VISION AND MISSION STATEMENT

VISION
Rhodes University’s vision is to be an outstanding internationally-respected academic institution which proudly affirms its African identity and which is committed to democratic ideals, academic freedom, rigorous scholarship, sound moral values and social responsibility.

MISSION
In pursuit of its vision, the University will strive to produce outstanding graduates who are innovative, analytical, articulate, balanced and adaptable, with a life-long love of learning; and to strive, through teaching, research and community service, to contribute to the advancement of international scholarship and the development of the Eastern Cape and Southern Africa.

Accordingly, the University undertakes
• to develop shared values that embrace basic human and civil rights;
• to acknowledge and be sensitive to the problems created by the legacy of apartheid, to reject all forms of unfair discrimination and to ensure that appropriate corrective measures are employed to redress past imbalances;
• to create a research-based teaching and learning environment that will encourage students to reach their full potential, that is supportive of students from disadvantaged backgrounds, and that will produce critical, capable and skilled graduates who can adapt to changing environments;
• to promote excellence and innovation in teaching and learning by providing staff and students with access to relevant academic development programmes;
• to provide an attractive, safe and well-equipped environment that is conducive to good scholarship and collegiality;
• to provide a safe and nurturing student support system as well as a diverse array of residential, sporting, cultural and leadership opportunities that will foster the all-round development of our students, the university and the region as a whole;
• to attract and retain staff of the highest calibre and to provide development programmes for staff at all levels;
• to promote excellence in research and other creative endeavours;
• to play an active role in promoting inter-disciplinary and inter-institutional collaboration within the Eastern Cape Province;
• where appropriate, to assist in the development of the Eastern Cape Province by making available the university’s expertise, resources and facilities;
• to play a leading role in establishing a culture of environmental concern by actively pursuing a policy of environmental best practice;
• to strive for excellence and to promote quality assurance in all its activities.
THE FRONTISPICE

The University motto ‘Vis, virtus, veritas’, means ‘Strength, courage, truth’.

Heraldic description of the arms

Or on a Pile Sable an Open Book inscribed with the words ‘Sapientiam Exquiret Sapiens’ between three Escallops of the first. On a Chief Argent a Lion passant Gules between two Thistles slipped and leaved proper. And for the crest a Wreath of the Colours upon a Rock the Figure of a Man mounted on a Horse representing ‘energy’ all Argent.

Derivation of the coat of arms

Black and gold are the livery colours of the Graham family. The pile (inverted triangle) is characteristic of the Graham coat of arms, as are the escallops (shells), an emblem of pilgrimage. The lion and two thistles were taken from the coat of arms granted posthumously to Cecil John Rhodes. The crest is a representation of the famous statue by Watts which forms part of the Rhodes Memorial in Cape Town. The open book is a common feature of the arms of a college or university e.g. Oxford University.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY

Rhodes University College, 1904-1951
The idea of establishing a university in Grahamstown was first put forward in the 1880s. In the early 1900s a small group formed an ad hoc committee which recommended that it be called the Eastern Province University College. They changed this to Rhodes University College to leverage funding out of the Rhodes Trust, which administered the will of Cecil Rhodes, who had died in 1902. The Trust granted £50,000 towards the founding of Rhodes University College.

Rhodes University College, then affiliated to the University of the Cape of Good Hope, began functioning in July 1904 with about fifty students, the vast majority of whom were white, with classes initially being given in St Andrew’s College buildings. Early in 1905, operations moved to the university’s current site, the old Drosdty grounds. For the first five decades or so of the university’s history, student culture was for the most part genteel, constrained as it was by enduring Victorian codes of behaviour and by strict rules and regulations. Social life revolved around tightly controlled dances, respectable courting, and walks on Mountain Drive. Extracurricular cultural activity centred on the debating, musical and dramatic societies. Sport gained momentum, with rugby at the forefront.

The University operated as a racially segregated institution for the first 70 years of its existence. There was a slight relaxation of this stance in the 1940s. Benjamin Mahlasela was appointed in 1942 to teach isiXhosa to first-year students on a part-time basis – he would go on to serve the university for thirty-five years. In 1947 Rhodes eventually agreed to admit black postgraduate students into courses not offered at the University of Fort Hare. In the event, though, only three were admitted over the next twelve years.

Rhodes University in the early apartheid era
Rhodes became an independent university in 1951 (having been affiliated to UNISA since 1918) and took on Fort Hare as an affiliate. The first four decades of Rhodes’ existence as an independent university more or less coincided with the apartheid era, which saw a growing polarisation between the defenders and opponents of apartheid in the university community.

While teaching was still considered to be the primary activity, there was evidence that research, writing and artistic output were gaining some momentum in the 1950s and 1960s. The scientist to gain the greatest international renown was JLB Smith, who identified a mysterious fish caught in East London as a coelacanth, believed to have been extinct for millions of years. Among other prominent scientists at Rhodes from the 1950s and 1960s were the physicist, Jack Gledhill, and the zoologist, Brian Allanson. The most notable figures in the Humanities during this time included Guy Butler of the Department of English, and Andre Brink in the Department of Afrikaans. Guy Butler was the driving-force behind the founding of the Rhodes theatre, the Institute for the Study of English in Africa (ISEA), and the National English Literary Museum (NELM). Andre Brink was by far the most prolific writer ever to have taught at Rhodes – the author of over twenty novels, in addition to his critical writings, plays and translated works.

Research productivity was enhanced by work undertaken at various institutes, including the Leather Industries Research Institute, the JLB Smith Institute (later the South African Institute for Aquatic Biodiversity), the ISEA and the Institute of Social and Economic Research (ISER). In 1978 the university took over the International Library of African Music (ILAM), comprising a superb collection of African musical recordings and instruments that had been built up over many years by Hugh Tracey and his son, Andrew.

In 1959 the National Party government passed legislation that ended the connection with the University of Fort Hare. This led to protests by students and staff at Rhodes. Fort Hare students who had registered during the affiliation years were permitted to complete their Rhodes degrees. These students were capped at graduation ceremonies held in the Rhodes Great Hall in 1960, 1961 and 1962 – among these graduands were Chris Hani and Griffiths Mxenge.

Unable to escape the dictates of apartheid, political controversies arose in the 1960s. In 1962, the decision was taken to award an honorary doctorate to the state president, CR Swart, an apartheid hard-liner who had previously, as Minister of Justice, cracked down ruthlessly on anti-apartheid activists.
Then, in 1967, the Rhodes authorities refused to allow black student delegates to stay in university residences while attending the annual congress of the National Union of South African Students (NUSAS). Among the delegates was Steve Biko, who proceeded to establish the South African Students Organisation (SASO), a new black student organisation which would become the pioneer of the black consciousness movement in the country.

In contrast, the 1950s and 1960s represented a golden era in the history of Rhodes’ sport. Some outstanding cricketers passed through the university – among them John Waite and Colin Bland. There were also fine rugby players, squash players and athletes who studied at Rhodes in this era. The greatest success of all was achieved by Rhodes’ swimmers in the 1960s, with several performing especially well at a national level.

Student life at Rhodes continued to be governed by strict residence rules and dress codes. For instance, mixed parties involving men and women students still required the vice-chancellor’s permission. Men students had to wear jackets and ties at classes and in the library. As something of the more relaxed, permissive culture filtered into Rhodes from the west in the 1960s, Rhodes’ students began to rail against what they saw as outdated regulations and restrictions. Calls for reform culminated in a student civil disobedience campaign in 1971, with students deliberately violating residence rules and dress codes.

The late apartheid era
The last two decades of the apartheid era, from the mid-1970s to the mid-1990s, were years when the National Party government had to contend with both growing international pressure and rising protest and resistance. The government devised a twofold response – mild reform combined with ever harsher repression and a ruthless crackdown on its opponents. Both trends had an impact on Rhodes, giving rise to growing turbulence and polarisation on campus.

The first government reform to have an impact on Rhodes was the slow, limited process of desegregation. From the early 1970s black students could apply for permits to register at white universities for courses not offered at black universities. In 1983 this policy was replaced by a quota system which allowed white universities to admit black students regardless of their chosen courses, but with a limit on the number who could be admitted.

The first Rhodes’ students to register under the permit system mostly took courses in Journalism or Pharmacy, neither of which were offered at black universities. In 1976 Rhodes admitted seven black students; by 1985 black students constituted 18% of the total student population at the university.

Rhodes further expanded its engagement with the wider Eastern Cape community with the opening of its East London satellite campus in February 1981. Initially offering only B.Com. courses, the East London division geared its operations to the needs of the local business sector. It later ran Humanities and Education courses, before being transferred to Fort Hare in 2004 during the government’s restructuring of the tertiary education sector.

The post-apartheid era
As South Africa moved into the post-apartheid era in the 1990s Rhodes University, like other South African universities, faced new challenges and pressures. The ANC-led government imposed demands on universities: that they expand their student enrolments; that they reduce their financial dependence on their government subsidy; that they become more responsive to the country’s economic needs by producing more high-skilled graduates and more relevant research; and that they transform themselves. The transformation imperative had a number of dimensions – significantly increasing the number of black students and staff; addressing and changing the institutional culture of universities so as to make them more inclusive and congenial to a diverse community; examining and revising curricula and teaching practices to make them more Africa-focused; and reviewing governance structures and practices.

In the sphere of governance, leading black personalities would come to take their place in the upper echelons of the university – Jakes Gerwel as chancellor from 1999, followed by Lex Mpati from 2013; Colin Johnson, appointed as vice-principal in 2001; Saleem Badat, serving as vice-chancellor from 2006 to 2014, to be succeeded by Sizwe Mabizela, who had previously held the position of vice-principal.
After 1994 there was a gradual change in the racial composition of Rhodes’ student population. In 1994 about 32% of the student body were black (in the wider sense of the term), out of a total student population of 4094. By 2014 the proportion of black students had doubled to 64%, out of a total population of 7519 students. There has been less success in achieving equity in the academic staff complement, with the proportion of black academics rising from 16% in 1994 to 25% in 2014. On the other hand, the picture is different in the case of administrative staff (in grades 6-13) – while in 1994 black administrative staff comprised about 27% of the total, this proportion rose to about 58% in 2014.

Reflections on Rhodes’ past

The university is now a very different place from what it was fifty years ago, and a different place from what it was in 1994. Life for both students and academics has changed significantly. For several decades teaching was considered to be the primary academic activity. From the 1970s a growing emphasis has been placed on research productivity. Since the 2000s Rhodes University’s research output per capita has been among the highest of all South African universities. In recent years its foremost researcher has been Distinguished Professor Tebello Nyokong, who has headed a highly productive team of postgraduate students in the Department of Chemistry, specialising in research into cancer. She herself has received many national and international awards.

Many students have benefited from the enduring commitment to undergraduate teaching, notwithstanding the more recent emphasis on research and postgraduate enrolments. In 2005 the national Council on Highr Education issued a report on Rhodes. There were some critical comments, but the report commended the university for the breadth of its community-related activities – activities which have continued to grow since 2005. The report noted that Rhodes’ academic staff were for the most part highly qualified; research activity was on the increase; the library and IT system were well-resourced; and Rhodes’ graduation rates were among the highest in the country. Later, in 2012, Rhodes was reckoned to be among the top four universities in the country for its rate of graduating masters and doctoral students.

The years 2015 and 2016 were turbulent ones for Rhodes and other South African universities. Student protests brought to the fore some fundamental issues facing the higher education sector, particularly those relating to institutional culture and finance. The challenges inherent in combining transformation and financial sustainability will continue to be met head on by Rhodes University, going forward.

[This historical outline is derived from an essay by Paul Maylam, ‘Rhodes University: a brief history’, that appears in a WESSA Grahamstown publication: Roy Lubke & Irene de Moor (eds), Grahamstown: A Guide to the Natural and Cultural History. For a recent book on the history of the university, see Paul Maylam, Rhodes University, 1904-2016: An Intellectual, Political and Cultural History (Grahamstown: Institute of Social and Economic Research, 2017).]
DEDICATION - ACADEMIC FREEDOM

Rhodes University declaration of academic freedom and other ethical principles

As members of the academic community of Rhodes University, we are committed to safeguarding the principle of academic freedom and affirming our commitment to an ethical orientation to our work. The principles listed below are complex and their meanings must be debated. We simultaneously affirm our rights to academic freedom and uphold the firm view that this freedom is matched by an obligation to ethical conduct with regard to our students, colleagues and wider society. In the context of our history and the inequalities of the present, this includes a firm embrace of the transformative commitment to equality and justice as laid out in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa (‘Constitution’ hereafter) and, more fundamentally, as flowing from a proper understanding of the ethic that ought to guide academic life.

Therefore, we declare our resolute commitment to promoting the following principles:

Freedom: As enshrined in the Constitution, academic freedom is a variety of human freedom, and it is a central condition for a thriving academic life. The proper instantiation of academic freedom requires the steadfast commitment to its survival by academics, students and administrators. Academic freedom includes the right to be critical of the state, the university, private power and our colleagues. Academic freedom is not compatible with the subordination of university life to a corporate or managerial logic that curtails the freedom of staff or students to pursue intellectual projects of their own choosing. Academic freedom does not extend to defamation, fraud and forms of speech prohibited by the Constitution or, more broadly, by the principle of human decency. It is a misuse of academic freedom, moreover, to invoke it to oppose just change. Academic freedom, finally, is predicated on adequate state funding of the academic project.

Integrity: Academic integrity requires personal and collective vigilance in the face of pressures and incentives that may threaten the autonomy and quality of academic work. It requires a firm commitment to aligning one’s work and conduct with the ethical principles that ought to guide academic life. Such alignment cannot properly be achieved without ongoing interrogation of the values that inform current academic work.

Equality: The University is resolutely committed to the democratic ideal of universal equality. This requires active opposition to all forms of unjust discrimination and a vigorous attempt to build a university in which all students and staff are made to feel welcome and enjoy the same rights to participate freely in all aspects of academic life.

Collegiality: Academics should endeavor to foster a collegial environment where all staff and students are given a fair and equal platform to participate in the academic project, including playing an active part in maintaining and fostering proper institutional processes aimed at promoting a collegial environment. Collegiality, properly understood, is compatible with vigorous debate, provided that they are conducted in an ethical spirit, avoiding slander or acts designed to silence dissenting voices.

Excellence: Academics and students should be committed to producing work that is of the highest caliber in all spheres of academic life. Commitment to excellence implies ongoing critical interrogation of established norms of excellence.

ADMISSION AND REGISTRATION OF STUDENTS

COMPLETED application forms for undergraduate admission to all Faculties should be received by 30 September in the Student Bureau, P O Box 94, Grahamstown 6140 for enrolment in the following year. Applications received after the end of September will be considered at the discretion of the Registrar.

NB late applications will only be considered at the discretion of the Registrar.

Admission requirements
The normal admission requirement for any undergraduate degree at Rhodes University is a National Senior Certificate with endorsement for degree studies. In addition, each faculty has its own minimum requirements for admission.

All students intending to register as candidates for degrees must produce their National Senior Certificates or equivalent certificates either before, or as soon as possible after, entering the University. Failure to do so will result in a change in registration status.

Students who have attended courses at another university should obtain a transcript and, if they attended another university in the Republic, a certificate of good conduct from the university previously attended. Application for exemption for courses completed at another university should be directed to the Student Bureau with the initial application to the University, and must be accompanied by brief course outlines.

Registration
The academic year begins in February. Students are expected to register on the stipulated date in February. Late registrations may be accepted with the approval of the Registrar. However, a late registration fee will be charged.

Arrangements of curricula
Students must have their curricula approved by the Dean of the Faculty in which they are to study at the beginning of each year. The Dean will advise on courses and approve curricula on behalf of the Senate.

Students are responsible for ensuring that there are no timetable clashes in their proposed curricula, not only in the current year but for the remainder of the curriculum.

Discontinuing courses
Courses may be dropped with their Deans and Faculty Officers. Courses may not be dropped after the last official day of undergraduate lectures in May (1st semester courses) or October (2nd semester and full year courses).

Changes of course or Faculty
Undergraduates who wish to change from one course to another must discuss the proposed change with the Dean of the Faculty concerned or representative and, if a change of Faculty is involved, with the Dean of the Faculty to which they wish to transfer.

Closing dates for change of course
The final closing date for changes of courses is the End of the 2nd week of each semester for semester courses. However, a student may discontinue a course after this date with the permission of the Dean.

Students may not register for a full year course after the end of the 2nd week of the first semester.

Full-time students
A full-time undergraduate student is a student who either is engaged in full-time university studies or is following a full curriculum. A full-time postgraduate student is a student who is engaged full-time in university studies.

Part-time students registered for a degree, diploma or certificate
A part-time undergraduate student is a student who is not engaged full-time in university studies and is not following a full curriculum. A part-time postgraduate student is a student who is not engaged full-time in university studies.

Part-time students not registered for a degree or diploma:
Occasional Students are those not registered for a degree or diploma, but who are following a course recognised towards a degree or diploma. See the Fees and Charges section

1. Occasional students must be in possession of a National Senior Certificate, and will be admitted to a course only if the Head of Department is satisfied that they will profit by the lectures for the course.

2. Occasional students must follow courses in full, which implies attending all classes, completing all class work and assignments, and writing examinations. They must earn Duly Performed (DP) certificates before being permitted to write the final examinations in any course.

3. The University reserves the right to ask occasional students to leave if their work or conduct is unsatisfactory at any time.

NB The Registrar’s approval is required before an occasional student who does not intend to take a degree, diploma or certificate may be admitted.

Casual Students are those who take a course for interest, and will only be admitted to a course if:

1. the Head of the Department concerned is prepared to accept them; and
2. the Department’s facilities will not be overextended as a result; and
3. the Registrar’s approval is obtained.

Such students must comply with the appropriate DP requirements, but may not write examinations for the purpose of obtaining recognition towards any degree, certificate or diploma without converting their status and paying the requisite fee.

Casual students wishing to convert their status must comply with the admission criteria and rules of the University. The University reserves the right to ask casual students to leave if their work or conduct is unsatisfactory at any time.

Admission to Residence
Only full-time students are admitted to residence.

GENERAL RULES FOR DEGREES, DIPLOMAS AND CERTIFICATES

The conditions under which the University grants degrees, diplomas and certificates are laid down in the Rhodes University Statute, the Higher Education Act (No 101, 1997) and these rules are framed in terms of Section 32 of the Higher Education Act (No 101, 1997) as amended.

Credits: The Higher Education Qualifications Sub-Framework (HEQSF) requires credits as a measure of the volume of learning required for a qualification. The credit rating system rates 10 notional study hours as equivalent to one credit. A minimum credit-load of 120 credits per academic year is required for Bachelor’s degrees and 180 credits per academic year for Master’s degrees and Doctorates. In this Calendar the term “credit” is not always used in its strict sense.

ADMISSION AND REGISTRATION
G.1 A candidate for a degree, diploma or certificate in any Faculty must comply with the conditions and meet the selection criteria set out in the University’s admissions policy. The Council has the right to refuse admission to any student should it consider it to be in the interests of the University to do so.

G.2 Students are required, on admission, to register by signing the official registration form. Students must also pay the prescribed tuition fee. They must renew their registration and pay the prescribed fee annually as long as they continue to be students of the University; provided that students may be refused permission to renew their registration for any year of study if they fail to satisfy the prescribed minimum requirements of study. (See Rule G.7.)

G.3 Candidates for a degree in any Faculty must be registered as matriculated students of the University and for this purpose must be in possession of a National Senior Certificate (NSC) or its equivalent with endorsement for degree studies. In addition, applicants for admission may be required to have attained such minimum standard in a specified subject or subjects at the NSC or equivalent examination, or such other qualifications as may be prescribed. Students will neither be permitted to register after the first year of study nor graduate until a copy of the National Senior Certificate or international equivalent is received.

G.4 The Senate may refuse to admit any student to a post-graduate course of study in any subject if the standard of proficiency which the student has previously attained is not, in the opinion of the Senate, sufficiently high.

G.5 Registered students of another higher education institution who desire to be admitted to the University must produce a certificate, satisfactory to the Senate, as to their conduct at the other higher education institution.

G.6 6.1 Students may not be admitted to any course in any subject until their curricula have been approved by the Senate. 6.2 Such curricula may be modified only with the permission of the Senate.

NB Students are responsible for ensuring that there are no timetable clashes in their proposed curricula for each year of their registration. In selecting proposed majors, students should ensure that these subjects do not clash (including checking the timetable for subsequent years of these subjects).

In the rules which follow, unless otherwise specified or clear from the context, “course” means a course that extends over one academic year. Two half-courses or two semester courses are deemed to be equivalent to one course. “Qualifying courses” means courses accepted as credits towards a degree, diploma or certificate.

G.7 The Senate may refuse students permission to renew registration in any Faculty if they are deemed to be unable to benefit from further study, or if they have failed; 7.1 at the end of their first year of full-time attendance at this or any other university to complete two year courses or four semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 60 NQF credits towards the degree: and in the Faculties of Education, Humanities and Science. 7.2.1 at the end of their second year of full-time attendance at this or any other university to complete four year courses or eight semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 120 NQF...

7.2.2 at the end of their second year of full-time attendance at this or any other university to complete four year courses or eight semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 120 NQF credits towards the degree, and are prerequisite courses for at least two NQF level 6 courses
7.3 at the end of their third year of full-time attendance at this or any other university to complete six year courses or twelve semester courses which is equivalent to 180 NQF credits towards the degree, at least 60 credits of which should be at least NQF level 6:
and in the Faculty of Science

7.14 in the subsequent years of full time attendance at this or any other university to complete courses to the value of 70 NQF credits per year;
and in the Faculty of Law
7.15.1 students in any year of study of the LLB programme will be excluded if:
7.15.1.1 they are registered for five or more courses in an academic year, and they fail 65% or more of the courses registered for in that year, irrespective of the number of courses thus far obtained towards the degree; or 7.15.1.3 they do not fulfil the terms of academic probation.
7.15.2 …
G.8 The Senate may, after the mid-year examinations in any year, cancel students’ registrations for the remainder of that year, and may refuse students permission to renew registration in any Faculty if the students are unable to satisfy, by the end of the year, the minimum requirements of study prescribed by the Faculty in which they are registered, and if they are not completing, will not be registered for more than one course in the semester following the mid-year examinations.
G.9 Except with the special permission of the Senate, a student who has been excluded on account of failure to satisfy the minimum requirements of study prescribed for in one Faculty may not be admitted to any other Faculty of the University.
NB Periods of attendance and examination results at another university are taken into account in the same manner as periods of attendance and examination results at this University.

G.10
A student may not be registered for more than one degree or diploma at the same time, or be registered as a student of another university, without the permission of the Senate.

ATTENDANCE AND WORK

G.11
A candidate for a degree or a diploma must attend the courses, perform the work and pass the examinations which are prescribed for that degree or diploma.

G.12
Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, students are not deemed to have attended the University in any academic year or any semester unless they have attended for at least three-quarters of that year or that semester.
For the purposes of these rules “academic year” and “semester” are defined in the University Calendar.

G.13
A candidate who is not a full-time student may be required to devote to the curriculum for a degree, diploma or certificate at least one year more than the normal period specified in these rules. The distribution of the courses in the curriculum of a part-time candidate is subject to the approval of the Dean of the Faculty concerned.

COMPLETION OF COURSES

G.14
Candidates for a degree, diploma or certificate must comply with all the requirements which Senate has approved for each subject taken by them for that degree, diploma or certificate.

G.15
An undergraduate course in any subject consists of not less than sixty separate class meetings in any year, and half-courses and semester courses consist of not less than thirty separate class meetings in any year.

G.16
Except as provided for in terms of Rules G.44 to G.48 or in terms of Faculty Rules, a candidate obtains credit for a course on meeting the requirements set for that course.

G.17
Except where otherwise provided in Faculty rules, or where in exceptional circumstances Senate waives this rule, students may not 17.1 enter upon the work of the second or subsequent course in any subject unless they have obtained credit for the preceding course in the subject; or 17.2 take examinations in more than one course in the same subject in a single semester.
or 17.3 a student may normally neither register nor sit for an examination at two different levels of the same subject in the same academic year.

G.18
Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, a student must have obtained a minimum number of credits in first year courses, as specified in Faculty Rules, before entering on the second course of any subject.

ADMISSION TO EXAMINATIONS

G.19
Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, a student may not be admitted to an examination in any course unless the Head of the Department concerned has certified that the student has satisfactorily attended the class meetings for the course under examination, and has satisfactorily performed the work of the class. 19.1 Certification of attendance and performance under Rule G.19 (usually known as “the issue of Duly Performed (DP) certificates”) will be notified by Heads of Departments to the Registrar after the last class meeting for the course.
19.2 Students failing to present themselves at the June examinations in any non-semesterised course in which any examination is set, without a medical certificate or other reason acceptable to the Senate, shall not qualify for a DP certificate for that course. Exemption from this rule may be granted by the Senate to a department which applies therefore.
19.3 In exceptional circumstances the Board of the Faculty, after consultation with the Head of the Department concerned, may reinstate a student’s previously withdrawn DP Certificate.
19.4 The following exceptions to Rule G.19 have been approved by the Senate:
19.4.1 …
19.4.2 Candidates for the BA, BJourn, BCom, BEcon, BSc, BSc(InfSys) or BSocSc degree who have completed the final courses of their major subjects, have attended the university for three years, have not more than two subsidiary courses or four subsidiary semester courses outstanding for the degree, and have left the University, may write the examinations in such subsidiary courses without re-attaining DP certificates; provided that, where practical work is required, evidence must be submitted to the satisfaction of the Head of Department concerned that the candidate has received adequate practical training.

G.20
Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, certification in terms of Rule G.19 will be valid only for the examination of the year in which it is issued.

20.1 The following exceptions to Rule G.20 have been approved by the Senate:
20.1.1 A candidate granted a non-continuing pass may rewrite at a subsequent examination in order to obtain a continuing pass, provided that no additional examination has to be set for the purpose. Students who have obtained a non-continuing pass in a course may enter, by application to the Dean, for examination in that course without earning a new DP certificate, provided they already had a DP certificate.
20.1.2 With the approval of the Board of the Faculty, the validity of the DP certificate of a student who is in attendance at the University may be extended by one year. In the Faculty of Commerce such extension will normally only be granted for subjects failed at the F1 level and students would normally be required to write and perform satisfactorily in class tests and in the June examinations. An application for such an extension must normally be made within two weeks of the start of the course.
20.1.3 In the case of students who do not return to the University in any year, the validity of their DP certificates for courses in which they failed or did not write the examination in the previous year may be extended by one year by the Dean of the Faculty after consultation with the Head of the Department concerned. In the Faculty of Commerce such extensions will normally only be granted for subjects failed at the F1 level. Extension in terms of this rule will not be granted, however, to students who are refused readmission in terms of Rule G.7.
An application for such an extension must normally be made within two weeks of the start of the course.
20.1.4 Candidates registered in Faculties other than the Law Faculty who have achieved an aggregate pass (ACR) in Legal Theory 1, 2 or 3 on a previous year of study, and who achieved a result of 40% or more for any of the component semester course(s) failed in Legal Theory 1, 2, or 3, may at any subsequent examination rewrite any such component semester course failed in order to obtain credit towards the LLB degree, provided that no additional examinations has to be set for this purpose. Candidates must register in the Faculty for the component Legal Theory semester in terms of this rule at the beginning of the academic year. The coursework component will not be included in calculating the final result. Students registered for the LLB degree in the Law Faculty may not rely on this rule.

A student, before being admitted to an examination or degree, diploma or certificate shall pay such fees as may be prescribed in each case.

G.22
The Council may refuse to admit to an examination or to a degree, diploma or certificate a student who has failed to pay the required fees due to the University or to an affiliated institute.

EXAMINERS
G.23
An examination of the University qualifying in any subject for a degree, diploma or certificate shall be conducted by at least two examiners, of whom at least one shall be an examiner who has not been connected with the preparation of the students for that examination; provided that, in the case of an examination qualifying in a first or second year course, or any examination qualifying for a diploma or certificate, the Senate may waive the requirement that one of the examiners shall be a person who has not been connected with the preparation of the student for that examination.
23.1 Under Rule G.23 the University will appoint as one of the examiners for the examinations set out below a person who has not been connected with the preparation of the students for that examination, and who is not in receipt of any remuneration other than examiner’s fees from the University or from an affiliated institute:
23.1.1 All written examinations in final courses of degree and diploma subjects;
23.1.2 Practical examinations in final courses of degree subjects where required by departments;
23.1.3 All method courses for the PGCE;
23.1.4 …

G.24
The Heads of the University Departments in which the subjects under examination are taught shall, ex officio, be responsible for the examination processes in their respective departments.
EXAMINATIONS

G.25
The Senate shall be the final authority in deciding the result of an examination.

G.26
Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, the results of examinations for all courses shall be published under seven heads, four for successful candidates namely, class 1, class 2 (divisions A and B) and class 3, and three for unsuccessful candidates, namely, Failure 1, Failure 2 and Failure 3, in all cases in decreasing order of marks according to the marks obtained by the candidates.

G.27
Senate does not permit re-marking or re-examination of scripts. However, students in all Faculties may request a re-scrutiny of their scripts. Re-scrutiny entails checking that (i) all questions have been marked and (ii) marks have been added up and transcribed correctly. Such a request should be made through the Office of Registrar, accompanied by payment of the prescribed fee, within two weeks of the commencement of the University term following the examination concerned. In the case of withheld records, Senate does not permit the re-scrutiny of scripts.

G.28.1
Senate will permit students in all Faculties to view their scripts. Applications in this respect must be made through the relevant Head of Department and can be made at any stage of the academic year. In the case of withheld records, Senate only permits the viewing of mid-year examination scripts.

G.28.2
Senate will permit students in all Faculties to obtain a copy of their scripts. Applications in this respect must be made through the Office of Registrar, accompanied by payment of the prescribed fee, and can be made at any stage of the academic year. In the case of withheld results, Senate does not permit the obtaining of copies of scripts by students.

G.29
Applications under Rules G.27 and G.28 in respect of examinations must reach the Registrar accompanied by the prescribed fee within three weeks of the release of results. In exceptional circumstances Senate may permit relaxation of this rule.

29.1 The fee under G.27 and under G.28 will be refunded if the re-scrutiny effects a change to the students' advantage in the classification of their results.

29.2 The result of the re-scrutiny shall supersede the result of the original examination. Thus a student who applies for a re-scrutiny may be awarded a lower mark and thereby forfeit any advantage (e.g. permission to write a supplementary examination) accruing from the original mark.

G.30
Unless the contrary should appear from the context of these rules, an examination shall consist of such written, oral or other form of test as the Senate may prescribe in each case.

G.31
The examiners may require students to present themselves for viva voce questioning, in addition to the tests prescribed by the Senate under Rule G.30.

G.32
The results of an examination written in a subsequent year on an extended DP Certificate shall normally be calculated by taking into account the same component elements, and the same proportions, as those used for the examination for which the certificate was earned.

...

G.34
Students who obtain a non-continuing pass and who re-write the examination later than the January/February immediately after the award of the non-continuing pass, shall be placed in the class which reflects the final mark which has been achieved.

G.35
The final marks for students re-writing an examination in terms of G.34 above will be calculated in accordance with Rule G.32.

G.36
Except as may otherwise be prescribed in these rules, ordinary examinations shall be held only at the end of each semester; provided that the ordinary examinations for the degree of Bachelor with Honours in any subject may also be held before the beginning of the following academic year, as may be decided by the Senate; provided further that a part-time candidate for the degree of Bachelor with Honours may, on completion of two years as a registered candidate, and with the permission of the Senate, write a special examination before the beginning of the following academic year.

36.1 Ordinary examinations will usually be held during June and November, save that examinations for the BEd(Hons) degree may be held outside of the normally scheduled exam period.

36.2 The Senate will permit the examinations for the Honours degree to be held before the beginning of the academic year only in exceptional circumstances.
G.37
The ordinary examinations may be extended by holding supplementary examinations.
37.1 The results of the supplementary examinations shall be calculated by taking into account the same component elements as those used for the ordinary examinations.
37.2 The conditions under which a candidate may be admitted to supplementary examinations shall be prescribed by the Senate.
37.2.1 Except in circumstances provided for in this Rule or in Faculty Rules no supplementary examinations will be allowed in any second-or third-year courses.
37.2.4 In all cases, the number of supplementary examinations awarded and the conditions attached to the awards will be at the discretion of the Board of the Faculty in which the candidate is registered.
37.2.5 Candidates who have passed all but one of the courses (or two semester-courses) prescribed for their degree and who have failed the examination in such an outstanding course (or two semester-courses) may be admitted to a supplementary examination in that course (or two semester-courses), provided that, subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, such course (or two semester-courses) is (are) not the final course(s) of a major subject. *
In addition candidates in the Faculty of Humanities will be subject to the provisions of Rule H.3.3.
* Exceptions approved by the Senate are: History
3, Legal Theory 3 and Politics and International Studies 3.
37.2.6 Candidates who have passed all but one of the courses prescribed for the BPharm degree and who have failed the examination in such an outstanding course, may be admitted to a supplementary examination in that course.
37.3 Unless otherwise provided for in Faculty rules, candidates admitted to supplementary examinations in terms of Rule G.37.2 above will, if successful, receive a classified result, in addition to the original mark obtained.
37.4 In all those subjects offered at a given level as a pair of semester-credit courses, where both credits are not obtained, an aggregate of at least 50% in the pair shall be deemed equivalent to credit in a 2-credit aggregate course for that subject.
37.5 Students who do not obtain credit in both components, but who meet the requirements of an aggregated course, will have their academic transcripts amended to show that an aggregated continuing credit (ACR) or aggregated non-continuing credit (NCR) has been achieved in the appropriate subject, as the Department may allow.
37.6 Credit will not be given for an aggregate course in addition to credit for one or more of its semester-credit components.
G.38
Special exams will not be granted to any student who fails to write the examination due to having misread the examination timetable, having overslept

AEGROTAT CASES
G.39
An aegrotat examination may be granted by the Senate to candidates who by reason of illness, duly attested by a medical certificate on the prescribed form, or who for other reason acceptable to Senate have been unable to present themselves at an ordinary examination in any subject.
39.1 Applications must be made within one week of the date of the examination missed.
39.2 Other reason above would include the serious illness or death of a near relative at the actual time of the examination. In such a case evidence of the circumstances should be attached in support of the application.
[Forms are obtainable on the Rhodes Online Student Service (ROSS)].
39.3 An aegrotat will not be granted for a course in which an aegrotat had been granted and missed for any reason.
G.40
Candidates who have been admitted to aegrotat examinations in terms of Rule G.39 but who are unable to write those examinations for similar reasons, may be permitted, if their previous work in that subject is deemed by the Senate to be satisfactory, to proceed to the next course in that subject and, on completing that course to be given credit for both courses. Alternatively the Senate may, subject to Rule G.39 above being complied with admit such candidates to subsequent aegrotat examinations. Such subsequent examinations, which may be in written or oral form are normally required to be held before the end of the following semester.
G.41
In cases where a student has already completed part of an examination, the Dean of the Faculty will consult with the internal examiners and the Head of the Department concerned before deciding whether or not to approve the aegrotat examination. In such cases the Dean shall have the power 41.1.1 not to award an aegrotat; or ,
41.1.2 …
41.1.3 to award an aegrotat for the assessment/examination which is an assessment on its own and that was not attempted.
41.2 An aegrotat examination will not be granted to candidates who have entered the examination hall and seen any one of the papers or practicals of an examination and who subsequently report that they were ill at the time of the examination.

G.42
An aegrotat examination will not be granted to a candidate who is unfit to write as a result of having taken drugs or alcohol stimulants.

G.43
No application for aegrotat examinations will be considered unless DP certificates have been obtained in the courses concerned.

EXEMPTIONS

G.44
The Senate may accept, as part of the attendance of a student of the University qualifying for admission to a degree of Bachelor, periods of attendance as a registered matriculated student at another university or institution recognised by the Senate for the purpose, or accept examinations passed in any subject at such university or institution, or passed by an external student of the University of South Africa, or other examinations recognised by the Senate for the purpose, as granting exemption from examinations of the University in such subject.

G.45
Students exempted in terms of Rule G.44 shall not be admitted to the degree of Bachelor unless:
45.1 they have attended approved courses at the University:
45.1.1 in the case of the Faculties of Humanities, or of Science, or of Commerce, or of Pharmacy, for at least two academic years;
45.1.2 in the case of the Faculty of Law for at least the final two years; and,
45.1.3 in the case of the Faculty of Education for at least the final year;
45.2 their periods of attendance at such recognised university or institution, and at the University, are together not less than the complete period ordinarily prescribed for the degree;
45.3 they have passed such examinations of the University as the Senate may prescribe;
45.4 they have paid such fees as the Council may prescribe;
45.5 they have complied with any other requirements for the degree.

G.46
The following rules have been framed in respect of students who claim credit towards a degree of Rhodes University for subjects passed at another university - 46.1 Recognition for courses passed at another university subsequent to registration at Rhodes University is subject to approval by Senate; provided that:
46.1.1 candidates for the BCom and BEcon degrees who have completed their major subjects may be granted credit for not more than three outstanding courses passed at other universities;
46.2 Recognition will not be given for more than half of the courses prescribed for the degree at Rhodes University;
46.3 Candidates who have registered for a degree at Rhodes University for at least three years, who have completed at least one of their major subjects for the degree, and who leave the University, may be given credit for at most one final course of a major subject passed at another university, provided that the Head of the Department at Rhodes University is satisfied that the standard of the other university in the course concerned is equivalent to that of Rhodes University in that course;

G.47
Graduates in the Faculties of Humanities, Science, Commerce, or Pharmacy of the University who wish to proceed to a Bachelor’s degree in another of these Faculties and who seek exemptions towards the degree in the second Faculty on the ground of having already passed in courses common to both Faculties are governed by these rules:
47.1 Exemption may be given by the Senate in not more than half of the courses prescribed for the degree in the second Faculty.
47.2 Exemption may be given only for first courses in any subject (the year in which such courses are required to be taken being immaterial), except in the case of three course subjects, in which exemption may be given for the first and second courses.
47.3 Any course passed for a degree in one Faculty, for which exemption is not granted for the degree in the second Faculty, may not be taken again as a course for the degree in the second Faculty.
47.4 The minimum period of attendance as a student in the second Faculty shall be two years.

