Head: Campus Protection Unit in writing within seven days of being issued with such notice. If no such notice has been given, the relevant authority may, after a further seven days, impose the prescribed period of compulsory service or debit the student's fees account.

(d) The procedure to be followed should a student elect to appear before a Lower Disciplinary Authority will be as set out in Rule 10 of this Code with the necessary changes.

(e) The Campus Protection Unit Disciplinary Committee shall have the authority to impose the following penalty per offence:

- (i) A fine not exceeding 10% of the Bachelor of Arts fee.
- (ii) Compulsory service up to 75 (seventy five) hours.
- (iii) Payment of compensation to make good any loss, damage or expense caused to the University or to any other person as a result of the offence.

(f) The Head: Campus Protection Unit shall provide a written update (June and November) of cases to the Director: Office of the Vice-Chancellor of the progress made with each case dealt with by the Campus Protection Unit Disciplinary Committee. This update will be posted by the Director: Student Affairs on designated official notice boards and electronic notice boards with the names of the parties deleted and be reported on at the Disciplinary Committee.

15. APPEAL FROM A DECISION OF A HALL/HOUSE WARDEN, OPPIDAN WARDEN, LIBRARY DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE, INFORMATION & TECHNOLOGY SERVICES DIVISION, CAMPUS PROTECTION UNIT DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE, SRC DISCIPLINARY BOARD OR SPORTS COUNCIL DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

15.1 A student who has been found guilty and sanctioned by a Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden, Library Disciplinary Committee, Information & Technology Services Division Campus Protection Unit Disciplinary Committee, SRC Disciplinary Board or Sports Council Disciplinary Committee shall have the right to have such verdict and sanction appealed as contemplated in Rule 10.4 above.

15.2 A Prosecutor shall have the right to have a sanction imposed by a lower disciplinary authority appealed on the same grounds as set out in Rule 8 of this Code. The procedure that shall be followed, and the powers of the Disciplinary Appeal Committee, shall be as set out in Rule 8 of this Code.

16. THE SRC DISCIPLINARY BOARD

16.1 There shall be a Board of the above title consisting of as many members as the SRC shall by resolution from time to time determine.

16.2 This Board shall have the power to enquire into a disciplinary offence allegedly committed by a student at any function organized or controlled by the SRC, both on or off the University premises, provided that as soon as it determines to take such action, it shall immediately report the matter to the Prosecutor/s who may decide to refer the matter to any other disciplinary authority, in which case s/he shall immediately inform the SRC of the decision. The SRC Disciplinary Board shall thereupon cease to have jurisdiction in the matter.

16.3 The Board shall have the following powers to penalize any student found by it to have committed a disciplinary offence:

- (a) imposition of a fine not exceeding 2.5% of the Bachelor of Arts fee or 35 hours of compulsory service.
- (b) exclusion from participation in SRC functions or facilities for a period not exceeding one term, or both.
- (c) payment of such sum of money as may be required to make good any loss, damage or expense caused to the University or to another person as a result of the offence.

16.4 The SRC Disciplinary Board must ensure that there is a separation of powers. The person chairing the hearing cannot be the person investigating and presenting the case, in order to ensure compliance with the rules of natural justice and constitutional rights and fairness. The procedure to be followed shall be the same as contained in Rule 10 as is relevant to the SRC Disciplinary Board.

16.5 A student who has been found guilty and sanctioned by the SRC Disciplinary Board shall have the same right of appeal as set out in Rule 15 and the procedure to be followed in Rule 15 shall apply.

17. THE SPORTS COUNCIL DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

17.1 There shall be a Committee of the above title consisting of the Chairperson of the Sports Council or deputy and two further members nominated by the Chairperson or the deputy from the members of the Student Sports Council. This Committee shall have the power to enquire into any disciplinary offence allegedly committed by a student where the breach alleged has been either:

(a) of a rule of the Sports Council or any of its constituent clubs.

(b) committed by students on University property set aside by the Council for student activities under the control of the Sports Council; or

(c) committed by students elsewhere than on University property but while members of a University team or touring party are under the control of the Sports Council.

As soon as it determines to take disciplinary action, the Committee shall immediately report the matter to the Prosecutor/s who may decide to refer it to another disciplinary authority, in which case s/he shall immediately inform the Sports Council of the decision. The Sports Council Disciplinary Committee shall thereupon cease to have jurisdiction in the matter.

17.2 The Sports Council Disciplinary Committee shall have the following powers to penalize any student found by it to have breached a rule of the Sports Council or any of its constituent clubs:

(a) suspension from participation in any sporting activity of the University either totally or in part for a period not exceeding one term.

(b) imposition of a fine not exceeding 2.5% of the Bachelor of Arts fee or 35 hours of compulsory service.

(c) order the payment of compensation to make good any loss, damage or expense caused to the University or to any other person as a result of the offence.

