

Take your place among the Flanagan Scholarship recipients.

Established in the mid-1980s, the Rhodes University Patrick and Margaret Flanagan Scholarship is a prestigious and empowering Full Cost Scholarship that enables young South African women to complete their postgraduate university studies internationally. Over the decades, Flanagan Scholars have taken up leadership positions in many formerly male-dominated fields of endeavour. They have become top lawyers, global communicators, ground-breaking medical scientists, language lecturers, philosophers, journalists, literary agents, musicians, psychologists and economists working to benefit developing countries.