G.48
In the case of a student holding the degree of Bachelor of Arts who wishes to proceed to the degree of Bachelor of Music or the degree of Bachelor of Fine Art the following rules apply:

DEGREE OF MASTER (ALL FACULTIES)

G.50
Subject to the provisions of Rule G49 candidates shall not be admitted to the degree of Master in the Faculty of Humanities (except the degree of Master of Music and Master of Fine Art), or of Science, or of Commerce, until at least two years after admission to the degree of Bachelor or one year after admission to the degree of Bachelor with Honours in such Faculty, or, in the case of the degrees of Master of Education by thesis, Master of Fine Art, Master of Laws and Master of Music, until at least one year after admission to the degree of Bachelor. Special entry criteria for the degree of Master of Education by coursework and thesis are listed in the Faculty of Education Rules. Except with the permission of Senate a candidate for the degree of Master of Education by coursework and thesis will be allowed a maximum of three years’ registration in which to fulfil all requirements for the degree.

50.1 Candidates for Master’s degrees should register at the beginning of the academic year. New applicants may register up to 1 May.
50.2 Normally only students holding an honours degree will be accepted as candidates for the degrees of MA, MSc, MCom, or MSocSc. Students holding an ordinary degree will be accepted only in exceptional cases.
50.3 Only students who have been admitted to the degree of Bachelor of Laws and who have attained a sufficiently high academic standard will be admitted as candidates for the degree of Master of Laws.
50.4 Only students who have been admitted to the degree of Bachelor of Pharmacy and who have attained a sufficiently high academic standard will be admitted as candidates for the Master’s degrees in the Faculty of Pharmacy.
50.5 Candidates who have obtained the BPharm degree may not present their thesis for a Master’s degree until at least 18 months after the date of registration for the MSc or MPharm degree.

G.51
No persons shall be admitted as candidates for the degree of Master unless they have obtained the approval of the Board of the Faculty, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned.

G.52
Candidates for the degree shall be registered for and attend an approved course of study or research at the University for the period prescribed in Rule G.50: provided that the Senate may exempt candidates from such attendance or part thereof, and may instead require them to perform such work as it may prescribe during that period.
52.1 When a candidate’s subject of research has been approved, such approval will remain in force so long as the annual registration fee is paid.

G.53
The Faculty shall appoint a supervisor, or supervisors, to advise a candidate. At least one of the supervisors so appointed must be a member of staff. For the purpose of this Rule, members of associated institutes who are also members of a faculty of the University are regarded as members of staff. Candidates may be permitted to register in an associated Research Institute without requiring a co-supervisor in a related academic department, but the research proposal must be approved by the Dean after considering a recommendation from a member of a cognate department. At least one of the supervisors for such candidates must be a member of the relevant Faculty Board.

53.1 The Senate has decided that candidates for the degree of Master who are exempted from attendance under Rule G.52 will be required to report in person to their supervisors from time to time as directed by the latter, and that the time in which such a candidate may qualify for the award of the degree will be extended by one year (i.e. they must be registered candidates for the degree for at least two years); provided that Senate may waive the additional year in the case of candidates who are conducting full-time research under approved conditions.

Senate may, on the recommendation of the Board of the Faculty concerned, convert the registration of a candidate for the Master’s degree by thesis to registration for the PhD degree if they consider that the work is of a standard normally expected of a doctoral student.

G.55
At least two months before the candidates present their theses, they shall give notice in writing to the Registrar of their intention to do so.
55.1 Candidates must submit their theses no later than the date published in the Calendar Diary in the year preceding that in which they hope to graduate.

The Senate may prescribe the form in which a thesis shall be submitted, and the number of copies required. 56.1 Such copies, when submitted, shall become the property of the University. 56.2 The Senate requires that three suitably bound copies of the thesis be presented for examination. Additional copies may be required depending on the number of examiners. The Registrar will inform the student of the exact number of copies required.

56.3 After the examination process has been completed, the candidate is required to submit an electronic version of the final corrected thesis in PDF format for deposit in the University’s digital repository, together with the Final Thesis Submission Form signed by the candidate and supervisor to the Registrar’s Division. Candidates and supervisors who would like a digital holding period of between 1 and 2 years before deposit in the digital repository, or a full embargo of the thesis, must request this in the Final Thesis Submission Form. The Library offers assistance and training to post-graduate students for PDF conversion.

A thesis shall be accompanied by a declaration on the part of the candidates as to the extent to which it represents their own work. This declaration must be approved by the supervisor.

G.58
If, at the date of its presentation, the thesis has not been published in a manner satisfactory to the Senate, the University shall have the right to make copies of the thesis from time to time, for deposit in other universities or research libraries, and to make additional copies of it, in whole or in part from time to time, for the purposes of research. The University may, for any reason, either at the request of the candidate or on its own initiative, waive its rights.

G.59
Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, candidates may not present themselves for the examination for the degree more than twice in the same subject. 59.1 An application to re-submit a thesis which has been rejected shall not be entertained, but the Senate may, on the advice of the examiners invite a candidate to re-submit a thesis in a revised or extended form.

G.60
The degree may be awarded with distinction.

G.61
In the case of a candidate for the degree of Master of Music, the word “thesis” includes a set of musical compositions in such form as may be prescribed by the Senate.

DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY
(ALL FACULTIES)
Subject to the provisions of Rule G.49 a candidate shall not be admitted to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy until at least three years after admission to the degree of Bachelor with Honours (in any Faculty), or of Bachelor of Laws, or of Bachelor of Education, or of Bachelor of Music, or until at least two years after admission to the degree of Master.

Candidates for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in any Faculty shall be registered for and attend an approved course of special study or research at the University for the period prescribed in Rule G.62; provided that the Senate may exempt candidates from such attendance or part thereof, and may instead require them to perform such work as it may prescribe during that period.

Candidates for Doctor’s degrees should register at the beginning of the academic year. New applicants may register up to 1 May.

Before registration, candidates for the degree shall obtain the approval of the Faculty Dean, as delegated by Senate, to the subject of special study or research which they propose to pursue.

When a candidate’s subject of research has been approved, such approval will remain in force so long as the annual registration fee is paid.

The Senate shall appoint a supervisor or supervisors to advise a candidate. At least one of the supervisors so appointed must be a member of staff. For the purposes of the Rule, members of associated institutes who are also members of a Faculty of the University are regarded as members of staff. Candidates may be permitted to register in an associated Research Institute without requiring a co-supervisor in a related academic department, but the research proposal must be approved by the Dean after considering a recommendation from a member of a cognate department. At least one of the supervisors for such candidates must be a member of the relevant Faculty Board.

The candidate shall work in such association with the supervisor as the Senate may direct.

Candidates shall submit a thesis on the results of their study which shows evidence of originality and independent research.

At least two months before candidates present their theses, they shall give notice in writing to the Registrar of their intention to do so.

Candidates must submit their theses no later than the date published in the Calendar Diary in the year preceding that in which they hope to graduate.

The Senate shall appoint at least three examiners for each thesis. In exceptional circumstances one examiner may be internal to the University.

The Senate may prescribe the form in which a thesis shall be submitted, and the number of copies required.

Such copies, when submitted shall become the property of the University.

The Senate requires that for a full thesis, four suitably bound copies of the thesis be presented for examination. Additional copies may be required depending on the number of examiners. The Registrar will inform the student of the exact number of copies needed.

After the examination process has been completed, the candidate is required to submit an electronic version of the final corrected thesis in PDF format for deposit in the University’s digital repository, together with the Final Thesis Submission Form signed by the candidate and supervisor to the Registrar’s Division. Candidates and supervisors who would like a digital holding period of between 1 and 2 years before deposit in the digital repository, or a full embargo of the thesis, must request this in the Final Thesis Submission Form. The Library offers assistance and training to post-graduate students for PDF conversion.

Every thesis must be accompanied by a double spaced typewritten abstract in English of not more than 350 words. In addition, if the thesis is in a language other than English, it must be accompanied by an abstract in the language of the thesis. No illustrative materials such as tables, graphs or charts should be included. The abstract must be approved by the supervisor of the thesis and will, in the case of successful doctoral candidates, be submitted to University Microfilms International for publication and distribution. The abstract must be bound together with the thesis and be placed immediately after the title page.

Candidates shall submit a declaration, satisfactory to the Senate, stating to what extent the thesis is their original work, and certifying that it has not been submitted for a degree at any other university.

If, at the date of the presentation, the thesis has not been published in a manner satisfactory to the Senate, the University shall have the right to make copies of the thesis from time to time, for deposit in other universities or research libraries, make additional copies of it, in whole or in part from time to time and distribute the content in whatever format it deems fit, for the purposes of research. The University may, for any reason, either at the request of the candidate or on its own initiative, waive its rights.

G.72
Candidates may be required by the Senate, if the examiners so recommend, to submit to a written or oral examination on the subject of their thesis and on the whole field of study which it covers.

G.73
An application to re-submit a thesis which has been rejected shall not be entertained, but the Dean, together with the Registrar, as delegated by Senate may, on the advice of the examiners, invite a candidate to re-submit a thesis in a revised or extended form.

G.74
A thesis accepted by the University, and subsequently published in whatever form, shall bear the inscription: “Thesis approved for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy of Rhodes University”, or “Thesis approved in partial fulfilment of Doctor of Philosophy of Rhodes University”, as the case may be.

G.75
In the case of a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Music, the word “thesis” includes a set of musical compositions in such form as may be prescribed by the Senate.

G.76
The Registrar, as delegated by Senate, may suspend or cancel the registration of any candidates whose progress is considered to be unsatisfactory.

G.77
If candidates have not completed their Master’s degree within three years from first registration or their PhD degree within five years from first registration or six years if their PhD was upgraded from a Master’s degree, their candidacy will lapse unless the Registrar, as delegated by Senate, is satisfied that an extension is warranted. Further, in line with Rule G.76.1 the following processes were approved by Senate. The Registrar receives:

(i) A letter of request by the student; accompanied by
(ii) Support documentation; and
(iii) A motivation by the supervisor; and
(iv) A motivation by the Head of Department; and
(v) A motivation by the Dean.

GUIDELINES FOR SENIOR DOCTORATES

G.77
When applicants indicate their wish to submit work for a Senior Doctorate, the Board of the Faculty, on the recommendation of the Head of Department, supported by a full motivation, will consider recommending to Senate the acceptance of the work for examination.

G.78
If Senate approves the acceptance of work for a Senior Doctorate, the candidate must submit for the approval of the Senate, six copies of published work dealing with some subject falling within the scope of the studies represented in the University, or, in the case of the degree of Doctor of Music, a set of musical compositions, in such form as may be prescribed by the Senate. Normally the published work should be presented either conventionally bound, or in electronic form (in PDF format) on suitably indexed CD-ROM disks together with an explanatory synopsis. Such work shall constitute a distinguished contribution to the advancement of knowledge in that field.

The Senate shall appoint at least three examiners for each candidate. In exceptional circumstances one examiner may be internal to the University.

G.80
Every work submitted for the degree must be accompanied by a declaration on the part of the candidate, satisfactory to the Senate, to the effect that it has not been submitted for a degree at any other university.

BREACHES OF RULES

G.81
Subject to the provisions of the Higher Education Act and the Rhodes University Statute, the Senate may ex post facto condone any breach of the rules governing a curriculum, if it is satisfied that:

(i) The students concerned are not themselves responsible for the breach of rules;
(ii) If the breach is not condoned the students concerned would be put to undue hardship; and
(iii) The rule broken is not of fundamental importance.
FACULTY OF COMMERCE

GENERAL INFORMATION

Bachelor of Business Science
The degree of Bachelor of Business Science is a four-year career-focused degree premised on the application of quantitative methods. The curriculum for this degree aims to provide a thorough grounding in the principles of the candidate’s chosen field of expertise to the postgraduate level, supported by ancillary subjects which will equip candidates for the professional and managerial requirements of their chosen field at the highest level. To this end, Rule C.14 provides for five specialised curricula, enabling a student to specialise in one or more of the following fields: Economics, Information Systems, Management, Quantitative Management, and Computer Science. Entry into the second and fourth years of study for the degree is by permission of the Faculty Board.

Bachelor of Commerce
This is a three-year degree aimed at providing the graduate with a good academic grounding in the major subject areas of Commerce. The curricula provide for specialisation up to third year level in two or more of any of the following fields: Accounting, Economics, Information Systems, Law, Management, Science, Social Science and Statistics, in any of four curricula as follows:

The General Curriculum allows for a wide combination of subjects in second and third year including at least two major subjects. The curriculum enables students to qualify for or obtain exemption in respect of certain components of various professional qualifications. Further particulars are available from the Student Adviser.

The Accounting Curriculum is intended for students wishing to enter the accounting profession or to take the BCom degree with an accounting emphasis. If this curriculum is followed, the Postgraduate Diploma in Accountancy can be completed in one further year of study after Auditing 3, Management Accounting and Finance 3, and Taxation 3 has been passed. The curriculum enables students to qualify for or obtain exemption in respect of certain components of various professional qualifications. Further particulars may be obtained from the Head of the Department of Accounting.

The Law Curriculum is intended for students wishing to enter the legal profession, or to take a BCom degree with a legal emphasis. Following this curriculum, a candidate can obtain enough exemptions from LLB degree subjects to complete the LLB requirements in two further years of study.

The inter-faculty curriculum enables students to include a major subject in another faculty in their BCom degree, and, depending on the subjects chosen, is suitable for candidates interested in personnel management or industrial relations. This curriculum also enables students to include a Science major or any Humanities major in their degree.

Bachelor of Economics
This degree is designed for students who wish to include the maximum number of Economics courses and related subjects in their curriculum. The BEcon degree offers a suitable preparation for candidates interested in economic forecasting and analysis and economic planning, in both the public and private sectors. The following specialised curricula are offered:

The Bachelor of Economics (Environmental Science) is intended for students wishing to pursue careers in the economic aspects of environmental studies. The curriculum is designed to train students in the application of economic principles to environmental studies, and combines courses from the Faculties of Science and Commerce.

The Bachelor of Economics (Mineral Economics) is intended for students who wish to become economists with a geological background. The curriculum is designed to apply economic principles to the exploitation of mineral resources, and combines courses from the Faculties of Science and Commerce. Because of timetable constraints this degree cannot be completed in the minimum period of three years.

10.1 Candidates may not present themselves for examination in courses amounting to more than six year courses or twelve semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 180 NQF credits in the first academic year and five year courses or ten semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 150 NQF credits in the second academic year.

10.2 Subject to any exceptions approved by Senate, candidates may not present themselves for examination in courses amounting to more than seven semester courses in any year of study in which they are engaged on the final course of a major subject (normally no more than three in any semester, plus Professional Communication). The exception approved by the Senate being Accounting 3 when taken with Auditing 3, Management Accounting and Finance 3, and Taxation 3.

10.3 For all Bachelors degrees, candidates who have passed fewer than three year courses or six semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 90 NQF credits shall be deemed to be in the first year of study for the degree. Candidates who have passed more than three year courses or six semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 90 NQF credits, but with fewer than eight year courses or sixteen semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 240 NQF credits, shall be deemed to be in the second year of study unless they are registered for the final courses of at least two major subjects for the degree. Candidates who have passed at least eight year courses or sixteen semester courses or a combination which is equivalent to 240 NQF credits, shall be deemed to be in the third year of study.

10.4 Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, candidates must have passed at least two courses before they may enter on the second course in any subject.

10.5 Last Outstanding Course – Supplementary Examinations:

a) Last outstanding course supplementary examinations will be allowed only for the last year course or two semester courses outstanding for the degree, provided this applies normally to one discipline only, and normally to a course written in the final calendar year of study; and

b) Provided the student has a Duly Performed Certificate for the course concerned.

The degree certificates of candidates for three-year Bachelor’s degrees who pass in Class I in the third year course of any subject listed in C.2.1 and C.2.3, shall be endorsed with distinction in that subject. These subjects shall be regarded as major subjects within the Faculty. For the purpose of this Rule the final mark in these courses shall, where applicable, be taken as the average mark of their component semester courses.

NB Auditing 3, Taxation 3 and Management Accounting and Finance 3 are only regarded as major subjects when taken in conjunction with Accounting 3.

Aggregation Rules:

a) Aggregation is permitted between semester papers written in the same academic year and with the corresponding supplementary papers. Where the February result is invoked the supplementary mark is recorded on the transcript as “P” in the event of a pass and “ACR” where the mark results in an overall aggregated pass.

b) In Accounting 1 students obtaining between 40-49% in Accounting 101, together with a corresponding mark of 51% and above for Accounting 102, and an aggregate mark of 50% or more, are awarded a continuing pass to Accounting 2. Where the student passes Accounting 101 but fails 102 with a mark of between 40-49%, and aggregates to 50% or more a non-continuing pass is awarded.

c) For other subjects administered by the Commerce Faculty (Economics, Information Systems and Management) aggregation is permitted where one semester has been failed at the 45-49% level, provided that the overall average mark for the two semester marks is 50% or more.

d) Where a course consists of 4 modules aggregation is permitted where 3 modules (papers) are passed and the fourth failed with a mark of 40% or more, provided that the overall average mark for the 4 modules is 50% or more.

e) Where a course consists of 4 modules aggregation is permitted where 2 modules (papers) are passed and two failed with marks between 45 and 49%, provided that the overall average mark for the 4 modules is 50% or more.
f) Subminima for other subjects taken by Commerce students may differ from this rule but aggregation always conforms to (a) above.

All students registered for a degree in the Faculty are required to pass Economics 1 and 2.

Degree of Bachelor of Business Science

C.14
14.1 The curriculum for the degree of Bachelor of Business Science shall extend over not less than four years of full-time study.
14.2 Candidates who do not pass all the courses for the Degree in the first year of study will be automatically reregistered in the second year as Bachelor of Commerce / Economics students with the approval of the Board of the Faculty.
14.3 Admission to the fourth year of study for the degree is subject to approval by the Board of the Faculty.
14.4 Candidates will not be admitted to any fourth year course for the degree if they have not passed or been exempted from all the courses prescribed for the first three years of study for the degree.
14.5 Candidates normally require a minimum of 60% in their third year of study in the subject they wish to continue with in their fourth year.
14.6 Candidates wishing to be admitted to the fourth year of study in any discipline must note that the course can only be offered to a limited number of students. Departments reserve the right to select the best students regardless of the degree being studied.
14.7 Candidates who complete the third year of study for the degree and who fail the fourth year will, depending on courses passed, be awarded the degree of Bachelor of Commerce or the degree of Bachelor of Economics.
14.8 Candidates who complete the third year of study for the degree and who have passed the required courses, may elect to be awarded the BCom or BEcon degree. Such candidates may not subsequently be admitted to the degree of Bachelor of Business Science, but may be admitted to an Honours degree.
14.9 A paper in Strategic Management in the fourth year is compulsory for all students reading for full Management Honours, as well as those joint-honours students where Management is the dominant component. Other fourth year students may elect to read a paper in Strategic Management, which will count as 20% of their final fourth year mark. The weighting of the Strategic Management course for joint-honours students not reading Management as the dominant component, and in which Management is either a minor component or not taken at the fourth year level, will be split equally (10%) between the two Departments in which the student is studying.
14.10 All candidates are required to submit a research essay/project in partial fulfilment of the fourth year of study. Where the candidate is taking the 60/40 split between two subjects, the research essay is normally supervised and examined by the dominant department. This paper will represent a maximum of 20% of the course content of the fourth year of study.

Candidates for the degree should note that they may, subject to the constraints imposed by Rules G.17, C.7, C.10, C.14, and those imposed by the lecture timetable, offer courses in a curriculum in a different order to that set out in this Rule.

NB It is important that candidates plan their curricula fully in advance to ensure feasibility on the lecture timetable.

To qualify for the Diploma, candidates must pass each module and attain at least a 50% aggregate for the coursework and 50% for the Project with supporting Portfolio of Evidence (POE).

In addition, a sub-minimum requirement of 40% applies to each component of each module. In the case of a candidate passing three modules and attaining an overall aggregate of 50% or more but failing to attain the sub-minimum in one module, he or she shall be awarded a supplementary examination for that module.* The coursework comprises 67% (80 credits) of the diploma and the Project with supporting Portfolio of Evidence (POE) 33% (40 credits). ### E.21 Assessment 21.1 It is the intention of the B Ed In-Service to assess the progress of candidates on a continuous basis using a wide variety of techniques.

21.2 The year mark, consisting of a number of assessments of both class-based and home-based tasks, will comprise 50% of the final mark, with an examination, written at the end of the course, comprising the other 50% (i.e. the final mark is an aggregate of the year mark and the final examination).

21.3 Subminimum of 40% for both the year mark and final examination will normally be required, e.g. marks of 40% for the year mark and 60% for the final examination (and vice versa) will normally result in a pass, whereas marks of, for example, 75% and 25% will not.

21.4 A candidate may fail in only three subjects over the course of the degree as a whole, and in those subjects only once.

21.5 A candidate who fails in more than three subjects, or in any subject twice, or in more than two subjects in any given year, will normally not be permitted to re-register.

21.6 A candidate who has only one outstanding failed subject from the final examinations will qualify for a supplementary examination in that subject regardless of sub-minimum requirements.

21.7 A supplementary examination may be granted if the candidate obtains a final mark between 45% and 49%. However, rule 100.8 provides for exceptions where the subject failed is the only outstanding credit for the qualification.

21.8 A candidate who fails the major Academic Teaching Subject in the first year will not be permitted to reregister.

21.9 A final mark of less than 45% in any other subject, will normally mean that the candidate will be required to repeat the subject. This will normally require the student to re-register for the subject and attend classes again.

21.10 A distinction grade for a subject is a mark of 75% or more.

21.11 The degree will be awarded with distinction if the candidate obtains an average of at least 75% for all courses, and an average of at least 75% for the major Academic Teaching Subject.

E.22 Recognition of Prior Learning

Prior Learning (in the form of under-graduate qualifications and experience) is recognised where appropriate.
POSTGRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN EDUCATION (Foundation Phase Teaching) (Grades R to 3)
The PGCE is a 120 credit qualification at NQF Level 7.

E.23 Purpose
23.1 The PGCE is a ‘capping’ qualification for persons wanting to become qualified as professional educators in schooling after having completed an appropriate Bachelor’s degree (at least 360 credits) other than a BEd.
23.2 This certificate, following an approved degree, is recognised by Statute and employing authorities as equivalent to a Bachelor of Education (Foundation Phase) degree.

E.24 Access
24.1 The entrance requirements for the course are:
24.1.1 The candidate has been awarded an appropriate bachelor’s or higher degree.
24.1.2 The candidate has passed two official languages in their undergraduate degree – one of these being an African language. Candidates who have only passed one official language in their undergraduate year will be permitted to register for the requisite course concurrently with the PGCE (FP) curriculum. Please refer to 13.1.6.
24.1.3 The candidate has passed Psychology at first year level (30 credit).
24.1.4 The candidate has passed two Life Skills subjects
24.1.5 The candidate has passed one Mathematics subject at the first year level.
24.1.6 Candidates who do not have the appropriate 30 credit first year prerequisite for Mathematics or a Language course may be permitted to take a 30 credit first year course for non-degree purposes concurrently with the PGCE, 15 credits of which may be assessed through recognition of prior learning, this requires the Dean’s approval.
24.2424.1.7 The PGCE provides access to the BEd Honours degree at NQF Level 8.

E.25 Duration
The duration of the course shall not be less than one academic year.

E.52 Assessment
52.1 All courses are assessed by means of coursework and summative assessments. Coursework (for example, essays, tests and other tasks completed during the year) will comprise a year mark. Summative assessments (for example, written examinations, research reports, seminar presentations, portfolios or a combination of these) will comprise the examination mark. The year mark and the examination mark will normally be weighted equally (50:50) in the calculation of the final mark.

52.2 Regardless of format all summative assessments shall be subject to the University’s examination rules and be submitted during the University’s examination period.

52.3 The degree will be awarded with distinction if a candidate achieves an average of 75% across all four courses.

52.4 A pass mark for a course is 50% or more, calculated by aggregating the year mark and the final examination mark as described above.

52.5 A subminimum of 40% for both the year mark and final examination will normally be required. For example, marks of 40% for the year mark and 60% for the final examination (and vice versa) will normally result in a pass, whereas marks of, for example, 75% and 25% will not.

52.7 A candidate may not proceed to the second year of study until he or she has obtained credits for both first year courses.

THE HONOURS DEGREE
The Rules that follow apply to candidates for the Bachelor of Arts (Honours) and Bachelor of Social Science (Honours) degrees.

H.23
The honours degree may be taken in any subject or combination of subjects approved by the Senate.

H.24
24.1 A candidate who has been awarded the ordinary degree, or has been admitted to the status thereof or, being a graduate of another Faculty, has passed such examinations as are deemed by the Senate to be equivalent to the prerequisites for the honours degree, or has completed all the requirements thereof except the requirement regarding attendance, may, subject to the provisions of Rules H.31-H.35 inclusive, be admitted to the course for the honours degree.
24.2 For the purpose of sub-paragraph (1), candidates shall attend the University for not less than one academic year after satisfying the said requirements and pursue a course of advanced study in their chosen subject.
24.3 As an alternative to sub-paragraph (1), a candidate may, subject to the provisions of Rules H.26 and H.27 and H.31, be admitted to the course for the honours degree from the beginning of the third academic year of study for the ordinary degree.
24.4 For the purposes of sub-paragraph (3), a candidate shall attend the University for a further period of not less than two academic years and comply with such further requirements as may be prescribed by the Senate.
24.5 Subject to the approval of the Board of the Faculty, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned, candidates who have been awarded the ordinary degree may be admitted to a two-year course to take the honours and Master's degrees concurrently. At the end of this period, they shall write the full honours examination, and, if successful, may submit their Master's thesis at any subsequent date without further attendance requirements.
NB This paragraph does not apply to those Departments in which the Master's degree is taken by examination.

25.1 Candidates shall not be admitted to any course for the honours degree unless they have obtained the permission of the Board of the Faculty, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department or Departments concerned. Normally candidates will not be admitted to an honours course unless they have obtained at least a second class pass in the final year in the subject in which they wish to take honours.
25.2 Candidates may present themselves for examination in more than one subject, provided 25.2.1 that they satisfy for each subject involved the normal criteria for admission to honours in that subject;
25.2.2 that the Heads of the relevant Departments have agreed upon the contents of the course and the structure of the examination, and 25.2.3 that the Board of the Faculty approves such arrangements.

H.26
Candidates taking the honours degree under Rule H.23 will be required to study and write examinations in only one of their major subjects, but they will be required to study that subject more widely and with greater thoroughness than in the case of candidates for the ordinary degree; they will be required to write such additional papers in that subject or some branch of it, or some subject closely allied to it, as the Head of the Department may require; and they may be required to take a compulsory ancillary subject, which shall not, however, be a third year course. In their final year, candidates will be required to pursue a course of advanced study in their chosen subject.

H.27
27.1 A candidate taking the honours degree under Rule H.24.3 will be required to take 27.1.1 a preliminary examination at the end of the third year of study; and 27.2 In the preliminary examination the candidate will write, in addition to the normal examinations for the major, two or three 3-hour papers on topics prescribed by the Head of the Department concerned and approved by the Board of the Faculty.

NB Both parts of the preliminary examination will be examined externally and the results recorded.

27.3 The final examination shall consist of the same number of papers as required for the normal honours course.

H.28
The periods referred to in Rule H.24 are the periods of full-time study required of an honours degree candidate. Such candidates may not take up any full-time employment while engaged on the course. They may, however, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned and with the approval of Senate, take up part-time employment. Candidates may on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned and with the permission of Senate, attend and write the examination in a course in the same or another Department concurrently with their honours degree.

H.29
Senate may, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned, permit students to take an honours course as a part-time student: provided that 29.1 they attend the honours classes within the normal timetable of the Department, and 29.2 the honours course is spread over two years, but, except with the special permission of the Senate, not more than two years.

H.30
Candidates taking the honours degree may be required to satisfy the examiners that they have an adequate reading knowledge of an approved language other than the official languages.

H.31
Candidates shall not be admitted to the course for the honours degree in terms of Rule H.24.3, unless they have obtained credit in not less than eight courses in such a manner that all the requirements of the ordinary degree, except the requirements regarding attendance, could be fulfilled in one further year of study.

H.32
32.1 Candidates shall not be admitted to the course for the combined honours degree in Philosophy, Politics and Economics, unless they have obtained at least three credits in each of two of those subjects and at least one credit in the remaining subject.

Students will normally be expected to offer at least two papers in the honours programme conducted by a Department in which they majored.

H.33
Candidates shall not be admitted to any course for the honours degree unless they have obtained credit in such compulsory ancillary courses as may be prescribed for that course.

H.34
Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, honours degree candidates may not present themselves more than once for examination for the honours degree in the same subject.

H.35
Candidates must write all parts of the examination, other than the translation test (if required) at one time, and they shall not be exempted from any part of the examination: provided that part-time candidates may, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department and with the permission of Senate, write part of their examination at the end of their first year of study and part at the end of their second year of study.

NB Except in exceptional circumstances approved by the Senate, a research essay must be handed in before or at the same time as the other examinations are written. Normally a research essay of a maximum of 10 000 words shall be regarded as the equivalent of one paper.

A candidate who has been admitted to the course for the honours degree in terms of Rule H.24.3, and has failed to satisfy the examiners, may be awarded the ordinary degree.

H.37
Candidates who have obtained the Postgraduate Diploma in Journalism may be accepted as candidates for the Honours or Master’s degree in Journalism and Media Studies, provided that the candidate has passed such examinations as could be deemed by Senate to be equivalent to the prerequisites for the relevant degree. Candidates wishing to enrol for the Master’s degree may be required to complete one or more papers from the honours degree and must satisfy the general Rules governing the Master’s degree in the Faculty of Humanities.

FACULTY OF LAW RULES

GENERAL INFORMATION

Bachelor of Laws
The Faculty of Law offers all the courses required for the LLB degree, and in addition offers courses for degree curricula in other faculties. The Faculty offers the LLB in three streams, and admission is determined in accordance with set criteria. Students are admitted in accordance with University and Faculty enrolment planning, and the availability of resources.

1. A three-year LLB for graduate students
Students enter this stream after having completed any Bachelor’s degree without law subjects, or in the instance where the candidate has passed an insufficient number of law courses for the two-year programme.

2. A five-year combined Law and Humanities OR Law and Commerce OR Law and Science LLB stream
Students enter this stream with the intention of following an undergraduate programme in Law and Humanities OR Law and Commerce OR Law and Science leading to a BA/BSocSc or BCom/BBusSc or BSc and thereafter a two-year LLB. The objective of a broad-based education is achieved in this stream by including courses which ensure that the student has a thorough grasp of at least one discipline outside of Law. Students register for a BA, BSocSc, BCom, BBusSc or BSc in their first year of study and continue with that degree with Legal Theory as a major subject. Having obtained the first degree, students then apply for admission to the LLB, to be completed over two years. To do so they must have passed a sufficient number of law courses in the first degree, which is usually the case if they have majored in Legal Theory.

3. A four-year LLB stream
Students who meet the admission requirements for the LLB on the basis of their NSC, (or equivalent school exit level examinations), may be admitted to the LLB in their first year of study to follow the four-year curriculum.

Students who are registered in any one of the Faculties of Humanities, Science and Commerce and who successfully complete the Legal Theory 1 course as part of their first year curriculum in terms of rule L.3.2 may, after their first year of study, apply for admission to the LLB to follow the four-year LLB curriculum.

Master of Laws, Doctor of Philosophy, and Doctor of Laws
A thesis on an approved topic must be submitted. The rules are the same as those for similar degrees in the other faculties.

RULES FOR DEGREES
See the General Rules applicable to all faculties. The rules that follow apply to the Faculty of Law only.

5.2.1 the student has passed all other prerequisite courses, and that 5.2.2 such permission will not normally be granted in respect of courses which themselves lead to more advanced courses in the same subject area.
5.3 This will be conditional on obtaining a pass in its prerequisite courses.

P.7
5.4 Normally at the Dean’s discretion, candidates may be granted a supplementary examination in one of the courses for which they are registered – other than in the first year of study - provided that:
6.1 they are taking the full complement of courses for that year;
6.2 they have failed no other courses in that year;
6.3 they have no examination outstanding for that year of study.
Normally final year students are permitted to write no more than 30 credits worth of Supplementary examinations in their final year.

7.1 Courses in the Faculty of Pharmacy are measured in terms of credit points. Each credit point is based on the notional hours that an average student would require to master the content and develop skills in a subject. In this respect in the BPharm curriculum one credit point is equivalent to 10 notional hours.

7.2 Candidates must have the permission of the Dean to undertake a work-load exceeding 120 credit points in the first and second year of study, and 135 credit points in the third and fourth year of study.

7.3 For the purpose of General Rule G.46.2, credit in courses to a total of 360 credit points must be obtained at the University towards the degree.

P.8
The degree certificate of a candidate who passes with an average of not less than 3.0 merit marks per credit in all courses of the second year and subsequent years shall be endorsed “with distinction”. Merit marks are calculated by multiplying the credit point rating of the course by the numerical value of the class of pass obtained by the student, for that course. For this purpose, a Class 1 pass (75 – 100%) is valued at 4 points, Class 2A (70 – 74%) at 3 points, Class 2B (60 – 69%) at 2 points, and Class 3 (50 – 59%) at 1 point. The merit mark is multiplied by the number of credits per course, and the total divided by the total number of credits.

P.9
9.1 All candidates must complete elective courses to the value of 30 credit points to be admitted to the degree.

9.2 All candidates must successfully complete electives to the value of 30 credit points. This could be two elective courses (each worth 15 credit points) or one elective worth 30 credit points. Electives may be offered and taken in the Faculty of Pharmacy or in a different Faculty if it is relevant to Pharmacy and can be accommodated in the BPharm timetable.

9.3 For the purposes of 9.2 a one semester elective course within the Faculty will count 15 credit points and a two semester elective course will be worth 30 credit points.

9.4 The elective courses offered within the Faculty of Pharmacy will be dependent on relevance to the Pharmacy profession, staff availability and expertise.

9.5. With the permission of the Dean and subject to the provision of rules P.4 and P.7 candidates may take elective courses in the second and third year of study provided they are courses offered by other Faculties and can be accommodated in the timetable.

P.10
All candidates must complete the research methodologies course and a project to the value of 30 credit points to be admitted to the degree.

P.11
The Calendar for the year in which students enter the first-year programme will govern their curriculum for the BPharm degree.

DEGREES OF MASTER OF SCIENCE AND MASTER OF PHARMACY
See General Rules and entry under Master’s Degrees, Faculty of Pharmacy, in the Academic Departments section of the Calendar.

DOCTOR OF PHARMACY DEGREE (PharmD)
The programme leading to the PharmD degree is normally of three years’ duration, taken full time in attendance at an approved clinical site.

P.12
Candidates shall not be admitted to the degree unless they have completed the approved research rotations in the three year PharmD programme undertaken subsequent to their registration as a pharmacist with the South African Pharmacy Council.

P.13
Candidates shall not be admitted to the courses for the degree of Doctor of Pharmacy programme unless they have obtained an undergraduate degree in Pharmacy and are registered as a pharmacist with the South African Pharmacy Council. NB Because of limited facilities the Faculty reserves the right to limit the intake to the Doctor of Pharmacy Degree.

P.14
14.1 Candidates will not be admitted to the degree of PharmD unless they have passed all the research rotations of the following curriculum.
14.2 Candidates who have passed the research rotations deemed to be equivalent to those listed in the above curriculum may be exempted from those rotations.

P.15
15.1 Notwithstanding the provisions of rule P.7 the courses for the PharmD degree are measured in terms of 30 credits per course and 120 credits per year.
15.2 Each credit is counted as equivalent to 10 notional hours.

P.16
16.1 Normally, candidates must successfully have completed two research rotations and have submitted a third one for examination prior to proceeding to a subsequent year of study.
16.2 Normally, candidates must submit the fourth research report by the end of March of the following year in order to continue in the second or third year of study.
16.3 The elective research project conducted in the final year of the PharmD programme may be undertaken in any of the research areas covered in the various rotations of the PharmD Curriculum.
16.4 Each rotation will be examined independently as partial fulfilment of the requirements for admission to the Doctor of Pharmacy degree.

DOCTOR OF PHARMACY DEGREE
See the entry under the Doctor of Pharmacy (PharmD) Degree, Faculty of Pharmacy, in the Academic Departments section of the Calendar.