17.3 The Sports Council Disciplinary Committee must ensure that there is a separation of powers. The person chairing the hearing cannot be the person investigating and presenting the case, in order to ensure compliance with the rules of natural justice and constitutional rights and fairness. The procedure to be followed shall be the same as contained in Rule 10 as is relevant to the Sports Council Disciplinary Committee.

17.4 In the case of a student who has been found guilty and sanctioned by the Sports Council Disciplinary Committee, the same right of appeal and the same procedure set out in Rule 15 shall apply.

STUDENT AFFAIRS

THE SPORTS ADMINISTRATION

Sport and recreation, due largely to the residential nature of the campus, play a very important role in the life of the student at Rhodes. 1987 saw the introduction of the new Sports Council (formerly Sports Union) constitution which seeks to provide the infrastructure and facilities to cater for all sporting groups on campus.

In order to accommodate these needs, the Sports Administration has some thirty (30) clubs which cater for a wide range of interest at high performance, competitive and social/recreational levels. Sport at Rhodes is unique in that all students are free to make use of certain of the facilities without being obliged to join a particular club. However, students wishing to play sport or take part in recreational pursuits at a higher level do need to join clubs in order to take advantage of the structured programmes presented by the Sports Administration.

The compact nature of the campus provides all sporting facilities within easy walking distance of the residences. The easy accessibility and availability of facilities are responsible for the very high participation rate (85%) in sport and recreation by the student population. The Sports Administration assisted by student committees of the sports clubs take care of the day to day organization of the club activities and in providing the infrastructure which allows the clubs to operate effectively. The department also offer sports scholarships for student athletes.

The clubs generally provide for participation at two levels. Those students involved in competitive sport participate nationally in the University Sports South Africa (USSA) competitions, then locally participates in Nelson Mandela Bay and Sarah Baartman District sports federations leagues. The second important level of participation is the intra-mural programme which takes care of the needs of those sportsmen and women who wish to be involved on a more social basis.

It is the Sports Administration's philosophy that sport and recreation play a vital role in the overall educational experience of every student. In an attempt to involve as many students as possible Sports Administration offers a wide range of activities which include:

Aikido, Aquatics, Archery, Athletics, Basketball, Canoe, Chess, Cricket, Dance Sport, First Aid, Fly Fishing, Golf, Hockey, Mixed Martial Arts, Mountain, Netball, Pool, Rifle, Rowing, Rugby, Sailing, Soccer, Squash, Surfing, Table Tennis, Tae Kwon do, Tennis, Volleyball and Underwater. In addition to these activities the Rhodes University Health Suite offers Aerobics and Indoor Cycling Classes and a well-equipped Weights Training Facility.

STUDENT AFFAIRS

THE OPPIDAN UNION

Oppidan Union Services

The Oppidan Union is responsible for initiating and maintaining a range of student benefits:

- The Oppidan Common Room is situated on the ground floor of the Bantu Stephen Biko Building. The room contains lounge suites, a TV & DSTV decoder, tables & chairs, a pool table and study cubicles. Tea and coffee are served free of charge to all Oppidans twice a day from Monday to Friday.
- The Union assists students in finding accommodation by advertising available houses, flats and rooms. Information pamphlets, lists of available accommodation (<http://www.ru.ac.za/oppidan/digslist/2017/>) and maps of Makhanda are available from the Secretary.
- The Oppidan Committee consists of various portfolio's and is responsible for looking after the interest of Oppidans, encouraging them to participate in the various activities of the Union e.g. social events, inter-res sports, community engagement etc. The Oppidan Union strives to give Oppidans a well-balanced and enriched University experience. It liaises with the SRC on a regular basis and participates in a mentoring program for first years.
- The Oppidan Union assists with the running of a bus: Monday to Thursday 5pm to 11pm, Friday 5pm to 9pm, Saturday and Sunday 5pm, 8pm and 9pm at the collection point on the hour in front of Geology building on Artillery road, during exams and swot week the times are extended to 24h00.
- The Oppidan Union has a web and Facebook page, which contains information regarding accommodation availability, Oppidan events and relevant information pertaining to Oppidans. The web page can be found on the 'Student Zone' page, under 'Oppidan'.
- The Oppidan Hall Wardens, assisted by five sub-wardens are available for advice, support and assistance with regards to a student in crises, conflict, lease and Digs mate issues, emergencies etc. Students are encouraged to use the following emergency number, 078-8046328, when the need arises.

The Oppidan Secretary, tel. 046-6038229 is on duty in the Oppidan Office in the mornings from 08h30– 13h30. The Oppidan Office is situated on the first floor, Steve Biko Building. The Secretary is responsible for co-ordinating all areas of the Union's activity and is available to help and advise Oppidans wherever possible.

STUDENTS' REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL

The Students' Representative Council is a legislated body whose members are elected annually. Its primary purpose is to represent the student body both within and outside campus. It also negotiates with the university authorities on their behalf. In addition, the University's numerous clubs and societies fall under the Council's jurisdiction. The SRC also organises schemes for the benefit of students.

