DOCUMENTS AND INFORMATION THAT MUST ACCOMPANY THIS APPLICATION:

- 1. A brief (1-2 page) curriculum vitae, highlighting your academic and other achievements and activities over the past two or three years. (The committee is interested in your academic excellence, your intellectual range, and your initiative or leadership in social and cultural activities.)
  - 2. A piece of writing of any length (but not more than 500 words) in any genre that best captures your outstanding talents. You could compose a short poem, a narrative or any other form of creative writing that will give the selection panel an idea of what makes you exceptional. This may include previous works/assignments done. (Do not rewrite your CV.)
  - 3. An up to date official transcript of your academic record at university or a certified copy of such a transcript. (The committee needs the most up to date official information. A certificate from your faculty or department giving results not yet in the transcript may be added.)

4. Any other evidence of your suitability as a candidate. (This may include evidence of merit awards or of your excellence as a teacher, translator, interpreter, scriptwriter or other language practitioner.)
  5. The contact particulars of two academic referees who are qualified to comment on how good you are as a university student of English and who are prepared to support your application. You should approach the referees and ask for their support before submitting their names. You must give each referee a copy of the attached letter with your particulars filled in. Please ask referees to confirm by email that they have sent the reference, but the reference itself should remain confidential. Referees are asked to send their confidential reports directly to the Babette Taute Trust. (Email Ms Naaznien Parker at Naaznien.Parker@sanlam.co.za) Advise referees that the subject line of the email to Sanlam should read: “Babette Taute 2021 Reference: (Your Surname)”.
  6. Please send your final results by 30 November 2020. If you have a transcript of final results by 30 November 2020, please send it. If official results are not yet available, please send at least your final grade for English, endorsed by the Course Convenor or Head of Department. Where no results are available, please inform Sanlam by email. The selection panel prefers to see full results where available, but your application will not be prejudiced if final marks have not been released. (All results should be sent to Naaznien.Parker@sanlam.co.za with the subject line: “Babette Taute 2021 Final Results: Surname”)

INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS ARE NOT CONSIDERED. ALL APPLICATIONS MUST INCLUDE THE REFEREES LETTERS.

7. Should your application be successful, the Babette Taute Trust and Selection Panel would like you to send your midyear and final results for the 2021 study year, together with a short cover letter informing us of your progress and plans.

Sanlam Trust, P O Box 1260, Sanlamhof, 7532

08 September 2020

Dear Colleague

We are most grateful for your comments as to the suitability of the following candidate for a Babette Taute 2021 Honours Scholarship.

Applicant's name: .....

Applicant's email address and telephone/mobile number: .....

The late Babette Taute left the major part of her estate to establish a bursary trust for students of English at South African universities who are South African citizens or permanent residents. The trustees have decided to award a number of Honours scholarships for full time study in the 2021 academic year. Each scholarship will be worth R75 000. Students of any branch of English language and literature study, including applied language studies, are eligible

Scholarships are awarded on merit, broadly interpreted. A fine academic record is a requirement for an award. The committee will have a transcript of this candidate's record available to it, but would value your interpretation of his/her intellectual quality and achievements. The committee is also interested in your comments on other indices of the candidate's merit. These might include leadership in cultural or social areas, quality of writing and publications, and excellence as a teacher of English or a translator.

Please email your confidential reference to Ms Naaznien Parker at: Naaznien.Parker@sanlam.co.za Use the subject line: "Babette Taute 2021 Reference: Surname of Applicant".

The deadline for applications and references is 30 October 2020. Do not copy the applicant in the correspondence with the Trustees, but please supply the applicant with an email confirmation that the reference has been submitted. References should remain confidential. We appreciate your time.

Yours sincerely

Ass. Prof. F.F. Moolla for the Trustees