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREES

S.2.1 Many undergraduate subjects in the university are now offered as pairs of semester-courses; some subjects are offered as year-long courses, and some offered as single semester-long courses. Passing any of these courses earns NQF credits at specific exit levels and these accrue towards the total credits required for a degree.
S.2.2 In the rules and tables that follow, subjects are denoted sometimes by their full names, and sometimes by mnemonics and numbers (for example the subject Physics 1 (or PHY 1) is a semesterised year-course that consists of two semester-courses PHY 101 and PHY 102). The first digit of the number denotes the level (year) at which the subject is offered, the second digit is either numeric denoting a course that proceeds to a higher academic level or a letter denoting a service course describing the intended audience with no progression to a higher academic level, and a third digit denoting the semester in which the course is offered. A two digit number denotes a year-long course. For example, MAT 1S1 is a service course offering Mathematics to students primarily registered for courses offered by the Science faculty at the first year level and in the first semester, while MAT 1F is a service course offered at the first year level but over the whole year and is offered to student in the Bachelor of Science Extended Studies Programme. By contrast, MAM 101 is a Mathematics course offered at the first year level in the first semester that leads onto MAM 102 and then in later years MAM 2, MAT 3 and/or MAP 3.
S.2.3. Candidates should consult the timetable to determine in which semester a course will be offered in any particular year.
S.2.4 Candidates may present themselves for examination in the following Science and non-Science subjects:

Science subjects
The following subjects are offered by departments within the Faculty of Science. Course-specific details can be found in the departmental entries. Normally, some subjects are offered in the first semester (S1), second semester (S2) or are offered throughout the year (Y). Subminimum requirements for supplementary examinations and aggregation of two semester-courses are also provided.

Non-Science subjects
Non-Science subjects comprise all other undergraduate subjects currently offered in the Faculties of Commerce, Humanities and Law.

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

S.3
Except as provided in Rules G.44 to G.47 of the General Rules, candidates shall not be awarded the degree unless they have attended approved courses for at least three years subsequent to their first registration as students.

S.4.1 Candidates shall not normally be admitted to any of the full curricula for the degree of Bachelor of Science unless either they have met the minimum admission requirements for Bachelor’s degree programmes requiring a National Senior Certificate (NSC) or they are in possession of a matriculation certificate issued by the Matriculation Board or have obtained a certificate of exemption therefrom; and have achieved English (Home language or Additional language) at a rating of 5 or above and at least a rating of 4 in Mathematics in the NSC, or a pass in Mathematics deemed to be the equivalent of the above, or they have successfully completed a year of study under the provisions of the Science Extended Studies Programme.

S.4.2 Except with the permission of Senate, candidates shall not be admitted to any of the full curricula for the degree of Bachelor of Science unless they have obtained a pass in Life Sciences or Physical Sciences at a rating of 5 or above in the NSC, or equivalent subjects in another examination deemed by the Senate to be equivalent thereto.

Notwithstanding any exceptions to Rule S.4 approved by Senate, candidates will not normally be admitted to various courses in Chemistry, Computer Science, Mathematics, Physics or Statistics unless they have achieved a rating of 5 or above in Mathematics in the NSC or have completed Mathematics 1F. It should be noted that these restrictions may apply to some courses that are co-requisites (subjects required to be completed by the end of the degree) to certain major subjects (see Rule S.22.5); ineligibility to register for a co-requisite may thus preclude certain major subjects from being selected for a candidate’s degree.

S.6
A limited number of students who do not meet the strict criteria of Rule S.4 may be admitted under the auspices of the Science Extended Studies Programme (see Rules S.39 to S.41).

S.7
Candidates for the BSc degree must obtain not less than 360 NQF credits in various approved subjects with at least 120 credits at the NQF level 7.

S.8
S.8.1 A candidate for the degree must obtain credit for all the required courses up to the NQF level 7 in at least two subjects, to be known as major subjects.

S.8.2 Some major subjects are offered only at the second and third-year level, that is, at the NQF levels 6 and 7, respectively.

S.8.3 A candidate for the degree must have at least one major subject as a Science subject (see S.2).

S.8.4 Candidates may elect to take not more than one non-Science subject as a major subject (see S.2). In this case the only other non-Science subjects permitted are those that are prerequisites (subjects required prior to registration of a subject) or co-requisites for that major. Registration for a non-Science major subject shall be subject to the rules of the Faculty in which the department which offers the subject is placed. In the case of Music at most 150 NQF credits shall be allowed for courses in Music Theory & Analysis, Music Culture & History, and Instrumental Music Studies.

S.8.5 Students electing to take both major subjects from the list of Science subjects may take non-Science subjects, but are limited to those offered within a single non-Science department and to at most 60 NQF credits.

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (INFORMATION SYSTEMS)
This degree is intended for students who wish to become computer specialists in a commercial or technical environment, and comprises courses offered by departments in the Faculties of Science and Commerce.

S.9
Except as provided in Rules G.39 to G.41, candidates shall not be awarded the degree of Bachelor of Science (Information Systems) unless they have attended approved courses for at least three years subsequent to their first registration.

Candidates shall not normally be admitted to the full curriculum for the degree of Bachelor of Science (Information Systems) unless either they have met the minimum admission requirements for Bachelor’s degree programmes requiring a National Senior Certificate (NSC), or have a matriculation certificate issued by the Matriculation Board, or have obtained a certificate of exemption therefrom; and have achieved English (Home language or additional language) at a rating of 5 or above, a rating of 5 or above for Physical Science, and at least a rating of 6 in Mathematics on the NSC, or a pass in Mathematics deemed to be the equivalent.

A limited number of students who do not meet the strict criteria of Rule S.10 may be admitted under the auspices of the Science Extended Studies Programme (see Rules S.39 to S.41).

S.12
S.12.1 A candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Science (Information Systems) must obtain at least 360 NQF credits in courses as set out in the following curriculum:

FIRST AND SECOND YEARS
1. Computer Science (CSC 1 and CSC 2)
2. Information Systems (INF 2)
3. Economics (ECO 1) OR Management (MAN 1) but see S.12.3
4. Accounting (ACC 1)
5. Statistics (STA 1S1 or STA 1C2, or MST 102 as a prerequisite for MST 2)
6. Mathematics (MAT 1S1 or MAM 101, or MAM 1 as a prerequisite for MST 2)
7. Electronics Literacy (PHY 1E2)
8. Business problem solving with computers (CSC 112) (must be taken in the first year as it is the prerequisite for Information Systems)
9. Two further semester-courses in Management or Economics or Mathematics or Statistics or Mathematical Statistics or some other Science subject approved by the Dean.

THIRD YEAR
1. Computer Science 3

S.12.2 Candidates will be advised at registration as to how the first two years of these degrees are to be structured, taking into account timetable constraints and their previous performance or experience in Computer Studies and Mathematics. Normally candidates will be required to register for Computer Science, Accounting, Economics, Management, MAM 101 and CSC 112.

S.12.3 Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Science (Information Systems) who fail CSC 2 in their second year at Rhodes will be required to change registration to a degree in the Faculty of Commerce.

S.12.4. Candidates who wish to move from the degree of Bachelor of Science (Information Systems) to the degree of Bachelor of Science and wish to major in both Computer Science and Information Systems will be permitted an additional 60 NQF credits obtained for Accounting, Management or Economics from their Bachelor of Science (Information Systems) degree.

RULES COMMON TO THE BSc AND BSc(InfSys) DEGREES

S.13
If a candidate for the BSc and BSc(InfSys) degree selects more than the minimum number of courses required for a degree, the additional courses may be in any of the subjects offered in the faculties of Science, Commerce, Humanities and Law.

S.14
S.14.1 At the start of the year students will normally register for both components of each semesterised subject, unless they make it clear that they intend on obtaining credit for only one of the semester-courses, or to complete an outstanding component of a semesterised subject.

S.14.2 Students will be allowed to register for semester-courses held in the second semester in subjects for which they have not previously been registered (provided that they have met the prerequisite requirements for such courses). Such registrations will be at the discretion of the Dean, in consultation with the Head of the Department concerned.

S.14.3 Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, the last date for registration and change of course in the Faculty of Science shall be the end of the second full week of the semester in which the course begins.

S.14.4 Candidates who fail to perform adequately in the first semester component of a semesterised subject may have their registrations for the second semester component of that subject cancelled at the discretion of the Head of Department. This decision may sometimes be reversed, on appeal through the Head of Department to the Dean of the Faculty.
S.14.5 Candidates are strongly advised to include at least six second-year level semester-courses in their curricula. If candidates include only four second-year level semester-courses, they will be required to include three first-year level semester courses in order to ensure the correct number of NQF credits for the degree.

S.15.1 In all those subjects offered at a given NQF level as a pair of semester-courses, if both semester-courses are not passed outright, an aggregate of at least 50% in the pair may be deemed equivalent to credit in a year-long aggregate course for that subject, as the Department may allow. See Rule S.16.2.
S.15.2 Students who do not obtain credit for both components, but who meet the requirements for an aggregated course, will have their academic transcripts amended to show that an aggregated continuing course (ACR) or aggregated non-continuing course (NCR) has been achieved in the appropriate subject, as the Department may allow.
S.15.3 Candidates cannot obtain credit for an aggregated course in addition to credit for one of its semesterised components.

S.16.1 Credit for any course normally requires that a student score an overall mark of at least 50%. At the discretion of the Board, non-continuing credit may occasionally be awarded for an overall mark of at least 48%.
S.16.2 Credit for an aggregated course of a semesterised subject requires that a student has met any adequate performance subminima imposed for each constituent.
S.16.3 Subjects for which aggregated credit may be granted are shown in the table that accompanies Rule S.22.
S.16.4 If an aggregated pass is not achieved, credit for any constituent semester-course passed can still be earned towards the degree as a whole.
S.16.5 In the case of first-year first semester subjects, candidates awarded supplementary examinations in terms of Rule S.24.1 who have scored the necessary sub-minimum may be permitted either to write the supplementary examination in August, or to take a chance of obtaining an aggregate pass if the Department feels that their performance in the remaining (November) paper may achieve this.
S.16.6 Aggregated courses will normally only be granted on the basis of marks earned for the first semester course of a subject obtained in June (or for the replacement mark earned during the August supplementary examination for that course) and for the second semester course obtained in November (or at a supplementary examination in the following February) of a single academic year.

S.16.7 Aggregate year-courses may be obtained only for two semester-courses comprising a single subject, with the following exceptions:

<thead>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Zoology 1</td>
<td>Cell Biology (CEL 101) and Zoology (ZOO 102)</td>
</tr>

Note: Aggregated year-courses may not be earned for both Geography 1 and Geology 1; at most three semester-courses may be earned for EAR 101, GOG 102, GLG 102. Similarly, aggregated year-courses may not be earned for both Botany 1 and Zoology 1; credit for at most three semester-courses may be earned for CEL 101, BOT 102, ZOO 102.

S.17
For the purposes of Rule G.7 as it applies to the Faculty of Science, students may be refused permission to renew registration in the Faculty if they are deemed to be unable to profit from further study, or if they have failed:
S.17.1 by the end of their first year of full-time attendance at this university or any other university to have obtained at least 60 NQF credits, which is equivalent to two year-courses or four semester-courses or an equivalent combination thereof; or
S.17.2 at the end of their second year of full-time attendance at this or any other university to have obtained at least 120 NQF credits, which is equivalent to four year-courses or eight semester-courses or an equivalent combination thereof, and are prerequisite courses for at least two NQF level 6 courses; or
S.17.3 at the end of their third year of full-time attendance at this or any other university to have obtained at least 180 NQF credits, which is equivalent to six year-courses or twelve semester-credits or a combination thereof of which at least 60 credits of which should be at least NQF level 6; or
S.17.4 at the end of every calendar year of study to have passed a minimum of half of the courses for which they were registered with the Dean’s approval; or S.17.5 to have completed the undergraduate degree within a period of five years; or S.17.6 (for students enrolled on the Science Extended Studies Programme) by the end of the first year of study to have passed all courses offered as part of the programme and to have achieved an average of 60% in the Extended Studies Programme courses (CSC 1S, MAT 1F, ISCM 1F) read in order to qualify for entry into mainstream courses in the following year.

S.18.1 A candidate is not permitted to obtain certain overlapping combinations of subjects. The table below lists, for each of certain subjects and courses, those other courses for which credit will not also be given:

S.19
Except with the permission of Senate, candidates shall be deemed to be in their first year of study until they have obtained at least 90 NQF credits at the NQF level 5 as specified in Rule S.2 or S.13; they shall be deemed to be in their third year of study when they have obtained at least 150 NQF credits (120 at NQF level 5 and at least 30 at NQF level 6 as to continue with the subject into third year), otherwise they shall be in their second year of study.

S.20
S.20.1 Candidates may present themselves for examination in not more than the equivalent of eight semester-courses in the first year of study for a BSc, and in not more than the equivalent of ten semester-courses in the first year of study for a BSc(InfSys); provided that the Senate may permit candidates for a BSc to present themselves for examination in two additional semester-courses approved by the Senate. S.20.2 Candidates may present themselves for examination in not more than the equivalent of eight semester-courses in their second year of study and not more than the equivalent of six semester-courses in their final year of study; provided that candidates in their final year of study may be permitted by Senate to present themselves at supplementary examinations for which they are eligible under Rule G.37, so as to obtain credit for two additional semester-courses in subjects in which they have previously failed.

S.21.1 Except with the permission of Senate, candidates may not enter the second year of any subject unless they have obtained credit for first-year level courses equivalent to 90 NQF credits, and may not enter the third year of any subject until they have obtained credit for courses equivalent to 150 NQF credits.
S.21.2 Notwithstanding Rule S.22.1, candidates may not register for second year courses in the second semester if they have not previously been registered as second year students in the first semester.

S.22.1 Except with permission of the Senate, candidates may not enter courses in any subject unless they have satisfied all prerequisite conditions imposed for entry into such courses.
S.22.2 There may be prerequisite required course(s) that must be obtained before a candidate may register for a particular course. Similarly, a co-requisite is a required course that must be obtained before a candidate may be awarded the degree.
S.22.3 Permission of the Senate is necessary to attend any course concurrently with a higher level course for which it is a prerequisite. Permission will not normally be given to attend a required first course concurrently with a final course. Applications in this regard should be made to the Dean of the Faculty at registration.
S.22.4 A candidate who has passed the final course of a major subject, but has failed in a prescribed co-requisite, may rewrite the examination in that course without being required to rewrite the examination in the related major subject.
S.22.5 The accompanying tables summarise, for each major Science subject and include those constituent prerequisite(s) and co-requisite(s) courses required for the subject.

S.23.1 Except with permission of the Senate, candidates may not enter courses in any subject unless they have satisfied all prerequisite conditions imposed for entry into such courses, and may not obtain credit for any subjects until they have obtained credit in all prescribed ancillary courses for such subjects.
S.23.2 There may be prerequisite (ancillary) requirements that must be met before a candidate may register for a particular course, and similar requirements that must be met before a candidate may obtain credit for a given course. Credit requirements will usually be stricter than registration requirements, which might stipulate “adequate performance” in an ancillary subject (or even at a lower level in the same subject) rather than “credit”.
S.23.3 Permission of the Senate is necessary to attend any course concurrently with a higher level course for which it is a prerequisite. Permission will not normally be given to attend a required first course concurrently with a final course. Applications in this regard should be made to the Dean of the Faculty at Registration.
S.23.4 A candidate who has passed the final course of a major subject, but has failed in a prescribed ancillary subject, may rewrite the examination in that ancillary subject without being required to rewrite the examination in the related major subject.
S.23.5 The accompanying tables summarise, for each major subject, those constituent credits and ancillary subjects in which credit must be obtained, and, for specific constituents, the prerequisite credits needed for registration.
The following notes apply to the courses marked with the appropriate superior numbers in the tables below; for further details, candidates should consult the departmental entries elsewhere in the Calendar.

1. Permission may be given to register for this course concurrently with the course for which it is a required ancillary however it is expected that students will attempt the course in their first year.

2. A candidate who has passed Organizational Psychology 2 may take Psychology 3, but only with the permission of the Head of the Department. A candidate who has completed Psychology 2 may not proceed to Organizational Psychology 3, except with the permission of the Head of the Department, in which case additional coursework assignments will normally be set in which a specified level of performance must be achieved. In the event that candidates do not attain the specified level of performance by the end of the first term their registration will revert to Psychology 3.

3. MAT 1S has replaced MAT 1P which was taught in 2012 and earlier.

4. MAT 1S and MAT 1F are equivalent single-semester credit courses. The difference is that MAT 1F is taught over two semesters and MAT 1S over one.

S.24.1 Students who have failed first-year first-semester courses but who have reached the necessary subminima may, on the recommendation of the Head of Department, be admitted to supplementary examinations, normally written in August. Students who have passed first-year first-semester courses, but who wish to try to improve their classification may also be admitted to such examinations.

S.24.2 Only in exceptional circumstances will supplementary examinations be allowed in second- or third-year semester-courses for subjects offered by the Faculty of Science (see S.2).

S.24.3 Notwithstanding S.24.2, a supplementary examination will be permitted for the last semester course outstanding for the degree and for a course taken in the final calendar year of study provided that the student has previously written the examination for the course concerned.

S.24.4 A candidate who sits a supplementary examination for a first year semester course shall have the higher mark and classification earned in the two examinations recorded for that semester-course, and any computation of an aggregate course mark shall be based on the higher marks earned for the constituent examinations.

The degree certificate of a candidate who passes with a Class 1 (≥75%) in the final course of a major subject shall be endorsed with distinction in that subject. For the purpose of this rule, the final mark in a major subject shall, where applicable, be taken as the average mark of the semester-course components.

POSTGRADUATE DEGREES

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF SCIENCE WITH HONOURS

S.26

Candidates shall not be admitted to any course for an honours degree unless they have been awarded the ordinary degree, or have been admitted to the status thereof; or have completed all the requirements therefore, except the requirements regarding attendance. Attention is drawn to the provisions of Rule G.49 of the General Rules.

S.27

S.27.1 Candidates shall not be admitted to any course for the honours degree unless they have obtained the permission of the Board of the Faculty on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned. Normally candidates will not be admitted to an honours course unless they have obtained at least a second class pass in the final year of the subject in which they wish to take honours.

S.27.2 The continued registration of honours candidates beyond the first semester may be dependent on a satisfactory review of their progress.

S.28

A candidate who has satisfied the requirements of Rule S.27 by completing an ordinary degree in a faculty other than Science may, with the approval of Senate, be admitted to the status of BSc, and allowed to study for the degree of BSc(Hons).

S.29

S.29.1 A candidate shall attend the University for not less than one academic year after satisfying the requirements of Rule S.26, and pursue a course of advanced study in a subject approved by the Senate.

S.29.3 A non-Science subject (as defined in Rule S.2) may also be offered for the honours degree; except that a candidate for an honours degree in such a subject may be required to obtain permission to transfer registration to the Faculty in which the subject is normally offered, and to proceed to an honours degree in that Faculty, depending on the combination of papers to be offered.

S.30.1 The honours degree normally requires a period of one year’s full-time study.
S.30.2 Senate may, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned, permit candidates to take honours courses over two years as full-time or as part-time students; provided that they attend the honours classes (including practicals) within the normal timetable of the Department, and that the honours course is spread over two years, but, except with the special permission of the Senate, no more than two years.
S.30.3 Students who originally register to take the honours degree over two years may, if progress is satisfactory, be allowed to change registration to complete the degree in the first year as full-time students. Full-time students who originally register to take the degree over one year may be advised by the Head of Department to take the degree over two years, or may opt to change registration to part-time. Any such changes must be effected no later than the end of the second week of the second semester.
S.30.4 Full-time candidates may withdraw from an Honours course during the second semester, but may not alter their registrations otherwise. On the recommendation of the Head of Department, candidates who withdraw may be permitted to register for the course in the following year, but will be required to complete all requirements for examination (including practical and project work) as though they had not previously been registered.
S.30.5 Any project work that forms part of the examinable material of an Honours degree must be completed and submitted before the final examinations are written.

A candidate may not take up any full-time employment while engaged in the course. However, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned, with the approval of Senate, part-time employment is permitted.

S.32
An honours candidate may, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department concerned and with the permission of Senate, attend concurrently and write the examination of two undergraduate semester-courses in the same or another department.

S.33
S.33.1 Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, or as provided in Rule S.33.2, the subject of an honours degree shall be one which the candidate has completed as a major subject for the ordinary degree.
S.33.2 Candidates for Honours degrees in some subjects not offered as major subjects in the ordinary degree shall normally have credit in cognate major subjects as provided as follows:

S.34
Candidates may, with the approval of the Senate, present themselves for examination in more than one subject; provided that the Heads of the relevant Departments have agreed upon the contents of the course and the structure of the examination. If more than 60% of the honours degree programme is given in one subject, the degree will be awarded in that subject. If between 40% and 60% of the degree programme is given in each of two subjects, the degree will be awarded as a joint degree in the two subjects.

S.35
Candidates who fail an honours examination paper may be permitted by the Senate to re-present themselves at most once for that examination paper, and for this purpose they shall be required to re-attend the course prior to such re-examination.

S.36
Subject to any exceptions approved by the Senate, a candidate must write all parts of the examination at one time, and shall not be exempted from any part of such examination; provided that students who are required to take the degree over two years may, on the recommendation of the Head of Department, and with the permission of Senate, write part of the examination at the end of the first year of study, and part at the end of the second year of study.

DEGREES OF MASTER OF SCIENCE, DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY AND DOCTOR OF SCIENCE
See General Rules and individual departmental entries.

S.37
The continued registration of MSc and PhD students (and, in particular, past the first year) is conditional on the Dean receiving satisfactory reports on their progress.

S.38
Applications to upgrade from MSc to PhD registration must be made on the official form and must normally be submitted within the first 18 months of registration.
THE SCIENCE EXTENDED STUDIES PROGRAMME

Special provision is made in the Faculty of Science to accommodate students who would not normally be admitted to the curricula for the degrees of Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Science (Information Systems), or who are identified as having potential, but as lacking an adequate educational background in certain key subjects. The Science Extended Studies Programme extends over a year, during which specially designed courses are offered, which earn credit towards a full degree.

S.39
S.39.1 Candidates shall not normally be admitted to the Science Extended Studies Programme unless they are in possession of a National Senior Certificate or a matriculation certificate issued by the Matriculation Board, or have obtained a certificate of exemption therefrom.
S.39.2 Candidates are normally expected to have achieved at least a level 4 in Mathematics in the NSC, and to have achieved at least a level 4 in either Biology or Physical Science at the NSC.

S.40
S.40.1 A student admitted to the full Science Extended Studies Programme will register for a first-year curriculum that will earn 60 NQF credits if completed: Computer Skills for Science 1S, Introduction to Science Concepts and Methods, Mathematics 1F.
S.40.2 A student admitted to the Science Extended Studies Programme is required to obtain ISCM 1F, CSC 1S and/or MAT 1F before later being admitted to other full courses.
S.40.3 A student admitted to the Science Extended Studies Programme is expected to obtain at least 360 NQF credits before being awarded a BSc degree.
S.40.4 Attention is drawn to Rule S.17 and Rule S.22.

S.41
A candidate admitted to the Science Extended Studies Programme may be permitted by the Dean to change registration to a regular curriculum during the first two weeks of the academic year.

Accounting 1 consists of two one-semester courses ACC 101 and ACC 102 or ACC 112. Credit may be obtained in any of the courses separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a two-semester course ACC 1, provided that the courses constituting Accounting 1 are read in the same year and a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each course (see Rule C.12). Credit in ACC 101 and ACC 102 or ACC 1 with ACC 101 and ACC 102 aggregated at the required level is a pre-requisite for admission to ACC 2.

Accounting 1F (ACC 1F) consists of ACC 101 taken over a full year and Accounting 1G (ACC 1G) consists of ACC 102 taken over a full year. Only students who have credit in ACC 1F may register for ACC 1G. Credit in ACC 1F and ACC 1G is equivalent to credit in ACC 1.

The course includes on-site introduction to a variety of heritage contexts in South Africa and forms of management. It critically engages with national and international dialogues on heritage management, offering valuable insights from the local perspective. Students are encouraged to craft new definitions of heritage and to consider innovative approaches to heritage management, so as to respond to the existing and potentially hegemonic definitions of the concept and its dominant approaches. The course content includes both theoretical and experiential learning and students are required to take up internship placements or workplace reflections at heritage institutions in the second semester.

General background
Bioinformatics and computational molecular biology is the systematic development and application of information technologies and data mining techniques for analysing biological data obtained by experiments, modelling, database searching and instrumentation to make novel observations and predictions about biological function. This course will be taught in an interdisciplinary manner and focusing on the interface between the computational sciences and the biological, physical and chemical sciences. Graduates who complete this course will be skilled in the assimilation of biological information through the use and development of computational tools for a range of applications including simple pattern recognition, molecular modelling for the prediction of structure and function, gene discovery and drug target discovery, the analysis of phylogenetic relationships, whole genome analysis and the comparison of genetic organization.
Eligibility
Candidates who hold a BSc Honours degree with subjects from the life sciences (especially Biochemistry, Genetics and Microbiology), Chemistry, Computer Science, Mathematics, Physics and Statistics and who have basic computer literacy, may apply for admission.
Course structure:
The Master’s programme will be offered over 12 months and incorporates a number of course work modules and a research project. The course work modules will involve an integration of formal lectures, self-learning computer-based tutorials and practicals. In addition, problem solving tutorials would be designed to guide the student through current information-based problems and involve the assimilation and reduction of biological information. A number of the tutorials and practical components will be assessed and contribute towards a course work year mark. The examination of the course work component would be through oral and open-book theory examinations. The course work component will be externally examined.

A number of research projects will be offered, depending on the interests of the academic staff associated with the program.

The projects will be assessed by seminar presentations of the proposed and final work, and as a written thesis that will be externally examined.

Course work modules
The course work consists of modules and lectures on introductory and advanced topics including computer operating systems and programming (e.g. Linux, Python and MatLab), basic statistics, databases, basic and advanced genomics, comparative genomics, metagenomics and structural bioinformatics (e.g. homology modelling, protein-ligand, protein-protein interactions, protein engineering).

Assessment:
The course work modules will be assessed by internal grading of tutorials and practicals, and by internal and external grading of work assignments, mini-projects and examinations. The project report and thesis will be graded internally and externally. The overall course work mark and the thesis mark will each contribute equally to the final mark. Successful completion of the course will be subject to a final mark of at least 50%, provided that a candidate obtains at least 50% for the course work, with a sub-minimum of at least 40% from each module (with at least 40% in the examination) and at least 50% for the project report, project presentations and thesis.

BOTANY HONOURS

Year-long course (120 credits at NQF level 8)

Course description: The Botany Honours degree focuses on plant ecology and evolution in the context of global change. Plants form the basis for all life on earth, but the conditions for plant growth are rapidly changing due to climate change, elevated atmospheric CO$_2$ concentrations, biological invasions and land transformation. The last decades have seen widespread vegetation change, including woody encroachment of savannas and ecosystem shifts caused by invasive species. Climate change and increased atmospheric CO$_2$ also alter plant-animal interactions and their outcomes, including plant-pollinator relationships and the susceptibility of invasive plants to biological control. The course includes a field trip, seminars, tutorials and a research project, and is intended to provide the student with the opportunity for in-depth study in particular aspects of the subject. Botany Honours may serve as relevant training for subsequent employment or as a step between an undergraduate degree and a research degree. Modules include: savanna ecology, pollination biology, invasion biology, molecular ecology and evolution, advanced systematics, climate change and stress physiology, and rehabilitation and disturbance ecology.

DP requirements:

Assessment: Class record 40%, Project 35%, June Examination 10%, November Examination 15%

Supplementary exam: None

JOINT HONOURS

Joint Honours courses may be followed subject to approval by both departments, where topics from the Botany Honours course may be taken in combination with courses in some other Departments (for example, Geography, Entomology, Environmental Science, Ichthyology or Zoology).

MSC AND PHD DEGREES

Suitably qualified students are encouraged to proceed to the research degrees of MSc (180 credits at the NQF level 9) and PhD (360 credits at the NQF level 10) under the direction of the staff of the Department or associated Institutes. Requirements for the MSc and PhD degrees are given in the General Rules.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN ENTERPRISE MANAGEMENT

The target candidates are graduate students, other than those who have majored in Management (or the equivalent), seeking a qualification to equip them to start their own business and/or to enhance their entry into employment in business. The Diploma is offered on a one-year full-time basis or an intensive one-year part-time basis. The part-time programme is offered to graduates who are currently employed in a full-time capacity but realise the value of in-depth management education to enhance their career prospects.

Course Structure: The Diploma comprises seven modules (both on the full-time and the part-time basis) and a project. For the full-time option, the students take part in a group based Alpha Project. Students will be required to start and run a micro-enterprise that spans the duration of the course and in so doing will learn about entrepreneurship, through entrepreneurship and for entrepreneurship.

For the part-time option, the students take part in a group focused Case Based Learning Project. Students will be required to analyse a business case and document an integrated review and response to the challenges and opportunities raised and in so doing will learn about solving contemporary business issues in a holistic fashion.

Full-time option: this course runs within the normal Rhodes University academic calendar with daily lectures through the university term calendar and exams during the university exam timetable.

Part-time option: This course runs over 4 one week teaching blocks through the year. Teaching blocks normally take place during the following months: Block 1 – January, Block 2 – May, Block 3 – August and Block 4 – spread evenly through the year in one-week slots. Teaching blocks 1-3 take place in attendance at Rhodes University. Normal class times are from 8am to 6pm. Teaching block 4 is a virtual classroom type where students are expected to link into the classroom from their own location via the Internet. Examinations and /or tests are written during the teaching blocks.

To qualify for the Diploma, candidates must attain at least 50% for the Project, 50% or more for at least six of the remaining seven modules listed below and an overall aggregate of at least 50%. In addition, a sub-minimum requirement of 45% applies to each module. In the case of a candidate passing six modules and attaining an overall aggregate of 50% or more but failing to attain the subminimum in one module, he or she shall be awarded a supplementary examination for that module.

For the full-time course only: It is possible*, however, subject to a maximum of three modules, for a candidate to be exempted from writing the examination for a module, with a credit being awarded for the module, if the candidate obtains at least 70% for all individual assignments and for all tests for the paper, with two internal moderators concurring regarding the marks awarded for both forms of assessment and a review of the written work by the external examiner.

*in the same way that a last outstanding credit would normally be treated.

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN BUSINESS ANALYSIS

The purpose of the Diploma is to provide a qualification for Business Analysis professionals that will enable them to strategically, operationally and critically address relevant methods, processes, systems and techniques that should be applied to achieve sustainable business performance. In so doing, the number and quality of working Business Analysts in Africa who are able to effectively communicate and apply their understanding of the theory, principles, purpose, role, methods and techniques of business analysis, business modelling and business process improvement to achieve sustainable business performance will be achieved.

The PGDip(Business Analysis) is a one year, full-time or one and a half year, part-time modular programme, comprising four modules, where students are required to attend four teaching blocks. Between teaching blocks, students are required to complete practical assignments. A practical 24 hour examination is undertaken at the commencement of the 4th teaching block, covering all four modules. A Project, with supporting Portfolio of Evidence (POE), is to be submitted by the end of the second semester for full-time students or at the end of the first semester of the second year for part-time students.

Modules constituting the PGDip(Business Analysis) course and their respective aims are:

• Module 1: Sustainable Business Models: Provide a strategic context to Business Analysis and develop capability to effectively engage with the entity’s stakeholders to design and implement sustainable business models, processes and systems.

• Module 2: Business Process Modelling: Undertake critical evaluation of business process methodologies and tools and develop capability in utilising them to achieve sustainable business performance.

• Module 3: Business Process Analysis: Undertake critical evaluation of business process improvement approaches and develop capability to deploy and harness them to achieve sustainable business performance.

• Module 4: Communicating and Consulting: Undertake critical evaluation of all the soft skills requirements, aptitude, and characteristics to be an effective Business Analyst.

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The Rhodes MBA is a course-work degree comprising 18 courses (made up of core courses and electives) and either a research mini-thesis of 15 000 words or two case studies of 7 500 words each. The degree is offered on a part-time, modular basis over two years or on a full-time, modular basis over one and a half years. If part-time, candidates are required to attend three two-week teaching blocks in Grahamstown each year of the first two years and to complete work-based assignments in the periods between the teaching blocks. If full-time, the coursework is completed in six two-week teaching blocks in the first year. The final six months in both cases, is dedicated to the completion of the research mini-thesis or case studies.

Normally candidates will only be admitted to the programme if they hold at least a NQF level 8 qualification (i.e. An Honour’s Degree or Post Graduate Diploma) in any discipline, are fluent in English, and have had at least three years relevant practical experience. All applicants are required to sit the NMAT by GMAC™ Admission Test, or GMAT if the NMAT is not available in their country of residence. Furthermore, those applicants for whom English is a foreign language are required to sit an appropriate English language test.

Accelerated Programme
In certain circumstances, candidates may be permitted to register on an accelerated programme, whereby the degree can be completed in a year and a half. Chemistry (CHE) is a six-semester subject, which may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BCom and BJourn. To major in Chemistry a candidate is required to obtain a pass in CHE 1; CHE 2; and CHE 3; as well as two semester-long courses, normally comprised of one full first-year course in Mathematics (MAM 1), or a semester each of Mathematics (MAM 101 or MAT 1S1) and Statistics (STA 1S1, STA 1C2, MST 102). Students are advised to discuss their choice of the above courses with the Head of the Chemistry Department. Students are also referred to the relevant Departmental Calendar sections that limit entry into CSC 102, PHY 102 and MST 102 to those performing satisfactorily in the corresponding 101 courses. See also Rule S.23. Two, or in some cases four, Chemistry semester courses are allowed for other degree/diploma curricula in the Faculties of Humanities and Education. In particular, both CHE 101 and CHE 102 are required (or the equivalent aggregated course CHE 1) for admission to BPharm 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in the theory section of each course separately. Each undergraduate year is offered as a pair of semester-long courses. All semester-courses are subject to a sub-minimum in the theory paper/s. See the Departmental Web Page for further details, particularly the content of courses and their requirements.

FIRST-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN CHEMISTRY

4 lectures, 1 tutorial and 3 hours of practical weekly.

Note: Students in Chemistry in 101 are expected to have a knowledge of chemistry at the standard of Physical Science in the National Senior Certificate.

There are two semester courses in Chemistry in first-year: CHE 101 is offered in the first semester and CHE 102 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately or, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-course CHE 1, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum of 40% in the theory papers of each course separately and 45% of the overall for each course. Supplementary examinations may be recommended in either course, provided that a candidate achieves a minimum standard specified by the Department.

Continuation Requirements
Candidates obtaining less than 20% in the theory paper of CHE 101 in the June examination are not permitted to continue with any Chemistry course in that year. A mark of at least 40% in the theory paper of CHE 101 is required for entry into CHE 102. Candidates who achieve this standard, but fail to obtain at least 50% overall, may join the CHE 102 course in July, but must write the CHE 101 supplementary examination paper in August. The higher of the two marks for the CHE 101 papers will count (see Rule S.25.5). Candidates who obtain between 20% and 39% in the theory paper of CHE 101 in June cannot continue into CHE 102. They must transfer to the remedial course, Chemistry 1R1, to revise the topics from CHE 101 for re-examination in November, but will continue with the CHE 102 practical course. In the following year, candidates with CHE 101 or 1R1 (but not for CHE 102) must register for CHE 1R2 in the first semester and if they pass the course requirements satisfactorily in June, will obtain CHE 1R2, which is equivalent to CHE 102. Those students who fail the CHE 1R2 examination in June will proceed into the mainstream CHE 102 in the second semester, and rewrite the CHE 102 paper in November.

The Centre for Higher Education Research, Teaching and Learning specialises in the study of the field of higher education. The Centre offers programmes leading to a range of qualifications in higher education including the Postgraduate Diploma in Higher Education, MEd and PhD. It also conducts research into higher education.

The Centre offers three versions of the Postgraduate Diploma in Higher Education (PGDip (HE)): one for lecturers at Rhodes University, another for lecturers from other higher education institutions and one for academic developers.

The purpose of the Postgraduate Diploma in Higher Education (PGDip (HE)) is to facilitate the professional development of lecturers as reflexive practitioners in higher education by developing their knowledge of Higher Education (HE) as a field of study. The programme is designed to enhance participants’ competence in facilitating, enabling and assessing students’ learning. It provides professional accreditation for HE practitioners. Shifts in higher education around globalisation and transformation imperatives, have increased expectations that academics should negotiate new challenges and identities. These international changes have particular nuances in the South African context where historical disadvantage, social justice and transformation need to be redressed. This course aims to strengthen lecturers’ ability to respond meaningfully to these challenges and to meet the learning needs of their students.

See Education Department

The Centre also functions as a resource to the University in support of the achievement of its mission and vision. To this end, it is involved in the promotion and assurance of quality in relation to teaching and learning and the development of academic staff as professional educators.

The Centre also incorporates an Extended Studies Unit which is responsible for the development, co-ordination and teaching of four-year degrees in the Faculties of Commerce, Humanities and Science.
Computer Science (CSC) is a six-semester subject which may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BSc(InfSys), BCom, BJourn, BA and BEcon.

To major in Computer Science, a candidate is required to obtain credit in the following courses: CSC 1; CSC 2; CSC 3; one of MAT 1C1 (or MAT 1C), MAT 1S, STA 101, STA 102, STA 1D. See Rule S.23.

Candidates who aim to major in Computer Science are advised to register for the ancillary course in Mathematics or Statistics in their first or second year of study; permission will not normally be granted to repeat a prerequisite course concurrently with CSC 301 and CSC 302.

The attention of students who hope to pursue careers in the fields of Computing and Information Systems in general is drawn to the degree of BSc (Information Systems), in which Computer Science and Information Systems are the usual major subjects, supported by other appropriate courses from the Faculties of Science and Commerce.

The courses offered in Computer Science concentrate on the technology, engineering, project management and professional topics of computing, such as programming and application development, algorithm and system design, software engineering, operating systems and real-time computing, graphics, multimedia, artificial intelligence, networks and distributed computing, telecommunications and the Internet, and formal computer science theory. Management and organisational aspects of computing are handled more specifically in courses offered by the Department of Information Systems, and aspects such as computer and digital electronics and hardware are complemented by courses offered in the Department of Physics and Electronics. In all courses students are required to perform practical work on the computer, the marks of which might count towards the final assessment. See the Departmental Web Page http://www.ru.ac.za/computerscience for further details, particularly on the contents of courses.