The SRC can be contacted at the SRC Offices on the top floor of the Bantu Stephen Biko Building. They can also be reached via e-mail at srcrepresent@ru.ac.za.

VISION STATEMENT

We, the Students' Representative Council of 2021, envision our future success through the elevation and broadening of the life of the students of Rhodes University. This will be achieved by conducting our activities in a spirit of excellence and professionalism. We also seek to uphold personal integrity and accountability in all our endeavours. To this end, we dedicate ourselves to be responsible, accessible and visible through effective communication with our constituents. In doing this, we hope to become role models for all future SRCs at this University and beyond.

CONSTITUTION FOR STUDENT GOVERNANCE

The full text of this Constitution and its associated Schedules is available from the SRC Offices and from the University Library.

Preamble

We, the students of Rhodes University (hereinafter called “the University”) herein affirm the supreme and inalienable right of all students at the University to join in the acquisition and advancement of knowledge. We determine that the Student Representatives’ Council (hereinafter called “the SRC”) shall be our primary governing body in matters falling within its jurisdiction, which will ensure the conveyance of the student voice to the Administration, the University Senate and Council in matters of institutional policies. We will promote the welfare and progress of the University community and enforce our rights and uphold our responsibilities; establish an effective, efficient, responsible, and responsive form of co-operative student government; encourage discussion, investigation and expedient resolution of student problems, concerns, and ideas; support and help implement the desires of the Student Body; provide leadership; recognize student accomplishments so that the role of the student is rewarding and meaningful; retain the authority to appoint and remove student representation of the University standing committees and advisory boards to which the SRC normally makes appointments. We task the SRC to report to us through our broadly elected leadership contained within the Student Parliament. We, the students of the University, in confidence of this Constitution, do hereby ratify and agree to follow and implement the Constitution.

Objectives

This Constitution is founded by and for the students with a developmental consideration of the functional needs of the University student population. We, (the SRC) as the active voice of the student body, acknowledge our duty to maintain a key responsibility in the workings of the Institution.

This document is intentionally flexible, as well as representative of the unique dynamics of the University.

CHAPTER 9 RULES GOVERNING THE ELECTION OF MEMBERS TO THE SRC

SRC Elections and by-elections must take place annually in the manner prescribed by the Rhodes University Independent Electoral Board.

SCHEDULE 1

Administrative Procedures of the SRC

The SRC will be subject to and guided by the University's financial policies and protocols.

SCHEDULE 2

STUDENT LIBERTIES

The SRC acknowledges that according to the Bill of Rights (Chapter 2) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa it is bound to Student Liberties:

Freedom of Association

- The membership, policies and actions of a student society will be voted on by those who hold bona fide membership in the University community.
- Policies of student societies should be consistent with the Student Body Constitution. An affiliation with an extra mural organisation is not an adequate reason to disqualify a student society from institutional recognition, so long as the campus society complies with the SRC purpose and policies.
- Student societies shall not discriminate based on race, creed or national origin in the determination of membership, although religious qualification may be required for some societies whose aims are primarily related to the furtherance of their religious beliefs.

Freedom of Enquiry and Expression

- Students and student societies shall be free to discuss all questions of interest and to express opinions publicly and privately. They should be free to conduct orderly enquiry into decisions and actions that affect their environments, as well as respond to them through public expressions or demonstrations. Students and authorised student societies shall be allowed to invite and to hear other opinions on institutional policies. Institutional control over campus facilities should not be used as a device of censorship.
- The University should strive to safeguard against physical abuse of students who, by orderly and legal means, demonstrate their freedom of enquiry and expression. The university will not take disciplinary action against students who question traditional values or expose unpopular causes.

Student participation in Institutional Governance

- Students should be free to express, individually and collectively, their views on issues of institutional policy and of general interest where inconsistencies exist between practice and the theoretical principles outlined by the University.

SCHEDULE 3

CODE OF ETHICS

In keeping with emphasising the right of all students who come to Rhodes University to join in the acquisition and advancement of knowledge, and the recognition of student leadership. Each student should act as examples and be held to the very highest standards in terms of their behaviour, as well as including those who are part of Student Governance Sub-structures shall subscribe and seek to, live by the principles of:

Honesty: knowing that truthfulness and sincerity are attributes of good character and effective leadership.

Service: being aware of the fact that true happiness comes only through helpful service to others.

Industriousness: knowing that real progress can be achieved only if the mind can comprehend and the physical body ready to perform individual and community tasks.

Humility: being convinced that true humbleness of the spirit is the way to maintain social relationships.

Justice: believing that an individual must be fair and just in dealing with fellow students, and therefore they must not to condemn without hearing a defence. They must consider all factors before forming an opinion or passing judgement of another's motives.

Cooperation: realising that they must work closely and harmoniously with others in order to achieve success.

Responsibility: assuming always full responsibility for their actions and accepting opportunities to fulfil their academic, social, economic and moral obligations.

Charitableness: being tolerant, generous and considerate towards social relationships, as well being courteous, gentle and kind in their attitudes and actions without discrimination.

Self-Discipline: acting with reasonable restraint, organising time commitments and not indulging in excessive behaviour that will result in disrepute to themselves or to the University. Most importantly, Student Body leaders must embody these principles during their service.

SCHEDULE 5

SRC STANDING RULES OF ORDER

The conduct and behaviour of members at meetings are set out below. In the case where there is disagreement and these rules require interpreting, the Chairperson shall interpret. Where there is doubt, the SRC may consult Robert's Rules of Order, the modern edition, whose rules the SRC shall generally follow.

1. The business of the meeting shall be conducted in accordance with the rules that appear below.
2. The Chairperson shall interpret these Standing Rules by means of formal ruling either at their own instance or when requested to do so by a member of the SRC or Student Body. Where no provision is made in these rules to cover a point of procedure that may arise, the Chairperson may rule on any such point.
3. Any member of the SRC or Student Body may contest the Chairperson's ruling and may explain his or her objection. The Chairperson shall have a right to explain his or her ruling after which it shall be put to the vote without further discussion. If the Chairperson's ruling is not upheld, this shall not be deemed a vote of no confidence in the chair.

5.1 Chairperson

The President of the SRC or in his or her absence, the Vice-President shall be Chairperson of the SRC or Student Body Meetings.

The Vice-President, or any other member of the Executive or SRC, may be called upon by the Chairperson to preside.

Before a vote takes place, all questions shall be put to the meeting by the Chairperson, who shall after the vote then declare whether the question has been carried or lost.

The Chairperson shall have both a deliberative and casting vote.

These Standing Rules relating to the "Chairperson" shall not be altered except by a two thirds majority of the SRC or Student Body.

5.2 Amendment or Suspension of Rules

5.2.1 These rules shall be amended by a motion as constituted, provided twenty-four hours' notice of such motion is given, and except where it is specifically stated in the Standing Rules that a two-thirds majority shall be sufficient.

5.2.2 Any rule may be suspended by a simple majority of the SRC or Student Body, except where it is specifically stated in the Standing Rules and that a two-thirds majority is required, by a motion passed without notice having been given.

5.2.3 Rules 5.2.1 and 5.2.2 shall require a two-thirds majority of the SRC or Student Body for amendment, but may be suspended by a motion passed without having been given.

5.3 Agenda

5.3.1 The agenda shall be determined by the SRC Executive, and presented to the SRC or Student Body at least twenty-four hours before the meeting.

5.3.2 Amendments to the Agenda, after the Agenda has been presented to the SRC or Student Body, may be made without notice by a simple majority of the SRC or Student Body.

The usual order of the Agenda shall be:

- a) Attendance
- b) Leave of Absence
- c) Other Matters for the Agenda
- d) Confirmation of Minutes
- e) Matters Arising
- f) To note the report of the SRC Executive
- g) University Committees - matters for information
- h) Any other business

5.3.3 The Agenda shall conform to the standard form of University agendas as per the sample attached.

5.4 Quorum

5.4.1 At general meetings of the Student Body, five percent of the full student body qualified to vote shall constitute a quorum.

5.4.2 At meetings of the SRC, fifty percent of the full SRC shall constitute a quorum.

5.4.3 At meetings of the SRC Executive or SRC Secretariat or SRC Disciplinary Board, three members shall constitute a quorum.

5.4.4 At meetings of the Student Parliament, one third of the full Student Parliament shall constitute a quorum.

5.4.5 In the event of there not being a quorum at any meeting, the meeting may elect to continue with those members present and the draft minutes shall be circulated to all members of the Student Parliament (in the case of a general Student Body or Student Parliament meeting) or the respective SRC Committee (in terms of the SRC, SRC Executive, or SRC Secretariat) who will be given the opportunity to object to decisions taken by those present, where after they would be taken as confirmed.

5.4.6 Once a meeting has been declared quorate, it remains quorate even if members leave during the course of business, there by resulting in a lack of a quorum as defined above.

5.5 Voting

- 5.4.7 Voting shall be by show of hands, except where the SRC or Student Body has accepted by a two-thirds majority that voting on any motion shall be by ballot. Such acceptance may only take place after the above motion has been tabled but before it has been moved.
- 5.4.8 Observers
- 5.5.2.1 With the permission of the SRC, by simple majority, observers may speak, but may not vote, at a meeting of the SRC.
- 5.5.2.2 The Observers must give reasons for wishing to speak and may not rise on any point except to deliver his or her specific address or to clarify on that address.
- 5.5.2.3 Any person who is not a registered student at the University may not attend a Student Body meeting without the prior permission of the Chairperson; such a person may be given speaking rights by the Chairperson of the meeting but may not vote, and may not rise on any point except to deliver his or her specific address or to clarify on that address.