First-Year Level Courses in Computer Science

There are four first-year courses in Computer Science, each contributing a semester-course towards a degree.

CSC 101 is offered in the first semester only, and leads on to CSC 102 in the second semester. This is the conventional first year combination, which prepares students for further study in the subject. Each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-course CSC 1, provided that a candidate obtains the required subminimum in each component. However, students who wish to major in Computer Science must obtain both CSC 101 and CSC 102. Students admitted to the Science, Commerce or Humanities Extended Studies Programmes, or who have little or no experience of computers, are required at the discretion of the Dean and Head of Department to complete a Computer Skills course in the Extended Studies Unit before registering for CSC 101.

CSC 1L1 (Introduction to ICT) is offered in the first semester, and is intended as a terminal course.

CSC 112 is offered in the second semester and is the prerequisite for Information Systems 201.

A candidate is not allowed to obtain CSC 1L1 and CSC 1S, offered by the CHERTL.

A candidate may also not obtain CSC 101 and CSC 1L1.

Drama is a three-year major subject which may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculty of Humanities.

Drama courses are designed to give wide experience in and appreciation of the creative and technical skills associated with theatre: acting, creative writing, dance, design, physical theatre, stage management, theatre-making, and voice. On a personal level, drama encourages growth, self-esteem and confidence by developing communication, interpersonal and collaborative skills. All courses have a theoretical component including literary, critical and performance studies. Professional theatre practitioners are periodically invited to contribute to the production and learning programme. As the department is relatively small, there are ample opportunities in theatre-making and choreography as well as in performance and stage management. Students are required to take part in the production, community and learning activities of the department.

The department also hosts two acclaimed theatre companies: the First Physical Theatre Company and the Ubom! Eastern Cape Drama Company. The department participates extensively in the National Arts Festival, Regional Schools’ Festivals and the National Schools’ Festival.

STRUCTURE OF COURSES AND RULES
Economics is a three-year major subject which may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculties of Commerce, Humanities and Science. One, or in some cases two, courses in Economics are allowed as courses for degree/diploma curricula in the Faculties of Education and Law. Post graduate studies in Economics are available through Honours, Master’s and Doctoral degrees.

Economics 1 consists of TWO semester courses (1 per semester):
CODE COURSE SEMESTER OFFERED
ECO 102 Macroeconomics 2

Credit may be obtained in any of the courses separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a two-semester course ECO 1, provided that the courses constituting Economics 1 are read in the same year and a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each course (see Rule C.12).

Economics 2 consists of TWO semester courses (1 per semester):
CODE COURSE SEMESTER OFFERED
ECO 202 Macroeconomics 1

Credit may be obtained in any of the courses separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a two-semester course ECO 2, provided that the courses constituting Economics 2 are read in the same year and a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each course (see Rule C.12).

Economics 3 consists of FOUR half-semester modules from the following list:

*CODE MODULE SEMESTER OFFERED
ECO 312 International Trade 1
ECO 313 Public Finance 2
ECO 314 South African Economy 2
ECO 315 Econometrics 1
ECO 316 Money, Banking & International Finance 2
ECO 317 Environmental Economics 1
ECO 318 Mathematical Economics 1
ECO 319 Any other paper approved by the Department

Credit may be obtained in any four of the modules separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a two-semester course ECO 3, provided that the four modules constituting Economics 3 are read in the same year and that a sub-minimum of 45% is obtained for at least two modules, with credits being obtained in the remaining two modules; or that a sub-minimum of 40% is obtained for one module, with credits being obtained for the remaining three modules (see Rule C.12).

Economics 3B consists of TWO half-semester modules (normally one per semester) from the list under Economics 3. Students registered for both Economics 3 and Economics 3B would take 6 courses (three per semester) in total.

Credit may be obtained in any of the two modules separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a two-semester course ECO 3B, provided that the two modules constituting Economics 3B are read in the same year and a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each course (see Rule C.12).

Econometrics is strongly recommended for students planning to do Honours. The Department reserves the right to offer second and third year courses in either Semester 1 or Semester 2 and to withdraw any of the third-year courses.

ADVANCED CERTIFICATE IN EDUCATION
(Foundation Phase Literacy Teaching)

Computer Literacy (to be done in year 1 or 2)
NQF Level: 5
Credits: 12
Fundamental/Optional (depending on need)
Course description: This module is aimed at providing teachers with basic computer literacy. The focus will be on using a laptop for teaching purposes (all FP teachers in the Eastern Cape have been issued with laptops). Students will be taught how to:
• create, save and access documents
• access the internet and find appropriate resources (e.g. African Storybook, Nalibali)
• access Rhodes library resources online and RU Connected
• use their laptops for recording and analyzing learner assessments
• use PowerPoint for presentations
• use their laptops for online communication with lecturers and online learning
• maintain laptops e.g. protect them from computer viruses

An assessment of prior learning will be carried out before this module; if students pass the assessment they will not be required to do this module.

CAPS Reading Activities
NQF Level: 6
Credits: 10
Course description: The purpose of this module is to enable students to understand the educational principles underlying the teaching of reading in the Foundation phase curriculum. It provides an overview of how children learn to read and demonstrates how the various activities for reading texts specified in CAPS (Read Aloud, Shared Reading and Writing, Group Guided Reading, Paired Reading and Independent Reading), enable the learner to move along a continuum of shifting support for reading. The module outlines the importance of the teacher enabling learners to become independent readers and writers through a gradual release of responsibility from high to low support. It explains how this enables teachers to meet the needs of diverse learners in different contexts. Integral to each of the CAPS reading activities is the explicit teaching of vocabulary, decoding, word recognition, comprehension, and knowledge of text structure. If well used, the activities will develop fluency, comprehension, reading for pleasure and writing processes. In addition, this module guides teachers on texts required for teaching HL and FAL in the school curriculum. Use is made of specially produced video clips in a range of classrooms where isiXhosa is the language of learning and teaching (LoLT), to develop knowledge of practice, with knowledge in and through practice being developed through work integrated learning, group work and assignments. The Module therefore develops, in relation to early grade reading and writing, subject knowledge, pedagogical content knowledge, knowledge of the needs of learners in different contexts, knowledge of the curriculum and resources, ability to assess and to use assessment to guide teaching, classroom management and critical reflection skills. It develops Foundation Phase specialists in teaching reading and writing, and as learning mediators and interpreters of learning materials.

Emergent Literacy
NQF Level: 6
Credits: 10
Course description: This module looks at the early stages of learning to read and write, and how this plays out in different social contexts. It focuses on the importance of Grade R as a context for developing emergent literacy, especially where children are not getting extensive exposure to books at home, and particularly on how the Grade R teacher can support children’s language and literacy development. The focus is on oral language development in multilingual contexts, speaking and listening activities building on children’s natural curiosity and on emergent reading and writing (the skills, behaviours, attitudes and knowledge which children display in the process of learning to read and write conventionally). Account is taken of how young children learn. Storytelling, role play, drawing, sequencing, and shared reading and shared writing activities are covered. Teachers learn how to introduce a new sound and letter from a story, multisensory letter formation, phonological awareness and games to teach letter-sound knowledge. This is a process which begins well before school starts, but which is the primary focus of literacy development in Grade R. Use is made of specially produced video clips in Grade R classrooms where isiXhosa is the LoLT, to develop knowledge of practice, with knowledge in and through practice being developed through work integrated learning, group work and assignments. The Module therefore develops, in relation to early grade reading and writing, subject knowledge, pedagogical content knowledge, knowledge of the needs of learners in different situations, knowledge of the curriculum and resources, ability to assess and to use assessment to guide teaching, classroom management and critical reflection skills. It develops Foundation Phase specialists in teaching reading and writing, and as learning mediators and interpreters of learning materials.

Teaching Decoding
NQF Level: 6
Credits: 10
Course description: In this module, students are introduced to research showing that learning to decode is an essential step in learning to read with understanding. Expert reading teachers develop decoding skills in their learners in order to empower them to become good comprehenders. The module deals with four aspects (or subcomponents) of decoding that predict early reading success, namely, phonological and phonemic awareness, alphabetic knowledge and phonics, word recognition, and oral reading fluency. Teachers will gain a developmental perspective on these components and will be shown how to adapt their teaching emphasis across the grades. Through examples of practical classroom activities, teachers learn to develop skill in each of the decoding components, how to assess learners’ skills progress in each of the decoding components, and what the norms at each grade level are for HL and FAL. Account is taken of how the social context affects the achievement of these norms, and of diversity within classes. Use is made of specially produced video clips to develop knowledge of practice, with knowledge in and through practice being developed through work integrated learning, group work and assignments. The Module therefore develops, in relation to early grade reading and writing, subject knowledge, pedagogical content knowledge, knowledge of the needs of learners in different contexts, knowledge of the curriculum and resources, ability to assess and to use assessment to guide teaching, classroom management and critical reflection skills. It develops Foundation Phase specialists in teaching reading and writing, and as learning mediators and interpreters of learning materials.

Teaching Vocabulary
NQF Level: 6
Credits: 10
Course description: The purpose of this module is to increase teachers’ understanding of the importance of vocabulary in reading, the nature of vocabulary knowledge, how it develops, what factors can facilitate – or impede – word learning, and what strategies can be explicitly taught to help learners become more efficient word learners. It examines how the social and economic context influences children’s vocabulary development. Content knowledge regarding vocabulary is deepened, and strategies for both incidental and explicit vocabulary teaching are developed. Use is made of specially produced video clips to develop knowledge of practice, with knowledge in and through practice being developed through work integrated learning, group work and assignments. The Module therefore develops, in relation to early grade reading and writing, subject knowledge, pedagogical content knowledge, knowledge of the needs of learners in different contexts, knowledge of the curriculum and resources, ability to assess and to use assessment to guide teaching, classroom management and critical reflection skills. It develops Foundation Phase specialists in teaching reading and writing, and as learning mediators and interpreters of learning materials. reflection skills. It develops Foundation Phase specialists in teaching reading and writing, and as learning mediators and interpreters of learning materials.

Teaching Comprehension
NQF Level: 6
Credits: 10
Course description: This module focuses on comprehension processes and how to develop and assess them. Its purpose is to develop teacher’s awareness of the need to explicitly teach strategies that support and develop reading comprehension, and to develop their capacity to do so: how to use questions that help children to think about the meaning of what they read; how to teach about text structure and how this knowledge helps the reader to understand the text; and how to assess comprehension. Focusing on six comprehension strategies (using background knowledge, making predictions using clues from the text, visualising key aspects of the text, making inferences, monitoring and repairing comprehension, and summarising key ideas), teachers will learn to use the gradual release of responsibility framework to first model or “think aloud” about a strategy and then to employ shared, guided and eventually individual practice. The module develops the teacher’s ability to ask literal and inferential questions to help children to think about texts, as well as to help them to demonstrate their comprehension. It develops teachers’ understanding that comprehending different text types requires different comprehension strategies and that developing knowledge of genre serves to strengthen reading comprehension. Use is made of specially produced video clips in classrooms where isiXhosa is the LoLT to develop knowledge of practice, with knowledge in and through practice being developed through work integrated learning, group work and assignments. The Module therefore develops, in relation to early grade reading and writing, subject knowledge, pedagogical content knowledge, knowledge of the needs of learners in different contexts, knowledge of the curriculum and resources, ability to assess and to use assessment to guide teaching, classroom management and critical reflection skills. It develops Foundation Phase specialists in teaching reading and writing, and as learning mediators and interpreters of learning materials.

Teaching Writing and Handwriting
NQF Level 6
Credits: 10
Course description: This module aims to develop understanding of the reciprocal role of reading and writing and to provide the teacher with knowledge and tools for teaching writing to diverse learners in different contexts across the Foundation Phase. Learning to write is a process involving a number of elements that must be integrated and practised in order to achieve proficiency. The module covers stages of writing development and how the social and economic context influences learners’ progress through them; teaching writing using a process and genre approach; CAPS writing activities; teaching creative writing and ways to extend writing; teaching language, spelling and grammar and assessing writing. Guidance is provided regarding writing for different purposes and audiences, using the gradual release of responsibility framework with particular emphasis on shared writing. How and when to teach and assess handwriting in the foundation phase is also covered in this module. Use is made of specially produced video clips in classrooms where isiXhosa is the LoLT to develop knowledge of practice, with knowledge in and through practice being developed through work integrated learning, group work and assignments. The Module therefore develops in relation to early grade reading and writing, subject knowledge, pedagogical content knowledge, knowledge of the needs of learners in different contexts, knowledge of the curriculum and resources, ability to assess and to use assessment to guide teaching, classroom management and critical reflection skills. It develops Foundation Phase specialists in teaching reading and writing, and as learning mediators and interpreters of learning materials.

YEAR 2
Teaching EFAL in Foundation Phase (1)
NQF Level: 6
Credits: 10
Course description: The purpose of this module is to introduce principles rooted in research evidence, for teaching an additional language in the Foundation Phase and to develop the teacher’s knowledge and pedagogy for doing so. The module contextualises this within the South African Language-in-Education Policy, the current curriculum and current debates in relation to this. It focuses on setting up the classroom and doing baseline assessment at the start of the year, how to teach oral language, phonemic awareness, phonological awareness and phonics in English, and teaching reading in EFAL. Use is made of specially produced video clips in classrooms where English is the FAL to develop knowledge of practice, with knowledge in and through practice being developed through work integrated learning, group work and assignments. The Module therefore develops, in relation to early grade learning in EFAL, educational and subject knowledge, pedagogical content knowledge, knowledge of the needs of learners in different situations, knowledge of the curriculum and resources, classroom management and critical reflection skills. It develops Foundation Phase specialists in teaching reading and writing, and as learning mediators and interpreters of learning materials.

Creating a Culture of Reading
NQF Level: 6
Credits: 10
Course description: The purpose of this module is to help develop schools and teachers who can create a culture of reading at their schools so that children can see on a daily basis that reading is important, that books are valued, that being a good reader is desirable, and that learning about the world through books is a normal part of learning. The module draws on socio-cultural theory to enable students to understand how literacy becomes a social practice and related issues of identity and gender. It draws on psychological theories to enable students to see the role of motivation and other affective factors in learning to read and write. The module suggests ways that teachers can encourage and motivate their learners to read and to perceive reading as something positive and enjoyable. It explores what is likely to work with diverse learners in a variety of contexts. The module extends teachers’ knowledge of children’s literature (especially literature available in African Languages) through exposure to examples of ‘good’ literature and to a variety of genres aimed at early readers (fiction and non-fiction, picture books, books with predictable/ repetitive story line, etc.) and includes practical guidelines for how to integrate books into the Foundation Phase reading programme. It explores how children can be given access to books in challenging contexts. It assists teachers to estimate the difficulty or ‘readability’ of texts by making judgements about text length, the number of new vocabulary items, whether or not the children have the appropriate background knowledge, the complexity of sentences used and so forth. Use is made of specially produced video clips in a range of classrooms where isiXhosa is the LoLT to develop knowledge of practice, with knowledge in and through practice being developed through work integrated learning, group work and assignments. The Module therefore develops, in relation to early grade reading and writing, educational and subject knowledge, pedagogical content knowledge, knowledge of the needs of learners in different situations, knowledge of the curriculum and resources, ability to assess and to use assessment to guide teaching, classroom management and critical reflection skills. It develops Foundation Phase specialists in teaching reading and writing, as learning mediators and interpreters of learning materials, and as lifelong learners.

Inclusive Education
NQF Level: 6
Credits: 10
Course description: This module assists the teacher to work in an inclusive classroom in which children may experience a variety of barriers to learning. It examines the different sociological, psychological, linguistic and economic factors involved in creating barriers to learning. The module focuses on the teacher’s role in identifying barriers, on policies and available support services, as well as on practical strategies the teacher can use in the ordinary classroom, such as developing emotional intelligence, using positive discipline, movement for learning, and providing support for common reading and writing difficulties. It considers how teachers can ensure that all learners feel included in diverse classes in different contexts. Use is made of specially produced video clips to develop knowledge of practice, with knowledge in and through practice being developed through work integrated learning, group work and assignments. The Module therefore develops, in relation to early grade reading and writing, educational and subject knowledge, pedagogical content knowledge, knowledge of the needs of learners in different situations, knowledge of the curriculum and resources, classroom management and critical reflection skills. It develops Foundation Phase specialists in teaching reading and writing, learning mediators and interpreters of learning materials.

Reading Assessment and Remediation

NQF Level: 6

Credits: 10

Course description: This module focuses on assessment of learning in relation to educational principles and curriculum and policy requirements. The purpose of the module is to help teachers understand why assessment of reading and writing is important, how to go about doing it in different contexts and how to plan teaching on the basis of results. It builds on content of other modules in the Advanced Certificate programme. Teachers will learn how to assess the different components of reading: phonological awareness, syllable recognition, listening comprehension, concepts of print, alphabetic knowledge, letter-sound relationships, word recognition, morphological knowledge, fluency, text comprehension and vocabulary. They will learn which of these components should be assessed in each grade of the Foundation Phase, and how to approach teaching for children who fall behind. Teachers will learn how to do a baseline assessment at the beginning of first term and how to use the information obtained to plan a reading programme for the year including placing learners in ability groups for group guided reading, and matching texts to the reading ability of each group. The module also assists teachers to implement common strategies for supporting struggling readers and writers. Use is made of specially produced video clips to assist students in contextualising what has been learned, to develop knowledge of practice, with knowledge in and through practice being developed through work integrated learning, group work and assignments. The Module therefore develops, in relation to early grade reading and writing, educational and subject knowledge, pedagogical content knowledge, knowledge of the needs of learners in different situations, knowledge of the curriculum and resources, ability to assess and to use assessment to guide teaching, classroom management and critical reflection skills. It develops Foundation Phase specialists in teaching reading and writing, learning mediators and interpreters of learning materials.

Planning and Progression

NQF Level: 6

Credits: 10

Course description: The purpose of this module is to help teachers understand why planning for teaching literacy is important and how to go about doing it in relation to educational principles and curriculum and policy requirements. Planning for teaching literacy in the Foundation Phase is challenging since the curriculum has a variety of short activities, which have to be timed, sequenced and coordinated in order to make teaching and learning coherent and meaningful. These challenges are exacerbated by the fact that in any grade in the Foundation Phase, children are likely to be at different stages in their reading development. The main topics to be covered are: What is planning and why is it important; different levels of planning; assessment for learning; understanding progression in reading development across Foundation Phase grades; differentiated teaching; the use of themes to create meaning and coherence; linking Home and First additional language teaching; using lesson plans and reflection on practice. Use is made of specially produced video clips to develop knowledge of practice, with knowledge in and through practice being developed through work integrated learning, group work and assignments. The Module therefore develops, in relation to early grade reading and writing, educational and subject knowledge, pedagogical content knowledge, knowledge of the needs of learners in different situations, knowledge of the curriculum and resources, ability to assess and to use assessment to guide teaching, classroom management and critical reflection skills. It develops Foundation Phase specialists in teaching reading and writing, learning mediators and interpreters of learning materials.

BACHELOR OF EDUCATION (HONOURS)
The BEd Honours qualification is offered in its new MRTEQ aligned and CHE accredited format in 2020 which consists of two foundation courses in Year One (2020) and a specialism made up of two electives in Year Two (2021). This 120 credit, NQF level 8 degree is typically offered on a part-time basis. It is intended to prepare students for research-based postgraduate studies in a particular field of education. It serves to consolidate and deepen the student’s expertise and theoretical engagement in educational practice, and develop research capacity in the methodology and techniques of educational research.

Foundation Programme (2020)
The foundation programme comprises a 30-credit course called “Educational Ideas and Issues” and a 30-credit course called “Research in Education”.

Educational Ideas and Issues Course code TBC. (30 credits NQF Level 8)
This compulsory course provides opportunities to analyse and evaluate educational ideas and issues relevant to a South and Southern African context using philosophical, psychological and sociological lenses. It will examine, inter alia, issues of equity (in relation to, for example, language, gender, culture and socio-economic status), the role of language in mediating learning, and issues relating to knowledge and knowing. Students’ critical engagement with these issues and ideas will be underpinned by theories of teaching and learning (including, but not limited to, Piaget, Vygotsky, Bruner), debates around issues of quality in education, and in-depth consideration of the above in terms of curricular design and implementation. The course will also include philosophical, psychological and sociological perspectives on the role of values, creativity and democracy in education. Wherever possible, students will be required to consider these perspectives in relation to their own educational experience and context.

Research in Education Course code TBC. (30 credits NQF Level 8)
In this compulsory course, students will “develop research capacity in the methodology and techniques of that discipline [Education]” (HEQSF, 2013), by “conducting and reporting research under supervision, worth at least 30 credits, in the form of a discrete research component” (MRTEQ, 2015). This course forms the discrete research component required according to the policy. The ‘Research in Education’ course is to be conducted as a supported educational research course, that is, through supervision, the student is closely guided through an independent research process, by means of selected readings and developmental on-course activities.

Specialism Programme (2021)
The specialisms listed below are part of the new format of the degree that will be offered for the first time in 2021. Students need to decide on their specialism at the beginning of 2020. The specialisms may not all be offered in any given year and are dependent on staff availability, timetabling and viable class sizes. The specialisms are:
1. Adult Education Processes
2. Bilingual Education for Diversity and Access
3. Educational Leadership and Management
   Theory, Policy and Practice
4. English Language Teaching
5. Environment and Sustainability Education
6. Geography Education
7. ICT in Education
8. Life Orientation Education
9. Maths Education
10. Quality Teaching and Learning in Primary Education
11. Science Education
Students who are registered for Year Two of the B Ed Honours degree in 2020, will continue with the old format of the degree. For this cohort of students, the following electives may be offered, dependent on staff availability, timetabling and viable class sizes. This will be the last cohort to complete the old format of the degree.

Electives (Old format, only offered in 2020)

Educational Leadership and Management (ELM) Course Code 9073200

The course is designed as a service learning initiative, i.e. teaching and learning strategy which links the academic learning of the Honours’ students with a community service experience. As a credit-bearing educational experience, it requires students to participate in an organised service activity in their institution over a ten month period and reflect on it in such a way as “to gain further understanding of course content, a broader appreciation of the discipline, and an enhanced sense of civic responsibility”. The activity may well be the implementation of an extra-curricular learner leadership club or a teacher professional learning community, the purpose being one of leadership development which requires “a multifaceted approach, which includes techniques that range from formal academic processes to experiential development, or what is described as leadership development within the context of work”.

English Language Teaching (ELT) Course Code 9046003

This course is concerned with providing students with a comprehensive understanding of the theory and practice informing English language teaching, research in language education, language pedagogy, and scholarship in literary studies, visual literacy and literacy development. Furthermore, it is concerned with how these knowledge areas are developed, taught, assessed and evaluated in schools. It is within this context that the program is trans-disciplinary and seeks to present a contextual and holistic understanding. It is within this context that the program is trans-disciplinary and seeks to present a contextual and holistic understanding of English studies and language education in a post-apartheid and developing South Africa and Namibia. Students registered in this program gain valuable insight into how English language teaching and Language education programs are structured, whilst developing a critical eye in terms of how schools and institutions of higher learning run these programs and the type of knowledge that they promote. The course is aimed at language educators at school or university contexts, subject advisors, and curriculum developers who wish to develop intellectually and extend the boundaries in the field of English Studies. It also provides a foundation for research in ELT and Language Education at Master’s level.

Environmental Education Course Code 9098000

The elective aims to support you to engage with environmental and sustainability knowledge and skills in your work place, particularly in formal education, so that you may contribute to building an environmentally sustainable and healthy society that is envisaged in South Africa’s Constitution and National Development Plan. It aims to help you engage with Sustainable Development Goals in the work that you do in an education context. This course aims to provide an introduction to the praxis of environment and sustainability education as the concept is understood internationally and in southern Africa in the 21st century. The course draws on theoretical ideas to explore environmental challenges, environment and sustainability education and education policy.

Information Communication Technology Education Course Code 9073100

The main focus of this course is to advance technology skills in using information and communication technologies for pedagogical, administrative and professional practices among in-service teachers. It presents ICT as a cognitive and instructional tool in teaching and learning, as a tool to enhance administrative functioning and as a tool for professional development. This course provides an opportunity to understand the effects that any use of emerging technologies has on the practice of learning, and how pedagogies need to be aligned to ensure positive learning outcomes. Thus, the content intends to respond to the challenges and opportunities of 21st century education in developing nations through the lens of global trends.

Mathematics Education Course Code 9046001

This course is designed to enable teachers and educational managers and planners to reflect upon their experience in the teaching of mathematics, and to engage in current national and international debates in the field of mathematics curriculum.
design; theories of teaching and learning in the field of mathematics; technology and mathematics education; and socio-political and cultural aspects of mathematics education. The course incorporates an introduction to, and some initial practice in, mathematics education research. The course will serve as a platform upon which more advanced work, at the Master’s level, can be built. Candidates wishing to register for this course will be expected to have taught mathematics at any level of the formal educational system for at least two years.

Primary Education Course Code 9046009
The aim of the elective is to orientate students to contemporary debates and issues related to teaching and learning in primary schools. Students will critically engage with the complex interrelationship between discourses on quality education, and the issues that mediate and impact quality teaching and learning. The four components of the elective will require learners to engage with theory, reflect critically on the implications of theory for classroom practice, and evaluate and critique current research in the field. Our intention is to prepare you for a MEd in Primary Education.

Science Education Course Code 9160000
This course content covers a range of diverse topics of relevance to science education, and which contribute to the goal of professional development of practising science educators or subject advisors. Since pedagogic content knowledge is a central feature, the course is not intended to cover basic science content directly. It is thus a requirement that those choosing the elective have completed science content modules in their previous science or science education qualifications. Some major foci of the course include the following issues as well as theories around them: learners’ prior knowledge, indigenous knowledge, practical activities, science discourse and multi-literacies of science, and science curriculum. As such, the course will lay a foundation for work towards a Master’s degree.

A. Postgraduate Diploma in English Language Teaching
120 credits at NQF level 8

Entrance requirements: This course is offered subject to student numbers and is intended for students without a major in English Language and Linguistics. The entry requirement for the course is any Bachelor’s degree, subject to the approval of the Head of Department (BA, BCom, BFA, BJourn, BMus, BSocSc or BSc). Students who have credits in Linguistics will be admitted at the discretion of the Head of Department.
Course description: The Postgraduate Diploma in English Language Teaching is a one-year full-time course, or (in special circumstances) it may be taken part-time over two years. The course aims to provide graduates with the theoretical knowledge and awareness of the skills, methods and techniques necessary to be effective English teachers in English Second Language and multilingual classrooms in South Africa. The curriculum combines components from the undergraduate programme in English Language and Linguistics with postgraduate modules.

B. HONOURS

The aim of the Honours course is to provide students with a balance between the social and formal aspects of the central disciplines of Linguistics. All modules include a strong commitment to methodological and analytical aspects, drawing on relevant theory and consolidated by a supervised research report. The Honours degree can be completed full-time in one year (minimum) or over two years on a part-time basis.

B.1. Honours in Linguistics and Applied Language Studies

120 credits at NQF level 8

Entrance requirements: Entry to the Honours programme in Linguistics and Applied Language Studies requires a first degree in English Language and Linguistics or a cognate discipline.

Course description: Students must complete four coursework modules (see above). In addition, students will complete a research report on a topic to be mutually negotiated, taking into account the research and/or teaching interests of the department, e.g. further developing English Language and Linguistics 3 research reports, Honours modules or departmental research projects. At the discretion of the Head of Department, students may take a non-mother-tongue language credit from the Rhodes University School of Languages in place of one of the four modules. Additional coursework will be required.

B.2. Honours in English Language Teaching

120 credits at NQF level 8

Entrance requirements: Entry to the course requires a first degree in Linguistics or a cognate discipline or a Postgraduate Certificate in Education or its equivalent.

Course description: This course is offered subject to student numbers and current staff expertise and aims to give teachers with professional qualifications, or graduates planning a career in language teaching, a specialised and professional training in English Language Teaching (ELT) as an applied discipline. Students will be required to take modules with an ELT focus which may not be available in any particular year.

C. MASTER’S DEGREES

Two structures are possible in the Master’s degree:

C.1 Master of Arts by full thesis

180 credits at NQF level 9

Entrance requirements: Entry into the Master’s programme in Linguistics and Applied Language Studies is open to students with any of the following qualifications: (a) an Honours degree in Linguistics or English Language Teaching, or (b) an Honours degree in a cognate discipline, subject to the approval of the Head of Department.

Course description: This is a research degree, which is governed by the general regulations for Master’s degrees in the University. Full-time candidates can complete the requirements for the award of the degree in a minimum of one year but usually take at least two years to complete the degree. Part-time candidates can complete the requirements in a minimum of two years.

C.2. Master of Arts by coursework and half thesis

180 credits at NQF level 9

Entrance requirements: Entry into the Master’s programme in Linguistics and Applied Language Studies is open to students with any of the following qualifications: (a) an Honours degree in Linguistics or English Language Teaching, or (b) an Honours degree in a cognate discipline, subject to the approval of the Head of Department.

Course description: This degree can be completed on a full-time basis over one year, or part-time over two years, and consists of both coursework and a half thesis. Coursework includes four modules. The half thesis is guided research, supervised by a member of the department. Part-time candidates can complete the coursework in the first year of study and the half thesis in the second year. Full-time candidates can complete both coursework and the half thesis in one year.
D. DOCTORAL DEGREES

360 credits at NQF level 10

Entrance requirements: Students with a Master’s degree in linguistics can register for the Doctoral degree.

Course description: The Doctoral degree in Linguistics can only be done by thesis, and only under the supervision of a member of staff. Students who have not studied Linguistics at Rhodes previously will be required to take four modules as part of their preparation for the thesis.

Environmental Science (ENV) is a four-semester subject which may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BEcon, BJourn and BA, subject to the conditions specified below.

The Department takes an inter/transdisciplinary approach to sustainable environmental management and aims to attract students from a variety of academic disciplines. Candidates who wish to major in Environmental Science should, however, structure their degrees around a specific sub-discipline of Environmental Science, for example biological resources, earth resources, water resources, environmental policy, environmental economics, or people and the environment. Their choice of additional subjects at the second and third level should thus reflect a specific focus.

An exception is made for Law students who, due to a timetable clash between Legal Theory 1 and EAR 101 and GOG 102, are permitted to enter ENV 201 and ENV 202 without having completed EAR 101 and GOG 102. Such students shall register for EAR 101 and GOG 102 concurrently with ENV201 and ENV 201. They must obtain credit for EAR 101, GOG 102, and ENV 2 in order to be eligible to register for ENV 3. See the Departmental Web Page http://www.ru.ac.za/environmentalscience/ for further details, particularly on the content of courses.

Recommended curricula

The following are examples only. Not all the options and possible subject combinations are covered, and curricula are subject to timetable constraints. Students with particular interests are encouraged to discuss other possible course combinations with the Head of Department.

Where both semesters of a year course are recommended, the subject is indicated by its year number only, e.g. ENV 2 instead of ENV 201 and 202. GOG 1 is used instead of EAR 101 and GOG 102.

Curricula could, for example, be structured around one of the following sub-disciplines:

1. Biological resources
   Year 1: CHE 1; CEL 101; BOT 102; ZOO 102; EAR 101; GOG 102; STA 101.
   Year 2: ENV 2; two of BOT 2, ENT 2, ICH 2, MIC 2 or ZOO 2.
   Year 3: ENV 3; and one of BOT 3, ENT 3, ICH 3, MIC 3 or ZOO 3 depending on the choice of second year subjects.

2. Earth resources
   Year 1: CHE 1; CEL 101; BOT 102; EAR 101; GOG 102; GLG 102; MAN 101.
   Year 2: ENV 2; GLG 2; GOG 2.
   Year 3: ENV 3; GOG 3 or GLG 3.

3. Water resources
   Year 1: CHE 1; CEL 101; ZOO 102 or BOT 102; EAR 101; GOG 102; GLG 102; MAN 101.
   Year 2: ENV 2; one of GLG 2 or GOG 2; and one of BOT 2, ZOO 2 or ENT 2.
   Year 3: ENV 3; GLG 3 or GOG 3.
4. People and the environment
Year 1: ANT 1; CEL 101; ZOO 102; BOT 102; EAR 101; GOG 102; STA 101.
Year 2: ENV 2; ANT 2; ECO 1; GOG 2.
Year 3: ENV 3; ANT 3 or ECO 3.

5. Environmental Economics
See the BEcon calendar entry under the Faculty of Commerce.

6. Environmental Law
Year 1: Legal Theory 1; ECO 1; ANT 1; BOT 1 or ZOO 1
Year 2: Legal Theory 2; ENV 2; GOG 2
Year 3: Legal Theory 3; ENV 3

Note: These are illustrative curricula only and students must ensure that they have the correct number of NQF credits to meet their respective faculty needs.

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE

There are two second-year level courses in Environmental Science. ENV 201 is normally taught in the first semester and ENV 202 in the second semester. Credit for each course can be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to the year-long course ENV 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required 35% sub-minimum in each component (i.e. the class mark and for each exam) and obtains DP. However, students who wish to major in Environmental Science must obtain credit for both ENV 201 and ENV 202. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course.

Practical reports, essays, seminars and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark.

Geography (EAR 101 and GOG 102) and either Anthropology (ANT 1), Botany (CEL 101 and BOT 102), Economics (ECO 1), Geology (GLG 1) or Zoology (CEL 101 and ZOO 102) are required before a student may register for ENV 201 or ENV 202. Geography students shall register for EAR 101 and GOG 102 concurrently with ENV201 and ENV 202. Adequate performance in ENV 201 (i.e., obtains the required 35% sub-minimum and DP) is required before a student may register for ENV 202.

ENV 201 (Foundations of Environmental Science)
Second-year, first-semester course (20 credits at NQF level 6)

Entrance requirements: EAR 101 and GOG 102, and one of ANT 1, BOT 1, ECO 1, GLG 1 or ZOO 1.

Course description: ENV 201 provides the conceptual foundation for all other courses in Environmental Science, and covers the following topics: integrated perspectives on environmental issues; ecosystem services and human well-being; characteristics of complex adaptive social-ecological systems, introduction to inter/transdisciplinary and local ecological knowledge; ecosystem services and human well-being; complexity; social-ecological systems; planetary boundaries and sustainability; social systems; economic valuation of natural resources; ecological systems. Practicals: interaction between social, economic and ecological components of the environment. Students will be required to undertake compulsory field site visits during one weekend as part of their practicals.

DP requirements: The following DP requirements are applied within the Department of Environmental Science. (1) Attend all practicals and 65% of the lectures; (2) hand in all assignments for marking on the due date. Any assignments handed in late without prior permission from the lecturer concerned will be penalised by a deduction of 10% per day or part thereof; (3) a sub-minimum of 35% in the year mark, and (4) a sub-minimum of 35% in each written examination. A student obtaining less 35% in any examination will be deemed to have failed the course irrespective of their final aggregated mark for the semester course.

Assessment: Class record 64%, Examinations 36%
Supplementary exam: None
Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with ENV 202
Class attendance: at least 65%

ENV 202 (Global Environmental Challenges and Policies)
Second-year, second-semester course (20 credits at NQF level 6)

Entrance requirements: 40% ENV 201

Course description: The ENV 202 course is designed to cover a selection of current major global issues and challenges in environmental science. The purpose of the course is to apply interdisciplinary skills, systems approaches and perspectives to... analyse and understand environmental issues and policies of global and local concern. Critical analysis and consideration of counter-viewpoints, from a systems perspective, is central. This will be done at different spatial and temporal scales. The skills covered in Environmental Science 201 are particularly relevant, especially those relating to systems analysis, team work, and interdisciplinarity as well as rigorous and in-depth critical analysis and thinking.

Practicals: a variety of different classroom and field exercises pertaining to the issues covered in lectures.

DP requirements: The following DP requirements are applied within the Department of Environmental Science. (1) Attend all practicals and 65% of the lectures; (2) hand in all assignments for marking on the due date. Any assignments handed in late without prior permission from the lecturer concerned will be penalised by a deduction of 10% per day or part thereof; (3) a sub-minimum of 35% in the year mark, and (4) a sub-minimum of 35% in each written examination. A student obtaining less 35% in any examination will be deemed to have failed the course irrespective of their final aggregated mark for the semester course.

Subminimum for November: 40% for aggregation with ENV 201

Class attendance: at least 65%

Third-year level courses in Environmental Science

There are two third-year level courses in Environmental Science. ENV 301 is normally taught in the first semester and ENV 302 in the second semester. Credit for each course can be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to the year-long course ENV 3, provided that a candidate obtains the required 35% sub-minimum in each component (i.e. the class mark and each exam) and obtains DP. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course, unless ENV 301 or ENV 302 is the student’s last outstanding semester course, wherein a special exam may be written. Practical reports, essays, seminars and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark. Students will be required to plan, execute and write up a mini-research project starting in the first term and spanning the whole academic year.

There is one compulsory weekend field trip during the first semester. Environmental Science 2 (ENV 201 and ENV 202) is required before a student may register for ENV 301 or ENV 302. Concurrent registration is not allowed for second-year and third-year courses in Environmental Science. In addition, candidates must have satisfied the prerequisites for ENV 201 and ENV 202.