5.6 Conduct of Meetings

- 5.6.1 Any member may bring any matter before the SRC by submitting a written motion to the Executive at least five days before the meeting of the SRC.
- 5.6.2 Whenever an amendment is duly moved and seconded, that amendment, or the latest, if several amendments are moved and seconded, must first be voted on. If there is a majority in favour of the amendment, the original motion is lost. The amendment then becomes the substantive motion. An amendment to this amended version of the original (now the substantive motion) may be moved. Any amendment to the original motion not yet voted on which can, with the necessary changes, be treated as an amendment to the now substantive motion is voted on in order of priority, the later preceding the earlier. When no further amendment is offered to an amended motion, the amended motion, which has become the substantive motion, is voted on as the substantive motion in order to discover whether a majority prefer it to the status quo.
- 5.6.3 Voting shall take place by a show of hands, unless a member requests, or the chair directs, that a ballot shall be taken. Members shall address the chair and shall not, without the permission of the chair, speak for more than seven consecutive minutes.
- 5.6.4 If two or more members simultaneously address the chair, the chair shall decide the order of precedence.
- 5.6.5 All questions put to the meeting by members of the SRC must be put through the chair who may decline to put any questions.
- 5.6.6 It shall be open for any member of the SRC to move that the subject under discussion shall be dealt with in committee, and, if seconded, such motion shall be put without further discussion. Whenever, in the opinion of any member, any matter has been sufficiently discussed, that member may:
- Move that the question be now put, or
 - Move that the SRC proceed to the next business on the agenda.

Either motion, if seconded, shall be put to the vote without further discussion or amendment.

If the latter motion is carried, the matter under discussion shall not be further discussed at that meeting, and may not be raised again at any subsequent meeting except by way of a fresh notice of motion.

5.7 Minutes

- 5.7.1 Accurate minutes shall be kept of every SRC and Student Body Meeting, and shall conform to the standard form of University Minutes as per the sample attached.
- 5.7.2 The minutes shall contain the following information:
- 5.7.2.1 The ratification of the minutes of the previous meeting, plus any matters arising therefrom.

- 5.7.2.2 The text of every motion and amendment moved and accepted by the Chairperson with the motion was carried, lost or withdrawn, whether the motion was correlated and the number of votes cast in favour of it and against it, in addition to the number of abstentions.
- 5.7.2.3 Where a member desires it, the fact that a particular member voted for or against, abstained from voting or declined to vote on a particular motion.
- 5.7.2.4 A report on who was presiding over the meeting and of any changes which took place in the occupancy of the chair.
- 5.7.2.5 Ruling by the Chairperson on the interpretation of the Constitution and, where the Chairperson directs, on matters of procedure.
- 5.7.2.6 Recommendations put forward by members of the SRC or Student Body where it is agreed that these should be minuted.
- 5.7.2.7 Such explanations regarding the procedure followed by the SRC or Student Body as may be necessary to make other information given in minutes fully comprehensible.
- 5.7.2.8 5.7.2.8. Summaries of speeches or any questions which the SRC or Student Body requests, by a vote taken without discussion.
- 5.7.2.9 A set of minutes of each session shall be filed in a safe and proper place together with a copy of any reports presented.
- 5.7.2.10 Minutes will be sent to all members of the SRC, the SRC Student Development and Support Officer, and the Manager of Student Services.
- 5.7.2.11 Minutes shall be posted on the SRC website in a timely fashion.

5.8 General

- 5.8.1 These Standing Rules of Order shall apply to all meetings of the SRC.
- 5.8.2 These Standing Rules of Order shall at all times be read and interpreted in conjunction with the Constitution of the Students.

Award of Honours

For an award of Honours a candidate must have been awarded the degree of LLB with distinction and have obtained an aggregate of at least 75% in all the penultimate and final year courses for which the candidate had been registered. A candidate who has obtained an average of 74.5% or above will be regarded as having met the 75% standard.

Half-Colours Colours and Honours (postgraduate only):

To be awarded Colours, the qualification must be awarded with distinction or awarded with 120 NQF credits in the year with first class passes.

FINANCIAL AID

Undergraduate Financial Aid packages, consisting of loans, merit awards, bursaries and rebates, may be offered to financially needy and academically deserving South African Citizens. The criteria for eligibility and value of the financial aid offered are determined annually by the Financial Aid Committee.

For further information please consult our website <https://www.ru.ac.za/researchgateway/postgraduates/funding/>

Postgraduate Financial Aid consists of scholarships, bursaries and loans. Rhodes University has several scholarship programmes that attract excellent students and researchers to further their studies at postgraduate level. Further funding for postgraduate study is made available through NRF, WRC, MRC and other funding bodies by way of individual bursaries or project linked bursaries.

For further information please consult our website <http://www.ru.ac.za/research/postgraduates/funding>.

CONVOCATION

Convocation is a statutory body which meets at least once a year to discuss any matters affecting the University, and to convey its resolutions to the University Council and the Senate. All graduates of Rhodes University, the Vice-Chancellor, the Deputy Vice-Chancellors, academic staff, the Registrar, the University Librarian, the Director of Student Affairs; and those former professors and associate professors elected by the senate and council to be emeritus professors or emeritus associate professors, are members of Convocation. The Registrar is Secretary ex officio. All members are entitled to vote for office-bearers.