ENV 301 (Integrated environmental management for sustainability)

Third-year, first-semester course (30 credits at NQF level 7)

Entrance requirements: ENV 2

Course description: This course focuses on sustainable natural resource management in practice. The aim is to develop applied professional skills, coupled with rigorous analysis, to promote more effective environmental thinking and management. The emphasis is on conceptual and planning frameworks to pre-empt or minimise environmental impacts (such as sustainability assessment, strategic environmental assessment, environmental management programme reports, ISO 14000, environmental impact assessment, landscapes and integrated landscape management, adaptive management, participatory natural resource management, adaptive co-management, etc.) as well as to evaluate, understand and mitigate environmental impacts and land and resource use patterns. Each topic is illustrated by up to date examples. Practicals: the practical application of the course will be incorporated into the year-long mini-research project. Field visits may take place over a limited number of weekends.

Assessment: Class record 64%, Examinations 36%

Supplementary exam: None

Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with ENV 201

ENV 302 (Environmental monitoring and monitoring systems)
Third-year, second-semester course (30 credits at NQF level 7)
Entrance requirements: 40% ENV 301
Course description: This course builds on the foundations laid in ENV 2 in terms of systems thinking, interdisciplinarity and the scientific analysis of environmental challenges and on the integrated management approaches covered in ENV 301. The focus is on the design and implementation of environmental monitoring systems appropriate at different spatial and temporal scales integrating across the biological, social and economic components of an environmental system. Examples will include industrial, terrestrial and aquatic systems and different types of monitoring approaches. A key component deals with collection and analysis of environmental data, which is the core of any environmental monitoring system.
Practicals: the practical application of the course will be incorporated into the year-long mini-research project. Field visits may take place over a limited number of weekends.
DP requirements: The following DP requirements are applied within the Department of Environmental Science. (1) Attend all practicals and 65% of the lectures; (2) hand in all assignments for marking on the due date. Any assignments handed in late without prior permission from the lecturer concerned will be penalised by a deduction of 10% per day or part thereof; (3) a sub-minimum of 35% in the year mark, and (4) a sub-minimum of 35% in each written examination. A student obtaining less than 35% in any examination will be deemed to have failed the course irrespective of their final aggregated mark for the semester course.
Assessment: Class record 64%, Examinations 36%

Subminimum for November: 40% for aggregation with ENV 301
Class attendance: at 65%

Environmental Science Honours
Year-long course (120 credits at NQF level 8)
Course description: The Honours course in Environmental Science is designed as an interdisciplinary programme. It consists of four modules selected from a list of available options along with a short course in Statistics. Additionally candidates undertake an independent research project. The course may be done full-time over one academic year, or, rarely, part-time over two academic years with the agreement of the Head of Environmental Science. Tuition emphasis is on self-learning guided through lectures, tutorials, seminars and practical work. Students are encouraged to work in interdisciplinary teams and to address practical, “real life” issues in their projects and seminars. A limited number of students are selected annually on the basis of academic excellence, previous experience, and qualifications in environment-related fields, group diversity and staff availability. Candidates must be in possession of an appropriate Bachelors degree, majoring in at least one of the following: Anthropology, Botany, Economics, Environmental Science, Entomology, Geology, Ichthyology, Microbiology or Zoology. Preference will be given to applicants with undergraduate Environmental Science qualifications and/or with applicable practical experience. For internal (RU) applicants, adequate performance and participation in ENV 3 is necessary.
Students may be required to attend blocks of lectures and practicals before the official commencement of the first term (typically the last week of January or first week of February) and during vacations. This usually takes the form of a compulsory field trip of 5-10 days. Candidates should consult the Head of Department in this regard before registering for the course.
Students may consider registering for a joint course with other relevant Departments.
DP requirements: (1) Sub-minimum of 40% for the research project; (2) sub-minimum of 35% for each module, and (3) attend the honours fieldtrip.
Assessment: Assessments comprise a statistical exam, a year-long research project, including a written and verbal research proposal, a final research paper, a paper presentation, and a popular article. Students select four modules, weighted 12.5 % of their overall course value (see below for module descriptions). Module coordinators set assignments such as essays, tests, reports, and verbal presentations as assessment tasks. All modules have exams, or assignments that replace exams, in the semesters they are offered. Supplementary exam: None

Modules
The short course in Statistics must be taken by all students. For the optional modules, candidates must select four from the list of available modules, with at least two Environmental Science modules. The list changes from year to year, and not all are available to part-time candidates. Some modules are offered by Departments collaborating with Environmental Science and candidates should discuss their options with the course-coordinator and Head of Department and, where applicable, with the staff member offering that module. Modules offered by Environmental Science may include: land degradation neutrality, biodiversity, non-timber forest products and rural livelihoods; ecological modelling; environmental impact assessment; urban forestry; people and protected areas, scenarios, planning social-ecological protected areas, urban ecology, food security, and restoration ecology. The Geography department offers GIS for students who have completed GOG 3. The Institute for Water Research offers environmental water quality. Modules offered by Economics Department: environmental and resource economics Additional suitable environmental related modules may be available in other departments at the time of registration, and prospective candidates should consult with the Head of Department and Honours Coordinator regarding the availability and choice of such modules. Students will also undertake a research project related to their selected courses.

MASTER’S AND DOCTORAL DEGREES
Suitably qualified students are encouraged to proceed to the research degrees of MSc (180 credits at NQF level 9), MA (180 credits at NQF level 9) and PhD (360 credits at NQF level 10) under the direction of the staff of the Department. Requirements for the MSc, MA and PhD degrees are given in the General Rules. An Environmental Science Masters degree is by dissertation. It has four distinguishing characteristics:

- the research and dissertation deals with integrative ecological, social and economic systems;
- it incorporates the concept of sustainability, e.g. sustainable use and management of the environment and sustainable living;
- it addresses issues affecting people’s quality of life and their livelihoods;
- it is interdisciplinary, i.e. it is not confined to a single academic discipline, and is often linked to a broader programme with several related projects.

The following candidates are eligible to register:

- applicants in possession of an Honours degree in Environmental Science; if Rhodes University Honours graduates, adequate performance and participation in the Honours year is necessary;
- applicants with a good Honours degree in any other discipline which has covered either biological, physical, human or economic aspects of the environment;
- environmental practitioners with an appropriate Bachelors degree in an environmental discipline, plus a minimum of two years relevant practical experience, at the discretion of the Head of Department and Senate;
- environmental practitioners without a Bachelors degree, but with 5-10 years in-depth experience and proven achievements and skills in an environmental field, may be admitted as Ad Eundem Gradum students at the discretion of the Head of Department and Senate.

Students also have the option of attending appropriate undergraduate and Honours modules during their period of registration. Part-time students should aim to spend two to four months on campus at the early stage of registration and another two to four months during the final writing-up stage.

Master’s in Business Administration - Environmental Electives
The Rhodes MBA is designed to enable practising and potential managers to succeed in creating, developing and directing successful organizations in a competitive business environment. The Rhodes MBA is now able to offer business the opportunity to engage with the challenges of sustainable development and environmental management through its new electives programme. Details of the six environmental electives can be found under the Faculty of Commerce.

The Department of Fine Art, which is part of the Faculty of Humanities, provides comprehensive tuition in the practical, theoretical and historical aspects of the visual arts. Our courses ensure a solid grounding for those wanting to pursue careers as professional artists, but are equally valuable to those with an interest in arts education and a wide variety of creative industries - including arts administration, community arts, design, and curation. Most undergraduate students enrol for a BFA, a professional 4 year honours-equivalent degree. But our courses are also open to BA students, and students from other Faculties, who may benefit from the creative problem-solving, visual literacy, and/or practice-based research methodologies foregrounded in our course offerings.

Fine Art Practice courses are those in which students engage with art making, and the professional practice aspects of art making. Art History & Visual Culture courses do not involve the making of art but are studies in the theory and history of visual representations.

Bachelor of Fine Art students must major in both Fine Art Practice and Art History & Visual Culture, and should thus enrol for Fine Art Practice and Art History & Visual Culture concurrently.

Non-BFA students may study Fine Art Practice without Art History & Visual Culture, but can only take Fine Art Practice as a minor in this case (at a first-year level or to a second-year level). To major in Fine Art Practice, students must have a corresponding major in Art History & Visual Culture.

Non-BFA students may study Art History & Visual Culture independently without also studying Fine Art Practice - either as a major or for only one or two years.

DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF FINE ART
See the General Rules applicable to all Faculties. The following Rules apply to the Department of Fine Art only. Except as provided in General Rules G.44 to G.48 candidates shall not be admitted to the degree unless they have attended courses subsequent to their first registration as a matriculated student for at least four years.

FIRST YEAR
Fine Art Practice 1A
Fine Art Practice 1A serves as an introduction to practical, art-making skills across the media areas of Painting, Sculpture, Printmedia, Digital Arts and Photography. The course comprises a series of directed projects, covering both ‘traditional’ and ‘new’ media.

Fine Art Practice 1B
Fine Art Practice 1B is an introduction to the professional practice aspects of art-making, and is specifically for Bachelor of Fine Art students. It introduces students to a range of professional practice skills, including drawing, story-boarding and project planning; proposal writing and design; documentation and cataloguing; portfolio development, and so forth.

Art History & Visual Culture 101
Art History & Visual Culture 101 introduces the subject of ‘art history and visual culture’, developing practical skills in reading and looking as well as the politics of visuality and representation within a South African context.

skills in the visual analysis of arts and visual culture.

SECOND YEAR
Fine Art Practice 2A
Fine Art Practice 2A extends and develops students’ practical, art-making skills across the media areas of Painting, Sculpture, Printmedia, Digital Arts and Photography. For the most part, the course follows an elective-based structure: students choose between two projects offered concurrently, thus testing and honing their preferences for working in particular media.

It comprises two research seminars and an independently researched long essay. The course aims to consolidate students’ critical, writing and researching skills through a sustained research enquiry.

FINE ART OPTIONS FOR DEGREES OTHER THAN BFA
NOTE: Non-BFA students may study Fine Art Practice without Art History & Visual Culture, but can only take Fine Art Practice as a minor in this case (at a first-year level or to a second-year level). To major in Fine Art Practice, students must have a corresponding major in Art History & Visual Culture. Non-BFA students may study Art History & Visual Culture independently without also studying Fine Art Practice - either as a major or for only one or two years.

* Non-BFA students may take Fine Art Practice 1A, with or without Fine Art Practice 1B, and with or without Art History & Visual Culture. Non-BFA students may continue to Fine Art Practice 2A, with or without Fine Art Practice 2B, and with or without Art History & Visual Culture, but would not be able to proceed to Fine Art Practice 3 without a corresponding major in Art History & Visual Culture.

* Non-BFA students may only major in Fine Art Practice if they also major in Art History & Visual Culture.

* Non-BFA students may study Art History & Visual Culture without studying Fine Art Practice, either as a major or for one or two years.

DIPLOMA IN FINE ART
A candidate for the diploma shall attend the University for not less than four years after being admitted to the course, and must obtain credit in all the following courses:

First Year: Fine Art Practice 1A, Art History & Visual Culture 1
Second Year: Fine Art Practice 2A, Art History & Visual Culture 2
Third Year: Fine Art Practice 3, Art History & Visual Culture 3
Fourth Year: Fine Art Practice 4, Art History & Visual Culture 4

Examination for Fine Art Practice will be assessed as follows:
In the first, second and third year, work will be examined via two assessments, one in midyear and one at the end of the year. Midyear assessment counts 25% towards final mark. In fourth year, work will be examined via work-in-progress assessment in midyear, and summative assessment at the end of the year.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF FINE ART

Two options are offered for this degree, Option A and Option B.

Option A: The degree is by Practice as Research and the candidate produces an exhibition or installation of original work as well as a mini thesis of 12 000 – 15 000 words positioning this artwork in relation to an existent body of work or theory. The two components form an integrated submission and are assessed as such. The proposed area of investigation must be approved by the Supervisor and the Board of the Faculty of Humanities. The completed mini thesis must be submitted to the Registrar’s Division at least three days before the exhibition is submitted for examination. A detailed set of departmental Rules concerning the exhibition and mini thesis is given to each candidate.

Option B: The degree is in Curatorial Practice which caters specifically for candidates looking to develop their capacities and understanding of professional curatorial practices. A candidate is required to curate an exhibition (rather than producing an exhibition of own work) in an established art museum or gallery and to develop a thesis of between 25 000 and 30 000 words exploring the curatorial theme, logistic approach, and exhibition strategy. The final mark for the degree comprises 50% for the exhibition and 50% for the thesis. The proposed area of investigation must be approved by the Head of Department and the Board of the Faculty of Humanities. The completed thesis must be submitted to the Registrar’s Division at least two weeks before the exhibition is submitted for examination. A detailed set of departmental Rules concerning the exhibition and thesis is given to each candidate.

MASTER OF ARTS (Thesis)

A thesis must be submitted for examination on any approved topic within the broadly defined field of Art History & Visual Culture. The General Rules and the Faculty of Humanity’s rules governing Master’s degrees by thesis apply.

Geography (GOG) is a six-semester subject that may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BA, BJourn and BSocSc.

To major in Geography, a candidate is required to obtain the following courses: EAR 101; GOG 102; GOG 201; GOG 202; GOG 301; and GOG 302. See Rule S.23. At the discretion of the Head of Department students may replace one third level course with an acceptable alternative course deemed to be its equivalent.

EAR 101 and GOG 102 are pre-requisites for students majoring in Environmental Science (ENV), details of which are given in a separate entry.

Students are expected to participate in Departmental excursions. Costs are kept as low as possible. Honours students are encouraged to attend the South African Student Geographical Conference, which is held at a different university each year. See the Departmental Web Page (http://www.ru.ac.za/geography) for further details, particularly on the contents of courses.

FIRST-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN GEOGRAPHY

Geography 1 consists of two first-year semester courses, namely Earth Science 101 (jointly taught by the Geography and Geology departments) and Geography 102 (Exploring Global Human Geographies), which are normally taught in the first and second semesters respectively. Students who take both Geography 1 and Geology 1 will have to take an additional semester course in an appropriate subject during the first semester to ensure that they have enough NQF credits for their degree. Each semester course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-long course GOG 1, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component. However, students wishing to major in Geography must normally obtain both semester-courses components separately. Supplementary examinations may be recommended in either course, provided that a candidate achieves a minimum standard specified by the Department.

These courses provide a sound foundation for the student majoring in Geography as well as foundations for the student studying Geography for one year. Practical work, including field work, tutorials are integral parts of both courses that reinforce themes covered in lectures and ensure that academic and geographic literacy are developed within the curriculum. Students reading for an “Environmental Law” degree (i.e. with Environmental Science and Law as majors) may complete EAR 101 and GOG 102 in their second year of study, as both these courses have timetable clashes with first-year Law modules.

A rating of at least 4 for Geography in the National Senior Certificate (or equivalent) is recommended for entry into Earth Science. Students may not register for Geography 102 unless they have met the subminimum requirements in both the theory and practical papers (35%) for EAR 101, or a rating of at least 4 in Geography in the National Senior Certificate (or equivalent).

EAR 101

Entrance requirements: Level 4 NSC Geography, or Maths, or Physical Science, or Biology.

Course description: Introduction to Earth Systems. This course introduces the processes that have shaped the Earth and its environment over both geological and recent time scales. The interrelationships between the Earth, the atmosphere, and living organisms form key themes through the course. EAR 101 comprises five lectures/tutorials, plus one three-hour practical per week.

DP requirements: Over 80% lecture attendance; attendance and completion of ALL tutorials, assignments and practicals.

Assessment: Class record 50%, Examination 50%

Subminimum for June: 40% for aggregation with GOG 102

GOG 102
First-year, second-semester course (15 credits at NQF level 5)

Entrance requirements: 35% EAR 101 or level 4 NSC Geography

Course description: Exploring Global Human Geographies. This course examines key concepts and understanding within Human Geography that serve as an introduction to the sub-discipline. Space and place are considered fundamental to an understanding of human societies and structures. Key themes include: modes of production and consumption; demography and migration; inequalities and development; globalisation; and exploration of urban and rural spaces within historical, political, economic, social and spatial contexts. GOG 102 comprises five lectures/tutorials, plus one three-hour practical per week.

DP requirements: Over 80% lecture attendance; attendance and completion of ALL tutorials, assignments and practicals.

Assessment: Class record 50%, Examination 50%

Subminimum for November: 40% for aggregation with EAR 101

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN GEOGRAPHY

There are two independent second-year courses in Geography. GOG 201 is normally held in the first semester and GOG 202 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-long course GOG 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required subminimum in each component. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course.

Practical work is an integral part of both courses and is related to the relevant lecture courses and to the development of research techniques.

Both GOG 102 and EAR 101 are required before a student may register for GOG 201 or GOG 202. At the discretion of the Head of Department, students who have an aggregated pass of at least 60% for GOG 1 (i.e. EAR 101 plus GOG 102) may be allowed to register for GOG 201 and GOG 202.

HONOURS DEGREES

The Department of Geography offers separate Honours degrees in Geography and Environmental Water Management (the latter in collaboration with the Institute for Water Resources). In all cases students are required to read four modules, submit a research project proposal, a research project, and present at least two seminars during the year. To pass the Honours degree, a candidate must achieve a pass (i.e. a minimum of 50%) for all four courses and their research project. At the start of the academic year all students will have to attend an induction programme and may include a compulsory field trip. Other field trips, which may be scheduled during a vacation, are also compulsory for several individual Honours modules and students will normally be expected to attend the annual Geography Students Conference. For all programmes, the modules offered may be subject to timetable and staffing constraints. Other appropriate modules may be taken if approved by the Head of Department. Entry into any module will be dependent on being able to provide evidence of appropriate prior knowledge to the Head of Department.

Part of the Geography degree may be taken in conjunction with modules in other departments. Where approximately 50% of a student’s courses are examined in another department, a joint degree is awarded (for example, Honours in Geography/Environmental Science). Any combined degree must be agreed to by both Heads of Department concerned.

Geography and Environmental Water Management Honours students may read for a BScHons, BAHons or a BSocScHons degree, depending on their undergraduate degree and curriculum. Humanities students are reminded of the alternative route to Honours. See Rules H.25(3) and H.25(4).

Each Honours degree is a year-long course (120 credits at NQF level 8)

HONOURS IN GEOGRAPHY

Students are required to take a core, integrative, module (Research Philosophy and Methodology), and select three other courses from those offered by the staff of the Department, Visiting Professors, Visiting Lecturers and Research Associates. Our courses reflect the interests of the staff members and normally include a selection from the following: Extended GIS (Geographical Information Systems); GIS Internship; Catchment Systems; Wetland Ecology and Management; Climate Change and Extreme Events; Geography of Small Towns; Political Ecology; and Earth Observation in a Changing World. Course selection depends on the prerequisite knowledge and experience in respective field at the undergraduate level. Specific specialisations in Geography may be taken (if the personnel and teaching programme allows it) in Landscape Processes and Management, or Spatial Development, where their curricula will be tailored by the course coordinator.

Entrance requirements: 65% average for final year undergraduate studies, with a major in Geography or an equivalent subject (with 65% average). Entry into the GIS and Earth Observation modules requires a pass of 65% for GOG 302 (or an equivalent).

DP requirements: 100% lecture attendance; attendance and completion of ALL tutorials, assignments, practicals and Departmental academic activities; involvement in demonstrating and tutoring in the Department undergraduate programme.

Subminimum for Coursework and Exams: 45% in each course.

HONOURS IN ENVIRONMENTAL WATER MANAGEMENT

Environmental Water Management Honours is offered together with the Institute for Water Research at Rhodes University. Candidates must be in possession of an appropriate Bachelor’s degree, normally majoring in at least one of Geography, Environmental Science or Hydrology. Other candidates with appropriate professional experience in water resource management may be considered. This degree aims to equip students with the conceptual understanding and practical knowledge that are needed to make an effective contribution to the sustainable management of catchment systems and their associated water resources. Students are required to take a core, integrative, module (Research Philosophy and Methodology) and Adaptive Water Resource Management. Students must also select two other courses. Recommended elective courses include: Catchment Systems; Wetland Ecology and Management; Climate Change and Extreme Events; Environmental Water Quality; Hydrology; Freshwater Ecology; Extended GIS (Geographical Information Systems); Earth Observation in a Changing World; or other appropriate courses approved by the Course Coordinator. Course selection depends on the prerequisite knowledge and experience in respective field at the undergraduate level and the research project must be related to Environmental Water Management and approved by the Course Coordinator.
Entrance requirements: 65% average for final year undergraduate studies, with a major in Geography, or Hydrology, or Environmental Science, or Environmental Management, or an appropriate water-management related science. Entry into the GIS and Earth Observation modules requires a pass of 65% for GOG 302 (or an equivalent).

DP requirements: 100% lecture attendance; attendance and completion of ALL tutorials, assignments, practicals and Departmental academic activities; involvement in demonstrating and tutoring in the Department undergraduate programme.

Subminimum for Coursework and Exams: 45% in each course.

INTERDISCIPLINARY HONOURS DEGREES

The Geography Department offers courses as components of various interdisciplinary honours programmes (see Interdepartmental Studies in this Calendar) including Development Studies and Industrial Society. Students should consult the Head of Department concerning available courses.

MASTER’S AND DOCTORAL DEGREES

Suitably qualified students are encouraged to proceed to the research degrees of MSc, MA, MSocSc (each is 180 credits at NQF level 9) and PhD (360 credits at NQF level 10), under the direction of the staff of the Department. Requirements for these degrees are given in the General Rules.
Geology (GLG) is a six-semester subject which may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BCom, BJourn and BEcon (Mineral Economics).

Geology is a recommended co-major with other Science majors such as Chemistry, Physics, one of the Mathematical Sciences, Life Sciences, Geography, and Environmental Science. A BSc in Geology and Economics is also offered. To major in Geology, a candidate is required to obtain the following courses: GLG 1 (comprising EAR 101 and GLG 102); GLG 2; GLG 3. CHE 101 is also required and at least one other appropriate first year semester course chosen from amongst those offered in the departments of Chemistry, Mathematics or Physics. Students are strongly advised to include additional courses in these subjects in their curriculum. Two, or in some cases four, semester-courses in Geology are allowed for degree/diploma curricula in the Faculty of Humanities.

Field-work is a necessary part of Geology courses and a field course fee is payable annually for GLG 2 and GLG 3 and per semester for GLG 102.

See the Departmental Web Page http://www.ru.ac.za/geology/ for further details, particularly on the contents of courses.
Course description: GLG 102 provides a more detailed introduction to the basic principles of geology and to the geology of South Africa. Practical work focuses on the recognition and interpretation of geological maps. Short (one-day) local field excursions are also conducted.

DP requirements:
- Assessment: Class record 40%, Examinations 60%
- Supplementary exam: 45%
- Subminimum for November: 40% for aggregation with EAR 101

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN GEOLOGY

There are two second-year courses in Geology: GLG 201 held in the first semester and GLG 202 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to the year-long course GLG 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course. Practical reports, essays, seminars, class tests, and field course reports collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark.

GLG 1 is required before a student may register for GLG 201 and attendance in GLG 201 is required before a student may register for GLG 202. CHE 101 is required and at least one other appropriate first year semester course chosen from amongst those offered in the departments of Chemistry, Mathematics and Physics. Permission may be granted to repeat these courses concurrently with GLG 201 and GLG 202.

MSC AND PHD DEGREES
The Department pursues an active programme of research into a wide range of problems in Earth Science, leading to the award of the MSc (180 credits at NQF level 9) or PhD degree (360 credits at NQF level 10). Students with Honours degrees are encouraged to participate in these research programmes and prepare theses on their research work.

In addition, the department offers a professionally-oriented postgraduate programme leading to the award of Master’s degrees in Exploration Geology or Economic Geology, through part time coursework and thesis.

Requirements for the MSc and PhD degrees are given in the General Rules. Prospective candidates may write for further details on any of these courses. A detailed booklet on postgraduate courses is available on request.

MSC IN EXPLORATION GEOLOGY
(120 credits at NQF level 9)
This advanced course is open to candidates holding the BSc (Hons) degree, or equivalent four year degree. Two to three years’ relevant professional experience is an additional requirement. In exceptional cases only, applications may be considered from candidates who hold a good BSc degree and have at least five years’ relevant work experience.

The course is designed to cover the most important theoretical and practical aspects of the exploration for, and evaluation of, mineral resources. Instruction is through the medium of lectures, seminars, directed reading, assignments and practical work led by the staff of the Department supported by inputs from experts drawn from industry and other universities. Field-work visits to areas of economic mineralization, and report writing, form integral parts of the course.

The course is offered on a part-time basis only. Coursework is divided into 4 modules presented over 2 years: 2 devoted to the characteristics, origin and distribution of the major ore deposit types and the appropriate exploration methods for discovery and development; the remaining 2 are devoted to exploration techniques, resource assessment, mineral economics and project evaluation. The ore deposit modules have an associated field exercise of two weeks. The ore deposit module is offered in the early part of the year (usually February-April); the techniques module in the third quarter (usually August).

Requirements for the award of the degree include the completion of four coursework modules, and the submission of a dissertation on a topic selected in consultation with the course Director. Coursework is evaluated based on written assignments, reports and verbal presentations throughout the course. Award of the degree requires an aggregate mark of at least 50% on all assessed components.

MSC IN ECONOMIC GEOLOGY
(120 credits at NQF level 8)
This course is designed for graduates holding the qualification of BSc (Hons) or equivalent, and lays greater emphasis upon a research thesis than the degree in Exploration Geology. Previous professional experience is preferred but not a pre-requisite for admission. The requirements for the degree are the completion of two of the modules offered for the MSc Exploration Geology, and the submission of a thesis based on original field or laboratory work on economic geology.

History is a three-year major subject which may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculty of Humanities. The department offers a set of semester courses. A student majoring in History is normally expected to obtain 30 credits in History courses for the first and second year level of study and 60 in the third year, but in some instances that requirement can be waived (see below for specific rules).

Course codes: The digit indicates the year or level of study.

General rules
(i) At every level marks for semester courses are aggregated. Students achieving an aggregate of 50% will be deemed to have passed every course at that level except that at third-year level students who either fail more than one course or obtain a mark of less than 40% in a course will not be granted an overall pass.
(ii) All final examinations are written at the end of the semester in which the course is offered (i.e. June or November).
(iii) Students not majoring in History may, with the permission of the head of department, register for second-level courses in History, without having taken either of the first-level courses, or they may register for third-level courses without having taken any first or second-level courses.
(iv) In some instances, with the permission of the two heads of department concerned, a student majoring in History may be allowed to take a course in another department as part of the History major.

This course must be in a history-related field.

Human Kinetics and Ergonomics (HKE) is a six-semester subject which may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BCom, BJourn and BA. HKE as a major is designed to provide students with an interdisciplinary academic approach to the analysis of performance and human health, in sport, at work and any other domains of life.

Each year (HKE 1, HKE 2, and HKE 3) comprises of modules from the bio-physical domain, the physiological domain, and the cognitive domain; as well as a module that focuses on the integration and application of the three domains. The subject aims at equipping students to understand human responses to the environment they are interacting with. The professional aspects of the programme prepare students for careers or further education in diverse fields including Ergonomics, Sports Science, general health and rehabilitation.

To major in Human Kinetics and Ergonomics, a candidate is required to obtain the following courses: HKE 1; HKE 2; HKE 3. See Rule S.23.

See the Departmental Web Page http://www.ru.ac.za/humankineticsandergonomics/ for further details, particularly on the content of courses.

FIRST-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN HUMAN KINETICS AND ERGONOMICS

HKE 1 is comprised of two first-year courses: HKE 101 is held in the first semester, and HKE 102 in the second semester. A sub-minimum mark of 40% is required to progress from HKE 101 to HKE 102. An aggregate mark for the two semester-courses of at least 50% allows the candidate to obtain the year-course HKE 1, provided the candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component.

HKE 1 is required before a student may register for HKE 2. However, students who wish to major in Ichthyology must obtain both ICH 201 and ICH 202. Adequate performance in ICH 201 is required before a student may register for ICH 202. No supplementary examinations will be offered for either course. Practical reports, essays, seminars and class tests collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark. An ecological fieldtrip is held jointly with the Departments of Entomology and of Botany, and all students are required to attend.

The Department of Ichthyology and Fisheries Science is a leading African academic institution supporting the sustainable utilisation and study of fish and fisheries through teaching and training of students, and conducting research.
In addition to theme-centered topics, the ICH 2 course include theme-independent topics that include ecology, oceanography and evolution and systematics.

Cell Biology (CEL 101) and Zoology (ZOO 102) are required before a student may register for ICH 201 or ICH 202. CHE 1 and BOT 102 are required to major in Ichthyology.

Information Systems (INF) is a two-year major subject which is primarily studied for degree curricula in the Faculty of Commerce. The subject is also studied for the specialist BSc (Information Systems) degree in the Faculty of Science.

The courses offered in the Department concentrate on aspects of the development, application and management of Information Systems in organizations and the technologies used in these processes. Other topics in the courses include corporate communications, project management, databases, data analytics, information systems theory, and the audit and control of information systems. There is an emphasis on computer-based information systems, and practical courses include the use of spreadsheets, financial modelling, database design, decision support systems, IT project management tools, high-level application development tools and computer programming. In addition, various guest lecturers present seminars during the year on a variety of topics relevant to all areas of Information Systems. The management and strategy aspects are well complemented by courses in the Department of Management, while technical and computer-specific aspects are handled in more depth by courses in the Department of Computer Science.

See the Departmental web page (http://www.ru.ac.za/informationsystems/) for further details, particularly on the content of courses.

SECOND-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN INFORMATION SYSTEMS

The Department offers three second-year level courses: INF 201, INF 202 and INF 203. Information Systems 2 consists of the two one-semester courses INF 201 and INF 202; or INF 201 and INF 203. Credit may be obtained in any of the courses separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a two-semester course INF 2, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component (see Rule C.12). A candidate who fails INF 201 shall be permitted to proceed to INF 202 or INF 203 provided the required sub-minimum in INF 201 has been obtained. A pass in INF 202 or INF 203 in such circumstances shall NOT relieve the candidate of the need to pass INF 201 in order to gain credit for the full course unless an aggregated pass is awarded. No supplementary examinations will be offered in any of the courses.

INF 202 is normally taken by students following a general or Information Systems professional route, whilst INF 203 is normally taken by students following an Accounting professional route as set out in the Bachelor of Commerce (Accounting) curriculum or who intend to register later for the Post-Graduate Diploma in Accountancy or the Honours programme in Financial Management. Students are also permitted to take both INF 202 and INF 203, in which case any one of the general or Information Systems professional or Accounting professional routes is available to them.
Students must normally gain credit in INF 201 and INF 202, or INF 2 with INF 201 and INF 202 aggregated, before being permitted to register for INF 301.

INTERDEPARTMENTAL STUDIES

SCHOOL OF LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES – INTERDISCIPLINARY COURSES

CULTURES AND LANGUAGES IN AFRICA (CLIA) 101 AND 102
These two courses are open to all undergraduates, can be taken independently of one another and will, if passed, result in a semester credit each.

PURPOSE OF CLIA 101 AND 102: To familiarise students with the relationships between societies, cultures, identities and languages in Africa; to give students the tools to think holistically and critically about a multicultural, intercultural and multilingual world.

OUTCOMES OF CLIA 101 AND 102: An understanding of the relationships between cultures, languages, societies and identities in Africa; an understanding of inter-, intra- and cross-cultural communication; an understanding of what it means to be a socially engaged African and global citizen.

CULTURES AND LANGUAGES IN AFRICA 101
Students will engage critically with the relationships between cultures and languages in Africa. In CLIA 101 the focus will be on the functioning of African languages, in particular isiXhosa, in pre-colonial social contexts, on reciprocal influences in languages in Africa since the 18th century, on the introduction of Dutch, French, German and the classical languages (Latin and Ancient Greek) during the colonial period, and on the relationships between these languages, the indigenous languages, and the societies in which they are embedded, i.e. the process of creolization.

CULTURES AND LANGUAGES IN AFRICA 102
In CLIA 102 the focus will be on language as a site of struggle and identity formation in Africa, with particular focus on works of isiXhosa scholarship, and other African intellectuals, on the rise of Négritude in Francophone Africa, on German-speaking communities in Africa during the two World Wars, the German language and its role in the shaping of some South African identities during World War II, and on the appropriation of the classical languages (and translations thereof) in the shaping of some South African cultural identities. A study of selected South African texts will explore the cross-cultural tensions of pre-and post-1994 in South Africa. In addition, an analysis of visual media (e.g. soap operas, film and cartoons) will be used to explore language and multi-cultural communication (and miscommunication) in Africa.

MODERN FICTION
This is a one-year non-initial course, presented by members of various language departments, for students who have already obtained two credits. See also Regulation H.13.1. This course is designed primarily to give students of literature a greater appreciation of modern fiction.

Major works of film and fiction written between 1850 and the present are studied in English translation. The course also introduces students to the intellectual and cultural currents within which these works were produced. Lists of prescribed texts and recommended reading for the course are available from members of the Division of Afrikaans and Netherlandic Studies in the School of Languages.

AFRICAN STUDIES PROGRAMME
In the belief that knowledge of events in Africa is of vital importance to this country, the University offers postgraduate courses in African Studies at Honours, Master’s and PhD levels for students wishing to make comparative studies of social, political and economic development in Africa. The approach is essentially interdisciplinary.

THE HONOURS DEGREE
1. Honours curricula proposals must be submitted to the Dean of Humanities for approval. The Honours Degree is a one-year course, the aim of which is to enable students to pursue interrelated or complementary topics from various disciplines in African Studies. The examination normally consists of four papers and a research essay on a topic approved by the Head of the Department within which the essay is to be supervised. The candidate may be permitted to write a fifth examination paper in place of the research essay.
Faculty of Humanities regulations governing research essays (see the note to Regulation H.35 will apply to a research essay in the African Studies Honours degree.

2. Students must write at least two papers (counting the research essay as a paper) in one of the following academic disciplines: African Languages, Anthropology, Economic History, Economics, English, History, Industrial Sociology, Journalism and Media Studies, Psychology, Political and International Studies or Sociology. Both papers must be specifically related to Africa. Students will not normally be admitted to the Programme unless they satisfy the criteria for admission to the honours programme in which the above two papers are written. The remaining three papers (or two papers and a research essay) may be chosen from honours courses offered by the participating disciplines noted above, or from any other discipline, provided that:

(a) two papers must be specifically related to Africa, and
(b) the third paper must be sufficiently related to the other four papers to contribute to the overall aim of the Honours Degree in African studies.
(c) The Head of the Department in which the paper is being offered is satisfied that the student has a training adequate to the demands of the paper being offered.

3. The degree will be an honours degree in the principal subject with the words “(African Studies)” added.

African Studies components in other curricula

African Studies components are included in the normal curricula in a number of departments, including the Division of African Languages in the School of Languages, Anthropology, Economics and Economic History, Geography, History, Political and International Studies. See the relevant department entries for undergraduate and/or postgraduate courses including African Studies components.

The Master’s degree is offered by coursework and thesis and by thesis only, and PhD in African Studies is offered by thesis only. However, the African Studies Co-ordinators, with the approval of the Dean, may require Master’s or Doctoral candidates to pass relevant courses offered by the University at Honours or Master’s level. Master’s and PhD candidates in African Studies will be registered in a disciplinary Department.

INTERDISCIPLINARY HONOURS DEGREES

The University offers a number of interdisciplinary honours degrees which are designed to enable students who have majored in a variety of disciplines to concentrate their studies in relatively new areas of research in which the traditional divide between disciplines is no longer appropriate and in which a multi-disciplinary approach offers a richer understanding of some important topics of intellectual interests. The current programmes are:

- Development Studies; Gender Studies; Industrial Relations; Southern African Cultural Studies.

The participating departments and divisions are African Languages (AL); Afrikaans and Netherlandic Studies (A&N); Anthropology (A); English (Eng); Economics and Economic History (Econ); Fine Art (FA); Geography (G); History (H); Information Systems (IS); Journalism and Media Studies (J); Law (LW); Linguistics and English Language (L); Management (M); Philosophy (PH); Political and International Studies (PO); Psychology (P); and Sociology (S).

1. Students will be subject to the Regulations for Honours Degrees in the Faculty of Humanities (H.23 to H.37) except that the “alternate route to Honours”, provided in H.24.3 shall not be permitted.
2. Students will be required to write five papers, one of which will be a long essay.
3. Although the programmes are administered by different departments, students would register in a department in which they majored and would be required to take two papers (which may include a long essay) in that department.
4. The Dean of the Faculty in consultation with the head of the Department which administers the degree is responsible for approving the structure of papers for the degree and all other matters relating to the regulation of the degree.
5. No student will be admitted to a particular paper without the consent of the head of the Department in which the paper is being offered.
6. Assessment of individual papers will follow the rules of the department in which they are offered.

Entrance requirements: None.

Course description: An introduction to Journalism and Media Studies comprising of the following modules:
• Introduction to the Theory and Practice of Journalism
• Introduction to Digital Journalism
JOURNALISM AND MEDIA STUDIES 2 (JMS2)

Second-year, full-year course (30 credits at NQF level 6)

Entrance requirements: JMS1. There are 120 places in JMS2 – entry into JMS2 is not guaranteed. Applications are submitted by students and reviewed in committee. The following areas are taken into account: individual academic performance; a portfolio of journalistic work completed by students during their first year; tutors’ reports and students’ progress; an evaluative and biographical questionnaire and a critical reflection of media work undertaken in the course of the year. Furthermore, students wishing to apply for entry to JMS2 must complete a programme of journalistic work in order to meet the application criteria. NB: You will not qualify to enter JMS2 unless you have passed at least two other first year credits in addition to JMS1.

Course description: This course is divided equally into two streams, which are taught concurrently:
- Media Production: A semester-long module in Broadcast Production and another semester-long module in Publication Production.

IsiXhosa for Journalism is a one-year course offered by the School of Languages. This course is compulsory for all students majoring in Journalism and Media Studies and must be taken during the second year of their degree.

DP requirements: Same as above. In addition it is a DP requirement that all JMS2 students complete 40 hours of observation work at an approved media organization in their second year (work done in JMS1 will not count).

Sub-minimum for June: 50%

A candidate who fails to obtain 50% for one of the components but passes on aggregate will be granted a non-continuing pass and may not repeat Journalism and Media Studies 2. It is therefore strongly recommended that students who register for Journalism and Media Studies 2 also register for two other second year credits in order to ensure that they still have two major options should they fail Journalism and Media Studies 2 or pass the year with a non-continuing pass.

JOURNALISM AND MEDIA STUDIES 3 (JMS3)

Third-year, full-year course (60 credits at NQF level 7)

Entrance requirements: JMS2 + entry to Journalism and Media Studies 3 is predicated upon a candidate obtaining a minimum of 50% for both the Media Studies and Media Practice components of the Journalism and Media Studies 2 course. Entry into the student’s first-choice media specialisation is based on individual performance at Journalism and Media Studies 2 level as well as on written motivations and additional media experience.

Course description:
- Specialisation studies options: Design, Photojournalism, Radio, Television, Writing and Editing
- Media Studies: Media Law and Ethics, Media and Society and Radical Discourses Online

DP requirements: Same as JMS1 and JMS2

Assessment:
- Media Specialisation = 62.5% of year mark (50% for production and 12.5% for Theory of Practice)
- Media Law and Ethics = 12.5%
- Media and Society = 12.5%

Acceptance into a fourth-year media specialisation will be decided on the basis of performance, portfolio and written motivation and/or interview. Students who achieve below 60% for either their final JMS3 practical or Media Studies mark will jeopardise their chances of advancing into JMS4.
Course description: JMS4 consists of three courses, all of which are compulsory:

INTERDEPARTMENTAL COURSES

1. CULTURES AND LANGUAGES IN AFRICA (CLIA) 101 AND 102
These two courses are open to all undergraduates, can be taken independently of one another and will, if passed, result in a semester credit each.

PURPOSE OF CLIA 101 AND 102: To familiarise students with the relationships between societies, cultures, identities and languages in Africa; to give students the tools to think holistically and critically about a multicultural, intercultural and multilingual world.

OUTCOMES OF CLIA 101 AND 102: An understanding of the relationships between cultures, languages, societies and identities in Africa; an understanding of inter-, intra- and cross-cultural communication; an understanding of what it means to be a socially engaged African and global citizen.

CULTURES AND LANGUAGES IN AFRICA 101
Students will engage critically with the relationships between cultures and languages in Africa. In CLIA 101 the focus will be on the functioning of African languages, in particular isiXhosa, in pre-colonial social contexts, on reciprocal influences in languages in Africa since the 18th century, on the introduction of Dutch, French, German and the classical languages (Latin and Ancient Greek) during the colonial period, and on the relationships between these languages, the indigenous languages, and the societies in which they are embedded, i.e. the process of creolization.

CULTURES AND LANGUAGES IN AFRICA 102
In CLIA 102 the focus will be on language as a site of struggle and identity formation in Africa, with particular focus on works of isiXhosa scholarship, and other African intellectuals, on the rise of Négritude in Francophone Africa, on German-speaking communities in Africa during the two World Wars, the German language and its role in the shaping of some South African identities during World War II, and on the appropriation of the classical languages (and translations thereof) in the shaping of some South African cultural identities. A study of selected South African texts will explore the cross-cultural tensions of pre-and post-1994 in South Africa. In addition, an analysis of visual media (e.g. soap operas, film and cartoons) will be used to explore language and multi-cultural communication (and miscommunication) in Africa.

2. MODERN FICTION
This is a one year non-initial course, presented by members of various language departments, for students who have already obtained two credits. See also Regulation H.13.1. As the course is designed primarily to give students of literature a greater appreciation of modern fiction, it is strongly recommended that students taking this course should also enrol for at least one course in a European language other than English or Afrikaans & Nederlands.

Major works of prose fiction written between 1850 and the present are studied in English translation. The course also introduces students to the intellectual and cultural currents within which these works were produced, and to relevant aspects of the structure of fiction. Lists of prescribed texts and recommended reading for the course are available from members of the Division of Afrikaans and Netherlandic Studies in the School of Languages. Paper 1 is written off in June.

Paper 1 (June)
Narrative theory
Text Study

Paper 2 (November)
The rise of contemporary fictional forms
Text study

The order of the two papers (Paper 1 and Paper 2) for Modern Fiction may vary from year to year.

Entrance requirements: This course is compulsory for all students majoring in Journalism and Media Studies and must be taken during the second year of their degree. If students fail the course at the end of this year, they will be allowed to repeat the course during their third year of study. The course must be completed before a student can graduate. Such students will be allocated either to the Mother Tongue or Second Language stream, depending on their level of proficiency in isiXhosa. Students who plan to proceed to isiXhosa 2 in this way may apply to complete the isiXhosa for Journalism course during their first year.

Course description: The purpose of the IsiXhosa for Journalism course is to enable students to work confidently and sensitively as journalists in multilingual and multicultural environments. It achieves this goal by focusing on what it means to work as a journalist in the environment in which Rhodes University is based. Because isiXhosa is the primary language of communication for the majority of people in this context, the course focuses on strengthening students’ ability to communicate in this language. This aspect of the course is designed to accommodate students with widely different proficiency levels in isiXhosa, from those who are fluent to those who have no experience in speaking the language. The course also assists students in strengthening their ability to reflect in an informed way on how journalism is produced and circulated in multicultural contexts. They do so by exploring cultural and linguistic questions and debates of relevance to the South African context, with particular reference to issues of relevance to environments in which isiXhosa is spoken. The knowledge students acquire in this way is, however, more widely applicable, strengthening their ability to engage with the languages and cultures that are of relevance to any work environment.

Assessment: It is both formative and summative and in the form of orals that simulate contexts where language is used in journalistic environments and journalistic projects and essays. Students are assessed throughout the duration of the course to evaluate whether they have accomplished the specific outcomes as given in the course. Formative assessment is 50% and summative assessment is 50%

IsiXhosa for Pharmacy is a semester course that can be taken in either semester (15 credits at NQF level 5).

Entrance requirements: It is taken during the fourth year of the pharmacy degree where students are required to interact, during their Community Experience Programme, with speakers of isiXhosa in Grahamstown and in other communities where isiXhosa is spoken.

Course description: The purpose of the course is to give students language skills, specific to their vocation, to be able to cope during “patient-client” interviews in contexts where isiXhosa has to be spoken. This is a beginner course and other than basic literacy skills in English, there is no prior knowledge expected of isiXhosa from the students.
During lectures the focus is in all four language learning skills (i.e. speaking, listening, reading and writing). Students are also provided with knowledge and skills which will be necessary for them to understand and interpret cultural issues embedded in isiXhosa communication, especially those specific in the context of medicine.

Assessment: It is both formative and summative and in the form of orals that simulate contexts where language is used (or “On-site clinical examinations” – OSCEs) and reflective essays. Students are assessed throughout the duration of the course to evaluate whether they have accomplished the specific outcomes as given in the course.

Suitably qualified Pharmacy professionals who wish to specialise in research in clinical services, the design and implementation of professional and clinical health-related systems may be considered for registration for study toward this degree. The programme focuses on applied, operational and fundamental research which is supported by supplemental course work. It provides research based practical experience and is designed to prepare candidates to:

• develop, evaluate and improve pharmaceutical systems which ensure that the appropriate drugs are available and that they are used rationally in such a way as to improve the quality of life
• develop, evaluate and improve systems to provide clinical services which include the design, delivery, monitoring and evaluation of pharmaco-therapeutic guidelines and patient-specific pharmaco-therapy

• provide specialised, advanced, drug information and pharmaco-therapeutic education to other health professionals
• develop, evaluate and improve drug use policies, formularies and rational treatment protocols, to rationalise and control drug use.

Programme participants are required to perform applied, operational and fundamental research in a number of areas. Each area of research is supported by distance learning modules and takes place in an on-site experiential programme at an approved clinical site. Each rotation is evaluated independently in partial fulfilment of the requirements for the degree of Doctor of Pharmacy and together they constitute a thesis for this degree. IiNtetho zoBomi: Conversations About Ethics, Meaning and Community
This student-led service-learning course (the first of its kind at Rhodes University and in South Africa) deals with some of the pressing questions that define the discipline of philosophy as well as our age; but, most importantly, it focuses on giving students the opportunity to become more effective ethical agents through, among other things, philosophical reflection and critical engagement with others. It is of interest to students who want to live in ways that are informed by deep reflection about self, others and their context, and which reflect their own endorsed values and beliefs, as opposed to those they have pre-reflectively learnt from (our highly problematic) society. This course has no prerequisites and can be taken by anyone who is registered at Rhodes University. It can be taken either as a one-year course, starting in the first or second semester of any given year, or as a semester course (either in the first or the second semester of any given year). It is an offering of the Allan Gray Centre for Leadership Ethics, which is part of the Department of Philosophy. It complements but is not a replacement of courses offered as part of the philosophy major. A 70% pass in BOM 101 and BOM 102 may be used for entrance to PHI 2.

IiNtetho zoBomi 1 consists of IiNtetho zoBomi 101 and IiNtetho zoBomi 102

IiNtetho zoBomi 101 First-year, first semester (15 credits at NQF level 5)
Entrance Requirements: None
Course description: IiNtetho zoBomi 101 introduces students to some of the pressing philosophical questions in relation to free will and ethics, as well as the central concepts of agency, awareness, lucidity, and responsibility through exploring some of the basic cognitive biases and behavioural forces that get in the way of our acting according to the values that we ourselves endorse—e.g. confirmation bias, selective attention, conformity, and obedience to authority.
Assessment: Coursework 100%
DP requirement: 80% attendance at conversations and lectures (absence beyond 80% for either conversations or lectures must be justified with an LOA), 100% attendance at service learning (a valid LOA must be provided for missing any service-learning activities).

Physics with Electronics (PHY) is a six-semester subject which may be taken as a major subject for the degrees of BSc, BCom and BJourn.

Up to two, or in some cases four, Physics with Electronics semester-courses may be allowed for degree/diploma curricula in the Faculties of Humanities, Education and Pharmacy.

Besides the major course, the department offers two terminal semester courses in Physics and Electronics, namely PHY 1E1 (non-calculus Elementary Physics) and PHY 1E2 (Electronics Literacy).

Physics 1E1 is a service course designed to meet the needs of students in the Department of Human Kinetics and Ergonomics but is also well suited to students majoring in the biological sciences. Any student accepted into the university may register for PHY 1E2, which affords students in a wide range of disciplines an opportunity to gain an understanding of basic electronics and modern electronic devices such as computers. Aggregating Physics 1E1 and Physics 1E2 is not permitted.

PHY 101, PHY 102, PHY 1E1 and PHY 1E2 are highly recommended choices of prerequisites for students who wish to major in Chemistry. (Refer to the Department of Chemistry Calendar entry.)

See the Departmental Web Page http://www.ru.ac.za/academic/departments/physics/ for further details, particularly on the contents of courses.

FIRST-YEAR LEVEL COURSES IN PHYSICS WITH ELECTRONICS

There are two first-year courses in Physics with Electronics for candidates planning to major in physical, computational, mathematical or earth science subjects. PHY 101 is held in the first semester and PHY 102 in the second semester. Credit for each course may be obtained separately and, in addition, an aggregate mark of at least 50% will be deemed to be equivalent to a year-course PHY 1, provided that a candidate obtains the required sub-minimum in each component. Supplementary examinations may be recommended in either course, provided that a candidate achieves a minimum standard specified by the Department. Class tests and reports collectively comprise the class mark, which forms part of the final mark for each course.
Candidates wishing to register for PHY 101 must have obtained a level 5 pass in Mathematics and a level 5 pass in Physical Science in the National Senior Certificate examination, or the equivalent thereof.

Adequate performance in PHY 101 is required before a student may register for PHY 102. Alternatively, candidates who attain a sufficiently high standard in PHY 1E1 may be allowed to register for PHY 102, obtain PHY 1 and then proceed to PHY 2.

A three-year major in Psychology or a two-year major in Organisational Psychology may be studied for degree curricula in the Faculties of Humanities, Commerce and Science.

All undergraduate courses in Psychology and Organisational Psychology are semester courses; for all three undergraduate levels, the first semester should normally be taken before the second semester course. Psychology 101 and 102 are common first-year credit for students majoring in Psychology or Organisational Psychology. In the second year students elect to continue either to Psychology 201 and 202 or Organisational Psychology 201 and 202. A major in Psychology (Psychology 301 and 302) is recommended for students planning to enter a career in psychological and/or social research, or in the helping professions with an emphasis on counselling or clinical work. It is also recommended for students wanting to work in a range of settings that require interactions with individuals and groups. A major in Organisational Psychology (Organisational Psychology 301 and 302) is a good preparation for work in human resources, management or organisational development.
Students who wish to switch from Psychology to Organisational Psychology or vice versa require permission from the Head of Department. This will not be automatic and in cases where permission is given assignments may be set to enable students to cover the work they have missed. Currently, it is not permitted to major in Psychology and Organisational Psychology.

Concurrent registration first and second year courses, or second and third year courses in Psychology or Organisational Psychology requires permission from the Head of Department and is only allowed in exceptional circumstances.

The Critical Studies in Sexualities and Reproductions Research Programme (CSSR) is a unit within the Psychology Department that conducts multidisciplinary research. Masters and doctoral supervision is open to postgraduate students located in psychology or other humanities departments who have a background in any of the relevant social sciences.

SOCIOMETRY 1 (SOC1)
First-year, full-year course (30 credits at NQF level 5)

Entrance requirements: None

This course introduces students to the concepts (i.e. language) used by sociologists as well as the theoretical perspectives they employ when analysing society. Social inequality, institutions (such as the state, the family, education, and the economy), and social change are discussed. Also included in Sociology I are topical themes such as deviance, social change, work and leisure, population, urbanisation, environment, sexuality, poverty, sub-cultures, the media in society, religion, and other relevant issues. The papers in this course have a strong South African focus.

Assessment: Coursework counts 30% and examinations in June and November count 70%

Supplementary exams: June/November result of 40 – 49%

SOCIOMETRY 2 (SOC2)
Second-year, full-year course (30 credits at NQF level 6)

Entrance requirement: SOC1

This course consists of the following core papers:
Theory and Society: This course begins by introducing students to the theorising process in sociology. The central concerns and ideas of the major classical theorists are discussed. The focus is on ideas and theories developed to understand and explain significant social changes brought about by earlier economic, social and political transformations up to and including events of the early 20th century. The relevance of these theories for contemporary societies is addressed.
Introduction to Social Research: This is an introductory course to research methods, which are indispensable to the work of sociologists as they construct scientific explanations of human society through empirical investigations. The basic dimensions of the research process, including research design and research techniques, are covered.

Two specialised areas of study that will be on offer, as determined by the Department in a particular year, include Sociology of Development, Crime and Deviance, Political Sociology, Family Sociology, Sociology of Language, Race and Class, Environment and Society, Mass Communication, Migrant Studies, Sociology of Education, Sociology of Health and Illness, and Popular Culture.

Assessment: Coursework counts 40% and examinations in June and November count 60%
Supplementary exams: June/November result of 40 – 49%

SOCIOLOGY 3 (SOC3)
Third-year, full-year course (60 credits at NQF level 7)
Entrance requirement: SOC2

This course consists of the following core papers:
Contemporary Social Theory: This course includes contemporary theories and covers modern debates on the theorising process as well as the contours of the different systems of thought in the discipline.
Social Research: This is an intermediate research methods course that builds on the second-year social research course. It provides a deeper and more nuanced understanding of the research process as well as the many complexities and challenges faced in undertaking social research.

Two specialised areas of study that will be on offer, as determined by the Department in a particular year, include Development Studies, Sociology of Education, Race and Ethnicity, Gender Studies, Sociology of Religion, State and Society, Political Sociology, Sociology of Law, Environment and Society, and Popular Culture.

INDUSTRIAL AND ECONOMIC SOCIOLOGY 2 (IES2)
Second-year, full-year course (30 credits at NQF level 6)
Entrance requirement: SOC1

This course consists of the following papers:
Industry, Economy, and Society: This course provides a conceptual and theoretical foundation for Industrial and Economic Sociology and thus lays the basis for all other courses that follow. It examines the historical rise of capitalist societies and developments in the economy and industry during the 20th and 21st centuries. Both classical and contemporary thinkers are covered in the course.
Sociology of Work: This course explores in detail the question of work in industrial society, and considers the related areas of technological development and managerial strategies. It examines both classical and contemporary theoretical views on work. Included in the course is a discussion of the debates on the changing labour process. Contemporary forms of industrial restructuring and the future of work are also covered.
Introduction to Social Research: This is an introductory course to research methods, which are indispensable to the work of sociologists as they construct scientific explanations of human society through empirical investigations. The basic dimensions of the research process, including research design and research techniques, are explored.
Sociology of Labour Markets: This course offers a distinctively sociological understanding of labour markets in capitalist societies. It examines the power structures and inequalities that underpin labour markets. In addition, it traces the important changes in the standard employment contract that have taken place under neoliberal restructuring.

Other specialised areas of study that may be on offer, as determined by the Department in a particular year, include Gender and Work, Industrial and Occupational Health, Organisational Studies, Labour in the World Economy, and Conflict in the Workplace.

Assessment: Coursework counts 40% and examinations in June and November count 60%

INDUSTRIAL AND ECONOMIC SOCIOLOGY 3 (IES3)
Third-year, full-year course (60 credits at NQF level 7)
Entrance requirement: IES2

This course consists of the following papers:
Political Economy of Contemporary Capitalism: This course explores contemporary capitalism, with specific reference to neo-liberal restructuring, locating South African developments within larger global and historical processes. It introduces economic sociology and political economy, an examination of the theory underlying, and the causes and effects, of neo-liberal models; it also considers the impact of competing state policies and state capacity – and class struggles – on those policies. The course also examines alternative models, and considers the question of whether there are alternatives to neo-liberalism.

Industrial Relations: This course introduces the dynamics and institutions of industrial relations. The role in collective bargaining of trade unions, employers’ organisations, and the government are explored in some detail. Aspects of labour law, such as discipline, retrenchment and dismissal, are also covered. The final part of the course deals with the nature of industrial conflict as well as the various models of and mechanisms for dispute resolution.

Social Research: This is an intermediate research methods course that builds on the second-year social research course. It provides a deeper and more nuanced understanding of the research process as well as the many complexities and challenges faced in undertaking social research.

Trade Unions and Comparative Labour History: In this course, classical and contemporary theories of trade unions are reviewed. This is followed by a comparative and historical study of trade union movements in selected countries. A primary focus is on the nature and functions of trade unions, their relationship to political parties and the state, their organisation and politics, and their structures and tactics. In addition, we consider issues such as the historical shifts in trade union tactics, the role of the trade union movement in democratic change, and the strategic challenges faced by the trade union movement.

Other specialised areas of study that may be on offer, as determined by the Department in a particular year, include Development and Industrialisation, State and Labour, Contemporary Capitalism and Globalisation, Economic and Industrial Policy, Economic Sociology, and Labour and Workplace Restructuring.

RESEARCH UNITS

Governance and Development Unit (GDU)

The GDU seeks to strengthen the governance of public resources and to improve public service delivery and development outcomes in South Africa, particularly at municipal level. The GDU’s Municipal Governance programme undertakes research into municipal services (like water, sanitation, refuse removal, and electricity) and provides tailored short certificate course training to municipal councillors, officials, and members of civil society. The GDU also provides opportunities to postgraduate students to gain work experience as paid interns in South African municipalities. Selected students undertake research and provide support to municipal management and oversight structures (by, for instance, acting as Municipal Public Accounts Committee researchers). They subsequently integrate their findings and experiences into their Master’s degree theses and are assisted to publish their research.

Neil Aggett Labour Studies Unit (NALSU)

The NALSU is a labour studies hub at Rhodes University, built around a vibrant interdisciplinary team. It is named in honour of Dr Neil Hudson Aggett, a trade union organiser and medical doctor, who died in 1982 in the jails of the apartheid state. NALSU is located in the Department of Sociology and Industrial Sociology, but includes members from History, and Economics & Economic History. NALSU has developed active research partnerships with a range of national and international research and advocacy organisations, and draws strength from its location in the Eastern Cape Province. Its work includes research on a wide range of issues, public engagement and trade union education, and the related production of popular materials.

Unit of Zimbabwean Studies (UZS)

The UZS has two main components. First, Master’s and doctoral students, who undertake research on a range of topics pertaining to Zimbabwean history and society, including land and land reform, livelihoods, civil society, social movements and political parties. Second, research is undertaken by the UZS in conjunction with colleagues at universities in Zimbabwe. In addition and when possible, Zimbabwean studies are covered at third-year and honours levels.

Mathematical Statistics (MST) and Applied Statistics (AST) are five semester subjects which may be taken as major subjects for the degrees of BSc, BSc(InfSys), BA, BSoCSc, BCom, BBusSc and BEcon.

To major in Mathematical Statistics a candidate is required to obtain the following courses: MAM 1; MST 102; MST 2; MST 3. See Rule S.22.

To major in Applied Statistics a candidate is required to obtain the following courses: MAM 1; MST 102; MST 2; AST 3. See Rule S.22.

The availability of both MST 3 and AST 3 in any year is subject to adequate staffing.

A pass in Mathematics (level 4 or greater) on the NSC is a prerequisite for admission to all first-year courses in the Department.

If a candidate obtains a pass in a semester-course offered by the Department, but fails to gain an aggregate pass for the year-long course in the following ordinary or supplementary examination, then that candidate is required to pass the semester-course failed in order to obtain credit for the year-long course.

Besides the major courses, the department offers various other courses in Statistics.

A portfolio is assessed for the applied statistics and consulting seminar series. The portfolio counts 5% of the final Honours mark. The project mark is the average of the supervisors and external examiners mark. The oral presentation of the project counts 30% of the research project mark. The presentation mark is the average of the mark awarded by the members of staff at the presentation.

The Albany Museum falls under the Department of Sport, Recreation, Arts and Culture in the Eastern Cape government, although the building and collections are owned by a Board of Trustees. The Museum, as an Affiliated Institution, has enjoyed a long and productive relationship with Rhodes University. Several staff members are Science Faculty Board Members, have supervised numerous student project over the years, and have run courses within the academic programmes of departments such as Entomology, Botany and Geology. Museum staff engage extensively with the public, in the form of tours and talks to local school groups (contact the Museum for a copy of our Education Booklet with a schedule of focus weeks run by each department), participation in Scifest, careers days and many other initiatives. Our extensive collections of insects, fossils, birds and plants are an important research and heritage resource.

History of the Albany Museum

The Albany Museum, the second oldest museum in southern Africa, was founded in September 1855. The Museum acquired its own building in 1902 when the core block of the present Natural Sciences Museum was built. The palaeontological and geological collections have their origins with the collections of Andrew Geddes Bain and Dr W Guybon Atherstone; Dr Schonland built up the herbarium and the library.

With Dr Schonland, came the historic ties which the Museum has with Rhodes University. He addressed the Cape Parliament, speaking for the establishment of a university in Grahamstown, and persuaded the trustees of Cecil Rhodes’s estate to pledge funds for the establishment of Rhodes University College. When the College was established in 1904, the Director, Dr Schonland became its first professor of Botany. Dr Schonland was succeeded as director by Dr John Hewitt.

John Hewitt’s research lay in the fields of vertebrate zoology and archaeology. During this period Grahamstown’s longstanding affair with fishes started. In 1930 Dr JLB Smith, Senior Lecturer in Chemistry at Rhodes, identified and catalogued the Museum’s marine fish collection.

On 6 September 1941 the Museum was burnt down. The library and most of the collections were saved but there was a great loss of exhibited material. The Museum was rebuilt and the displays were reconstructed.
In 1952 the Museum’s collection of fishes was loaned to the University’s Department of Ichthyology. Three years later the Museum celebrated its centenary and, in 1957, its staff became Provincial employees. Dr John Hewitt retired the following year, and was succeeded by Dr T. H. Barry.

During Dr Barry’s tenure of five years the Hewitt and Rennie Wings were added to the Natural Sciences Museum and the 1820 Settlers Memorial Museum was built.

The period between 1965 and 1977, the directorship of Mr C. F. Jacot Guillarmod, was one of consolidation. The National Collection of Freshwater Organisms was transferred from the CSIR to the Museum. Fort Selwyn was restored by the Province and handed over to the Museum in 1977.

Under Mr Jacot Guillarmod’s successor, Mr B. C. Wilmot, the Museum entered a new period of growth. De Beers Consolidated Mines Limited purchased and restored the Observatory and the Priest’s House and donated them to the Museum. The Old Provost was restored by the Province.

The freshwater fish collections of the Transvaal and Cape Nature Conservation authorities, the Natal Museum and the South African Museum were transferred to the Albany Museum. Museum staff started teaching short courses at the University and, in 1983, the Museum became an Associated Research Institute of Rhodes University.

The Museum’s close relationship with the University was expanded with the consolidation of the herbaria of the two institutions and the formation of the Selmar Schonland Herbarium, housed in the Museum.

The Biopharmaceutics Research Institute (BRI) is a Specialty Contract Research Organisation, established in 1987 and dedicated to conducting bioavailability/bioequivalence and pharmacokinetic studies on topical corticosteroid drug products in accordance with international requirements and specifications. The Institute has been inspected, audited and approved by a number of international regulatory authorities such as the USA’s Food & Drug Administration (FDA) , the World Health Organization (WHO) and the South African Health Products Regulatory Authority (formerly known as the Medicines Control Council – MCC) and is internationally acknowledged as a premier testing site using the Vasoconstrictor Assay (VCA) in accordance with the internationally accepted FDA’s guidance for such products.

A full range of services for the clinical, statistical and report generation aspects of bioavailability/bioequivalence and pharmacokinetic studies are undertaken according to Good Clinical Practice (GCP) and standard operating procedures (SOPs). The BRI provides safety and efficacy testing services to pharmaceutical manufacturing companies for topical corticosteroid drug products for national and international regulatory registration purposes as well as for formulation development purposes. Topical corticosteroid products which have been successfully tested at the BRI have received marketing authorisation in South Africa, Europe, United States of America and Canada.

Studies are conducted in a clinic staffed by experienced investigators including study physicians, registered pharmacists and QA officers where the Executive Director has over 40 years of experience with studies on topical corticosteroids.
The Institute has a pool of well-trained professional nurses who assist in general clinical activities. Study protocols are submitted for review for ethical approval according to GCP principles and in accordance with the requirements of the Declaration of Helsinki.

Motivated and responsible volunteers are recruited from male and female members of the Rhodes University student body. The clinic is ideally situated on the Rhodes University campus and is within easy walking distance of volunteers residing in University residences or off-campus - over 50% of the student body reside on campus.

The Institute also provides facilities for postgraduate projects leading to MSc and PhD degrees.

DICTIONARY UNIT FOR SOUTH AFRICAN ENGLISH (DSAE)

Director
T van Niekerk, BA (Hons), MA (Rhodes)
Senior Editor
B Le Du, BA (UNISA), BA (Hons)(NMMU)
Associate Editor: Systems Development
R Slater, BA (Hons)(Rhodes)

The DSAE formally began researching South African English vocabulary and usage in 1969. The project was initiated by the late Professor Bill Branford, Rhodes University’s first professor of English Language and Linguistics, and continued.
over the following decades by new teams of linguists and lexicographers. Almost 30 years later, in 1996, the fruits of the Dictionary Unit’s early research were published by Oxford University Press as A Dictionary of South African English on Historical Principles (DSAEHist). The archives of the DSAE’s research constitute a unique resource for students of the English language as it is used in South Africa. In addition to computerised holdings and a comprehensive library, the Unit’s resources include over 300,000 card indexes collected between 1969 and the 1990s showing contexts for words and phrases in South African English. Sources range from early explorers’ and settlers’ journals to printed books, contemporary newspapers and oral transcriptions.

In 2014 the DSAE’s transition to electronic platforms and research methods was signaled by the publication of an electronic version of DSAEHist as a pilot online edition (freely available at http://dsae.co.za). Currently the Unit is near the completion of a comprehensive adaptation of this dictionary to produce an enhanced version of the online edition which exploits possibilities new to electronic lexicography. It has played a leading role in the developing domain of electronic dictionary design and produces academic research on electronic lexicography. At the same time the Unit has, in collaboration with the Institute for Information Science and Language Technology at the University of Hildesheim, Germany, embarked on a dramatic expansion of its electronic database holdings by applying computational linguistic methods to a newly-created South African English corpus of about three billion words.

In addition to its dictionary projects, the DSAE assists both national and international researchers as well as the general public with enquiries about South African English. It also contributes to the promotion of multilingualism in South Africa by maintaining regular contact with the lexicography units for all the other official languages and participating in the wider language community.

The DSAE is an Associated Institute of Rhodes University, and is a registered Non-Profit Company. As one of eleven National Lexicography Units it is funded by the Pan South African Language Board. In addition the DSAE receives royalties from the sales of its two commercial publications, the Francolin Illustrated School Dictionary for Southern Africa (Francolin 1997/Longman 2001), and the Oxford South African Concise Dictionary (OUP Southern Africa 2010).

The Institute for Environmental Biotechnology, Rhodes University (EBRU) targets research in environmental biotechnology at the interface between the fundamental and applied sciences. In doing so it undertakes the innovation and development of bioprocess solutions to environmental problems, and focuses on the diffusion and transfer of environmental technology from laboratory to full-scale industrial application. This activity targets excellence in capacity building and the development of associated academic and applied disciplines. Historically, innovation and development of environmental bioprocesses related to water treatment was the main focus area. More recently, the scope of research and bioprocess development has been widened to include contemporary fields such as alternative energy and bio-fuels. As part of our human resource development programme the institute offers intensive Masters’ and Doctoral research opportunities.
The various research programmes are focused on the development of human resource capacity and link the application of biotechnology to industrial and municipal related environmental degradation, and clean technology.

Environmental biotechnology may be defined as the development, use and regulation of biological systems and their derivatives and processes for sustainable socio-economic benefit in environmental protection, remediation and energy generation. It is a knowledge-intensive, research-driven field which addresses a broad spectrum of environmental sector needs in the major areas of soil, air, and water, and in co-product (waste) valorisation. In brief, use of natural products / microbes to perform industrially important tasks in an environmentally sustainable way is the focus of attention. EBRU is located in Belmont Valley, Grahamstown about 6 km from the main campus and is equipped with analytical, molecular microbial ecology, microbiology and bioprocess laboratories. Integrated Ponding Systems, and anaerobic digesters and pilot plants are also to be found.

EBRU welcomes applications to undertake postgraduate research work in various areas of environmental biotechnology. Candidates who are employed and fulfil the admission criteria may after consultation with the Institute register as part-time (not in attendance) and undertake their research remotely. Opportunities are available for MSc (180 credits and NQF level 9) and PhD (360 credits and NQF level 10) study by research in agricultural biotechnology, industrial and municipal wastewater bioremediation and beneficiation, land rehabilitation, microalgal biotechnology, and renewable energy. The entrance requirements for research MSc and PhD degrees are provided in the General Rules section of the Rhodes University calendar. Candidates with an Honour’s degree in the chemical, natural and/or life sciences are welcome to apply for MSc positions, while PhD candidates are required to already be in possession of a relevant postgraduate qualification at time of application. Applications are also welcome from candidates interested in postdoctoral fellowship at the Institute. For further information, please visit the Institute’s website (http://www.ru.ac.za/ebru/).
The Institute was established in July 1964 during the University’s Diamond Jubilee celebrations, at the suggestion of Professor Guy Butler. The mission of the ISEA is to “sponsor research, collect information, provide liaison with South African and overseas scholarship and organize conferences and courses of training for teachers and others interested in language”. Since its inception, the Institute has given rise to three independent organisations:

- The National English Literary Museum
- The Dictionary Unit for South African English
- The Molteno Language and Literacy Institute

The first two are separate, nationally funded institutions, while the Molteno Language and Literacy Institute, the largest and most successful language-learning programme in primary education in Southern Africa, is now an independent project of Rhodes University.

Today the ISEA fulfils the aims of its founders in large-scale research and development projects in English education, in the publication of journals devoted to the English language in South Africa, and by providing a research base for scholars working in the field covered by the Institute.

The Language Teacher Professional Development project conducts research to improve the quality of English education principally in the Eastern Cape, in all learning areas. The ISEA offers a BEd course for English Language Teachers in cooperation with the Faculty of Education and a BA (Hons) module in collaboration with the African Languages Department. Current SSLP research comprises investigations into the impact of the ISEA’s BEd programme, into the quality of writing and reading pedagogy in South Africa, into visual literacy in rural areas, and into contrasts between textbooks aimed at English (FAL) and Xhosa (L1) learners. Other research under way in the ISEA includes translanguaging for disciplinary access; tracking teachers’ professional development in aspects of the teaching of visual literacy, literature and reading.

The ISEA offers a Masters in Creative Writing which specialises in cross-genre, multilingual, innovative and experimental fiction, poetry, non-fiction, and hybrids in English, isiXhosa, Afrikaans and combinations or variations thereof. The programme is delivered and administered in English but supervision is available in Afrikaans, English or isiXhosa, and creative work may be offered in these languages as well.

The full-time programme is offered in 2019. The two-year part-time programme has a new intake each alternate year and there will be no new applications available in 2019. Candidates require an Honours degree in any discipline or the equivalent (e.g. a 4-year BJourn degree) plus a 20-page portfolio of writing. A full course outline is available from http://www.ru.ac.za/isea/macw/ or from isea@ru.ac.za

The ISEA mounts an extra-curricular Creative Writing Programme each year during the first semester, which is open to staff, students and members of the public. Contact isea@ru.ac.za

The Institute runs Wordfest, a multilingual, multicultural celebration of language and literature held annually during the National Arts Festival in Grahamstown. The event includes lectures, book launches, poetry performances and readings, exhibitions, short courses, its own newspaper, live interviews and word-based shows.

Publications

Periodicals published by the ISEA include English in Africa (from 1974), a scholarly journal devoted to African writing in English, New Coin Poetry (from 1964), and Shakespeare in Southern Africa (from 1987). In addition, the ISEA publishes research reports, scholarly monographs, anthologies and collections of poetry.
The ISEA is a research institute within the University subsidised largely by private donations and endowments, and it retains complete independence in its research.

The Institute of Social and Economic Research (ISER) was established in Rhodes University in 1954. Strongly grounded in the Eastern Cape since its inception, the ISER soon developed a diverse portfolio of research initiatives involving its own staff and staff members of other Rhodes academic departments. Throughout its existence, engagement by academics from a range of departments within the university in the work of the ISER contributed not only to the content and quality of ISER’s research work, but also enriched teaching within those academics’ home departments.

Scholars associated with the ISER in the early period of its establishment produced a series of scholarly volumes comprising the Keiskammahoek Rural Survey (1947-1952) and the Border Regional Survey (1956-1964) amongst others. Although the former documented changes in Keiskammahoek since the establishment of the apartheid regime in 1948, the ISER, in its early years, generally did not systematically engage with the consequences of apartheid for the well-being of the black majority, and did not challenge the status quo of repressive, white minority rule. This approach gradually changed in later years, when the ISER came to engage more actively with the social conditions and development problems of the Eastern Cape through empirical research and public policy engagement.

ISER has had an abiding influence on a number of institutions within Rhodes University and the wider Eastern Cape. In 1979, the International Library of African Music was moved to Rhodes University under the auspices of the ISER, where it was hosted until its incorporation into the Rhodes Department of Music and Musicology in the mid-nineties. Also in 1979, a Development Studies Unit, headed by a Chair in Development Studies, was started; that unit was discontinued in 1994, when its head, Prof Bill Davies, joined the new Eastern Cape Provincial Government. An International Studies Unit was established in the ISER in 1988 and, in 1992, was migrated to the Rhodes Department of Political Studies, into which it was fully incorporated in the early 2000s, changing the name of the department to the Department of Political and International Studies. In 2003, the East London branch of the ISER was incorporated into the University of Fort Hare as the Fort Hare Institute of Social and Economic Research (FHISER).

Under Prof Peter Vale’s Directorship from 1984, the ISER’s research agenda directly and indirectly exposed the consequences of the apartheid political economy on the black inhabitants of the Eastern Cape. The ISER developed a research specialisation on well-being studies under Professor Valarie Møller, a leading internationally recognised scholar in the field and Director of the ISER between 1998 and 2006. From 2006 to 2010, the ISER was led by Prof Greg Ruiters, who introduced a vibrant, large-scale programme of research rooted in concerns of political economy and municipal service provision in the Eastern Cape. Prof Ruiters also introduced an annual ISER Winter School, which drew together community-based organisations and leading academics into in-depth discussions on topical social, developmental and political concerns for the province and the country. The winter school was reintroduced as the Vuyisile Mini Winter School in 2015 in honour of the famous trade unionist and liberation fighter from the Eastern Cape, and focuses on trade union officials in that province.

In 2009, the ISER started developing Social Policy as a core research and teaching focus area, joined, in late 2012, by labour studies. Led by Prof Robert van Niekerk, the Social Policy focus area developed into a number of collaborative research programmes including programmes on health, social policy and the developmental role of the state and social citizenship. The Social Policy focus area was strengthened by the appointment of Prof Rebecca Surender in 2014 until her departure in 2015. Work on Social Policy as a distinct focus area was discontinued in mid-2018.