President: Professor Emeritus PT Mtuze

Secretary: Professor AL Moody

THE OLD RHODIAN UNION

The Old Rhodian Union was founded in 1911 by Professor Cullen Bowles and Sir George Cory to form a link between past and present students and staff of Rhodes University. All past students who have attended Rhodes University for at least a year, all members of Convocation, past and present Chancellors and Vice-Chancellors, Council members and all members of staff, past and present are automatically members of the Old Rhodian Union. There is no subscription for membership.

The Old Rhodian Union annual general meeting is held at the University as close as possible to every Founders' Day, together with the annual meeting of Convocation.

Old Rhodian reunions are held in all centres where there are branches of the Union. Besides Makhanda, these include Bloemfontein, Cape Town, Durban, East London, Johannesburg, Kimberley, Pietermaritzburg, Port Elizabeth and Pretoria. There are also branches in Bulawayo, Harare, Windhoek, the United Kingdom, United States of America and Australia.

The Old Rhodian Union administers a bursary fund from which it awards a number of bursaries, annually to children and grandchildren of Old Rhodians.

President: Professor RB Walker

Hon Treasurer: Mr. J Gillam

THE SPORTS ADMINISTRATION AND SPORTS FACILITIES

The Rhodes University Sports Council was established in 1905. The Council promotes sport and physical recreation, and provides and maintains sports facilities and equipment on campus. The Head of Sports Administration and staff are responsible for the day-to-day administration of University sport and sports clubs, and for carrying out the policies of the Sports Council.

The use of sports facilities is restricted to all bona fide students of Rhodes University, Club members, members of Council and full-time members of staff, who are honorary members of the Sports Council. Non-Rhodes affiliated people/groups can only use these facilities by prior arrangement with Sports Administration and may be liable for a charge applicable to each facility.

Facility cards may be purchased from the Sports Administration office by the following persons:

1. wives/husbands of members of staff and their dependants of 16 years and over;
2. Old Rhodians, their wives/husbands and their dependants of 16 years and over;
3. students' wives/husbands and their dependants of 16 years and over.

Swimming pool cards may also be purchased from the Sports Administration by the above persons as well as their children of under 16 years.

Whilst all bona fide students, Council members and staff have free access to some facilities, official club practices, matches and competitions take priority in the use of all facilities.

- Sports Administration Scholarship: These scholarships are offered to students and prospective students excelling in their sporting codes, who made provincial and national teams.
- Ally Weakley Fund: This is the bursary awarded yearly to a rugby player.

THE STUDENTS' REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL

The Students' Representative Council, elected by the student body, represents the students of Rhodes University both on campus and off campus. The SRC negotiates with the University authorities on behalf of students and administers funds allocated by the Council for student activities.

All student clubs and societies, except sports clubs, are financed by the SRC, which makes grants to student societies, to its various committees, to the publications under its control, and for student social functions.

The SRC assists in the organisation of Orientation Week.

Externally the SRC maintains contact with other educational institutions and arranges seminars and speakers on issues of general interest to students.

In terms of the Student Disciplinary Code, the SRC may take disciplinary action against students who break University rules. All disciplinary action is reported to the Vice-Chancellor, who deals with more serious offences.

THE STUDENT SERVICES COUNCIL (SSC)

In accordance with tertiary education legislation, a Student Services Council has been established. In compliance with this legislation, the SSC has equal university staff and student representation. Being a subcommittee of Senate, the SSC makes recommendations directly to Senate, and thereby to Council.

The SSC has been given the task of examining every aspect of student life with the goal of integrating every student of the University into campus life as quickly as possible, so that each student may become academically productive in the shortest possible time. This will be achieved by ensuring that students from different backgrounds feel socially and culturally at ease in all aspects of campus life.

Students are encouraged to approach the Director of Student Affairs, or indeed any member of the SSC, with recommendations, complaints, etc about any aspect of student life on the Rhodes campuses.

FEES FOR 2022

NOTE: Master/Visa credit card facilities are available for all payments but no discounts may be claimed if this method of payment is used.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR ALL STUDENTS

Due dates

If you do not take up one of the options mentioned above by the payment due date you will be regarded as a “no show” for residence purposes and your room will be allocated to a student on the waiting list. You will thus lose your place in residence and the University will have little chance of assisting you other than to suggest that you move into digs. If you have problems please contact us before 21 January 2022, as we will do whatever we can to assist you in retaining your place in residence, but after that date, there is little we can do.

NOTES FOR ALL STUDENTS

1. Banking details

Rhodes University Student Fees Account, First National Bank, Grahamstown branch:

Account number 62145504553 Branch code 210717

NB! Please note: the deposit slip MUST show the student number as the reference number.

2. Penalty charge

Dishonoured debit orders will attract a fee of R225 per transaction.

3. Cash Deposit Limits

Students are discouraged from making large cash deposits at the University Cashier. Cash deposits exceeding R5 000 must be made at the First National Bank, Grahamstown (branch code 21 07 17), account number 6214 550 4553. Please ensure that the student number (which is the only reference number to be used) is clearly visible as beneficiary reference on the deposit slip, which must be submitted to the Student Fees office, or faxed, to (046) 603 7019/ Email: studentfees@ru.ac.za.

4. Holders of recognised bursaries or scholarships including Rhodes University scholarships and merit awards may offset their bursary/scholarship against the liability for the Initial Fee Payment required prior to registration, but you must inform the University that you are doing so before 21 January 2022 for returning students and 04 February 2022 for new first year students.

5. Fee remissions, concessions and special arrangements (full-time students only)

Where a parent has more than one child attending the University at the same time, as full-time students, an application may be made to the Director of Finance in the year in which it applies for a remission of 30% of the normal tuition fees for each child after the first. The Council may also make any concession or special arrangement regarding the amount of fees paid by a student, or the payment of fees, at its discretion.

6. Academic Merit Award Scheme (SA students only)

Special merit awards are automatically made by the University to eligible students enrolling for the first time for an undergraduate degree. The awards, ranging from R32 900 to Full tuition fee, are based on the final National Senior Certificate examination results. The awards do not cover the DHET Fee Adjustment Grant so the grant should be applied for, if applicable. Should the student withdraw from Rhodes University during the academic year, the merit award will be reduced on a pro rata basis. In order to qualify for one of these awards a student would have to obtain at least 47 admission points in the National Senior Certificate examination. Please note that International Students are not eligible for merit awards.

7. Holders of recognised scholarships/bursaries/ loans

Fees due to the University are a first charge on any scholarship, bursary or loan granted by the University, or paid to the University from other sources, for a student. If the total amount paid exceeds the fees payable, the student may draw the balance on condition that the Bursar has given written permission.

Please note that it is the responsibility of the student to ensure that bursary donors make payments timeously and in accordance with the University regulations. Students who hold full bursaries are reminded that they will require funds on arrival at the University for the purchasing of books etc., as it is not University policy to make loans or advances against bursaries prior to the funds being received.

8. Oppidan fee (for clarity please refer <http://www.ru.ac.za/oppidan/faq/>)

Note that there is a compulsory Oppidan fee of R354.00 (Students living off Campus).

9. Caution

Please ensure that payments made to the University Bank Account, are done by Direct Deposits or Internet Transfers only. No responsibility is accepted for bank notes or other forms of remittances missing from letters addressed to the University or to members of the University using its address.

10. External Loans

Please note it is the responsibility of students negotiating loans with financial or other institutions to ensure that all payments are made to the University by the dates specified above.

The Initial Fee Payment may NOT be reduced by virtue of a student having negotiated a loan with a financial or other institution.

Monies once paid into a student account will not be refunded unless all fees have been paid and a credit balance is reflected on the account irrespective of any bursaries held or meal refunds due to the student.

11. Penalties for non-compliance

The University will not issue certificates of any description to students whose fees are in arrears.

12. Unpaid accounts

Unpaid accounts where no prior agreed arrangement has been made and met are subject to an interest charge at the rate of 0.75% per month on amounts in arrears.

13. Payments made to students

Account refunds or payments to students will be made via Electronic Fund Transfer (EFT). Credit balance refunds will only be made upon receipt of a written application from the person/organisation responsible for paying the account, supported by a certified copy of the bank account details into which the funds are to be deposited.

15. Notice of withdrawal – deregistration from Rhodes as well as withdrawing from residence

All students, both postgraduate and undergraduate, or their parents or guardians must give notice of intention to discontinue attendance, in writing, to the Registrar. A separate letter requesting a refund of any monies due must be sent to the Director of Finance.

- Any student who has registered for a course of study and who, for any reason leaves during the year is liable for a pro-rata fee up to the date of cancellation for tuition and or residence fees, the basis of calculation will be on 248 days for the year.
- Any student who withdraws their application for tuition or residence, before registration will be liable for a cancellation fee of 10% if less than one month's notice is given or 2.5% if longer.
- In the case of an early withdrawal from Residence, for any reason, other than immediate family bereavement, medical illness or academic exclusion, a cancellation fee of two months Residence Fee will be levied over and above the fee calculation for the period of residence accommodation. A penalty will not be charged if a provisional residence booking is cancelled prior to the Initial Fee (IF) deadline of 21 January 2022 for returning students and 04 February 2022 for new first year students.

In terms of Section 17 of the CPA it states;

(3) a service provider may charge a reasonable fee for cancellation.

(4) regard must be had to the nature of the service, the length of notice to cancellation, the reasonable potential to find an alternative consumer (in our case this would be a student) and the general practice of the relevant industry (in our case, other universities)”

TUITION FEESBlock fees

The regulations of the various faculties prescribe the number of courses full-time students are normally expected to take in each year of their curriculum.