The Neil Aggett Labour Studies Unit (NALSU) was established in 2012 under the leadership of Dr John Reynolds and formally launched in 2014. NALSU, a hub for labour studies at Rhodes University, was relocated out of the ISER in 2019.

The ISER has attracted Masters and Doctoral students form a range of backgrounds, including politics, sociology and economics. Those students contribute to a vibrant research programme that probes some of the most challenging social questions of our time. The ISER has been home of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies (JCSA) since 1991. Historically, the ISER has published a Working Paper Series, which was relaunched in 2015 in a new format.

POSTGRADUATE DEGREES

The following are the general requirements for postgraduate study in ISER:

Master’s Degree

A Master’s degree by thesis may be undertaken on a full-time or part-time basis. To be accepted as a Master’s student in the ISER, applicants would usually require an Honours degree with at least a good second class pass in a social science discipline. Applications for Master’s study would usually need to be submitted by 15 November of the year preceding the first year of study, and would require approval of the ISER Research Committee, which would also consider supervisory capacity.

Students complete a thesis proposal that is approved by the ISER Research Committee and the Higher Degrees Committee of either the Humanities or Commerce Faculties. Under the supervision of an academic staff member, students produce a full-length research thesis on a topic negotiated with a supervisor and approved by the Faculty in which they are registered.

Doctoral Degree (PhD)

A PhD may be taken by thesis (see the General Rules and Higher Degrees Guide). Prospective students must usually be in possession of a good Master’s degree in a social science discipline. Applications for PhD study would require approval of the ISER Research Committee, which would also consider supervisory capacity.

The Institute for Water Research (IWR) is home to a multi-disciplinary group of researchers and post-graduate students, that contribute to the understanding and sustainable management of water resources in southern Africa. These objectives are achieved through fundamental and applied research into the structure, function and components of natural water systems and their associated social systems, in the landscape. There is an emphasis on the co-development of knowledge, and knowledge sharing, directly and through academic and more accessible publications. Consulting services are offered to solve specific problems through the application of research developments. The IWR contributes to teaching at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels, as well as offering professional training courses and other capacity building and professional training initiatives. Specifically, postgraduate students can register in the Institute for MSc and PhD degrees (by thesis) in both Hydrology and Water Resource Science. The IWR co-hosts the Honours Degree in Environmental Water Management, with the Department of Geography:

Environmental Water Management Honours is offered together by the Geography Department and the Institute for Water Research at Rhodes University. Candidates must be in possession of an appropriate Bachelor’s degree, normally majoring in at least one of Geography, Environmental Science/Ecology, Biological/Chemical Sciences or Hydrology. Other candidates with appropriate professional experience in water resource management may be considered. This degree aims to equip students with the conceptual understanding and practical knowledge that are needed to make an effective contribution to the sustainable management of catchment systems and their associated water resources. Students are required to take a core, integrative, module: Adaptive Integrated Water Resource Management and Water Governance; and must also select three other courses. Recommended courses include: Catchment Systems; Climate Change, Extreme Events and Disasters; Environmental Water Quality; Hydrology; Freshwater Ecology; Extended GIS (Geographical Information Systems); Remote Sensing for a Changing World; or other appropriate courses approved by the Course Coordinator. Please note that entry into the Extended GIS and Remote Sensing modules requires a pass at 3rd year level in the respective disciplines. The research project must be related to Environmental Water Management and approved by the Course Coordinator.

Staff members of the IWR serve on various research, management and policy making committees both within South Africa and internationally. The staff of the Institute actively collaborate with other departments and institutes at Rhodes University including the departments of Geography, Zoology and Entomology, Environmental Science, Ichthyology and Fisheries Science, the Environmental Learning Research Centre, The South African Institute for Aquatic Biodiversity and the Albany Museum. The Institute also cooperates with other universities, state departments and private consulting companies, both in South Africa and internationally.

The Institute has expertise in several areas within the broad field of water resource science, including hydrology, integrated and transdisciplinary Adaptive Integrated Water Resource Management, freshwater ecology, water chemistry data and analysis, ecotoxicology, biomonitoring, the management of water services, water governance, and community-based engaged education. The combination of research and practical problem solving within the IWR allows recently developed research methods to be rapidly deployed for water resource planning and management. Within the field of ecology, the Institute has focused on understanding the processes and requirements of aquatic ecosystems and the effects of flow variability and anthropogenic stressors. Much of the work has been directed at assessing the environmental water quantity and quality requirements of rivers, an important component of the ‘Reserve’ determination process designed to ensure the sustainable use of water resources under the National Water Act (No 36 of 1997). This research has been supported by the IWR’s long history (over 30 years) of research into the development and application of methods for analysing and modelling hydrological information for various water resource planning and management purposes. The focus has been on combining a sound understanding of hydrological processes with the development of practical simulation tools. This has included the development of computer software designed to facilitate access to hydrological information and the integration of modelling and data visualisation tools with databases. Recent work has focused on issues of uncertainty (including climate change effects) associated with hydrological estimation and how imperfect information impacts on decision making.

Within the IWR, the Unilever Centre for Environmental Water Quality (UCEWQ) focuses on ecology, ecotoxicology, biomonitoring and water chemistry. Ecotoxicology at the IWR concentrates on determining the tolerances of indigenous riverine macroinvertebrates and algae, under controlled laboratory conditions, to selected water quality variables and complex effluents. Ecotoxicology is included in an integrated approach to assessing the water quality of a water resource and is being practically applied to evaluate the effects of industrial effluents on rivers. UCEWQ is actively involved in the development of policies and strategies for improving the quality of the nation’s freshwater resources. In recent years, UCEWQ has initiated research into complex social-ecological systems and the need to account for multiple perspectives and adopt transdisciplinary approaches to solving water resources management problems. UCEWQ research has extended to explicitly include connections between people and their landscapes, viewing surface and groundwater catchments as complex social-ecological systems.

The IWR is largely self-funded and managed through a Board of Control, made up of representatives of Rhodes University, private, government and other university groups who have an interest in water resources. It derives part of its income from research contracts with agencies such as the Water Research Commission, as well as from international research support organisations (e.g. Unilever and the Carnegie Foundation). The majority of the remaining income base is from shorter term consultancy projects through partnerships with consulting companies.

Amazwi, previously The National English Literary Museum, was founded with a small collection of manuscripts by Professor Guy Butler in the 1960s. In 1972 the Institute for the Study of English in Africa sponsored the foundation of the Thomas Pringle Collection for English in Africa to collect books and manuscripts illustrating the role of English as a language in South Africa. Two years later the National English Documentation Centre was established as an independent body. This then became the National English Literary Museum and Documentation Centre and in 1980, the National English Literary Museum. Amazwi is funded by the Department of Arts and Culture and although autonomous, maintains close links with the ISEA and is an associated research institute of Rhodes University. In 1981 the museum moved to the Priest’s House in Beaufort Street. In 2016 the museum moved to a new custom-designed building in Worcester Street, the first museum in the country to achieve a 5 star rating from the Green Building Council of South Africa. It houses a permanent exhibitions which tells the story of South Africa through literature, with audio and video components and two touch screens. It also has temporary exhibition space and a reading room for visiting researchers.

Amazwi houses the world’s most comprehensive collection of resources relating to South African literature in English. The collections include authors’ manuscripts, printers’ proofs, diaries, correspondence, publishers’ archives, photographs, posters, play-scripts, theatre programmes and over 30 000 published works. All forms of literature are represented: poems, short stories, novels, plays, autobiographies, travel writing and children’s literature.

Amazwi’s satellite museums, Schreiner House in Cradock and the Eastern Star Gallery in Grahamstown, conserve and present two important aspects of the writing and publishing heritage of South Africa.

Olive Schreiner (1855-1920), author of The Story of an African Farm, lived at No. 6 Cross Street, a small, typically Karoo house, and one of the oldest still standing in Cradock. Schreiner House contains exhibitions about Schreiner’s life and works, a collection of books that belonged to Schreiner and her husband, Samuel Cronwright, and displays relating to domestic life in the 19th century.

The first copy of The Eastern Star was printed in Grahamstown in 1871. The Eastern Star Gallery is housed in a building that dates back to the mid-19th century and was donated to AMAZWI by the Argus Group. Exhibition highlights include a 120 year-old Wharfedale printing press and the editorial desk that belonged to John Fairbairn, co-founder in 1823 with Thomas Pringle, of the South African Journal and the South African Commercial Advertiser, and prime mover for a free press in South Africa.

Amazwi’s staff offer education programmes for schools, talks and public programmes as well as undertaking research into South African literature. The museum’s collections are available to researchers on request.

From a marine perspective South Africa forms the southern apex of a major continental mass, flanked by very different marine ecosystems on the east and west coasts, and projecting towards the cold Southern Ocean.

Large Marine Ecosystem. SAIAB runs unique coastal marine research platforms that provide infrastructure and support to South African universities and research institutions.

The biodiversity of inland waters is equally relevant to the national interest and SAIAB’s scientific leadership and expertise in freshwater aquatic biodiversity is vital when dealing with issues arising from exponentially increasing pressures of human population growth and development.   The South African Institute for Aquatic Biodiversity (SAIAB) is a National Facility of the National Research Foundation and an internationally recognised centre for the study of aquatic biodiversity. SAIAB serves as a major scientific resource for knowledge and understanding of the biodiversity and functioning of Africa’s aquatic ecosystems. With both marine and freshwater biogeographical boundaries, southern Africa is ideally placed to monitor and document climate change and SAIAB’s science focuses on the full spectrum of aquatic environments.

MARINE RESEARCH PLATFORMS:

The African Coelacanth Ecosystem Programme (ACEP) offers technical expertise, ships’ time, coastal craft, specialised equipment, monitoring networks and dive units. ACEP is the largest inter-institutional, multi-disciplinary, marine programme in South Africa. ACEP is a flagship programme of the Department of Science and Technology and is managed by SAIAB as a Marine Science platform. ACEP promotes competitive, multidisciplinary, multi institutional east coast marine research with an emphasis on building capacity and transforming marine science, providing competitive access to funding, research platforms and marine research infrastructure within the National System of Innovation. ACEP’s highly successful coastal craft and instrumentation platform comprises the 13m LeeCat, uKwabelana, which is based in the port of Port Elizabeth and the more recently acquired 15m Legacy Cat, Phakisa, which is based in Durban, and a Remote Observation Vehicle (ROV) capable of diving to 300m depth, for use by the South African marine research community.

Through ACEP, SAIAB plays a key interface role between researchers and other South African research platforms. ACEP’s partner platforms include SAIAB’s Acoustic Telemetry Array Platform (ATAP) and Marine Remote Imaging Platform (Mar-RIP), as well as the the South African Environmental Observation Network (SAEON) Sentinel Site and the SAEON Agulhas System Climate Array (ASCASAEON). Partnerships developed by ACEP with international projects and various South African Government departments have allowed competitive scientific access to the R/V Algoa and other ships.

ACEP has developed an excellent track record of training the next generation of marine scientists, technicians and innovators. SAIAB initiated a profound paradigm shift in 2012 by establishing the Phuhlisa Programme through ACEP to ensure that black South African postgraduates are trained in the marine sector and that marine science is more deeply entrenched at historically black universities. A significant highlight of recent years has been cementing its relationship with the Universities of Fort Hare and Walter Sisulu in the Eastern Cape through the Phuhlisa Programme and extending its reach beyond the Eastern Cape to include the University of the Western Cape and the University of Zululand. One-third of ACEP’s funding is dedicated to the Phuhlisa Programme. The focus is on capacity building and generating interest in and enthusiasm for marine sciences at the four universities. Currently, ACEP reaches a minimum of 80 postgraduate students. This is in addition to over 100 students supported in previous phases. The Phuhlisa programme provides a winning model to develop high quality graduates in marine science by inspiring talent at historically black universities in South Africa.

The Acoustic Tracking Array Platform (ATAP) is a collaborative programme which provides a service to the greater marine science community. The ATAP network includes over 100 marine and estuarine acoustic receivers, positioned at ecologically important points along the coastline from Hout Bay on the cool temperate Atlantic coastline, to Mozambique on the sub-tropical east coast. These receivers detect unique signals sent by acoustic transmitters that have been attached to, or surgically implanted in, marine animals. The ATAP team at SAIAB manages this expanded network of automated data-logging acoustic telemetry receivers. The receivers are serviced by ATAP and its local collaborating partners and data uploaded from these receivers is stored on a national database.

The Marine Remote Imaging Platform (Mar-RIP) provides sophisticated and standardised remote benthic sampling tools and protocols to the marine research community in South Africa. These tools include ten baited, remote underwater stereo-video systems (stereo-BRUVs) for sampling fish assemblages and a benthic jump camera for photographing benthic macro-fauna assemblages. SAIAB partners with the Coastal (Elwandle) Node of SAEON on Mar-RIP projects in the Sundays River catchment area, SAEON’s Algoa Bay Sentinel Site and a number of marine protected areas along the South African coast. The synergies with the Elwandle Node are highly significant and position the SAIAB as an international and regional centre for South Western Indian Ocean marine research. Researchers at SAIAB and SAEON Elwandle Node have been developing innovative technology to survey reef fishes of South Africa. Novel sampling techniques aim to provide standardised data to further our understanding of the ecology of South Africa’s reef fish and support effective management.

SAIAB also offers a range of customised equipment such as specialised trailers, electro-fishers, inflatable and fixed hull boats, nets and environmental monitoring instruments for working in different aquatic environments in and around South Africa.

The COLLECTIONS AND SPECIALISED LABORATORIES PLATFORM includes a molecular preparation laboratory, an X-ray laboratory with a digital X-Ray inspection system and, in association with the Rhodes Department of Ichthyology and Fisheries Science, an ecophysiology research laboratory.

SAIAB is the recognised leader in natural history wet collection management and curation in South Africa. The JLB Smith Collection Management Centre provides a collection-sorting laboratory, accommodation for collection staff and for visiting scientists and students. The Wet Collections Storage Facility provides storage for the National Fish Collection, African Amphibian Collection, a new and developing Cephalopod Collection and Aquatic Biodiversity Tissue Bank. Back-up support includes a separate, ultra-cold-storage tissue biobank and preparation room; a bulk inflammable liquid storage chamber with automated preservative mixing and delivery; specialised specimen preservation laboratories and glass storage; and an isolated dermestarium for the preparation of vertebrate skeletal specimens. SAIAB also manages the National Diatom Collection which is housed at the University of the North-West. These are dynamic research platforms for molecular, systematic and conservation orientated studies.

THE BIODIVERSITY INFORMATION PLATFORM includes the Margaret Smith Library and the Biodiversity Informatics Unit.

As an academic library, the Margaret Smith Library shares resources and library services with Rhodes University Library to support research and teaching: main users are staff and students of the Rhodes Department of Ichthyology and Fisheries Science. The Margaret Smith Library houses one of the largest document collections and resource centres for African aquatic biodiversity research in Africa. The Library contributes to the Rhodes University online catalogue and Open Access institutional repositories at Rhodes and the NRF. The Library is also partnered with the Biodiversity Heritage Library - Africa.

The Library was established in the 1940s with a small collection of books and scientific papers belonging to Professor JLB Smith. The early indexing system and card catalogue were developed by Professor Margaret Smith. The collection was first stored in a small room in Artillery Road, which was then part of the Rhodes University Ichthyology Department. The library moved to the present premises in Somerset Street in 1975. After being fully refurbished in 2010, the Library was named for Margaret Smith to commemorate her contribution to preserving the legacy of early Ichthyological research at Rhodes University.

The Library offers users a dedicated computer lab; up-to-date library processes and procedures; social media and Open Access initiatives; additional partners and new collections. The Library holdings include some 5000 books and 2000 serial titles, a large reprint collection dating back to the 1800s and 206 titles in the rare book collection. The Institute has published a number of books on the freshwater fishes of southern Africa, fishes of the Southern Ocean, the biology and ecology of southern African estuarine fishes and coastal fishes of southern Africa as well as the Smithiana monograph and Special Publications series. Popular guides to estuaries and coastal fisheries resources have also been published and are available in the digital commons.

The Biodiversity Informatics Unit supports collections management and is available to anyone with a need for management and analysis of aquatic biodiversity and ecological information. SAIAB offers a hosting platform to various museums and is pioneering new techniques in biodiversity data-mining.

RESEARCH
SAIAB has an internationally recognised profile in aquatic research and a dynamic and active research staff and postgraduate school are involved in numerous collaborative research programmes concerned with aquatic biodiversity and serve on several national advisory committees. They are also involved in teaching undergraduate and postgraduate courses, supervising Honours, MSc and PhD projects particularly through Rhodes and other universities, both nationally and internationally.

The geographical focus of projects extends from the primary focus area, South Africa, through southern Africa to the African continent. SAIABs research strategy is strongly influenced by societal imperatives with an emphasis on demand-driven, collaborative research that is aligned with national and international initiatives (e.g. National Development Plan, Marine and Antarctic Research Strategy (MARS), Phakisa Programme and the Sustainable Development Goals) through three core research areas:

1. Taxonomy and BioDiscovery which contributes directly to the description and quantification of global biodiversity assets. Core competencies include taxonomy and systematics, biogeography, molecular biology and biodiversity genomics on a variety of taxa including diatoms, zooplankton, crustaceans, amphibians and fishes.

2. Biology and ecology, which are the foundation for understanding ecosystems and the services that they provide. This research area directly informs the management of ecological infrastructure to enhance resilience and ensure benefits to society. Key research areas include life-history assessments, biodiversity assessments, predator-prey interactions, plankton ecology, movement biology, food webs, ecophysiology and population modelling.

3. Drivers of global change and their impacts on aquatic ecosystems is a research area that intends to inform the development of proactive response strategies to mitigate against adverse impacts on ecosystem service provision. Although SAIAB engages in research at all levels of global change, there is a strong focus on understanding the impacts of climate change, invasions and fisheries.

The Southern Ocean Group was established in the Department of Zoology and Entomology in 1981 under the directorship of Professor Brian Allanson. The group was the first unit in South Africa involved in the study of biological oceanography in the Southern Ocean, Antarctica and in the vicinity of the Prince Edward Islands. This programme forms part of the oceanographic component of the South African National Antarctic Research Programme (SANAP) and is concerned with the spatial variability in Southern Ocean ecosystems and its response to global climate change. Present projects concern the spatial and temporal patterns in the plankton community structure and food web dynamics in the Southern Ocean. This research provides opportunities for research towards Honours, Master’s and Doctoral degrees, and postgraduates form a very active part of the group.
Rhodes University Library provides all users with:

- A modern environment with dedicated spaces for research, study and learning
- Access to diverse print and electronic library collections and resources
- Professional staff

 Residence accommodation is comfortable and attractive. Most of the older houses, some designed by Baker and Kendall, the original architects of Rhodes, have been restored externally and the interiors modernised. Generally, students have their own rooms. Of the 3829 residence rooms on campus, 110 are double rooms (3%). First year students are allocated to these rooms using a lottery system. Early application for residence accommodation is essential, and ensures a wider choice of residence. For details of residence fees see the Fees and Charges section.

The 55 residences or ‘houses’ are grouped in 14 halls, all with their own dining-halls, and all within easy walking distance of lectures and town. There are three women’s halls, one men’s hall and 10 halls accommodating men and women in separate houses, as well as a separate Post-Graduate Village (which is self-catering).

Each hall governs its own internal affairs to a large extent. However, certain rules apply to all students in residence (see the Student Disciplinary Code). It is important to note that a student living in a University residence may at any time be required to leave that residence if the Director of Student Affairs, in consultation with the Hall Warden concerned, is satisfied that this is in the best interest of the residence or of the student concerned. Subject to conditions laid down from time to time by the Director of Student Affairs, Hall Wardens have the right to decide which returning or Oppidan students (who have previously lived in a Rhodes residence) they will admit to their respective halls, and may refuse to admit or readmit a student if they consider this advisable. Should a Hall Warden decide not to admit a student into residence he/she would need to substantiate their decision in writing to the Director of Student Affairs. The final decision, with regard to admitting a student into residence shall always be vested with the Vice Chancellor.

A Hall Warden is in charge of each hall, and House Wardens, assisted by Sub-wardens and House Committees, are in charge of individual houses. Senior members of the academic and administrative staff are elected as Fellows of the various Halls, and play an active part in the life of their Hall.

WARDEN’S POWERS OF SEARCH

A Hall or House Warden has the right to search a student’s room if they have reasonable grounds for believing that evidence of the commission or attempted commission of a disciplinary offence may be found in the room concerned. In such instances, the Student Protocol for Search and Seizure is closely adhered to.

HOUSEKEEPING

It is important to be aware that there are certain times when Housekeepers are required to enter student rooms. They are trained, as per hotel standards, to knock three times before entering a room. They are also required to say “Housekeeping” between each knock. If there is no response from the room, they are then permitted to enter using the master key, which has been entrusted to them.

Reasons why Housekeeping may be required to enter a student room include: Window cleaning; fumigation; requisition work; checking Rhodes University furnishings etc.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR UNIVERSITY PROPERTY

Each student allocated a room in residence must sign a Room Statement Form as and when required to do so by the Hall Warden listing all University furniture and other property in the room and certifying that it is in good order. At the end of each term when students are required to clear their rooms, the House Warden will check the rooms, and the students will be held responsible for leaving all the furniture, other property and the room itself, in the same good order in which it was found (fair wear and tear excepted).

In the case of damage to, or loss of, University property, the student or students responsible, if known, are required to bear the cost. If not known, the cost of loss or damage will be charged either to a particular group of students or to the general funds of students in the house.

A student should report any damage or loss of University property in a room while he/she is in occupation, and for which he/she is not responsible, immediately, in writing, to the House Warden. If this is not done, it will be presumed that the loss or damage is the responsibility of the occupant of the room, who will have to bear the cost.

INSURANCE (ACCIDENT)

Students are not covered by University insurance while at Rhodes unless they are injured while engaged in activities for which they are remunerated by the University. All other insurance is the responsibility of each student.

LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO STUDENTS’ PROPERTY

Students are strongly advised to ensure that they carry the necessary insurance against theft, housebreaking, fire and other similar risks.

The University will in no way hold itself responsible for any loss or damage by theft, fire or any other means to students’ property kept in the residences either during term time or during vacations.

All students’ room doors are fitted with locks. Student rooms should be locked at all times.

PROPERTY LEFT IN RESIDENCE BOX ROOMS

Any property belonging to persons who no longer live in residence, which has been stored or left in residence box rooms, will be sold if it has not been removed from such box rooms by the end of the first vacation of each year. The proceeds will be paid into an official account of the relevant Hall Committee for the benefit of the students of the House concerned.

RESIDENCE DURING VACATIONS

Undergraduate Residences (Undergraduate and postgraduate students)

1. Accommodation in residence is available during the April and September recesses, when normally at least one women’s residence and one men’s residence are open. No accommodation is offered during the mid-year recess or during December and January each year.

2. Students wishing to stay in the vacation residences during the April and September vacations must submit the appropriate online application on ROSS (Application for Vacation Accommodation Form) two weeks prior to the start of the vacation in question.

3. Students remaining in residence during the April vacation pay an extra fee for room and board (see Fees and Charges section).

NB University residences are used during most vacations for conferences etc. Students whose residences are in use during vacations must clear their rooms. The University has the right to close all, or any, houses and Halls during a vacation, and determines when, for how long and on what conditions residential facilities are available during vacations and at other times.

4. Residence fees do not cover accommodation during vacations, except in the following case:
   a. Students may move into residence at the beginning of the academic year up to two days before the day on which they register, and one day before the beginning of the second, third and fourth terms.
   b. A student may remain in residence 24 hours after the end of the first and third terms, and 48 hours after completing the June and November examinations.

5. No reduction in fees is made if students finish their examinations before the official end of term.

NB Students not writing examinations (including students who have not obtained DP certificates) must leave residence before the examination period begins. No reduction in residence fees will be granted.

6. Accommodation in residence is normally available during the supplementary/Aegrotat examinations in November and February, and students wishing to return to residence early for the purpose of writing such examinations must submit the appropriate form (Application for Vacation Accommodation) available from the Residential Operations Division, Student Bureau or Hall Wardens, at least two weeks prior to the start of the day accommodation is required. A fee will be charged for such accommodation.

Postgraduate Students (Celeste House, Oakdene House, Gilbert Street PG units)

1. Full-time students will be accommodated in Celeste House, Oakdene House and three smaller houses on campus.

2. Students may remain in residence throughout the year.
3. Students will be charged a fee as set out in the Fees Booklet. This will also allow them to have meals in a dining hall. In the event of all dining halls being closed, the students will have to make their own arrangements for meals.

4. A pro-rata rebate will only be paid out in the final year of study upon provision of proof of submission of thesis.

5. Cooking is permitted in designated self-catering units only. Subletting of rooms, or permitting squatting, shall result in exclusion from the residence.

6. Students who wish to make use of the self-catering facilities provided only in Oakdene and Celeste residences must apply to the Deputy Director: Residential Operations Division for permission.

Postgraduate Students (Gavin Reilly Postgraduate Village)

1. Students will be charged a fee as set out in the Fees Booklet. This fee does NOT include meals.

2. If students wish to eat meals in one of the dining halls, this must be booked and paid for in advance. This can be done online, via ROSS. A concise user manual to this effect, is available on the meal bookings pages on ROSS.

3. Cooking is permitted in the units. A fridge and hotplate are provided.

4. Subletting of rooms or permitting squatting shall result in exclusion from the village.

RU HEALTH CARE CENTRE

The Health Care Centre is staffed by four qualified nursing sisters and two Health Care Centre assistants. The Sisters attend to minor ailments, dispense medicines, dress wounds, carry out first aid, run a contraception clinic and conduct health education during regular clinic hours. There is a 24-hour emergency service. The Health Care Centre has 8 beds for in-patients, such as those with infectious diseases in need of nursing care or isolation, depression or other psychological disorders. Students may choose any medical practitioner they wish to attend them. They or their parents are responsible for the medical practitioner’s charges, the cost of any prescriptions made up by local chemists, and the fees for any additional special nursing required by an individual student. Students requiring operations or specialised attention not given in the Health Care Centre are moved to hospital for treatment, and are responsible for any resultant charges. A student who is admitted to the Health Care Centre must comply with the Health Care Centre rules and shall obey all lawful instructions by the Health Care Centre sisters.

Students should notify their correspondents that letters must be addressed to the particular house they live in, and not merely to Rhodes University.

SPECIAL DIETS

Meat, Vegetarian, Halaal, Hindu, African, Fast Food and Health Diets are offered. Regretfully specialised medical diets cannot be offered.

FEES FOR RESIDENCE ACCOMMODATION

(a) Fees payable for residence accommodation are set out in the “Fees” section of the Calendar.

NB A student who has moved into residence but who leaves before registering for a course of study, will be charged such residence fees as the University determines. The fee normally payable is a daily rate fixed by the Council.

(b) Residence fees are currently set according to a facility-grading system.

(c) Students’ accommodation is based on single and double rooms. Adjustments are made where students change residences or (single / double rooms). The total amount is debited to the students’ account.

CANCELLATION OF PROVISIONAL OR FINAL RESIDENCE BOOKING
In the case of an early withdrawal from residence, for any reason, other than immediate family bereavement, medical illness or academic exclusion, a cancellation fee of two months residence fee will be levied over and above the fee calculation for the period of residence accommodation. A penalty will not be charged if a provisional residence booking is cancelled prior to the Initial Fee (IF) deadline of 18 January 2020.

RESIDENCE MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS
A number of residence merit scholarships are available each year on application. Specific criteria are laid down for these scholarships. Applications should be made to the House Warden concerned, who will pass them on to the Hall Warden for consideration by a committee consisting of Wardens and students.

STUDENTS LEAVING RESIDENCE DURING THE ACADEMIC YEAR
(a) Students who wish to withdraw from residence before the end of the academic year, must give notice of such intention, in writing, to the Student Bureau.
(b) Any student who has registered for a course of study and who, for any reason, leaves the residence during the course of the year, is liable for fees according to the scale set out in the section on “Fees and Charges”.
(c) Students who have withdrawn from residence during the course of the year must vacate their rooms within 24 hours of having submitted such notification to the University.

ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES
No fridges, hot plates, snackwich makers, immersion heaters or other cooking appliances are permitted in residence rooms. Kettles are allowed.

RESIDENCE BOOKING
Students must apply for residence accommodation for subsequent years by a date made known in a circular published by the Registrar each year. Please note that in view of the demand for residence accommodation, the application must be submitted to the Student Bureau on or before the due date.

MEAL MANAGEMENT SYSTEM
A computerised meal management system operates in all dining halls. Students who have been awarded bursaries, NSFAS loans or full financial aid packages may not withdraw any credit balance from their account. Students will be refunded twice yearly (at the end of each semester) with the credit owing to them (up to the maximum refundable amount, as stipulated in the Fees & Charges booklet) as a result of unbooking meals. Meal credits will not be paid out at other times. Meal refunds are limited to a maximum amount per semester. See Fees & Charges for details.
STUDENT DISCIPLINARY CODE

1. APPLICATION OF RULES

1.1 In common with other communities of like size and complexity, the University has rules which contribute to the smooth and harmonious running of the institution.

1.2 If the University identifies a risk and it is in the best interest of the University community to do so, the University may act in terms of these interests in order to avert the risk.

1.3 The rules and procedures in this Student Disciplinary Code apply to every student of the University regardless of whether the alleged conduct in question takes place on or off campus. Where the alleged conduct has taken place off campus, there must be a sufficient link between the alleged conduct in question and the University and/or it must be reasonably likely to bring the University into disrepute. All policies and procedures governing students must be consistent with this Code. In the case of any inconsistency with this Code, the Code prevails. The headings in this Code are for ease of reference only and do not have any relevance to the interpretation of the clauses contained herein.

1.3.1 All disciplinary proceedings are confidential except as provided by this code.

1.4 A student shall not contravene:
(a) Any of the rules set out in Rule 4 of this Code;
(b) Any rule of the Halls of residence of the University;
(c) Any rule of the Oppidan Union; or
(d) Any rule of the SRC or the Sports Council.

A contravention of any of these rules shall be deemed a disciplinary offence.

1.5 The Higher Disciplinary Authority has jurisdiction over all offences which contravene the rules as set out in this Code.

1.6 The Lower Disciplinary Authorities have jurisdiction over all offences which contravene the rules as set out in this Code unless there is a possibility of a sanction greater than 75 hours compulsory service, or the equivalent fine, in which event the Prosecutor/s must be consulted for a decision as to which disciplinary authority shall hear the matter.

1.7 An Oppidan Hall Warden shall have jurisdiction over all Oppidan students.

1.8 A Hall/House Warden shall have jurisdiction over:
(a) All students resident in the Hall/House concerned; and
(b) All other students who commit any disciplinary offence referred to in Rule 4 in any of the constituent houses of the Hall, the dining halls or the precincts which form part of the Hall. If there is concurrent jurisdiction, the Hall Warden of the Hall where the alleged offence occurred shall exercise jurisdiction unless there is agreement to the contrary.

1.9 A Hall Warden shall have jurisdiction over all students in another Hall where:
(a) the student’s Hall Warden cannot hear a matter because s/he has an interest in the matter and
(b) in order to ensure a separation of power
(c) the student’s Hall Warden appoints another Hall Warden to hear the case. This will only apply where the Hall Warden does not exercise his/her discretion to convene a Hall Disciplinary Panel.

1.10 A House Warden shall have jurisdiction over all students in another House (from within the Hall or another Hall) where:
(a) the student’s Hall Warden cannot hear a matter because s/he has an interest in the matter and
(b) in order to ensure a separation of power
(c) the student’s Hall Warden appoints another House Warden to hear the case. This will only apply where the Hall Warden does not exercise his/her discretion to convene a Hall Disciplinary Panel.

1.11 The Library, Information Technology Department and Sports Council have jurisdiction over all offences contained in the Library Use and Conduct Code, the IT Facilities Use and Conduct Code and the Sports Council rules respectively unless there is a possibility of a sanction greater than 75 hours compulsory service, or an equivalent fine, in which event the Prosecutor/s must be consulted for a decision as to which disciplinary authority shall hear the matter.

1.12 The Campus Protection Unit have jurisdiction over all offences contained in Rule 4.6 as set out in this Code unless there is a possibility of a sanction greater than 75 hours compulsory service, or an equivalent fine, in which event the Prosecutor/s must be consulted for a decision as to which disciplinary authority shall hear the matter.

1.13 The SRC has jurisdiction over all offences contained in its rules provided that as soon as it determines to take action, it shall immediately report the matter to the Prosecutor/s who may decide to refer the matter to any other disciplinary authority, in which case s/he shall immediately inform the SRC of the decision. The SRC Disciplinary Committee shall thereupon cease to have jurisdiction in the matter.

1.14 The burden of proof in all disciplinary matters is on a balance of probabilities.

1.15 A student who is convicted of any crime in a court of law shall be rebuttably presumed to have committed the crime(s) of which they have been found guilty.

Appeal means an appeal as contemplated in Section 8.

Assistant Prosecutor means a suitably qualified person appointed by the Vice-Chancellor – for such a period as the Vice Chancellor may periodically determine – to assist the Prosecutor/s in investigating and assessing contraventions of this Code and represent the University before a Proctor or a Disciplinary Appeal Committee. The Assistant Prosecutor is usually appointed from within the ranks of law students.

Competent verdict means any verdict that is provided for in Chapter 26 of the Criminal Procedure Act 51 of 1977 (as amended).

Disciplinary authority means any Board, Committee or person authorised to hold a disciplinary hearing, or any person required to carry out an investigation to determine whether or not a student should appear at a disciplinary hearing to answer a charge of committing a disciplinary offence.

Disciplinary Board means a panel of three suitably qualified people appointed in the discretion of the Vice-Chancellor, (or his/her delegate), one of whom shall be designated Chairperson, to hear matters deemed by the Vice-Chancellor (or his/her delegate) to be of a serious nature, including but not limited to sexual offences.

Disciplinary Appeal Committee means a panel of three people appointed by the Vice-Chancellor (or his/her delegate), one of whom shall be the designated chairperson, to hear matters on appeal from a Proctor or from a lower disciplinary authority.

Disciplinary Committee means the sub-committee of Senate charged with overseeing disciplinary matters.

Fine means a sum of money payable by a student as a sanction by a student in exceptional circumstances.

Hall Disciplinary Panel means a panel convened in exceptional circumstances at the discretion of the Hall Warden. The Panel shall consist of at least one Hall Warden, one Senior / Head Student, one House Warden, one Fellow, and one Hall SRC representative. The panel is to be chaired by either a Hall Warden, a Warden or a Hall Fellow.

Hate Speech means any utterance – verbal, written, published, advocated or communicated in person – directed towards any person, that could reasonably be construed to be demonstrate a clear intention to:

a. Be hurtful
b. Be harmful or incite harm
c. Promote or propagate hatred

The grounds of discrimination are as follows:

race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, ethnic or social origin, colour, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion, conscience, belief, culture, language and birth; or any other discrimination-based grounds which

(i) Causes or perpetuates systematic disadvantage

(ii) Undermines human dignity
(iii) Adversely affects equal enjoyment of a person's rights and freedoms in a serious manner.

Visiting means no visitors are permitted in a university residence between midnight and 7.30 daily, without the express permission of the warden.

Jurisdiction period means any period during which a student can be held accountable for his/her conduct and includes but is not limited to the following:

(a) Attendance at a Summer School or an Orientation Week Programme or any similar period of attendance at the University, however described.

(b) The time when a registered student is in Grahamstown for a supplementary examination or for any other reason linked to the University and its functions.

(c) The time when any previously registered student has returned to or remained in Grahamstown, and who thereafter registers again and, specifically, a person in this category who is present in Grahamstown during the Orientation Week.

(d) The time when any registered student, whilst out of Grahamstown, is representing the University at any academic, club, cultural, sporting, society or other official University function or activity.

(e) Any other time by agreement with the accused student.

(f) The University retains jurisdiction to prosecute a person for a disciplinary offence, to finality, and in accordance with the Code if that person is still a ‘student’ in terms of the Code when disciplinary proceedings are instituted (this will include when notice of a hearing has been served on the student).

The aforementioned jurisdiction period will include the exercise of the right of appeal in terms of the Code.

No-Contact Order means an absolute prohibition from making contact directly or indirectly, with the named person(s) in any way including but not limited to contact in person, by mail, by telephone, by electronic media or by or through any other medium or person, unless the Vice-Chancellor, Proctor presiding over a disciplinary hearing, or Disciplinary Board determines otherwise.

Oppidan means a student living in ‘digs’.

Person with legal qualifications means a person who is a legal practitioner or a person who has an LLB degree or a postgraduate qualification in law.

Presenter means a person in the Lower Disciplinary Authority who investigates and presents a case on behalf of the Hall/House. The status of the presenter may vary from case to case and will normally follow line authority. For example, a Sub-Warden would present to a Warden and a Warden would present to a Hall Warden. In circumstances where there would be a conflict of interest for a Hall Warden to adjudicate a matter, a Hall Warden may then present the case to another Hall Warden.

7.20 The Proctor or the Disciplinary Board may question any witness, including the accused student, at any time while they are giving evidence. The proceedings may be conducted in either the accusatorial or the inquisitorial method; alternatively, a combination of both may be used.

7.21 The Proctor or Chair of the Disciplinary Board shall decide on any question of law, procedure, or the admissibility of evidence. In deciding any question of procedure not provided for in this Code, or on the admissibility of evidence, s/he will not be bound by the formal rules of criminal procedure or evidence applicable in any court of law. Instead, s/he will follow the dictates of fairness, natural justice and relevance, even if this includes the application of the rules of procedure and evidence applicable in courts of law.
7.22 The Proctor or Chair of the Disciplinary Board may call any witness not already called, or recall any witness who has already given evidence, if s/he believes that the evidence or further evidence of that witness is essential to the just decision of the case.