Unless otherwise stated, the annual block fees include tuition fees for classes and laboratories, fees for ordinary University examinations and library fees for the normal number of courses. Full-time students taking fewer than the normal number of courses in any given year will still be liable for the full block fee.

OTHER FEE CONSIDERATIONSAdditional courses

Subject to the regulations of the various Faculties, undergraduate students may take in any year one course more than the normal number prescribed for that year of their curriculum without extra charge. Full-time postgraduate students may take in any year one undergraduate course free of charge, provided that they have obtained the prior approval of their head of department and of the Dean of the Faculty, and provided that a postgraduate student in Law may take first year courses in any one language subject in any year without extra charge. The undergraduate course becomes payable separately once deregistered from full-time course.

Single course fees

Students doing one course towards their degree must be registered as full-time, but will be charged the single course fee.

Departmental and additional charges

These are for course materials, handouts, field trips, printing vouchers, etc. and are additional charges to the student fee account. These charges vary as they depend on the courses taken and options chosen in each year of study.

Societies: Charges to student accounts

These refer to subscriptions to societies to be charged to student accounts. No further subscriptions will be charged after 31 March of each academic year.

Cost of meals:Meals for Oppidans (Students who live off-campus)

Meal options available are breakfast, lunch and supper on weekdays and weekends. The costs vary:

Breakfast	R15.76	Lunch/Supper	42.40 (each)
-----------	--------	--------------	--------------

Meals for residence students:

Breakfast	R12.04	Lunch/Supper	R28.36 (each)
-----------	--------	--------------	---------------

EXAMINATION FEES

Must be paid at the start of each semester for ordinary examinations written by students returning to write on extended DP certificates.

Students who fail to provide acceptable identification at examinations will be fined R315.00 per exam session.

RESIDENCE FEES – ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Residence fees differ because some residences have better facilities and/or are desirably located.
- Students' accommodation is based on single rooms. Adjustments are made in fees where students change residences. All residence fees are levied at the full rate for a single room in the appropriate residence at the beginning of the year. Where, for University convenience, students are permitted to share accommodation a 25% discount of the lodging will be applied. For the purpose of discounts and adjustments, the residence year is taken as 250 days (PG Residences 340 days). A student does not have the right to claim an allowance for sharing a room where single accommodation in the residence is available.
- No charge is made for linen supplied or for laundry services. Students must provide their own towels and toilet soap.
- No deduction is made from residence fees if a student is away from residence because of illness, or for any other reason, other than where the prescribed course of study required such absence. (Certificates to this effect must be obtained from the relevant academic Head of Department and submitted to the Residential Operations Division).
- Unbooked meals will be refunded to students' fee accounts at the end of each semester. Refunds will be limited to a maximum of R2 578.69 per semester for those in undergraduate residences and R3 507.02 per semester for those in postgraduate residences.
- Accommodation for students in undergraduate residences is available for a specific fee during the April vacation periods. No vacation accommodation is offered during the mid-year recess or the December/January period.
- Students who have withdrawn from residence must vacate their rooms within 24 hours of having given such notification to the University.

Residence fee remissions

Applications for residence fee remissions must be made to the Deputy Director: Residential Operations. Residence fee remissions will only be considered in cases of family emergencies (e.g.: immediate family bereavement, illness of student, etc.).

ADDITIONAL NOTES

- Candidates for Honours degrees may attend an introductory language course without extra charge.
- Registration and tuition fees must be paid even if candidates in a particular year make no call on their supervisor's time.
 - The minimum period of study for a Master's degree is two years after a Bachelors degree (if permitted) or one year after an Honours degree.
 - The minimum period of study for a PhD degree is three years after an Honours degree or two years after a Master's degree.
 - A pro-rata fee will be applied upon registration of Masters and PhD students
- Laboratory credits to printing accounts and photocopying credits will be charged against student accounts on completion, by the student, of a voucher. The charges will be in multiples of R50 and R100. The cost of printing one A4 black and white page is 50c in 2022.

4. The fee is refundable if re-examination changes the classification of the result to the student's advantage.
5. Degree certificates are handed to candidates when they graduate, or posted as soon as possible after the graduation ceremony to those graduating in absentia. Other certificates are posted to candidates as soon as possible after the results are issued. A duplicate certificate is issued on production of an affidavit or the damaged original certificate. An amended degree parchment: issued as a result of student error or negligence in providing information such as the spelling of names, etc.
6. An invigilation fee per paper may also be payable.
7. Undergraduate students registering for the second semester will be charged 50% of the annual fee.
8. IT consumables such as USB flash sticks and external hard drives etc are available from the IT Shop. Please see <https://www.ru.ac.za/informationtechnology/itshop/> for pricing and more information.
9. Applies when connecting to the Student Network from one of the private flat complexes in town where such access is available. See <http://www.ru.ac.za/studnet> for details.