7.23 After all the evidence has been presented, the Prosecutor and the accused student or his/her representative shall have the right to give a closing argument regarding guilt or innocence of the accused to the Proctor or Disciplinary Board. This argument may be delivered orally or in writing, or both.

7.24 After the conclusion of the arguments, the Proctor or Chair of the Disciplinary Board shall there and then, or after time is taken to consider the verdict, give a judgment with reasons for the verdict, as to whether or not the accused is guilty of the charge/s, alternative charge/s, or a competent verdict. In a case before a Disciplinary Board a verdict shall be reached by way of a majority vote.

7.25 Where a student is found guilty of a disciplinary offence the Prosecutor and the student or his/her representative may lead evidence in aggravation or mitigation of sanction. Thereafter the Prosecutor and the student or his/her representative may address the Proctor or Disciplinary Board on what the sanction should be. If a student is found guilty of rape, the Prosecutor shall request that the Proctor or Disciplinary Board shall exclude the student permanently.

7.26 A Proctor or Disciplinary Board may, at any time after the accused student has pleaded in terms of Rule 7.9 and before the proceedings are finalised (either by a finding of not-guilty or by the imposition of sanction in the case of a guilty finding), if there is reason to believe that there are grounds for a no-contact order, or if a no-contact order is requested by any of the parties involved, refer the matter in terms of Rule 5.1 (h).

7.27 The Proctor or Disciplinary Board will there and then, or after time is taken to consider the sanction, give a judgment setting out the reasons for sanction and the sanction imposed.

7.28 A Proctor or Disciplinary Board shall have jurisdiction to impose any one or more of the following sanctions upon a student who has been found guilty of a disciplinary offence:
   (a) Deprivation of a degree improperly obtained.
   (b) Permanent exclusion from the University.
   (c) Exclusion from the University, its premises, and from participation in all University activities (which shall include all student activities) for a specified period.
   (d) Exclusion from a specific University residence or all residences.
   (e) Exclusion from attendance at certain classes and/or University examinations, either permanently or for a specified period.
   (f) Exclusion from participation in University activities or from such post or office in the University as may be specified, either permanently or for a specified period.
   (g) Imposition of a fine not exceeding 20% of the Bachelor of Arts fee.
   (h) Payment of a sum of money required to compensate for any loss, damage, or expense caused to the University or to another person as a result of the offence.
   (i) A period of compulsory service.
   (j) Prohibition from driving or possessing a motor vehicle/motor cycle on campus. (Note: This sanction may only be imposed on a student who is found guilty of a disciplinary offence involving the use and/or driving of a motor vehicle/motorcycle).
   (k) Suspension of all or part of any of the above sanctions for a period of up to five years.
   (l) Endorsing the academic record of the student to the effect that the student’s conduct has been unsatisfactory. If the offence is of a sexual nature, including but not restricted to rape, gender based violence and sexual harassment, the nature of the offence must be specified on the transcript. In the case of all non-sexual offences the nature of the offence may be specified if so ordered by the Proctor, the Disciplinary Board or the Disciplinary Appeal Board.
   (m) Any other appropriate sanction.

7.29 Where a student has been acquitted due to lack of mental capacity, the student may not remain at the University or return to the University without undergoing a full psychiatric assessment, the findings of which must confirm that the student is of sound mind.

7.30 In assessing the sanction to be imposed on a student who has been found guilty of a disciplinary offence, the Proctor or Disciplinary Board hearing the matter, shall regard the fact that the student was under the influence of alcohol or drugs at the time the offence was committed as an aggravating factor.

7.31 Where a student has been sanctioned in terms of this Code, the sanction shall come into effect immediately regardless of whether the student intends to take the matter on appeal, unless the Vice-Chancellor, on written application by the student, decides that there is good cause to suspend the implementation of the sanction pending the outcome of an appeal. The written application by the student shall set out fully all relevant facts and submissions that he or she wishes the Vice-Chancellor to consider in arriving at a decision in this regard.

7.32 If there is reason to believe that a condition upon which the whole or a portion of a suspended sanction rests has been breached, the student shall, on two days' notice, be required to attend an enquiry for the purpose of establishing whether or not an order should be made bringing the suspended sanction into operation.

7.33 If a student who has been directed to appear before a Proctor or Disciplinary Board fails to appear at the place, date, and time specified in the notice, fails to remain in attendance or to attend any adjourned proceedings, the Prosecutor shall make all reasonable attempts to locate the student. If the Proctor or Disciplinary Board is satisfied that all reasonable attempts have been made to contact the accused the hearing shall proceed in his/her absence.

7.34 If, during the course of a hearing before a Proctor or Disciplinary Board, it comes to the knowledge of a Prosecutor that a student appearing at such hearing may have committed any disciplinary offence/s other than, or in addition to, those with which s/he has been charged, the Prosecutor may charge the student concerned with such supplementary disciplinary offence/s and, provided that the provisions of this Code in relation to particulars and time to prepare are satisfied, the enquiry may then proceed. The evidence lead until that point will retain its full force and effect.

7.35 At any disciplinary hearing before a Proctor or Disciplinary Board, no person/s other than the Proctor, members of the Disciplinary Board, Prosecutor/s, Assistant Prosecutors, the accused and his/her representative, parent/s, legal guardian/s, counsellor or any person requested by the complainant may attend. The status of a parent, legal guardian, counsellor, or person requested by the complainant, is strictly that of an observer who may support the student and not in any way engage in the process. The Proctor or Chair of the Disciplinary Board retains the right to exclude any of these parties from a hearing on the grounds of inappropriate behaviour.

7.36 If a student appearing at a hearing before a Proctor or Disciplinary Board conducts him/herself in a manner which makes the continuance of the proceedings in his/her presence impossible or impractical, the Proctor or the Chair of the Disciplinary Board may, after warning the student of the consequences of such conduct, direct that s/he be removed. On such occasions, the proceedings will continue in his/her absence.

7.37 Within seven days of the imposition of a sanction by a Proctor or Disciplinary Board, the Proctor or Chair of the Disciplinary Board shall record the charge/s, plea/s, material facts found proved, including aggravating and mitigating circumstances, if any, the reasons for the verdict, the verdict, the sanction imposed, and the reasons for the imposition of the sanction, and forward such record to the Registrar, the Prosecutor/s and the convicted student and his/her representative. This document constitutes the record of the proceedings.

7.38 The record should be made available to the Prosecutor/s and any student summoned to appear before a Proctor, or his/her representative, so that it may be referred to as a precedent in future enquiries or be used by such student in the preparation of her/his defence.

7.39 If either the Proctor or the Director: Special Projects is of the view that the sensitivity of a particular case renders publication of the details undesirable, s/he may withhold or restrict publication.

7.40 If a student is not able to complete any compulsory service within the time specified by a Proctor or Disciplinary Board, written application for an extension of time shall be made to the Registrar. The Registrar, after consultation with a Prosecutor, may authorise an extension provided that he/she is satisfied that valid grounds exist.

8. APPEAL FROM A PROCTOR OR DISCIPLINARY BOARD

8.1 A student who has been found guilty and sanctioned by a Proctor or Disciplinary Board shall, have the right to appeal such decision. Such an appeal will be a ‘wide appeal’, which may incorporate grounds of appeal and/or review. This Rule must be read in conjunction with Rule 8.7.

8.2 The appeal will be decided by a Disciplinary Appeal Committee appointed by the Vice-Chancellor or his/her designate.

8.3 A student (or his/her representative) wishing to exercise the right of appeal shall, within five days of receiving the record referred to in paragraph 7.37, advise the Registrar in writing that s/he wishes to have the case appealed. The request for appeal shall be accompanied by a deposit of an amount to be determined on an annual basis and payable to the Registrar, which shall serve as part payment for costs related to the appeal, which shall immediately become due and payable. The deposit shall only be refundable to the student in the event that the conviction is quashed.

8.4 At the request of the student (or his/her representative) the digital recording of the proceedings will be made available to a recognised transcription service. Such request must be made within five days of advising the Registrar in writing that the student wishes to have the case appealed. The full cost of the transcription of the entire digital recording shall be borne by the student and arrangement for the transcription shall be made by the student. If the student wishes to rely on the recording in the appeal proceedings, s/he will be responsible for providing the members of the Disciplinary Appeal Committee and the Prosecutor/s with a transcription of the entire digital recording by an organisation or business that normally transcribes court records, at his/her own cost.

8.5 Within 5 days of the record being transcribed the student (or his/her representative) may submit written submissions (in regard to the appeal) to the Disciplinary Appeal Committee (and a copy provided to the Prosecutor/s). In the event that the student does not have the record transcribed as provided for in paragraph 8.4 above, the student (or his/her representative) may submit written submissions (in regard to the appeal) to the Disciplinary Appeal Committee (and a copy provided to the Prosecutor/s). In the event that the student wishes to have the case appealed.

8.6 Within 5 days of having received the written submissions of the student (or his/her representative), or should the student (or his/her representative) fail to submit written submissions, within five days of the last day on which the student (or his/her representative) was entitled to submit such written submissions, the Prosecutor/s may submit written submissions to the Disciplinary Appeal Committee (and a copy provided to the student or his/her representative).

8.7 Should the Prosecutor/s be of the view that the sanction imposed by a Proctor or Disciplinary Board is so lenient as to be unjust, s/he shall have the right to have the sanction appealed before a Disciplinary Appeal Committee.

8.8 The Disciplinary Appeal Committee shall decide the outcome of the appeal solely upon a consideration of the record and the written submissions of both parties. No further evidence and/or submissions unless specifically requested by the Disciplinary Appeal Committee, shall be permitted.

8.9 The Disciplinary Appeal Committee shall have the following powers:

(a) To confirm, alter or reject the decision or find the student guilty on an alternative charge or competent verdict;

(b) To confirm, reduce, increase, alter or set aside the sanction and replace it with an appropriate sanction;

(c) Generally to give such judgment or impose such sanction or make such order as the Disciplinary Appeal Committee deems fit.

8.10 The decision of the Disciplinary Appeal Committee shall be determined by a majority vote.

8.11 The Chairperson in consultation with the members of the Disciplinary Appeal Committee shall within seven days of having received written submissions by both parties (alternatively, should either party not make any written submissions, within 10 days of the record being transcribed) provide the student involved, the Prosecutor/s and the Registrar with a written report setting out the Disciplinary Appeal Committee’s decision and the reasons for such decision.

9. LOWER DISCIPLINARY AUTHORITIES

Lower Disciplinary authorities include Assistant Wardens, Wardens, Hall Wardens, Oppidan Wardens, a Hall Disciplinary Panel, designated Library staff, designated Information Technology staff and designated Campus Protection Unit staff.

9.1 A member of a Lower Disciplinary Authority shall be disqualified from exercising any of the functions or powers conferred upon him/her by this Code in a disciplinary hearing, if s/he witnessed all or any of the conduct alleged to constitute the disciplinary offence, or is the complainant, or has a personal interest in the matter except in the circumstances outlined in 9.5 below.

9.2 There must be a separation of powers. The person chairing the hearing cannot be the person investigating and presenting the case in order to comply with the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, and the rules of natural justice and fairness.
9.3 Hall/House Wardens shall not have jurisdiction over shoplifting.

9.4 No legal representation or person with legal qualifications will be permitted to represent a student appearing before a Lower Disciplinary Authority. A student appearing before such authority may, however, be accompanied by a Sub-Warden, a Hall or House Senior/Head Student, a SRC Defence Counsellor, a member of the SRC or any other student. Such person shall be referred to as the accused student’s advisor. Should the student’s advisor (as per the definition) be a law student, an Assistant Prosecutor may be appointed to represent the University at the Lower Disciplinary Hearing.

9.5 Any student in respect of whom a Hall/House Warden has jurisdiction shall have his/her hearing before the Hall/House Warden alone or in exceptional circumstances at the discretion of the Hall Warden, before a Hall Disciplinary Panel. A Hall Disciplinary Panel shall consist of at least one Hall Warden, one Senior / Head Student, one House Warden, one Fellow, and one Hall SRC representative. The panel is to be chaired by either a Hall Warden, a Warden or a Hall Fellow.

9.6 Students who are charged with certain disciplinary offences, which are agreed to from time to time by the Disciplinary Committee, may, rather than appearing before a Lower Disciplinary Authority, be permitted to admit their guilt in accordance with the admission of guilt sanctions as laid down from time to time by the Registrar after consultation with the Disciplinary Committee. It should be noted that there are five admissions of guilt sanction documents relating to offences falling within the jurisdiction of Oppidan Hall Wardens, Hall/House Wardens, the Library, Information Technology and the Campus Protection Unit. In the case of an admission of guilt, separation of powers is not necessary. The student concerned will, however, always have the right to appear before the relevant disciplinary authority. S/he cannot be compelled to admit guilt. Any student issued with a notice that an admission of guilt sanction may be imposed in respect of a particular offence who elects to appear before a disciplinary authority rather than accept the sanction shall notify the Oppidan Warden, Hall/House Warden, Director: Library Services or Director: Information Technology, or in the case of traffic offences the Head: Campus Protection Unit, in writing within seven days of being issued with such notice. If no such notice has been given, the relevant authority may, after a further seven days, impose the prescribed period of compulsory service or debit the student’s fees account.

9.7 A Hall/House Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel shall have jurisdiction over the following students:
(a) all students resident in the Hall/House concerned;
(b) all students who commit a disciplinary offence in any of the constituent houses of the Hall/House, the dining halls or the precincts which form part of the Hall/House. If there is concurrent jurisdiction, the Hall Warden of the Hall where the alleged offence occurred shall exercise jurisdiction unless there is agreement to the contrary;
(c) In order to ensure a separation of powers as set out in Rule 9.2 above, a Hall Warden may hear a case emanating from any other Hall. This will only apply where the Hall Warden does not exercise his/her discretion to convene a Hall Disciplinary Panel.

9.8 The Oppidan Hall Warden shall have jurisdiction over all students who are not in residence. Where the alleged conduct has taken place off campus, there must both be a sufficient link between the alleged conduct in question and Rhodes University, and / or it must be reasonably likely to bring Rhodes University into disrepute. The Oppidan Hall Warden shall not have jurisdiction over shoplifting, domestic violence and contraventions off campus of the National Road Traffic Act 93 of 1996, and its regulations, as amended.

9.9 A Hall/House Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel shall have jurisdiction over the following offences:
(a) All offences set out in Rule 4 unless there is a possibility that a sanction greater than that of the jurisdiction of a Hall/House Warden may be justified, in which case, the Prosecutor/s must be consulted for a decision as to which disciplinary authority shall hear the matter.
(b) A contravention of any Hall or House Rule.

9.10 A Hall/House Warden shall have the power to search and seize as set out in the definition section. Such search and seizure must be carried out in terms of the Protocol for search and seizure on Rhodes University campus, as read with the Protocol for Students on the Use of Illicit Drugs.

9.11 The Oppidan Hall Warden shall have jurisdiction over all offences set out in Rule 4 unless there is a possibility that a sanction greater than that of the jurisdiction of a Hall Warden may be justified, in which case, the Prosecutor/s must be consulted for a decision as to which disciplinary authority shall hear the matter;
9.12 The Hall Wardens and Oppidan Warden shall provide a written update at the end of each term of the cases in their Hall to the Director: Student Affairs of the progress made with each case dealt with by the Hall. The Director: Student Affairs shall collate all such reports and provide a written update in June and November of each year of Lower Disciplinary cases to the Director: Special Projects of the progress made with each case dealt with by the Lower Authorities.

10. PROCEDURE IN HEARINGS BEFORE LOWER DISCIPLINARY AUTHORITIES

10.1 Where a Warden is satisfied that a student has committed a disciplinary offence and the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel has jurisdiction, s/he should:

(a) Draw up a notice setting out the disciplinary offence/s allegedly committed, the date, time and place of the offence/s, the person against whom the offence/s was/were allegedly committed (if any), the property in respect of which the offence/s were committed (if any), and any other relevant details sufficient to inform the accused student of the charge/s she/he has to meet. The notice must also set out the date, time, and place of the hearing.

(b) The notice must be served on the student in person. Should the student not be located in person in the first instance, the notice may be served via email to the student’s official Rhodes University email address. The student shall then be deemed to be served.

(c) The notice must be served on the accused at least three days before the date of the hearing.

(d) The Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel may postpone the hearing if a valid reason is given.

(e) When all the parties are assembled the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Chair of the Hall Disciplinary Panel shall read the charge/s to the accused student. The accused student will be required to answer the charge/s (i.e. plead to the charge/s). S/he may:

(i) Deny that s/he committed the offence – plead “not guilty”. Should the student plead “not guilty” it is at this point that a separation of power must be implemented.

(ii) Admit that s/he committed the offence – plead “guilty”.

(f) Where a student pleads guilty, the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Chair of the Hall Disciplinary Panel shall question the student to ensure that the student’s plea includes all the relevant facts of the offence.

(g) If the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel is satisfied that the student’s answer to the charge is a genuine and complete admission of the charge with no defence – pleads guilty – the student may be found guilty of the charge without any evidence being heard.

(h) Where a student denies the charge or pleads not guilty the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Chair of the Hall Disciplinary Panel may question the student to ascertain which of the allegations in the charge/s are in dispute. The student must, however, be informed that s/he is not obliged to answer any of the questions posed to him/her. Where a student elects to answer questions and admits any of the allegations in the charge/s, they will be regarded as proved.

(i) Where a student denies the charge – pleads not guilty – the Presenter shall lead oral evidence in support of the charge.

(j) Witnesses appearing before a Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel will be required to affirm that the evidence they will give will be truthful.

(k) An accused student or his/her representative will have the right to cross-examine any witnesses called by the Presenter. Thereafter such witnesses may be re-examined by the Presenter. Each witness will be examined, cross-examined, or re-examined (as the case may be) by only one person at a time – though not necessarily the same person for different witnesses.

(l) An accused student shall have the right to remain silent or to give evidence on affirmation, provided that the student shall not be compelled to give evidence. Where the student is assisted / represented his/her advisor may lead the evidence on behalf of the accused. She/he may then be cross-examined by the Presenter. After cross-examination, re-examination may follow.

(m) An accused student will have the right to call witnesses. Should the accused elect to give evidence his/her evidence must be heard before that of his/her witnesses.

(n) The Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel may ask questions of any witness, including the accused student, at any time whilst they are giving evidence.

(o) After all the evidence has been led or presented, the Presenter and the accused student or his/her advisor shall have the right to make a final statement should they so wish.

(p) Thereafter the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel shall deliver a decision as to whether the accused student is found either guilty or not guilty of the charge/s.

(q) Where a student is found guilty of a disciplinary offence/s, both the Presenter and the student or his/her advisor may present argument in aggravation or mitigation of sanction.

(r) Thereafter the Presenter and the student or his/her advisor may address the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel on what the sanction should be.

(s) The Hall/House Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel will give a decision setting out the reasons for sanction and the sanction imposed.

(t) A Hall Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel may impose the following sanctions:
   (i) Exclusion from the Hall.
   (ii) A fine not exceeding 10% of the Bachelor of Arts fee.
   (iii) Compulsory service up to 75 (seventy five) hours.
   (iv) Exclusion from participation in any Hall or House activity for a maximum of 1 (one) term.
   (v) Exclusion from any post or office in the Hall, except that of Sub-Warden.
   (vi) Suspension of all or part of any of the above sanctions for a period of up to 5 (five) years.
   (vii) Payment of compensation to make good any loss, damage or expense caused to the University or to any other person as a result of the offence; and (viii) Suspension of visiting rights for a period of time.

(u) An Oppidan Warden may impose the following sanctions:
   (i) A fine not exceeding 10% of the Bachelor of Arts fee.
   (ii) Compulsory service up to 75 (seventy five) hours.
   (iii) Exclusion from any post or office in the Hall, except that of Sub-Warden.
   (iv) Suspension of all or part of any of the above sanctions for a period of up to 5 (five) years; and
   (v) Payment of compensation to make good any loss, damage or expense caused to the University or to any other person as a result of the offence.

10.2 In assessing the sanction to be imposed on a student who has been found guilty of a disciplinary offence, the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel hearing the matter shall regard the fact that the student was under the influence of alcohol/liquor/drugs at the time the offence was committed as an aggravating factor. As far as common law crimes are concerned, the provisions of Section 2 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act 1 of 1988 shall apply.

10.3 A House Warden or Assistant Warden may impose the following sanctions:
   (a) A fine not exceeding 5% of the Bachelor of Arts fee.
   (b) Compulsory service up to 50 (fifty) hours.
   (c) Suspension of all or part of any of the above sanctions for a period of up to 1 (one) year subject to a specified condition; and
   (d) Suspension of visiting rights for a period of time.

10.4 The Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel must inform the student that they have the right to take the matter on appeal as contemplated in Rule 8 (with the necessary changes as required by the context).

10.5 If a student who has been directed to appear before a Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel fails to appear at the place and on the date and at the time specified in the notice, or fails to remain in attendance, or to attend any adjourned proceedings, the Presenter shall make all reasonable attempts to locate the student. If the Hall/House Warden is satisfied that all reasonable attempts have been made to contact the accused the hearing shall proceed in his/her absence.

10.6 If, during the course of a hearing before a Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel, it comes to the knowledge of a Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel that a student appearing at such hearing may have committed any disciplinary offence/s other than, or in addition to, those with which she/he has been charged, the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel may charge the student concerned with such supplementary disciplinary offence/s and, provided that the provisions of this Code in relation to particulars and time to prepare are satisfied, the enquiry may then proceed, the evidence led to that stage retaining its full force and effect.

10.7 The Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel shall have the right to direct that any student attends and gives evidence and remains in attendance until excused from a disciplinary hearing.

10.8 If a student appearing at a hearing before a Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel conducts him/herself in a manner which makes the continuance of the proceedings in his/her presence impossible or impractical, the Hall/House Warden, Oppidan Warden or Hall Disciplinary Panel may, after warning the student of the consequences of such conduct, direct that s/he be removed. On such occasions, the proceedings will continue in his/her absence.

10.9 Where a student has been sanctioned in terms of this Code, the sanction shall come into effect immediately regardless of whether the student intends to take the matter on appeal, unless the Vice-Chancellor, on written application by the student, decides that there is good cause to suspend the implementation of the sanction pending the outcome of an appeal. The written application by the student shall set out fully all relevant facts and submissions that he or she wishes the Vice-Chancellor to consider in arriving at a decision in this regard.

11. SUB-WARDENING STAFF

The student concerned will, however, always have the right to appear before the relevant disciplinary authority. S/he cannot be compelled to admit guilt. Any student issued with a notice that an admission of guilt sanction may be imposed in respect of a particular offence who elects to appear before a disciplinary authority rather than accept the sanction shall notify the Director: Library Services in writing within seven days of being issued with such notice. The student concerned will, however, always have the right to appear before the relevant disciplinary authority. S/he cannot be compelled to admit guilt. Any student issued with a notice that an admission of guilt sanction may be imposed in respect of a particular offence who elects to appear before a disciplinary authority rather than accept the sanction shall notify the Director: Information & Technology Services in writing within seven days of being issued with such notice. (c) Students who are charged with certain disciplinary offences, which are agreed to from time to time by the Disciplinary Committee, may be permitted to admit their guilt in accordance with the admission of guilt sanctions as laid down from time to time by the Registrar after consultation with the Disciplinary Committee, rather than appear before a Lower Disciplinary Authority. The student concerned will, however, always have the right to appear before the relevant disciplinary authority. S/he cannot be compelled to admit guilt. Any student issued with a notice that an admission of guilt sanction may be imposed in respect of a particular offence who elects to appear before a disciplinary authority rather than accept the sanction shall notify the Head: Campus Protection Unit in writing within seven days of being issued with such notice. If no such notice has been given, the relevant authority may, after a further seven days, impose the prescribed period of compulsory service or debit the student’s fees account.

STUDENT AFFAIRS

THE SPORTS COUNCIL

Sport and recreation, due largely to the residential nature of the campus, play a very important role in the life of the student at Rhodes. 1987 saw the introduction of the new Sports Council (formerly Sports Union) constitution which seeks to provide the infrastructure and facilities to cater for all sporting groups on campus.

In order to accommodate these needs, the Sports Council has some thirty (30) affiliated clubs which cater for a wide range of interest at high performance, competitive and social/recreational levels. Sport at Rhodes is unique in that all students are automatically members of the Sport Council and are thus free to make use of certain of the facilities without being obliged to join a particular club. However, students wishing to play sport or take part in recreational pursuits at a higher level do need to join clubs in order to take advantage of the structured programmes presented by the Sports Council.

The compact nature of the campus provides all sporting facilities within easy walking distance of the residences. The easy accessibility and availability of facilities are responsible for the very high participation rate (85%) in sport and recreation by the student population. The student committees of the sports clubs take care of the day to day organization of the club activities assisted by professional Sports Officers who provide the infrastructure which allows the clubs to operate effectively.

The clubs generally provide for participation at two levels. Those students involved in competitive sport participate in the Nelson Mandela Bay and Sarah Baartman District sports federations. The second important level of participation is the intra-mural programme which takes care of the needs of those sportsmen and women who wish to be involved on a more social basis.

It is the Sports Council’s philosophy that sport and recreation play a vital role in the overall educational experience of every student. In an attempt to involve as many students as possible the Sports Council offers a wide range of activities which include:

- Aikido, Aquatics, Archery, Athletics, Basketball, Canoe, Chess, Cricket, Dance Sport, First Aid, Fly Fishing, Golf, Hockey, Mixed Martial Arts, Mountain, Netball, Pool, Rifle, Rowing, Rugby, Sailing, Soccer, Squash, Surfing, Table Tennis, Tae Kwon do, Tennis, Volleyball and Underwater.

In addition to these activities the Rhodes University Health Suite offers Aerobics and Indoor Cycling Classes and a well-equipped Weight Training Facility.

The Secretary is responsible for co-ordinating all areas of the Union’s activity and is available to help and advise Oppidans wherever possible.
The Students' Representative Council is a legislated body whose members are elected annually. Its primary purpose is to represent the student body both within and outside campus. It also negotiates with the university authorities on their behalf. In addition, the University’s numerous clubs and societies fall under the Council’s jurisdiction. The SRC also organises schemes for the benefit of students.

Freedom of Association
- The membership, policies and actions of a student society will be voted on by those who hold bona fide membership in the University community.

- Student societies shall not discriminate based on race, creed or national origin in the determination of membership, although religious qualification may be required for some societies whose aims are primarily related to the furtherance of their religious beliefs.

Freedom of Enquiry and Expression

- Students and student societies shall be free to discuss all questions of interest and to express opinions publicly and privately. They should be free to conduct orderly enquiry into decisions and actions that affect their environments, as well as respond to them through public expressions or demonstrations. Students and authorised student societies shall be allowed to invite and to hear other opinions on institutional policies. Institutional control over campus facilities should not be used as a device of censorship.
- The University should strive to safeguard against physical abuse of students who, by orderly and legal means, demonstrate their freedom of enquiry and expression. The university will not take disciplinary action against students who question traditional values or expose unpopular causes.

Student participation in Institutional Governance

Students should be free to express, individually and collectively, their views on issues of institutional policy and of general interest where inconsistencies exist between practice and the theoretical principles outlined by the University.

The SRC assists in the Organization of Orientation Week.

Externally the SRC maintains contact with other educational institutions and arranges seminars and speakers on issues of general interest to students.

In terms of the Student Disciplinary Code, the SRC may take disciplinary action against students who break University rules. All disciplinary action is reported to the Vice-Chancellor, who deals with more serious offences.

THE STUDENT SERVICES COUNCIL (SSC)
In accordance with tertiary education legislation, a Student Services Council has been established. In compliance with this legislation, the SSC has equal university staff and student representation. Being a subcommittee of Senate, the SSC makes recommendations directly to Senate, and thereby to Council.

The SSC has been given the task of examining every aspect of student life with the goal of integrating every student of the University into campus life as quickly as possible, so that each student may become academically productive in the shortest possible time. This will be achieved by ensuring that students from different backgrounds feel socially and culturally at ease in all aspects of campus life.

Students are encouraged to approach the Director of Student Affairs, or indeed any member of the SSC, with recommendations, complaints, etc about any aspect of student life on the Rhodes campuses.
RHODES UNIVERSITY TIMETABLE 2020

The university lecture and practical timetable, and the distribution of lectures to lecture venues can be found on the website, at https://scifac.ru.ac.za/timetable

As last minute adjustments are often made to the timetable after registration has allowed planners to assess the sizes of classes, readers are urged to consult this definitive website regularly. The website also supplies an easy-to-use system that students and others may use to determine whether their favoured combinations of courses can possibly fit into the constraints of the timetable without clashes.

Lectures (of 45 minutes duration) are held from Mondays to Fridays at the following times:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Period</th>
<th>Time</th>

In Science, Pharmacy and Commerce the afternoons are often used for practical classes that normally run over two or three hours, from 14:00.

Tests and tutorials are scheduled during the day and occasionally in the evening (for very large classes) at a selection of times to suit the structure of each course. These are not shown on the lecture timetable. Some subjects appear to have no timetabled classes - times for these are arranged by the Department. Others, marked , have timetables that may have to be adjusted after registration is completed (these relate to very small classes).

Lectures for several subjects, notably Accounting 1, Computer Science 112, Economics 1, 2 and 3, Information Systems 201, Management 1, Psychology 1, Sociology 1, Statistics 1D and Theory of Finance are offered in alternative slots, as the classes are too large to be accommodated in any of the existing lecture rooms at one time. At the beginning of the year a computer system is run to allocate all registered undergraduates to each of their lectures, practicals and tutorials in a way that optimizes the use of facilities, and students are expected to comply with this allocation.

The lecture timetable is kept as stable as possible from year to year. However, it is the responsibility of students to ensure that their planned and proposed curricula do not contain any clashes, not only for the current year of study, but also for the years ahead. Attention is drawn to General Rule G6.2 of the Calendar. Each year some students complain when they discover that the timetable will not suit them, claim that they “have not been told”, and ask that the timetable be modified to accommodate their lack of forward planning. Such requests cannot be met.

Once it has been drawn up for each semester, the examination timetable is published on the website. Links to this appear at https://scifac.ru.ac.za/examtime.htm

You will thus lose your place in residence and the University will have little chance of assisting you other than to suggest that you move into digs. If you have problems please contact us before 17 January 2020, as we will do whatever we can to assist you in retaining your place in residence, but after that date, there is little we can do.

NOTES FOR ALL STUDENTS

Fee remissions, concessions and special arrangements (full-time students only)
Where a parent has more than one child attending the University at the same time, as full-time students, an application may be made to the Director

Academic Merit Award Scheme (SA students only)
Special merit awards are automatically made by the University to eligible students enrolling for the first time for an undergraduate degree. The awards, ranging from R32 900 to Full tuition fee, are based on the final National Senior Certificate examination results. The awards do not cover the DHET Fee Adjustment Grant so the grant should be applied for, if applicable. Should the student withdraw from Rhodes University during the academic year, the merit award will be reduced on a pro rata basis. In order to qualify for one of these awards a student would have to obtain at least 47 admission points in the National Senior Certificate examination.

Please note that International Students are not eligible for merit awards.

Holders of recognised scholarships/bursaries/loans
Fees due to the University are a first charge on any scholarship, bursary or loan granted by the University, or paid to the University from other sources, for a student. If the total amount paid exceeds the fees payable, the student may draw the balance on condition that the Bursar has given written permission.

Please note that it is the responsibility of the student to ensure that bursary donors make payments timeously and in accordance with the University regulations. Students who hold full bursaries are reminded that they will require funds on arrival at the University for the purchasing of books etc., as it is not University policy to make loans or advances against bursaries prior to the funds being received.

Oppidan fee (for clarity please refer http://www.ru.ac.za/oppidan/faq/)
Note that there is a compulsory Oppidan fee of R325.00.

Caution
Please ensure that payments made to the University Bank Account, are done by Direct Deposits or Internet Transfers only. Payments made by way of cheques made payable to “Rhodes University” marked “Not transferable” will attract a clearance charge of R195 and are strongly discouraged. No responsibility is accepted for bank notes or other forms of remittances missing from letters addressed to the University or to members of the University using its address.

External Loans
Please note it is the responsibility of students negotiating loans with financial or other institutions to ensure that all payments are made to the University by the dates specified above. The Initial Fee Payment may NOT be reduced by virtue of a student having negotiated a loan with a financial or other institution. Monies once paid into a student account will not be refunded unless all fees have been paid and a credit balance is reflected on the account irrespective of any bursaries held or meal refunds due to the student.

Penalties for noncompliance
The University will not issue certificates of any description to students whose fees are in arrears.

Unpaid accounts
Unpaid accounts where no prior agreed arrangement has been made and met are subject to an interest charge at the rate of 0.75% per month on amounts in arrears.

Account refunds or payments to students will be made via Electronic Fund Transfer (EFT). Credit balance refunds will only be made upon receipt of a written application from the person/organisation responsible for paying the account, supported by a certified copy of the bank account details into which the funds are to be deposited.

Notice of withdrawal – deregistration from Rhodes as well as withdrawing from residence
All students, both postgraduate and undergraduate, or their parents or guardians must give notice of intention to discontinue attendance, in writing, to the Registrar. A separate letter requesting a refund of any monies due must be sent to the Director of Finance.
• Any student who has registered for a course of study and who, for any reason leaves during the year is liable for a pro-rata fee up to the date of cancellation for tuition and or residence fees, the basis of calculation will be on 248 days for the year.

• Any student who withdraws their application for tuition or residence, before registration will be liable for a cancellation fee of 10% if less than one month’s notice is given or 2.5% if longer.

• In the case of an early withdrawal from Residence, for any reason, other than immediate family bereavement, medical illness or academic exclusion, a cancellation fee of two months Residence Fee will be levied over and above the fee calculation for the period of residence accommodation. A penalty will not be charged if a provisional residence booking is cancelled prior to the Initial Fee (IF) deadline of 17 January 2020.

In terms of Section 17 of the CPA it states:

(3) a service provider may charge a reasonable fee for cancellation.

(4) regard must be had to the nature of the service, the length of notice to cancellation, the reasonable potential to find an alternative consumer (in our case this would be a student) and the general practice of the relevant industry (in our case, other universities)”
TUITION FEES
Block fees
The regulations of the various faculties prescribe the number of courses fulltime students are normally expected to take in each year of their curriculum. Unless otherwise stated, the annual block fees include tuition fees for classes and laboratories, fees for ordinary University examinations and library fees for the normal number of courses. Fulltime students taking fewer than the normal number of courses in any given year will still be liable for the full block fee.

OTHER FEE CONSIDERATIONS
Additional courses
Subject to the regulations of the various Faculties, undergraduate students may take in any year one course more than the normal number prescribed for that year of their curriculum without extra charge. Fulltime postgraduate students may take in any year one undergraduate course free of charge, provided that they have obtained the prior approval of their head of department and of the Dean of the Faculty, and provided that a postgraduate student in Law may take first year courses in any one language subject in any year without extra charge. The undergraduate course becomes payable separately once deregistered from full-time course.

Single course fees
Students doing one course towards their degree must be registered as full-time, but will be charged the single course fee.

Departmental and additional charges
These are for course materials, handouts, field trips, printing vouchers, etc. and are additional charges to the student fee account. These charges vary as they depend on the courses taken and options chosen in each year of study.

Societies: Charges to student accounts
These refer to subscriptions to societies to be charged to student accounts. No further subscriptions will be charged after 31 March of each academic year.

Cost of meals:
Meals for Oppidans (Students who live off-campus)
Meal options available are breakfast, lunch and supper on weekdays and weekends. The costs vary:
Breakfast R15.00
Lunch/Supper R39.00 (each)

Meals for residence students:
Breakfast R11.00
Lunch/Supper R26.00 (each)

EXAMINATION FEES
Must be paid at the start of each semester for ordinary examinations written by students returning to write on extended DP certificates.
Students who fail to provide acceptable identification at examinations will be fined R300.00 per exam session.

RESIDENCE FEES – ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

a. Residence fees differ because some residences have better facilities and/or are desirably located.
b. Students’ accommodation is based on single rooms. Adjustments are made in fees where students change residences. All residence fees are levied at the full rate for a single room in the appropriate residence at the beginning of the year. Where, for University convenience, students are permitted to share accommodation a 25% discount of the lodging fees may be claimed by the student for the period that the room was shared and per term. Application for the rebate must be made to the Administrative Assistant: Student Accommodation in the Residential Operations Division at the end of each term. Claims for a rebate, which has not been lodged by the end of the following term will be disallowed. For the purpose of discounts and adjustments, the residence year is taken as 248 days (PG Residences 340 days). A student does not have the right to claim an allowance for sharing a room where single accommodation in the residence is available.
c. No charge is made for linen supplied or for laundry services. Students must provide their own towels and toilet soap.
d. No deduction is made from residence fees if a student is away from residence because of illness, or for any other reason, other than where the prescribed course of study required such absence. (Certificates to this effect must be obtained from the relevant academic Head of Department and submitted to the Residential Operations Division).
e. Unbooked meals will be refunded to students’ fee accounts at the end of each semester. Refunds will be limited to a maximum of R2,230.58 per semester for those in undergraduate residences and R3,159.99 per semester for those in postgraduate residences.
f. Accommodation for students in undergraduate residences is available for a specific fee during the April vacation periods. No vacation accommodation is offered during the mid-year recess or the December/January period.
g. Students who have withdrawn from residence must vacate their rooms within 24 hours of having given such notification to the University.

Residence fee remissions

Applications for residence fee remissions must be made to the Deputy Director: Residential Operations. Residence fee remissions will only be considered in cases of family emergencies (e.g.: immediate family bereavement, illness of student, etc.).
